FIRES IN ZERO WEATHER.

Bad Blazes At Windsor, Woodstock, Southampton and Winnipeg—Bullets Cracked in the Windsor Fire.

Windsor, Jan. 11.—Fighting fire amid the carck of bullets and the occasional report of a can of powder, was the strenuous task of the Windsor fire department yesterday morning at a bad fire in Nelson & Bros. hardware store.

The whole stock and building were entirely destroyed, as well as stocks in adjoining stores. The damage amounts to about $80,000.

The firemen and their apparatus were coated with ice, and a strong wind helped the flames. Assistance was summoned from Detroit and Walkerville, and the fireboat and firemen from Detroit succeeded in subduing the fire, which at one time threatened to destroy many places of business in Windsor's down-town district.

The loss caused by the fire is estimated between $50,000 and $60,000, fully covered by insurance. The Nelson stock was inventoried a short time ago at $35,000, while the building, which was owned by the Nelson estate, was valued at $10,000. W. Moore, the bookkeeper, said the firm carried about $40,000 in insurance on ~~stock and~~ building. G. B. Lodge carries a stock valued at $6,000 or more. His loss will be $5,000 or thereabouts, covered by insurance. The building was owned by F. H. Mann, who placed the valuation at $10,000, and says he is fully insured.

Woodstock, Jan. 11.—For a period of over four hours yesterday morning the business section of Woodstock was threatened with entire destruction by fire, causing a loss of $100,000. The conflagration originated in the basement of the store of Gardner & Co., the largest hardware store in the city, and rapidly spread to all parts of the building. As a result the entire hardware stock, valued at $35,000, was consumed, together with the new four-storey building valued at $45,000.

The flames also spread to the three dry goods stores of John White Company, Limited, and the drygoods store of Campbell Bros., adjoining on the east, and the Caister House on the west. The stock of the drygoods stores represents in value about $150,000, and practically all the goods were damaged by smoke or water, and thus the loss will be enormous. It is as yet impossible to estimate the loss to the drygoods firms.

Caught Fire From Furnace.

Southampton, Jan. 11.—The extensive plant of the Saugeen Mineral Water Co. was completely destroyed by fire Monday night. Fire was left in the furnaces to keep the buildings warm, and the flames spread and ignited the plant. The fire was fanned by a fierce blizzard, which raged in this section of the country, and all efforts to extinguish it proved futile.

Overall Factory Burned.

Winnipeg, Jan. 11.—Hoover & Company's overall manufactory was badly gutted by fire yesterday morning. The loss will amount to $20,000, but the building is insured.

WOMAN'S GREATEST ENEMY

Constipation the Cause of most Women's Troubles—An Easy Way to Permanently Cure this Painful Condition.

There are few women indeed who do not suffer with chronic constipation. Nearly all are slaves to some kind of medicine to correct this trouble, and yet they get nothing but temporary relief. One period of constipation is followed by another, and it's physic, physic, physic, year in and year out, till life becomes a burden.

There is now a sure cure for this condition and a cure that does not have to be repeated. It is Dr. Leonhardt's Anti-Pill.

Dr. Leonhardt, of Lincoln, Neb., is the author of this prescription. He used it for years with wonderful success in his own large practice as a remedy for dyspepsia, biliousness, and constipation.

Many ladies who have suffered for years are now enjoying good health and a perfect freedom from the old constipation through the use of Anti-Pill.

Mrs. Tabb, 287 Emerald St. North, Hamilton, Ont., says:

"I am no longer troubled with constipation. I cannot praise Anti-Pill too highly."

DECLINE UNANIMOUSLY

Conservative Senators and M.P.'s Hold Fast to Mr. Borden.

Text of Mr. Borden's Letter Resigning the Leadership of the Conservative Party—Requested to Attend Adjourned Caucus to Hear Supporters' Reasons For Declining His Request to Be Relieved—Mr. Foster Temporary Leader.

Ottawa, Jan. 11.—A representative meeting of Conservative Senators and members was held in the old Railway Commission room last night to discuss the question of leadership of the party. Senator Deboucherville presided. A letter from R. L. Borden, resigning the leadership, was submitted to caucus. The letter is as follows:

Mr. Borden's Letter.

To the Conservative Members of the Senate and the House of Commons:

Assembled in caucus four years ago, you bestowed upon me the highest mark of your confidence, when you required me to undertake the arduous duty and grave responsibility of leading the party in the House of Commons. To the best of my ability I have endeavored ever since to justify that confidence and gratefully acknowledge how much you have done to strengthen my hands; and I am deeply sensible that without your loyal and generous aid freely accorded on all occasions, my task would have been infinitely more onerous

We still firmly believe that the policy which we advocated and the principles which we upheld in the recent contest were truly in the best interests of Canada, and although we may regret temporary defeat, yet we do not for one moment regret the stand which we took upon the great questions of the day. Under the conditions which have ensued, it is necessary that you shall choose another leader.

My resignation has already been given informally. I now place it unreservedly in your hands with every assurance of my hearty co-operation in the ranks of the party. Let me add that the happy remembrance of your loyal support and comradeship will always abide with me.

Faithfully yours,
(Signed) R. L. Borden.

Halifax, Jan. 7, 1905.

Declined to Accept Resignation.

It was at once moved by Hon. John Haggart and seconded by Dr. Roche that caucus decline to accept the resignation and that Mr. Borden be requested to attend an adjourned meeting of caucus to hear his supporters' reasons for desiring to retain his services. Both the mover and the seconder referred in eulogistic terms to Mr. Borden. Speeches along the same line were made by Col. Sam Hughes, McCarthy of Calgary, Cockshutt of Brantford, Dr. Chisholm of East Huron, Dr. Sproule, Mr. Ames of Montreal, Claude Macdonnell of Toronto, Sir Mackenzie Bowell and Dr. Stockton of St. John. The resolution was unanimously carried.

Hon. George E. Foster then moved that Senator Deboucherville, Mr. Foster, Dr. Roche, Senator Perley, Mr. Wilmott (Queen's, Sunbury), Mr. Monk, Mr. McCarthy, Mr. Lefurgey and Mr. Taylor be appointed a committee to send a telegraphic message to R. L. Borden, conveying to him the decision of caucus, and requesting him to meet the adjourned meeting at the earliest possible moment. This resolution was also carried unanimously.

Mr. Foster Temporary Leader.

It was moved by Horace Bergeron and seconded by Dr. Sproule that pending the return of the leader to the House of Commons the senior Privy Councillor in the party should lead the Opposition. As Mr. Foster is senior Privy Councillor, the duties of temporary leader will fall on him. John Haggart is some three months the junior of Mr. Foster as Privy Councillor.

Caucus adjourned to be called at the will of the chairman.

The following is the telegraphic message which was despatched to Mr. Borden last night:

"Caucus of Conservative Senators and members unanimously decline to accept your resignation of leadership, and in the name of the party in the Senate, the House of Commons and the party throughout the Dominion respectfully request you to retain it. We desire you to attend an adjourned meeting of caucus at Ottawa at the earliest possible moment."

This telegram was signed by the members of the committee.

Mr. Marcil Deputy Speaker.

Charles Marcil, member for Bonaventure, has been appointed Deputy Speaker of the House of Commons. Mr. Marcil is a journalist, and at present represents Le Canada in the press gallery. Mr. Marcil is 45 years of age. He has been connected with The Montreal Star since 1880. He is a speaker of no ordinary eloquence and personally is popular in both sides of the House.

Formalities Dispensed With.

The formalities of introduction to the Senate will be dispensed with in the case of Sir Richard Cartwright. Sir Richard's physical infirmities are such that he will take his seat without going through the ceremony which has been invariably observed when new comers present themselves for recognition in the red chamber.

An Official Good-By.

Speaker Belcourt held an informal reception in the Speaker's Chambers yesterday afternoon, to bid an official good-by to the staff of the House, of Commons. All the departments of the House were represented and the press gallery furnished a large contingent. Speaker Belcourt spoke of the happy relations which had existed between himself and the House of Commons. The Clerk of the House, T. D. Flint, and others expressed appreciation of the distinguished services rendered by Mr. Belcourt as Speaker of the House.

Sir Wilfrid to Be There.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. G. W. Ross will speak in the Russell Theatre on Jan. 20, on behalf of the candidature of Messrs. McDougal and May. Sir Wilfrid yesterday accepted the invitation.

WHITNEY AT GUELPH.

Received a Perfect Ovation and Made a Great Impression—Joe Downey Gets Enviable Reception.

Guelph, Jan. 11.—One of the grandest audiences ever assembled at a political meeting in this city was that which was addressed last night by J. P. Whitney and Joseph Downey, the local candidate. The Opera House was jammed to the doors and there must have been at least 1,700 present, including many ladies. Mr. Downey was given a most enviable reception, and delivered a convincing and vigorous address of an hour's duration. Mr. Whitney was greeted to a perfect ovation. He was in splendid form, and a well-known politician present described the address of an hour as admirable and as making a marked impression by its sincerity and the evidence of moral backbone it indicated. The meeting closed with the usual cheers.

Be Thankful to Providence.

Cornwall, Jan. 11.—A large audience assembled in the Music Hall last night to listen to the addresses of Premier Ross and Hon. F. A. E. Evanturel. The hall wore the same decorations as on the visit of J. P. Whitney, but showed no mottoes. On entering the hall each person in the audience was handed a copy of Rev. D. C. Hossack's open letter to Mr. Ross. The circular was issued by the Citizens' Canadian League. The Premier opened by eulogizing the grand men of Cornwall, paid a compliment to Mr. McCart, and said he would not stand by to see or hear the Liberal party maligned as long as he had power to defend it. Providence had found the Liberal party. Providence kept them in power. Providence kept the Tories out. "Be thankful to Providence," he advised. Mr. Ross' peroration was a strong appeal on behalf of the local candidate, Mr. McCart. Mr. Evanturel addressed the audience in French.

Dr. W. W. Nasmith Chosen.

Hillbrook, Jan. 11.—The nomination convention of the East Durham Liberal Association was held here yesterday. Dr. W. W. Nasmith of Janetville, was chosen as Liberal candidate for the Provincial contest.

T. H. Lennox the Man.

Newmarket, Jan. 11.—T. Herbert Lennox, in a largely attended meeting of the Liberal-Conservatives of North York, was yesterday afternoon unanimously nominated to contest the riding in the approaching election. No other name was suggested. Mr. Lennox accepted the honor.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

Mr. Carroll of South Brandon, in the Manitoba Legislature, introduced a motion to revert to open ballot in Manitoba elections. It is at present being debated.

Open to the Press.

Paris, Jan. 11.—The International Commission appointed to inquire into the North Sea incident has prepared a protocol of over 20 articles governing the procedure. The question whether the pleadings should be verbal or written has not yet been decided. Provision is made that the press of the various nations shall have equal facilities during the public hearings. After the adoption of the protocol to-day the hearing of the case will begin. The expectation is that the session will last a month.

STRANGER THAN FICTION.

A Remedy Which Has Revolutionized the Treatment of Stomach Troubles.

The remedy is not heralded as a wonderful discovery nor yet a secret patent medicine, neither is it claimed to cure anything except dyspepsia, indigestion and stomach troubles with which nine out of ten suffer.

The remedy is in the form of pleasant tasting tablets or lozenges, containing vegetable and fruit essences, pure aseptic pepsin (government test), golden seal and diastase. The tablets are sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Many interesting experiments to test the digestive power of Stuart's Tablets show that one grain of the active principle contained in them is sufficient to thoroughly digest 3,000 grains of raw meat, eggs and other wholesome food.

Stuart's Tablets do not act upon the bowels like after dinner pills and cheap cathartics, which simply irritate and inflame the intestines without having effect whatever in digesting food or curing indigestion.

If the stomach can be rested and assisted in the work of digestion it will very soon recover its normal vigor, as no organ is so much abused and overworked as the stomach.

This is the secret, if there is any secret, of the remarkable success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, a remedy practically unknown a few years ago and now the most widely known of any treatment for stomach weakness.

This success has been secured entirely upon its merits as a digestive pure and simple because there can be no stomach trouble if the food is promptly digested.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets act entirely on the food eaten, digesting it completely, so that it can be assimilated into blood, nerve and tissue. They cure dyspepsia, water brash, sour stomach, gas and bloating after meals, because they furnish the digestive power which weak stomachs lack and unless that lack is supplied it is useless to attempt to cure by the use of "tonics" "pills" and cathartics which have absolutely no digestive power.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can be found at all drug stores and the regular use of one or two of them after meals will demonstrate their merit better than any other argument.

Foul Play Suspected.

Montreal, Jan. 11.—The body found in the river ice near the Lachine Rapids has been identified as that of Martin Labatt of Bradford, Eng., a young landscape artist. Nothing but papers were found in the clothing, and the body was badly disfigured from having been in the ice for some time. The police are looking into the possibility of there having been foul play. The deceased arrived in Montreal in the latter part of October, 1904.

If You Don't Buy Here We Both Lose Money

Another year has gone. It's pleasant to tell of sales far beyond all previous year's, for they indicate general prosperity as well as the progress of this store. But to you such growth means more still; it tells unmistakably of the increasing attractiveness of our Fur Goods and also the drawing power of our Fur Prices. The bigger the manufacturing business the lower the cost of production, consequently "If you don't buy here we both lose money." Just now we call attention to our extra fine showing of—

HOCKEY GOSSIP.

What the Puck Chasers Are Doing, or Are Going to Do.

T.A.S. will not play in Campbellford this afternoon as the date has been changed to tomorrow.

Friday night's game with Lindsay willl draw the biggest crowd of the season. The locals are bound to wipe out their defeat with a victory. Lindsay will run an excursion and will likely bring down about 500 rooters. It would be sad to dash the hopes of so many people to the ground, but it must be done, and Capt. Cavanagh's team are the bunch to do it.

Remember to-morrow night's City League games. The Verniers and Karnots will struggle for supremacy in the first game, which should prove an interesting contest. The Verniers have been strengthened since their first game by the addition of Fred. McGrath, of last year's Trent Valley League champions. In the second the Furriers meet the Earl Greys. The latter must win in order to keep in the running and will likely put up a good game.

The Furriers practiced last evening at the Brock street rink. They will be in the best of shape for tomorrow night's game.

The Aberdeen's and West Ends, two fast young junior teams, will meet at the Brock street rink tomorrow night after the City League games.

The seniors will have their new suits for Friday night's game with Lindsay. They will be of the same good old blue and white and are very handsome. The sweater will be blue with a white yoke and emblem and the stockings will also be blue and white.

Bracebridge, with "Bunny" Brundrette, formerly of Peterborough, at point, defeated Parry Sound by 8 to 6 the other night.

Eddie Howell must be playing a strenuous game among the professionals. In the game at the Michigan Soo on Monday night, Eddie is described as the one who started all the rough work.

Harold Armstrong will be moved back to coverpoint in the game on Saturday night between the Marlboros and St. George's. Young will take his place at rover.

Reddy McMillan and Winchester, of last year's Belleville bunch, were on opposing teams on Monday night, when Calumet met Pittsburg and both played star games.

Armstrong put up a hard, fast game, and is certainly a clever stick handler, but he might be more effective if he went after the puck more and cut out his tendency to rough checking, particularly against a man like Hamber.—Telegram.

The first game in the Guild League will be played this evening, when George street and Charlotte street will cross sticks on All Saints' rink. This should be an interesting contest, as both teams will be strong. the game will start at 7.30.

St. John's and All Saints' Guild teams will meet tomorrow evening at 8.30 in a league contest.

Port Hope Guide, Tuesday— The inclement weather last evening interfered with the turnout at the hockey match, but nevertheless some good hockey was dished up and those who braved the storm certainly got their money's worth. The opposing teams were the Peterborough juniors and the locals, and, as on previous occasions they played a close and very exciting game. It was nip and tuck all the way through and the score 2—1 is a fair indication of play. Pleased to say the locals got the big end of the score which now puts them at the head of the league, with a percentage of 1000. The Peterborough team is a fine, gentlemanly lot of players and although, like all other young hockeyists, inclined to mix it up a little, still their offences are not serious.

The spinning room of the Cordage Works challenge a team picked from the rest of the works to a game of hockey to be played on the Brock-st. rink as soon as the ice can be secured.

On a sheet of ice on the end of Bolivar-st., two hockey teams, the Water Lillies and Little Stars met in a keenly contested battle which resulted in favor of the Stars by 2—1 the half time score being one all. The teams were—

Little Stars		Water Lilies

F Dobson		C Wolff

A Lyons		F Walsh
	Cover Point
B Robinson		E Kane
	Rover.
F Nelson		W King

The following extract from the Lindsay Post is in regard to Monday night's game:—

The Lindsay seniors took their first jump towards winning the championship of the district last night by defeating Peterborough's husky and speedy bunch by 8 to 4 in the first O.H.A. game of the season. The game was very fast, especially in the second half, when both teams went in hard. The combination work of both teams was good, but Lindsay had the best of it all the way, keeping the puck around Peterborough's goal most of the time. The locals had a good jolly crowd of supporters who used their vocal organs, whenever a good piece of work was displayed.

The visitors are a heavier bunch than our boys, but have not got the speed. They played a very gentlemanly game throughout, with the exception of Morgan at centre, who was frequently on the fence for rough and intentional, trick and dirty playing.

The Peterborough seniors will practice tonight from 7 to 8 o'clock.

For Over Sixty Years

An old and well-tried remedy.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Sold by all druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

FEBRUARY DESIGNER.

The series of articles, "Housekeeping the World Over," by Laura B. Star, the initial number of which, on Mexican home life, appears in the Designer for February, will cause this already popular magazine to be more than ever eagerly welcomed, and the readers of this number of the Designer will learn "How a Man Should Propose," or at least how Lee McCrae thinks he should go through the nerve-trying ordeal. Valentine parties, a Washington supper and a Colonial drill supply the entertainment features, and the short stories are "Bread upon the Waters," a pretty love story, and "Zoe," a Valentine tale. Fancy work in embroidery, raffia, knitting and crochet is shown, and the fashions give a decided hint of spring. A special article describes becoming and comfortable tea gowns and wrappers.

LOCAL LINERS

Miss Dr. Margaret McKellar, returned missionary from India, of the Presbyterian church, will address the weekly Prayer Meeting in St. Andrew's church this evening. A large audience will undoubtedly hear Miss McKellar.

—The first meeting of the new County Council will be held on Tuesday January 24th, not on the 17th as Councillors will elect a Wadren and Provincial election it is probable the them adjourn for a few days, as most of the members are anxious to get home to record their votes.

Rev. H. G. Battersby, who has been in charge of the Church of England at Warsaw, has been transferred to Young's Point, from which Hall's Glen will be looked after. Rev. Mr. Battersby's many friends are sorry to learn of his departure, but wish him every success in his new sphere of labor.

—Chatham Banner:—The Wallaceburg Sugar Co., Limited, has just completed the season's run, having sliced 35,000 tons of beets, producing 8,000,000 pounds of sugar. In spite of the poor service of the Pere Marquette Railroad this season, all beets grown for the company were gotten to the factory in good condition, and assurances are given that under the new management the Pere Marquette will, in future, be able to meet all demands promptly. The acreage for next season is well begun, contracts coming in nicely. Prospective growers in this vicinity are asked to sign contracts early. The past season has been a most satisfactory one for the growers and many examples of very fine crops could be given. Mr. James Peel, of Dover township, grew on six acres 96 tons, 641 pounds of clean beets, which at an average price of $5.00 per ton, netted $480.87, or $81.65 per acre.

MR. KERR STUCK IN SNOW BANK

Endeavored to Reach Apsley, But Roads Were Bad.

TEAM OF HORSES RAN AWAY

Experience in Election Campaign - Country Roads are Drifted – Mr. Kerr was in an Unpleasant Predicament.

The recent very heavy snowstorms have made the roads in many parts of the county almost impassible, and it is frequently seen that rail fences have been taken down and more advantageous routes than that by the drifted road have been taken by those coming to and going from town. It is largely on account of the bad roads and very cold weather combined that the workers in the present political campaign have not been as active as usual in the outlying districts, and reports have already been received of attempts having been made to reach certain points on dates scheduled, but without any great degree of success. The latest of these cases happened yesterday, when Mr. F. D. Kerr endeavored to get through to Apsley to address a meeting in the interests of Mr. Wm. Anderson. Between Young's Point and Burleigh, however, the team stuck in a snow bank, and it was with considerable difficulty that the horses were extricated. This part of the trouble was finally overcome, but as Mr. Kerr and the drivers were tugging and straining of the cutter, the team became frightened—whether by any of the observations made by the gentlemen or other cause of alarm, the report does not state—and ran away. They made for Young's Point, and as their heels vanished over the first hill the forlorn-hope aspect of the situation dawned on those who had been left behind. There was nothing to do but to make the best of a bad matter, and in a little while Mr. Kerr and his driver were appreciating a dinner at Mr. Northey's near by. They afterwards started out on foot for Young's Point, but had not got any great distance when they saw a rig approaching with their team in tow.

It appeared out of the question to get as far as Apsley yesterday, and Mr. Kerr returned to town, reaching here at a late hour last night.

Native Dress In Tibet.

The native dress of Tibet consists essentially of a very wide gown five and a half feet long, with long sleeves, tightened in at the waist and gathered up so as not to fall below the ankles of the men of quality, or the townsmen, nor below the knees of the common people, who have much walking and work to do. Thus gathered up, the gown puffs out at the breast, forming a huge pocket. At night the wearer lets it fall and is thus wrapped up from his ears to his feet, as in a bed. Tibetan women wear the same gown—it is called a "chuba"—letting it hang down to the ankle. Their dress varies according to the locality to which they belong.

A Definition.

"Diplomacy, Lester," said the henpecked man, replying to the inquiry of his small son during, it may not be necessary to explain, the temporary absence of the majestic wife of the one and mother of the other, "diplomacy is what makes a man carve a turkey and unselfishly deal out to his family and the visitors their favorite helps, including the only portions which he himself really likes and at the same time look like a putty saint."

One View of Wedlock.

An Englishwoman had had a good deal of trouble with her husband, who, according to her account, was a monster of iniquity. Some one asked why she had married a person of such character. "Well, you see, he ain't my first," was the reply. "I was pertickler about my first. This here's my second, and a bad un at that. But there"—with a shrug of the shoulders—"he's a shade better than the work'us!"

His Facial Furrow.

Mr. Billson, between whose lower lip and chin there was an unusually deep wrinkle, spoke impatiently to the barber.

"Haven't you got my face shaved yet?" he asked.

"Not quite, sir," said the barber apologetically, "I haven't dug your ditch yet."

Poor, but Polite.

"Want some money, do ye?" said the kind old lady. "Now, I wonder of ye deserve it. What would you do with a penny ef I gev it to ye?"

"Lady," replied the polite beggar, "yer kindness would touch me so dat I'd buy a postal card wid de money an' write yer a note o' thanks."

THE W.C.T.U. PRESIDENT

CHARACTER AND CAREER OF MRS. LILLIAN M. N. STEVENS.

Woman Who Donned Mantle of the Late Frances E. Willard Was in Entire Sympathy With Latter's Ideas of Work—Mrs. Stevens Is Sixty Years of Age, But Finds Public Work Has Benefited Her Physically.

When the late Frances E. Willard was summoned by the messenger of death to surrender the position of president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union her mantle fell upon the shoulders of Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens. Mrs. Stevens occupied the post of vice-president at large and at Miss Willard's death at once took up her duties in accordance with the provisions of the constitution of the society. At the next annual convention she was duly chosen president and has held the office continuously since, being reelected for another term at the W. C. T. U. national convention held in Philadelphia early in December.

Mrs. Stevens stood very close to Miss Willard and, being in entire sympathy with her ideas of work, carried forward her policy when called to assume the guidance of W. C. T. U. affairs. She is a native of Maine, resides in Portland and was born in 1844. She is thus sixty years of age, but is well preserved, though in early life she was in delicate health. She says that her work for others has been a great benefit to her own physical personality. She was married at the age of twenty-one and found in her husband one who was ready to sympathise with the ideas of work for social reform which already had begun to take shape in her mind. She also found a warm helper in her mother. Her husband supported her likewise in her ideas regarding the extension of the suffrage to women. On this subject she has very strong convictions and is an ardent friend of Miss Susan B. Anthony. Mrs. Stevens has been connected with W. C. T. U. work for over thirty years. She represented the State of Maine on the board of lady managers of the Columbian exposition.

"FADELESS" FLOWERS.

Features of a Plant Developed by a San Francisco Man.

Luther Burbank of San Francisco has developed a "fadeless" flower, says a despatch from that city. He calls it the "Australian star flower." He evolved it from a half hardy annual found in west Central Australia. Burbank describes the flower as a "unique and beautiful plant, which grows readily from seed in any ordinary garden soil, preferring sandy loam. It blooms early in the season and continues to bloom for a long time."

The fragrant flowers are of rosy crimson shade sometimes approaching pure white. They are produced in large, graceful clusters which when cut will retain their form and color permanently. The full grown plants are about a foot high. Though the stem of the flower may dry up, the blossoms do not fade. Mr. Burbank has a cluster of these blossoms in his library which have remained there unchanged for a whole year. Neither do they lose their odor.

Breeds Spiders for a Living.

In this age of shams, even spiders' webs may be fraudulently attached to wine bottles to give them the appearance of age, for there is an elderly Frenchman who makes a comfortable competence by supplying unscrupulous wine-dealers with specially bred spiders, at a fixed rate of $2.50 per hundred, which may be relied upon, if turned loose amongst wine-bottles, to at once proceed to spin abundant webs upon them.

The reason of this is that he keeps a large establishment, which he devotes to breeding spiders. They are kept in dark, cool rooms, and the spiders are allowed to roam at their will about shelves, on which are placed numerous empty port-wine bottles.

If a spider spins on the wall or in a corner of a shelf, its web is promptly destroyed by the owner; but if one of these creatures spins on a bottle, is it promptly rewarded with a fly.

When their education is completed, they are placed in separate compartments in light wooden boxes and despatched to the fraudulent wine merchants, who make use of them to give their bottles the appearance of twenty years' storage in cellars cool.

A House Built of Paper.

At Savionoroska, in Russia, is a paper house. It has been built of blocks of papier-mache, even the foundation and roof being made from that material. So, too, are the chimneys although the paper used in their construction was first mingled with a fire-proof material. The house, which is of considerable extent, and will, in the opinion of architects, outlast such as are built of stone and brick, was erected at a cost of over $4,000.

THE WHITNEY MEETING.

Will be Held in Market Building Instead of Opera House.

The big political meeting to be addressed in Peterborough on Thursday night of next week, Jan. 19th, will be held in the large market hall instead of the opera house, the latter building being engaged by the Victoria College Glee Club for that evening. Mr. J. P. Whitney, the Conservative leader, Mr. Bradburn, the Conservative candidate, and Mr. R. M. Dennistoun will be the speakers.

There will be a big rally of the friends and supporters of Mr. T. E. Bradburn, the popular Conservative candidate, at the committee rooms, Opera House block, on Saturday evening. There should be a large attendance. Several local speakers will address the gathering and a rousing time is expected. Turn out and cheer for Bradburn and Whitney.

The factories that are looked upon as likely to sell here are as follows:—Ormonde, Shamrock, Brickley, Dartford, Pore-,Roseneath, Fenella, Burnley, Macklin's, Norham, Villiers, Westwood, Daisy D., Norwood, Melrose Abbey, Killarney, and a few others.

THE SHOOTING WAS ACCIDENTAL

Jury Returns Verdict on Death of James Duval.

FURTHER EVIDENCE TAKEN.

John Sisson Stated He Did Not Put Rifle to Shoulder to Scare the Boy.

"We, the jury, believe that the deceased, James Duval, came to his death by a bullet passing through his head from a rifle in the hands of Jas. Sisson, and we further believe that the shooting was accidental, and we strongly condemn the practice of allowing boys to carry rifles."

The above was the finding of the jury empanelled by Coroner Gray to consider evidence relating to circumstances surrounding the death of James Duval, on Saturday, Dec. 31st. The inquest was concluded yesterday afternoon at Rockdale school house, in Belmont township.

John James Sisson, from whose rifle the fatal shot was discharged, swore yesterday that he did not put the gun to his shoulder and point it at the deceased in order to scare him back to the house.

John Brown, on being sworn, stated that he had been a witness of Freeman Sisson's explanation to Constable Cochrane of how and where the accident happened.

William Duval, whose son was shot, stated that as far as he knew, his son and the two Sissons had always got along well together, and that John James Sisson had no spite or ill-feeling against him.

Stewart Crossin gave evidence as to the positions in which the two boys were standing when the accident occurred.

This concluded the evidence and the above verdict was returned. The jurors were John Brown, Adolphus Brown, Absalom Brown, Thos. McLaughlin, Wm. Thompson, John F. Pendry, William E. Young, Stewart Crossin, Eleser Youmans, Wm. Stenburgh, Alex Leeson, W. W. Ellis and W. E. Young.

FREE EMBROIDERY CLASSES

Our Free Embroidery Classes will began Monday, January 30th. The New Designs in Linens are now in, and we would urge all intending pupils to make their selections early, for we are always so rushed when the lessons are about to begin that it is difficult to give that careful attention to everyone that, we pride ourselves in doing.

Everyone who selects their work and registers on or before January 11th, will receive a valuable souvenir.

BRIEF NEWS NOTES.

What is Taking Place in Peterborough and Its Vicinity.

—The joint installation of officers of Otonabee and Peterborough I.O.O.F. Lodges will be held tonight.

—The annual meeting of the officers of St. Paul's church Sunday School will be held this evening.

—The Chief of police has a child's fur picked up on the street. The owner may have it by calling at 896 George-st.

—The installation of officers of Circle No. 193, of the Canadian Order of Home Circles will be held to-night in the Foresters' Hall, Simcoe-st.

—The regular meeting of George-st. Young Men's Guild will be held this evening. Mr. F. H. Dobbin will give a talk. It is requested that a large number of members be present.

—Efforts are being made to have the inaugural session of the County Council postponed from Tuesday, Jan. 24th, to the following Tuesday, January 31st.

—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott, and daughter, 432 Charlotte street, have gone to California to spend the winter. It is the first holiday Mr. Scott has taken in several years.

—The annual business meeting of the congregation of Murray street Baptist church, which was to have been held this evening, has been postponed until next Thursday night, January 19th.

—The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. met this afternoon to receive reports and returns in connection with the concert held in the Opera House on Tuesday evening, which was such a signal success.

—The Peterborough Cordage and Manufacturing Company, Limited, have established an agency in Chicago. Mr. C. A. Davis is the representative of the Company, his office being at 115 Dearborn Ave.

Why not employ these long evenings to some advantage? Fix up some of the pictures that you have cut out of the magazines during the year with passepartout, or get some of those pretty ones on sale at the Review office. Everything for passepartout work carried in stock.

—A joint meeting will be held in the Lakefield town hall this evening by Mr. Bradburn and Mr. McWilliams. Mr. J. H. Burnham will speak in behalf of Mr. Bradburn. It is expected there will be a large and enthusiastic gathering to hear the issues of the campaign discussed.

—Now Havelock, like Peterborough is agitating for better post office accommodation. The present facilities are said to be inadequate and the small frame building in which the office is located is too limited in conveniences to meet the growing needs of an enterprising centre like Havelock.

—The work of the Ladies' Literary Association of St. Peter's T. A. S. will be resumed to-morrow evening, Jan. 13th at 8 o'clock. Miss Coleman will read an essay on "Julius Caesar," and a musical program will also be presented. The members of the ladies' committee are especially requested to attend a committee meeting after the reading.

—T. C. Jeffries, Mus. Bach., organist of Old St. Andrew's Church, Toronto, writes: "In quality of tone, shading, phrasing and lightness and grace of delivery the Victoria College Glee Club is especially to be commended. They deserve to succeed." Hear both Glee and Mandolin and Guitar Clubs in Opera House, Thursday, Jan. 9th.

—Mr. George Morris, employee of C.G.E. Co., met with a painful, though not serious accident just before six o'clock last night. While operating a milling machine his right hand became [illegible] and the second finger was badly bruised, the [illegible] the finger being torn off. His injury was immediately dressed and is not expected to cause much trouble.

ANOTHER BOGUS BILL.

Another bogus $5.00 Bank of Montreal bill came to light to-day. It was noticed by Mr. Thos. Barrie at his store, in a quantity of money which had been received from a customer. The latter tried to trace the bill to the C.P.R. station, having remembered taking it together with some other money in change. The fiver is in every respect similar to that detected at the Bank of Toronto a few days ago, only the lines were somewhat more sharply defined.

There is every reason to believe that a large number of the bills have been circulated in this locality. A despatch from Belleville states that they have come to light there. It will be necessary for merchants and others handling large sums of money to exercise great precautions.

SHOULD REMOVE HATS.

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—I attended both concerts given in the Opera House this week and was delighted with the attractive character of the programme. As to the artists I cannot speak, as I could not see them, being seated behind a lady who wore a hat about the size of a cart wheel.

Now, I have no particular complaint to make, except that the majority of the fair attendants remove their millinery; why not all. It imposes no hardship and affords those behind an unobstructed view, so that they do not have to crane their necks or rise in their seats in order to get a glimpse of the performers on the stage.

I am sure the obliging women of this good town will accept this gentle hint and not overlook a matter which, seemingly unimportant to them, may be a source of discomfort and inconvenience to others in the rear of the hall.

Yours sincerely,
BALD HEAD.

The Daily Review

THURSDAY, JAN. 12, 1905.

The electors are with Mr. Bradburn.

Whitney is conducting a winning campaign.

Are you working for Bradburn and Moore?

Mr. Whitney—Ontario's rightful Premier.

Mr. Bradburn stands for a secret ballot and an honest count

Mr. Bradburn is the people's choice for West Peterborough.

The Examiner is simply beside itself with pride over the key hole episode at Napanee.

The Grit newspapers accuse Mr. Whitney of following Premier Mr. Ross. He will replace him after the 25th.

The mission of the Ross government of late years appears to have been to forget electoral crimes and allow criminals to go unpunished.

Rev. D. Strachan, of Brockville, another life long Liberal, has felt compelled to speak out against the corrupt and debased Ross Government.

Mr. Ross says the Tories should not be allowed to get into power until they have repented. He says nothing about his own party repenting.

A. L. McIntyre, a prominent resident of Listowel and hitherto a leading Liberal, has left his party and is supporting Mr. Whitney in the cause of honest and clean government.

The local Liberals claim to have captured two thirds of the registered vote in Peterborough. Well, it is no harm to whistle just to keep courage up.

Possibly Mr. Ross thinks Providence is on the side of the Liberals just because certain Liberals believe their party only, has a divine reight to rule; and because of their daily prayer, "Give me office or I die."

The reply of Mr. Ross to Conservative charges of corruption against his regime is that the Conservatives are corrupt. To prove it he studiously avoids provincial contests, but quotes Dominion politics in a futile and fatuous attempt to offset the charge.

The campaign against Mr. Whitney and his friends, in personal abuse, detraction and general meanness and pettiness, is one of the worst in the history of Canadian politics. In this respect, as in others, the defeat of the Government will be a wholesome lesson.—Toronto News.

It was in the power of Premier Ross at any moment he chose to put an end to the corrupt practices which have long characterised the working of the government. Why did he not do so? That is the question often put and never answered.

Mr. Ross is declaring that he will w-i-n the f-i-g-h-t he is now making for the Ontario premiership. General Stoessel is finding himself very comfortable in the hands of an enemy which did win in a fight he also made predictions about not long ago.

Hon. George Perry Graham, provincial secretary, will discuss peanut issues in the Opera House to-morrow night. He has ceased talking politics on Sunday ever since that famous Sabbath afternoon interview with the fugitive, Byron O. Lott, he of bogus ballot box fame.

How wonderfully eager were the Grit license inspector and the Grit police magistrate at Napanee. One would imagine that there were some more unburied ballot boxes found, or something—perhaps they thought they might offset the Belleville story. The poor cowards made nothing of the sensation after all.

Judge Teetzel, a strong Liberal before his appointment to the Bench and a man whose duty it has been to investigate many cases of electoral corruption, in opening the winter assizes at London, took occasion to denounce electoral crookedness and called upon clergymen, editors and teachers to do what they can "to eliminate the evil which is seizing upon this country."

Many of the keenest fights in the present contest are being waged in Ridings where the majority at the last election was under 100. Of these ten were held by Liberals and six by Conservatives. The Liberal seats were—Durham West, 88; Halton, 16; Hastings East, 26; Huron West, 31; Lanark North, 80; Middlesex East, 31; Norfolk South, 75; Perth South, 71; Simcoe Centre, 44; Wentworth North, 48. Those held by Conservatives were—Bruce Centre, 52; Frontenac, 57; Huron South, 53; Lennox, 3; Victoria West, 99; Waterloo South, 96. Of those between 100 and 200, nine were held by Liberals and nine by Conservatives, and of those over 200 were 32 on each side.

"Almost every crime that might result in benefit to the Government has been committed with impunity. No person has been punished. No person has been even sent to trial. In regard to political corruption in this province during the past three years, British justice has been completely paralysed, and outside of this malfeasance in office, and this culpable neglect to punish crime, there is also the fact that for the last two years every Minister of the Crown has drawn his salary, has eaten his daily bread, by means of these very crimes which he knew to have been committed to keep in power a Government which had lost the confidence of the people. In regard to its influence upon public morality this latter fact is even more lamentable."—Mr. Whitney at Guelph.

Mr. Harcourt announced with a great flourish of trumpets the other night that the Ross Government has a cash balance of some $3,000,000 in the banks. This, he says, shows what a wonderful affair the Ross aggregation of politicians must be. A like statement was made by the War Horse. This man added, however, that if the Conservatives were to get in they would steal the money. We trust that Conservatives will not forget the efforts of Mr. Ross, says the Mail and Empire, to destroy their characters and to traduce them before their fellow-countrymen. In one speech he proposes to write across the foreheads of the Conservatives an intimation that they are fools. In another he brands them as personally dishonest. Now, what is the purpose of this statement that there is $3,000,000 in the banks? That idea evidently is to suggest that by some magic the money has been made. But the fact about it is that we are now at the beginning of the year. On Jan. 1 the Dominion Government pays us our half year's subsidy. About the same time also, large proportions of the revenue from timber come in. Again, the Government has borrowed for the Temiskaming Railway. We are going about $6,000,000 in debt for that. The bank balances of the Ontario Government vary according to circumstances, but at this period they are always large, as they include the sums that are paid in the lump. These sums are banked, and are used to meet the current expenses of the year. The actual condition of the finances was officially announced two weeks ago. During the 11 months of 1904 the Ross Government took in $5,607,288 and expended $6,368,056. This gave a deficit of $760,768 up to the beginning of December. We are going behind at the rate of $70,000 a month, or of $2,300 a day.

THE REGISTRATION.

The Examiner puts in a claim on behalf of the Liberals to 700 of the 1,117 that were registered. We don't know what kind of tobacco they use there, but someone has mixed "dope" in their tobacco pouches. If they had claimed a half of the total vote registered they would have overshot the mark.

The truth of their claim may be further judged by the following words found in the same article—"The absentees will be added at the special sitting this evening, at which the Liberals expect to maintain their large proportion." At the meeting last night the same wild claims were made, and if the realization of their claim of 3 to 2 in their favor on the regular list is of the same character as the result of their claim of a very large proportion of the absentees, then the 25th of January will be a Waterloo for the Grits.

The Liberals applied to have 29 absentees put on the list—they were allowed 5. The Conservatives asked to have 7 put on and they were put on. Our friends of the other side will find this a better proportion to work on.

ROSS IN NEW ROLE.

Amongst other works of which the Honorable George W. Ross is the author or joint author, is a book published in 1892 called the "Life and Times of Sir Alexander Mackenzie." The name of the Honorable George W. Ross, Minister of Education, appears on the title page of this book as the author. The preface, written by the author, is a summary of the life of Sir Alexander Mackenzie, and is in some measure a criticism by the author showing what that distinguished statesman might have accomplished as a leader if he had not been actuated by the highest motives. The author attempts to show that if Sir Alexander Mackenzie had been less courageous, less honest and more of a "wire puller" he would have been a greater and more successful leader. We quote one extract as follows:—

"As leader of his party in opposition, Mr. Mackenzie was courageous and aggressive. Whenever he took a position on any question he was prepared to defend it with all his force. He took no pleasure in expediency. What he advocated was right, because it was right, and not simply expedient; and when a certain course was determined upon, he turned neither to the right hand nor to the left, no matter what obstacles lay in his way. He never studied, apparently, the modern methods of 'wire pulling,' and 'pipe-laying,' which are so much depended upon in party warfare. How to evade any issue or how to appear to be supporting a movement, while he was in reality opposing it, or how to lead two opposing factions to believe that he sympathized with each and opposed the other, was a political accomplishment which he never studied. If he had moved a resolution it was so worded as to mean what it said; and if he made a speech, it was so expressed as to be incapable of two interpretations."

He then proceeds to show that when he became the leader of the Government the Hon. Mr. Mackenzie pursued the same course, and that, amongst other things, he did not seem to realize how valuable is the maxim, "A soft answer turneth away wrath."

To all who have followed the career of the present Premier from the time he entered political life up to the present time, it is apparent that his own secret sentiments and ideals are here laid bare. What a vivid contrast there is between the spirit shown by the late Honorable Alexander Mackenzie and that of the Honorable George W. Ross. What honest Liberal can say that the present leader's position in regard to temperance legislation has been "courageous and aggressive." Do the temperance party not yet see what pleasure he has taken in "expediency" in regard to this question, not because his course was right, but because it was useful for his party?

Years ago he promised the temperance party, of which he was practically the leader, to use his best endeavors to introduce the legislation, which they craved. Who can say that he has "turned neither to the right nor to the left" in pursuing this course? Who can say that he has not indulged in "wire-pulling" and "pipe-laying?" How well he has evaded the issue while appearing to be supporting it, and for how many years has he succeeded in leading the two opposing factions to believe that he sympathized with each and opposed the other.

Consider the resolutions of the Reform Convention in the light of the Premier's words. Consider the speeches of the Honorable G. W. Ross as explained by the written word of the same gentleman as to the undesirability of a great Leader making a speech which is not capble of two interpretations! Then vote for Ross if you can trust that sort of leadership, but for Whitney if you want leadership of the Alexander Mackenzie type.

KILLED IN DETROIT.

Miss Margaret McDowell of Canada Run Down By a Horse.

Detroit, Jan. 12.—Wednesday evening Miss Margaret McDowell, whose home was at Eden Grove, Ontario, was struck by a runaway horse at a street intersection in the heart of the city, knocked down, her skull fractured, killing her almost instantly. Her identity was not learned until yesterday. Her remains will be taken to her former home. The horse was driven by a man, at present unknown, whose carelessness resulted in his rig being struck by a street car. The occupants were thrown out. His companion, a woman, was only slightly injured. She refuses to divulge his name. He made his escape. The police are trying to find him.

THEY AVOID YOUR COMPANY

not because you lack ability to please and entertain, but for the foul, sickening breath that you discharge in their presence. We never realize what a severe case of Catarrh we really have, until our breath offends and our nostrils become clogged.

NORTH MONAGHAN

Inaugural Meeting in the Newly Elect Township Council.

The Council-elect of the township of North Monaghan met in the Town Hall, on Monday, January 9th, 1905, at the hour of 1.30 p.m.

There were present Messrs. Jos. Madill, Reeve, and J. Brown, R. Fowler, J. Holmes, and J. Morrow, Councillors.

After the statutory declarations of qualification and of office had been made and subscribed, the Council organised for the transaction of public affairs, the Reeve, Mr J. Madill, in the chair.

The minutes of the two previous meetings were then read and confirmed.

Communications were received and read from the Municipal World, St. Thomas, asking for subscriptions for the year 1905; the Peterborough Times asking for the township printaccount for 1905; J. Ross Robertson, soliciting a grant to the Sick Children's Hospital in Toronto; G. H. May, resigning membership of local Board of Health.

An account was read from Dr. T. N. Greer, Medical Health Officer of the township, for attendance at various times, $20.

An application for the office of assessor was received from Mr. J. H. Forster at a salary of $35.

It was moved by Mr. Holmes and seconded by Mr. Morrow,—That the clerk is hereby instructed to subscribe for 6 copies of the Municipal World, one copy to be sent to each member of the council and one to the township clerk, and that an order be drawn upon the township treasurer for the sum of $5.00 to pay therefor.—This was carried.

Moved by Messrs. Brown and Fowler,—That an order be drawn upon the township treasurer for the sum of $5.00 as a grant to the Sick Children's Hospital in Toronto.—This was carried.

Moved by Messrs. Holmes and Brown,—That the account of Dr. T. N. Greer be passed and paid.—This was carried.

Moved by Messrs. Brown and Morrow,—That the account of John Tully, $13.20 for gravel, as rendered at the last meeting of the Council, be paid.—This was carried.

On motion of Messrs. Brown and Morrow, a committee consisting of Councillors Brown and Holmes were appointed to let the contract for township printing for the year 1905.

The clerk was instructed to render a full account of the expenditure by by the township of North Monaghan upon the Cavan boundary road for the season 1904 to the Council of Cavan township.

Mr. G. H. May's resignation as a member of the local Board of Health was accepted.

By-laws No. 544, to appoint auditors; No. 545, to appoint members of Board of Health; No. 546, to appoint an assessor, and 547, to appoint caretaker of the township hall were then introduced, given the necessary readings and finally passed, signed and sealed.

In Committee of the Whole Council on the second reading of these by-laws, the following appointments were made:—

Auditors—Jas. R. Bell and Jas. Lynch, jr., at salary of $5.00 each.

Member of local Board of Health—H. C. Robertson.

Assessor—Herbert J. Forster, at a salary of $35.00.

Caretaker—R. Sanderson, at a salary of $7.50.

It was decided to leave the matter of opening snow roads if necessary in the hands of the Road Commission, the cost of same to be charged against the commutation tax in each district respectively. On motion of Messrs. Brown and Fowler, the Reeve was appointed to arrange with the Collector to have all outstanding taxes paid in and returns duly made to the township treasurer forthwith.

Council then adjourned until the second Monday in February, 1905, at 1.30 p.m.

Coughs, colds hoarseness and other throat ailments are quickly relieved by Cresolene tablets, ten cents per box. All druggists.

STRUCK BY A FAST EXPRESS.

Norman Hashim, An Assyrian, Killed Near Lancaster, Ont.

Cornwall, Jan. 12.—An Assyrian named Norman Hashim was killed by the fast express yesterday morning, near Lancaster. He had been walking on the track, and the driver of the eastbound freight tried to signal him that the express was coming. He left the track, but a short distance away returned, and was struck and killed. Hashim belonged to Cornwall, and the body was taken to this station, where it was turned over to his friends by the coroner.

Train Kills a Teacher.

Chatham, Jan 12.—While walking on the G.T.R. track to the Bloomfield School, situated 2½ miles southwest of the city, of which she was teacher, Miss Christina Bates was struck by a westbound passenger train yesterday morning and instantly killed. Deceased was 26 years of age and the daughter of F. Bates, Park street. No inquest will be held.

Four Men Killed At a Shaft.

Houghton, Mich., Jan. 12.—Four men have been instantly killed and two others injured at a shaft, which is being sunk at Rockland by the Victoria Mining Company for a hydraulic power plant.

Engineer and Fireman Instantly Killed.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 12.—The boiler of a locomotive attached to the eastbound fast express train on the Erie road, blew up while standing at the Creston, Ohio, station yesterday, killing the engineer and fireman instantly, and badly injuring another man who was riding in the engine cab.

Twenty-Two Lives Lost.

Waterford, Ireland, Jan. 12.—The steamer Zeno arrived here yesterday with the captain and twelve men of the American steam dredger Texas, which foundered in a storm off the Hebrides. The crew entered the small boats, but one crew entered the boats, but one containing the chief officer and 21 men sank immediately, and all its occupants were drowned. The survivors drifted for several days before being picked up.

Coal Miner's Strike Spreads.

Cologne, Germany, Jan. 12.—The strike of coal miners has spread. Part or all of the diggers in 17 additional mines did not go to work yesterday morning. The number idle is about 35,000, or one-eighth of the total. Division exist among the miners, minorities disapproving of a strike and refusing to quit work, so that the proprietors of some of the striking mines continue to work them on part time.

Life Hangs By a Thread.

Windsor, Jan. 12.—Sergt. Nash put in a good day yesterday and his condition, although very grave, is slightly improved yesterday. Owing to the aneurism of the aorta the least excitement or shock may cause the blood to burst out and death would ensue in a few minutes. It is possible, therefore, that Nash may not be able to resume his place on the force if he recovers, because of the danger from excitement of exertion.

Charged With Wife Murder.

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 12.—Antio Di Santi, husband of the woman who was found on Monday in her room in a hotel here, strangled to death, was arraigned yesterday on a charge of murder in the first degree and through counsel pleaded not guilty. There was $15,000 insurance on his wife's life in his favor.

A $250,000 Fire.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 12.—Fire this (Thursday) morning gutted the four-storey establishments of the George P. Ziegler Co., confectionery, and Benjamin Young's wholesale saddlery. The loss is $250,000, of which the Ziegler Co.'s loss is $150,000.

May Withdraw Arbitration Treaties.

Washington, Jan. 12.—If the arbitration treaties now pending before the United States Senate are emasculated, the President will withdraw them from consideration.

Nervous Dyspepsia

Mr. George Boles, Spry, Bruce Co., writes:—"I was troubled with nervous dyspepsia for some years, and after using nine boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I felt better than I had for years. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is certainly the best medicine I ever used, and I say so because I want to give full credit where it is due."

Only Business Done By House of Commons On Wednesday.

Real Opening of Parliament Will Occur To-Day, With Usual Ceremonies, Only Move So—Speaker Sutherland Pleased Quebec Members By Airing His French—Movers of the Address in Reply to the Speech.

Ottawa, Jan. 12.—The House of Commons met at three o'clock yesterday, and was summoned to the Senate, where Sir Elzear Taschereau directed the members to return and elect a Speaker, and to-day the Governor-General would be present to inform them as to the reasons why they were assembled.

Elect a Speaker.

The members then returned to the House, where Sir Wilfrid Laurier reminded it of the high duties which come within the office of Speaker, and, with but a slight waste of words, moved R. F. Sutherland for the position. George Eulas Foster, as the senior Privy Councillor on the Opposition side of the House, acquiesced in the Premier's complimentary allusions to Mr. Sutherland. Sir Wilfrid and Sir William Mulock then escorted the newly elected Speaker to the chair.

Spoke in French.

Speaker Sutherland tersely and modestly promised to conduct the proceedings of the House to the best of his ability and to maintain at all times the strictest impartiality. He added a few words in French, which seemed to please the deputies from Quebec.

Following the formalities, the Premier moved the adjournment of the House.

The Swearing-In.

The swearing-in of members commenced at noon yesterday. The customary roll of past years which the members signed has been discarded and a bound volume has been substituted. This is following the British practice. There was a large attendance of members.

The Real Opening.

The real opening of Parliament, the explosion of blank cartridges, the rattle of musketry, the swish of silks and the craning of necks will take place to-day. It will, of course, outrank in gorgeousness all previous events of its kind as is the first duty of all well regulated openings of Parliament.

To-Day's Lions.

E. M. McDonald of Pictou, N.S., will move the address in reply to the speech from the Throne. The seconder will be George Parent, the 24-year-old stripling from Montmorency.

Lewis Can't Be Disqualified.

B. N. Lewis will retain his seat for West Huron. The case against him, that of signing his name to a mail carrier's bond, was carefully examined yesterday by two of the ablest lawyers in the House, and the decision was that Mr. Lewis had not violated the election law. Whatever may be the intention of the act, no words can be construed in it to disqualify a member for signing a mail carrier's bond. When the case comes before the Privileges and Elections Committee this point will be submitted and there can be no doubt that it will be upheld. R. Holmes' petty attempt to deprive his opponent of a hard won victory finds no sympathy here.

Mr. Borden's Reply.

Halifax, N.S., Jan 12.—Mr. R. L. Borden yesterday morning sent the following reply to the message of the Conservative caucus:

Hon. C. B. Deboucherville, chairman committee Conservative caucus:

"In response to your message, I shall meet my friends at Ottawa at a very early day in order to discuss what they have been kind enough to suggest.

"(Signed) R. L. Borden."

BELLEVILLE A FROST FOR ROSS.

No [illegible] Greets the Liberal Leader There.

Belleville, Jan. 12.—Premier Ross was the chief attraction at a meeting held here last night in the interests of Henry Pringle, Liberal candidate for West Hastings. The Opera House was crowded, nearly one-half of those present being ladies. Dr. Currie, Liberal candidate for Prince Edward, was present, and E. W. Rathbun, Liberal candidate for East Hastings, was advertised to be here, but did not turn up. Dr. Simmons, president of the West Hastings Reform Association, was chairman. Premier Ross arrived in the city in the afternoon, but there was no demonstration, a dozen or so Liberals going to the station to meet him. The audience last night, while a very large one, was most apathetic, and the applause—what there was of it—was intermittent and halfhearted. When Mr. Ross sat down the leaders tried hard to work up an ovation for him, but the applause was not at all hearty. The usual cheers closed the meeting.

Ottawa's Dates.

Ottawa, Jan. 12.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Premier Ross speak in the Russell Theatre on Friday, Jan. 20, and Mr. Whitney Saturday, Jan. 21.

Rumball Runs.

London, Jan. 12.—The Liberals in this city in convention last night nominated ex-Mayor Fred G. Rumball for the Provincial House. The convention was held in the Auditorium and was well attended. No other name was proposed.

May Go to the Yukon.

Ottawa, Jan. 12.—Col. Andrew T. Thompson, the former member for Haldimand, is said to be in the running for the Governorship of the Yukon and to have a fair chance of getting the appointment.

WEEKLY LAKEFIELD BUDGET

District Orangemen Elected Officers—First Meeting of the Village Council—Hockey Team Has First Practice.

The heavy fall of snow has blocked the country roads to a very large extent.

The snow plows are kept busy on the walks, and as fast as they are cleaned out they drift full again.

The junior hockey team had their first practice on Tuesday evening. We hope to have good accounts of them during the season.

On Tuesday the District Orangemen of Lakefield met in the Orange Hall when the following officers were elected—

C. C. Boyce—District Master.
Sidney Hunter—D.D.M.
Wm. James—D. Chap.
Stephen Harrison—D. Rec. Sec.
C. P. Garbutt—D. Fin. Sec.
J. W. Stuart—D. Treas.
Andrew Young—D.D. of C.
Robt. Carter—D. Lecturer.

COUNCIL MEETING.

The first regular meeting if the village Council for 1905 was held in the town hall on Monday evening last.

The members present were Reeve E. A. Tanner, in the chair, and Councillors, F. J. Burgess, R. J. Lennox, A. J. Kidd, and J. W. Cornish, all of whom took the oath of office.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and confirmed.

The following committees were appointed for the ensuing year:—

General Committee—The whole Council.

Finance Committee — Councillors F. J. Burgess and J. W. Cornish, the first named to be chairman.

Street and Bridge Committee — Councillors A. J. Kidd, R. J. Lennox and J. W. Cornish, the first named to be chairman.

Charity Committee—Councillors R. J. Lennox and F. J. Burgess, the first named to be Chairman.

A communication was received from the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, asking for assistance.

Moved by Coun. Kidd, seconded by Councillor Lennox, that the communication from the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto, be received, and that we grant the sum of $5.00 towards the same.—Carried.

A communication was received from the Bank of Toronto, Peterborough, stating that the balance appearing to the credit of the municipality was $2,009.44.

Moved by Councillor Cornish, seconded by Councillor Burgess, that the communication be received and fyled.—Carried.

Moved by Coun. Cornish, seconded by Coun. Burgess, that this Council concurs with Mayor Urquhart's petition asking that the Reeve and Clerk's signature be attached to enclosed circulars to petition Parliament of Canada to amend all Bell Telephone charters so as to declare that the poles of such company shall not be hereafter erected, or conduits constructed on any road or street in a municipality without the consent of the Council of the said municipality.—Carried.

Moved by Coun. Burgess, seconded by Coun. Cornish that the clerk be instructed to procure six copies of the Municipal World, and two copies of the assessor's Guide, and one copy of the Consolidated Municipal Act for 1903, and that an order be drawn on the Treasurer for the amount.—Carried.

By-law No. 398, entitled a by-law to appoint Auditors, for the year 1905, received its several readings and was passed, Messrs. W. M. Graham and A. V. Hill were appointed.

Moved by Coun. Burgess, seconded by Coun. Cornish, that the sum of $20 be paid to Dr. R. A. Fraser for his services as Medical Health Officer.—Carried.

By-law No. 399, entitled a by-law to appoint a Board of Health, received its several readings and was passed. Messrs. E. A. Tanner and W. Sherin were appointed for 1905 and R. Graham for the years 1905-6-7.

By-law No. 400, entitled a by-law to appoint an officer to the combined offices of assessor, collector of taxes, etc., was also passed, Mr. W. Doidge being appointed at a salary of $425 per annum.

The Finance Committee presented the following report—

To the Reeve and Council of the Village of Lakefield:

Gentlemen—We, your Finance Committee, having examined the following accounts, would recommend payment of the same—

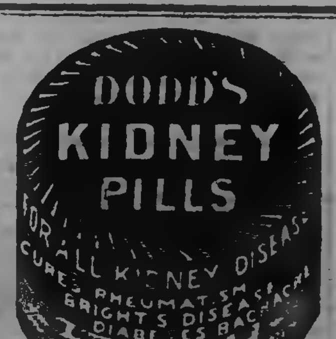
J. M. Bygott, snow plowing	$ 7 50
Times Printing Co	80
Lakefield Light & Power Co.	40 70
Lakefield News, printing	16 00
	$66 37

All of which is respectfully submitted.

F. J. Burgess,
Chairman.

The report was on motion received and adopted.

The Council then adjourned.



BOTROVSKY'S IZUMRUD

Reported On Way to Cronstadt in Badly Damaged Condition.

His Squadron Arrives At Port Said—Rojestvensky Has Not Yet Been Recalled—Plan Temporary Peace to Re-Arm For Next War—Vice-Admiral Doubassoff Supposed to Voice Czar's Sentiment About a Truce.

Berlin, Jan. 12.—The Lokal Anzeiger's St. Petersburg correspondent says that the Russian cruiser Izumrud is returning to Port Said on the way to Cronstadt in a badly damaged condition.

The cruiser Izumrud, which is one of the vessels of Admiral Botrovsky's contingent of the Russian second Pacific Squadron, with the other ships of that fleet, was, according to a despatch from Suez last night, expected to reach that place at three o'clock this morning.

This is the first intimation that any vessel belonging to Admiral Botrovsky's squadron had been damaged.

At Port Said.

Port Said, Jan. 12.—Rear-Admiral Botrovsky's division of the second Russian Pacific squadron entered the canal at noon yesterday. Its destination is uncertain, but it is probably Madagascar, by way of Jibutil, French Somaliland. The warships were only permitted to ship a thousand tons of coal among the seven ships, besides taking on board provisions.

Rojestvensky Still a Sailing.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 12.—The Admiralty has not given the slightest official confirmation of the recall of Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron. On the contrary, the officials point calmly to the preparations being made to reinforce the squadrons with a division of the third Pacific squadron as sufficient evidence that Rojestvensky will not return to European waters. The Russian ice-breaker Ermak at Libau has been ordered to keep the channel clear for the ships which are being made ready for sea.

Under the French regulations, it is maintained that Rojestvensky's ships could cruise in the Indian Ocean, coaling and provisioning from their own storeships.

PLAN TEMPORARY PEACE.

Russia Wants a Breathing Space to Re-Arm For Next War.

Paris, Jan. 12.—Vice-Admiral Doubassoff, the Russian member of the North Sea Commission, is quoted by The Echo de Paris as having stated in an interview that he had submitted to Emperor Nicholas a program for a reorganization of the navy which is absolutely indispensable for success in the war against Japan. Twenty months will be necessary for its execution. Admiral Doubassoff thought the prospect for Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron was hopeless. He unhesitatingly declared that he considered a provisional peace would shortly be probable. Japan retaining Port Arthur and the territories which she has occupied. Russia, meanwhile, the admiral said, would prepare an invincible fleet for a future effort.

Highly Significant.

The declaration made by Vice-Admiral Doubassoff that an honorable peace is likely to be made is highly significant. Heretofore the members of the Russian Embassy and all the other Russian officials here have resented suggestions of peace as humiliating.

There is reason to believe that these were expressive of personal views before hearing from St. Petersburg, whereas Admiral Doubassoff has just arrived from St. Petersburg after a lengthy audience with Emperor Nicholas following the fall of Port Arthur.

The official view is that Admiral Doubassoff's statement is expressive of the growing sentiment within Russia favorable to peace. Reports show that the movement has made notable progress in recent days, particularly at Moscow. Emperor Nicholas has not shown a disposition to check the movement, although personally he disapproves of its opportuneness.

Strengthen For Next Fray.

"I am convinced," said Admiral Doubassoff, "of the immediate necessity for the reconstruction of our fleet at all the Russian and foreign shipyards for the purpose of securing strength sufficient to command supremacy at sea. This is absolutely indispensable if we are to expect victory from the next war with Japan. The remnant of our fleet is hardly more than debris and is entirely unequal to Japan's naval strength."

The admiral further said it was necessary to recognize these conditions, however painful they might be to national self-love.

"Therefore," he added, "I do not hesitate to say that we tend toward not far-off peace. We will leave the Japanese Port Arthur and the territory they now occupy in Manchuria. We will set ourselves resolutely at work to prepare a powerful, invincible navy, as this peace will be but temporary, and the next time we shall be amply prepared."

Carnegie in Church Work.

Windsor, Jan. 12.—The trustees of the Central Methodist Church have received an intimation from Andrew Carnegie that he will pay the last half of the price of the new organ to be installed at a cost of $3,500. The church was destroyed by fire a year or so ago.

G.T.P. Will Switch.

Calgary, Jan. 12.—The exploration party of the G.T.P. making surveys in the Peace River district, say the road will not go west by that route, but will turn south from Edmonton to go by Yellow Head to the Burrard Inlet.

The Greatest Treasure.

Recently a gentleman entered a prominent bank in Berlin and said to the cashier: "I understand that you take charge of title deeds, jewelry and other treasures, and as I am about to start for America and will be absent for some time I wish to place in your hands something very valuable and which if lost could not be replaced."

"All right, sir," was the reply. "Bring it here whenever you please."

"And will you take the greatest possible care of it?" asked the gentleman.

"In our hands it will be perfectly safe," answered the cashier, "for it will be placed in a box in our vault, which no burglar can enter."

"Oh, that wouldn't do at all," exclaimed the gentleman, "for it would die without fresh air."

"Fresh air?" cried the astonished cashier. Then, recovering his usual self possession, he asked, "What is the treasure which you intend to place in our charge?"

"My wife," replied the gentleman, with a smile.—New York Herald.

Too Rich For the Blood.

A tall, rawboned, country looking fellow wandered into a Seattle restaurant recently and diffidently took a seat, removing his hat and carefully putting it under the table. A waiter brought him a bill of fare and waited for some time, but, becoming tired, left the fellow carefully studying the list in front of him. Every time the waiter came near him he was still buried in a perusal of the bill of fare, and at length, at the end of nearly half an hour, arose to depart. "What is the matter, sir?" anxiously queried the waiter, thinking that the patron had been offended. "Too steep for me, young feller. I can't pay $28.45 for one meal. It's too rich for my blood." On the table at which the man had been seated was found a small piece of paper covered with figures. He had added together the prices of everything on the bill of fare.

POLICE COURT NOTES

Fined For Dumping Snow on Streets—Other Cases.

At the police court this morning Richard Redmond was charged with depositing snow from the Munro House yard on Simcoe and Hunter-sts. contrary to a by-law of the town of Peterborough. He was assessed $2.

Ira McMullen was charged with the same offence but was discharged.

James McGee, a deaf mute, charged with being drunk was allowed to go.

Cornelius Wall was charged with having fraudulently removed from the premises of the house he was living in, some of his goods and chattels while he owed the landlord three months' rent. The defendant claimed that his family had removed the goods unknown to him and that he had nothing to do with the renting of the house. He was discharged.

THE CONTRACT AWARDED.

The Directors of the Shovel Factoy have awarded the contract for their building, 68 x 181 feet, to the well known contractors, Messrs. McIntyre & Hartley, and they expect to have it ready for the machinery by April 1st, 1905.

Men are now engaged in excavating for the foundation of the building and the work is being pushed as rapidly as possible. It is expected that the machinery for the factory will arrive in about a fortnight.

The returns of the births, marriages and deaths for the year 1904, as registered with the Town Clerk, have just been given out. There is an increase in all three departments, due partly to the union of Ashburnham and Peterborough. The figures for the two years are as follows—

Births	353	254
Deaths	274	174
Marriages	190	148

NO ADVANCE TILL FALL

Increase in Price of Shoes will Not Affect Spring Goods.

An advance of ten per cent. in the price of shoes was decided on at a meeting of the Wholesale Shoe Association of Ontario recently. This action is taken avowedly as a result of the increase in the price of leather and shoe findings. The new tariff went into effect yesterday.

At the same time, it was decided to divide the association into two branches, to be known as the Western Shoe Manufacturers' Association and the Shoe Jobbers' Association

A local boot and shoe merchant was asked today how the advance in prices would affect the local retail business. He stated that as spring goods were purchased some time ago and, in fact, would be coming in very shortly, no advance would be made there. The buying for falll stocks would begin in March, however, and it was expected that the increase in price would then be made.

Y. M. C. A. DEBATING SOCIETY

Mr. J. H. Burnham's Address at Organization Meeting.

The Literary and Debating Society of the Y.M.C.A. was organized last night.

The special feature of the meeting, introductory to the organization, was an address given by Mr. J. H. Burnham.

It was thought that if such a man as Mr. Burnham, with his knowledge and experience of debating and public speaking, could give the men a practical talk, it would help them a great deal, first by awakening a desire and creating an appreciation for such work, and, secondly, by giving them valuable hints and suggestions as to how they should conduct themselves, how to think intelligently and clearly upon their feet, how to arrange their material to the best advantage, and how to detect the weak points in their opponent and to attack them, besides many other valuable ideas.

After Mr. Burnham's address the organisation of the society was effected.

It is to be called the Literary and Debating Society of the Y.M.C.A., Peterborough. Any senior member of the Association will be eligible for membership. A constitution and set of by-laws were adopted, subject to amendments.

Mr. P. K. Holmes was elected as chairman pro tem and Mr. Maurice Rosenburg as secretary pro tem. Several committees were appointed.

Owing to the lateness of the hour, further organisation was postponed until next Wednesday evening.

There is nothing more valuable to a man than the ability to stand upon his feet before an audience and express himself clearly and intelligently and their is nothing that will give him keener pleasure when he can do it. The Association has long felt the need of such an organization and it is now endeavoring to give its members the privilege of such an organization.

The Society is not for men who are masters of the art of debate, but for those who are entirely new at it and who have a desire to make themselves proficient, There will be no fees in connection with the Society. Any senior member is heartily invited to enroll.

Meetings will be held every other Wednesday evening, or one a fortnight, at 8 o'clock.

NEWEST THING IN PHOTOS.

Mr. R. M. Roy has introduced a feature in connection with his photographic work, which is decidedly novel, and bids fair to become very popular, judging from the way in which it has been so far received. It requires a specialist in art, and the work consists in the introduction of back grounds by hand engraving on the photos taken. The artist who has been engaged by Mr. Roy is having great success, and his designs have been greatly admired. This feature of photography is greatly in vogue in New York and all of the large American and European cities

FROM THE FAR EAST.

Lieut. R. Noel Humphries, of the Royal Navy, was recently the guest of his cousin, Dr. Amyo, for a few days. He was on his way home to London from Hong Kong, China, on furlough.

Lieut. Humphries had many interesting stories with regard to the hostilities between the Russians and Japs, and a large collection of pictures giving an excellent idea of notable incidents also formed valuable souvenirs of the struggle in the Far East. One of these depicts the sorry plight of a Russian vessel, which had been the victim of a powerful explosion. The hull and bow of the ship were so twisted as to be entirely overturned, while the smokestack retained its position in the centre.

EKO CAMP GUESTS C.D.A. ENTERTAINED

Bachelor Clubs Meet in Pleasing At Home.

MR. GEO. JACKSON LEAVING.

Said Farewell to His Friends—Eloquent Speeches Made and Toasts Heartily Honored.

Harry Long's Palm Gardens were the scene of a somewhat happy affair last evening, when two of Peterborough's bachelor clubs gathered about the board, and much friendly sentiment was exchanged. The C. D. A. was "at home," to the members of Eko Camp, and the occasion went far to emphasize that very cordial relationship which exists between the two clubs. The gardens, as the result of pleasing decoration were given a homelike appearance, tending greatly to the enjoyment, and the early part of the evening was spent in pedro, euchre, and whist. Sweet music was discoursed by a first-class orchestra.

About half-past ten the company sat down to an excellent dinner, prepared in Mr. Long's very best style. When the merits of this had been appreciated to the full, a toast list was introduced. Mr. Jas. Hamilton, President of the C.D.A. was in the chair, and on his right sat Mr. Manson Comstock, President of Eko Camp. Mr. Dickson Davidson, Vice-President of the C.D.A., was in the vice chair. The representatives of Eko Camp present were Messrs. M. Comstock, W. R. G. Higgins, R. Glover, L. Ramsden, B. E. Canniff, M. Comstock, G. Jackson, J. Comstock, Howard Wareham, Herb. Martin, John Gemmell and Ed. Clarke. The members of the C.D.A. present were Messrs. Jas. Hamilton, D. Davidson, G. M. Hamilton, F. Bradburn, F. Smallpiece, L. Hall, E. R. Jarvis, P. O. Dumble, H. Rush, F. Burnham and E. S. Clarry.

The health of the King was honored in the usual hearty manner.

Mr. E. S. Clarry proposed "The Guests," referring to the good feeling that existed between them and expressing the hope that it would long continue. The toast was enthusiastically received, and most appropriate replies were made by Mr. M. Comstock, and Mr. R. M. Glover.

"Our Parliamentary Institutions," was the toast proposed by Mr. W. R. G. Higgins, and responded to by Mr. Frank Bradburn.

In an eloquent speech, Mr. D. Davidson proposed "Our Mercantile Intereses," and replies were made by Mr. Ed. Clarke and Mr. Will Comstock.

"The Ladies" was, as usual, proposed by Mr. D. Davidson, in an eloquent eulogy, and the gentlemen who responded were Mr. W. R. G. Higgins, Mr. J. Gemmell, Mr. H. Rush, Mr. R. M. Glover and Mr. L. Hall.

The health of "Absent Members" was proposed and Mr. Geo. Jackson replied. He took occasion to say farewell to his friends, as he has been transferred to the Yonge street Branch of the Dominion Express Company in Toronto. Mr. Jackson leaves a great many well wishers in Peterborough and he expressed appreciation of the kindness he had always received at the hands of those whom he had met here.

The festivities closed with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

PROVINCIAL ELECTIONS—1905.

Address to the Electors.

WEST RIDING OF PETERBOROUGH.

Gentlemen,—Having received at the hands of a duly constituted convention of the Liberal-Conservatives of the West Riding of Peterborough, the nomination for election to the Legislative Assembly of the Province, I have the honor to submit for your consideration my views respecting some of the important questions which may be expected to influence the Electorate at an early date.

SECRECY OF THE BALLOT.

This is a matter of paramount interest to every elector. It has from time to time been a boast, whether rightly or wrongly, that certain Conservatives have supported the Government candidate, it being openly asserted that this boast was born of actual knowledge. The form of ballot now in use makes this possible, and leaves it open for unscrupulous politicians to coerce voters over whom they are supposed to have some power. It has always been, and still is the policy of the Conservative party to render the ballot absolutely secret.

POLITICAL CORRUPTION.

To assert that the party now in power is as free from corrupt practices as the Opposition, is so idle and so opposed to the evidence that it requires no answer. The Government cannot escape the responsibility of the many atrocious acts which have come to light; the names of the recognized agents have appeared so often in connection with these transactions, and though the perpetrators have so flagrantly gone "unwhipped of Justice," no sane person will fail to condemn the authorities who have wilfully become accessories.

ADMINISTRATION.

The affairs of the Province have been so conducted that the expenditure has increased enormously out of proportion to the current revenue. Extravagance has been rampant, contracts for supplies for the public institutions have been awarded without competition; orders without number have been given to party friends, and for the purpose of securing the support of political opponents. The business of the Province has been under a management which, in the case of any large corporation, would not be tolerated. This Government, by virtue of its long lease of power, has become imbued with the idea that the people's money is to be spent for the pleasure and aggrandisement of the party in power. It is time that this state of things should be changed.

OPPOSITION POLICY.

It has been untruthfully stated that Mr Whitney and his followers are unable to, or have failed to pronounce a definite policy. No statement could be further from the truth. On the contrary, Mr. Whitney's policy is well defined with regard to the following among other matters:

1st, The Educational Department; the appointment of an advisory council from among the expert educationists of the Province.

2nd. The administration of the liquor law free from political influence.

3rd. The reservation of the timber, (except pine) for the settler.

4th. A secret ballot for the protection of the voter.

5th, Breaking up the School Book Monopoly.

6th, Localization of the mining offices.

7th, Public ownership of revenue-bearing franchises for the benefit of of the Province.

8th, Branch agricultural colleges.

9th, Better inspection of factories, and labelling of prison made goods as prison made.

10th, To enact proper labor legislation for the prompt settlement of disputes.

11th, Encouragement of systems of sewerage in towns and villages.

The Liberal-Conservative party confidently appeal to the electorate at this time in the history of the Province, in the firm belief that the great heart of the people is with them in the determination to place in power men untainted by such debased associates as have brought the fair name of this Province into undeserved disrepute.

Gentlemen, if the principles which I have attempted to briefly outline commend themselves to your judgment, I ask your support and influence in favor of myself as the Liberal-Conservative candidate. In my humble way, if elected, I will, to the extent of my skill and power, assist in giving effect to these principles.

I have the honor to be,
Yours respectfully,
T. E. BRADBURN

MEDICAL WORK IN FAR OFF INDIA

Miss Dr. McKellar, Returned Missionary, Speaks.

SOME PECULIAR CUSTOMS

Dr. McKellar Has Been 15 Years in India — Many Women Benefited in Both Body and Soul — She Will Address St. Andrew's Congregation on Sunday Night.

Those who attended the weekly prayer meeting in St. Andrew's church last evening, had the pleasure of listening to a short talk by Miss Dr. Margaret McKellar, who about fifteen years ago left Canada as a medical missionary to represent the Presbyterian church in India. Miss McKellar is a very interesting speaker and in her address she referred more particularly to the manner of dealing with the many individual cases which from time to time came under her attention. It had been her intention to continue as far as Perth to-day, but she found it impossible to make railway connections. She had contemplated a visit to Peterborough, but had not seen her way clear, until now by accident she found herself in the place which had been formerly brought to her mind, and she now regarded the disappointment as to connection as possibly having the nature of God's appointment.

NEW YEAR MOTTO

This was the beginning of the New Year and Miss McKellar pointed to the motto, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness." The first message delivered on the birth of Christ was a missionary message, "Behold I bring good tidings of great joy," and his last command was a missionary command, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel," and this was just as much a command to Christians as "Do this in remembrance of me." During the past few years it was growing more and more evident that the whole world would soon be opened up to the entrance of the gospel and there was every reason to believe that missionaries would be able to get to Thibet.

Fifteen years ago next spring, after graduating from Queen's University, Kingston, Miss McKellar stated that she had the privilege of starting out for India. The first six months were spent in taking a post-graduate course in London. On going to India she was stationed in Indore, and shortly after her arrival one of the medical missionaries was taken ill and before she had mastered the language Miss McKellar had to take up medical work. After one year and a half, she returned to London with one of the missionaries who had become ill from paralysis, and eventually died. Upon her arrival again in India, she was stationed at Neemuch, and she related an interesting experience which she had while hunting for a shop to use as a dispensary. It being the custom in India that ladies' faces should be covered, the white visage of a medical missionary was the source of much curiosity. Crowds of boys and men followed wherever she went, and whenever she asked a question, a chorus of voices would answer. She finally succeeded in securing a suitable place and the first day she had seven patients. They are now in that city two missionary dispensaries and a hospital with eighteen beds.

NATIVE CURIOSITY.

An incident was related with regard to early meetings which were held. Those attending seemed to be attentive enough while Miss McKellar was speaking, but the moment she ceased such questions were heard as, "How old is she?" "Wonder what the cloth in her dress cost?" "How many children has she?" In order to find out just what attention had been given a test was made and it was found that out of forty in attendance only three could tell what the missionary had been talking about. This was hardly to be wondered at since the women of India have never been taught to read or think for themselves, but only to grind away in preparation of the daily food and similar duties.

It was difficult at first to distinguish the different castes, but this soon became quite easy. No woman in India knows her own age, and questions by the missionary would bring forth the reply, "My father or mother knows," or so many years at the time of the Mutiny. A guess would therefore have to be made in recording this information.

PECULIAR CUSTOMS

For a woman of caste to receive anything from the hand of the missionary would defile her. It is therefore placed upon the floor and can be immediately taken up by the native woman. The floors and walls are washed with a solution of cow manure—the cow being a sacred animal in India. Millions of people use this material for fuel, and the pungent odor is sometimes very disagreeable. If she should touch a missionary a native woman would have to bathe upon returning home in order to purify herself. She would not want to do this between 5 and 6 o'clock in the afternoon, so the course above referred to is adopted.

The work in the hospital is much more satisfactory than in the dispensary since the patients in the former place remain for some time and their is greater opportunity to give them the message of the gospel. Many have been saved in that way. Nothing will break caste in India, and a woman once converted and baptized is severed entirely from her family. Not a few have been trained for useful Christian service.

BODY AND SOUL CURED

The missionaries take frequent visits into the country villages when they take medicine with which to treat the ailments of those who come to them. On their excursions men are also treated, but not so in the large centres of population, for such is custom that women will not enter the dispensary or hospital when men are about.

Miss McKellar referred to several cases which she had treated in hospital, where body and soul received the benefit. She will address the congregation of St. Andrew's on Sunday evening.

Was Cured of Asthma

"I first used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine with my daughter, who suffered from a severe form of asthma. The least exposure to cold would lay her up and she would nearly suffocate for want of breath. I must say I found it to be a most satisfactory treatment and it has entirely cured her."—Mrs. A. A. VanBuskik, Robinson Street Moncton, N.B.

THE LAW ON THE SUBJECT.

Ottawa Journal

His conduct becomes questionable in public only in light of the question as to whether or not he violated the law. That question is answered by the liquor license act itself. Section 59 of the act reads:

"Every person, not being the occupant or a member of his family or lodger in his house, who buys or obtains or attempts to buy or obtain intoxicating liquor during the time prohibited by this act for the sale thereof . . . shall be guilty of an offence under this act, and shall be liable to a penalty for each offence of not more than $10 and not less than $2 besides costs."

It is plain, then, that as a lodger in the Napanee hotel Mr. Whitney in obtaining refreshment was plainly within his legal rights.

THE SCENE PAINTER.

He Plays an Important Part in Staging a Modern Play.

When a play has been accepted for production it is sent to the scene painter, who goes over it carefully, taking note of all details to be reproduced. Then, if the subject is difficult, he makes a sketch of it in the flat. If this proves satisfactory to manager, actor and author, he builds it up in a miniature model on the scale of half an inch to the foot as perfect in proportion and exquisite in detail as the finished scene. An old gentleman lately, looking over a collection of models in one of the New York studios, remarked that his granddaughter would be delighted to have them for doll houses. The proprietor of the studio smiled to himself. The models for a single play cost well up toward a thousand dollars. For an ordinary four act comedy the models, scenes, properties and costumes cost, let us say, five or six thousand dollars. The cost of the great scenic productions is never as much as the press agents say, but has been known to exceed $100,000.

When the model is approved, the stage carpenter takes measurements for such framework as may be necessary. The clumsy construction of the old days has given way to the solidest sort of building. Windows slide in their sashes; doors slam, shut and lock. Staircases are solid to the tread. Trees are built up in the round, and columns are turned out of solid wood. But as every show is intended to travel among all the great cities of the continent the heaviest scene must be made up of pieces short enough to be packed in a freight car.

The scene painter marks out the pieces of his model in tiny squares and then hangs a huge canvas beside the paint bridge with corresponding squares in scale. The draughtsman stands on the bridge with a piece of charcoal on a stick like a billiard cue and square by square copies the lines of the model, while an assistant raises and lowers the cloth with tackle. Then the body paint is put on, and the details are added until the cloth is complete.—John Corbin in Scribner's.

Hot Water as a Cure.

No domestic remedy can equal hot water in cases of congestion of the lungs, rheumatism or sore throat if tried promptly and thoroughly. An acute attack of croup will be usually relieved in ten minutes if a towel or strip of flannel folded lengthwise and dipped into hot water, then slightly wrung out, be placed around the neck of the sufferer and covered so as to retain the heat. The same placed over the seat of pain will in most cases quickly give relief in neuralgia and toothache and laid over the stomach acts like magic in attacks of colic. Headache almost always yields to the simultaneous application of hot water to the back of the neck and to the feet.

Croup Comes Suddenly.

HENCE THE WISDOM OF KEEPING IN THE HOUSE THE MOST EFFECTIVE CURE.

DR. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED AND TURPENTINE.

Slight hoarseness in the evening is the only warning of croup.

About midnight the child awakes—coughing—that peculiar metallic—cough called croupy, which strikes terror to the mother's heart.

Then begins the struggle for breath, and if relief is to be obtained treatment must be prompt and effective.

Anyone who has tested Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine as a cure for croup will not hesitate to pronounce it an unqualified success.

It is wonderfully prompt in loosening the cough, clearing the air passages of the head, and soothing the excited nerves.

People who realize the suddenness with which croup comes on, and the danger which accompanies it, usually keep some of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine in the house for use in case of emergency.

For bronchitis, whooping cough, asthma, and every form of throat and bronchial trouble, this great family medicine is a quick and certain cure.

Mrs. E. H. Robinson, Tupperville, Kent Co., Ont., writes:—"My husband and baby had very bad colds and coughs, and seeing Dr. Chase's Linseed and Turpentine advertised I decided to try it. The result was highly satisfactory, as both were promptly cured."

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, 25 cents a bottle, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Company, Toronto. To protect you against imitations, the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

Nobody likes an old fool unless he has money.

Curiosity is a gift in young children, the everyday accouterment of women and a cherished secret possession of men.

There is only one way to break up divorces, and that is to abolish the courts.

The Good Old Days.

The gentleman comes out and sings
And tells the world that he Would give a farm and several things
To sit on mother's knee.
He doesn't think about the day
When with her slipper trim
She held him down the other way
And played a tune on him.

We think about the happy hours
When round we frisked like colts,
When life was sunshine sweet and flowers,
Forgetting all the jolts,
Remembering how we used to swim
Or go on horseback rides,
Forgetting how they used to trim
Our jackets and our hides.

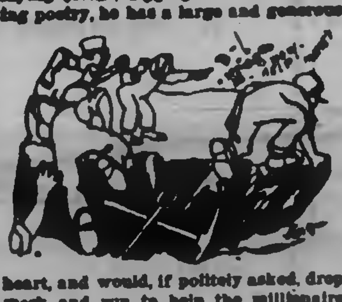
We dream about our golden morn,
When care had spreading wings,
Quite overlooking every thorn,
Stone bruises and such things.
We tell our children of the pies
That mother used to make,
But not a word about the sighs
Or of the stomach ache.

Yes, looking backward to the past,
We only see the gold.
They seem one playtime sweet and vast,
Those palmy days of old.
No tears of sorrow dimmed our eyes,
No discord marred our joys,
No clouds obscured the pleasant skies
When you and I were boys.

Let Them Call.

Why don't these millionaires who are afraid they will not be able to spend all their money, and may thus die rich and disgraced, go to the telephone and call for help? They need not be particular as to whose number they ring up. The first one that comes handy will do.

While the average man is pretty busy laying bricks, digging a sewer or writing poetry, he has a large and generous heart, and would, if politely asked, drop work and run to help the millionaire spend his money.



With so many ablebodied men willing to act as first aid, the millionaire will only have himself to blame if he dies rich. If he is looking for speedy results let him put a well worded ad. in the paper, and the street in front of his house will be blocked with men who would gladly help him or die in the attempt.

The Price Helps.

'Tis not the cost that to the gift
Good value seems to render;
It is the love that's in the deed,
The spirit of the sender.
And yet it somehow does not tickle
If it was purchased for a nickel.

Couldn't See the Benefit.

"I hear he assigned for the benefit of his creditors."

"Yes; that was the report, but they are still wondering where the benefit for them comes in."

Proof Enough.

"Do you think he really loves her?"

"Does he love her? She weighs 200 pounds, and he offered to teach her how to skate."

Would Take Less.

The gentleman who wants the earth
Quite often, like as not,
Would be quite glad to compromise
On some choice corner lot.

Knew His Mother-in-law.

"You horrid, mean thing. I am going right home to my ma."

"That is a queer idea, to punish yourself just to get even with me."

APRIL SHOWERS

The raindrops pattered down as merrily and musically as if an unexpected shower were a most delightful thing. They washed the brick pavement to a fresh red, making tiny rivulets of the gutters.

But Phyllis Dalrymple was not occupied with admiration of the raindrops' pranks. It was provoking! Ten minutes before there had not been a suspicion of rain. And here she was cooped up on the tiny piazza of an apartment house, without the remotest hope of rescue till the rain should please to cease. How empty the street seemed too!

A lone pedestrian! Enviable creature, with rain coat and umbrella, sauntering along as if being out in the rain were the pleasantest thing imaginable, and now—what an odd young man he was—stopping right in front of her to watch the tiny river swirl and divide upon an obstructing brick!

"I beg your pardon, sir, but could you possibly let me"— Her voice faltered.

Herbert Ward heeled about and beheld, perched on the top step under the narrow shelter, a most alluring picture of distress.

"Can I be of assistance?" he began, drawing nearer, hat in hand. "You were speaking to me?"

The vision stiffened from its appealing attitude.

"You must be mistaken, sir. I do not recall having met you." Then, hastily, at his look of injured surprise "Oh, yes, yes. Forgive me. I did speak to you. Oh, please don't go away and leave me now!"

The bewilderment on Ward's face was so very frank that the girl broke into a ripple of laughter.

"Really, I must ask you to forgive me again. I do not mean to be rude. But it was funny to see you looking as overcome as I felt. There! That smile makes me sure you are good natured, and if you'll come up out of the rain I'll try to tell you."

Ward accepted with alacrity.

"You see I was caught by the shower"—Ward nodded, with a comprehensive glance at the dainty toilet—"and I simply must go on, because I promised to take this lace pattern to old Mrs. Walker, and I always keep my word. And I couldn't wait very long either, because I've an engagement at 3. And there's no car, no cab no anything—and you just looked like salvation—and I was sure you hadn't anything to do, because you weren't hurrying at all, you know"—

"Not a thing except your bidding until 3," assented Ward. "I, too, have an appointment."

"Then you could just as well as not, you know, walk along? I don't believe I ever asked any one before," she confessed, with a charming blush, in apology for her embarrassment.

"Couldn't have done so well with years of experience," declared Ward, looking interested. "My worthy umbrella and humble self are yours most devotedly. And as it seems already to be raining quite a little less viciously perhaps you'd like to start," he suggested.

"You are very kind," replied Phyllis demurely, gathering up her ruffles preparatory to setting out.

As a matter of fact, it was not raining much now, but the big umbrella and its stalwart owner were excellent company in the deserted street.

"I almost believe I like unconventionality," said Phyllis, picking her way as a dainty woman will. "It's so—well, different from everyday."

"I am convinced that I like unconventionality, if this is it," responded Ward.

Phyllis looked reproachful.

"This was what I thought about it before I first spoke," she said hurriedly. "Of course we don't know each other at all"—

"Worse luck!" said a voice at her side.

—"but I need to be rescued, and he's apparently nothing better to do than rescue me. He looks trustworthy, and after he takes me to Mrs. Walker's, where I can send for the carriage, we shall never see each other again"—

"Never see each other again! Oh, I say, after I do my best"—

—"and as I am perfectly sure"—with no hesitation to show that she heard a word of the protest—"from his appearance that he would not dream of taking advantage of my confidence I think I shall run the risk of appealing to his generosity."

They walked for a minute silently. Then she stole a glance at his clear cut face, flushed with mortification, and relented.

"You are doing me such a favor"—more genially—"that I don't mind telling you that I was horribly frightened after I spoke and truly believe I should have run away the minute you turned if it hadn't been for the rain."

"Thank heaven for rain!" he murmured so fervently that they both smiled and caught each other in the act.

"But I really think it's not raining a drop now," she said. "There's nothing left but the sprinkle from the trees."

"It would ruin your frock in no time." And he gave the exquisitely gowned little figure another openly approving glance.

"But, of course," responded Phyllis, "I couldn't permit myself to presume upon your kindness when I don't really need you, and, you see, the sun is trying its best to shine this very minute."

"May failure attend its efforts—that is—I mean—you know how very uncertain such weather is, and if I allowed you to be caught again I'd never forgive myself."

"Oh, you wouldn't think of it again, of course," she laughed coyly. "But I should be desolated if I caused you to miss your appointment. It's quite a little nearer 3 than it was, you know."

"Hang the appointment! Oh, I say, I beg your pardon, you know. But really I'm having such a good time I'd forgotten, and it's a bore anyway."

"The appointment?"

"Yes, a beastly duty, you see. You wouldn't mind my unburdening myself? I'm just in town for a few weeks on business, and an old school chum made me promise I'd look up his sister—gave me a letter and all that, which I'm to present this afternoon. I know her sort too well—the frothy, gushy kind. Old Bob's the right stuff, but these girls—Lord, I'd no end rather be excused. If it had only been some one like you, now"—

"Oh, you really mustn't say it," came a queer, muffled voice.

Ward looked down to see a very pink face, a pair of unaccountably roguish eyes and a tempting mouth that twitched at the corners.

"Why mustn't I say it?" he persisted. "Hang conventionality! There I go again—but hang it anyway! Here I am having the best time of my life, and just because we happen not to have met formally I can't say what I think. And, worse still, I've got to go presently and run my head straight into a noose. Probably find an 'at home,' and the house full of others just like her. I'd not rebel at all if you were to 'take care' of me—that is, if you were willing. Can't we be introduced or something, whatever would be necessary to make it proper?"

The pretty face had burned pinker and pinker.

"Don't you think you're a bit hard on a girl you've never seen?" suggested the same muffled voice.

"Don't have to see her. What's more, don't want to. I know the sort, I tell you. But Bob"—

"Bob who? I might know his sister."

"Bob Dalrymple. Grand old chap too."

"I knew it!" triumphantly. "I mean—yes, I have heard of him. And here we are at Mrs. Walker's. You can't think how grateful I am for the share in your umbrella—and your very refreshing frankness. Goodby."

"Oh, I say! You're going to let me find you again, aren't you? To lose you at once for a mere form when I've waited all these years."

The genuine distress on his face was too much for Phyllis' composure, and the repressed laughter came in a gale of merriment.

"I won't detain you longer," she said, swinging the gate with her toe. "I have an engagement at 3—something of a nuisance too. I shall have to entertain a friend of my brother's, and I understand he's rather a stick—not half as charming as you have been, I'm sure."

Then the gate slammed against her hand, and a shower of white cards sprinkled the walk. Ward bent to pick up her purse and from every white square was confronted by the words, "Miss Phyllis Dalrymple."

"Miss Dalrymple," he stammered in an agony of humiliation. "I—I—how could you let me—I"—.

But Phyllis was tripping up the walk. As she reached the step she turned and smiled. Just then the sun burst from behind a cloud, transforming the world into a sparkle of diamond drops.

"Miss Dalrymple will be at home, alone, at 3," she said. "It is possible that she would listen to a—well, let us say an explanation."

A Few Moments of Leisure.

Thrift and industry have been the guiding stars of Miss Jelly's life. During a sojourn in the Adirondacks with an invalid niece she made the best of her time and has only twenty-four hours to regret—hours during which she was lost in deep woods into which she had ventured to search for a desired medicinal plant.

Her absence much alarmed her niece, and when the search party at last returned with Miss Jelly, whom they had found hungry, but safe, the niece fell on her aunt's neck.

"Oh, Aunt Phoebe," she sobbed, "weren't you frightened to death out in those dreadful woods all night?"

"Frightened!" said Miss Jelly, with fine scorn. "No, I wasn't. I reckoned there wouldn't be any critters but what I could get away from if it came to that, for I can climb with the best, and I'd chosen my tree. But it did make me mad to think of the chance I had to study out that knitting pattern Miss Brown's cousin sent her, and there I was with not a single knitting needle or a mite o' yarn!"—Youth's Companion.

To Clean Up Silver.

"They say alcohol will clean silver up nicely," remarked the man who acquires facts.

"It will," agreed the red nosed individual. "It cleaned up all my silver."—Philadelphia Record.

CANADA'S DAY DREAM.

London Post Comments On the Dominion's Unwillingness to Pay For the Cost of Defence.

London, Jan. 12.—(C.A.P.)—Referring to the support of Sir Wilfrid Laurier by the English as well as the French-speaking Canadians, The Morning Post says: "We cannot help thinking that many Canadian politicians over-rate the force of Quebec's passive resistance to proposals having for their object the participation of Canada in the work of Imperial defence. At times we have thought Sir Wilfrid Laurier shared their mistake.

"There can be no doubt of the wave of anti-militarism now passing over Canada, and that the majority of Canadians disregard the necessity of defending even their land frontier, and are unwilling to pay the cost of insuring their national welfare against other war risks.

"As yet little or nothing has been done by the Minister of Militia to bring Canada out of the defenceless state described by Lord Dundonald as a "fool's paradise." The Opposition is so weak both in numbers and debating power that it cannot do much to awaken the Canadian people from their day dream of peace for which no price need be paid."

Chamberlain to Asquith.

London, Jan. 12.—(C.A.P.)—Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, speaking at Preston, first replied to Right Hon. Mr. Asquith, probably his most persistent critic, and by profession a lawyer. Mr. Chamberlain said:

"Am I a protectionist? I wonder what Mr. Asquith would say, how he would describe Sir Wilfrid Laurier? Is he a protectionist, that great colonial statesman? If he is not a protectionist, then neither am I, since I agree with his policy in every particular. If he is a protectionist, or if Mr. Asquith calls him so, why I should like to ask why did his clients, the Cobden Club, give Sir Wilfrid Laurier the greatest honor which it was possible for them to pay him, giving him the gold medal of that magnificent association—cheers and laughter—on the distinct ground of the service that he rendered free trade."

Detective Sees Hold-Up.

Toronto, Jan. 12.—Last night Detective Forrest was doing office duty at police headquarters. He heard a cry for help, and looking out of the window saw two men holding up and assaulting another on Albert street. The assailants had gone on their way, but Forrest saw a man turning the corner who resembled one of the men he had seen from the window. He arrested him. It was Wilson. The victim of the assault was Harry Cowan, a clerk in a store, 433 East King street. His face showed that he had been badly beaten. Wilson's hands were covered with blood when arrested by Forrest. He admits the assault, but denies the theft of the $8, which Cowan claims to have lost in the mix-up.

OPERATIONS NOT ALWAYS NECESSARY.

Doctors Frequently Mistaken.

"I suffered untold agony with piles for over three years. Two doctors told me nothing but an operation would cure me. I tried different remedies, but nothing did me any good until I used Pyramid Pile Cure. I bought six fifty cent boxes at the drug store, and now I can do my work and go out, where before I spent most of my time lying down. I thank God for giving the discoverer the knowledge to make such a cure. I recommend it to all my friends, and if I ever have piles again will certainly use this remarkable remedy. You can use this in any way you wish to make known the wonderful merit of Pyramid Pile Cure." (Mrs. Wm. Musky, 81 Marshall street, Elizabeth, N. J.

The experience of this lady is that of thousands of others who have been assured that nothing short of an operation would rid them of this distressing complaint. On the face of it, it appears as if too many surgeons operate in order that they may keep their hand in, and lose no portion of their skill; then, again too many surgeons are anxious to experiment (like the scientific man in Mark Twain's pathetic story of the dog and her little puppy), and do not have proper regard for a patient's physical welfare or condition.

We advise every sufferer to think twice before submitting to an operation, try this, and suggest that those interested write to the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., for their little book on the causes and cure of piles, which is sent free for the asking.

MAY MEET IN AUTUMN

Joint High Commission May Yet Discuss Reciprocity.

Correspondence Still in Progress About Such a Meeting Between Sir Wilfrid Laurier and U.S. Senator Fairbanks—Report of "Signal Failure" As Reported Said to Be Inaccurate—Meanwhile Roosevelt Stands Pat On the Tariff.

New York, Jan. 12.—A Washington special last night to The Times, says: Too much credence should not be put in the report published in New York yesterday morning that the negotiations for the reassembling of the Joint High Commission have fallen through. Correspondence is still in progress between Mr. Fairbanks and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and hope has not been abandoned that the commission will reconvene to discuss Canadian reciprocity and other questions. While some hitch may have occurred to give rise to the present report, your correspondent is reliably informed that the report of a signal failure "is inaccurate," and from another source that "the story may be discredited."

Mr. Fairbanks, following his custom, refused to comment on the report. The belief is still entertained that the Vice-President-elect and the Canadian Premier will soon meet in New York or Boston to arrange for the commission's sessions.

Information obtained yesterday afternoon shows the basis for the morning's published report to be that the idea of a spring session of the Joint High Commission has been abandoned, but a meeting in the autumn is more probable. The overtures now being conducted have that end in view.

STANDS PAT ON THE TARIFF.

Roosevelt Will Not Permit Radical Change in Platform.

Washington, Jan. 12.—President Roosevelt continued yesterday his conference with members of Congress on the subject of tariff revision and of legislation providing for an increase of the powers of Inter-State Commerce Committee. One statement which stands out almost with the pre-eminence of an official announcement is that, unless Congress at the present session should enact legislation looking to regulation of railroad freight rates, an extraordinary session of the fifty-ninth Congress will be called by the President to deal with that problem. While the President desires a readjustment of the existing customs duties he will not permit any radical differences in the Republican platform on the question.

90 Per Cent. Against.

A prominent member of the Ways and Means Committee of the House said yesterday that the poll which the leaders of the House had conducted of the Republican members on tariff revision showed that 90 per cent. of those approached were against revision.

DARING HAMILTON BURGLAR.

Does Much Work and Secures $120 in Ten Minutes.

Hamilton, Jan. 12.—One of the most daring robberies ever committed in Hamilton was pulled off last evening, when the T. H. & B. ticket office, at the Hunter street station, was rifled and $120 booty secured. Albert Craig, the ticket agent, left the office in charge of Edwin Yorick, at 6.40 last evening. Yorick locked both doors of the office at 6.45 and ran to the offices upstairs in the station building. He was gone only ten minutes, but during the time the door leading from the ladies' waiting room into the ticket office had been forced open by means of a jimmy, the thief had grabbed $120 from the till and had disappeared. The door is a stout one and was secured by two locks. The thief, judging by the marks he left on the door, worked like a Trojan, and broke one lock and forced the other. Yorick declares that when he went upstairs there was not a soul in either the ladies' or general waiting room, and there was nobody around when he came back. The office was brilliantly lighted by electricity, and the ticket office door forced is in full view of both James and Hunter streets. There were several men in the baggage room next to the waiting rooms and several clerks in the offices upstairs at the time.

COMPANY WILL RIGHT WRONG.

Employe Convicted of Larceny Proved to Be Innocent.

Buffalo, Jan. 12.—Addison Lucas has just been released from Lockport Jail, where he has been confined since last July, under an indictment charging grand larceny in the second degree, in abstracting money from envelopes of an express company by which he was employed. After his arrest the thefts continued, and further investigation led to the arrest of another man, who, when confronted by the evidence, is said to have confessed, also admitted taking the money which Lucas was accused of stealing. The officers of the company say they will right the wrong done Lucas by giving him a better position.

Better Late Than Never.

Ottawa, Jan. 12.—It is expected that the South Africa, 1901, clasps will be received shortly from the Imperial authorities for distribution to those officers, non-coms. and men of Strathcona's Horse who are entitled thereto.

Died From Injuries.

Hamilton, Jan. 12.—Mrs. Temple, widow of the late John Temple, who fell downstairs a few days ago, died of her injuries yesterday morning.

TWO JUDGMENTS.

Messrs. Bernier and Mills of the Railway Commission Differ.

Ottawa, Jan. 12.—Yesterday afternoon the Railway Commission gave judgment in the Toronto Esplanade matter. There were two judgments. Mr. Bernier takes one view, and Mr. Mills another. The judgment of Mr. Bernier is that the question of compensation should be left to the arbitrators, who are appointed in cases of expropriation. In his opinion the Railway Board cannot decide the question of compensation, because the Commissioners have not the evidence before them. It is the Board that authorizes the expropriation of lands. The whole point turns upon the interpretation of section 139 of the Railway Act. This section provides that "the Board may in its discretion and upon such terms and conditions as the Board deems expedient, authorize in writing the expropriation of the whole or any portion of the lands applied for."

The point lies in "the terms and conditions," in the opinion of Mr. Mills, who holds that the Commissioners can give compensation if they so desire. Mr. Bernier's idea is that the words "terms and conditions" are put in with the object to protect the property which remains unexpropriated. On the other hand, Mr. Mills holds that the Commissioners have special power under the act, which entitles them to instruct the arbitrators to give compensation to the aggrieved parties from the date at which the application was made for the land, some eight months ago.

It has decided to grant the application for the expropriation of the Williams property, and has fixed upon the 10th of February as the date at which the applicant company must accept or reject the order.

HOTELS MAY KEEP OPEN.

Nothing in Act to Prevent Sale of Soft Drinks Election Day.

Toronto, Jan. 12.—Eudo Saunders, chief of the Ontario License Department, agrees with James Haverson's contention in the Galt liquor case, that there is nothing in the act to prevent a hotel-keeper keeping his place of business open on municipal election day, provided he does not sell liquor. This question is covered by section 58 of the Ontario Liquor Act, which provides that a hotel-keeper may not sell liquor on election day.

Under section 170 of the Ontario Election Act, a penalty of $100 or six months' imprisonment is provided for each offence, described as follows:

"No spirituous or fermented liquor or strong drink shall be sold or given at any hotel, tavern, shop or other place within the limits of a polling sub-division, during the polling day therein, or any part thereof, under a penalty of $100 for every offence; and the offender shall be subject to imprisonment not exceeding six months, at the discretion of the court or judge, in default of payment of such fine."

In the Galt case, the defendant hotel-keeper is charged with disposing of soft drinks and cigars.

Will Meet Mr. Prefontaine.

Albany, N.Y., Jan. 12.—The special Inter-State Commerce Commission, appointed by the last Legislature to secure uniform laws regarding the netting of fish in the waters bordering New York, Vermont and Canada left here yesterday to meet the Canadian Minister of Marine and Fisheries, Prefontaine, at Ottawa this morning.

They Stay.

Halifax, N.S., Jan. 12.—A. A. McLean and Martin, members-elect in Queen's, Prince Edward Island, were yesterday confirmed in their seats.

HAVE HAD THEIR DAY.

Old Fashioned Medicines For Catarrh No Longer In Vogue.

For many years past the usual treatment for catarrh diseases was with local douches, sprays, inhalers and liquid medicines composed principally of alcohol, all of which never cured but simply give the temporary relief and stimulation.

A thorough cure can be made only by the treatment which removes the catarrhal poisons from the blood.

A new remedy which meets the requirements and which so far has been remarkably successful in curing catarrh is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

These tablets act upon the blood and mucous membrane only.

They can hardly be classed as a secret patent medicine as they are composed of such valuable remedies as blood root, Hydrastin, red gum of Eucalyptus tree and similar antiseptics, combined in tablet form which cure by eliminating from the blood and mucous membrane the poisons of catarrh.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are large, pleasant lozenges, to be taken internally, allowing them to dissolve in the mouth, thus reaching the throat, trachea and finally the stomach.

If desired they may also be dissolved in water and used as a douche, in addition to the internal use, but it is not at all necessary to use a a douche; a few of them dissolved in the mouth daily will be sufficient. However when there is much stoppage of the nose a douche made from these tablets will give immediate relief, but the regular daily use internally will cure the whole catarrhal trouble without resorting to the inconvenience of a douche.

Dr. Bennett stated "that the internal, treatment of catarrh by means of pleasant medicated tablets is rapidly taking the place of douches and local applications" and further says that "probably the best, and certainly the safest remedy at present on the market is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, as no secret is made of their composition and all the really efficient catarrh remedies are concentrated in this tablet."

Druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at 50 cts. for full sized package, and he will tell you there is no safer, more palatable, efficient and convenient catarrh cure known to the the trade.

Seven to One

That is about the ratio. About seven times as many persons are injured as die from all causes yearly.

Accidents are a more prolific cause of death than any disease except lung diseases.

Twice as many people are accidently killed as die of old age. Does it not seem reasonable to you as a business man that it would be to your interest to carry an accident policy?

YOU are subject to over two hundred diseases, and liable to accidents without number.

Official figures prove that One Man in Five carrying an Accident and Sickness Policy makes a claim for indemnity each year.

YOU have no guarantee that you will not be the One Man who will be disabled this year.

GEORGE DUCHSCHERER
PROPRIETOR

Dominion's New Grain Inspector.

Ottawa, Jan. 12.—David Horn, Winnipeg, chief grain inspector of Manitoba, has been appointed chief grain inspector for the Dominion. E. F. Craig, chief grain inspector, eastern division, is not affected in any way, except that Mr. Horn will have supervision over the entire grain inspection of the Dominion. Mr. Horn's appointment is probably contingent upon other grain districts being erected farther west, where there has recently been a demand for various inspections.

Will Be Deported.

Montreal, Jan. 12.—"I can say I did not do it," said Sarah Ann Pearson, after Extradition Commissioner Lafontaine had finished the reading to her of some forty closely written foolscap pages of depositions taken in County Armagh, Ireland, all having bearing on the charge made against her of having poisoned her mother-in-law, Alice Pearson, 74 years of age. The girl will be sent back.

Saves Himself By Deserting Wife.

Galt, Jan. 12.—Chief Gorman discovered the fugitive jail-breakers, Bernard Trevitt and wife, yesterday at a farmhouse, near the village of Freelton. The man got wind of the pursuit, however, and cruelly left his wife in order to save himself from re-arrest. He is still at large, while the luckless woman is in Berlin jail, with the charge of jail-breaking lodged against her.

Sawmill Burned.

Burk's Falls, Jan. 12.—The sawmill owned by C. N. Stacey, about 1½ miles west of this village, was burned to the ground Tuesday night. Loss, probably $1,200; no insurance.

Jealousy Prompts Murders.

Chicago, Jan. 12.—With a pistol and razor John Miller, a cook, killed his wife and two daughters yesterday and shot himself. Jealousy is believed to be the cause.

If You Don't Buy Here We Both Lose Money

Another year has gone. It's pleasant to tell of sales far beyond all previous year's, for they indicate general prosperity as well as the progress of this store. But to you such growth means more still; it tells unmistakably of the increasing attractiveness of our Fur Goods and also the drawing power of our Fur Prices. The bigger the manufacturing business the lower the cost of production, consequently "If you don't buy here we both lose money." Just now we call attention to our extra fine showing of—

HOCKEY GOSSIP.

What the Puck Chasers Are Doing, or Are Going to Do.

The T.A.S. left for Campbellford on the 2.05 G.T.R. train this afternoon to play their first Trent Valley game. With the exception of Meagher, none of last year's seniors were on the team. Quigley and Kenneally have had T.V.L. experience, having played with Lakefield last season. The team will be picked from the following players who went down this afternoon;—Clancy, Meagher, Kelly, Deforge, T. McGrath, Quigley, Kenneally and Ross.

To-night's City League games are arousing lots of interest, especially the first one between the Karnots and the Verniers. The latter have almost a new line-up from the one that was defeated by the Farriers.

The Karnots will be very strong also, and are confident of adding another to their string of victories. The second game between the Farriers and Earl Greys should be easy money for the former.

The Verniers will line up as follows in their game with the Karnots to-night:—

Goal—N. Miller.
Point—Angelsy.
Cover Point—McDonald.
Rover—G. Miller.
Centre—Morris.
Right Wing—McWilliams.
Left Wing—F. McGrath.

That's a pretty husky bunch for the speedy Karnots to run up against. McGrath was one of the champion T.A.S. team last year, and McWilliams is playing a star game for the junior O.H.A. team.

The Farriers will play the following team against the Earl Greys to-night:—

Goal—Thornton.
Point—Simpson.
Cover Point—Squires.
Rover—H. Long.
Left Wing—Nicholls.
Centre—A. Long.

The Verniers will play an exhibition game in Lakefield on Saturday night with the senior team of that village.

The junior Aberdeens will journey to Lakefield on Saturday, where they will meet the Grove School team in the afternoon on the school open air rink.

The Aberdeens will meet the West ends in the Brock-st. rink to-night after the City League games.

The standing of the junior teams in this district is as follows:—

	Won.	Lost.	To play
Port Hope	1	0	5
Belleville	2	1	3
Cobourg	1	1	4
Peterborough	0	2	4

There will be a full practice of the juniors this evening before the City League games.

Port Perry took a fall out of Lindsay last night by defeating them in Port Perry by a score of 4 to 2. It looks pretty easy for the locals to-morrow night.

The standing of the senior clubs in this district is as follows:—

	Won.	Lost.	To play
Peterborough	1	1	6
Port Perry	1	1	6
Lindsay	1	1	6

GUILD LEAGUE OPENS.

The Guild League got under way last night when the George-st. and Charlotte-st. Guilds met on All Saints' rink in a blinding snow storm. It was a very close and fast game, the score at full time being a score. The referee, V. Morphet, decided not to have the game played off. Charlotte-st. were the heavier, but George-st. were faster and played nice hockey. Charlotte-st. scored the only goal in the first half and lead at half time by 1—0. George-st. found the nets once in the second half, Weekes doing the trick:—

The teams lined up as follows:—

George-st.		Charlotte-st.
	Goal
Metheral		Sanderson
	Point
Best		F. Roddy
	Coverpoint.
Weekes		Moore
	Rover
Parnell		McWilliams
	Centre
Cressman		Ryan
	Right Wing
Jamieson		Roddy
	Left Wing
Brownscombe		Alfords

Referee—V. Morphet.

Cobourg defeated Picton in the former place on Tuesday night by 12—1 in a Trent Valley League game.

St John's and All Saints' Guilds will meet in the second game in the Guild League on All Saints' rink to-night.

Lindsay will be here to-morrow night with a big bunch of rooters and a large amount of confidence to play the locals. The confidence has diminished considerably since last night's defeat by Port Perry. The locals will be in good shape, although Chris. Graham may not be able to play. Several of the team had a workout last night with the T.A.S. It will be a great game.

CURLING.

BEDELIAS—7 TERRIERS 4

In a game abounding in astounding hockey and funny incidents, Hickey's Terriers went down to defeat last night at the hands of Barrie's Bedelias by a score of 7—4. The winners were reinforced by recruits from the Young Nationals and Aberdeens, but had all kinds of trouble in winning out. "Beaver" Hickey at cover point for the Terriers was the star. He used his weight to advantage and the Bedelias shot out like bullets from a gun when even they ran into him. Clancy did some fast playing on the forward line. The Bedelias were all stars. The score at half time was 5—2 in favor of Barries.

The teams were as follows—

Terriers		Bedelias
	Goal
H Hickey		Carey
	Point.
Dunn		A Seymour
	Cover Point
M J Hickey		J Seymour
	Rover.
Snider		C Ray
	Centre
Davidson		Clarke
	Right Wing
Clancy		Gorman
	Left Wing
Wesley		Vanderwater

Referee—Gordon Nicholls.

The Meter department hereby challenges the painters of the C.G.E. to a game of hockey to be played in Brock street rink at an early date.

Harry Morgan will referee the first game in the City League to-night, and Ernie Wasson will handle the bell in the second. With two such officials the games will have to be clean.

THE TURF.

Local horses took a prominent part in the Port Perry Ice races held yesterday. In the 2.40 class, Jim X owned by C. Fife, of Peterborough, finished in fourth place in a field of six.

In the 2.20 class Velma owned by H. Cook, Peterborough, took first money in a field of seven, Black Mack owned by J. Tamblyn, Peterborough, finishing in sixth place.

Lost on the Ice on Lake Erie.

No landmarks can be seen. There is nothing by which to direct a course. A man may easily be lost and wander until overcome. Too often this has happened, and hardly a winter has passed without some such disaster.

A man so lost will often trust to the instinct of the dogs to find a way home through the bewildering storm and gloom. Sometimes, however, even the animals have been at fault. In a recent case a fisherman with three dogs was overtaken on the homeward way by a sudden tempest of wind and snow. To see even a few feet must have been impossible, and even the dogs must have been overcome with fright or found that they were unable to guide themselves in the right direction. Still, though two were loose, they did not desert the man. When the searching parties found him on the following day he was dead, frozen to death, but the dogs with him were alive. One dog, which had not been unharnessed, was mad, however, and had to be killed at once.—George Hibbard in Harper's Magazine.

Look to Your Walk.

Look to your walk. It has more to do with your success or failure than you perhaps dream of. Don't slouch. Don't wabble. Don't shuffle. Don't strut. Walk like a man who is determined to play a man's part in life, with head erect and feet planted firmly on the ground.

One may see on the streets of a city every day many people who are walking failures. There is not the slightest energy in their movements. Their whole bearing gives testimony of their weakness. How do we know that they are failures? Nothing is simpler. There is a subtle connection between the mind and the body. The mental attitude is reflected in the spontaneous movements of the body, and you can very quickly tell by a man's walk and general bearing whether his mind is alert, his spirit progressive and earnest and his whole being full of life and vigor and determination or he is a slipshod, lazy, lifeless creature.—Success.

A WOMAN'S PHILOSOPHY.

There ain't no possible good 's c'n come o' lendin' money to them 's ain't able to pay it back.

'S far 's my observation 's extended, it's always folks a long ways off 's it's wisest to lay all faults to.

No woman as 's goin' to fall in love ever ought to begin by marryin' another man first. It mixes things all up.

'S far 's my observation 's extended, no one don't ask for advice 'nless they've pretty well made up their mind not to take it.

It's better for you to learn the lesson 's all is vanity now than to wait 'n' have it fall on your head like a unexpected pickle jar.

I didn't get my trunk down 'cause I'll have Friday to pack anyhow, 'n' any one c'n slide a trunk down a ladder any time, but nobody can't never slide nothin' up nowhere.—"Susan Clegg and Her Friend, Mrs. Lathrop," by Anne Warner.

Could Meet, but Not Greet.

Caller—Mr. Ardup, you said last month if I would come on the 15th you'd be ready to meet this note, and I've brought it. Mr. Ardup—Why, the fact is I'm—er—ready to meet it for old acquaintance sake, but it's simply impossible for me to be chummy with it. Can't you come again some time next week?

Vivisection.

There is a knowledge which is heavenly, a knowledge which is human and a knowledge which is diabolic; there is a knowledge which is blessed and a knowledge which is accursed. The first is ennobling and elevating and lifts man toward God. The second is debasing, degrading, and drags men toward the pit. The knowledge gained by rooting amid the groans and agonies of living creatures, whom their Maker and ours put into our power, to teach us mercy, as he gives mercy to us, is such an accursed knowledge that only demons could seek for it, and it can turn to no human good. "Science" so gained is not for men, but for devils.—Bishop Hugh Miller Thompson in Success.

Battles In the Snow.

Many great battles have been fought in the snow, Eilau and Hohenlinden being familiar examples. Austerlitz was fought in intensely cold weather, and the Russian losses were increased by Napoleon turning the fire of his artillery on the frozen lakes over which the Russians sought to retreat. In our civil war Fort Donelson was captured in February, Fredericksburg was fought in December, Stone River Dec. 31, 1862, Jan. 2, 1863, and Thomas defeated and ruined Hood's army at Nashville on the 15th and 16th of December, 1864.

His Mark.

It is well known that people who are unable to write usually use for their signatures the familiar cross or X. Why this sign is used instead of any other is not generally known. In times long gone by the early Christians used to sign with the cross to distinguish them from the heathen. Kings and nobles, too, were wont to affix a cross to documents, whether they could write or not, as a symbol that they pledged themselves to the Christian faith and thus to the truth of the matter to which the cross was affixed.

A Retort.

"You are not in it with me," said the nightingale, with a superior air. "You can't touch a high note at all."

"No?" replied the bird of paradise. "Why, even when I'm dead and embalmed on a bonnet I'll bet I'll come pretty near touching a fifty dollar note, all right."

Indigestion and Headache

Mr. Duncan McPherson, Content, Alta., writes:—"I was for many years troubled with indigestion and headache, and derived no relief from the many remedies I used. A friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and after taking four boxes, the result is that I am once more in the full enjoyment of the blessings of good health."

Another of Fair's Startling
Glove Sales!

"Perrin's" Quality.

●●●●

A short story with much food for economic reflection in it for the Ladies, but it will require prompt action as well for there'll be a rush at the price. This unmatchable sale will include

600 PAIRS PERRIN'S KID AND SUEDE GLOVES

"PERRIN'S" remember—which means the best in France, and corresponds to "sterling" on a piece of silver. Included are a limited number of pairs of rare sample Gloves of other celebrated French makers.

These stylish 600 are made from selected skins, of elastic quality, with chic 2-dome fasteners, and are innovations in color and finish for the most fastidious women.

ORIGINAL PRICES were:—$1.50, $1.25, $1.00.

Will be sold at the startling price of—

55c Per Pair

COLORS—White, Greys, Modes, Beavers, Browns, Champagnes and Blacks.

The foundation of Fair's value-giving in Gloves is the experience of twenty years as experts in Glove buying.

Saturday, January 14th

A Morning and an Evening Sale

BOBCAYGEON HOTEL BURNED

Accomodation Now at Premium—Fire Engine Tampered With.

The Hotel Royal, at Bobcaygeon, was destroyed by fire, which broke out about 4 o'clock yesterday morning. The alarm was given by a sick man lodging at the hotel, and the inmates had scarcely time to escape. Children were taken out of windows and others used the fire escapes. The building was a total loss together with the furniture and stock of liquors.

The building was owned by Garnet Hunter. It was worth $3,000 and was insured for half that amount in the Liverpool and Globe, while the contents, valued at $2,500 were uninsured. The fire spread so rapidly that a number of the guests had to jump from the windows without their clothing. A pair of trousers belonging to Mr. Hunter, with $200 in the pockets were burned.

A stove in the cellar is supposed to have been the source of the fire, but the fact that the village fire engine was found with a plug drawn that allowed all the water to escape, lends color to the incendiary theory. When about a year ago the Rockland House House was burned the engine was found to have been tampered with in the same way. That has been only partially rebuilt, so that since there were only two hotels in the place, accommodation is now at a premium.

Special to The Review.

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 13—At a caucus of the Conservative members and Senators this morning, Mr. R. L. Borden, who was present, was again offered the leadership of the party.

Mr. Borden thanked his colleagues for their honor and accepted conditionally. He must get a constituency, the party must be thoroughly reorganized and he must be given a free hand as leader.

MR. R. L. BORDEN

Mr. Borden also approved of holding a Dominion convention. Mr. Borden will likely run in Carleton County, Mr. Kidd having reaffirmed his willingness to resign.

BRIEF NEWS NOTES.

What is Taking Place in Peterborough and Its Vicinity.

—Fifteen women exercised their franchise at the recent municipal elections in Hastings.

—Mr. G. E. Whiten is preparing a fine large group picture of the football team from Bridgenorth.

—Mr. Arthur W. O. Scriver, of Hastings has gone to Rat Portage, Ont., where he will take a position on the "Miner" staff as manager.

—The annual meeting of the West Peterborough Agricultural Society will likely be held on Wednesday, February 8th.

—Hon. G. P. Graham, the Provincial Secretary and Hon. J. R. Stratton, will address a meeting in the Opera House to-night in the interests of Mr. McWilliams.

—Miss Murphy, for several years organist of St. Paul's church, Norwood, has been engaged by Rev. Father Whibbs as organist of the Roman Catholic church, Campbellford.

—Attend the big rally in the Conservative committee rooms to-morrow night. There will be several addresses and a rousing time is expected.

—Turn out and cheer for Mr. Bradburn, the popular Conservative candidate, at the committee rooms, opera house block, to-morrow night. There will be a big rally of all Mr. Bradburn's friends.

—The Faithful Workers' Mission Band of St. Paul's church have secured the Rev. J. W. Pedley, of Toronto, to give his popular lecture, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," in the school room of the church on Friday evening, Jan. 20th, at 8 o'clock. Admission 15c.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Brooks, of Riverside farm, Percy township, celebrated their golden wedding on Wednesday, December 21st. About 75 guests, all of whom were relatives, including all the children except Mrs. F. J. Sharley, were present.

—There were only five spoiled ballots cast at the recent municipal and county election in Hastings. One person after marking wrote his (or her) name on the ballots. Another person endeavored to do a good turn for two village councillors and divided his four votes between them. Another gave three votes to one county councillor and one to another.—Star.

—Rev. Dr. Crothers, of Peterborough, preached last Sunday in the Methodist church here in the interests of the educational work of the church. Dr. Crothers delivered two exceedingly interesting and eloquent discourses, which were highly edifying to those present.—Norwood Register.

—A quiet wedding took place at St. Peter's cathedral on Tuesday, when Miss Ada Labarge was married to Mr. Louis McCoy. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father John O'Brien. Miss Ida LaBarge was bridesmaid, and the groomsman was Mr. Ed. Donovan. Mr. and Mrs. McCoy will reside at 177 Sherbrooke-st.

IN FORESTERS' HALL.

Officers of Courts Chemong and Queen, I. O. F., Duly Installed Last Night.

An interesting gathering of Courts Queen, No. 276, and Chemong, 530, Independent Order Foresters, was held in the Simcoe-st. Hall last night.

Bro. G. N. Brown, D.H.C.R., the popular I.O.F. Organizer, occupied the chair, and installed the officers in the various chairs. There was a large number of members and their friends present, including the ladies of the Companion Court and their friends.

Bro. G. N. Brown, in giving the opening address, promised to be brief. He said in part:—Most of my hearers are Foresters or friends of those in the Order. The Society is one of the fraternal insurance organizations. It extends from Canada through the United States across to Great Britain and France, Norway, Sweden, South Africa and Australia, so that wherever you go you will find a brother and a friend. The Order is strong numerically and financially. It is licensed by the Dominion Government and audited by the Dominion Government, and is well worthy of the confidence reposed in it."

The musical programme was then proceeded with when the following responded:—Miss Rickey sang in fine voice, accompanied by Miss May Bullen; Miss Rickey sang again by special request the selection entitled, "Sing me to Sleep." Master McNelley gave a recitation in fine style. The Messrs. Coleman gave several comic songs and were heartily encored.

Mr. Williams gave a vocal number in fine style and voice, which undoubtedly indicates a bright future in the musical world. Miss May Bullen acted as accompanist for the various singers.

Addresses were given by the newly installed officers and the programme was brought to a close by the singing of God Save the King.

The ladies of Companion Court Queen had kindly provided refreshments for all assembled and are to be congratulated upon the arrangements made. The gathering dispersed at rather a late hour after spending a very enjoyable night, which it is hoped will soon again be repeated.

The officers of Court Chemong are:
P.C.R.—A. Allison.
C.R.—D. Wallace.
V.C.R.—Wm. Miles.

The Daily Review

FRIDAY, JAN. 13, 1905.

So many Liberal nominations are being declined that we must conclude that the provincial Liberal party is going into a decline.

The Grit press sometimes intimates that the Tories have no policy. The Tories have undertaken to give the people of Ontario a clean, honest government, and the bringing about of that great change is enough to occupy the full attention of the Conservative party.

Speaking at Ingersoll, Premier Ross denounced the act of J. B. Jackson and denied any responsibility for his appointment. Mr. Ross did not say he had written to Sir Richard Cartwright protesting against the appointment as an insult to honest Liberalism. That would have been more than a mere mouthing of words.

RALLY TO-MORROW NIGHT.

All the friends and supporters of Mr. Bradburn, who is conducting such a vigorous and energetic battle in West Peterborough, with excellent prospects of success, will gather at the Conservative committee rooms to-morrow night. There will be several addresses delivered by local speakers and a rousing time is expected. Mr. Bradburn will address his supporters and reports as to the progress of the work will be received. Let there be a large attendance to-morrow night. Turn out and cheer for Messrs. Bradburn and Whitney and the cause of good, clean, progressive administration of the affairs of the Province. The time between now and election day is short, and work is the watchword.

SOME DIFFERENCE.

An old saying—and can we not all picture the reality which inspired it? "A Queen Ann Front," and "A Mary Ann Back."

The front ornate, and setting a standard for style, position and dignity—the back, falling sadly from grace, and becoming in meanness, shabbiness and even dirt, a sad contrast to our first view. So it is with the "Globe" of Saturday, January 7, 1905; on the first page we find reproduced the cartoon which appeared the day before in the Mail and Empire, and a brief and indignant criticism of it as a "scurrilous cartoon," the heading of the Conservative paper being referred to as "mad dog" journalism.

Here we have surely a lofty and dignified front, full of distaste for all that is rabid and personal. We feel quite uplifted by this ideal attitude, and pass on, justified in believing that behind so promising a front we could not find anything offensive. But we are doomed to disappointment—we reach page twelve—and there under a modest heading, "Against the Law" we find indeed a "Mary Ann Back," and even that epithet does not describe the despicable hypocrisy to which that paper has descended, which having set forth on its first pages its horror of personalities and "scurrilous cartoons," on its 12th page drags into prominence a private and personal incident—to wit the Napanee episode—which except as it is deliberately reiterated and magnified—with evil intent—has no connection with, nor bearing upon—the impending election.

Can we not see in this a simile of the Ross Government, which hopes by its "Queen Anne front" of lofty ideals and fair promises to cover and hide its "Mary Ann Back" of corruption and broken pledges.

DISTRUST IN JUDICIARY.

For many years Canadians have compared their administration and their respect of the law with that of the people of the United States very much to the disadvantage of the latter. We have pointed proudly to the fact that we have no lynchings; that the courts are pure; that judges could not be bribed and that murderers are hanged and thieves convicted. The respect and veneration of Canadians for their law and their obedience to it have been fundamental principles to them. Canadians have had a profound pride in the integrity of their judges and justly so and they have profoundly believed that justice could not and would not be thwarted. In the Province of Ontario, however, the Ross Government by many and devious ways has brought both the administration of the law and the judges who administer the law under suspicion.

One instance which makes the people question the impartiality of the judges was the Soo trial in which the Chancellor of Ontario stated that Sutherland was apparently the organizer of the whole "Minnie M" trip, but strange to say when the Chancellor came to name those whom he thought to be guilty, he omitted the name of Sutherland. Either Chancellor Boyd made a mistake when he termed Sutherland as the organizer of the expedition and he should withdraw that statement, or he made a mistake in not naming Sutherland. In either case, the Chancellor owes an explanation to the public, who pay his salary.

A further instance, which strikes more deeply at our whole legal administration than this one, arises out of the "Minnie M" incident at the Soo. The sailing of the "Minnie M" with its crew of corrupt pluggers was brought to the attention of the Attorney General himself who was at that time speaking at Sault Ste. Marie. One would have thought that the man who was at the head of the administration of the law in the Province of Ontario would have taken some steps to heed the warnings given him. His only reply however, when the matter was drawn to his attention was "I am not a policeman." Mr. Gibson, the Attorney General is a policeman. He is the policeman of the police of the Province of Ontario. On him more than on any other man rests the energetic and impartial administration of the law. In this case he singularly failed to do anything and again the respect of the people for the officers who have charge of the administration of the law is shaken. With the judges drawn into political controversy; with judges making mistakes from the bench and with the Attorney General openly disclaiming his duty, one cannot wonder that the people of the Province of Ontario are beginning to distrust not only the administration of the law, but the Judiciary itself. If this be so, Mr. Ross is himself solely to blame. He is the man to whom the people look for a remedy and the people have looked in vain.

SORRY IT SPOKE.

The Ottawa Free Press, of Thursday, fairly froths at its mouth, over the old story, 25 years old, of Provincial rights and the control of the territory now called New Ontario. It well knows that if the Grits had been in power at Ottawa, it would have been their duty to make the claim, on behalf of the Dominion, with the idea of letting the Courts decide to whom the territory did belong—but what has this to do with the parties in the present provincial contest? Does this cover up the crooked election work of the past five years?

We needn't go back 25 years for a few short weeks ago the same Ottawa Free Press said—"In the provincial affairs of Ontario the big question at issue will be the purity of the ballot." Again it says, "The political annals of the province bring shame to every party man." and closes its article with the resolve that "good Liberals will not allow their fair name to be besmirched by a crew of crooks why fly the Liberal flag."

The Ottawa Free Press says that the people of Ontario have realised $39,000,000 from the virgin forests of New Ontario. This fabrication is as colossal as the figures given above. Ross himself wouldn't make such a statement as that, and we all know that he hardly stops at anything in the way of suggestio falsi and suppresio veri if he wants to make a point. The Free Press will find that nearly all of that $39,000,000 was collected in Old Ontario, this side of the Sault.

LAKEFIELD HAPPENINGS.

Miss Mina Payne, of Calgary, Alberta, is home on a visit to her father, Mr. George Payne.

B. Graham & Sons for bargains in skirts, jackets and millinery.

Mr. G. H. B. Gray, of Upper Canada College, Toronto, is the guest of Mr. F. M. DelaFosse.

Miss Marjorie DelaFosse and Miss Dorothy Hilliard left on Thursday for Bishop Bethune College, Oshawa.

Mr. George Hilliard left on Thursday for Trinity College School, Port Hope.

Miss Abby Wilson, of Peterborough, spent Sunday in the village.

Miss Florence Doughty, of Peterborough, was the guest of Mrs. Jno. Mulholl for the last few days.

Mr. John Munro, of Toronto, was in the village on Thursday.

The entertainment given by St. John's Sunday School on Thursday evening of last week was a great success. The views given by Mr. Jas. Stubbs, of Peterborough, were good and pleased both young and old. The distribution of gifts off the Christmas tree by Santa Claus created considerable merriment.

Are you a patron of B. Graham & Sons' grocery department? If not, try them. You will be pleased.

The officers of Court Lakefield, No. 43, C.O.F., were duly installed last Thursday evening by Grand Organizer, Bro. B. Copeland, as follows—

Joseph Watson—S.W.
Percy Spence—J. W.
J. W. Stuart—S.B.
David Darling—J.B.
Dr. J. R. Fraser—Court Physician.

Nervous Dyspepsia

Mr. George Bolen, Spry, Bruce Co., writes:—"I was troubled with nervous dyspepsia for some years, and after using nine boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I felt better than I had for years. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is certainly the best medicine I ever used, and I say so because I want to give full credit where it is due."

The council then adjourned to meet in the evening at 8 o'clock.

8 p.m., council met with all members present.

By-law No. 289 to appoint certain municipal officers for the year was read the usual number of times and passed.

Mr. George J. Sherry was appointed village solicitor at a salary of $.0.

Moved by Messrs. Squire and Webster, that Chas. O'Reilly be assessor at salary of $35.

Amendment by Messrs. Greenbank and Elliott, that appointment of collector be left over until next meeting.

The Reeve voted for motion. R. Scriver offered to perform the duties of constable, caretaker of hall, sanitary inspector and take care of the fire engine for 1905 at salary of $85.

R. T. Scott offered to perform the duties of constable and sanitary inspector for $70.

William Richardson, sr., offered his services as caretaker of hall and sanitary inspector at a salary of $35.

Moved by Messrs. Greenbank and Elliott, that Mr. Richardson be appointed at $35 according to offer.—Carried.

Other officers appointed were L. Mahoney, collector, at salary of one per cent on roll; William Richardson, pound keeper; Thos. A. McMillan, Jas. Raddon and Wm. Mackie, fence viewers; Geo. Jones, truant officer.

By-law 290 to appoint a local Board Health 1905 was read and passed.

Moved by Councillors Elliott and Webster, that E. J. Laing, the retiring member, be re-appointed for three years.—Carried.

Moved by Councillors Elliott and Greenbank, that Dr. Patterson be appointed Medical Health Officer at salary of $5 and $1 per visit when ordered by the the Board of Health.—Carried.

Jas. A. Fraser, Esq., of Fraser Bros., hardware, stoves and tinware, furniture and undertaker merchants, of Carstairs, Alta., formerly of Hastings, is visiting friends in Norwood and vicinity.

Mr. Arthur Townsend and Mr. Wm. Mongomery, while employed in cutting ice on the pond for Mr. H. Robb had a pleasant dip the other morning with the thermometer at 10 below zero.

Mr. Frank Birdsall, of Birdsall's, was in town this week on business.

Mr. Eber Rountree, of Winnipeg, is visiting his sister, Mrs. A. Frost, Norwood.

The Rev. H. Nixon, of St. John's church, Winnipeg, and his mother, Mrs. John Nixon, of Portage la Prairie, are the guests of Mr. T. J. Drain, brother of Mrs. Nixon.

Fire broke out in the sheds in the rear of the residence of Mr. L. H. Kirkpatrick's residence about one o'clock Tuesday morning, and threatened for a while to develope into a very serious conflagration. The extremely high wind fanned the flames and it was feared the fire would extend into the business part of the town and repeat the disaster of 1896, when the entire east side of Colborne street was wiped out.

But the heroic efforts of some of some of our staunch villagers with water and snow soon got the flames under control, and were even able, impossible as it appeared, to save the main part of the house.

A very unfortunate incident of the fire occurred while the men were engaged in fighting the flames. The roof of the verandah fell in injuring Mr. Charles McNicholl, so that he will be unable to work for a few days.

The Board of Education met on Monday evening with the following members present:—Messrs. P. W. Stevenson, chairman; Jas. Camming, J. A. Finlay, E. P. Cuffe, Dr. Robertson, Thos. Fraser, Thos. Robson, Hugh Drain, J. L. Squire, P. W. Reynolds, and Wm. Webster.

The treasurer reported a balance on hand in the bank of $440.76. The Finance Committee submitted a statement corroborating the report of the treasurer, which, on motion of Mr. Squire and Mr. Drain, was received and fyled.

The Board requested the secretary to procure a copy of the auditors' report to be laid before the Board before publication for verification. The following accounts were passed:—

Mr. D. A. Fraser, repairing furnace and supplies, $100.20; J. W. Rork, new furnace and supplies, $218.38; Wm. L. Cameron, supplies for H.S., $21.23; E. J. Laing, secretary, postage, $2.27; collecting fees, $2.60.

Mr. Finlay moved, seconded by Mr. Cuffe, the following resolution, which was carried unanimously:—

"That we, the members of the Norwood Board of Education, express our utmost approval and appreciation by way of a vote of thanks to Mr. L.J.R. Richardson for the accurate and explicit method in which he, as acting treasurer, has kept the financial account for the year 1904."

Signed,

E. J. LAING,
Secretary.
P. W. STEVENSON,
Chairman.

Was Cured of Asthma

"I first used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine with my daughter, who suffered from a severe form of asthma. The least exposure to cold would lay her up and she would nearly suffocate for want of breath. I must say I found it to be a most satisfactory treatment and it has entirely cured her."—Mrs. A. A. VanBuskik, Robinson Street Moncton, N.B.

WESTWOOD.

Miss Edith Stonehouse, of Toronto, has been engaged to take charge of our school for the coming year.

Miss Leo Warner, of Toronto, and Miss Gertie Warner, of Birdsall, were guests of Miss Maud Warner during the past week.

Mr. John McGrath returned from the woods on Saturday, looking hale and hearty.

Mr. Wm. Morris, who has been visiting friends in Muskoka, returned on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McMillan and Miss Edith, of Norwood, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. Caldwell one day recently.

Mr. Harry Lynch, of Birdsall, son of Mr. F. F. Lynch, of this place, left on Monday last to attend business college in Peterborough.

What might have been a serious accident occurred on Thursday last, when Miss Bessie Lynch was returning from Indian River. Just before turning in at the gate, the horse took fright and turned very quickly, the cutter slipping over the icy ground and coming in contact with the wire supporting the telephone pole and upset, the occupant and robes being precipitated on the ice. However, beyond a few bruises and a severe shaking up, the young lady escaped without further injury.

PONTYPOOL.

Mr. Cecil Perrin is visiting friends in the north.

Miss Lott Lee is visiting friends in Peterborough

Mr. Levi Sayles, of Dakota, is visiting his sister Maggie.

The business men of the town report good times and plenty of cash.

Miss Emma Mahaffey, of Millbrook was visiting old acquaintances here last week.

We regret to note the illness of Mr. Byron Gillis. It is to be hoped that he will soon recover.

Mr. Harry Armstrong, of Cloquet, Minn., has returned home after visiting friends in this village.

Mr. Wm. Ritson would like to have street cars running to Peterborough while Percy wants them to run west.

Mr. Wm. Foster met with a bad accident the other evening. While on his way home with the mail bag, the horse ran away, leaving William on the side of the road with the mail bag in his arms, badly shaken up. We are glad to say he is able to be out again.

Indigestion and Headache

Mr. Duncan McPherson, Content, Alta., writes:—"I was for many years troubled with indigestion and headache, and derived no relief from the many remedies I used. A friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and after taking four boxes, the result is that I am once more in the full enjoyment of the blessings of good health."

NORTH MONAGHAN.

Mr. James Morrow one of the popular Councillors of North Monaghan and Mrs Morrow entertained about sixty couples at their home on the 14th concession of the township on Wednesday night. A most enjoyable time was spent in dancing and games, a number of the guests being from Peterborough.

Nearly all the councillors of the township, in honor of their election, have been giving oyster suppers and in other ways entertaining their friends and Mr. Morrow was not to be outdone by his colleagues in hospitality.

FRIDAY, JAN. 13, 1905.

HON. CHAS. DRURY DEAD.

Sheriff of Simcoe and Was Once Ontario Minister of Agriculture.

Barrie, Jan. 13.—Hon. Chas. Drury, sheriff of the County of Simcoe, died here last night at 9.30 after an illness of several months. He, however, attended to his duties as sheriff until about two weeks ago.

Mr. Drury was Minister of Agriculture in Sir Oliver Mowat's Government, representing East Simcoe for three terms. He was appointed returning officer for that constituency in the coming elections, but the duties are being performed by his brother, Thomas Drury.

He took an active work in all philanthropic work and was closely identified with the R. V. Hospital and other similar institutions.

His only son by his first wife, was married at Crown Hill Wednesday to Miss Partridge and immediately after the ceremony drove to his father's bedside, where he and his bride remained until his father's death.

Mr. Drury also leaves three young daughters by his second wife.

HIGH JOINTERS MAY MEET.

Subject to Be Considered After Prorogation of Parliament.

Washington, Jan. 13.—Senator Fairbanks and Secretary of State Hay had a long conference yesterday concerning Canadian reciprocity and other subjects, which were to have come before the Joint High Commission. After the conference Senator Fairbanks made the following statement:

"The subject of re-assembling the Joint High Commission will be considered after the prorogation of the Canadian Parliament. The matter will rest in abeyance until then."

BRITAIN'S VALENTINE.

Parliament Called Together By the King For Feb. 14.

London, Jan. 13.—King Edward at yesterday's meeting of the Privy Council signed a proclamation convening Parliament for Feb. 14. The session will be opened by the King personally with full state ceremony.

The unusual lateness of the date of the re-opening is interpreted to mean that the Government does not propose to press any Redistribution Bill, but to give to the Alien's Bill, which Premier Balfour has definitely promised, the first place in its legislative program.

Get $3,800 For a Life.

London, Jan. 13.—At the assizes here yesterday the jury awarded damages of $3,800 for the plaintiff in the suit of Phibbs v. the Grand Trunk. Plaintiff's husband was an engineer and was killed in a collision in the London yard.

Ex-Mayor McCue Will Hang.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 13.—The Supreme Court of Appeals yesterday refused a writ of error in the case of ex-Mayor McCue of Charlottesville, convicted of wife murder and sentenced to hang the 20th of this month.

Major-General in Canada.

Ottawa, Jan. 13.—Colonel O'Grady-Haley, who was G.O.C. in Canada in 1900-1901, with the local rank of major-general, has now been granted the honorary rank of major-general in the Canadian militia.

John Bertram Appointed.

Ottawa, Jan. 13.—John Bertram has been permanently appointed surveyor of the customs, Toronto.

RUSS PRESTIGE ABROAD

And Situation At Home Necessitates Fighting Jap War Out.

Will Continue War Till Peace With Dignity Is Possible—Disorders and Terrorism Will Obtain, and Bomb Will Be Used to Fight Absolutism—Meanwhile There Is Quiet—Government Hope to Appease Conservative Liberals.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 13.—The Government seemingly is about to make the irrevocable decision that prestige abroad and the situation at home necessitate the continuation of the war till peace with dignity is possible. Beyond this point, however, confusion exists.

Emperor Nicholas is still apparently vacillating as to whether he shall allow M. Witte full sway, in the meantime declining to permit Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky to retire, although the latter persists in the view that the confidence of the people in the manner in which the reform manifesto is to be worked out is vital, and that this is impossible if the work is to be left completely in the hands of the Bureaucrats. Direct consultation with the representative classes interested he considers essential.

Socialists, revolutionists and extreme elements, as well as the subject races on the borders of Russia, all have different objectives, with which the conservative Liberals, whom the Government really hopes to appease, have little in common, and above all Russia's unnumbered millions of peasants have given almost no sign of being stirred by the prevailing political agitation. Demonstrations, and even disorders on a large scale, in the centres of population are regarded by the authorities as possible, accompanied by a recurrence of terrorism by those who believe the bomb is the only thing with which they can fight absolutism.

This last is really considered the likeliest and most deplorable possibility in the near future. For the moment, however, all is quiet.

Prisoners of Japan.

Nagaski, Japan, Jan. 13.—The steamers Kaga and Susuki have arrived here with 1,600 Russian prisoners of war and fifty officers. All the prisoners have been quartered at Inasa, a village nearby, where has also been prepared a lodge for Gen. Stoessel, who will arrive next Saturday.

The Russian officers are allowed much liberty within the bounds of the town, but they are under police escort.

Gen. Stoessel and staff will sail from here for Europe on a French mail steamer Jan. 16. These Russian prisoners are unfeignedly pleased at the end of the hardships of the siege and the considerate treatment of their victors.

Chinese Neutrality.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 13.—The Russian Government has issued a circular to the powers calling their attention to the alleged violation of the Chinese neutrality and citing numerous instances during the war in the Far East tending to prove that China is unable to fulfil her obligations. This state of affairs, the circular says, is calculated to bring the country into perilous paths and it concludes by saying that Russia claims the right to act in her own interest.

Russians Use Cavalry.

Gen. Oku's Headquarters in the Field, Jan. 13.—A small party of Russian cavalry near Haicheng, attempted to cut the railway yesterday, but were driven back by the Japanese guards. No details have yet been received. It is the first time that the Russians have attempted to use cavalry along the line of communications.

Where Russians Are.

Suez, Egypt, Jan. 13.—The division of the Russian second Pacific squadron, commanded by Rear-Admiral Botrovsky, arrived here yesterday from Port Said.

Much Ammunition Captured.

Tokio, Jan. 13.—Gen. Nogi reports that the Japanese captured at Port Arthur 546 guns, 82,670 shells, 30,000 kilos of powder, and 2,266,800 rounds of rifle ammunition.

Russians Expect An Attack.

London, Jan. 13.—According to The Daily Mail's Port Louis correspondent Rear-Admiral Voelkersam, commanding the second division of the Russian Pacific Squadron, has stated that he expected to be attacked by the Japanese in the Indian Ocean. He thought that the second Pacific squadron would call at Maho, in the Seychelles group.

The Russian tugboat Russ, according to the same correspondent, on Jan. 4, made enormous purchases of provisions at Tamatave. It is reported that the Russ has a double crew of Russians and Germans. According to necessity, the vessel is sometimes Russian and sometimes German, and the sailors in turn become crew or passengers.

Stoessel Goes to Report.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 13.—The War Office explains that the reason for Lieut.-Gen. Stoessel giving his parole is that it is incumbent upon him to bring a detailed report of the defence of the fortress to the Emperor.

Priest Leads Russian People.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 13.—The grievances of the St. Petersburg workmen have not yet been settled. It develops that a priest named Agathon is really at the head of the movement.

To Unify the Press Laws.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 13.—The committee of Ministers resumed their consideration of the press laws yesterday. One of the things already decided is the unification of the laws in order to make them applicable alike to provincial and metropolitan papers.

HOTELS MAY KEEP OPEN

And Sell Soft Drinks on Municipal Election Days.

Toronto, Jan. 12.—In regard to the case at Galt in which a hotelkeeper was prosecuted for keeping his bar open on municipal election day, Mr. Edo Saunders, chief officer of the Ontario license department, said the other day that the contention of Mr. James Haverson, K.C., counsel for the defendant, that there was nothing in the statute to prevent the opening of bars on municipal election day so long as no spirituous liquors are sold, was correct, but he pointed out that the provisions of the Ontario Election Act were more sweeping, and that hotels could not be opened on provincial election day. The Galt case was not proceeded with owing to the point raised by Mr. Haverson, and it is probable that on future municipal election days the bars throughout the province will remain open for the sale of soft drinks.

WEDDING BELLS

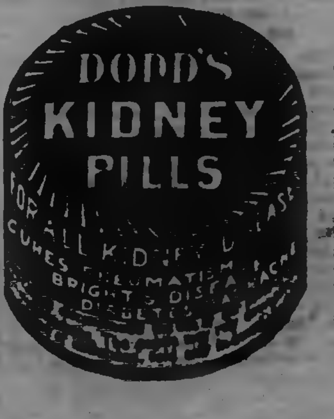
On Wednesday, January 4th, Mr. Robert Bowles' residence, North Monaghan, was the scene of a very happy event, it being the marriage of his daughter, Eva Elizabeth to Mr. Wesley John Dainard, of Cavan.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Yule, of Springville Presbyterian Church. The bride entered the room leaning on the arm of her father, to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march played by Miss Amy Bowles, cousin of the bride.

The bride was becomingly attired, her costume being white crepe de chene, trimmed with white satin yoke all over lace and bertha. She wore the conventional veil and orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Mamie Armstrong, of North Monaghan, who looked most becoming in a gown of cream eor-de-soie trimmed with silk and sequins and carrying a bouquet of pink roses and Miss Leeta Pearl, sister of the bride also assisted, looking very handsome in white organdie, trimmed with lace and insertion and carried a basket of flowers.

Mr. John Stinson, of Smith, performed the duties of groomsman. After the ceremony and congratulations of those present, the guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding supper, after which the evening was spent in a most enjoyable manner. The bride was the recipient of a number of handsome and costly presents, showing the high esteem in which the happy couple were held. The groom's gift to the bride was a sun-burst of diamonds and pearls and to the bridesmaid a pearl crescent brooch and also to the bride a fur coat from her father.

Mr. and Mrs. Dainard left amid showers of rice and best wishes for their future home in Cavan. The bride's going away dress was of black silk, trimmed with white satin and black all over lace with sequins. She also wore a picture hat to match.



DROP OVER PRECIPICE

Three Boys Go Over the Big Cliffs At Quebec.

One Dead and Others Likely to Die—They Are the Sons of Mr. Chamberlain, St. Sauveur, and It Is Thought They Were Sliding When the Accident Occurred—Is Another Boy Buried in a Snow Drift?

Quebec, Jan. 13.—One dead, another dying and the third so badly injured that only superhuman efforts will save his life, the three boys of Mr. Chamberlain, St. Sauveur, were found at the base of one of the big cliffs near their father's home yesterday afternoon. The children were aged 9, 6 and 4 years respectively, and all were unconscious when found.

How long they were in that plight or how they met with the accident cannot as yet be ascertained, but it is surmised that the lads were sliding at the top of the hill, which is in the rear of the St. Foys toll gate, and were carried over the lofty precipice. It is also thought that another lad, who is supposed to have been with them, is buried in the snow drift.

KILLED AT CROSSING.

M.C.R. Employes At Dutton Terribly Mangled By Train.

Dutton, Jan. 13.—A terrible accident occurred here at noon yesterday by which two men, D. C. McArthur and Arch. Carmichael, were instantly killed. They were driving towards the north, and while crossing the M. C.R., on Main street, were struck by No. 22 westbound express, which was going at a terrible rate. The unfortunate men apparently never saw the approaching train, for although Francis Smith warned them they paid no attention but drove on, and while on the centre of the track were struck.

The men were badly mangled, McArthur being thrown about 100 feet, and Carmichael about 80 feet. The horse was cut in two. The cutter was smashed into matchwood. This makes six killed by the trains at this crossing. The two men were in the employ of the M.C.R., and were about 45 years of age.

PLAYS WITH A GUN.

Young Son of Methodist Missionary Dies in An Instant.

Parry Sound, Jan. 13.—Leslie Black, five years of age, son of Rev. Richard Black, Methodist missionary at Parry Island Indian Reserve, was accidentally shot and killed Wednesday. The boy was at a neighbor's and while in the house with another child played with a loaded gun that had been placed near the door. The gun discharged instantly killing young Leslie.

Drug Clerk Suicides.

Toronto, Jan. 13.—Seemingly in excellent health and free from any worry, Claude Bullis, a young man, employed as clerk at A. E. Walton's drug store, at the corner of Broadview avenue and Queen street, committed suicide early this morning by taking prussic acid. The young man had gone to bed about one o'clock. Bullis was 20 years of age, and came from Iroquois, Ont., about six months ago.

Found Dead.

Lyleton, Man., Jan. 13.—J. Harris, a butcher, was found dead in a stable yesterday. Suicide is suspected.

KING AND QUEEN.

Their Majesties May, If Montreal Story Is True, Visit Canada.

Montreal, Que., Jan. 13.—There was a rumor on the street yesterday that the mayor had been notified semi-officially that there was a prospect of the King and Queen coming to Canada next summer. A representative of the press called upon his worship and inquired whether he had heard anything of the matter.

"I had intended to remain silent on the matter," said Mr. Laporte, "but I do not hesitate to state since you have asked me, that recently I have received letters from prominent men in England, in which it was intimated that there was every probability of King Edward and Queen Alexandra coming to Canada some time this year."

"Then, Mr. Mayor, you really believe that Their Majesties may come to Canada?"

"That I cannot say, but from what I know indications point in that direction."

Ex-Senator Hayden Dead.

St. Thomas, Jan. 13.—The remains of the late ex-Senator T. T. Hayden of Winona, Wis., arrived yesterday afternoon from the west and the funeral took place from the residence of William Nicol. Deceased died on the 10th inst. He was born in Devonshire, England, in the year 1831, and came to this country in 1848 with his parents and brothers and sisters, and located near Yarmouth Centre.

Made Lecturer At Yale.

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 13.—Ernest Rutherford, F.R.S., Macdonald professor of physics in McGill University, Montreal, has been appointed Silliman lecturer at Yale for 1905. The lectureship was established by the will of the late Augustus Ely Silliman of Brooklyn, N.Y., who died in 1884.

Sandbagged and Robbed.

Caledonia, Jan. 13.—One of the most daring robberies ever perpetrated in this town occurred Wednesday evening when J. Carr was sandbagged and relieved of a gold watch and a sum of money. This is the third attempt in the course of a week. The other two were unsuccessful.

AGED SHERIFF THE EXECUTIONER.

Hangman Radcliffe Had Another Engagement in British Columbia.

Woodstock, N. B., Jan. 13.—Just as the town clock was striking five yesterday morning, Sheriff Hayward, of Carleton County, sprung the trap which launched Thomas Cammack into eternity for the murder of William Doherty, near Glassville, on July 17.

Only about twenty people witnessed the execution, although there was a big crowd outside the temporary fence that enclosed the scaffold. This fence the curious ones threatened to tear down, and Sheriff Hayward went out with a revolver in his hand and informed the crowd that he would not stand for any nonsense. His officers arrested two of the principal disturbers and after that all was quiet.

The condemned man's prayer for strength that he could die like a man was answered. Sheriff Hayward was as cool as could be. He carefully inspected all the apparatus and paused but a moment after the last words of the Lord's Prayer had been spoken by the priest before he pulled the lever that springs the trap.

Radcliffe was unable to conduct the execution owing to having to be in British Columbia on similar duty, and the sheriff, who is approaching eighty, desired that a substitute executioner be appointed. He, however, did not flinch when the duty fell on him.

But Conservatives Win.

London, Jan. 13.—Hon. H. Lawson, Conservative, defeated B. S. Straus, Liberal, by 78 votes in the Mile End bye-election. In 1900 the Conservative majority was 1,160. Mile End is one of the constituencies of London. Hon. Mr. Lawson is one of the proprietors of The Daily Telegraph.

SCOTCHMAN SOLD TWEEDS

And Port Hopers Who Bought It Get Taken in.

Port Hope Guide.

A brawny young Scotchman visited our town recently, and with pack on his back in which he carried a large quantity of cloth in suit lengths for ladies and gentlemen, he went from house to house and was doing a land office business. Finally one of our local tailors complained to Chief Bond, who at once called on the Scotchman, but it was found that he had taken out the necessary pedlar's license from the clerk, which cost him $2.50 for three months.

He still continued on his way and in two days claimed to have sold thirty or more suit lengths. Of course there was a great rush to the different tailors to have the cloth made up, and they all incidentally asked the tailor his opinion as to the quality. And this was a great chance for the tailor to get back, and he would value a piece which cost $6.00 at about $3.00 or $3.50. One young man who secured an overdose of the goods became so indignant when he learned he had been taken in that he visited the Scotchman and demanded his money back. But the canny Scotchman produced his license, and the heavy purchaser had to admit that he was the "sucker."

A number of our tailors were interviewed, and while the matter did not seem to bother them much, they are very strongly of the opinion that the price of the license should be greatly increased, and thus do away with these "cheap" pedlars, and in the end prove a safeguard to some of our "easy" buyers.

Started off With a Hurrah !

The extraordinary sale of Winter Suits, Overcoats and Furnishings at H. LeBrun & Co.'s, which has started off with so many inducements, is an occasion of interest to men, young men and boys. The surprising reductions in the tailoring department, especially in black dress suits, and Scotch tweed and worsted suits, made to order, come in good time. Gentlemen who need a dress suit for the long social season ahead, will save good money by leaving their measures at LeBrun's at once. Full Dress Suits that formerly were made to order for $30, are now reduced to $25, formerly $35 and $40, reduced to $28 and $30, with a very large stock of cloths to choose from. Men's Dress Trousers, that were formerly made to order for $7.50, are reduced to $6, and Scotch Tweed Worsted Trousers are reduced from $4 and $4.50, to $3 and $3.50. We take your measure and make up just as carefully as if you were paying the full price. Our cutter, Mr. Thompson, will fit you just as fashionably and as accurately as he always does.

CORRUPTION DENOUNCED AT LAKEFIELD MEETING

MR. J. H. Burnham Reviews Record of Ross Government and Reign of Iniquity.

Union Meeting Was Well Attended—Speech by Mr. Bradburn, Who Was Well Received—Mr. R. F. McWilliams Praises Government Administration of Affairs—Makes No Defence of Corruption, But Asks That the Truth on Both Sides be Told—Mr. Burnham Points to Real Issue of Campaign.

The men of Lakefield and vicinity turned out in large numbers last evening to the union meeting held in the Town Hall there. Both political parties were represented by goodly aggregations and the candidates, Mr. T. E. Bradburn and Mr. R. F. McWilliams were well received. Mr J. H. Burnham followed a brief address by Conservative candidate, and for one hour devoted his attention to a strong denouncement of political corruption which for the last five years has blotted the record of the Liberal Government. It was an excellent speech, and frequent applause showed that the gathering appreciated the presentation of the case. Mr. McWilliams in his able speech of one hour pointed more particularly to the management of affairs by the Ontario Government, and considered that it was quite beyond criticism. He admitted that political corruption had marked the record of the past five years, but held that the Conservatives were not entirely free, and he referred, among other things to the misuse of the so-called purity fund.

Mr. E. A. Tanner, Reeve of Lakefield, was in the chair.

CANDIDATE SPEAKS

Mr. Bradburn was the first speaker and he was very well received. He expressed his pleasure that he had been given an opportunity to address the electors of Lakefield, and he referred felicitously to the presence of the ladies. Turning his attention to political questions, Mr. Bradburn said that as a supporter of Mr. Whitney, he would take a stand to have the numbered ballot done away with. It had been largely responsible for many of the scandals and much of the corruption of the past. Mr. Bradburn touched upon several other questions prominent in the present campaign, and he created a very favorable impression.

THE WHITEWASHING

Mr. Burnham was next called upon and he expressed his hearty concurrence in the remarks of Mr. Bradburn. The more men considered the conditions that existed, the more heartily would they respond to the necessity that they should be remedied. The issue of political corruption had not been made by the Conservative party, but by the Liberal party in convention. It was quite evident that a white-washing process was necessary, and in response to an appeal sent forth, the Liberals had rallied in large numbers in Toronto. It was obvious that something should be done or the Liberal party was doomed to perdition. At this Convention, Mr. Ross indulged in the usual platitudes and after jollying the audience, he wound up with a grand peroration about this country, the dignity of manhood and the "Liberalism which broadens down from precedent to precedent." (Laughter.) Did he mean that it broadened down to West Elgin or the Soo? Mr. Ross said in his speech that the issue was made by the Liberal party. They evidently saw that the crisis was at hand, and that the reign of the Ross Government had been nothing but one of sham. The Halifax Chronicle, a Liberal organ, had said, "We may not be as energetic or as ambitious as Ontario, but we have a cleaner and better idea of the respectabilities of life"—this with reference to the record of the Ross Government. The Canada Presbyterian was disgusted, the Westminster considered the conditions in a somewhat similar light, and men in the pulpit and out of it, the sheet anchors of this province, declared that things had come to such a pass that reform within and without was necessary.

Mr. Ross at the convention had said it was a sorry thing that his last political days should be clouded as at the present time. The Conservative party had always had the manhood to say that people in their ranks had done things that were bad, but Mr. Burnham emphasized the fact that there never was a reign of machine in the Conservative party, and Mr. Whitney could not be held responsible if people chose to act like thieves or worse, and he pointed to such men as Captain Sullivan, Vance, and Vanstone and others whose names he did not care to soil his mouth with, as samples of machine operations—a noble army of workers they were. These men had never been prosecuted, though the party in power had charge of the machinery with which to proceed against them, otherwise the punishment of offenders depended upon the movement of individuals to that extent which they found possible. The present was an appeal to men of Canada. All appreciated our priceless heritage. When he spoke of reform, Mr. Ross could not appreciate the infinite possibilities of the word. His polite invitation to discuss the issues of the campaign had been conveyed in a Globe editorial which challenged the statements of Conservative papers on the necessity for reform as "systematic and bare-faced humbug."

PEOPLE'S SYMPATHY

Mr. Burnham said that the sympathy of the people was with Mr. Whitney, and it was plain that they considered the time had come when political corruption must cease. On the temperance question Mr. Mowat and Mr. Hardy had both pledged themselves. Then came Mr. Ross. Did he take up the pledge? No. It is true, he said, that a temperance measure might have met with the approval of my colleagues, but the tidings from the country deferred me. Temperance, said he, is one of the virtues of the Liberal party. (Laughter.) Why is it, asked the speaker, that since Ross has been in power it has been impossible to get reform? Because the whole thing is a humbug. The necessity for reform had been repeatedly emphasized at the Liberal Convention. Leading men had brought in resolutions which stood for better things. One of them had said, "Things have occurred and lie at the door of the Reform party which are disgusting, and rather than see the party remain in power by such means, I would have them remain out till the crack of doom.

THE SOO ELECTION

Mr. Burnham now devoted his attention for some time to the infamous election cases with which the Government's record was blotted. At the Soo, the attention of the Attorney General had been pointed to the fact that an organized gang of pluggers would leave the American side to operate in the elections there. Yet nothing was done on his part to bring these men to justice. Mr. Gibson promised them a lot of things at the Soo. The industrial concerns were shut down, and the good Government advanced an amount equivalent to two months' wages. The general manager received something like $6,000 and the other officials from $12,000 to $14,000 all told. They owned the steamer Minnie M., and one Sunday the captain was ordered by one Ferguson, to get up steam. The ship was victualled with so many gallons of whiskey, so many boxes of cigars and other refreshments. Mr. Burnham expressed the opinion that, though Mr. McWilliams was a supporter of Mr. Ross, he would not stoop to such work. He was a young man of as high character as ability and that was saying a great deal. But Mr. Ross was the man which the Province had to have regard to. Here were 20 men, not British subjects, nor electors, nor anything else but drunken low rowdies, engaged to work a carnival of corruption in an Ontario election. Yet all of these men, though reported for corruption escaped. The quality of mercy was not strained against them. This was a noble illustration of purity.

NO CONSERVATIVE MACHINE

Mr. Burnham admitted that there have been things on the Conservative side, but they never went to show that there had been a machine or that Mr. Whitney was responsible. It was only right that if, on his election to power, he allowed the corruption to continue, that out he should go. Though Mr. Ross was a man of ability, he neither had the moral fibre nor the stamina which distinguished a man from a thimble-ringer.

The McNish confession was next dwelt upon by Mr. Burnham. When the frauds were discovered in West Elgin, the ballots were the chief evidence against the machine. They were burned in the Parliament Buildings in advance of legal proceedings. The notorious W. T. R. Preston was in West Elgin and after the election of Mr. McNish he telegraphed, "Hug the members of the much abused threshing machine." He received an appointment as Immigration Commissioner to England at a salary of $3,000 a year, while James Robertson who took part in the accidental burning had his salary increased. The corruption in North Grey, South Oxford, North York, South Ontario and Nipissing was made the subject of scathing remarks by Mr. Burnham. Referring to the Napanee charge against Mr. Whitney, the speaker held that he was well within his rights under the law, that if he had been guilty of infringement he would undoubtedly have been made aware of it a quarter of a minute afterwards.

The corruption which had marked the record of the Government bore singular analogy to the rifling of a house or shop. Ross had proved himself recreant to every promise he had made. The noble army of seven sealers had been bitterly condemned by judges and those who were reported by them had been unpunished. The first series in the corrupt record had come to light in 1898 and had developed with marvellous rapidity during the last five years. The duty that confronted the electors of Ontario at the present time was to emphatically declare that such things must cease.

NO APOLOGY TO MAKE

Mr. McWilliams expressed his pleasure at again meeting a Lakefield audience, and he held that no apology for one of his age being a candidate was necessary, since West Peterborough had years ago elected as representative a young man. He paid a tribute to Mr. Stratton. Referring to Mr. Bradburn, he said he had not one word to say against him and pointed out that the campaign was marked by pleasant relationship and a questioning finger could not be pointed at it. Mr. McWilliams said he had been so brought up, that he did not regard membership in the Liberal party as calling for hide-bound support or endorsation of everything that party might do, nor did he bind himself to oppose everything brought up by the Opposition. The Libertal party consisted of those who believed that there never could be enough reform, and every year the statute books showed the meaning of this. The Government's administration of affairs was such as to demand the hearty support of the people. Money had been spent liberally and wisely in education, in public institutions, in colonization roads, in advancing agriculture, and the position of the province to-day was beyond parallel.

THE WRONG DOING

Mr. McWilliams said he had no sympathy with and no defence to offer with regard to the wrong doing on the Liberal side. He believed in winning in politics as in everything else, by honorable means and all he asked was a fair field and no favors, and no hitting below the belt. He urged, that, in considering the charges made against the Government, the electors should receive the whole truth. They had been told of nothing on the other side. With regard to the Soo he stated that the steamer Booth had left the American side on a somewhat similar errand for the Conservatives as the Minnie M. for the Liberals. The bye-election was held because Miscampbell, the Conservative candidate had been unseated for corruption. He called attention to the so-called purity fund raised it was said to stop corruption, but which had been used by Conservatives to assist in the election of their candidate. Referring to South Ontario he associated the name of Calder, the Conservative, with corruption. Men on both sides, he said were prepared to win by hook or crook. The Ross Government had been the first to prosecute in cases referred to by the Courts, and in 5 years, 54 men had been brought to book. If the whole truth was received, the speaker was sure that there would be endorsation instead of condemnation of the Ross Government. They had shown themselves equal to the demands of the Province. They had so handled the resources of the country as to affect a direct saving in taxation. The trouble with the Conservative party was that they had not good men for the Legislature, and during all the years in opposition not a single item of large public policy had been brought in to justify a change. He styled Mr. Whitney's stand on the temperance question as hypocrisy, and referred to his carousal in his room at the Napanee hotel with Mr. Porter and others. Under the Liberal administration the number of licenses had been reduced from 6000 to between 2000 and 3000 in twenty years, and there was now a better class of hotel keepers.

In concluding his speech, Mr. McWilliams asked for the support of the electors on the 25th of January.

A MIS-STATEMENT

In a five minutes' reply Mr. Burnham pointed out that Mr. McWilliams had made a mis-statement in saying that Mr. Porter and others were with Mr. Whitney in his hotel at Napanee. The fact is, Mr. Whitney was alone, and no less an authority than the Toronto Star had held that he was well within his rights. He referred to leakages in the provincial finances that had occurred as the result of sales of timber limits to friends of the Government, such as Cap Sullivan. In closing he quoted the lines used by Rev. Mr. Hossack—

"Nor florid prose, nor honied words of rhyme,
Can blazon evil deeds or consecrate a crime."

Mr. McWilliams, in reply, again referred to the purity fund, and to the operations of Birmingham, Wright and others. He pointed out that the limits referred to by Mr. Burnham had brought the Government $5000 for every acre, but he admitted that the sale of the Cap. Sullivan limit had been the result of a false report made by an official who subsequently lost his position.

At the conclusion of the meeting cheers were given for the two candidates, Mr. Whitney and Mr. Ross.

Enjoyable Programme Rendered at Last-night's Meeting.

An interesting and well attended meeting of George-st. church Guild was held last evening with President Garnet Galley in the chair.

Mr. F. H. Dobbin gave a short address, in which he furnished the young men present some pointers on how to express their thoughts in public, easily and readily. Mr. W. Dredge was present with his phonograph, and delighted the members with several up-to-date selections. Mr. D. W. Dumble and Rev. Dr. Crothers also gave short addresses full of timely advice and sensible suggestions to the young men.

The following committees were appointed:—

Programme—J. W. Wood, Geo. Robinson, J. J. Jeffries, M. J. Hutchinson, H. R. H. Kenner.

Social—P. Hetherington, J. Middleton, R. Dobbin, Arthur Mann, P. Reid, K. Sutcliffe.

ST. PAUL'S SUNDAY SCHOOL

Officers Elected and Reports Received For The Past Year.

Progress in all departments was the keynote at the annual meeting of the officers and teachers of St. Paul's church Sunday school held last night.

Mr. Wm. Madill was re-elected superintendent and Mr. W. J. Steacy was chosen as assistant superintendent.

The Treasurer's report showed that the contribution to missions during the year was $389, all the collections going for this purpose. The Board of Managers defrays the current expenses of the school. The collections were larger than last year.

The attendance averaged 285 during 1904, as compared with 289 in in 1903 and 241 in 1902.

Twenty scholars from the school had become identified with the church during the year.

Five scholars were present every Sunday. They were Clara Dodds, Madaline Baptie, Willie White, Savigny Laing, and Maxwell Smith.

The kindergarten department was opened and had proved highly successful, under the efficient direction of Miss Williamson. The loss of the services of four faithful officers was referred to. They are Miss A. Dennistoun, J. W. Garvin, A. J. Johnston and Rev. J. A. Wilson. They will be greatly missed.

Mr. Wm. Pringle offered a prize to every student who could repeat the whole of the shorter catechism. This was done by Master Stanley Madill. Mr. Pringle's offer again holds good the coming year.

The Home Department has 100 members and it is hoped that this will be largely increased during 1905. Under the guidance of the energetic superintendent, Mr. Madill and his able assistants the prospects of the school are exceptionally bright.

The officers are:—
Supt.—Wm. Madill.
Asst. Supt.—W. J. Steacy.
Cor. Sec. and Treas.—Wm. Pringle
Rec. Sec.—Miss I. K. Drummond.
Pianist—Miss A. Bogert.
Leaders of Song—Mr. Mian and Mr. Gillespie.
Supt. of Home Department—Mrs. W. J. Steacy.
Librarian—J. H. Coneal.
Supt. of Primary Dept.—Miss A. Cameron.
Supt. of Kindergarten Dept. — Miss Williamson.

Finance Committee—Bros. F. Perry, Thos. Elliott, Geo. Pratley.

Membership Committee—Bros. W. Dayman, T. M. McFadden, W. G. Green, Dr. McKercher, Robt. Beach.

After the installation ceremonies short speeches were delivered by Bros. Fry, (D.D.G.M.) Miller, Wallis, Patterson and others. An adjournment was then made to the banquetting hall, where a tempting collation was partaken of and a short toast list enjoyed.

A pleasant event during the evening was the presentation by Bro. Wm. Hill on behalf of Peterborough Lodge, of a solid gold Oddfellows" ring to Bro. George E. Gilbert, of Lindsay, formerly of Peterborough. Mr. Gilbert, who was secretary-treasurer for years of the District Committee and a most faithful worker, was a most surprised man, but thanked the brethren heartily for the unexpected mark of appreciation.

PARK ST. MISSION BAND.

The programme of the Mission Band concert will be repeated by special request on Tuesday next at the Park-st. Baptist church.

The Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, M.A., of St. Luke's church, will give an address on "Life in the German Army." This lecture was given at Orillia on Monday last and was received with enthusiasm. We have no doubt Mr. Langfeldt will be warmly welcomed in South Peterborough. The "German Army," together with the magnificent programme, including a patriotic flag drill, also a number with five characters, must make an evening of unusual interest.

MR. RITCHIE HONORED.

Mr. Ryerson Ritchie, formerly of Peterborough, who has for some years been secretary of the Detroit Board of Commerce, and to whose organising genius much of the success of that body is due, has been chosen Secretary of the Chicago Commercial Association, formed practically along the same lines as the Detroit Board. It is a distinct compliment to Mr. Ritchie to have the Chicago organization select him as their executive officer and his friends here will learn with pleasure of the honor done him.

SEEING A PICTURE.

Try to Look at It Through the Eyes of the Artist Who Painted It.

The first necessity for the proper seeing of a picture is to try to see it through the eyes of the artist who painted it. This is not a usual method. Generally people look only through their own eyes and like or dislike a picture according as it does or does not suit their particular fancy. These people will tell you, "Oh, I don't know anything about painting, but I know what I like," which is their way of saying, "If I don't like it right off I don't care to be bothered to like it at all."

Such an attitude of mind cuts one off from growth and development, for it is as much as to say, "I am very well satisfied with myself and quite indifferent to the experiences and feelings of other men." Yet it is just this feeling and experience of another man which a picture gives us. If you consider a moment you will understand why. The world itself is a vast panorama, and from it the painter selects his subject—not the copy of it exactly, since it would be impossible for him to do this even if he tried. How could he represent, for example, each blade of grass, each leaf upon a tree? So what he does is to represent the subject as he sees it, as it appeals to his sympathy or interest, and if twelve artists painted the same landscape the result would be twelve different pictures, differing according to the way in which each man had been impressed by the scene—in fact, according to his separate point of view or separate way of seeing it, influenced by his individual experience and feeling.—Charles H. Coffin in St. Nicholas.

An Accurate Marksman.

Accuracy is one of the best business accomplishments. However, it is seldom drawn to a finer point than in the following story, taken from the Chicago Journal:

During the bombardment of Alexandria in 1882 Lord Charles Beresford asked a gunner if he could hit a man who was on the fort. The gunner replied:

"Aye, aye, sir!"

"Then hit him in the eye," said Lord Beresford. He was surprised when the gunner inquired:

"Which eye, sir?"

A Process Reversed.

"You regard campaign calculations as a distinct branch of mathematics?"

"Yes," answered the erudite personage. "The method differs from all others. You start with the answer and then work backward and evolve a problem to demonstrate it."

Can't Afford Ill Health.

Cure is Cheap at any Price —Benefit Certain if You Use

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Only the wealthy can afford to be invalids.

They alone can bear the expense of constant attendance by doctors and high salaried nurses.

Your time is your capital, and, whether your daily task is in the home or abroad, you must make every day count or prove a burden to yourself and friends.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is well suited to the needs of a multitude of people because it overcomes weakness, first weakness of the blood and nerves, and through them the weakness of the organs of the body.

It may require a dozen or more boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to make you strong and well and send the thrill of health through your shrivelled arteries and wasted nerves.

Because Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is a creator of blood and nerve force you can be positive that each box of it is at least doing you some good. Prove this by noting your increase in weight as new, firm flesh and tissue is bring added to the body.

Mrs. Orens, 146 Rubidge street, Peterborough, Ont., states:—

"I have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in my family, and have found it to be a great nerve builder. One of my children had been troubled with nervousness for a couple of years and suffered greatly from dizzy, nervous headaches. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has entirely freed her of these symptoms, and today she is real strong and healthy. We do not lose an opportunity of recommending this splendid medicine."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. The portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box.

QUESTION OF INCOME

By BELLE MANIATES

Copyright, 1904, by Belle Maniates

On "butter day" little Susie Bradley always wiped the breakfast dishes. She was making but little progress with that occupation now, however, by reason of running to look out the window every few minutes. Although she took a handful of silver, a platter or a pile of plates with her on each trip, wiping as she went, she was not keeping pace with Rosie, the help, who was washing the dishes.

"I vow, Susie, this is the tenth time you have gone to that window!"

"Oh, I can't wait to see her!" sighed Susie. "I am so afraid the train is late."

The coming of the city cousin, Kathlyn Randall, was always an event. The visit generally occurred in strawberry or harvest time, but what could have induced her to come to the farm in November was beyond the combined conjectures of the Randall family. She had written a short note saying she would be there that morning for a long visit.

"Can hardly wait for what, Susie?" asked a manly voice.

Susie looked up into the handsome face of Neil Milnes, one of the men from the city who were camping down on the river for the shooting season. It was Neil's turn to come for the milk and butter with which Mrs. Bradley supplied them.

"My cousin. She is coming to visit us, and, oh, she is so lovely and wears such beautiful clothes!"

Milnes laughed and walked out through the woodshed and across fields of stubble to join his companions.

"I can just imagine the city cousin," he thought, "clad in a bargain shirt waist suit and a picture hat from the bazaar at $1.39, overwhelming the country folk about here with her 'style.'"

He heard the round of running feet behind and turned, expecting to see a young colt, but it was Susie.

"Mother said I could go down to the river road and meet them and ride home with them."

"Your cousin will think she has fallen in clover when she hears there are four young men on the premises," he suggested.

"Oh, she has lots of beaus," replied Susie loftily.

"Then she'll be sure to want more. Tell her we are all married, will you?"

Susie, however, had caught the sound of distant wheels and sped quickly away. Milnes met them riding in the light wagon, Mr. Bradley and the baggage on the first seat, and Susie perched proudly on the back seat beside the most stunning looking girl that he had ever seen. Mr. Bradley reined up and presented Milnes to his niece, Miss Randall, who acknowledged the introduction cordially. Then they drove on, and Milnes, recalling her tailored traveling coat with the big bunch of violets fastened at the belt, the chic hat and correct appointments of veil, gloves and purse, also foreign labeled steamer trunk, was amused at his preconception of the "city cousin."

He went on to the camp racking his brains for a plausible errand to the farmhouse, but his wits, usually fertile, refused to suggest. Finally he resolved to go away and await an inspiration. When he reached the farmhouse, Miss Randall, charmingly gowned, was in the kitchen with her aunt. She hardly vouchsafed the young man a glance.

"Oh, Mr. Milnes, what can I do for you?" asked Mrs. Bradley.

"Why—er—oh, we want some more butter," he said desperately.

"What have you done with all that you got this morning?" she exclaimed.

"Well, you see, it's Johnson's turn to cook, and he uses so much butter!"

Mrs. Bradley's eyes twinkled as she got a roll of butter, while Susie giggled outright, and he could see that Miss Randall was amused, though she was quite ignoring his presence. Suddenly it came to him in a flash that Susie had repeated his remarks. He turned to go, and Mrs. Bradley said good naturedly:

"Susie, go as far as the barn with Mr. Milnes and show him where to get some cider."

On the way out he asked Susie anxiously if she had told what he said.

"Oh, yes," she replied cheerfully.

He groaned.

"What did your cousin say?"

"She said you didn't look like such a cad."

He winced and was silent for a moment. Then he said suddenly:

"Say, Susie, is her father's name Wellman Randall?"

"Yes. Uncle Wellman is her father. He is awfully rich."

Of course he was. Every one knew of Wellman Randall, the successful speculator.

"I am sorry," he said half to himself.

"Why?" asked Susie indignantly. "Uncle Wellman is lovely."

"I know he is, but I wish he were poor."

Such a wish was beyond Susie's understanding, and she thought he was joking. All day he loafed and smoked by himself and thought of the vision at the Bradleys. At twilight he insisted that the milk was sour and went up to the house for a fresh supply. By good fortune Miss Randall was alone in the orchard.

"Miss Randall," he said, coming up to her, "we are all prone at times to say utterly idle words that we don't mean. I couldn't know that you were"—

"That I was what?" she asked as he hesitated.

"That you were the hundredth woman. Until I saw you I had no reason to suppose that you were not one of the ninety-nine. I don't wonder you think me a cad, though."

She blushed a little.

"I am afraid Susie is leaky," she said.

Further conversation was prevented by Mr. Bradley's appearance upon the scene.

"Come, Kathlyn, if you want to go with me to see the committee. We must be starting."

"Yes, uncle. Good night, Mr. Milnes." And she walked away, leaving Neil discomfited.

The next day, Sunday, the men were away from camp fishing save Neil, whose turn it was to cook dinner. While in the tent he heard steps approaching and then a fall. Going out, he saw Susie sprawled on the ground by the side of a pumpkin pie. Both were quite disturbed on the surface.

"Oh, dear," sobbed Susie, "mother took such pains, and I walked so slow and careful all the way!"

Milnes always had a tender sympathy with the woes of children. He picked Susie up in his arms and sat down in the hammock with her, kissed her gently and wiped away the rain of tears.

"See here, dear," he said soothingly, "the pie is all right. We can smooth it down, and if we can't we'll call it pudding. You needn't tell any one at the house, and the fellows won't know the difference. They'll think it's the proper style for a pie. You stay and watch me get dinner and help eat it, and then we'll have a boat ride."

Susie was quickly comforted. She was not used to being petted except by Cousin Kathlyn, and her heart went straight into Neil's service henceforth.

"Cousin Kathlyn is going to stay here and teach the school. Our teacher is ill and has gone away. Isn't that lovely?"

"What in the world is she going to do that for?" he asked in amazement.

"I mustn't tell. Cousin Kathlyn told me it wasn't nice to repeat things."

Neil questioned no further. "It's some whim," he thought, "or a wager. She won't keep that up very long."

When Kathlyn went to Susie's bedside that night for a little visit with her cousin she casually mentioned Neil's name.

The child sat up in bed, her eyes shining.

"I love him!" she cried.

"Why, Susie!"

Thereupon Susie confided the fate of the pie and told how he had kissed and comforted her. The next morning when Neil chanced to be strolling in the lane near the little schoolhouse he met Kathlyn. To his surprise she stopped and spoke to him, smiling graciously.

"Susie told me how good you were to her," she said.

"Susie's a darling!" he exclaimed. "And my, Miss Randall, if I can help you in the school or anyway"—

She laughed.

"Oh, I can manage the school all right. I understand children."

"I shall come and see how you get on," he declared.

He appeared in the schoolroom the very next day and announced that he had come to "visit." She was provoked, but she could not turn him out. She had written some words on the blackboard for the pupils to use in sentences. She now pointed to the first one, "income."

"Who can make a sentence and use that word correctly?" she asked.

"Do call on that little fat boy for a sentence or he'll wring his hand off," whispered Neil.

She gave the youngster the floor, and he jumped to his feet in triumph, yelling:

"In come a rat!"

That was too much for Neil's composure, and he gave way to an infectious fit of laughter, in which teacher and scholars joined.

"You had better go now," she said to her visitor.

"If I'll promise not to come in again may I come every afternoon and row you and Susie home by the river way?"

She consented to this arrangement and thenceforth came halcyon days—to Neil and Susie at least.

November vanished, and so did the hunters, save Neil, who lingered and upon Mrs. Bradley's invitation took up his quarters at the farmhouse. He was very happy except when he remembered how paltry his income would appear in comparison with Miss Randall's millions. Susie used to watch him closely when he was in one of these reveries, and her warm little heart, enlightened by her affection for Neil, divined the cause. She reached a decision. Her opportunity came that evening. She went to the barn to hold the lantern for Neil while he got some cider.

"I am going to tell you why Cousin Kathlyn teaches school," she said bluntly.

"Oh, but you shouldn't, Susie! Didn't she tell you not to?"

"No. She didn't say not to tell that especially. Besides, every one knows but you. You know you wished Uncle Wellman was poor?"

"Yes," he said, his heart beating with hope.

"He is now. He lost everything he had in a minute, and he sent Cousin Kathlyn here to stay while he went west to make some more money, and she would teach so as to help him."

"Susie, Susie, you are my good angel," he cried in delight.

The light of love and hope so transfigured his countenance that Kathlyn turned pale when she saw him. When the Bradley family had considerately gone to bed at an earlier hour than usual Neil told Kathlyn all that was in his heart.

"Dear," he said reproachfully, "why didn't you tell me of your father's loss?"

"I was afraid you'd think I was imagining myself 'in clover.' Besides, it shouldn't be a question of income"—

"A rat!" he finished, laughing.

Saltness of the Sea.

The two great causes of a very gradual increase in the saltness of the sea are the solvent powers of water and the process of evaporation. By their solvent powers rain, rivers and springs draw salts out of the land and carry them to the sea. In evaporation the sun, as an enormous pump, is ever drawing up pure water, leaving all solids behind. On the other hand, many marine organisms, plants and animals are continually extracting mineral matter from the sea wherewith to build up the solid parts of their bodily frames. Whenever the point of saturation is reached salt is deposited, as in the salt pans of the Caspian, the Dead sea, Salt lake, Utah, and numerous beds of rock salt.

Babies on Club's Waiting List.

In what is supposed to be our swellest club the father who does not cause his masculine offspring to be posted for membership on about the day of the offspring's birth is understood to be the exception rather than the rule. There is a legend that a member once anticipated an interesting event in his family to the extent of proposing for membership a boy he was expecting and that the baby turned out to be a girl. We believe, however, that this legend has never been fully substantiated. It is nevertheless a fact, we believe, that there's a long procession of baby boys on the club's waiting list.

Lady Vere de Vere.

Aubrey de Vere, the poet, and his family were for long years intimate friends with Tennyson, who borrowed the whole of his famous Lady Clara's name from them, for one of them was actually a Vere de Vere. Lady de Vere, it is said, did not quite like the association of her name and of a little something like hers with the character of the hard hearted and haughty Clara. "Why should Lady de Vere be aggrieved?" was Tennyson's reply. "I have not given her name to an ugly woman nor to an old woman, only to a wicked one."

Not Too Timid.

An officer in the army laughed at a timid woman because she was alarmed at the noise of a cannon when a salute was fired. He subsequently married that timid woman, and six months afterward he took off his boots in the hall when he came in late at night.

Accustomed to It.

Ada—And weren't you a bit nervous when he proposed? Clara—Oh, no! A proposal doesn't make me nervous any more.

A WALK IN THE WOODS.

Emerson Says It's One of the Secrets For Dodging Old Age.

Few men know how to take a walk. The qualifications of a professor are endurance, plain clothes, old shoes, an eye for nature, good humor, vast curiosity, good speech, good silence and nothing too much. If a man tells me that he has an intense love of nature, I know, of course, that he has none. Good observers have the manners of trees and animals, their patient good sense, and if they add words 'tis only when words are better than silence. But a loud singer or a story teller or a vain talker profanes the river and the forest and is nothing like so good company as a dog.

When Nero advertised for a new luxury a walk in the woods should have been offered. 'Tis one of the secrets for dodging old age, for nature makes a like impression on age as on youth. Then I recommend it to people who are growing old against their will. A man in that predicament, if he stands before a mirror or among young people, is made quite too sensible of the fact, but the forest awakes in him the same feeling it did when he was a boy, and he may draw a moral from the fact that 'tis the old trees that have all the beauty and grandeur. I admire the taste which makes the avenue to a house, were the house never so small, through a wood; besides the beauty, it has a positive effect on manners, as it disposes the mind of the inhabitant and of his guests to the deference due to each. Some English reformers thought the cattle made all this wide space necessary between house and house and that if there were no cows to pasture less land would suffice. But a cow does not need so much land as the owner's eyes require between him and his neighbor.—Ralph Waldo Emerson in Atlantic.

A Night Life Saving Buoy.

A novel life saving device has been added to the equipment of steamers on Lake Michigan in the night buoy, designed to prevent the drowning of persons falling from a vessel in the darkness. The buoy, above which will burn a brilliant gas jet, is by means of chemicals lighted as soon at it strikes the water. The devices are being fitted aboard the steamers Columbus and Virginia of the Goodrich line.

CONFERENCES OF COLONIES.

Premier Balfour Predicts They Will Be As Much of An Institution As the British House of Commons.

London, Jan. 13.—(C.A.P.)—Premier Balfour entertained at dinner at Glasgow devoted much of his speech to recent army and navy reform, but he made no mention of the abolition of the dockyards. Referring to the subject of colonial conferences he said they were at first sporadic, but he hoped were soon to be systematic and as much a part of the ordinary working machinery of the Empire as the House of Commons itself. He would be ashamed to give his audience the impression that all difficulties had been surmounted, and had no wish to under-value the task the country has to perform. He dared not prophesy with too much confidence whether it would be successful, but he had no doubt of the energy in the forward movement. For his own part he would rather fail with those who held the great ideal which he saw before him than succeed with purblind and unimaginative persons whose views never got beyond their own parish and who were incapable of picturing what our great colonies were to become or framing in their own minds an idea of what the British Empire might be and what it might do for the cause of peace, freedom and civilization. Concluding Mr. Balfour said that if those great and growing communities, when they reach the full plentitude of their strength, should find themselves not loosely connected with the Mother Country, but bound by organic ties, no stress of war or difficulty, no danger from within or threats from without could either shake or, for an instant, imperil us.

The Morning Post expresses surprise that Mr. Balfour passed over the fiscal question so lightly and at the vagueness of his reference about the conference. Any alteration in the methods of managing the Empire needs the fullest consideration.

Commenting on Balfour's reticence on the fiscal question, The Times says he probably judged that Chamberlain was doing all necessary in that direction.

MUST DEFEND AFGHANISTAN.

Premier Balfour Says So At a Banquet At Glasgow.

London, Jan. 13.—Premier Balfour, speaking at a banquet given in his honor at Glasgow last night, avoided the fiscal question, except to say that he had nothing to add to or retract from his Edinburgh speech. He hoped conferences with the colonies soon would be quite as essentially a working part of the Empire as the House of Commons.

The two great problems with which the Government had to deal, Mr. Balfour said, were the defence of Afghanistan, and the re-armament of the army which involved a cost as much as any continental nation was able to bear. When this was completed the British army would be in advance of that of any other nation.

Continuing, Mr. Balfour said the fault with the Empire was not that it was too small, but that it was too great and powerful, and at the same time under-developed. One of the greatest problems before the country was that of development, and the country was only just beginning to realize the importance of further development of all countries under the British flag.

Mr. Balfour briefly alluded to the "Dogger Bank affair." He said Great Britain was leading in the movement looking to the world's peace. In the case of the Dogger Bank incident Britain had skirted the precipice of war when a small want of tact would have been a discredit to civilization.

In conclusion, Mr. Balfour urged that it was the duty of all Britons to build up the machinery by which a closer union with the colonies could be produced.

For Over Sixty Years

An old and well-tried remedy.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Sold by all druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

Lifebuoy Soap—disinfectant—is strongly recommended by the medical profession as a safeguard against infectious diseases.

BIG CROWD AT OPENING

Ottawa Women Crowded Out By M.P.'s Daughters and Wives.

Earl Grey, the New Governor-General Reads the Speech From the Throne, and Discharged His Duties With Simple Directness—Provincial Autonomy For the Territories the Chief Item of Public Interest in the Speech.

Ottawa, Jan. 13.—The spectacle of a new Governor opening a new Parliament caught the curiosity of the people of Ottawa. It appealed also to the feminine fancy of far-off towns and cities, and the result was an unprecedented assault of feathers and furs and frills on the tyled doors of the national capital.

Black Rod had his work cut out. His was the unpleasant duty of turning away the excess of applicants for admission, the assigning of seats and standing room and the separation of those entitled to recognition on the floor of the Senate from the less fortunate ones whose limit was a chance at the gallery.

Ottawa Not Cared For.

So great was the demand from outside points and from those with indisputable rights to precedence that the floor of the Senate was almost wholly occupied with the wives and the daughters of members. Ottawa women with the entre had therefore no choice but to deny themselves in their evening finery. They sat in the galleries in their street costumes and gazed in envy on the fashion that disported itself on the ground floor.

With Simple Directness.

His Excellency, accompanied by an escort of the Princess Louise Dragoon Guards, arrived at the buildings promptly at 3 o'clock. He discharged his duties with a simple directness that is characteristic of the man. To the left of His Excellency stood Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in the uniform of an Imperial Privy Councillor, and Hon. R. W. Scott. On his right were Lady Sybil and Lady Evelyn Grey, and a number of aides-de-camp. Black Rod was sent out in pursuit of the Commons. Successful in his mission, he returned to the red chamber, with Speaker Sutherland and 80 or 100 members of the Commons. Standing room was at a premium. It was with difficulty that two-thirds of the Commons contingent crowded themselves into the narrow space reserved for them. It was with more difficulty that those disgusted with the accommodation, passed their way out.

The speech from the Throne, which His Excellency read very leisurely, was as follows:

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE.

Hon. Gentlemen of the Senate, Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

I desire on this occasion to assure you how sensible I am of the great honor conferred on me by the King in appointing me to the distinguished position of Governor-General. My pleasure in being called upon to represent His Majesty in the Dominion has been heightened by the cordial welcome I have received on all sides and from all classes. This favored land, with its vast resources and improving facilities for transportation, is attracting people on an ever ascending scale, not only from the United Kingdom, but also from the United States, and from other countries. As the opportunities for settlement under the advantageous conditions which exist are better known, this Dominion will become the home of an increasing number of happy and contented people, whose character and prosperity will add strength to the great Empire of which you are so important a part.

Trade and Revenue.

It is gratifying to note that the trade of the Dominion, which in recent years has so steadily increased, is not diminishing, the aggregate trade for the last fiscal year being the largest on record. The revenue for the past six months is also greater than for the corresponding period of the preceding year.

International Waterways.

On the invitation of the President of the United States, my Government has joined in the formation of an international commission composed of three representatives from each country to investigate and report upon the conditions and uses of the waters adjacent to the boundary line between the United States and Canada, and to make such recommendations for improvements and regulations as shall best subserve the interest of navigation in said waters.

Territorial Autonomy.

The rapid growth in the population of the Northwest Territories during the past two years justifies the wisdom of conferring on those Territories Provincial autonomy. A bill for that purpose will be submitted for your consideration.

The Transcontinental Surveys.

The surveys necessary for the location of the line of the National Transcontinental Canadian Railway are being vigorously prosecuted, and it is confidently believed that tenders for the construction of several sections may be invited during the coming season.

To Exhibit in Belgium.

The display of Canadian products made last year at the St. Louis Exhibition proved such a marked success in attracting emigrants to the Western Prairies, that it is proposed to accept the invitation of the Government of Belgium to send sample of our products and manufactures to the exhibition to be shortly held at Liege.

A Surplus Once Again.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

The accounts of the last year will be laid before you. It will be satisfactory to you to learn that the expenditure has been less than the revenue, leading a surplus over all charges. The estimates for the coming year will be submitted at an early date. They have been prepared with a due regard for economy, consistent with the development of the resources of the Dominion.

Hon. Gentlemen of the Senate, Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

I invite your best attention to the subjects I have mentioned, and invoke the Divine blessing on your deliberations.

Ten minutes sufficed to wind up the day's proceedings in the Commons. Sir Wilfrid Laurier introduced a bill respecting the administration of oaths of office. He moved also that a committee, composed of Messrs. Foster, Mulock, Haggart, Hyman and the Premier should strike the standing committees of the House.

The speech from the Throne will be considered on Monday.

In the meantime members will enjoy a holiday.

Mr. Borden in Montreal.

Montreal, Jan. 13.—R. L. Borden arrived here yesterday and proceeded at once to Ottawa. He did not wish to make any statement as to his future course at Ottawa, but those who conversed with him at the Windsor received the impression that Mr. Borden would again accept the task of leadership.

SOME TARIFF CHANGES.

Made By Order of Governor-in-Council On Jan. 7.

Ottawa, Jan. 13.—(Globe Special.)—A number of tariff changes have been made by Order-in-Council, dated Jan. 7. Carbons over six inches in circumference, when for use as materials in Canadian manufactures, have been transferred to list of goods which may be imported free of duty until otherwise provided. Rates of duty have been reduced on the following articles, when imported for manufacturers of burial caskets or burial robes for use in their own factories: Casket gimps or fringes and embroidered or embossed chiffon, from 35 to 10 per cent.; silk cloth, including satin, from 30 to 10 per cent. These reduction rates are subject to further reduction of one-third under the preferential tariff, or to an addition of a like amount under the surtax, if the importations of goods come under said preferential tariff or surtax.

Flour Drawback Allowed.

Washington, Jan. 13.—Secretary of the Treasury yesterday issued a regulation allowing a drawback on flour and the by-products, resulting from the grinding of wholly imported wheat. The duty on imported wheat is 25 cents a bushel. There is pending before the department the question of drawback on flour produced from mixed imported and domestic wheat.

Against a Newspaper.

London, Jan. 13.—The suit of Stone v. The Galt Reporter was begun here yesterday at the assizes. The plaintiff, a London barrister, is claiming $10,000 from the defendant newspaper because it warned the public not to buy stock in a company which the plaintiff was forming to manufacture binder twine.

Manitoba to Widen Boundaries.

Winnipeg, Jan. 13.—In the Legislature Hon. Colin H. Campbell has given notice that he will to-day move a resolution dealing with the subject of the extension of the boundaries of the Province of Manitoba.

A Mighty Increase.

Winnipeg, Jan. 13.—There have been 3,000,000 bushels increase in shipments of wheat this year over last so far.

STRANGER THAN FICTION.

A Remedy Which Has Revolutionized the Treatment of Stomach Troubles.

The remedy is not heralded as a wonderful discovery, nor yet a secret patent medicine, neither is it claimed to cure anything except dyspepsia, indigestion and stomach troubles with which nine out of ten suffer.

The remedy is in the form of pleasant tasting tablets or lozenges, containing vegetable and fruit essences, pure aseptic pepsin (government test), golden seal and diastase. The tablets are sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Many interesting experiments to test the digestive power of Stuart's Tablets show that one grain of the active principle contained in them is sufficient to thoroughly digest 3,000 grains of raw meat, eggs and other wholesome food.

Stuart's Tablets do not act upon the bowels like after dinner pills and cheap cathartics, which simply irritate and inflame the intestines without having effect whatever in digesting food or curing indigestion.

If the stomach can be rested and assisted in the work of digestion it will very soon recover its normal vigor, as no organ is so much abused and overworked as the stomach.

This is the secret, if there is any secret, of the remarkable success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, a remedy practically unknown a few years ago and now the most widely known of any treatment for stomach weakness.

This success has been secured entirely upon its merits as a digestive pure and simple because there can be no stomach trouble if the food is promptly digested.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets act entirely on the food eaten, digesting it completely, so that it can be assimilated into blood, nerve and tissue. They cure dyspepsia, water brash, sour stomach, gas and bloating after meals, because they furnish the digestive power which weak stomachs lack and unless that lack is supplied it is useless to attempt to cure by the use of "tonics" "pills" and cathartics which have absolutely no digestive power.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can be found at all drug stores and the regular use of one or two of them after meals, will demonstrate their merit better than any other argument.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

Receipts of live stock at the City Cattle Market were 66 car loads, composed of 764 cattle, 2408 hogs, 1250 sheep and lambs, with about 40 calves.

Only a few shipping cattle were offered. Prices ranged all the way from $4 to $4.70 per cwt. for steers weighing from 1200 to 1300 lbs. each. Bulls, $3.25 to $4.25 per cwt.

Choice picked lots sold at $4 to $4.25, with two or three extra cattle good enough in quality to export, that brought a little more money; fair to good at $3.70 to $4; medium at $3.40 to $3.70; common at $2.50 to $3.12½; canners at $1.40 to $2 per cwt.

There was a fair demand for feeders of good quality, several Western Ontario farmers being on the market to purchase. Feeders, 1050 to 1500 lbs. sold at $3.80 to $3.90; feeders, 800 to 900 lbs each, sold at $3.25 to $3.40 per cwt; stockers, 600 to 700 lbs each, sold at $2.50 to $3 for medium to good quality.

About 20 milch cows and springers, principally of common to medium quality, sold from $30 to $45 each, but better quality cows would bring more money.

Good to choice quality veal calves were in excellent demand at firm prices. Common calves sold at $3.50 to $4.50 per cwt, while good to choice veals sold from $5 to $6 per cwt.

The demand for sheep and lambs continues to be good, all offerings being readily bought at firmer quotations. Export ewes sold at $4.50 to $4.75; bucks at $3.50 to $3.75; lambs at $5.50 to $6.25 per cwt.

Deliveries of hogs were large, 2409, all of which were bought by Mr. Harris at $4.90 for selects and $4.65 for lights and fats.

Seven to One

That is about the ratio. About seven times as many persons are injured as die from all causes yearly.

Accidents are a more prolific cause of death than any disease except lung diseases.

Twice as many people are accidently killed as die of old age. Does it not seem reasonable to you as a business man that it would be to your interest to carry an accident policy?

YOU are subject to over two hundred diseases, and liable to accidents without number.

Official figures prove that One Man in Five carrying an Accident and Sickness Policy makes a claim for indemnity each year.

If You Don't Buy Here We Both Lose Money

Another year has gone. It's pleasant to tell of sales far beyond all previous year's, for they indicate general prosperity as well as the progress of this store. But to you such growth means more still; it tells unmistakably of the increasing attractiveness of our Fur Goods and also the drawing power of our Fur Prices. The bigger the manufacturing business the lower the cost of production, consequently "If you don't buy here we both lose money." Just now we call attention to our extra fine showing of—

T. A. S. DEFEATED IN LEAGUE GAME.

Campbellford Won Close Contest Yesterday.

The T.A.S. journeyed down to Campbellford yesterday afternoon to play their first Trent Valley game, and were defeated after a hard contest by 4—3. Campbellford lead at half time by 3—0, but the Abstainers rallied wonderfully in the second half and scored three goals to Campbellford's one, their last goal being scored just before time was up. The T.A.S. say that with another minute of time they would have won out as they had the home team on the run. They deserve great credit for the showing they made against Campbellford. The Abstainers' team was for the most part composed of the City League team, but they have certainly shown that they are fast enough for Trent Valley hockey.

The Campbellford rink is an open one and very small, which considerably handicapped the visitors.

The T.A.S. team was as follows:—

Goal—Claney.
Point—Meagher.
Cover Point—Kelly.
Rover—Daforge.
Centre—T. McGrath.
Right Wing—Rose.

Mr J. McIntyre, of Keene, refereed to the satisfaction of both teams.

ORILLIA RINK DESTROYED.

Orillia, Jan. 12.—The large exhibition hall of the East Simcoe Agricultural Society, used as a skating rink was completely destroyed by fire at 4 o'clock yesterday morning. The blaze originated from a defective electric wire. The building was the last of Orillia's three skating rinks that have fallen victims to fire. The loss is covered by insurance. A large number of ticket holders and the hockey club, who were occupying lockers in the rink, lost their boots and skates.

BASKETBALL.

There will be another basketball game in the Y.M.C.A. gym. on Saturday evening.

LOCAL LINERS

—The Peterborough Council of Chosen Friends will visit the Lakefield Council on Monday, January 16th.

—The choir of All Saints' church was entertained on Wednesday evening by Rev. William Major, and a most delightful evening was spent in games, recitations, singing, etc.

—The annual meeting of the Peterborough and Ashburnham Horticultural Society will be held in the Town Council Chamber on Wednesday evening next.

—Rev. W. A. Gustin, rector of St. Mark's church, Port Hope, leaves shortly for a trip to the Holy Land. He expects to visit Jericho before he returns, but has no idea of falling among thieves.

—The list of entries for the races which will be held on the driving park on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, are held over until to-morrow. A large number of speedy horses are entered.

—The roads in the north country are in such a condition that yesterday it took the stage from Lakehurst twelve hours to travel to Lakefield, a distance of 20 miles, and the stage from Apsley was also about fourteen hours on the road.

—The Primary and Junior Sunday School Teachers' Union will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the Y.M.C.A. building for the first time this year. Mrs. E. D. Lewis will teach the Primary and Rev. A. H. Brace the Junior lesson. All interested in Sabbath school work are cordially invited to attend. A collection will be taken to defray expenses.

FARRIERS WON VERNIERS LOST.

Two Good Games in City League Last-night.

KARNOTS AGAIN VICTORIOUS

Games Were One-sided — Third Successive Victory For Karnots and Farriers — Both Qualify For the Semi-finals — Earl Greys are Out of the Race.

The City League games at the Brock street rink last night attracted a fairly large crowd. The games were rather one-sided, but furnished good hockey. The contests were very slow, compared to those of the previous week. The Karnots had an easy thing in the first game and won from the Verniers quite handily by 10—2. The Farriers had not much trouble in winning the second, the score being 5—0 in their favor.

THE FIRST GAME.

The surprise of the evening was the poor showing made by the Verniers against the Karnots. The former had changed their line-up and many expected them to give the boys in purple and white a hard game. However, with the exception of Mcgrath and Miller they were not in the Karnot's class. Their combination was conspicuous by its absence, and the individual efforts of Miller and McGrath were not effective against the Karnots' strong defence. The above mentioned players did the bulk of the work for the losers and each made several nice rushes. McDonald held his man well. The defence was weak and the Karnot forwards got through when they wanted to.

Every man on the Karnot team played a star game. Their defence was almost impregnable and their forward line fast, good stick handlers and splendid shots. Kingscote saw everything in goal and the two that passed him were at close range. Dormer played a fine game at point and Quinn, at cover, was always in the way when a rush came along. It would be unfair to individualize any of the forwards. All played nice hockey and their combination was very effective.

The game was marked by strenuous playing and hard checking, the losers displaying a tendency to rough it, and referee Morgan was rather lenient with them. True, he ruled off some, but there were twenty things he didn't see, and twenty more he saw, but let go.

The Karnots made a runaway game in the first half, scoring 8 goals and blanking their opponents. In the second the Verniers showed great improvement and the playing was about equal, each side scoring two goals.

The teams were as follows—

Karnots		Verniers
	Goal
Kingscote		N. Miller
	Point
Dormer		Angeley
	Coverpoint.
Quinn		Ellis
	Rover
Campbell		G. Miller
	Centre
Mulhern		Morris
	Right Wing
Gross		McGrath
	Left Wing
Gilman		McDonald.

The summary—

1. Karnots, Gilman.
2. Karnots, Campbell.
3. Karnots, Gross.
4. Karnots, Mulhern.
5. Karnots, Mulhern.
6. Karnots, Gilman
7. Karnots, Gross.
8. Karnots, Gross.
9. Karnots, Campbell.
10. Karnots, Campbell.
11. Verniers, Miller.
12. Verniers, Morris.

Those penalized were Dormer, Mulhern, McGrath, Campbell.

THE SECOND GAME.

The second game was played in twenty minute halves. The Farriers had the best of the playing and their goal was not often in danger. Bert. Cameron figured on the forward line of the Earl Greys and strengthened them considerably. The score at half time was 3—0 and at full time 5—0 in favor of the Farriers.

The winners played their usual effective game. They are heavy, but fast, and shot hard and straight on the nets. The defence was impregnable last night and the individual rushes of Cameron could not do much in the way of scoring. The forwards played fine hockey.

For the losers Cameron was easily the star and put up a great game.

The rest of the team was nothing out of the ordinary.

The game was a fairly good exhibition and Referee Wasson kept the players down to clean hockey.

The teams were as follows—

Farriers		Earl Greys
	Goal
Thornton		Laing
	Point.
Simpson		Seward
	Cover Point
Squires		Brand
	Rover.
H. Long		Latimer
	Centre
A. Long		Cameron
	Right Wing
Smith		Doughty
	Left Wing
Nicholls		McKee

The summary—

1. Farriers, A. Long.
2. Farriers, H. Long.
3. Farriers, H. Long.
4. Farriers, H. Long.
5. Farriers, Nicholls.

Final score, Farriers 5, Earl Greys 0. Referee, Wasson.

HOCKEY GOSSIP.

What the Puck Chasers Are Doing, or Are Going to Do.

The standing of the City League to date is as follows:—

	Won.	Lost.
Karnots	3	0
Farriers	3	0
Colonials	1	1
T.A.S.	1	2
Verniers	0	2
Earl Greys	0	3

The Karnots and Farriers have qualified for the semi-finals, and the Earl Greys by losing last night have lost their last chance.

There will be lightning ice for tonight's big game with Lindsay, and the largest crowd of the season will be on hand to see the Scugog bunch trimmed. It will be one of the best games of the season. The game will start at 8.15 sharp.

The boys of the P.C.I. Philomathian Literary and Debating Society do hereby challenge the girls of the same society to a friendly game of hockey to be played at an early date in Brock-st. rink.

It is to be hoped that the members of the above teams will not have the full name of the society placed on their sweaters.

West End 7; Aberdeens 0.

The West Ends gathered in another game last night at the Brock-st. rink when they won from the Aberdeens by a score of 7—0. The winners played great hockey. The Aberdeens were about as speedy but lacked combination and shooting powers, in both of which the West Ends excelled. The score at half time was 4—0. T. McGrath made a satisfactory referee.

The teams were as follows:—

West Ends.		Aberdeens.
	Goal
McFadden		Craig
	Point.
McKnight		A. Harrison
	Coverpoint.
Winch		Staunton
	Rover
Lynch		Seymour
	Centre
Cameron		E. Harrison
	Right Wing
Whaley		Leech
	Left Wing
Storts		Ray

There should be a record crowd at to-night's great game between Lindsay and Peterborough. Both teams will be strengthened and an exciting struggle may be looked for. Lindsay expects to win, but the locals can't see it that way. "Chaucer" Elliott, of Kingston, the best referee in the business, will handle the ball, which is an indication that both teams will have to play clean hockey.

Lindsay is running a special train, leaving Lindsay at 7 o'clock and returning at 11. There will be big bunch of rooters from Lindsay. The Peterborough team will be:—

Goal—Wasson.
Point—Glover.
Cover Point—Crowley.
Rover—Cavanah.
Centre—Morgan.
Right Wing—Parnell.

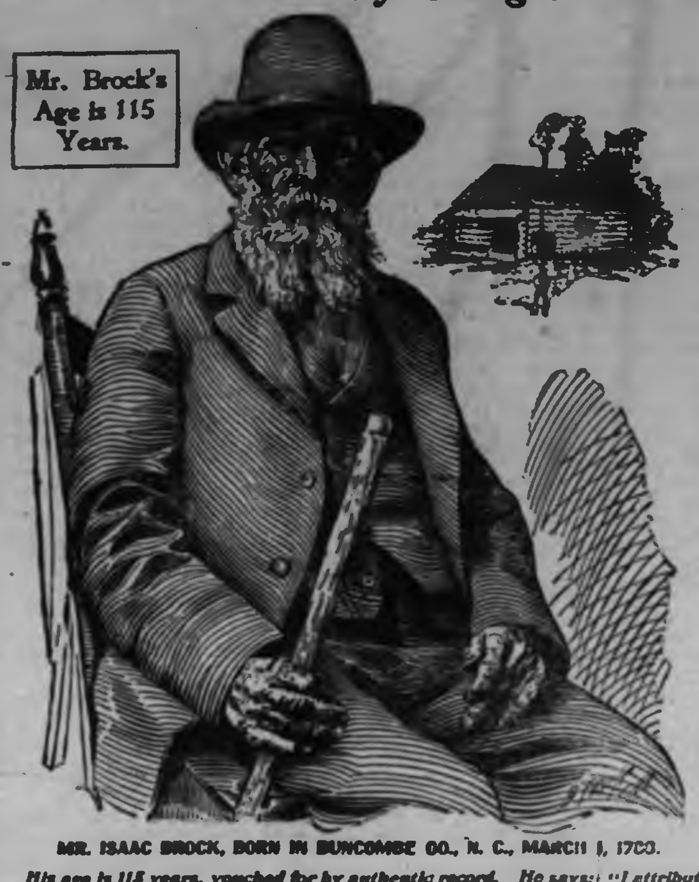
If Graham is not able to play McWilliams of the juniors will figure on the line-up.

THE OLDEST MAN IN AMERICA

Tells How He Escaped the Terrors of Many Winters by Using Pe-ru-na.



Mr. Brock's Age is 115 Years.

MR. ISAAC BROCK, BORN IN BUNCOMBE CO., N. C., MARCH 1, 1790.

His age is 115 years, vouched for by authentic record. He says: "I attribute my extreme old age to the use of Peruna."

Born before the United States was formed
Saw 22 Presidents elected.
Pe-ru-na has protected him from all sudden changes.
Veteran of four wars.
Shod a horse when 99 years old.
Always conquered the grip with Peruna.
Witness in a land suit at the age of 110 years.
Believes Peruna the greatest remedy of the age for catarrhal diseases.

ISAAC BROCK, a citizen of McLennan county, Texas, has lived for 115 years. For many years he resided at Bosque Falls, eighteen miles west of Waco, but now lives with his son-in-law at Valley Mills, Texas.

A short time ago, by request, Uncle Isaac came to Waco and sat for his picture. In his hand he held a stick cut from the grave of General Andrew Jackson, which has been carried by him ever since. Mr. Brock is a dignified old gentleman, showing few signs of decrepitude. His family Bible is still preserved, and it shows that the date of his birth was written 115 years ago.

Surely a few words from this remarkable old gentleman, who has had 115 years of experience to draw from, would be interesting as well as profitable. A lengthy biographical sketch is given of this remarkable old man in the Waco Times-Herald, December 4, 1898. A still more pretentious biography of this, the oldest living man, illustrated with a double column portrait, was given the readers of the Dallas Morning News, dated December 11, 1898, and also the Chicago-Times Herald of same date. This centenarian is an ardent friend of Peruna, having used it many years.

In speaking of his good health and extreme old age, Mr. Brock says:

"After a man has lived in the world as long as I have, he ought to have found out a great many things by experience. I think I have done so.

"One of the things I have found out to my entire satisfaction is the proper thing for ailments that are due directly to the effects of the climate. For 115 years I have withstood the changeable climate of the United States.

"I have always been a very healthy man, but of course subject to the little affections which are due to sudden changes in the climate and temperature. During my long life I have known a great many remedies for coughs, colds and diarrhoea.

"As for Dr. Hartman's remedy Peruna, I have found it to be the best, if not the only, reliable remedy for these affections. It has been my standby for many years, and I attribute my good health and extreme old age to this remedy.

"It exactly meets all my requirements. It protects me from the evil effects of sudden changes; it keeps me in good appetite; it gives me strength; it keeps my blood in good circulation. I have come to rely upon it almost entirely for the many little things for which I need medicine.

"When epidemics of la grippe first began to make their appearance in this country I was a sufferer from this disease.

"I had several long sieges with the grip. At first I did not know that Peruna was a remedy for this disease. When I heard that la grippe was epidemic catarrh, I tried Peruna for la grippe and found it to be just the thing."

In a later letter dated January 31, 1903, Mr. Brock writes:

"I am well and feeling as well as I have for years. The only thing that bothers me is my sight. If I could see better I could walk all over the farm and it would do me good. I would not be without Peruna."

Yours truly,

Isaac Brock,

For a free book on catarrh, address The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

ALL SAINTS' 5; ST. JOHN'S 1.

The second game in the Guild League series was played last night between St. John's and All Saints' teams. The latter won after a hard game by 5—1, the half time score being 3—0. All Saints' were much the heavier and played fast hockey. St. John's, especially the forward line, were very light, but put up a good game. Mr. N. McWilliams refereed the contest. His duties were light, as both teams played clean hockey.

The teams were as follows:—

All Saints'.		St. John's.
	Goal.
McCabe		Fitzpatrick
	Point.
Rickey		Comstock
	Coverpoint
Hopkins		Staunton
	Rover
O. Dusty		Morphet
	Centre
Rush		Ray
	Right Wing
B. Dusty		Seymour
	Left Wing
Campbell		Leech

St. Andrew's Young Men's Guild have accepted the challenge of the St. Andrew's Guards and the game will be played in the Brock street rink on Tuesday night, from 5.45 to 6.55. The Guards will line up as follows—

Goal—Fred. Richardson.
Pount—H. Rosborough.
Cover-point—R. McKnight.
Rover—Victor Tully.
Centre—Ernie Reid.
Right wing—A. VanEvery.
Left wing—E. Curry.
H. Kingscote will referee.

The "Happy Thoughts" do hereby challenge Barrie's Bedelias to a game of hockey to be played in the Brock street rink as soon as the ice can be secured.

THRILLING RUNAWAY.

An exciting runaway occurred on George street this afternoon. The frightened horse dashed down Hunter street, and behind it was a sleigh containing Mr. Ernie Clarry and another gentleman named Gobeen. Turning at George street corner, one of the occupants, Mr. Gobeen, was thrown out immediately in front of a street car, which was brought to a standstill within a few feet of where he lay. Another man, who tried to stop the horse, was knocked down and run over by the sleigh. Mr. Clarry was thrown out into the snow bank at the side. The horse was stopped at Central Park. No one was injured.

DID NOT RECEIVE THE PROPER CARE

Wallace Goodfellow Had Good Chance for Recovery.

CASE OF CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

How the Train of Thought Was Interfered With—Mrs. Goodfellow Sr. Did Not Care for Law or Doctors.

The inquest in Toronto to determine whether or not Wallace Goodfellow, formerly of Peterborough, received proper medical attention was continued last night, and after the evidence of Mrs. Bertha Goodfellow wife of deceased, and Dr. Riordan had been heard, another adjournment till Monday night was made.

Mrs. Goodfellow recalled how her husband had gone to his mother's home, and how for a week before he died, she was denied permission to see him. Her visits, it was claimed, interfered with the train of thought, because her actions were not in perfect harmony and peace. Once when Mrs. Goodfellow spoke about proper medical treatment for her husband and a possible visit from Crown Attorney Curry, Mrs. Goodfellow, mother of deceased, it was asserted, remarked that she didn't care for all the law and doctors going. Mrs. Goodfellow, the mother of Wallace, when medicine was spoken about, said that she was a Christian Scientist to the backbone and that she would be a sinner if she gave or took any.

Dr. Riordan, who was ordered not to call again, after one or two visits, said the condition of the body at the post-mortem examination indicated that the man had died as the result of improper nourishment and care. Dr. Riordan thought that had the proper medicine been given Goodfellow to strengthen the action of his heart during his illness, he would in all probability have recovered. The exposure of getting up out of bed and going down stairs and the exertion of putting on his clothes, as brought out in the evidence, lessened the chances of recovery. Of the cases of typhoid fever, Dr. Riordan declared, about 98 per cent. recovered with proper medical treatment.

—Mr. Bert Shaw, who some twelve years ago was employed in Mr. James Sheehy's dry goods store and who recently returned to town, has entered the store of Mr. A. W. Cressman. His many friends are pleased to see him back in Peterborough.

WHY IS HE SO ACTIVE?

To the Editor of the Review.

Dear Sir—Will you kindly tell me how it is that Mr. J. B. McWilliams is taking active part in this election in West Peterborough? I remember a motion having been passed forbidding every officer in the employ of the Government from taking part in elections, and I know that this whole campaign is being run by Mr. J. B. McWilliams in behalf of his son. Does he defy the law as made by the provincial legislature? Yours,

A LOOKER ON.

DIED.

TATE.—On January 12th, 1905, at her home in the city of Buffalo, N. Y., in her 77th year, Eliza Webster, widow of John W. Tate, C.E., late of Peterborough.

ARRANGEMENTS NOW COMPLETE

For Big Conservative Gathering in the Market Hall.

COL. WHITNEY WILL SPEAK.

On Thursday Night—Mr. Bradburn and Mr. Dennistoun Will Also Address the Electors—Everybody Cordially Invited.

The arrangements for the big Conservative rally and the demonstration in honor of Col. J. P. Whitney, the able, talented and upright leader of the Opposition, in the market hall on Thursday night, January 19th, are now complete.

Mr. Whitney will speak in the interest of Mr. Bradburn, the popular Conservative standard bearer, who will also address the gathering, as well as Mr. R. Max Dennistoun.

The public is cordially invited to hear the political issues of the day discussed in a fair, calm and intelligent spirit, and there will be accommodation for all.

Special arrangements are being made for the convenience of ladies and their escorts.

Come and hear Mr. Whitney, and show by your presence that you are in favor of clean, decent, progressive government.

Mr. Whitney, within two weeks, will be Premier of Ontario, and the electors will want to see the man who stands for the material and moral uplifting of the Province, and the end of the weak, wobbling and dishonest government, which has roused the spirit and independence of all right thinking and liberty-loving people to action.

AN OPEN MEETING

Peterborough Council No. 423, C. O. C. F. Will Hold One on Jan. 20.

Peterborough Council, No. 423, Canadian Order of Chosen Friends, will hold an open meeting in the Sons of England hall on Friday evening, Jan. 20th. In addition to the public installation on the officers, addresses will be delivered by J. H. Bell, M.D., Grand Councillor, of Kingston; W. F. McCammon, Past Grand Councillor of Belleville, and George Shibley, Organizer, Napanee. A short programme of vocal and instrumental music will also be rendered.

Our Debt to the East.

A lecture that promises to be of great interest is that which is to be delivered in the lecture room of George-st. Methodist church, under the auspices of the Literary Department of George-st. Epworth League, on Friday evening next, Jan. 20th, by Professor McCurdy, of Toronto University, on "Our Debt to the East." An admission fee of 10 cents is to be charged. 3d

HOSPITAL DAMAGED

Fire Destroys Kitchen of Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal — Loss $50,000.

Special to the Review.

Montreal, Jan. 14.—Fire broke out in the kitchen of the Royal Victoria Hospital, situated on the slope of Mount Royal, shortly before 7 a.m., and, before the firemen reached there, flames were pouring through the ventilating apparatus in the roof, and the aspect was decidedly serious.

The fire, however, was confined to the area in which it started, and by 8.30 was declared out. The damage is estimated at $50,000.

Owing to the excellent discipline maintained in the hospital it is believed that there was no loss of life or even injuries.

BIG RALLY TO-NIGHT

Attend the Gathering in Mr. Bradburn's Committee Rooms.

All friends and supporters of Mr. Bradburn should be present at the big rally in the Conservative committee rooms, opera house block, to-night.

There should be a large attendance. Addresses will be delivered by prominent workers and local speakers and Mr. Bradburn will also give a short account of the progress of the fray. The time between now and election day is short, and it is important that the intervening period should be spent to the best possible advantage.

Turn out to-night, hear the speeches and do your share in the work of electing Mr. Bradburn and in giving the province clean, honest and efficient government.

SALVATION ARMY WORK.

Visits to the Poor and Sick—Sunday Attendance—Receipts for 1905.

That the Salvation Army is doing a good and useful work in Peterborough is in daily evidence.

The local corps has just issued a printed report of what has been accomplished in town during the year 1904. In all 312 meetings have been held on street corners, and 520 services in the hall with a total attendance of 35,126. During the year 159 persons came forward for salvation at the penitent form and 47 were added to the membership roll of the army. The officers spent over 1,100 hours in visiting the poor and sick and 17,220 War Cries were sold.

The average attendance at the Sunday school was 119 an increase of 26 over 1903. During the year 26 children professed conversion. Fifteen classes are now in operation and the staff of teachers and helpers number 20. Arrangements have been made for extra accommodation.

Reference is also made to the excellent army band which now numbers 27 members. None of the members have ever received any remuneration for their services.

Thirteen new instruments were bought during the year. The band played in the streets 155 times.

The League of Mercy has also done good work. It is composed of 12 women soldiers commissioned to visit the poor and sick in their homes, to visit the hospital, good and Protestant home. The League at Christmas time gave a present to each inmate.

The income of the army in 1904 was $494.72 and the liabilities at present are $50.75. The junior soldiers have a balance to their credit in the bank and so has the band on current income and expenditure, but there is a debt of $184.26 on the new instruments.

The officers of the army are—
Adj. Jennings—Officer in Charge.
Lieut. Salter—Assistant.
Thos. Brooks—Sergt.-Major.
H. C. Bacon—Treasurer.
R. C. Breund,—J. S. Sergt.-Major
J. M. Greene—Bandmaster.

Victoria College Glee and Mandolin Clubs, opera house, Thursday, Jan 19. "An admirable organization," says the Globe.

WORK OF PRIMARY UNION

The Primary and Junior Sabbath School Teachers' Union, Peterborough held their first session for 1905 last night in the Y.M.C.A. Mrs. E. D. Lewis taught the primary lesson. Her black board work was unique, exemplifying the sublime truths of John I. to the smallest child's capacity.

Rev. A. H. Brace gave the lesson for the intermediate classes. He built it on the system outlined by Mrs. Bryner on her last visit with Messrs Jackson and Hardy.

Teachers of all classes from the Bible Class to the Primary would get valuable information for the lesson of the following Sunday, equal to several evenings spent in research and study.

Miss Williamson, the president, is an expert in her department and has charge every Friday of "Child Study" outlined by Professor Murray.

A splendid programme is prepared for the next three months and a successful term is looked for.

S.O.E. ATTENTION.

Installation of officers will be held on Monday night next, the 16th inst., and a full attendance of the members is requested. By order, H. L. BEAL, President

CABLES HERE FOR INSTALLATION

Machine Telephone Company's Work is Progressing.

CONSTRUCTION GANG HERE.

The Length of Cable to be Installed is 18,000 Feet—Exchange Office Ready for Central Machine.

Active operations in the last department of outside construction for the Canadian Machine Telephone Co. are now to be proceeded with. Two cars of cable have arrived, and the men of the Underground Cable Construction Company, of New York, will begin at once the work of installation. The large cable reels, weighing from 4,000 to 8,000 lbs., have been distributed at points convenient to the manholes in the central portion of the town. Small jointed rods are first inserted in the ducts, and are extended until they reach another manhole, when a small wire, then a larger, and in turn the cables are drawn through. There will be six cars of cables altogether. Mr. P. Nevill, the superintendent of the Cable Construction gang, expects to have the job completed within two weeks. There are twelve men in the gang, and the foreman is Mr. T. O'Laughlin. The length of cable to be installed is 18,000 feet. In addition to this there are 25,000 feet of aerial cable to be strung, and this work will be done by the local line gang under the supervision of Mr. W. H. Lytle, who laid out the plans for the system, and has seen them carried to completion.

The exchange office of the Company is now ready for the central machine, which, when the outside work is finished, will be placed in position and the necessary connections made. Every department of work has been done with great thoroughness, and the completion will give one of the most up-to-date, and, what is claimed by authorities, to be one of the most efficient telephone systems. The installation of 'phones will be proceeded with as soon as possible. There are about 800 of these, quite a large number being in the central portion of the town. There is very little open wire work, there being only about 25 miles of it, and that in immediate connection with the 'phones, the plan being to carry wires by cable to central distribution points.

Y. W. C. A. MEETING.

The Sunday afternoon gospel meeting will be held to-morrow at 4.15, when Rev. Freeman J. Scott will speak upon the subject, "Strong Hearts." The President, Mrs. Dr. Scott, will preside, and Mr. Norman Jolliffe will sing. All young women are invited to be present.

The monthly Board meeting will take place on Tuesday evening, Jan. 17th, at 7.30 o'clock, and the annual meeting of the Association will be held at eight o'clock.

BRIEF NEWS NOTES.

What is Taking Place in Peterborough and Its Vicinity.

—The Charity Board will meet on Monday night.

—Hear Rev. H. B. A. Ketchen, Y. M.C.A., Sunday 4 p.m. Men only.

—Dr. Menzies, late of Roseneath, has decided to move to Delta to practice.

—Song service Sunday evening in the Y.M.C.A. parlors at 8.30. All young men invited.

—Hall's Glen has a new paper. It is called the Hall's Glen News, and its editor is Mr. D. Crowe.

—Rev. J. A. McDonald, editor of the Globe, will address a meeting in the interests of Mr. McWilliams on Monday evening, January 23rd.

—The Sovereign Bank of Canada has purchased the private banking business of Murphy, Gordon & Co., Tweed. Tweed will now have two chartered banks.

—Mark Street Oyster Supper at Mr. Henry Cox's next Tuesday, Jan. 17. Free conveyances leaving post office and parsonage at 7 and 7.30. All cordially invited. Tickets 25c.

—Miss Dr. McKellar, missionary, of Central India for the past twelve years, will speak in St. Paul's church to-morrow morning, and St. Andrew's at night.

—The Springville Presbyterian church will hold a tea and concert on Monday evening. Mr. Scott and Mr. Wilson, Peterborough, and St. Andrew's church choir, Peterborough, will take part.

—Rev. Dr. Crothers will preach a special sermon to the newly elected town council in St. Paul's church to-morrow night. Rev. Dr. Torrance will occupy the pulpit in George-st. church.

—Over 60 boys attended the Y.M.C. A. boys' rally yesterday when Mr. Williamson gave a talk on the "Life of Christ," illustrated by lantern views. These were highly interesting to the boys.

—The cold weather is here in earnest. The lowest temperature reached last night was 12 degrees below zero. After sunrise, however, the mercury still descended until 16 below was reached. At noon the figure was 6 below.

—One of the bobs of the Balmoral omnibus while going to the C.P.R. station last night to meet the midnight train ran into a groove of the street railway track on George-st. and was broken. The passengers as a consequence had to walk to the depot.

—Tomorrow a deputation of Toronto laymen will give addresses at St. John's church. In the morning Rev. G. B. Kirkpatrick, Surveyor-General of the Crown Lands Department, will speak, and in the evening Mr. D. W. Saunders, a well known Toronto barrister. Mr. Saunders a well known cricketer, having played several times on the All Canada team.

—The Review today hastens to make a correction with regard to the "thrilling runaway" which occurred yesterday. Mr. E. E. Clarry was stated to have been one of the occupants of the rig. This is a mistake and is presumably attributable to the fact that the speed at which the outfit was travelling made it impossible for a second glance to show that it was not Mr. Clarry, but a young gentleman bearing striking resemblance, who occupied the sleigh.

WORK FOR THEM NOW
VOTE FOR THEM JAN. 25

Build up Ontario Morally and Materially.

"The ballot is the medium through which the will of the Sovereign people is expressed; and he who lays unholy hands upon that sacred trust is as much a traitor as the man who aids the enemy of his king and his country."

CAMPAIGN ECHOES.

P. D. Ross, of Ottawa, will win, but G. W. Ross, of Toronto, will lose.

Mr. Graham is a good jollier but his speech lacked both argument and logic.

Mr. Whitney points the way to better things in Ontario's political history. Support him.

Turn out and cheer for Bradburn at the big rally in the Conservative committee rooms to-night.

The wild hurrah, the loud acclaim and the tremendous enthusiasm were painfully absent at last night's Liberal gathering in the Opera House.

Among those who did not appear on the platform with Premier Ross at Belleville, was his old time supporter and bosom friend, Byron O. Lott.

Just watch the Peterboroughs line up a week from Wednesday on the side of good, honest, clean and capable government by electing Bradburn and Moore.

Did you ever hear tell of a decorated Snowball? Then, according to the despatches you should have seen the splendid gold lace costume of the Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick at the opening of Parliament.

It is reported that Dr. Shaw, of Keene, has charge of the boodle for East Peterborough. The authority for this statement, which was made at Graystock on January 5th, is Hon. J. R. Stratton. 'NUFF SAID.

East Peterborough is being flooded with all sorts, shapes, sizes and colors of Grit literature. One pamphlet in particular is headed, "Story of a Big Political Barrel," which is a tissue of falsehoods and misrepresentation from cover to cover.

Listen to this from the Kingston Whig as a fair sample of the utter rot dished up by certain Liberal journals—"The Ross government has done its duty in checking and punishing political wrong-doing. It has, in its administration, an unsullied record."

If Mr. Ross has done so much to put down corruption in his party, why is he apologizing for its existence and devoting the major portion of his plausible platitudes to a defence of the awful past. The tu quoque retort is at best a flimsy kind of defence.

Hon. George P. Graham failed last night to call for three cheers for his old friends, Byron O. Lott and W. J. Shibley, with whom he had the Sunday conference at his home in Brockville and talked for an hour or two on the Sunday school lesson for that day.

The present contest is not a struggle between Conservatives and Liberals, but of all right thinking, honest and independent men against Rossism, which has disgraced the province, traduced true Liberalism and introduced to the province some of the worst elements in the lists of fraud and corruption known in the civilized world.

The two charges Liberal newspapers are hurling at Mr. Whitney are that he has no policy and has no administrative capacity. Then why was he invited on more than one occasion by a cabinet minister to join the Ross outfit, and given 7,000 of the popular majority in the last provincial election. If the Liberal charges are true why is the Ross regime so fearful of the 25th.

An unfailing evidence of the bitterness of the fight in East Peterborough is the presence of Mr. Lonsboro, colonization roads "manipulator" for the Ross Government, in the back country. He has already awarded several fat contracts for bridges, road repairs, etc. and it is rumored that many other jobs will be handed out before election day.

Mr. John Dryden, at a meeting in Mr. Anderson's interests the other night, roundly denounced the Conservatives and the Conservative press for abusing and misrepresenting Ross, Gibson and other Liberals. The Hon. John, however, about two minutes later, attacked Mr. Whitney in the most shameless and scurrilous manner. In fact so disgraceful was his invective that many honest Liberals afterwards expressed their disgust and contempt for such tactics.

Rev. D. C. Hossack has written another open letter to Mr. Ross, defining the position of the Globe upon coalition and corruption and stating the causes of the "present distress" He replies effectively to some of the scandalous attacks that have been made upon him by the Grits, for daring to speak his mind, and clearly outlines the duty of all honest, independent electors in the present contest, to oust the Grit Government and terminate the reign of crookedness and chicanery in the Province.

Mr. Donovan, the popular Conservative candidate in Brockville, is likely to defeat Hon. George P. Graham, who in looking after outside interests is neglecting his organization at home. The prevailing feeling in Brockville is that it is time for a change, not only in Government, but in the matter of representation. If the electors get an honest count and no crookedness is resorted to, Brockville will line up in the Conservative column and the provincial secretary's short but merry reign as a cabinet minister will be over.

Of all the arguments in favour of a change at Toronto, perhaps the strongest is that a victory for Ross could not fail to give the impression that the electors were indifferent to political fraud and chicanery. There could be no other conclusion. Since the Government has failed to punish Sullivan, Sutherland and all the others whose crimes have made Ontario a political byword, the only possible method by which the people can show their disapproval of such methods of maintaining office is to mark their ballots against Mr. Ross and his candidates McWilliams and Anderson.

Hon. Mr. Graham in a recent speech described the Conservative policy as "nothing with a frill around it" which epithet was particularly applicable and appropriate of his own remarks in the Opera House last night. Another choice specimen of Mr. Graham's diction is in stamping all those who do not agree with Grit electioneering methods as "jackals." This is on a par with Mr. Ross' beautiful word pictures when he styles the Conservatives as "lobsters" The so called "jackals" and "lobsters" will resent these slanders on the 25th in no unmistakable manner.

The speech from the throne at the opening of the new parliament this week is a pretty meagre bill of fare and, unless some legislation is introduced, not foreshadowed in the address, the present session promises to be an uneventful one. The most important matters referred to are the conferring upon the Northwest territories provincial autonomy and the joining of Canada in an international commission as to improvements and regulations which shall govern the conditions and uses of waters adjacent to the boundary line between the United States and Canada. No tariff reform or other large questions are likely to engage the attention of the parliamentarians and it is probable the session will conclude by the Easter holidays.

It is a matter of regret that the name of Mr. Stratton should have been mentioned by a Grit cabinet minister in the manner that it has. Whatever his political opponents may think of him, his political associates, at any rate, should stand by him. The Review gives the reference from the Exeter Advocate:—

"The statement made by Mr. MacKay in speaking of the Stratton-Gamey affair was very unusual in the face of the fact that such an acknowledgement has, to our knowledge, [illegible]. He acknowledged that the Hon. J. R. Stratton had not done right, is out of the Government, and is not a candidate for the Liberal party to-day."

At the Grit meeting in the Opera House last night the following are some of the mottoes which were not noticed on the walls:—

"31 years in the saddle, and never won an honest race yet."

"Bah! for Ross, the man who stole poetry, and printed it in school books as his own."

"Forget it; it's sealed with seven seals."

"Remember Ross, the man who retained power through the work of Yankee pluggers, imported from Buffalo."

"George Washington Ross, he cut down the timber limits with his little hatchet."

"Who burned the West Elgin ballots before they could be examined?"

"Who gave "Cap" Sullivan a timber limit for $250, which he sold for $9000?"

"Remember Ross, the man who went to Europe on a pleasure trip at the people's expense."

If the contentions of Mr. Ross are sound, the condition of Ontario politics is a melancholy one. According to him, the electors have no choice between good and evil, but only between bad and worse. He can only defend himself by raising up the bogey of a government, exaggerating the defects of his own administration and incapable of offering any remedy for them. That is a course which can only be described as the last refuge of a minister conscious that he cannot meet the accustomed charges with which he is confronted, nor explain them away. "If you are going to turn us out for being corrupt," he says, "you must be careful not to put in men who have been proven more corrupt." It is a clever electioneering device, but too transparent to be effective. The Conservative government has been in power for more than a generation, and in his own words, "Conservatives have not been subject to temptation." And stripped of its verbiage this part of his speech simply means—Condone our corruption, because we who are guilty tell you others who have never been tried will improve upon our record.—Toronto World.

One of the Toronto papers publishes an architect's drawing showing the front elevation of some six-house terraces—the house fronts not being all the same, but varied — which are to be constructed in Toronto by a joint stock company organised on a commercial basis under philanthropic auspices. They will be built in the outlying districts. The houses will be of five and six rooms and will rent at $13 to $16 each. They will be of brick, compact, warm and with modern conveniences. The effort will be to make model houses and the rents will pay five per cent. on the investment, thus serving as an example and encouragement to people to build houses to rent as investment. Peterborough affords a fine opening for the carrying out of a similar idea.

Dr. Chase's Ointment

CHURCHMAN'S VIEW.

The Parliament of Ontario has been dissolved, and an appeal made to the electors to ascertain their will in regard to the Government of the Province for the next five years. The conditions that have necessitated this appeal are as grave as any that could possibly confront a free people. A party has been in power for upwards of thirty years without interruption, and its desire for a further lease of life seems to border on a passion. For several years the most serious charges have been brought against the administration of provincial affairs, and if official judgments have not always been secured in support of these charges the nature of the evidence has been perfectly conclusive to the lay mind that all has not been right. Let us recall a few instances. The member elect for South Oxford is to be unseated at all costs. A man enters into negotiations with friends of the member-elect to secure evidence, "true or false it matters not," as he cynically declares. A band of criminals is lined up in court to support the charges preferred, but the attempt fails. The judge upon the bench declares the conspiracy to be one of the most disgraceful in history. The man responsible for this perfidy is a Government agent in England to-day.

Again a charge was made against Government supporters that the will of a free people is being thwarted by the use of ballot boxes specially constructed for the purpose. The charge is, of course, denied with vehement indignation. In a few days, however, the most marvellous revelations are made. Among other things, those implicated state that these boxes were sent to the bottom of a certain lake, and a search party goes straight to the spot and finds the incriminating articles. There are the very instruments of crime before our eyes. These are samples of the methods that are found to prevail in the old province of Ontario; a province founded in the early days by gallant United Empire Loyalists; a province of churches and schools; a province of much vaunted material and intellectual progress. It is surely a time for men to do some serious thinking.

What a spectacle to find men who have been in the seats of authority for a third of a century, who have had the appointment of every provincial affair during these long years, who have command of the machinery of justice in their fingers, proclaiming their helplessness in the face of a crisis, the gravity of which probably cannot be duplicated anywhere else in the world! Spectator has absolutely no interest direct or indirect in either party in Ontario, except that of a citizen of Canada who desires to see a higher conception of public duty prevail. He is much mistaken if one elector in five hundred, who will record their votes in this election, has any favors to ask of one party or the other. Then why should they vote with any other idea than that of the public interest in view. There can under the circumstances be but one issue before the people, and that is, honor and decency in the administration of public affairs. Is it too late to hope that men will rise up and demand it?—"Spectator" in "Canadian Churchman."

Bogus $5 bills of the Bank of Montreal are in circulation in this locality, and five of them were yesterday presented with bank deposits in this city. They were, however, readily detected by the bank officials. Three were presented at the Bank of Commerce, one at the Dominion Bank and one at the Merchants' Bank.

On Tuesday evening, shortly after six o'clock, a stranger went into the store of a prominent Front-st. merchant and asked for a plug of chewing tobacco. For the payment of the same he presented a $5 bill of the Bank of Montreal, which was refused as the proprietor thought it was not genuine. The affair was yesterday reported to the police, and the man described as about 35 or 40 years of age, about 5 feet 6 inches in height and weighing about 135 pounds. He was dressed in a dark suit and resembled a workingman. Had this been reported to the police on Tuesday evening, when the transaction occurred, the party would, in all probability, have been detected, arrested and given an opportunity to explain where he got the bill.

It is understood that bank detectives are working on the case and it is to be hoped that the guilty parties will be apprehended.

HAVE HAD THEIR DAY.

Old Fashioned Medicines For Catarrh No Longer In Vogue.

For many years past the usual treatment for catarrh diseases was with local douches, sprays, inhalers and liquid medicines composed principally of alcohol, all of which never cured but simply give the temporary relief and stimulation.

A thorough cure can be made only by the treatment which removes the catarrhal poisons from the blood.

A new remedy which meets the requirements and which so far has been remarkably successful in curing catarrh is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

These tablets act upon the blood and mucous membrane only.

They can hardly be classed as a secret patent medicine as they are composed of such valuable remedies as blood root, Hydrastin, red gum of Eucalyptus tree and similar antiseptics, combined in tablet form which cure by eliminating from the blood and mucous membrane the poisons of catarrh.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are large, pleasant lozenges, to be taken internally, allowing them to dissolve in the mouth, thus reaching the throat, trachea and finally the stomach.

If desired they may also be dissolved in water and used as a douche, in addition to the internal use, but it is not at all necessary to use a a douche; a few of them dissolved in the mouth daily will be sufficient. However when there is much stoppage of the nose a douche made from these tablets will give immediate relief, but the regular daily use internally will cure the whole catarrhal trouble without resorting to the inconvenience of a douche.

Dr. Bennett stated "that the internal treatment of catarrh by means of pleasant medicated tablets is rapidly taking the place of douches and local applications" and further says that "probably the best, and certainly the safest remedy at present on the market is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, as no secret is made of their composition and all the really efficient catarrh remedies are concentrated in this tablet."

Druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at 50 cts. for full sized package, and he will tell you there is no safer, more palatable, efficient and convenient catarrh cure known to the the trade.

WHAT TO LIVE FOR.

Rev. H. B. A. Ketchen will be the speaker again at the Y.M.C.A. on Sunday at 4 o'clock. His address last Sunday created such a favorable impression that there will be an increased attendance to-morrow. His subject will be, "What to Live For." The male quartette will sing.

SENIOR GYM. MEN

Special Meeting in Y.M.C.A Which They are Asked to Attend.

Tuesday night will be a special class night for the senior men at the Y.M.C.A.

It is planned to have every senior gymnasium man out on that evening to take regular class work.

The physical director desires that all should make a special effort to attend, the object being to stimulate new interest in the work, and also by inviting any new members to come in and see the work done.

The class will start as usual at 8 o'clock and will close at 9 o'clock, half an hour earlier than is usual. After the men are dismissed they will assemble in the parlor and listen to short addresses given by our most prominent professional men, relating to the physical work in the gymnasium, after which light refreshments will be served.

Non-members and ladies are cordially invited to the class work. Seats are always provided for spectators in the gallery.

A special invitation is extended to business men to see the nature of the work done in the physical department.

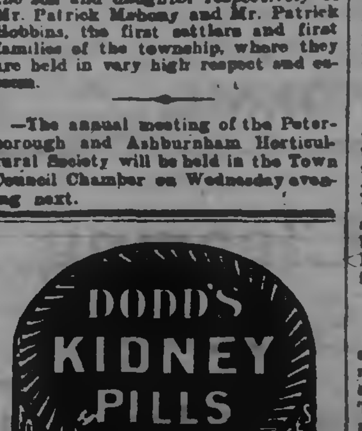
Was Cured of Asthma

"I first used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine with my daughter, who suffered from a severe form of asthma. The least exposure to cold would lay her up and she would nearly suffocate for want of breath. I must say I found it to be a most satisfactory treatment and it has entirely cured her."—Mrs. A. A. VanBuskirk, Robinson Street Moncton, N.B.

WEDDED IN CHNADOS.

The raging of the storm king can't quench the touch of Hymen. On Tuesday, Jan. 10th, in spite of the stormy weather, the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Chandos, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Mr. Thomas Mahony was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Mary Catharine Hobbins. The nuptial mass was celebrated at ten o'clock, by Rev. Father Phelan. Mr. James Mahony, brother of the groom, was the best man, and the sister of the bride, Miss Elizabeth Hobbins, was bridesmaid. At the conclusion of the ceremony, the bridal party returned to the home of the bride, where a splendid wedding banquet was served, the guests consisting of the neighbors of the popular young couple, being only limited to the capacity of the house. Mr. and Mrs. Mahony are the son and daughter respectively of Mr. Patrick Mahony and Mr. Patrick Hobbins, the first settlers and first families of the township, where they are held in very high respect and esteem.

—The annual meeting of the Peterborough and Ashburnham Horticultural Society will be held in the Town Council Chamber on Wednesday evening next.



MR. BORDEN THE LEADER

Greatest Satisfaction Expressed At His Return.

Accepted Unanimous Tender of Position By Conservative Caucus—Mr. Kidd to Resign in Carleton, Where Late Member For Halifax Will Run—Holds Himself Free to Resign If He Does Not Receive Party Support He Has a Right to Expect—Hugh Guthrie's Bill.

Ottawa, Jan. 14.—R. L. Borden has accepted the leadership of the Conservative party, tendered him by the Conservative caucus last Tuesday night. He will resume his old position in the House as soon as a seat can be provided for him.

Mr Borden arrived in Ottawa at midnight Thursday night, having left Halifax a few hours after the desire of the Conservative caucus had been communicated to him. He attended the adjourned caucus which met at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and definitely accepted the offer of the party leadership.

One condition Mr. Borden stipulated, was that he held himself free to resign if he did not receive that party support which he had a right to expect. Aside from this condition he placed himself at the disposal of the party and promised it the fullest benefit of his energy and ability.

Satisfaction Expressed.

General speeches were made, all of them indicating the greatest satisfaction with the return of Mr. Borden to the leadership.

F. D. Monk criticized the management of the Conservative organization in Montreal and protested against the continuance of the rule. Horace Bergeron supported Mr. Monk in this view.

Edward Kidd of Carleton, offered Mr. Borden his seat. He said the local executive had approved of his action, but it would be necessary to obtain the sanction of his constituents at a general meeting. This meeting will be held at an early date, and it is not expected that opposition will be offered. The Government, it is understood, will issue the writ for the bye-election with all possible speed.

A brief discussion took place on the question of holding a national convention. Mr. Borden said the suggestion had been made to him, and he thought it should be considered. No decision was reached yesterday, but the probability is that a national convention will be arranged for before the close of the session.

Against Election Canvassing.

Hugh Guthrie has given notice of an important amendment to the Dominion Election Act. His bill aims to prevent employers influencing employes in elections. The act already provides for the punishment of employers who use threats or intimidation. Mr. Guthrie's bill goes farther and makes soliciting and canvassing an offence punishable by fine and imprisonment. The principal clause in the bill is as follows:

"Everyone who, being an employer of labor for hire or reward (including directors, managers, superintendents, foremen and all other officers of any incorporated company) directly or indirectly by himself or by any other person on his behalf, solicits, canvasses or in any way attempts to influence any person in his employment or in the employment of any incorporated company, whereof such person is officer, to vote or refrain from voting for any candidate shall be deemed to have committed the offence of undue influence, and shall in addition to any penalty thereby incurred, forfeit the sum of $200 to any person who sues therefor for costs and render himself liable to one year's imprisonment."

Revision of the Tariff.

Ottawa, Jan. 14.—(Globe Special.)—The commission to investigate the tariff will be appointed at an early date. The Government are anxious that the commission should commence operations as soon as possible, and hence it is expected that the present session will be extremely short, closing, in fact, early in April. It is thought that the Opposition will further this view in order to permit the early commencement of the work of the commission. Of course, if the session is protracted the work of the commission will be delayed and early action in regard to traiff changes will be impossible.

Liked Our Apples.

London, Jan. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain, when visiting the Colonial Products Exhibition at Liverpool, made a long stay at the Canadian exhibit. Mrs. Chamberlain showed particular interest in the show of apples, which she thought the finest she had ever seen. A basket of Canadian fruit was presented to her. Lord Strathcona went yesterday to inspect the Canadian exhibit at the Colonial Products Exhibition.

Cars For the Temiskaming Ry.

Toronto, Jan. 14.—The first batch of four passenger cars to be used on the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway arrived in the city yesterday morning from Cobourg, where under orders of the commission they had been built. They will be moved north in a day or two. Robert Jaffray, of the commission, inspected the cars.

Took Her Own Life.

Milverton, Jan. 14.—Mrs. Wettsel, about 60 years old, who was married the second time a few weeks ago, cut her throat with a razor Thursday night, severing the wind pipe. The local doctors consider her in a dangerous condition, but think she may recover.

Toronto Population Nearly 300,000.

Toronto, Jan 14.—Toronto has a population of 293,395, according to the estimate of the Might Directory's statisticians.

THE WONDERS OF ELECTRICITY

Now Used for Purifying Flour

The New Process Makes Bread and Pastry Lighter, Sweeter, Whiter and More Wholesome—Women of Canada Delighted.

What is Electricity?
nobody knows, not even Edison.
What does it do?
everybody knows.
It runs street cars—telephones—automobiles,
furnishes light—heat—power
—detects and defeats disease
—enables the doctors to see clear through a man.
Performs all sorts of wonders —not least of which is acting as

Nature's Great Purifier

because when the world's dust, dirt and disease germs have been taken up by the air, and hang over the earth in clouds—electricity shoots lightning through the clouds —flash!—boom!—rumble!
—down comes the rain, the atmosphere is purified and we exclaim
—"how nice and fresh the air is since that thunder storm!"

Electricity in the Flour Mill.

Something like that but minus the thunder and lightning, —silently—swiftly—surely electricity performs its miracle in the "Royal Household" mill—the only mill in the Dominion of Canada where electricity is used for purifying purposes.
When the grinders — separators — sifters—air-filters, have ground and reground — purified and repurified the flour again and again, all down through the seven floors of the big "Royal Household" mill until it is nearer perfection than flour ever was before—electricity says—
"I can do more than that" and sending its mysterious charge of

Electrified Air

through the flour, removes the last, least trace of impurity—gives it new life and greater energy—makes a flour that is pure enough,
sweet enough,
white enough,
to be worthy the name and fame of "Royal Household"—the flour that is more delicious—more healthful—more satisfying than any other flour in the world.
—the flour that makes the bread and pastry used on the tables of Royalty—
the flour that thousands of Canadian women are now using to make better bread—better pastry than they ever made before.
Every day hundreds of testimonials are coming to the Ogilvie Flour Mills Co. Ltd., Montreal, from women who are using Royal Household Flour, according to the "Royal Household" recipes and say they are delighted with it.

HONOR COMES TO FORMER CITIZEN

Mr. R. Ritchie, Secretary Chicago Commercial Association.

HE IS LEAVING DETROIT

For Twenty Years He Has Been Engaged in Organization Work — Left Peterborough in 1883.

Honor has again been done to a former resident of Peterborough. Mr. Ryerson Ritchie, who has resigned the Secretaryship of the Detroit Board of Commerce to become Secretary of the Chicago Commercial Association. The Detroit Free Press of January 12th states:—

Ryerson Ritchie, the secretary of the Detroit Board of Commerce, to whose organizing genius much of the success of that body is due, will sever his connection with the organization to become the general secretary of the Chicago Commercial Association, formed practically along the same lines as the Detroit board. It is believed that Starr Cadwallader the newly appointed assistant secretary will be Mr. Ritchie's successor here. The latter will remain in Detroit and in the service of the Detroit organization for the full month of January in order to take care of some matters he now has in hand for the board.

"I really hated to leave Detroit," said Mr. Ritchie yesterday. "My relations here have been extremely pleasant, and the organization is getting along splendidly. I am proud of the Detroit Board of Commerce and will state that it could not have been made what it is without the splendid spirit snown by its members. It is their earnest work and hearty co-operation that have made it possible for the organization to attain the high place it has among the commercial bodies of the country. It is being run along right lines and the members are so thoroughly in earnest, that it will continue to grow and flourish."

It was the original intention of Mr. Ritchie to remain here three years only at the outside, and this offer from Chicago has caused him to cut the specified limit of his service squarely in two, the Detroit board being just a year and a half old.

HAD WIDE EXPERIENCE

The change came about as a result of a visit of Mr Ritchie to Chicago in response to a request for some details as to the methods pursued by the Detroit Board of Commerce in attaining its success. He delivered an address, telling of some of the work done by the Detroit organization and some of the results, and supposed that would be the end of the matter; and it is considered a distinct compliment to the Detroit board as well as to Mr. Ritchie, to have the Chicago organization select him for its executive officer.

For more than twenty years Mr. Ritchie has been engaged in organization work. He removed from Peterborough, Ont., to Cincinnati in 1883, and was soon afterward chosen secretary of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' association. He was called to Kansas City in 1886 to become secretary of the Commercial Club of that city. This organization, progressive and unique, achieved an enviable reputation and was copied by other cities throughout the west, and the notable commercial development of the western metropolis, its boulevards, convention hall and the club's trade excursions were the results of its work. In 1892 Mr. Ritchie, at the earnest solicitation of the principal business men of Cleveland, consented to become secretary of the new chamber of commerce, a consolidation of the various business organizations of the Forest city. Beginning with a small membership in 1893, it grew to its present proportions in a few years, and now has 1,500 members.

The progress of the Detroit Board of Commerce is familiar to all. Its membership grew from 250 to 700 inside of a year; it has widely advertised the commercial and manufacturing advantages of the city, brought new industries here, instilled a warm feeling of civic patriotism in the breasts of its members and still has a wide field for its services. The executive board was informed yesterday of Mr. Ritchie's determination to accept the Chicago offer. Its members learned of the fact with sincere regret as they fully recognise how valuable have been the services of the man who brought his wide experience to bear upon the situation and who has worked incessantly for the good of the organization, and through it for the benefit of Detroit.

The Detroit Tribune has the following:—

Chicago has come to Detroit for a secretary for the new Chicago Commercial Association, and Ryerson Ritchie, secretary of the Board of Commerce, is the man chosen. He will be succeeded by Starr Cadwallader, former director of the Cleveland public school system, who so recently assumed the duties of assistant secretary of the Detroit organization. Mr. Ritchie will continue for a time to devote a day or two a week to the Detroit body.

In the less than two years that the Board of Commerce has been in existence, all commercial interests have been welded in the strongest organization in the history of the city, and the body has risen to first rank. In one year the extraordinary record was made of a growth in membership from 200 to 700, and since the inception of the board about 30 manufacturing institutions have been induced to locate here.

It is the belief of Secretary Ritchie and the directors of the Board of Commerce that the foundation of an enduring organization has been laid, and it is conceded that the board already ranks as one of the most efficient and influential commercial bodies in the United States.

The invitation to the secretaryship of the Chicago organization was tendered by the ways and means committee, at a conference held in Chicago, and after consultation with the executive directors of the Detroit board, Secretary Ritchie yesterday announced his acceptance to Vice-President Richard C. Hall and Chairman Alexander A. McCormack, of the Chicago association.

MR. HILL HAS PROVED IT

Toronto Man Explains How he Gained Thirty Pounds in a Few Weeks Remarkable Statement.

At 89 Fuller Street, Toronto, lives a man who claims to have proven beyond the shadow of a doubt that Dr. Leonhardt's Anti-Pill is the most wonderful remedy ever introduced. His name is W. A. Hill, and he makes the following statement:

"I was very much run down and had a constant pain in my side, which made life a drag to me. I fully believed my days were numbered but I was induced to try a treatment of Dr. Leonhardt's Anti-Pill and the results were marvellous.

"After a short time I found myself restored to perfect health and strength, which I am thankful to say I have enjoyed ever since.

"I have gained thirty pounds in weight since I commenced to use Anti-Pill."

Mr. Hill's statement is only one of many. No one has ever used Dr. Leonhardt's Anti-Pill without benefit.

WHITNEY AT CHATHAM ROSS AT BRAMPTON

Ontario's Political Leaders Speak to Great Audiences.

Many Turned Away From Mr. Whitney's Meeting At Chatham—East and West Kent Conservative Candidates Speak—Opposition Leader Punctures the Fable That He Has No Policy—Torchlight Procession For Ross.

Chatham, Jan. 14.—James Clancy and Phil H. Bowyer, Conservative candidates for West and East Kent respectively, held a bumper rally in the Grand Opera House here last night in the interest of Conservatism. Col. J. P. Whitney, the Conservative leader, now on his provincial tour, was secured for the occasion, and proved a great drawing card, as the Grand Opera House at an early hour was packed to its very doors. Indeed the aisles and passages were filled with an eager and enthusiastic throng and great numbers were turned away for want of accommodation.

Matthew Wilson, K.C., acted as chairman of the evening, and first called on Editor Phil. H. Bowyer, the East Kent Liberal-Conservative candidate, who was roundly cheered by his supporters. Mr. Clancy received a flattering reception. He curtailed his speech, as he said Mr. Whitney could give a far better outline of the Conservative policy and methods than he. Mr. Clancy made an excellent address.

Mr. Whitney's Speech.

When at length the applause had subsided Mr. Whitney said that this was a record breaking meeting. He spoke of the crimes the Ross Government had perpetrated on the electorate during the recent years of the Liberal regime, and briefly but conclusively showed up the "Minnie M." incident, the plugging of ballot boxes, the burning of ballot boxes and the many political crimes for which the Ross Administration will have to answer.

Mr. Ross was a strange man who did and said strange things. He had tried to fasten the various crimes for which he and his colleagues were responsible on the Liberal party at large. This was preposterous on Mr. Ross' part, and the Liberal electors would show it in no uncertain way on Jan. 25 that they resented this sort of scurvy treatment. The Premier had tried to make the people believe that the Opposition had no platform. This was untrue, and Mr. Whitney cited the different planks of his platform at some length. The present Premier of Ontario had never had the people of this province behind him, and though he did not pose as a prophet he did not believe that he ever would have. He and his party who had kept in power by means of crime must go. (Loud and repeated cheers.)

The statement had been made by the Rossites that the Conservative leaders were incompetent men. This was strange since the people of Ontario had demonstrated by popular vote that these were the men they wanted. This statement was as absurd as it was scandalous.

The meeting closed with the usual cheers.

ROSS AT BRAMPTON.

Failed to Answer Some Things Suggested By Voice From Gallery.

Brampton, Jan. 14.—Premier Ross spoke at a Liberal meeting here last night. He was met at the station by the Brampton band and a torchlight procession. The Town Hall was filled to overflowing, about 300 ladies being present. E. J. Graham, barrister, presided. The chairman's address, extolling the merits of the Reform candidate, was followed by a brief and humorous speech from that gentleman.

The Premier was greeted with hearty cheers. He spoke for an hour and a quarter in the defence of the Liberal party against the charges of bribery and corruption. The policy adopted by the Government was the foundation of the prosperity of Ontario. Never, he declared, had a ballot been tampered with by the Liberal party, never had a ballot been burned.

The suggestion from the gallery, that some of them had been drowned was unheeded.

The Liberal administration, he said, was an administration of honesty, of clean, decent administration, while the policy of the Opposition, if it could be called a policy, was to pull down the fabric so closely woven by the Reform party for the good of the people of Ontario. The history of the Opposition was one long record of mistakes and of corrupt practices. The ancient history of Conservatives crimes was fully dealt with to the complete exclusion of the individual charges made against the present Government.

When the ubiquitous voice again made a suggestion and asked for something on the Minnie M. the Premier promised to explain the episode later on, but he did not.

THE GERMAN ARMY.

Rev. E. A. Langfeldt Delivers Instructive Address in Orillia.

The Rev. E. A. Langfeldt gave a most interesting address on "The German Army" at the meeting of the St. James' Young Men's Union, on Monday evening, says the Orillia Packet. In Germany every physically fit man is a soldier from the time he is eighteen or twenty till he reaches forty-five. The military training has great effect on the character of the people. It renders the men amenable to discipline and inculcates respect for authority. The discipline is exceedingly strict, and non-commissioned officers often abuse their authority. It is to the credit of the present Emperor that he has done all in his power to prevent such abuses, and to punish them when they occur. The system is complete and perfect. It is said that a million and a half of men could be mobilised on the French frontier within twenty-four hours of the declaration of war. But one result of the military system was the repression of individual liberty. Social conditions in Germany were such that the speaker trembled for the future of his native country. Class distinctions were sharply drawn, and the lot of the lower classes was very hard: As a result social democracy was making great strides. Its leaders were making special efforts to introduce their propaganda into the army, well knowing that that institution was the great bulwark of internal peace and of the established order of things, as well as the country's defence against outside enemies. They had been meeting with considerable success in their efforts to impress the soldiers with their views. It might be wondered that there was not more emigration from the country. The reason was the difficulty in getting away. At eighteen or twenty, the age when a young fellow would be likely to set out to find a new home, it was not possible to get away on any consideration. When a man had served his three years he was less likely to want to emigrate. But even if he did, he could not leave the country without getting permission. A man could not leave his home for even fourteen days without securing a permit, and registering at the place where he was staying. In view of these conditions, Mr. Langfelt said that, while he loved his native land, he was able to appreciate the greater liberty enjoyed by British subjects, and impressed on his hearers that they should prize their privileges. At the close of the address, which occupied upwards of an hour and a half, a hearty vote of thanks was accorded Mr. Langfeldt.

Indigestion and Headache

Mr. Duncan McPherson, Content, Alta., writes:—"I was for many years troubled with indigestion and headache, and derived no relief from the many remedies I used. A friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and after taking four boxes, the result is that I am once more in the full enjoyment of the blessings of good health."

QUAKER MEETING HELD IN OPERA HOUSE LAST NIGHT

Liberal Gathering Evoked Very Little Enthusiasm.

MR. GRAHAM WAS ABUSIVE.

Thundered Against the Opposition and Performed Skillful Whitewashing Act—Hon. J. R. Stratton Champions Ross Administration, and Claims Unrivalled Position for the Province.

There have been some enthusiastic political meetings held in the Opera House, but that which eventuated last night in the interests of Mr. R. F. McWilliams, the Liberal candidate, cannot be said to merit very prominent place among them. The speakers of the evening were the candidate, and the Hon. G. P. Graham, Provincial Secretary, and Hon. J. R. Stratton. Mr. Daniel O'Connell was in the chair. The hall was gayly hung with flags and banners, the arrangement being Kingscote's, and the mottoes were, "Welcome," "Ross and New Ontario," God Save the King," "McWilliams for Peterborough," "Our Motto, Progressive Reform." The demonstrative features of the evening were aroused by the mirthful sallies of Mr. Graham, whose speech of over an hour and a half pronounced him to be a cheerful jollier, and a skilfull diverter of serious attention from the actual issues on which the Ross Government is now receiving its trial before the country. The desperate effort to save the Government from defeat, the fact that ballots and ballot boxes have been tampered with, gross abuse carried on under the forms of justice, and attempts made by slander to discourage free expression of opinion, received an apt whitewashing by the speaker, who thundered against the leader of the Opposition, because these glaring crimes had come to light. He championed the Liberal Administration, extolled Mr. Ross as the head of it, and presented the somewhat remarkable spectacle of one who has ever taken a stand for the highest ideals of citizenship, in an endorsation of "that administration which is honeycombed to the heart with corruption.'"

Hon. J. R. Stratton received a flattering reception. He devoted particular attention to the record of the Government so far as actual administration of affairs was concerned, and claimed for it a position unparalleled by any province in the country or any state in the Union. He credited it with appreciation of Ontario's possibilities in referring to its action towards the Sault industries as having been wise, and pointed in strong approval to its creation of revenue out of succession dues, taxation or corporations and breweries and distilleries. Mr. Stratton said that it appeared that he had occupied a position as the bad boy of the Government, and expressed the opinion that he and others had been selected as the objects of special attack. Though his own private business had demanded his retirement, he expressed the hope that he might find it possible at some future date to again enter the field. Mr. McWilliams was given a good reception.

The Opera House was not at any time filled. At nine o'clock there were four hundred and fifty people where it was possible to seat seven hundred, and at thirty minutes after eight, there were not over three hundred in the hall.

Mr. Daniel O'Connell was chairman. For the first time in eighteen years, he said the Liberal party had a new standard bearer in a Provincial election. The West Riding learned with deepest regret that Mr. Stratton could consent no longer to be its representative. The manner in which he had grown in favor and popularity was evidence of the fact that he had been an ideal member. He rose to one of the highest positions in the Cabinet and became head of one of the most important Provincial departments. He was now giving his hearty endorsation and support to the young man who was succeeding him, and the speaker had no hesitancy in predicting for Mr. McWilliams a successful career. The days of old men had gone past, not because they were of no value to the state, but it was necessary in order to achieve the highest degree of success in any calling that a man should enter that sphere when still young.

Mr. O'Connell made brief reference to the administration of the Government and said that the Opposition could not point a finger at a cent dishonestly or unwisely spent. Crimes of corruption were charged against certain members of the Liberal party, and these constituted the argument of an Opposition who had failed to bring forward one item of large public policy.

THE CANDIDATE.

On being presented, Mr. R. F. McWilliams was received with applause. He considered that no apology should be required from him because of his youth, because some years ago the riding had elected a young man—Mr. Stratton—whose record was the best omen for a young candidate. Mr. McWilliams, in reviewing his own career in Peterborough, said he would leave it to the judgment and generosity of his audience. He came before them as a supporter of the Liberal Administration in Ontario, but he wished it understood that his support was not a slavish one. The Liberal party, as he understood it, believed that there could never be enough of reform in the conditions that made for the development and progressiveness of the Province, with an eye single to the best interests of the people. The financial position of Ontario today was absolutely unrivalled by that of any other country in the world. The Province had spent millions in education, had given grants to agricultural work, had contributed largely to charitable institutions, yet its financial position was unparalleled. The County of Peterborough had received during the term of the Liberal administration, for education, agriculture, colonization roads and in other ways, about $900,000. Had this expenditure not been made by the Province, the taxation of the municipalities would have been doubled or otherwise they would not have received the benefits at all. All the items questioned by the Conservative scrutineers on the Public Accounts Committee were hardly equal to a single day's expenditure. Against a record of this kind there was no reason for turning out the Government, no cause for the people of the Province changing their allegiance. With regard to corruption, he urged that the whole truth be considered. In five years there had been five Liberals unseated and the same number of Conservatives.

FAIR FIELD.

He did not defend bribery, or any other kind of corruption, but believed in standing in a fair field with no favor and no hitting below the belt. This being recognized he had no fear of the result. Some men would stand a liar, but few a hypocrite, and the speaker referred to Miscampbell's election at the Soo as being one of the grossest cases of corruption in the history of the Province.

In conclusion, Mr. McWilliams pointed to the record and policy of the Government as one of progressive reform. If he was honored with election to parliament his interests would be identical with those of the constituency.

HON. G. P. GRAHAM.

The Provincial Secretary, Hon. G. P. Graham, was introduced as the successor to Hon. J. R. Stratton. He was well received, and at the outset said they were not nearly as well pleased to see him as he was to be in the town of Peterborough and see the constituency which had for so many years been ably represented by Hon. J. R. Stratton. Many constituents sent men to the Legislature for years, and good men, too, but few constituencies had done so well for themselves or for the Province as had West Peterborough. Mr. Graham said that he was probably in a better position than anyone else to judge of the ability of Mr. Stratton, and he knew of no other department in this or any other country that had been so ably or intelligently conducted than the Provincial Secretary's Department, while Mr. Stratton occupied it. When he left it, he did so with a clean sheet and with the respect of every official great or small who had been under him.

YOUNG MEN.

Referring to the candidate, he said that in politics and in almost every department of life, the argument that a man was young was one greatly in his favor, as affording him an opportunity to constantly keep in touch with conditions in this country. Mr. McWilliams' speech showed that he was possessed of the qualities of a successful public man.

Discussing the policy of the Conservative party he said that they were inclined to overlook their own faults and pay particular attention to abuse of their opponents. Each succeeding campaign they had brought different kinds of guns into play, but they had all been found to kick. He held that there was no living principle on which the Conservatives were appealing to the people, while the Liberals stood for honest, efficient administration and wise management of every department. The charge did not stand that there was corruption in any part of that administration. The Liberal party stood where it had for the last century or more—on a platform which was honorably maintained by Hon. G. W. Ross.

THE MINNIE M.

No person for a moment apologized for or condoned what had been done in the Minnie M. case, said the speaker, taking up a discussion of the charges of corruption. The Liberals condemned as strongly as did the Conservatives. The blame which had been laid against Hon. Mr. Gibson for not acting, was entirely unjust. As soon as the case was reported he was ready to go on with the prosecution and it would have been proceeded with, had not Mr. DuVernet, on behalf of the Conservatives, taken another course, preferring rather to prosecute in individual cases. He made the remarkable statement that practically the whole election of 1902, as far as the ballots or officials were concerned, was carried out without anything wrong being found in it. At the Liberal Convention political corruption had been condemned in the strongest possible terms. As to the Conservative conference he challenged whether it was admitted that any member of the party had ever done a wrong in his whole life. Herein lay the difference between the two parties. An instance of the manner in which Mr. Whitney regarded corruption was the appointment as his organizer of Andrew Miscampbell, who had been unseated at the Soo. He held that the elevation of the Conservative party to power would not purify the political atmosphere. He held that there were faults in both parties, and that the only way to get rid of corruption was for the heads of each party to take a stand that would make for its extinction. Until the Conservative party had taken such a stand they were not entitled to that confidence reposed in those seeking election to office.

UNFAIR CONNECTION.

It was unfair to connect every crime that had been done with the Government in some way. Hon. G. W. Ross was not responsible for the action of men whom he never met in his life. The kind of conflict that was being waged was defaming the good name of Ontario, and for the Opposition to be proclaiming that the leaders of one party were corrupt was unfair, and created a feeling of distrust among young men that would be regretted.

WITHOUT A POLICY.

Mr. Whitney had not stated what he proposed to do if elected to power, and the speaker held that he was now before the country without any policy whatever. Mr. Graham discussed the question of "Aid to the Soo" from a business point of view, chiefly because Mr. Whitney had said that the money there spent might as well have been thrown in the lake. The Ontario Government was successful in inducing capital to come in from the States and develop the industries at the Soo. They had faith in Ontario, and only those who had such faith should remain in it. There were 126,000,000 acres of land in Ontario, only 24,000,000 of which had ever been assessed. The discussion of matters pertaining to Ontario should be in a spirit that considered it big enough to sustain millions of people and be in itself an empire. The question of the Soo industries was not one of mere assistance to a private enterprise, but it had come to this point—Has Ontario faith in her own resources or is she going to allow it to go to the world that this industry is allowed to go down? The guarantee of two millions was made on a security to the extent of three times the amount and showed that Ontario had faith in her own property. A stiff fight had to be put up against the United Steel Corporation and the Opposition, and if they had won out some 4,000 men would have been thrown out of employment. The Soo industries were also turning out 500 tons of steel rails a day, and these were now in the market for Canadian railways. Mr. Graham contended that the Ross administration had stood for the building up of the country, and the placing of Ontario as the premier province and the leader of any state in the union.

THANKED THE PEOPLE.

Hon. J. R. Stratton was accorded a most enthusiastic reception. He congratulated Mr. McWilliams on the large audience that had gathered to hear him, and was glad also to welcome Mr. Graham on the occasion of his first, and he hoped not the last, visit to Peterborough. For reasons personal to himself he had decided not to accept the candidature of the Liberal party on the present occasion. The people of Peterborough had been kind to him on all occasions, and he had endeavored to stand by them. He was sure that the record of Mr. Graham, his successor, would be a successful one.

Referring to the Ross Government he held that none other had pursued a more advanced or more progressive policy, and he asked that it again be received with strong endorsation. The Government of Mr. Ross left more in the Treasury today than it contained when they took possession. The requirements of the Province had been recognised and expenditures wisely made. There was today a sum of $3,700,000 in the banks of the country to the credit of the Government. No province, no country, no state was in a better condition than Ontario. The buildings that had been erected—such as the Parliament buildings—had been paid for out of current revenue, and this could not be said of other Provinces. Conservatives had contended that the expenditure had increased, but they would not explain that everything had expanded in such a way as to demand it. Money had not been spent extravagantly however, and he stated that for nearly a period of seven years he had charge of about one-quarter of the receipts of the Province in connection with his department. What he had to say of this was, that he left behind him in the Parliament Buildings, the inspector, the purser, the clerks who check the accounts, and there was not a man on earth today that could come forward and say that one fraction of a cent was misappropriated or misdirected. There had been increased expenditure, but it went to the development of the country.

THE SOO INDUSTRIES.

Mr. Stratton upheld the action of the Government with regard to the Sault industries. Of the $250,000 that went to pay the wages of the workingmen, one-half had been returned, and the remainder would be advanced by the first of February. He held further that the Government had ample security in giving the guarantee, and the time would come when the people would see that the Government had acted wisely. He also pointed to the time when the pay-roll of the men employed by the Consolidated Companies would amount to $5,000,000 per year. The Province must be opened up, and the construction of the Temiscamingue railway, the James Bay Railway, and other lines would give the people the benefits accruing from every facility for transportation and the consequent development of the country.

PULP INDUSTRY.

Mr. Stratton said he had stood for advancement in connection with the pulp and paper industries, and at the present time there were three million dollars invested in it. The manufacturing must be done in the Province, not a log could be exported, and the policy adopted by the Government in regard to this industry was considered on all hands, by prominent men, both in Quebec and Ontario, as being in the right direction.

LARGE CORPORATIONS.

The charge had been made that the Government unduly favored the large corporations, whereas what was known as the corporation tax had added $257,000 to the revenue. If the Opposition had had their way, the country would have been poorer by $11,000,000, the revenue obtained from succession dues, the tax upon breweries and distillers, and licenses.

LICENSE SYSTEM.

Taking up a discussion of the license system, Mr. Stratton held that no one would say that it should be returned to municipalities. Under the Crooks' act the number of liquor licenses had been reduced from 6,000 in 1876 to about 3,000 last year. The law was made as simple as possible in this connection, and it was not advisable to place municipalities in such a position that they would have to declare themselves upon a question for which there was no necessity, but to leave it optional wherever desired.

Mr. Stratton pointed out in terms of strong approval the policy of the Government with regard to Niagara Falls power, the result of which would yield a revenue of something like $300,000. In this connection, Mr. Stratton stated that he had been abused with his action having in view the development of No 5 dam, but he held that the result had been of great benefit to the people. It had given them light at a cost of from $12 to $15 a year, and electrical energy at $15 a horse power. These represented a saving to the people of $35,000 a year, which otherwise would have gone into the pockets of the other companies.

The acts of the Government in bettering the condition of the laboring classes were made the subject of extended reference. In discussing the charges of corruption, Mr. Stratton said it would appear that he had been the bad boy of the party, but it was his opinion that there was a systematic attack made against him and others. His retirement was the result of pressing demands of his own business affairs, but he stated that his non-appearance in the political arena might not be for long.

In conclusion he urged the support of Mr. McWilliams as being in the best interests of Peterborough, and of the Province.

During his speech Mr. Stratton referred to the possible creation of a new portfolio, to be known as the Department of Colonization and Labor.

Cheers for the King, the candidate and Mr. Ross marked the close of the meeting.

ESSAY ON JULIUS CAESAR

Read by Miss Coleman Before Ladies' Literary Association.

The Ladies' Literary Association of St. Peter's T.A.S. held its first meeting of the New Year last evening, and, as in the past, the meeting was in every way a successful one. An excellent essay on "Julius Caesar" was read by Miss Coleman. Miss Coleman's choice of subject involved the knowledge of a considerable amount of ancient history, and on this point Miss Coleman proved herself thoroughly well versed. In clear and beautiful language she portrayed the life of "Julius Caesar" at all its phases and conditions, showing him to be the greatest among the men of antiquity. The story of his banishment from Rome, his subsequent return, involving all the glory and splendor of the returning hero, was also particularly interesting. The writer also made special mention of many other notable characteristics and qualifications of Caesar, dwelt at some length on his ability as an orator, statesman, ruler, general and in fine, gave a most interesting history of one of the greatest men of ancient times. The essay of the evening was an excellent opening of the new season, and was thoroughly appreciated by the audience.

A new feature and one of much interest, has been added to these literary evenings. Answers to questions deposited in the question box in the library, are given by Rev. Dr. O'Brien and aside from the interest in the different topics, a great amount of useful information is imparted. The meeting was presided over last evening by Miss Dennard, and the musical portion of the programme was ably contributed by Miss S. Kelly and Miss H. Taylor.

The next literary evening will be held Friday, Jan. 27, when an essay on the subject, "Books as Friends," will be read by Miss E. M. Powers.

At a committee meeting held last evening Miss O'Connell was elected President of the Association for the balance of the year.

OBITUARY.

MRS. (COL.) TATE.

The announcement in to-day's issue of the demise of Elisa Webster, widow of Col. John W. Tate, C.E., chronicles the passing away of one of the early residents of Peterborough. The deceased was a daughter of James Hall, of Washington, Georgia, U.S.A., a brother of the late John Hall, who died at Buckhorn in the 80's. In 1847 Elisa Webster Hendricks Hall came to Peterborough to reside with the latter, who then lived on the homestead situated in the block north of Murray-st., between Water and Dickson-sts., overlooking Hall's dam, mills, &c., afterwards known as Dickson's.

In 1852 Miss Hall married Col. Tate, and leaves a family of five children, Robert Frederick, of Toronto; Thomas Barker, Bertram Mitford and Lucia Elizabeth, of Buffalo, and Alfred Ord, of New York. Her remains have been brought to Peterborough, accompanied by her four sons, and placed in the receiving vault at the Little Lake cemetery, and will be interred beside her husband in the spring.

LOCAL LINERS

—Mr. J. E. Baird, postmaster, Port Hope, received a letter from Thos. Ervin, of Glen Robertson, Glengarry, enquiring information regarding the whereabouts of a Buchanan family who left that place about forty years ago.

—On Friday last a sad accident occurred at Avery & Pringle's camp, near Harlowe. James Harlan, who lives near Dead Creek, was crushed by a falling tree which he was cutting. He was taken at once to the Kingston General Hospital, but died soon after reaching there. The body was brought back to Arden on Saturday and placed in the vault. Deceased leaves a wife and seven children.

—Police Magistrate Dumble yesterday gave a severe lecture to a young man whom he had found guilty of stealing a pair of hockey boots and skates from the Y.M.C.A. The prosecution was made at the instance of the Board of Directors of the institution who had determined that an example should be made of the first one caught committing thefts at the building. The defendant was not fined but he paid costs amounting to $8.50.

—The Port Hope Guide says—A deputation of the residents in the vicinity of Quay's Crossing, waited on the Township Clerk recently in reference to the erection of a waiting room. At present there is not the slightest means of shelter and persons waiting for the train are obliged to stand out in the cold. Mr. McCallum will send a petition to the Grand Trunk urging upon them the great necessity of a waiting room and it is likely that the G.T.R. officials will grant the request.

—At St. Luke's Guild Men's meeting on Friday, January 27th, Mr. R. M. Dennistoun will lecture on Victor Hugo's story, "Jean Valjean."

GOLD WATCH FOR ALD. T. J. BEGLEY

His Associates on the Examiner Honor Him on Leaving.

SEVENTEEN YEARS' THERE.

Evidence of Esteem in Which Mr. Begley is Held—Gift Accompanied by Flattering Address.

Ald. Thos. J. Begley has severed his connection of seventeen years with the staff of the Examiner, and evidence of the fact that he has occupied a high place in the esteem of those with whom he was associated, was shown last evening when they made him the recipient of a very handsome gold watch. The address accompanying the gift was read by Mr. M. J. Hutchinson and the watch presented by Mr. Geo Paxman. The address follows—

Ald. T. J. Begley,
News Foreman,
Peterborough Examiner.

Dear Sir,—Your associates on the staff of the several departments of the Peterborough Examiner, learn with regret of your intention to cut the cables that have moored you to that craft for seventeen years.

You came to us as a lad; you leave us as a man, not only possessing the high respect and esteem of many of those who have been associated with you during this period of transformation, but also of the great mass of the citizens of the town, who have so recently given evidence of this confidence by investing you with the responsible position of one of the rulers of the destiny of the town, upon which evidence of confidence we take this first formal opportunity of congratulating you.

It gives us great pleasure to bear testimony to the conscientious fidelity with which you have met the responsibilities of your position, and to the pleasant companionship which daily association with you has given. Your example as a man has always had a high moral quality, and your readiness to oblige has always been a marked feature of your conduct. We refrain from saying further in the way of eulogy of your good qualities; the pressure upon the column of our knowledge of those qualities would not admit of a full expression.

We have always watched your career with interest, and we may have an opportunity in the future to continue to watch your progress in life, we ask you to accept this gold watch the material as well as the reliability being an index of the qualities of your character, coupled with the hope that it will mark for you only happy hours.

Signed on behalf of the staff.
Peterborough, Jan. 13th, 1905.

Mr. Begley, who was taken completely by surprise made a fitting reply, acknowledging the gift and expressing his good wishes towards the members of the staff and the management. Mr. Begley leaves to-day for Lindsay where he will enjoy a holiday.

LAID TO REST

The remains of the late Walter Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Johnston, of Chamberlain-st. were laid away to rest yesterday afternoon. The pall bearers were four boys from the Park-st Baptist Sunday school, Charles Barrie, H. Lincoln Brace, Douglas Lomis and Norman Barrie. The beautiful white casket was literally covered with flowers, one offering being conspicuous above all others with the solitary word "Walter."

The deep respect of the membership of the church, relatives and neighbors was shown by every room and available spot being occupied, where a hearing could be obtained of the funeral sermon preached by the pastor, Rev. A. H. Brace.

A memorial service will be held tomorrow night in the Park-st. church when the teachers and Sunday school scholars will be largely represented.

Remember Whitney meeting, Market Hall, Thursday night, Jan. 19th.

Regular $1.50, $1.25 and $1.00 Perrin's quality Gloves actually go at the one uniform startling price of 55 cents per pair, as advertised.

SEEKING CO-OPERATION

Board of Trade Writes to Montreal Chamber of Commerce

It would appear from the Montreal papers that the Chamber of Commerce of that city is evidencing not a little interest in the transportation problem. To obtain the co-operation of such an influential institution is a thing greatly desired by the Peterborough Board of Trade. Recently a communication from the local Board was directed to the Chamber calling their attention to certain correspondence, which had passed between that body and the president of the American Cereal Co., of Chicago, which had a factory at Peterborough. The board had written asking why the operations of the plant at Peterborough had been curtailed.

The president of the American Cereal Company, replied that up to the present season conditions had favored Peterborough owing to the two successive crop failures in the United States, which had placed the American wheat market above export basis. But this year the conditions had returned to their natural level and both markets were at present on an export basis. As the profit of manufacturing depended on the cost of transportation, the president of the American Cereal Company finally thought that the railway rates in the United States being cheaper, the company could deliver their product to the seaboard at a lower cost than in Canada.

The Peterborough Board of Trade thought that the railway grain rates should be so adjusted in Canada as to encourage home manufacture. With this aim in view they solicited the co-operation of the Chambre de Commerce in obtaining such concessions through the Railway Commission as will enable large manufacturers of cereals to secure reduced rates so as to encourage them in the manufacturing for foreign markets.

SANDERCOCK TO FACE JUSTICE

Winnipeg Hold-up Man Was in Town With Officer.

ON THEIR JOURNEY WEST

Bad Record of Young Man Twenty-six Years of Age—Got Away With H. P. Kennedy's Horse and Rig—Serious Charge Against Him.

John Sandercock, of Port Hope, is evidently aware by this time that the law has a mighty long arm. At the present time he is being personally conducted on a trip to Winnipeg by Detective Ross, of that city, and will there explain his connection with the hold-up game, which has been worked there for some time. Detective Ross was in town yesterday with his prisoner, who was in the cells here for several hours, and he left on the journey westward in charge of the detective last night.

Sandercock is a young man, 24 years of age, and has made a record for himself. It is not very long ago that he and his brother got away with Mr. H. P. Kennedy's horse and rig and drove to Port Hope. He has been here off and on for some years past, and has relatives living in town. He is supposed to be the ringleader of a gang which has been operating in Winnipeg, and the latest victim, a grocer named James Ferguson, is said by Detective Ross to be in a very dangerous condition, as the result of the treatment he received. A despatch from Winnipeg says—

At last the three men who have been playing the hold-up game in Winnipeg are in custody. The leader, John Sandercock, alias Sanderson, and known in Winnipeg as "Sandy" was placed under arrest Saturday night at Port Hope, Ont., by the chief of police of that place, who was acting under instructions received from Winnipeg. His associates, Wm. McDonald and another were taken into custody on Saturday, and are now at the police station here.

The trio are charged with assaulting and robbing Bronson Frank, Dec. 21. Frank was badly beaten and robbed of $60 by these highwaymen. Another charge is that they assaulted and robbed James Ferguson, Dec. 29. In this case over $125 was stolen, and Ferguson was badly beaten about the head by his assailants. Sandercock has been arrested on two previous occasions for robbery in Ontario and has served time in the Kingston Penitentiary.

Sandercock was in the employ of the Canadian Northern Railway as switchman until a month ago, when he left of his own accord. On Jan. 2 he left for the east, and was traced to Port Hope.

SATURDAY MARKET.

There was a large market this morning, the good sleighing and bright, frosty weather bringing in the farmers in large numbers. There was plenty of poultry, but the prices were still high. Turkeys went at 18c. per pound, geese 9 and 10c. lb, chickens 60 to 70c pair. Beef sold at 5 and 6 cents and there was plenty of pork at 7 and 8 cents. Butter ranged from 20 to 22 cents and what eggs there were sold at 30 cents a dozen.

SATURDAY, JAN. 14, 1905.

COLONIES' BEST FRIEND.

Lord Strathcona Accords the Honor to Mr. Chamberlain.

London, Jan. 14.—(C. A. P.)—Speaking at the Colonial Exhibition at Liverpool, Lord Strathcona said the colonies even now possessed resources which made up a very great Empire. Speaking for Canada, he could say that it was ready to go with the mother country in everything that could be of advantage to the whole Empire. Whatever their political views, all must admit that Mr. Chamberlain had been the colonies' best friend and had done more than any other man to knit the different parts of the Empire together.

Lord Strathcona has consented to receive the thousand guests invited to an international ball promoted by the City of London Commercial Association, of which he is president. The Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress and the sheriffs will attend in state, while the French, German and American Ambassadors will be represented officially.

English Cotton Trade.

London, Jan. 14.—Commenting on Mr. Chamberlain's Preston speech, the president of the Federation of Master Cotton Spinners says: "Mr. Chamberlain does not understand the cotton industry at all." Sir William Holland, M. P., says: "Mr. Chamberlain has thrown up the sponge, so far as the cotton trade is concerned." Alfred Emmott, M. P., thinks Mr. Chamberlain utterly failed to disprove the statement that the cotton trade must be injured under his scheme by the increased cost of manufacture. D. J. Shackleton, M. P., thinks Mr. Chamberlain's speech will not help the protectionist cause.

Dr. Parkin Back Again.

Montreal, Que., Jan. 14.—"We have a splendid lot of young fellows at Oxford and the eight Canadians are a credit to their country," is what Dr. George R. Parker has to say of the Rhodes scholarship men now at Oxford. The doctor, who has just returned from London, states that there will be 40 colonials next year, and about 200 in all. He dined the other day with the Canadian eight, and he adds that a finer lot of students he has never met.

Port Arthur to Winnipeg.

Montreal, Jan. 14.—Wm. Whyte, second vice-president of the C. P. R., arrived here yesterday to confer with the president anent giving out contracts for the present year's work. He says that the main line from Montreal to Winnipeg is now laid with standard 80-lb. rail and will be completed to Vancouver before the end of the year. Mr. Whyte further states that the contract for laying an additional track from Port Arthur to Winnipeg will be given out in a few days. He says that there is 6,000,000 bushels of wheat in elevators west of Winnipeg and 7,000,000 in farmers' hands.

Will Not Visit Us.

London, Jan. 14.—The report from Montreal that King Edward and Queen Alexandra will visit Canada some time this year is declared to be unfounded.

The Archbishop's Suggestion.

The late Archbishop Corrigan was one of the gentlest of men, but when it was necessary to reprove any one under his charge, whether priest or layman, he never hesitated to do so. At one time there was a vacancy in the rectorship of one of the large churches in New York city, and several clergymen were talked about for the position. Two prominent women who were members of the church called upon the archbishop and urged the selection of one of their clerical friends. As they were leaving one woman turned to the other and said impressively:

"When you get home pray that the Holy Ghost may give the archbishop the grace to appoint the right man."

Like a flash the archbishop turned around and said in icy tones:

"While you are at it ask the Holy Ghost to give women the grace to attend to their own business."

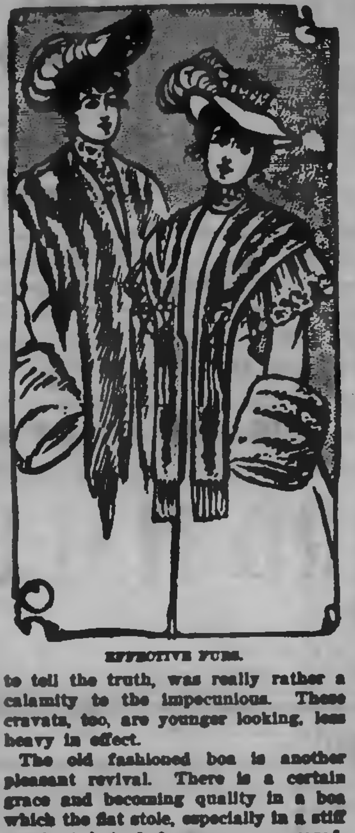
Love.

Lord Byron, brilliant, beautiful and unscrupulous as his own Don Juan, left behind him the maxim that there was but one real form of happiness in love—where a man and woman so adored each other that they could conceive of no happiness out of each other's sight, and this for their whole lives. Grant that this is to demand a great deal, yet it is true that all the influences of long life combine to identify two who dwell together. Their very faces often grow more alike, and how frequently the death of one is followed speedily, without sufficient visible reason, by that of the other also!

FURS OF THE SEASON.

Stylish and Becoming Are the Short Neck Scarfs and Long Boas.

The short fur scarfs and cravats will be welcomed cordially by the many women who have tired of the longer and heavier stoles, the form of which, to tell the truth, was really rather a calamity to the impecunious. These cravats, too, are younger looking, less heavy in effect.



EFFECTIVE FURS.

The old fashioned boa is another pleasant revival. There is a certain grace and becoming quality in a boa which the flat stole, especially in a stiff or short haired fur, never possessed. With the return of the boa to favor will come some of the wiry haired furs which were unsuitable for stoles.

The stoles, however, remain the most imposing style in furs. An effective set in marten is here sketched, on which a fringe of tails occurs below the throat on either side of the stole and a similar fringe finishes the ends. Tails and paws ornament the lower edge of the big muff.

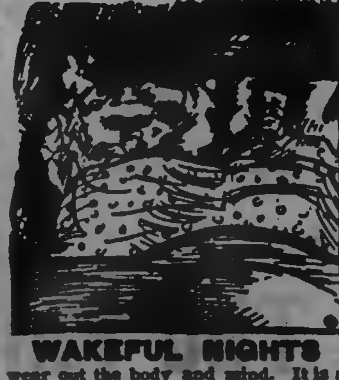
Chinchilla composes the second model, a cape stole formed of lines of the fur, divided by a decorative gray passementerie, the whole outlined by a soft double frill of gray chiffon. As a fur fitment to meet the requirements of both day and evening this deserves consideration.

Cottage Pudding.

Butter slices of bread, have ready stewed blackberries, strawberries or other fruit that is juicy, place a layer of bread in your pudding dish, then the fruit; then bread, and so on, until the pan is filled, having the top layer of bread. Bake in a rather moderate oven.

The Stuffing in the Turkey.

Modern cookery will not even let us stuff our turkey with bread, saying scientifically and in the most idol breaking way that bread acts like a sponge to draw out from the bird the juices and flavors end, while it may retain them, is most unwholesome eating.



WAKEFUL NIGHTS wear out the body and mind. It is a trying strain on the nervous system and is caused principally by a weak, irregular or palpitating heart. There is only one way to bring relief and that is to invigorate and regulate the movements of the heart.

DR. AGNEW'S HEART CURE

brings immediate relief and makes the heart strong and steady. Read what Mrs. Anna Canfield of Van Wyck, Idaho writes:—"I first procured your remedy in Medicine Hat, Assa., and found it the most wonderful remedy I had ever used. In fact it has cured me of heart disease and sleeplessness and I now wish to sell it to others. Quote best prices etc." Dr. Agnew's Heart Cure gives relief in 30 minutes, it cures the Heart, Stomach and Nerves. —12

For instantaneous relief of Catarrh or Sore throat use DR. AGNEW'S CATARRHAL POWDER. It relieves in 10 minutes.

KEEP UP YOUR ENERGY.

Stand Erect and Walk as Though You Were Somebody.

Never allow your physical standard to drop. Keep up your energy. Walk as if you were somebody and were going to do something worth while in the world, so that even a stranger will note your bearing and mark your superiority. If you have fallen into a habit of walking in a listless, indolent way, turn right about face at once and make a change. You don't want to shuffle along like the failures we often see sitting around on park benches or lolling about the streets, with their hands in their pockets, or haunting intelligence offices and wondering why fate has been so hard with them. You don't want to give people the impression that you are discouraged or that you are already falling to the rear. Straighten up, then! Stand erect! Be a man! You are a child of the Infinite King. You have royal blood in your veins. Emphasize it by your bearing. A man who is conscious of his kinship with God and of his power and who believes thoroughly in himself walks with a firm, vigorous step, with his head erect, his chin in, his shoulders thrown back and down, and his chest well projected in order to give a large lung capacity. He is the man who does things.

You cannot aspire or accomplish great or noble things so long as you assume the attitude and bearing of a coward or weakling. If you would be noble and do noble things you must look up. You were made to look upward and to walk upright, not to look down or to shamble along in a semihorizontal position. Put character, dignity, nobility, into your walk.—Success.

The Fatal Spare Room.

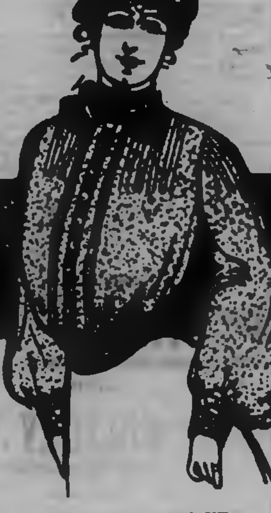
How many a cold is contracted in the spare bed. Look out for it during the cold weather. Open the windows and air it on a good windy day and let the sun shine upon it if possible. If company is expected thoroughly air and dry the bed and warm the room with an oil stove if there is no other means of heating.

Baked Sweetbreads.

Soak three large sweetbreads one hour in warm water, then simmer in boiling water ten minutes, drain and carefully remove the skin. Brush over with beaten egg, dredge with breadcrumbs, dip in melted butter, place in a dripping pan and bake forty-five minutes. Serve on squares of toast with brown gravy.

A Plain but Tasteful Shirt Waist.

An eminently useful shirt is shown in the design. It is of dark brown delaine, pin spotted with white, its severity tastefully tempered by an inset line of lace down the center front, narrowly strapped with the delaine, and the whole completed by a cravat of brown silk and white lawn turnover collar.



A USEFUL SHIRT WAIST.

Fashion Echoes.

The soft belts show the graceful new girdle styles.

For dinner and evening gowns the Marie Antoinette style will prevail and in luster and soft finish silks.

The newest coats show the waistcoat, which is a separate garment or separate in effect.

The crushed belts in all sorts of materials are in high favor, as are the shirred and folded silk belts showing ornamental buttons.

Conspicuous among the new buttons used as ornament only are large molds covered with bits of Chinese embroidery. Each button has a different design.

There is a craze for strictly oriental effects combined with snatches of fashions from many historical periods, the Louis XIV., XV. and XVI. dividing honors.

Silver fox and gray astrakhan edgings are seen on some of the smartest gowns.

There is much sighing and moaning over the very full skirts in fashion, although the top fullness is eliminated by close shirrings and other devices, besides the lead weights to hold the fullness from billowing out.

The Stinginess Of Grace

By MARTHA HUMPHREYS

Copyright, 1904, by T. C. McClure

"Who would ever have dreamed she was so stingy? Of course the more money you have in this world the more you want. She doesn't look like a girl who thought of nothing but money. Miserly people are supposed to have steely gray eyes and sharp chins, and she has the softest brown eyes and a dimple in her chin."

"Who has 'em?" asked Tom Bliss, rolling over languidly in his steamer chair.

"I was talking about Grace Patterson."

"Has she dimples and brown eyes?" asked Tom innocently.

His sister flung him a scornful glance.

"You ought to know. You have been hanging around her ever since you came down."

"Well, a fellow's got to do something when he's on his vacation," said Tom easily. "You can't expect him to turn woman hater when he's the only man to twoscore of pretty women."

"That's just why I'm complaining. With so many pretty girls here I don't see why you should devote yourself to one."

Margaret Bliss would have objected to any woman her brother might have selected as the object of his attentions. Her love for the six footed bachelor, oldest of her brothers, was distinctly selfish, and she was glad the occasion had arisen to prove Miss Patterson far from perfect. Tom lighted a fresh cigarette, and the hand which tossed away the match patted his sister's head in patronizing fashion.

"And how has your ladyship been offended?"

"You know Jim Green, the man who has been on the beach boat for two seasons, died last night. All the boarders knew him, and of course we looked right into the matter and found out that he left his family almost penniless, so we are going to give a fair for their benefit. We asked Miss Patterson to make something for it, and she said she was too busy; then we asked her to preside at one of the tables or to raffle off the embroidered sofa cushion Mrs. Marshall is going to donate, and she said she didn't believe in raffles."

"My opinion of Miss Patterson improves," said the aggravating Tom. "Many a time and oft have I been done at your fairs and raffles."

Margaret rose angrily.

"I might have known she was making some sort of a grand stand play. That sort of girl only cares to please the men."

Tom leaned back in his chair and smoked dreamily. He had rather enjoyed Miss Patterson's society, because she knew enough to steer a boat and not to screech when it shipped water. Now he felt a curious desire to know her better. A girl with tender brown eyes and a dimple in her chin rarely held decided opinions on such grave matters as hotel benefits and raffles. But she was not in sight at the present moment. Then he recalled that his stationery needed replenishing, and he started for the village store. It was a cheap imitation of the city department store, and as he was passing the dress goods counter on his way to the stationery department he heard a familiar voice say:

"Is that the best quality of nun's veiling you have?"

"It's enough better than anything she's been used to having," said the middle aged woman behind the counter.

Tom Bliss stopped short, an amused smile on his lips, for he could see that Miss Patterson was flushing indignantly at the woman's rudeness.

"Mrs. Green may not be able to buy another black dress soon, and I want to select something that will wear well and not turn rusty."

Tom woke up. "Green, Green!" Why, that was the name of the man who had handled the life saving boat. Why was Grace Patterson shopping for his widow? He drew closer.

"I think the henrietta cloth is better. You can give me ten yards of that and three yards of the crape; also four yards of that lusterless black ribbon."

She turned suddenly, almost bumping into Tom.

"Won't you let me help?" he said, with a note in his voice that she did not recognize.

"No, thank you," she said, blushing prettily under his earnest gaze. "I think we have everything." He noticed the "we" and liked it.

"But the children," he urged—"oughtn't they to have something; say, little black frocks?"

"No, there would be no time to make them. The funeral is tomorrow, you know. Besides, they're such babies to wear black."

"It would please the mother," he urged, possessed of a sudden madness to share in this shopping expedition.

Miss Patterson's eyes smiled frankly into his.

"Well, if you are so determined, we might get some ready made white dresses for the children with black ribbons and sashes. It may be a great comfort to Mrs. Green to feel that she and the family are so neatly garbed for the funeral."

"Just so," said Tom, pulling out his wallet.

The next fifteen minutes were busy ones for Grace Patterson. She had considerable difficulty in steering him away from lace trimmed lawn frocks to some simple little piqués. Tom picked up the bundles as if he were proud of them.

"Where next?" he said cheerfully.

"I must leave this package at the dressmaker's, and then—well, there's really nothing else you can do, thank you."

"You are going to see Mrs. Green? Well, I'm going too."

From the dressmaker's they walked down the beach road to the humble house of mourning. Excited voices welcomed them. Frowsy neighbors were gathered on the front porch. Mrs. Green was bordering on hysteria. Tom watched in interested fashion while Grace brought order out of chaos.

One by one the useless neighbors took their departure. The children were coaxed into the shadow of an upturned boat to play store with real cookies, candies and raisins which Grace produced from the depths of her Boston bag, and Mrs. Green, comforted with a bandage around her aching head and many kind words, was induced to lie down. Then Grace picked up the baby and carried him around to the shady side of the house. Tom followed, dragging a big rocking chair in which he insisted she should sit, while he sprawled in the sand at her feet. In the little room whose shutters were closed just behind them lay the man who had often risked his life that they might make merry in the water. A sorrow that was not personal fell upon them, and the man lay quite still looking out across the dancing water and thinking of many things.

Suddenly above his head sounded the soft, melting "coo" of a baby's voice. Without shifting his position, lest he should break the charm, Tom took in the picture. The laughing eyes of the girl were liquid and tender as she watched the baby on her knees. The dimples had disappeared and the lips were curved in a serious sweetness. This was not the girl who had been such a jolly good comrade on fishing and sailing jaunts. This was the woman he had been looking for all these years. And to think that he had not recognized her at once!

Her slender white hand was so close to his that he could hardly keep from clasping it. He pulled himself together and asked in a voice that sounded rather harsh by reason of his effort at self control:

"If you will do all this, why won't you help with the benefit up at the hotel?"

Grace started. She had been wondering whether the little mite in her lap would some day grow up and fight against the sea for human lives.

"Oh, they're such silly things, you know! Everybody hates you for asking them to pay two or three times what a thing's worth, and by the time you have paid all the expenses the beneficiary doesn't get very much; besides it would be two weeks before the thing came off and Mrs. Green needed the clothes and the money now. I suppose a great many people think it's very queer, but father has always insisted on my keeping inside my allowance, and—well—I couldn't help with the benefit and help Mrs. Green today." She was floundering along almost blindly under the fierce light that glowed in Tom's eyes. "And so—and so"—

Tom had utterly forgotten what she was talking about. Her hand was caressing the baby's face. The man rose on one knee and drew her hand away from the chubby cheek, holding it firmly in his own.

"Grace, dear, I'm not half good enough for you, but do you think you could love me just a little?"

She looked at him tenderly. "I think I could love you a great deal." And the baby "cooed" and dimpled as he looked at the two heads so close together above his own.

ASTHMA

Won't you let us send you a free sample of the remedy that will cure you?

We want you to try it—to see what instant relief it gives—to prove that Clarke's Kola Compound is a positive and permanent cure for Asthma. Surely you must know that we could not afford to do this if we did not know absolutely that Clarke's Kola Compound would cure, and cure completely. Just write us that you want a free sample. We'll send it without cost to you.

"For more than twelve years, I had been troubled with Asthma and during the last two years, the attacks became so severe and frequent that I had to lay off work for weeks at a time. Many nights I could not sleep lying down. Nothing gave me relief until the C.P.R. doctor prescribed Clarke's Kola Compound. I took three bottles which helped me from the start, and by the time the third was finished, was completely cured. I have not had an attack of Asthma for three years."

Composition in Courses.

Southey was a methodical and rapid literary craftsman. "I am a quiet, patient, easy going hack of the mule breed, regular as clockwork in my pace, sure footed, bearing the burden which is laid on me, and only obstinate in choosing my own path," he wrote to a friend. But his method was by no means simple. He was a poet, a historian, a critic and a miscellaneous writer. He turned out an enormous quantity of matter and succeeded in doing so by working fourteen hours a day and diversifying his labors within his daily round. He had six tables in his library. He wrote poetry at one, history at another, criticism at a third, and so on with the other subjects upon which he was engaged, and when he was tired of spinning his brains into verse he turned to history and criticism. There is a story that he once described to Mme. de Stael the division of his time—two hours before breakfast for history, two hours for reading after, two hours for the composition of poetry, two hours for criticism, and so on through all his working day. "And pray, Mr. Southey," queried the Frenchwoman somewhat unkindly, "when do you think?"—Cornhill Magazine.

Cabbage Salad Dressing.

Beat the yolks of three eggs, half a teaspoonful of mustard, mixed for the table, two tablespoonfuls of sugar and one-fourth of a teaspoonful of salt. Add two tablespoonfuls of butter, then gradually five tablespoonfuls of hot vinegar. Stir and cook over hot water until the mixture is thick and smooth. Just before using mix with crisp, fine shredded cabbage.

Asthma.

You've tried almost everything for it, haven't you? And we presume you are about discouraged. Now what do you think of our idea of breathing-in the medicine, bringing it right up to the diseased part? It looks reasonable, doesn't it? And it's successful too.

When you inhale Vapo-Cresolene your breathing becomes easy, the wheezing ceases, and you drop to sleep. For croup and whooping-cough it's a quick cure.

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists, or sent express prepaid on receipt of price. A Vapo-Cresolene outfit, including a bottle of Cresolene, complete $1.50. Send for free illustrated booklet. Leeming, Miles Co., Ltd., Agents, 288 St. James St., Montreal.

THE FISCAL QUESTION.

Austin Chamberlain's Latest Speech Makes It Plain That It Will Be Paramount Election Issue.

London, Jan. 14.—(C.A.P.)—That the fiscal question will be paramount at next general election is made perfectly plain by a speech of Austin Chamberlain of the Exchequer. In refusing the request of a deputation to remit the sugar tax, he said they were well aware of the intention of the Government to make a change in the fiscal policy. This question would settle the issue at the next general election, but the Government could not anticipate any fundamental changes in the fiscal question during the present Parliament.

Herbert Gladstone, addressing the farmers of Hawarden, told them they would not find salvation in a two-shilling duty on corn. It was madness on the part of the British Government to propose measures which would have the effect of diminishing the world's wheat markets, to which we had rapid access. The limitation of foreign markets exposed ourselves to the great danger of fluctuations in the wheat trade and a possible shortage.

Leonard Courtney, unveiling the bust of Charles Buller at Liskeard, referred specially to his work in the Durham report as an illustration that he always went forward.

Prophesies Free Trade Win.

Lord George Hamilton, M.P., Unionist free trader, addressing a meeting of two thousand citizens at Blackburn said the reason for his leaving the Government was because he saw that Mr. Chamberlain's motive unless given a check would degenerate into pure protection. They had been told to think imperially. He had been an Imperialist all his life. He learnt Imperialism from Lords Beaconsfield and Salisbury, who taught that though Imperialism in the abstract might be admirable in the concrete it must be regulated by the burden which it entailed. There had been, in his judgment, too much Imperial "high falutin" on public platforms lately. His complaint against the tariff reformers was that they had made no wide general survey of the industrial position or of the complexity of the Imperial connections abroad, before embarking on this unhappy agitation. With regard to the colonial offer he thought the tariff reformers did not deal fairly with their audiences. The measure of benefit we could derive from such an offer was simply the extent to which we could displace foreign goods now going to the colonies. He expressed his strong belief that free trade would win "hands down."

Degree For Bishop.

London, Jan. 14.—A special convocation of the Western University, held at Huron College last evening, at 8 o'clock, conferred the degree of D.D. upon His Lordship Right Rev. Bishop Williams. The bishop delivered an address.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL

Few People Know How Useful it is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form, or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefitted by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in the ordinary charcoal tablets."

RUSS CAVALRY RAIDERS

Operate Southeast of Liaoyang Aim to Cut the Railway.

Tore Up the Tracks, But Japs Made Immediate Repairs and Line Was Re-opened—Mistchenko's Cavalry Brigade Surrounded Jap Post At Niuchatun But Were Repulsed With Loss of 80 Men.

Tokio, Jan. 14.—The bodies of Russian cavalry raiders actively operating southwest of the Liaoyang are evidently desirous of harassing Japanese railroad communication and interrupting the transportation of Gen. Nogi's army to reinforce Field Marshal Oyama at Liaoyang.

The Japanese army headquarters, reporting Thursday, says:

"On Wednesday at 10 in the morning a Japanese cavalry detachment encountered four companies of Russian cavalry west of Tangmasen, southwest of Liaoyang, and fiercely engaged them. At 2.30 the Russians were repulsed with heavy losses. Subsequently they were reinforced by several companies of cavalry and eight guns. The Japanese drew the Russians to Liuerhpao and engaged and pursued them."

Tore Up the Tracks.

On Wednesday night a small body of Russian cavalry reached the railroad line and tore up the tracks between Anshantien and Haicheng and Tatchekiao and Yinkow. They were immediately repaired and the line was re-opened to traffic.

"On Wednesday afternoon 2,000 Russian cavalry with guns attacked Newchwang. The Japanese were forced to retire temporarily, but were reinforced and attacked and are still pursuing them.

"The Russians also attacked Muchiatun, but were repulsed."

A report from Japanese army headquarters on the Liaotung Peninsula, received yesterday, says:

"A body of Russians, evidently from Gen. Mistchenko's cavalry brigade, with the Second Infantry Regiment, railroad guards and guns, recently surrounded the Japanese post at Niuchatun, north of Yinkow, on the line of communications, and assaulted it from the direction of Siantziatzu. The Russians were repulsed, losing at leat 80 men."

THE BEAR WHINES.

Russia Warns the Powers That She Fears Uprising in China.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 14.—Russia's formal notification to the powers of the imminent danger of a general uprising in China as the result of a Japanese propaganada, which will threaten all foreign interests, coupled with a general protest against China's repeated violation of her neutrality in operations, is really a warning to the powers that Russia regards the situation as extremely serious and considers that the time has come for joint action by the powers for the protection of their own interests.

For herself, Russia considers that Japan has broken the pledge she made with respect to Secretary Hay's note at the beginning of the war, and further persistence in this course will, she considers, absolve her from further observance and leave her free to act for her own protection. The present note followed the two preliminary warnings addressed to the powers, one in October and the other in November, "neither of which was heeded." It has an entirely different tinge, setting forth breaches of Chinese neutrality by including the Ryeshitelni case and also the use of the Minotao Islands, belonging to China, as a base for the Japanese fleet, the constant despatch of contraband from various Chinese ports, the employment of Chinese soldiers in the Japanese army and the hiring of Chinese bandits to attack Russian communications.

Should General Ma or any Chinese troops now move, Russia will feel herself free to cross the Liao River into the neutral zone. As for the powers, Russia believes the situation has become serious owing to the stimulus given anti-foreign agitation in China by the fall of Port Arthur.

In diplomatic circles importance is attached to the note and to the general opinion it is designed to induce Secretary Hay to bring joint pressure to bear in order to prevent the extension of the zone of hostilities and to compel China to adopt drastic measures against the present agitation in the interior of that empire.

Stoessel a Fair Minded Man.

Tokio, Jan. 14.—It is announced here that Gen. Stoessel, in bidding farewell to the Russian troops at Port Arthur, thanked the officers and men for their heroic defence, and said he considered that the Japanese terms were the best it was possible to have offered. He added that he would take all the blame of the premature surrender of the fortress.

Russian Sailors Sentenced.

Shanghai, Jan. 14.—The naval court-martial at the Russian Consulate here yesterday sentenced the two sailors of the Russian cruiser Askold, charged with the murder of a Chinaman on Dec. 15, as the result of a quarrel over the hiring of a jinrikaha, to four years' imprisonment and the loss of all civil rights.

Mirsky Still There.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 14.—The rumor that the resignation of the Ministry of the Interior by Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky had been accepted is without foundation. The entire ministerial situation remains unchanged.

OUT FOR UNIVERSAL PEACE.

Roosevelt's Reasons For Desiring Us to Have Arbitration Compacts Ratified.

Washington, Jan. 14.—The Senate yesterday made public the letter of President Roosevelt regarding the arbitration treaties sent to the Senate, Dec. 13, 1904.

"These conventions do not go so far as I would wish in scope and object, but they form, taken together, a very important step in the progress of the world toward a policy of peaceful solution of such differences as cannot conveniently be settled by diplomatic negotiations," says Mr. Roosevelt in the letter. "The limitations which seem objectionable to many advocates of a policy of arbitration are not without compensating advantages. They commit none of the contracting parties to any action in opposition to their national interests, their policy or their aspirations. Their value is that they constitute an advance in the direction of the purpose so ardently desired—of the reign of universal peace and good will.

"No discrimination has been made among the powers signatory to The Hague convention who have desired to enter into these friendly relations, and it would be undesirable from the standpoint of what this Government is striving to accomplish to make any such discrimination. I should not willingly exchange ratifications with any of the powers unless the series of conventions as a whole should meet with the favorable consideration of the Senate."

What Sulphur Does.

For the Human Body in Health and Disease.

The mention of sulphur will recall to many of us the early days when our mothers and grandmothers gave us our daily dose of sulphur and molasses every spring and fall.

It was the universal spring and fall "blood purifier," a tonic and cure-all, and mind you, this old-fashioned remedy was not without merit.

The idea was good, but the remedy was crude and unpalatable, and a large quantity had to be taken to get any effect.

Nowadays we get all the beneficial effects of sulphur in a palatable, concentrated form, so that a single grain is far more effective than a tablespoonful of the crude sulphur.

In recent years research and experiment have proved that the best sulphur for medicinal use is that obtained from Calcium (Calcium Sulphide) and sold in drug stores under the name of Stuart's Calcium Wafers. They are small chocolate coated pellets and contain the active medicinal principle of sulphur in a highly concentrated, effective form.

Few people are aware of the value of this form of sulphur in restoring and maintaining bodily vigor and health; sulphur acts directly on the liver, and excretory organs and purifies and enriches the blood by the prompt elimination of waste material.

Our grandmothers knew this when they dosed us with sulphur and molasses every spring and fall, but the crudity and impurity of ordinary flowers of sulphur were often worse than the disease, and cannot compare with the modern concentrated preparations of sulphur, of which Stuart's Calcium Wafers is undoubtedly the best and most widely used.

They are the natural antidote for liver and kidney troubles and cure constipation and purify the blood in a way that often surprises patient and physician alike.

Dr. R. M. Wilkins, while experimenting with sulphur remedies soon found that the sulphur from Calcium was superior to any form. He says—"For liver, kidney and blood troubles, especially when resulting from constipation or malaria, I have been surprised at the results obtained from Stuart's Calcium Wafers. In patients suffering from boils, and pimples and even deep-seated carbuncles, I have repeatedly seen them dry up and disappear in four or five days, leaving the skin clear and smooth. Although Stuart's Calcium Wafers is a proprietary article, and sold by druggists, and for that reason tabooed by many physicians, yet I know of nothing so safe and reliable for constipation, liver and kidney troubles and especially in all forms of skin disease, as this remedy."

At any rate people who are tired of pills, cathartics, and so-called blood "purifiers," will find Stuart's Calcium Wafers, a far safer, more palatable and effective preparation.

—Notices have not been put up restricting the speed of drivers on the new bridge, and consequently people are taking advantage of the situation and driving at full speed over it. The bridge is wide enough for only two teams to pass with a narrow margin, and teams passing hurriedly might accidentally collide and cause much trouble. There is no light on the bridge, but the Council is taking action to have that state of affairs remedied.—Campbellford Herald.

WHOLESALE CATTLE THIEF.

Ranch Manager Gets Away With 500 Head—Falsified Records.

Orillia, Jan. 14.—A sensation has been caused here by the disappearance of Alexander McGrimman, cattle dealer and manager of the Dalton Cattle Company. His books show a shortage of $15,000 to $20,000. The company is composed of the following Orillia gentlemen: Messrs. William Thomson, J. B. Tudhope, ex-M.P.P., W. H. Tudhope, Geo. Thomson, Joseph Kilgour, Toronto, and A. McGrimman. The latter was Secretary-Treasurer and Manager, and the first named is President. The company has been doing business for about five years. McGrimman was the most expert cattle buyer in the district and was believed by everyone to be thoroughly trustworthy. For twenty years he has done business very honorably. During the last year he had become loose in his methods. The company's ranch consists of ten thousand acres in the Township of Dalton, County of Ontario, with large stables at Digby and another close to this town. McGrimman's method of operation was to make a shipment of cattle and only account for half of it on his books. The defalcations have been going on since last March.

Everything was satisfactory when stock was taken in December, 1903, and 1,100 head of cattle were counted. A recent letter, however, aroused suspicion, and stock-taking showed a shortage of 500 cattle, averaging in value $40 per head.

625 Children Escape.

Toronto, Jan. 14.—Another school was badly damaged by fire yesterday morning, but every scholar was gotten out of the building within two minutes and without the slightest panic or accident. A defective furnace is blamed. The total loss is not expected to run over $10,000. There were 625 children in the school and the bell had rung for recess when the attention of Assistant Principal Ward was called to smoke curling through the register in his room on the second floor. The fire alarm signal was struck and the children marched out steadily and without accident.

Moorish Tribes Revolt.

Tangier, Morocco, Jan. 14.—All the inhabitants of Marakesh and the people of the neighboring Kabyle tribes have revolted and unanimously proclaimed Muluai Bey as Sultan and ruler of Morocco, and Muluai Reid as Khalifa and the Sultan's envoy to Marakesh. Muluai Bey is a brother of Muluai Abdul Aziz. The news lacks confirmation.

Scalded to Death.

Rochester, N.Y., Jan. 14.—Raymond Buck, 13 years old, whose home was in Ithaca, was scalded to death yesterday at the State Industrial School. He was sitting on the edge of a tub of boiling water when he lost his balance and fell into it. He was terribly burned, and died at 5 o'clock.

Germans Loss in Africa.

Berlin, Jan. 14.—The total losses of the German troops in Southwest Africa, as officially reported by the Reichstag Finance Committee yesterday, was killed in battle, died of disease or murdered by natives, 56 officers and 753 men; wounded, 31 officers and 154 men.

No Massacre.

Brussels, Jan. 14.—The authorities of the Congo Independent State deny the report circulated Wednesday by The Taglische Rundschau of Berlin of the massacre of whites and Catholic missionaries in the upper reaches of the Congo River.

Jew Baiter Sentenced.

Berlin, Jan. 14.—Count Pueckler, Germany's most noted Jew-baiter, was sentenced Thursday in one of the courts of Berlin to six months in jail for public incitement to disobedience of the laws and violence of one class against another.

Nervous Dyspepsia

Mr. George Bolen, Spry, Bruce Co., writes:—"I was troubled with nervous dyspepsia for some years, and after using nine boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I felt better than I had for years. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is certainly the best medicine I ever used, and I say so because I want to give full credit where it is due."

Religious in Hamilton.

Hamilton, Jan. 14.—The religious census just taken furnishes some interesting information. The Sunday school workers who claim to have visited every house found that the population of the city was 58,172. The assessors made it 57,558 in their returns last October. Of the 58,172 residents of the city, 25,985 never enter a church, and 32,186 attend church. The figures are: Presbyterians, 11,735; Methodists, 11,642; Church of England, 10,388; Roman Catholics, 7,619; Baptists, 3,449; Christian Workers, 857; Lutherans, 681, Congregationalists, 657; Hebrews, 593, etc.

$1000 PILE CURE

A Thousand Dollar Guarantee goes with every bottle of Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid—the only certain cure for every form of Piles.

George Cook, St. Thomas, Ont., writes:

"Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid cured me of a very bad case of Piles of over ten years' standing. I had tried everything but got no permanent cure till I used Hem-Roid. I had Blind and Bleeding Piles and suffered everything. Ointments and local treatments failed but Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid cured me perfectly."

Hem-Roid is a tablet taken internally which removes the cause of Piles. $1.00 at all Druggists or The Wilson-Fyle Co., Limited, Niagara Falls, Ont.

Seven to One

That is about the ratio. About seven times as many persons are injured as die from all causes yearly.

Accidents are a more prolific cause of death than any disease except lung diseases.

Twice as many people are accidently killed as die of old age. Does it not seem reasonable to you as a business man that it would be to your interest to carry an accident policy?

YOU are subject to over two hundred diseases, and liable to accidents without number.

Official figures prove that One Man in Five carrying an Accident and Sickness Policy makes a claim for indemnity each year.

YOU have no guarantee that you will not be the One Man who will be disabled this year.

If You Don't Buy Here We Both Lose Money

Another year has gone. It's pleasant to tell of sales far beyond all previous year's, for they indicate general prosperity as well as the progress of this store. But to you such growth means more still; it tells unmistakably of the increasing attractiveness of our Fur Goods and also the drawing power of our Fur Prices. The bigger the manufacturing business the lower the cost of production, consequently "If you don't buy here we both lose money." Just now we call attention to our extra fine showing of—

HOCKEY GOSSIP.

What the Puck Chasers Are Doing, or Are Going to Do.

R. Fair & Co.'s "Golden Lions" hereby challenge Gratton's "High Grades" to a friendly game of hockey, to be played at the Brock street rink at a convenient time for both teams. O.H.A., T.V.L. and City League players to be barred.

Good luck to the senior hockey team to-night. May they win a glorious victory to-night.—Last evening's Post.

Belleville defeated Port Hope in a close game last night at Belleville by a score of 6—5.

Barrie's Bedelias accept the challenge of the Happy Thoughts to a hockey match at the earliest possible date.

The first local Trent Valley League game will be played here on Monday night when the old rivals, Keene and T.A.S. will come together. These two teams have had many exciting struggles in the past, and Monday night's game will be no exception to the rule. Keene has been strengthened considerably since defeated at Campbellford, by the return of some of their old players. The Abstainers will have their strongest line-up on, and something interesting in the line of hockey will be dished up. There should be a large crowd in attendance.

The juniors play a league game in Cobourg on Monday night, which makes the third successive match away from home. Just when they will get a home game is uncertain. Cobourg was scheduled to play here on Friday of next week, but there is a senior game on that night, and the junior contest will have to be postponed.

Local teams will figure in five league games next week. The seniors play in Port Perry on Wednesday and Port Perry plays the return game here on Friday night. The T.A.S. plays Keene here on Monday and go to Keene on Thursday.

The juniors stack up against Cobourg in that place on Monday night.

The standing of the senior clubs to date is as follows:—

	Won.	Lost.	To play
Peterborough	2	1	5
Port Perry	1	1	6
Lindsay	1	2	5

Port Perry will play in Lindsay on Monday night.

The T.A.S. will practise to-night between 7 and 8.

A quartette from the Lindsay Amateur Minstrels were at the rink last evening and made themselves herd in several choruses.

The Riverside Hockey team made its first appearance of the season last night on the Brock-st. rink when they defeated the Snow Flakes by a score of 3—2 in a fairly well contested game. The Riversides lined up as follows—

Goal—Wilson.
Point—Tarollope.
Cover Point—Fllis.
Rover—Weatherson.
Centre—Hill.
Wings—McMillan and Kendry.

RACING.

THE TURF.

Following are the entries for the Peterborough Turf Club's winter races to be held on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week;—

Conduct, g.g., Wm. Mason, Port Rowan.

Pearl Wilkes, b.m., W. J. Upper, Niagara.

Captain Purdy, b.g., C. B. McFadden, Collingwood.

Frank C., C. Caverly, Madoc.

John B. Gentry, br. stallion, by Captain Hunter, owned by J. M. Brooks, Peterborough.

2.13 Pace or Trot.

Looking Glass, b.g., L. G. Bennet, Port Hope.

Velma, Black Mack, Birdie Hayes, Captain Pirdy.

These races will funish lots of amusement as some very fast horses are entered.

REASON No 5
WHY YOU SHOULD USE
Red Rose Tea

Because it is perfectly clean.

Wouldn't you like to know that the tea you drink has not been touched by human hand since it was plucked on the plantation?

This is what you get in Red Rose Tea. The old method of rolling and packing tea by hand has been entirely done away with on the tea estates where Red Rose Tea is produced. There, as well as in the blending and packing rooms, machinery — scrupulously clean machinery—is used exclusively.

Red Rose Tea is never touched by hand after being plucked.

This fact alone will help you enjoy drinking it.

The Blue Label is recommended.

For Over Sixty Years

An old and well-tried remedy.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Sold by all druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

THE PANTHEON.

It Has Withstood Vicissitudes of Over Twenty Centuries.

The Pantheon is the most interesting of all the interesting places of Rome. It was used for its present purpose as a place of religious worship before the foundations of the Coliseum were laid. Its huge doors have opened to admit the great ones of the earth, from Augustus Caesar to Napoleon, an assertion that will scarcely be disputed.

It stands in the very heart of old Rome, and the vicissitudes which have befallen the Eternal City during the 2,000 years of its existence have left it practically unchanged. The gilded bronze that lined its roof has been carried off to "decorate" St. Peter's, where, in the form of clouds and Cupids, cords and curtains, it fills the beholder with displeased amazement.

Its tiles of bronze and gold were removed to Constantinople 1,500 years ago, and the statues which adorned it have long since perished. But the mighty walls yet stand, firm as ever, sweeping up to the majestic dome, the largest, though not the highest, in the world.

One hundred feet across, a hundred feet high and perfectly circular, no architect could design a building more perfect in its proportions, more harmonious as a whole. It is lighted solely by an aperture in the dome, a circle thirty feet across. Standing on its marble floor one looks up to the greatest dome man ever raised and through that to the blue dome which bends above it, sending summer sun or winter rain through those bare yards of space.

The effect is so impressive, so entirely unmatched and unrivaled, that the dullest of hearts and most untaught of minds must perforce acknowledge its influence. A man may think St. Peter's "disappointing," may condemn the Coliseum as barbaric or decide that he does not care for the catacombs, but every man who has viewed it has been impressed, even to the pitch of respectful silence, by the Pantheon.

The huge leaves of the bronze door revolve on their mighty hinges as they have done since the days of the Caesars, and so perfectly balanced are they that a woman's wrist can unclose them. Through those doors they carried Julia, Caesar's daughter, with all the pomp of her imperial power about her. And after the lapse of twenty centuries King Humbert was brought across the selfsame threshold to sleep his last sleep in the ancient place.

Lifebuoy Soap—disinfectant—is strongly recommended by the medical profession as a safeguard against infectious diseases.

WATERLOO FOR LINDSAY TEAM

The Locals Won An Easy Game Last Evening.

VISITORS WERE OUTCLASSED

Score Was 17-5— Lindsay Left the Ice Before the Time Was Up— Fairly Fast Game and Largest Crowd of the Season.

About 1,500 people saw the locals defeat Lindsay at the Brock-st. rink last evening by 17 to 5. It was a complete walkover for the home team, especially in the second half, when they scored almost at will. The game was not extraordinarily fast, although some brilliant playing was done in spots. The Lindsay team was outclassed, and at no time were they very dangerous. They scored the first goal, but after that it was all off. The locals took the lead and were never headed. The half time score was 6—2 in favor of the locals, who added 11 in the second period, while the visitors were notching three, leaving the final score 17 to 5. The game was not finished, the Scugog bunch quitting with eleven minutes to play, and the locals ramming them in about one a minute.

The game was not very rough, though some heavy body checking was done. Reilly was placed hors de combat by a heavy jolt into the boards by Crowley, and Duffus received a hasty cut over the eye from Cavanah's stick while the latter was in the act of shooting.

The Peterborough team put up a great game. They were somewhat off color at the beginning of the game, especially in shooting, but they gingered up in the last half and played lightning hockey. They were very strong at the finish and the forward line worked like clock work. Their combination was very effective, nearly every goal being scored on a combined rush.

Wasson turned aside many wicked looking shots and cleared well, although he displayed a tendency to leave his goal unguarded, which proved disastrous, as several of the goals were scored with the nets empty. Glover put up a fine game at point, breaking up many dangerous rushes, and taking an occasional jaunt down the ice himself. Crowley was as effective as ever at cover point, and it kept the Scugog bunch guessing to pass him. His rushes were also very pretty. The forwards played a great combination game. Cavanah at rover was reliable and speedy as usual, and his terrific shots kept the Lindsay defence on the jump all the way through. Parnell at right wing played the game of his life. His stickhandling was very brilliant and he was always in his place. He checked back like a flash and broke up many rushes in that way. Morgan furnished the goods in great style. He was always there or thereabouts when it was time for a shot, and generally found the nets. Chris. Graham was only on a few minutes when he broke a skate and had to leave the ice.

After seeing the game last night the question that is causing a lot of amazement, is how Lindsay won from the locals on Monday night. They did not seem to be in the same class. The fowards were fast, but that was about all. They had no combination and their shooting was to the bad entirely. McGrath played a great game in goal, and had it not been for his brilliant work the score would have been even larger than it was. Irving, the much touted cover point, was not out of the ordinary. His main forte was his lifting. The forwards did some nice individual rushing, which was not very effective against the locals' strong defence. Duffus was the star and did some brilliant playing. Pringle worked hard at right wing.

Chaucer Elliott, of Kingston, was an ideal referee, and nothing escaped his eagle eye.

The teams faced each other like this:—

Peterborough (17)		Lindsay (5.)
	Goal
Wasson		McGrath
	Point.
Glover		Reilly
	Coverpoint.
Crowley		Irving (captain)
	Rover
Cavanah (capt)		Duffus
	Centre
Morgan		Taylor
	Right Wing
Parnell		Pringle
	Left Wing
Graham		Parkins

Referee, Chaucer Elliott, Kingston; goal umpires, H. Giloogly, Lindsay; Clark Earls, Peterborough; timekeepers, Dr. Walters, Lindsay; J. T. McCabe, Peterborough.

The play was very even for the first few minutes and the puck travelled from end to end several times without a score. Finally Pringle broke away, and dodging the Peterborough defence, notched the first goal in 4 1-2 minutes. Score 1—0. The Lindsay rooters went wild.

Wasson turned off a hot shot from Duffus. Graham broke his skate and had to go off, Lindsay dropping Goosie Taylor. Cavanah went off for one minute for a too strenuous body check. Morgan followed him for tripping. On his return he and Parnell worked a beautiful combination rush, Morgan scoring. Score, 1—0.

Irving went to the boards for bodying. The locals began to strike their gait and Morgan slammed one in from a mix-up. Score 2—1.

The locals kept pressing. Crowley sent Reilly into the boards with a heavy body check, and the lanky Lindsay point had to go off. Crowley was given one minute with the timekeepers. Taylor took Reilly's place. Cavanah uncorked a beautiful rush, passed to Parnell, and the umpire's hand went up. Score 3—1.

The game became rather rough. Irving again went off for cross checking Morgan, and the latter did time for bodying Parkins. Play was all in Lindsay territory. Morgan shot, but McGrath stopped it. Cavanah slammed the rubber in before the Lindsay goal keeper could clear. Score 4—1.

Parnell and Morgan broke away from the face-off and went through the whole defence, Parnell scoring. Score 5—1.

Lindsay woke up for a minute and "Goosie" Taylor scored after a nice rush in twenty seconds. Score 5—2.

Nothing could stop the locals. Morgan rushed and handed the rubber over to Cavanah, who scored on a nice shot from the side. Score 6—2. Half time.

Lindsay woke up for a few minutes at the beginning of the second half, and Pringle found the nets on an easy shot. Score 6—3.

It did not take the locals long to score another, Morgan shoving the puck in from a scrimmage in front of the visitors' nets. Score 7—3.

Pringle went off for tripping. Cavanah made a beautiful shot, which the locals claim landed in the nets, but Chaucer Elliott couldn't see it that way. Duffus got a bad crack over the eye from Cavanah's stick while the latter was shooting. A long delay ensued. The local forward line broke loose and Cavanah scored again. Score 8—3.

Lindsay brightened up for a while and pressed matters. Pringle made a nice rush down the side and fooled Wasson. Score 8—4.

A moment after Pringle again scored from a scrimmage, making the score 8—5. This ended Lindsay's scoring and the locals made a runaway game of it after this.

Morgan secured the puck near centre and jogged through the Lindsay defence for a goal. Score 9—5.

Taylor was hurt and went off, the locals dropping Glover. The game was finished with five men a side. Morgan found the nets again with a pretty shot. Score 10—5.

From the face-off Morgan passed the rubber over to Parnell, who made a beautiful dash along the boards and scored in 10 seconds. Score 11—5.

Lindsay rallied for a while, but it was of no avail. Crowley broke up a dangerous looking rush and dodging the Lindsay defence, scored with a pretty shot. Score 12—5.

Another beautiful rush by the same player resulted in another goal. Score 13—5.

The locals were scoring about one a minute. Cavanah and Morgan united for a pretty dash, the former scoring. Score 14—5.

Play was all in Lindsay territory. From a face-off in front of visitors' goal Morgan slammed in another one. Score 15—5.

Cavanah made a beautiful rush and passed to Parnell, whose shot found the nets. Score 16—5.

Cavanah took the puck through the whole Lindsay team for the final goal. Score 17—5.

There was still eleven minutes to play, but Lindsay concluded they had had enough and left the ice.

NOTES.

17—5.

Just what you'd expect from a Lindsay bunch.

The Grass Hoppers were there in full force and made themselves heard.

Lindsay had a large number of rooters along with them, but they hadn't much chance to cheer.

The gate receipts last night amounted to $290. Of this the local club will receive $159.50, and the Rink Company $130.50.

The Lonely Sale is On.

We did an enormous business in December—the result is that we have a lot of broken lines—only two or three suits of lines where we previously had fifty.

We want to clean these out and do so quickly—therefore we are taking the labels out of the suits and overcoats and selling them for $10.00.

These are the same suits which previously sold at, $20.00, $18.00, $15.00 and $12.00.

Only one price for "Lonelies"—$10.00.

Why suffer from weak nerves, want of appetite and general debility, letting the loss of sleep and rest, impoverish the system and thin the blood, when such a really meritorious remedy as Northrop & Lyman's Quinine Wine may be had at any drug store. The article is highly recommended by the members of the medical faculty in cases of indigestion, general debility, loss of appetite and nervous affections of all kinds. It is also specially good to children and delicate females, and to business men, students and those who have much brain work. It is pleasant to the taste and contains nothing injurious to the most delicate constitution. Remember, you ask for Quinine Wine, prepared by Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, and we are sure you will be satisfied that you have full value for your money.

Remember Whitney meeting, Market Hall, Thursday night, Jan. 19th.

THE WHITNEY MEETING

Opposition Leader Will be Cordially Greeted Thursday Night.

The Whitney meeting in the market hall on Thursday night promises to be a record breaker in point of attendance. The Opposition leader will be accorded a welcome worthy of the town and the great cause and party he represents. He has been speaking to overflowing audiences—both in enthusiasm and in attendance—in all parts of the province, and his reception here will be of the same hearty character on Thursday night.

The market hall is a large, roomy building and will be thoroughly heated and made comfortable in every respect. The public is cordially invited to attend and special accommodation will be provided for ladies and their escorts.

Mr Bradburn, the coming representative of West Peterborough in the Ontario Legislature, Mr. R. Max. Dennistoun and Mr. Whitney, will be the speakers. The chair will be taken at eight o'clock.

Turn out on Thursday night next and cheer for Whitney, Bradburn and clean, honest and progressive government.

ANARCHY IN RUSSIA

Admitted in Official Quarters That the Condition Exists.

Special to The Review.

St. Petersburg, January 16—It is admitted in official quarters that anarchy prevails throughout the empire, including St. Petersburg itself. Russian statesmen, it is further admitted, are casting about for some means to bring the war to an end.

At Lodz yesterday rioters fired 50 shots at the police, wounding one of the officers. The police replied with a volley, killing the standard bearer of the rioters. Sixteen of the disturbers were arrested.

Y. M. C. A. Rink.

The Y.M.C.A. rink is available at a reasonable rental for any clubs wishing to arrange for matches.

Another Good Address.

A large crowd and another practical and impressive address by Rev. H. B. A. Ketchen were the features of the popular men's meeting at the Y.M.C.A. yesterday. Mr. James Brown sang "The Silver Chord," with splendid effect. Mr. Holmes speaks next Sunday.

BIG PRIMROSE SALE.

Build up Ontario Morally and Materially.

"The ballot is the medium through which the will of the Sovereign people is expressed; and he who lays unholy hands upon that sacred trust is as much a traitor as the man who aids the enemy of his king and his country."

CAMPAIGN ECHOES.

Ross is a goner.

G. W. R. stands for Gone Wrong Ross.

Cast your ballots for Bradburn and Moore.

Two upright, intelligent candidates —Bradburn and Moore.

One more week and victory will be with the Conservatives.

If the Conservative leader removes from Halifax to Ottawa he will not take up house in the Capital, but go Borden.

Bradburn and Moore will prove splendid followers of Col. Whitney in the cause of clean, honest government.

And still nothing has been done to relieve the congestion or to increase the accommodation at the Peterborough post office.

Turn out and hear Whitney on Thursday night. His reception will be no cold hearted, lifeless, frosty formal affair like the Grit meeting in the opera house on Friday night last.

The Globe virtually admits the defeat of the Ross Government when it has so much to say on Mr. Whitney's cabinet and pleads for the appointment of Dr. Beatty Nesbitt as a Minister.

"The change is in the air," remarked a George-st. business man to-day. "Are you referring to this cold weather was asked. "No," came the emphatic reply. "I mean a political —change—a grand Conservative victory."

The reverend editor of the Globe, who gravely announced that he was prepared to "look the blackest page in the history of the government in the face and still stand by Ross," is announced to speak here on behalf of the Grit candidate. Perhaps he will bring his famous "barnacle" and "the present distress" editorials with him.

"These open letters," says an exchange, "seem to be rather dangerous things. Rev. Mr. Hossack has found that his was the opening of a good many passages leading through a chequered and labyrinthine past. Better to have kept it, too, sealed with seven seals."

Mr. Hossack appears to be quite vigorous still judging by the force and directness of his epistles and the way he handles His Reverence of the Globe.

The Ottawa Free Press says:—"It is now clear that Mr. Whitney received the coalition proposal of Premier Ross through a private wire at Hawaii, which tapped a circuit running from Tokio to the North Pole, and that it went into his hands direct from the Mujik of Murrrubidgee."

Well, well! Perhaps the Free Press got its famous special despatches from Toronto, relative to Editor Willison being forced to leave the Globe owing to his articles on coalition, by something like the same route. The Free Press is great on "political specials," but it never got one half as direct and straight as Mr. Whitney received the overture of coalition from a Minister of the Ross Cabinet and the Premier himself has taken mighty good care not to deny the assertion of the Opposition leader.

The sermon to the council by Rev. Dr. Crothers in St. Paul's church last night had the right ring about it. His references to the town were complimentary and he opened the eyes of not a few to the importance of civic government, its duties, privileges and responsibilities. He emphasized the need of public progressive spirit and taking a broad outlook of the future. He gave some sound advice on not criticizing our municipal legislators too severely, but to try and view all matters from both the standpoint of a citizen and a councillor. The preacher struck the nail squarely on the head when he said that the most dangerous person in any community was the indifferent man. He claimed, and rightly so, that the pulpit, while it had no right to take sides with mere party, should freely speak its mind on all principles and questions affecting the material, moral welfare of the people. The citizens will also agree with the doctor in that a man should be proud of three things—his church (whatever it may be), his country and his town. If he is not the world is wide and he has a chance to go elsewhere, for his room is required at home by some one else.

BROKEN PLEDGES

Ultra Partisans of the Archie Campbell type, who are today gushing over the real or imagined virtues of Hon. G. W. Ross, remind us of bygone Liberals of a better day and school, and attempt comparisons favorable to Mr. Ross, and for such purpose cite such names as Mowat, Mackenzie, Brown, Baldwin and others.

Let us see what the Hon. Geo. Brown has to say of pledge breakers. Speaking in the Parliament of Canada session of 1851 he said—

"There is no principle in the theory of responsible Government more vital to its right working than that the parties shall take their stand on the prominent questions of the day and mount to office or resign it through the success or failure of principles to which they are attached. This is the great safeguard for the public against clap-trap professions, and when strictly enforced it makes men seriously consider ere they commit themselves on leading questions. If a public man can hold one set of principles out of office and another in office, responsible Government is a farce."

What do the Temperance people of the Province think of Mr. Ross and his clap-trap professions?

Mr. W. E. Raney, a prominent Liberal and Temperance man, in a letter to the Toronto News of the 4th of January, 1905, puts the matter truly and concisely. This is what he says—

We have these outstanding facts—

"(1) Acting on the advice of his friends in convention assembled, who in turn were acting on the advice of the active young blood in Mr Ross' Cabinet, Mr. Ross deliberately broke his deliberate and often renewed promise and (2) the substitutes which Mr. Ross now offers for his broken promises were not asked for and whatever their practical value, might have been had at any time during the 25 years for the asking."

We think that Mr. Ross falls well within the late Hon. George Brown's definition of a pledge-breaker.

IN THE PETERBOROUGHS.

The present contests in the Peterboroughs are somewhat unique in the fact that while the candidates have been working hard, there has not been a great deal of excitement over the fray and so far no personalities have been indulged in. In the west riding at the federal election we had the now Liberal candidate refusing to sit on the same platform, enter the same hall or have anything to do with the present federal representative, whom he had charged with euchring him out of the nomination. Mr. McWilliams was then going as an independent, in accord with Mr. Borden's national railway policy and would have nothing to do with the Liberal organization in the west riding. Rather than step out of politics altogether he made a few speeches in behalf of Mr. Finlay in East Peterborough. But once again he is back in the fold after his little break, due perhaps to inordinate ambition, and is proclaiming himself as the duly selected standard bearer of his party. However, a large number of his friends are not taking him seriously and the good old stalwarts are hanging aloof. They are not mixing up any in the present fight nor are they rendering the Liberal candidate any service or assistance. It is an open secret that the Liberal organization is weak and even those who presume to take an interest in the work, have a sort of milk and water enthusiasm. They recognize that the Ross Government is in its death throes, that there is not a ghost of a chance of that decrepit and discredited administration being sustained by the people and they do not care to be on the losing side. Mr. McWilliams lost support, prestige and confidence with his party when he made that little break in November last and the majority of stern, hard thinking citizens have but little use for a man who, when he cannot get what he is after, sulks and threatens to go over to the enemy, or undermine the organization which he deserted. However all this is perhaps Mr. McWilliams own business and if the true and steadfast workers in the late election are not crowding to his support this time, he has only himself to blame.

On the other hand Mr. Bradburn has not been a wobbler. He has been one of the most indefatigable and faithful workers in the Conservative party for years and did not like the opponent seek a nomination. It was rather a case of the honor seeking him. His friends are working energetically in his behalf and while they are doing no boasting they feel that the thorough canvass which he has conducted, ably assisted by a corps of willing workers will manifest itself on the 25th by placing him at the head of the polls and redeeming West Peterborough in the cause of honest, clean and progressive government.

In the east riding, Mr. H. A. Moore the wide awake Conservative candidate has not been holding a series of meetings and making a big flourish over the fact, but he has canvassed the riding as no other man has ever done and has received assurance of support in every quarter sufficient to justify his friends in stating that on election day he will trim Mr. Anderson by a substantial majority. Mr. Moore will hold a series of gatherings after nomination and will be assisted by several good speakers.

A few more days of hard, united and faithful work and the Peterboroughs will send two good representatives to support Ontario's next premier, Mr. J. P. Whitney and honest, clean government.

For Over Sixty Years

An old and well-tried remedy.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Sold by all druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

THEBES GLASS WORKERS.

The High Art That Flourished Over Forty Centuries Ago.

The glassblowers of ancient Thebes are known to have been equally as proficient in that particular art as is the most scientific craftsman of the same trade of the present day, after a lapse of over forty centuries of so called "progress." They were well acquainted with the art of staining glass and are known to have produced that commodity in great profusion and perfection. Rossellini gives an illustration of a piece of stained glass known to be 4,000 years old which displayed artistic taste of high order, both in tint and design.

In this case the color is struck through the vitrified structure, and he mentions designs struck entirely in pieces from a half to three-quarters of an inch thick, the color being perfectly incorporated with the structure of the piece and exactly the same on both the obverse and reverse sides.

The priests of P'tah at Memphis were adepts in the glassmaker's art and not only did they have factories for manufacturing the common crystal variety, but they had learned the vitrifying of the different colors and of imitating precious stones to perfection. Their imitations of the amethyst and of the various other colored gems were so true to nature that even now, after they have lain in the desert sands from 2,000 to 4,000 years, it takes an expert to distinguish the genuine articles from the spurious. It has been shown that, besides being experts in glassmaking and coloring, they also used the diamond in cutting and engraving. In the British museum there is a beautiful piece of stained glass with an engraved emblazonment of the monarch Thothmes III., who lived 3,400 years ago.

Mistaken Kindness.

Jack—Hello, old man! Awfully glad to see you. Here, take off that coat and put on this smoking jacket and make yourself comfortable. Dick—Deuce take it! Do you mean to insinuate that I don't feel comfortable in a dress suit?

Simplicity has always been held to be a mark of truth. It is also a mark of genius.

INDIAN MISSION WORK

Miss McKellar Gave An Interesting Address in St. Andrew's Church.

There was a very large attendance at St. Andrew's church last evening to hear Miss Dr. McKellar, formerly of Neemutch, Central India, speak of mission work being done in that part of the world. Miss McKellar is eminently qualified to discourse on such a subject, as she has spent fourteen years in India. Her address last night cannot have failed to rouse interest in such an important part of missionary work.

In beginning Miss McKellar urged her hearers to begin the New Year aright by being more zealous in doing the Master's work, particularly in aiding the mission field.

A large proportion of the world's inhabitants had never heard the name of Jesus. In India alone there were nearly 300,000,000 people who were not Christians. Mission work had been going on in that country for nearly one hundred years and there are at the present time about 3,000,000 Christians. There were a very great number of Mohammedans and Buddhists whose religion did not make their lives any more holy than those of persons who had no professed religion. Any person could become a Mohammedan by holding up one finger and saying "There is but one God and Mahomet is his prophet. Thousands and thousands of the people of India were idol worshippers.

Miss McKellar touched briefly upon the great famine which devastated India four years ago and said that its horrors and suffering were as bad or worse than they have been pictured. At the mission at Neemutch they had often fed as many as twelve hundred people daily during the period of famine. This great calamity had left a legacy to the mission work. The missionaries were able to assume control of hundreds of children where formerly they had not been able to obtain possession of one. These had been placed in orphanages and industrial schools where they received a deep religious training as well as being taught different trades. They were looked upon as children who would become of great assistance to the work in the near future.

Miss McKellar also dealt with the terrible plague which has caused so much loss of life in India. In this connection she paid an eloquent tribute to the late Dr. Menzies, whose heroic efforts to stop the plague and wait upon the patients afflicted with it, cost him his life.

The mission workers at Neemutch had built a church capable of accommodating six hundred people. All the money for this purpose had been raised in India.

Miss McCutcheon, of Toronto, gave an excellent rendition of "The Holy City" during the service.

JAPS' DISASTROUS DAY

January 10 a Whole Regiment Was Annihilated.

Russians Drew the Little Fellows On When a Murderous Fire From a Masked Battery Completely Decimated Their Ranks—Heaps of Dead and Wounded Were Left On the Field and Russians Took Jap Positions.

Hsunchan, Jan. 13.—(Via Mukden.)—Jan. 16.—There has been no serious fighting for several days, though night skirmishes on both sides continue. The most important action recently was that in which Captains Kosinoff and Troitgzki, with 75 Cossacks, drove the Japanese out of the Villages of Mitzi and Tkhangay and captured a large amount of forage at both places. Gen. Linevitch has been inspecting the whole front and finds that the men and supplies are in excellent condition.

Jap Regiment Annihilated.

On Jan. 10 a Japanese regiment advanced in the face of a furious fire from batteries and drove back the Russian outposts, who drew on the Japanese to a masked battery and later allowed them to come on suddenly, when the Russians opened a murderous fire, the infantry at the same time falling on the Japanese flanks. The Japanese regiment was almost completely annihilated and the remainder fled in wild disorder, leaving heaps of dead and wounded on the field. The Russians pressed the pursuit and took the Japanese positions at noon. At noon the Japanese bombarded Liaofentun and Liutzyatun and also Line Tree and Novgotod Hills, which they appear to be extremely anxious to capture.

Presages Some Big Doings.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 16.—The war office does not admit the appearance of Gen. Mistchenko's cavalry southwest of Liaoyang is more than a raiding expedition designed to strike the railroad at several points and interrupt the transportation of Gen. Nogi's guns from Port Arthur to Manchuria, but from certain indications it seems possible that it is preliminary to an operation of magnitude.

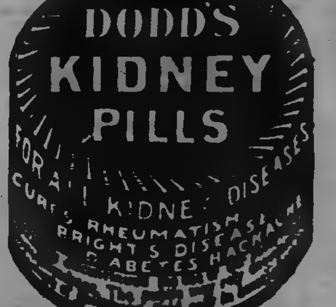
Gen. Mistchenko has over 20,000 horsemen, and moving rapidly might be able to seriously damage communications in the rear of Liaoyang. The tone of the despatches from some Russian correspondents vaguely hints at very important developments, and the military writer for The Novoe Vremya expresses the opinion that the long calm since the battle of Shakhe is about to be broken.

Invade Neutral Territory.

Tokio, Jan. 16.—Later reports from Newchwang indicate that Gen. Mistchenko's Cossacks, in their recent raidings southwest of Liaoyang, deliberately invaded neutral territory and broke the limit of the war zone. The reported Russian note to the powers, calling attention to China's non-enforcement of neutrality, is regarded here in some quarters as absurd. It is felt that China's weakness and constant failure to enforce neutrality must release Japan from obligations to observe restrictions which Russia openly ignores. While the extension of belligerent territory it to be regretted, it is felt that Japan must take steps to protect herself against the repetition of the raiding expeditions whose success depends on the violation of neutral territory.

Stoessel Didn't Fortify Hill.

London, Jan. 16.—Under date of Jan. 15, the Port Arthur correspondent of The Times says: Gen. Nogi attended by his staff, the divisional commanders and foreign attaches, reviewed detachments of all arms in the new town square to-day. There was a stirring display. The generals afterwards marched through the town, which shows few signs of bombardment. No casualties occurred to women or children, who lived in the houses throughout the siege. Champagne was always obtainable. There was little dysentery or typhus, but much scurvy, owing to the lack of vegetables. It seems that General Stoessel was responsible for the failure to fortify Roju Hill. Many of his military officers were useless, applying for leave on occasions of attack, and leaving their commands to sergeants. The naval officers were useless and generally drunk.



TELLS THEM TO FIGHT.

Czar's Latest Rescript to the Army and the Navy.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 16.—Emperor Nicholas has addressed the following rescript to the army and navy:

"Port Arthur has passed into the hands of the enemy. During eleven months the fight has been going on in its defence. More than seven months its noble defenders had been cut off from the rest of the world. Without any positive assurance of relief, they continued to fight and did everything in their power to check the progress of the enemy, sparing neither life nor heart's blood to uphold the honor of the Russian people.

"Russia, with pride and admiration, followed each move in the contest. The whole world was astounded at their gallantry, but daily their ranks were thinned, their powers of resistance diminished, and, under repeated attacks by the enemy, they were obliged to give way. Peace, honor and undying memory will be the portion of your Russians who have fallen in the defence of Port Arthur. Far from home you have laid your bodies upon alien soil, a sacrifice to the dictates of your own honor and the demands of your Emperor.

"Peace and honor be your portion. Always will you be so held in our hearts and memory. Honor to the living, may God restore you to health and strength and give you patience to face this disaster with which yau are confronted.

"My gallant troops and sailors: Do not let this sorrow dismay you. Our enemy is strong and daring. This fight against them occurs 7,000 miles from our home, but Russia is powerful. In the thousand years of its existence there have been still heavier trials, worse and more threatening dangers, but Russia ever arose from trial with renewed force and strength. Do not let your souls be troubled by lack of success and heavy losses. Russian strength grows with adversity.

"With all Russia I join in the belief that the time is coming when God will give strength to our glorious army and navy to arise and break the forces of the enemy.

"(Signed) Nicholas."

Hope of Peace Gone.

London, Jan. 16.—The tone of the rescript addressed by Emperor Nicholas to the army and navy is regarded here as putting an end to all present hopes of possibility of mediation or peace and as indicating the likelihood that General Kuropatkin soon will resume the offensive. A despatch to Lloyd from Yinkow, dated Jan. 15, gives a report that Gen. Mistchenko's raiding force was cut off on its way back by 8,000 Japanese despatched from Sanlihoo by Gen. Oku. This report, however, is not confirmed. The Daily Telegraph's Che Foo correspondent says the raid was only a divergence from a mass of cavalry now moving down the banks of the Liao River, and that the exceptional mildness of the season affords a chance for the repetition of such operations.

Fishermen to Clear Port Arthur.

Tokio, Jan 16.—It is reported that a hundred fishermen will be sent to Port Arthur to assist in clearing the harbor and vicinity of mines.

Jap Memorial Service.

Headquarters of the Japanese Third Army, Jan. 16, via Fusan.—Gen. Nogi in addressing the army at a memorial service yesterday, paid a tribute to the services to those who had fallen during the siege of Port Arthur. He said the splendid work of those who had given up their lives resulted in the successful capture of the fortress and he desired to share the honor with the spirits of those who died to bring success. The place chosen for the memorial services was under the shadow of the hills where the life blood of the heroes was spilled.

British Ships Seized.

Nagasaki, Jan. 16.—The British ship Roseley, which was seized Jan. 11 by a Japanese warship, while carrying a cargo of coal to Vladivostock, has arrived at Sasebo.

Japs Pursue Yankee Cruiser.

San Francisco, Jan. 16.—Surgeon Von Wedekind of the United States cruiser Cincinnati arrived here yesterday and gives evidence of the vigilance of the Japanese naval officers. He says that on one occasion a Japanese torpedo boat destroyer steamed rapidly after the Cincinnati and did not stop until after reading her name. A five-inch gun was trained on the destroyer, but it soon became evident that its officers only wanted to make sure of the cruiser's identity.

REMOVE THAT EMBARGO.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman Favors Freedom For Canadian Cattle.

London, Jan. 16.—A deputation convened by Mr. Pattullo, secretary of the Canadian Cattle Importation Association, has interviewed Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, M. P., Opposition leader, as to his attitude regarding the re-opening of British ports to Canadian cattle, which they said would benefit both the agricultural and shipping interests. Replying, Sir Henry said as for himself he was in favor of Canadian cattle being admitted into this country, and had no idea the case for free trade was so strong. He hoped the public would understand the question, and he would do what he could to get the ports re-opened.

Poor Maude Gonne.

Paris, Jan. 16.—Maude Gonne MacBride arrived in Paris Saturday with the unhappy story of her divorce suit against the major, which is coming before the London courts in a few days. Mrs. MacBride desired for the sake of her child, which is one year old, to ask only a separation, and not an absolute divorce, but finding Major MacBride's terms too hard, a divorce was decided on. Mrs. MacBride charges drunkenness, infidelity and cruelty. The major keeps the $14,000 which Maude Gonne settled on him when they were married. He also wants the child for six months of the year, letting its mother keep it the rest of the time. To this she objected on the ground that the major's mother keeps a barroom in Paris.

Ocean Rate War Ends.

Liverpool, Jan. 16.—As a result of the meeting held Saturday between Lord Inverclyde, chairman of the Cunard Steamship Co., and J. Bruce Ismay, president of the International Mercantile Marine, all differences between the companies have been reconciled and the lines will increase rates generally, commencing July 17.

They're Civilized Now.

Colon, Jan. 16.—The canal dockmen and other laborers at San Cristobal, numbering 200, have struck. The men have refused to work for $1.50 per day, demanding $2 in silver, which is equivalent to $1 in gold, which the Colon dockmen receive.

STRATHCONA WILL PAY.

Damage Done to Royal Victoria Hospital Montreal, By Fire.

Montreal, Jan. 16.—Lord Strathcona has cabled to the authorities of the Royal Victoria Hospital that he will bear the cost of rebuilding the burned portion of the hospital.

Montreal was alarmed at an early hour Saturday morning by the report that the Royal Victoria Hospital was on fire.

It is unfortunately true that a portion of the grand collection of buildings suffered to the extent of several thousands of dollars, and there was much excitement among the patients; but, thanks to the admirable methods adopted in building the centre and east and west wings, there was at no time any danger whatever of the fire reaching the patients. Those who are in a position to know say that they think that $50,000 will cover the loss. Not a patient was hurt or even disturbed, with one exception, and forms the greatest cause for rejoicing.

The Royal Victoria Hospital has been occupied about 12 years. It was founded by Lord Strathcona and Lord Mount Stephen, who gave half a million dollars each towards its establishment.

Killed By a Train.

Copper Cliff, Jan. 16.—While walking the railroad track this side of Wahnapitae, John McMillan, aged 60 years, was struck by the second section of No. 2 and instantly killed. The unfortunate man's head was entirely severed from his body. The train crew immediately backed their train and the body was taken to the handcar house, pending the arrival of Dr. Struthers, the coroner. The victim of the accident was hard of hearing, and the wind being high, it is thought probable that he did not hear the train.

Costly Dish of Fudge.

St. Cloud, Minn., Jan. 16.—A fire which is said to have been started by the overturning of an alcohol lamp, over which some of the girls were cooking a dish of "fudge," totally destroyed Lawrence Hall, the ladies' dormitory, at the St. Cloud Normal School, Saturday night. The loss is $35,000; insurance, $13,000.

GEN. TREPOFF SHOT AT.

Moscow Student Fires At the Late Chief of Police.

Moscow, Jan. 16.—At the Nicholas Station last night, while Gen. Trepoff was bidding farewell to Grand Duke Sergius on his departure for St. Petersburg, a young man wearing a student's cap fired three shots from a revolver at the general. All the shots missed Gen. Trepoff. Grand Duke Sergius proceeded on his journey.

Gen Trepoff, who recently was relieved of the office of chief of police of Moscow, and ordered to the front, as head of the Red Cross Society in Manchuria, incurred the special enmity of students of Moscow by the severity with which he put down their demonstrations of Dec. 18 and 19, 1904.

Was Cured of Asthma

"I first used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine with my daughter, who suffered from a severe form of asthma. The least exposure to cold would lay her up and she would nearly suffocate for want of breath. I must say I found it to be a most satisfactory treatment and it has entirely cured her."—Mrs. A. A. VanBuskirk, Robinson Street Moncton, N.B.

WORKER OF MIRACLES.

Father Ignatius Tells How He Raised the Dead—Piece of the True Cross and Lourdes Water.

Father Ignatius Joseph Leycester Lyne, the famous Anglican monk of Llanthony Abbey, in Wales, who recently stated that he believed the days of miracles are not yet past, even to the healing of the sick and raising of the dead, told in an interview with a representative of The London Express of various occasions upon which as the agent of God he had performed what he called miracles.

One notable occasion was in the year 1862 when he and a fellow-worker named Redman were awakened one night by a woman who earnestly besought Father Ignatius that he would come out and save her daughter, who was dying of typhoid.

"Suddenly," said Father Ignatius, "I felt the command of our Lord upon me, and I rose up. All I said to my friend was, 'Do bring your relic with you.' He had a wonderful, beautiful relic, a piece of the wood of the true cross. We had a long walk and went as fast as we could.

FATHER IGNATIUS.

"When we reached the house the girl was dead. She had been dead two hours, and the body was already composed for burial. Upon an involuntary impulse, however, which I felt to be inspired, I took the relic of the cross from my friend and laid it upon the dead girl's breast. Then, in the words of the apostolic command, I cried, 'In the name of Jesus Christ, I say unto thee arise!'

"Slowly and stiffly the corpse arose in bed, and Redman, turning to me, cried, 'What have you done?'

"'I have done nothing,' I replied, 'but the Lord hath done great things indeed.'"

After this Father Ignatius harked back to the first time when the word of the Lord came upon him. This was at Plymouth, where a mother declined to allow her children to be baptized. Father Ignatius told her the curse of God would fall upon her, and within an hour the curse fell.

Suddenly, without warning, the woman's fourteen-year-old daughter was stricken with abject idiocy, and her whole body broke out from head to foot with the most loathsome sores. Doctors were entirely at a loss to diagnose the nature of the seizure, but it came home to the mother that through her sin the retributory hand of God had touched her children.

"Then," said Father Ignatius, "I heard a voice saying to me with greater and greater insistency 'to go to this child in my name.'

"I hurriedly obeyed the Divine command and went by the bedside of the sick girl. I commended her to the care of the Divine Physician. The answer to this prayer came almost in a moment, the answer of an overwhelming mercy, the miracle of a complete cure."

Another incident, among many others of which Father Ignatius spoke, is perhaps the most remarkable of all. It occurred when Llanthony Abbey was in course of building.

"I was with the brothers in the garden at recreation," explained Father Ignatius, "when news was brought to me of a terrible accident. For some reason great blocks of masonry which were being hoisted up suddenly shifted and fell, crushing to death a man who was working the pulleys.

"When the brothers came running up to me and told me what had happened I said, 'Wait a minute.' Then I ran as hard as I could to my cell and fetched a little flask I had of Lourdes water. When I reached the spot where they had laid the man, who was nothing but a bruised pulp, the brothers were standing around looking sadly on the dead.

"There could be no doubt he was dead. Think what would happen to your hand if a brick fell on it and then how your body would feel if you had been crushed by the weight of masonry that fell upon that man.

"But then it was no time for thinking, for I felt the Divine command upon me. I sprinkled the poor mangled corpse and in the name of the Lord commanded it to arise. Immediately it did so. Nay, more. The man without a word of any kind walked home to his lodgings without so much as a mark upon him."

An Air Purifying Fuel.

A new type of fuel has been devised by two gas engineers of Southend, England, the outcome of several years' patient investigation and experiments. The fuel is manufactured from what has hitherto been considered a waste product of chemical manufacture. This fuel is intended to supplant the asbestos or fire-clay balls which are at present utilized in gas-stove fires. It absorbs the blue Bunsen flame, which at present escapes, and converts it into heat. It also absorbs the carbonic oxide from the air, thereby considerably purifying the atmosphere, has no smell, burns brightly as a coal-fire, and, owing to the materials of which it is composed, is cheaper to produce than either fireclay or asbestos balls, while the substance is also practically inexhaustible. The fuel also has the quality of retaining the heat for a considerable time, and, when ignited, gives three times as much heat as is possible with the asbestos or fire clay, with the same consumption of gas.

PROVINCIAL ELECTIONS—1905.

Address to the Electors.

WEST RIDING OF PETERBOROUGH.

Gentlemen,—Having received at the hands of a duly constituted convention of the Liberal-Conservatives of the West Riding of Peterborough, the nomination for election to the Legislative Assembly of the Province, I have the honor to submit for your consideration my views respecting some of the important questions which may be expected to influence the Electorate at an early date.

SECRECY OF THE BALLOT.

This is a matter of paramount interest to every elector. It has from time to time been a boast, whether rightly or wrongly, that certain Conservatives have supported the Government candidate, it being openly asserted that this boast was born of actual knowledge. The form of ballot now in use makes this possible, and leaves it open for unscrupulous politicians to coerce voters over whom they are supposed to have some power. It has always been, and still is the policy of the Conservative party to render the ballot absolutely secret.

POLITICAL CORRUPTION.

To assert that the party now in power is as free from corrupt practices as the Opposition, is so idle and so opposed to the evidence that it requires no answer. The Government cannot escape the responsibility of the many atrocious acts which have come to light; the names of the recognized agents have appeared so often in connection with these transactions, and though the perpetrators have so flagrantly gone "unwhipped of Justice," no sane person will fail to condemn the authorities who have wilfully became accessories.

ADMINISTRATION.

The affairs of the Province have been so conducted that the expenditure has increased enormously out of proportion to the current revenue. Extravagance has been rampant, contracts for supplies for the public institutions have been awarded without competition; orders without number have been given to party friends, and for the purpose of securing the support of political opponents. The business of the Province has been under a management which, in the case of any large corporation, would not be tolerated. This Government, by virtue of its long lease of power, has become imbued with the idea that the people's money is to be spent for the pleasure and aggrandisement of the party in power. It is time that this state of things should be changed.

OPPOSITION POLICY.

It has been untruthfully stated that Mr Whitney and his followers are unable to, or have failed to pronounce a definite policy. No statement could be further from the truth. On the contrary, Mr. Whitney's policy is well defined with regard to the following among other matters:

1st. The Educational Department; the appointment of an advisory council from among the expert educationists of the Province.

2nd. The administration of the liquor law free from political influence.

3rd The reservation of the timber, (except pine) for the settler.

4th. A secret ballot for the protection of the voter.

5th. Breaking up the School Book Monopoly.

6th. Localization of the mining offices.

7th. Public ownership of revenue-bearing franchises for the benefit of of the Province.

8th. Branch agricultural colleges.

9th. Better inspection of factories, and labelling of prison made goods as prison made.

10th. To enact proper labor legislation for the prompt settlement of disputes.

11th. Encouragement of systems of sewerage in towns and villages.

The Liberal-Conservative party confidently appeal to the electorate at this time in the history of the Province, in the firm belief that the great heart of the people is with them in the determination to place in power men untainted by such debased associates as have brought the fair name of this Province into undeserved disrepute.

Gentlemen, if the principles which I have attempted to briefly outline commend themselves to your judgment, I ask your support and influence in favor of myself as the Liberal-Conservative candidate. In my humble way, if elected, I will, to the extent of my skill and power, assist in giving effect to these principles.

I have the honor to be,

Yours respectfully,

T. E. BRADBURN

Three Boys With Revolvers.

Toronto, Jan. 16.—Armed with loaded revolvers and with their pockets filled with loot, three lads, all in their 'teens, were rounded up last night and securely lodged in Wilton avenue police station with no less than six charges of housebreaking placed to their credit. Their names are: William Brown, 189 DeGrassi street; W. McNab, 393 Pape avenue, and Ernest Hunt, who escaped last fall from the Victoria Industrial School. They have for two weeks been engaged in a systematic career of housebreaking.

Fire Destroys Whole Family.

New York, Jan. 16.—William T. Mason, a lawyer, and his entire family, consisting of wife and two children, Ellen, 4 years old, and Marion, 6 months, with a servant, Annie Wells, lost their lives in a fire which partially destroyed the brown stone dwelling occupied by them in West 180th street yesterday morning.

Died From Exposure.

Rockton, Ont., Jan. 16.—John Smith, an old man, known as "Clockie" Smith, from the fact that he went about the country cleaning clocks, took refuge in Adam Thompson's Implement House, near this village, Friday night. He died from the result of the exposure a short time after being found Saturday.

Diavolo May Die.

Havana, Jan. 16.—Dr. Clark, known as "Diavolo," a bicyclist, during a performance at Cienfuegos Saturday, was probably fatally injured While alighting after a leap his bicycle broke, smashing "Diavolo's" face and fracturing his skull.

Newspaper Mulcted $2,500.

London, Jan. 16.—The suit of Stone v. The Galt Reporter was decided at the winter Assize Court here late Saturday afternoon. Damages to the extent of $10,000 were asked for, and the jury found a verdict for $2,500 for the plaintiff.

Indigestion and Headache

Mr. Duncan McPherson, Content, Alta., writes:—"I was for many years troubled with indigestion and headache, and derived no relief from the many remedies I used. A friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and after taking four boxes, the result is that I am once more in the full enjoyment of the blessings of good health."

SANDERSON'S

PETERBOROUGH.

Started off With a Hurrah!

The extraordinary sale of Winter Suits, Overcoats and Furnishings at H. LeBrun & Co.'s, which has started off with so many inducements, is an occasion of interest to men, young men and boys. The surprising reductions in the tailoring department, especially in black dress suits, and Scotch tweed and worsted suits, made to order, come in good time. Gentlemen who need a dress suit for the long social season ahead, will save good money by leaving their measures at LeBrun's at once. Full Dress Suits that formerly were made to order for $30, are now reduced to $25, formerly $35 and $40, reduced to $28 and $30, with a very large stock of cloths to choose from. Men's Dress Trousers, that were formerly made to order for $7.50, are reduced to $6, and Scotch Tweed Worsted Trousers are reduced from $4 and $4.50, to $3 and $3.50. We take your measure and make up just as carefully as if you were paying the full price. Our cutter, Mr. Thompson, will fit you just as fashionably and as accurately as he always does.

COUNCIL AT PUBLIC WORSHIP REV. DR. CROTHERS' SERMON

Speaker Pointed To High Ideals of Citizenship and Discussed Questions of Importance.

DENOUNCED POLITICAL WRONG DOING.

Said Temperance Laws Have Not Been Enforced as They Might Have Been—Influx of Foreigners Makes Serious Problem—Co-operation of Christian Citizens Asked in Behalf of Representatives.

His Worship, the Mayor, and Aldermen, have begun the year well. Last evening, on the invitation of Rev. Dr. Torrance, they attended public worship in St. Paul's Presbyterian church, where a sermon which pointed both representatives and people to high ideals of citizenship, was delivered by Rev. Dr. Crothers, pastor of George street Methodist church. It was a sermon which enthroned responsibility and duty and surrounded them with subjects loyal to their God and King, and filled with patriotism to their country and town. The speaker, as it were, unfolded a chart, on which he revealed the dangerous rocks which are to be avoided and likewise told of the location of the buoys that guided the ship of state—the craft municipal as well as national—into safe waters. It was an excellent sermon, and was undoubtedly appreciated by the large congregation present. The gentlemen of the municipal Council who attended in a body were: His Worship, Mayor Best; Aldermen Frank Adams, Joseph Batten, Wm. Scott, Archibald McIntyre, G. J. Tovey, Adam Hall, Joseph Crowe, R. Hicks, R. H. Leary, E. F. Mason, and W. J. Johnston. Mr. G. M. Roger, last year's Mayor, and ex-Ald. R. F. McWilliams, both members of St. Paul's were also present, their pews being appropriately near those occupied by the visiting body. Mr. Geo. I. Rossel, Chief of Police, accompanied the Council, presumably to see that there was no hitch, and of course also to enjoy the service.

NO MEAN CITY.

Rev. Dr. Crothers spoke from Acts 21: 39, "A citizen of no mean city." By appointment of the Ministerial Association of the town, he said, he was present—not for the purpose of giving instruction, nor to exhort the honorable body of men who direct the municipal affairs for this year— but in the fear of God to discuss certain matters which ought to be of interest to all. We believe, in this land of ours, there should be entire separation between church and state, that all branches of the church are equal in the eye of the law, and we believe in a free church and a free state. We believe, moreover, that our country is a Christian country, that its constitution is based upon the principles taught by our Lord Jesus Christ, hence it is the opportunity of every church to do its utmost to aid in the advancement of the best interests of its country. There are three things which every man should hold aloft, and of which he should be proud—his church, his country and his town. We represent here to night, I suppose, different churches, but most of us, I presume, are of one country, and I fancy of one town. Just now I want to emphasize these three things, and Christian citizenship is a fit and proper theme to be discussed in the pulpit on the Lord's Day. St. Paul, I think, illustrated the principles I have stated. He gloried in the Gospel. He was proud to be a Roman citizen, and he does not hesitate to avail himself of the privileges of a Roman citizen, and then again he was proud of the city he had been born and received his early education in—Tarsus in Cilicia.

PRIVILEGES OF CITIZENSHIP

Let us look for a little at the privileges of citizenship and in so doing we may take a broad view, for we have much for which we might be thankful. I suppose most of us, if not all, are subjects of King Edward—the best King who has ever sat on the throne of the British Empire—and citizens of the grandest Empire that has ever existed. Alexander did not rule over such an Empire, and the Roman Empire in the days when her eagle flashed from the Baltic seas to where the Euphrates flowed, was small compared with the British Empire today. When we think that King Edward rules over a little less than one-quarter of the area of this earth, when we remember that he rules over a little more than one-quarter of the population of this world, something over four hundred millions, when we remember that the Empire has about one-third of the world's trade, when we think of the gigantic stretch of Empire, in which Canada is the broadest, grandest and most beautiful—is it not something for which we should be profoundly thankful, not to say proud, that we are part and parcel of such a mighty Empire.

GLORIOUS DOMINION.

Then of our Dominion it may be said, "of no mean city." We may look at its wide expanse from sea to sea, having a larger wheat growing area than the United States well called the granary of the Empire, and which, if all goes well, will in a few years be able to supply the United Kingdom with all the grain required. When we think of the forests, mines and fisheries, of the constitution we possess; and when we think of the boundless possibilities that are before this young land, we have a subject on which Christian citizens might ponder long. We think of the development of this country, how the Provinces have been moulded into one stable Dominion, we see the wise foresight of men "who served their generation by the will of God, and have fallen asleep." Here and there you find monuments, here and there you find their memories kept green. So long as Canada stands will the name of Sir John A. Macdonald be remembered, and his words will long remain an inspiration—"A British subject I was born, a British subject I will die." When we think that these Provinces are now one, with all the privileges of a nation yet under the red cross banner, the words of Kipling come to us:—

"A nation spoke to a nation,
A Queen sent words to a throne—
Daughter am I, in my mother's house
But mistress in my own.
The gates are mine to open,
As the gates are mine to close,
And I abide by my mother's house,
Said our Lady of the Snows."

Then, again, look at our own Province of Ontario. We have reason to be thankful to Almighty God that the lines have fallen to us in pleasant places. He has given us a goodly heritage. Handed down to us, without money and without price, through the love and labor of those who have gone home, here we have constitutional Government, a free press and all those things that are dear to a British subject.

PETERBOROUGH NO MEAN PLACE

This town in which we dwell is no mean place. Providence and the generosity of those departed have done much to make this town beautiful. It has fine parks, and is well supplied with schools. It is easy of access and trade and manufactories have been drawn hither. The population is increasing and in the near future this town is bound to become a city. Who that dwells in this town is ashamed of it? He ought to get away as soon as possible, because his room is required by someone who will hold the town along. With almost every privilege there is responsibility, and it is so in this case. The responsibilities that rest upon us as citizens are neither few, nor are they small. Authority is God-given. There may be various forms of government, which are the creation of men. We believe in the sovereignty of God over and above all, and authority is traceable in its last analysis, to Almighty God. Anarchy and and lawlessness are usurpers in God's providential arrangement. Look all through nature and you will find law, but there are problems constantly rising for solution. So, with the great development of this country there are dangers as well, and citizens must consider these dangers and problems.

LICENSE LAWS.

Looking at certain things from the standpoint of one citizen at least, for he supposed that there were those who would not agree with him, the speaker referred to some of these dangers. One was intemperance, which he considered a plague, not only to this country, but to others. If we are to believe the statements of the highest judges, statesmen and politicians, it is the cause of three-quarters of the crime, the poverty and suffering of the country. Laws have not been enforced as they ought to be. We possess not a bad license law, as laws hold, but is it kept or carried out as it might be? I made this statement about a year ago in my own pulpit, and I was not taken to task for it. I said if the license laws of Ontario had been carried out as they might have been, you could not gather a corporal's guard at a temperance convention to agitate prohibition. But they have not been carried out. They might have been in some solitary cases, but as far as my observation goes, they have not been enforced in Ontario as they might have been. Here are men brought up once, twice, three times, and by some kind of necromancy it is always the first offence, until the people up and down the Province have grown heart-sick over this thing.

INCOMIG HORDES.

Take the immigration question—the foreign population coming to our shores. A few years ago it surged toward the United States. But the free land is exhausted, and in fact large numbers are coming over from the States. We welcome those from the home land, the Scotch, the Irish the English—would to God we had thousands more. It is a pity as we think tonight of thousands starving in London, because they can get no work—a pity that they cannot be transported to our Northwest to provide homes for themselves. But what about the Italians, the Galicians, the Doukhobors and others from Europe, coming into this country. I am not going to say, Keep them out—but here is a problem for every Christian citizen to solve. It will work itself out somehow, but we have to assist in working it out. These people sometimes forget that they are not in their own down trodden country, and we hear of cases where the knife has been quickly drawn. They ought to be made to pay a price for the great freedom they will obtain in this country, and naturalization must not be made too easy. The Mormon question is looming up in the Northwest, and our statesmen, our law-makers, will have to grapple with it in the next twenty years. We must be prepared for it, and apply the most drastic remedy. Duty must be done, no matter what the consequences.

CORRUPTION IN POLITICS.

Political impurity and dishonesty is another problem that demands attention of every citizen. Sometimes people seem to think that the Gospel has nothing to do with political relations. It certainly has nothing to do with party. This country must be governed by party, which is simply difference of opinion. The Gospel has nothing to do with it, only so far as principle is concerned, but the Gospel has everything to do with political relations. Those who read of the election trials from day to day, know well what I mean and I need not particularize. The man who would interfere with your will as expressed by ballot, or in any way influence you, is doing wrong. He might better burglarize your house than interfere in such a way. The tale is sickening, as we read it, and it is time that the pulpit ought to speak out in no uncertain way. These are matters in our own keeping. The Right. Hon. John Morley, when he visited Toronto, said it was part of a man's duty to see that his country was governed well, and this responsibility rests upon us here tonight.

We must not fancy that all of the responsibility rests upon the Aldermen. We have placed them in that position and they represent us for the time being. They have directly or indirectly under their charge the affairs of such important departments as the police, the poor relief, sanitation—it is necessary that there be proper sewers—the appointment of a Board of Health, of certain members of the Board of Education, water supply, the control of streets and bridges, fire protection, the granting of franchise, and as wise, far-seeing men they will exercise their powers to attract enterprises or manufactories, hither. But let us remember that they are men just like ourselves, and because we have placed them there we have not conferred upon them any miraculous powers. We must give them our co-operation. The Council must not confine themselves to this year or the next, but they must think of the next 25 years, so far as this town is concerned. Canada must grow and Peterborough must grow and become a large city. With the completion of the Trent Canal, opening other means of transportation, and when you think of the possibilities before this community, it will require a wise prophet to speak of the increase during the next 25 years.

WISE LEGISLATION NEEDED

The physical, mental and moral of this incoming population must be considered in all wise legislation. Sometimes citizens are unreasonable. Men who are candidates for the Council will make promises, and that honestly, thinking they are the proper ones to make. I went down to the Opera House to hear municipal questions discussed, but heard few promises made. But when men go into the Council, especially for the first time, they find they are not able to keep those promises. There is nothing at all dishonorable if they find that in the best interests of the town they cannot do so.

Citizens may help Council by taking an interest in the proceedings; there is little of this. For instance, how many prayers were offered last year for the Mayor and Council. We should pray for the Council just as we do for the King and those in authority over us. Let us remember, also, that these men, elevated to this position, are examples to our children. We want our Aldermen to be examples, men we can point to with pride, and I believe we can point our boys to them and say these are the men we have appointed to represent us during the year. If the Aldermen manage the town's business as well as they manage their own we can ask no more of them. Whatever is valuable as a franchise belongs to the citizens as a whole, and it is managed by the Council for them. Men do not barter away for nothing their own property, and I assume these men will guard as carefully everything that is valuable to this town as they guard their own property, and that they will not tie up for a long term of years that which may become of value to the community. Their position and responsibility can bring pressure to bear in many directions. They can promote morality, for instance, by forbidding show bills of an immoral character; although I have seen nothing of that kind here. By a proper system of sewage they can safeguard the public health. In some cities it is forbidden to expectorate on the streets. Two hundred thousand die annually in the United States from consumption. I tell you a consumptive can scatter twenty thousand millions of bacilli or germs of that disease in one day. You will see that some of these Councils know what they are doing. There are from fifty to one hundred in Peterborough and vicinity attacked already with that disease.

THE BOYS.

The most valuable asset which this town possesses is the boys. The speaker here denounced the cigarette evil, and with regard also to the gambling evil, held that the Council could do something directly or indirectly against it. Modern conditions had a tendency to bring young men to the centres of population, and temptations to evil were strong.

The scandals in American cities, where valuable franchises were given away and made productive of private gain also had its warning. There was no need in municipal politics, to follow the Dominion or Provincial plan. A man could do as good work just as well whether belonging to one party or the other. If citizens generallly exercised independence, an-

OLD RESIDENT GONE

Mr. Joseph Gagnon Dies After a Long Illness.

ning of Mr. Joseph Gagnon, who for many years has been a resident of Peterborough. The deceased was fifty-nine years of age and had been ill for nearly three years. He was born in Quebec, but came to Peterborough when very young and has lived here ever since.

His wife and seven children survive. The children are Mrs. John Murphy, town; Napoleon Gagnon, Buffalo; Fred Gagnon, Buffalo; Medas and George Gagnon, town; Mrs. Frank Murphy and Miss Hattie Gagnon, town.

The funeral will take place on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock from the family residence, 49 Smith-st. and proceed to St. Peter's Cathedral and thence to the Roman Catholic cemetery for interment.

THE LATE MR. MCGIMSIE

Robert McGimsie, who had many friends here, died at New York City on Dec. 27th, 1904, with pneumonia at the General Hospital after an illness of five days. His body was taken to his former home, Rochester and remains placed in the Riverside cemetery.

Mr. McGimsie was 44 years old. He leaves behind him to mourn his loss, a widow and one child, Gladys, who are at present residing in town.

Here's Your Chance.

CONSERVATIVES' ROUSING RALLY

How Campaign is Progressing in West Riding.

OUTLOOK IS MOST HOPEFUL

Speeches Delivered by Mr. Dennistoun, Mr. Moore, Mr. Bradburn and Others—Liberals Anxious to Win.

The rally on Saturday night in the Conservative committee rooms, opera house block, was largely attended.

Encouraging reports of the canvass in West Peterborough were presented. There was an enthusiasm and confidence that betoken victory on the 25th for Mr. Bradburn, the popular candidate, and the end of the reign of dishonesty and corruption at Toronto.

Unless all calculations are wildly astray and all signs fail, West Peterborough will be represented in the new legislature on the government side and Mr. Whitney will be in charge of the affairs of the province.

The young men were out in full force, and along with the old stalwarts of the party cheered the speakers and the candidate heartily.

Mr. George W. Fitzgerald was in the chair, and the first address was delivered by Mr. R. M. Dennistoun. He was pleased at the large attendance, which showed the interest that was being taken in the present contest. The Liberals were putting forward the plea that while they had done wrong they were sorry for it; and on the other hand, were shouting loudly about corruption in the Conservative ranks, in the hope of drawing attention away from the evil record of the Ross Government. Hon. Mr. Graham had given as an excuse for the lack of prosecution of the pluggers on the Minnie M. and others guilty of corrupt practices in the Soo election, that Hon. Mr. Gibson intended to proceed against these people, but that Mr. DuVernet, a Conservative lawyer in Toronto, would not let him (Gibson). Who ever heard of such a flimsy, shallow excuse—that the Attorney General, the man who takes precedence at the bar and in the courts of the province—a man who can command all the legal machinery of Ontario—to be set aside by a young Conservative like Mr. DuVernet. Mr. Graham had also said that little if any criticism had been made by the Conservatives of the Government's expenditure, although there were 25 Conservative members on the committee which had closely scrutinized every item in the estimates. The Liberals said: "We defy you to-day to show one dollar of public money that has been spent improperly." Mr. Dennistoun wondered whether this challenge was due to the able administration of the government or to the manner in which the 25 Conservatives had scrutinised the accounts and watched the expenditure. He claimed that it was due to the faithful, energetic, watchful work of the Conservatives who had examined the expenditures and okept up thep scrutiny of the public accounts. Mr. Whitney had laid down the principle that it should not be the duty of the Conservatives to detail part of their forces to look after the public accounts constantly. There should be a proper system of audit, and this was one of the planks in his platform.

The Liberals were talking about corruption in the Conservative ranks, and circulating a story that $2,000 had been raised in Quebec during the late federal elections and that 20 French Liberal candidates were to be bought over to resign, so that Conservatives could be elected in their places by acclamation. Who ever heard of such ridiculous nonsense. There was not one jot of proof of such a scandalous yarn. Supposing for one brief moment the story was true, what had the Conservative party in Ontario to do with affairs in another province? He defied Hon. Mr. Graham or anybody else to prove that a systematic, organized corrupt gang such as the Ontario Grit machine, had ever existed in the Conservative party in this province. Such yarns as the one referred to looked as if the Liberals wanted to get in a few cracks at the Conservatives in order to distract public attention from Grit fraud and wrong doing. It was done in the hope of eliciting denials from the Conservatives, and thus drawing criticism away from the black and iniquitous record of the government. The dodge was too transparent and the scheme would not work. He warned his hearers not to be too confident and to remember that the present relative strength of the parties was indicated in the last election when the majority against the Conservatives in this riding was less than 200. A turnover of 100 votes would mean victory for clean, honest and progressive government so far as this constituency was concerned. He knew of a large number of Liberals who were not taking any active part in the fight, who would rather refrain from voting or else vote for Mr. Bradburn. He believed in the platform on which Mr. Whitney was appealing to the electors with the candidate they had against them in this fight and the excellent standard bearer of the Conservative party West Peterborough would be redeemed by a good majority.

MR. MOORE SPEAKS.

Mr. W. H. Moore said the party had a hard working candidate, who had not spared himself in the past, it was their duty to rally around him and send him to parliament to support Mr. Whitney. He was a man who had grown up in their midst, who enjoyed the respect of all and was a good business man, one whom they could look up to and one who was generally esteemed. The present Government was not a representative one of the province, and in the last election in Ontario 7,000 of the popular vote had been polled against it. Mr. Moore referred to the corruption in West Elgin and the burning of the ballots, the North Grey election fraud, the purchase of false testimony in South Oxford and the reward of Jackson for paying a number of parties to commit perjury; and the disfranchisement of North Renfrew for 18 months, although Hon. Mr. Graham had said at Chatham that no injustice had been done to that riding as no session had been held during the period. This was not true. Mr. Ross had called a session of the House last year to choke off a number of election trials so that he could command a majority. This man—Mr. Ross—was the one who was so fond of quoting scripture and saying that "righteousness exalteth a nation." The speaker considered that the premier had done more to corrupt the electorate and set aside the honest expression of the people's wishes than any other premier the province ever had. Many M.P.P's. had run to cover by being appointed to good fat offices, knowing full well that the Government stood no chance of being returned to power. He said that victory for the conservatives was apparent on all sides. It was being talked about everywhere. Even the Globe admitted it by criticizing Mr. Whitney's Cabinet. He closed by asking all to work hard until election day and to see that every vote was polled. Many Liberals were supporting the Conservative candidate or else giving no assistance to the nominee of the other party. They were heartily sick of the administration at Toronto, and he believed that victory would be won and a supporter sent from West Peterborough to uphold Mr. Whitney, the next premier of the province.

Mr. James Kendry followed in a short, spirited address, expressing himself well pleased with the outlook. They should have the very best men as scrutineers and see that all the vote was got out. By persistent, energetic work he felt sure that Mr. Bradburn would be returned on the 25th to support Mr. Whitney, who was everywhere being received with the greatest favor, and commanding the respect and confidence of all right-thinking men who placed honor and purity of administration before party, and were determined to free the province from the disgrace and shame to which it had been brought by the Ross Government.

CANDIDATE SPEAKS.

Mr. T. E. Bradburn was accorded a rousing reception and was given a splendid hearing after the vociferous applause had subsided. He said that he had been from one end of the riding to the other. Owing to the cold, stormy weather campaigning had been difficult—but he had not lost an hour. He believed that everything was favorable to his return. In all parts he had been well received, and in Galway, Harvey, Smith and other townships he had been met with every encouragement. In his own township—North Monaghan—he expected to poll the biggest vote ever captured there. He believed he would take a majority of the votes registered in Peterborough. He asked his friends not to cease in their labors until after election day. He was going to the back townships again for several days, but would return in time for the big meeting to be addressed by Mr. Whitney on Thursday night. He urged upon all his friends to see that the organization was perfected in every respect, and he had little doubt but that he would be successful on the 25th.

CLOSING ADDRESSES.

Mr. W. S. Robinson said that the record of corruption in the province was such as to condemn any government. In regard to the election at the Soo and that the charge that the Conservatives intended to send pluggers on the Rooth to Mishipocoten the same as the Grits had on the Minnie M., there awa not one word of truth in the allegation. The Rooth was chartered to convey Conservative scrutineers in the effort to to prevent the carrying out of the outrage contemplated by the crew of the Minnie M. there was not one word of the officers of the law who had allowed the Minnie M. to proceed. Mr. Robinson urged all Conservatives to be vigilant and active and victory would be achieved on the 25th.

Short addresses were also delivered by Mr. R. E. Layfield and Mr. R. N. Scott, reeve of Smith township, when the meeting closed with cheers for the King, Mr. Whitney and Mr. Bradburn.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

Copyright, 1904, by Duncan M. Smith.

THEORY AND PRACTICE.

A man, to practice what he preaches,
Must be strongminded, or, you bet,
He says, "Be generous"—and reaches
For everything that he can get.

He preaches wealth is not worth chasing,
That gambling is a deadly sin,
And likely you will find him placing
Bets on the horse that's sure to win.

He warns his hearers against drinking,
Which he declares a deadly sin,
And then perhaps you find him clinking
His glass and calling out for gin.

He says that squareness is a duty,
That honesty pays dividends.
Meanwhile he may be getting booty
By grafting on his dearest friends;

That gentleness is four times winner,
That kind words are not thrown away,
And then perhaps this ancient sinner
Beats up his children every day.

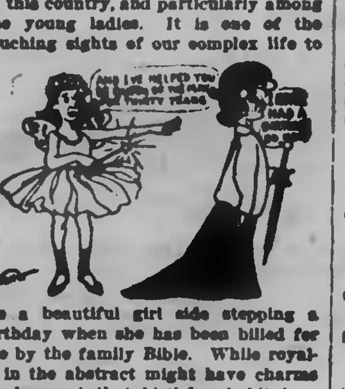
The man, to practice what he preaches,
Must be a wonder and a dream,
But such a plan won't buy him peaches
Nor fill his pitcher up with cream.

Having a Birthday.

Different customs prevail in different countries. When it becomes necessary to celebrate a Japanese victory the mikado can always touch a button and pull off a birthday, although he has had one the week before and three during the previous month.

It is all right over there, and they expect it, and the almanac makers think nothing of getting out an extra every few days to chronicle an event of this sort.

However, the custom would never do in this country, and particularly among the young ladies. It is one of the touching sights of our complex life to see a beautiful girl side stepping a birthday when she has been billed for one by the family Bible. While royalty in the abstract might have charms for her, yet that birthday habit is a feature she never could stand for.



Just a Name.

The party was a dress affair,
And yet a stranger guessed,
Who stumbled on them unaware,
That they were half undressed.

To Avoid Accidents.

"After Christmas I always put my presents away tagged with the name of the sender."

"So you will always know in after years just who sent them?"

"No; in sending them away next year I might forget and give one to the person who presented it to me."

Larger Animals.

The dogs of war once fought for Rome,
But by the modern rules
They chain the dogs and leave them home
And take along the mules.

One Handicap.

"His aim in life is to be a clean journalist."

"Must be annoying to him that the laundryman insists on doing a cash business."

A mule does not bank on his beauty, but he is there when there is any heavy pulling to be done.

If you are interested in mysterious disappearances, put a ton of coal in your cellar and go back to look for it in a week.

The tiger is said to be stronger than the lion, and the man who has tried backing it will chip in testimony to that effect.

Young people might be reconciled to long engagements if they knew what they were butting into.

Monkey Brand Soap cleans kitchen utensils, steel, iron and tinware, knives and forks, and all kinds of cutlery.

POOR TROMBETTI!

The Sad Tale of the Professor and the Journalist.

Professor Trombetti, whose praises were so much sung in the foreign press as knowing the greatest number of languages of any one ever born, relates an anecdote of himself which occurred just after he was "discovered." In Rome he was so pestered by journalists that his patience at last gave way, and when cornered by the gentlemen of the press his language became distinctly lurid.

One day as he was coming out of the central postoffice a frank looking young man stepped up to him, and, holding out his hand, said: "I am so glad to make your acquaintance; I have been trying to find you for days." "And may I inquire with whom I am speaking?" "Why, I am X! Not a near relation to be sure, but near enough to offer you congratulations," etc. Professor Trombetti, reassured, and glad to get hold of some one to unburden himself to, took the stranger's arm, and, as they went down the street, gave, in emphatic terms, a description of his sufferings, his opinion of journalists, and, incidentally, much information about himself which the papers had been vainly sighing for. Finally they parted with an engagement for dinner the next evening.

That night the professor was sitting tranquilly in a restaurant, the observed of all observers, when suddenly he was seen to spring to his feet with a smothered exclamation. His friends crowded about for an explanation, but he could only sit down weakly and point to his newspaper, the Giornale d'Italia. There, in large print, were his imprudent revelations of the afternoon. He had been "done" by a journalist.—Pall Mall Gazette.

THE PERFECT NUMBER.

From Time Immemorial Three Has Had Unusual Significance.

The perfect number of the Pythagorean system, expressive of beginning, middle and end, was the number three. From time immemorial greater prominence has been given to it than to any other except seven. And as the symbol of the Trinity its influence has waxed more potent in recent times. It appears over and over again in both the New and Old Testaments. At the creation of the world we find land, water and sky, sun, moon and stars. Jonah was three days and nights in the whale's belly, Christ three days in the tomb. There were three patriarchs, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Abraham entertained three angels. Job had three friends. Samuel was called three times. Samson deceived Delilah three times.

Three times Saul tried to kill David with a javelin. Jonathan shot three arrows on David's behalf. Daniel was thrown into a den of three lions because he prayed three times a day. Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego were rescued from a fiery furnace. The commandments of the Lord were delivered on the third day. St. Paul speaks of faith, hope and charity. Three wise men came to worship Christ with presents three. Christ spoke three times to Satan when he was tempted. He prayed three times before he was betrayed. Peter denied him three times. He suffered three hours of agony on the cross. The superscription was in three languages, and three men were crucified. Christ appeared three times to his disciples and rose the third day.

Have You Got Them?

Do you feel anxious and preoccupied when the gas man goes by?

Do you sleep badly?

Do you go to bed hungry?

Does your heart palpitate when you see a steak?

Is there an all gone feeling in your pocket?

Do you have nightmares?

Do you do mental arithmetic every time you contemplate the purchase of "coffee and?"

Have you a hunted look?

Do you walk down dark alleys when you go downtown?

Beware! Those are the symptoms. You're busted.

French Conceit.

Etienne Dumont, writing in the early part of the last century, said: "The prevailing character of the French is that of conceit. Every member of the assembly considered himself capable of undertaking everything. I often said that if you proposed to the first hundred men you met in the streets of Paris and to the same number in the streets of London to undertake the charge of the government ninety-nine of them would accept in Paris and ninety-nine would refuse in London."

The Tibetan Conscience.

The Tibetans offer daily prayers for the minute insects which they have swallowed inadvertently in their meat and drink, and the formula insures the rebirth of these microbes in heaven. Yet they eat meat freely and square their conscience with their appetite by the pretext that the sin rests with the outcast assassin, the public butcher, who will be born in the next incarnation as some tantalized spirit or agonized demon. That, however, is his own affair.

Optical Indecision.

The Daughter—No, mother, dear, I could not marry Mr. Smith. He squints. The Mother—My dear girl, a man who has £20,000 a year may be affected with a slight optical indecision, but a squint, never!—London Tatler.

GIVEN THE HIGHEST AWARD AND GOLD MEDAL AT ST. LOUIS EXPOSITION, 1904

One Eleanor—And Another

By Rita Kelley

Copyright, 1904, by Rita Kelley

Boyd Thompson was putting in his second day at the St. Louis exposition. Even though he had seen the wonders of two continents since leaving college, he was a little awed, even oppressed, by the very tremendous amount of ingenuity and beauty spread before him.

He stopped at the end of the Grand basin and, pushing back his straw hat from his handsome dark face, drew out his tobacco pouch and carefully rolled a cigarette. The air was sizzling. The sun beat down on the immensity of white buildings and sparkled maddeningly in the folds of the cascade and the ripples in the wake of the gondolas as they darted to and fro. He was telling himself that all this was too much for one man to see alone. He blew out a wreath of smoke and looked disinterestedly at the passing throng. Yes, if he did not run across some one he knew before night he was going to pull out for home.

He strolled toward the main entrance and stopped to admire an extremely pretty girl in cool green linen standing by one of the pillars of the Liberal Arts building.

"By Jove!" he said as he made a wide detour behind her and came around at the other side. "I know that girl. Hang it! What's her name?"

He walked slowly past her again. She was absorbed in a scrutiny of the Triumphal causeway. How refreshingly cool she was in that green dress! Her hair gleamed gold in the sun. That was just the trouble—her hair! If it were only brown! Boyd ran over the names of all the blonds he had known. Bertha Semple, Caroline French? Bah! They had been fat and pudgy.

He doubled on his steps and strolled back nonchalantly, his hands thrust deep in his pockets. But wasn't she a princess! He tried to smooth out the pucker in his brow and look pleasant. Hang it all! She was as much alone as he was, and she would be gone in a moment. His mind raced frantically among the girls of two continents in search of the missing name.

"If she just had brown hair, now," he said, staring at her unmistakably gold curls. Suddenly he realized that he was standing stock still and the brown eyes of the girl in the green dress had swept from the Triumphal causeway and were looking into his with ill concealed amusement. Instantly his face cleared. He swept off his hat with a charming bow and went toward her, smiling.

"Miss Haskell?" he said, holding out his hand. "Miss Eleanor Haskell?"

She looked at him amazed, but at sound of the name she smiled, too questioningly.

"I fear you have the better of me, though," she said as he took her hand, "you are"—

"Boyd Thompson, yes, of Northwestern," he finished for her.

"Oh, I don't remember." She passed one slim hand over her brow and looked embarrassed. "But I've sure enough been to Northwestern," she said, flashing a smile at him, "and," triumphantly, "yes, I remember your face."

"One's memory for names is often fickle. Why, do you know, I had the deuce of a time recalling yours just now, and I was afraid every minute you'd take a notion to go before I could get it by the tail feathers, so to speak. But I did, you see, and I always remember faces." He leaned over and smiled down at her. "Are you enjoying the show?" he asked sweetly.

"Yes, but it's too overwhelming to enjoy alone, and my friends are not due for a week or ten days, so I've decided to go home. I was just taking a farewell look as you came along."

"Come, now, that's jolly. I'm in the same fix. What do you say to doing the fair in partnership?"

And so it was finally arranged.

Later in the evening as he left her at the Hotel Napoleon Bonaparte he said, coming a step nearer: "You'll forgive me for staring at you so hard? I just couldn't remember your name on the instant."

"Yes, of course!" she laughed. "Because, do you know, I haven't been able really to place you yet, though I remember your name and your face perfectly."

"Well, we're even," he called back, and, thrusting his hands in his pockets, he sauntered toward the lobby.

Strange he should have thought she had ordinary brown hair, he said to himself, when this particular shade of gold was the prettiest thing for hair he had ever seen. Blondine? He threw away his cigarette. She wasn't that kind.

He thought of the few times he had seen her at armory parties and remembered that she danced divinely. He had not known her well, and she was a trump for not thinking him presumptuous speaking to her now. As he picked his way through the crowded lobby he saw all around him slender girls in green dresses pulling gold hair away from their faces with a pretty movement of their hands.

* * * * * * *

They were sitting at the end of the Grand basin some nights later, a little back from the balustrade overlooking the water. Boyd was speaking as he slowly rolled a cigarette.

"Do you know, I am amazed to think how mistaken I was about you."

"I'm sorry to have disappointed you," she said.

"But you didn't. That's just the point." He leaned over suddenly, and his face took on a new seriousness. "And to think I missed all that good time because I was fool enough to be afraid of you!"

"What good time?" she asked quickly.

"Why, knowing you better before, don't you see? You're the jolliest girl I've seen for a long time. If you had thrown me over that day at the Liberal Arts building I never should have really known you probably. I'm glad you didn't. And the reason I couldn't think of your name was because I thought you should have brown hair instead of 'from all sure gold,'" he laughed.

She sat up straight with a start.

"Oh!"

"Why, what is it?" he asked solicitously. "What's the trouble?"

"Nothing. My feet just hurt from walking so much. I have blisters on both my heels."

Boyd looked grieved at this announcement. "Why didn't you say so? I wouldn't have kept you going so much. If you'll forgive me I'll promise to do better."

"Thank you. Possibly I shall not have to bother you any more. My friends come in the morning." Her voice was icy.

"And you are going to dismiss me like this? Why, we haven't seen a third of the show. I thought I was to guide the whole party."

"Thank you, I can manage very well. My cousin, for one, is quite capable of taking care of herself. She has been to Northwestern and—she has brown hair."

"Eleanor Haskell? What do you mean?"

"Yes, that's her name too. I might have known we looked alike, but nobody ever said so before. People are always falling in love with her and coming to me to be pitied. I hate her; I hate everybody, and I'm not going to have you hanging around like all the rest worshiping her and pouring your troubles into my ear. Heavens, there she is now! Go to her. I can get a car by myself!"

She was tired and unstrung.

Boyd turned and saw the original Miss Eleanor Haskell—the one he had met before—standing not ten paces away. She stood apart from her party of friends, looking over the balustrade at the gondoliers wielding thin, flashing poles. He shrank farther back into the shadow of the shrubbery. She was tall, stately and dark as of old, and the peculiar feeling of mingled admiration and fear came back to him. Neither he nor the girl beside him stirred. He felt sure she was watching him, and he waited. The party called to the dark girl, and she finally turned away. They heard her say calmly, unemotionally: "Yes, it is rather good. I'm glad we got the night view first. Do you suppose there is any chance of our finding Eleanor?"

The two on the settee in the shadow were motionless as the group passed by, not noticing the young people seated close together in the shadow.

When they were well out of hearing Boyd leaned over suddenly, letting his cigarette drop between his feet.

"I have much to thank your cousin for," he said slowly, "for without her I should not have known you." He stopped and picked up a bit of gravel from the path. "And without her advent here tonight I should not have dared to tell you for some time that I love you."

The girl beside him moved away just a trifle.

"You will think me an unutterable cad for saying this, but it seems necessary to speak or lose you, and I don't want to do that. If you don't care for me please believe that I am sincere."

After a pause.

"Do you?"

"What?"

"Believe I mean it?"

"Yes."

Another and a longer pause.

"Do you?"

"What?"

"Er—er—care for me?"

"Maybe!"

FLESH BUILDER

The liver of the cod fish produces oil that is a wonderful flesh builder. No fat or oil can compare with it in that respect. To get the best out of it, it must be emulsified and made like cream. In Scott's Emulsion it is prepared in the best possible form to produce the best possible results. Thirty years have proven this.

Not New.

Don't think our Vapo-Cresolene is something new, for it isn't. For more than twenty years it has been extensively used for all forms of bronchial and throat trouble. Mrs. Ballington Booth said of it, years ago, that "No family where there are young children should be without Vapo-Cresolene." You breathe in the vapor, it goes all through the bronchial tubes, soothing, healing, curing. It's pleasant, safe and economical.

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists, or sent express prepaid on receipt of price. A Vapo-Cresolene outfit, including a bottle of Cresolene, complete $1.50. Send for free illustrated booklet. Leeming, Miles Co., Ltd., Agents, 288 St. James St., Montreal.

PORTUGUESE DISASTER

Expeditionary Force Slaughtered By the Cuamato Tribe.

Five Hundred Attacked By Several Thousand Natives and Fearful Disorder, Resulting in Massacre, Ensued—White Troops, Out of Ammunition, Made a Bayonet Charge, But Were Overpowered By Numbers—Countryside in Revolt.

Mossamedes (Portuguese Southwest Africa), Jan. 16.—The disaster sustained by the Portuguese expeditionary force at the hands of the Cuamato tribe is the greatest suffered by a white power in Africa in modern times.

The force, 500 strong, with two guns, after marching for four hours through high thornbush, was suddenly attacked by a big mass of Cuamatos many thousand strong. When the native troops saw this huge host of the enemy they became frightened, broke the square, and threw themselves on the white troops for protection.

Fearful disorder ensued. The officers exerted themselves heroically to withstand the attack of the enemy, but ammunition ran short, and when a sergeant and some white troops were sent to the main column to ask for more they were only given three rounds for each man.

As was natural, these cartridges were soon used up, and the white troops, in desperation, charged the enemy and killed many with the bayonet, but were overpowered by numbers.

Of the 480 men and 19 officers who set out in the morning, only 243 men and two officers returned to camp, and of these 50 men and one officer were wounded and the two guns were in the hands of the enemy.

Not a single shot was fired by the main column, consisting of 1,300 men, with 28 guns, in defence of their slaughtered comrades, but three shells were fired at their own men, whom they mistook for the enemy.

The entire countryside is in revolt.

INFERNAL MACHINE MAN.

Arrested in Philadelphia, He Admits Other Attempted Crimes of That Nature.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 16.—"Gessler Rosseau," who was arrested in this city on Thursday with an unloaded infernal machine in his possession, admitted to the police yesterday that he is the man who attempted to destroy the statue of Frederick the Great in Washington last Tuesday, and that it was he also who sent the trunk containing an infernal machine to the Cunard Liner Umbria, at New York in May, 1903. The prisoner, whose right name is not known, made these admissions in the detective bureau after he had been identified by persons brought here from New York and Washington for that purpose.

He gives no reasons for the attempted outrages, except "there are too many foreign affairs in this country."

Is He Dullman's Brother?

Toronto, Jan. 16.—It is thought here that Rosseau may be a brother of Karl Dullman now serving in Kingston as leader in Welland Canal conspiracy. A picture of Rosseau received here last night might well be a photograph of "Dullman" taken ten or fifteen years ago. The same heavy features, broad nose and large mouth would be recognized by anyone who saw the dynamiter, but the similarity is far from making it certain that the men are brothers.

Fix Rates By Agreement.

Chicago, Jan. 16.—With the exception of the Michigan Central, all the railroads extending from Chicago, have decided to fix passenger rates absolutely by agreement. The Michigan Central has withheld its vote until the opinion of the general counsel regarding the legality of the agreement can be had.

Three Martyrs Beatified.

Rome, Jan. 16.—Three Hungarian martyrs—Boucres, Grodecs and Christino—were beatified yesterday at St. Peter's, in the presence of 1,000 worshippers. This is the last function of its kind in connection with the festivities incident to the Jubilee of the Dogma of the Immaculate Conception.

COMBES WINS OUT BY 10

But He Has Decided to Resign With His Ministry.

After Riotous Debating in the French Chamber of Deputies the Crisis Ends in Sustained Ministry On Premises of Separation of Church and State, the Income Tax, Workingmen's Pensions, Etc.—Vote Was 289 to 279.

Paris, Jan. 16.—Premier Combes' Cabinet weathered another storm after a session of the Chamber of Deputies, lasting until 1 o'clock yesterday morning, and secured a majority of ten on a motion supporting the declaration of the Ministers and approving the policy of the Government. The result was reached after a debate in which there were frequent violent altercations which threatened a free fight and, during the course of which an Opposition Deputy flourished a saucepan in the face of the Premier. The majority, although not large, is considered sufficient to insure the retention of the Ministry.

It was generally expected that the session of the Chamber of Deputies yesterday would culminate in the overthrow of the Ministry of Premier Combes, and the floors and galleries were packed by persons who desired to witness the final struggle. The contest against the Ministry has been slowly gaining ground. The principal elements of opposition were first, those combatting the policy of Premier Combes for separation of church and State; second, those denouncing the Government's collection of secret reports regarding the lives of army officers, and, third, those complaining of the tardiness of the Ministry in passing a law creating an income tax.

Premier's Passionate Plea.

These various elements sapped the strength of the majority until Premier Combes on Saturday found himself confronted by rebellion in his own ranks. His speech in closing the three days' debate on the policy of the Government was a vehement defence of his Ministry and a denunciation of his detractors.

"They are the same men who sought to protect Esterhazy, who glorified Col. Henry, and who now seeks to arouse the army to the pitch of attempting a 'coup de etat,'" said M. Combes.

The Premier referred to the calumnies which had not spared his white hairs. He wished time to complete the work against the religious associations, and if the Ministry were retained, he said it would proceed to consider the income tax, workingmen's pensions and the separation of church and State, but that the latter would be modified so as to avoid any spirit of intolerance. In closing, Premier Combes sa[illegible]

A March Forw[illegible] Reaction.

"I hope the ma[illegible] ll be maintained in order to ca[illegible] out this policy. If there is to be another Ministry, it will be one of reaction. The Chamber must choose between marching forward or lending itself to reaction."

The speech was interrupted by noisy demonstrations of applause and disapproval.

MM. Ribot and Bos attacked the Ministry, the latter declaring that M. Combes' policy was one of falsehood and dissimulation. An indescribable tumult followed. The Socialists endeavored to scale the benches to attack members on the opposite side of the Chamber, and amid cries of "Traitor," "Coward," "Assassin," the Premier temporarily suspended the session.

The violent scenes were renewed when the session resumed its sitting, and a preliminary vote showed the Government had a majority of fourteen. The decisive vote was taken on a motion of Bienvenue Martin approving the declarations and program of the Government, and was adopted by a vote of 289 to 279.

Premier Combes Will Resign.

The Ministry of M. Combes, after emerging successfully from its bitter midnight struggle in the Chamber of Deputies, has decided to abandon the field while some portion of its prestige still remains, and has signified its intention of resigning. Official announcement of the resignation has not yet been made, but M. Combes has definitely stated the intention of himself and his colleagues, and the termination of the Ministry after a tempestuous career of three years, only awaits the formal submission of the letters of retirement.

M. Combes considers that his departure will facilitate the realization of the program instead of interrupting it, since his successor will be able to unite the discordant elements which have become personally hostile to him.

It is conceded that M. Combes' voluntary withdrawal will permit him to exercise a powerful and probably a decisive influence in the choice of his successor.

Owing to the death of Mme. Loubet the presentation of the resignations of the Ministers has been deferred until Wednesday morning. President Loubet will begin on the same afternoon consultations for the formation of a new Ministry.

M. Rouvier appears to be practically decided upon as the future chief of the Ministry, and it is understood that he has asked M. Delcasse and M. Berteaux to retain the Foreign and War portfolios respectively.

Mother of the President Dead.

Paris, Jan. 16.—Mme. Loubet, mother of the President, died at Marsanne yesterday from congestion of the lungs, aged 92. The President's son, Paul, and other members of the family were at her bedside when she expired. President Loubet had expected to leave last evening for Marsanne, but the announcement of the death of his mother came before he was able to depart. Mme. Loubet contributed much to the President's prestige, as she was a type of the simple country class. The funeral will take place on Tuesday, and President Loubet will leave Paris to-day in order to attend. Many officials and members of the diplomatic corps have called at the Elysee Palace to express sympathy with the President.

POLITICS IN KINGSTON.

Mr. Pense Asks Queen's Students' Support On Strength of Government Grant.

Kingston, Jan 16.—Seven hundred students of Queen's University were addressed on Saturday night in Convocation Hall by the candidates for the Provincial Legislature, E. J. B. Pense (Liberal member), and D. N. McIntyre (Conservative nominee). Mr. Pense based his claims for the suffrages of Queen's students primarily on the ground that the yearly grant to Queen's University from the Ontario Government exceeded $30,000. He upheld the conduct of Premier Ross and his administration, adding that the alleged corruption within the party did not necessarily prove the Ross Government incapable of carrying on the affairs of the Province.

Mr. McIntyre was loudly cheered as he arose, and appealed to his audience as fellow members of his old time alma mater. Mr. McIntyre asked them to rise above the plea of Mr. Pense. A $30,000 grant should not be placed on a par with the well-known corruption and diseased conditions by which Mr. Ross kept in power. The applause which at times forced Mr. McIntyre to stop speaking proved conclusively the course which the political feeling of the University is following.

Big Meeting in City Hall.

Crowded to the doors, the City Hall was the scene of one of the greatest political rallies ever held in this city. Dr. Ryan presided as chairman. The speakers were Ald. Rigney, J. H. Metcalfe, Donald McIntyre, the Conservative candidate, and J. J. Foy, K.C., and E. F. Clarke, M.P., of Toronto. Mr. Foy emphasized the immense importance of the present campaign, and said the present contest was not one of Conservative against Liberal, because the Ross party was not the Liberal party.

Mr. Clarke dwelt particularly on the moral side of the present contest, and compared the two parties with a fairness that left no doubt as to their comparative worth.

Principal Sinclaire Dead.

Regina, N.W.T., Jan. 16.—Rev. J. A. Sinclaire, principal of the Indian Industrial School here, died at Victoria Hospital yesterday afternoon. Deceased had been suffering from appendicitis, and was operated on Saturday. He had been for a number of years in charge of the Indian institution here, and was well known in the east. His sudden demise will prove an irreparable loss to the Indian population, among whom he was an ardent and successful worker. Before receiving his appointment at the school here, Mr. Sinclaire was a Presbyterian missionary in the Yukon.

Fierce Fire At Fensom's.

Toronto, Jan. 16.—While Toronto was going to church yesterday morning the downtown firemen were on their way to a nasty blaze, which ended in gutting the wood-working shops in connection with the Fensom Elevator Works on Duke street. George Fensom estimates the loss at $25,000, made up of $8,000 on building and $17,000 on contents, which include many patterns. The fire department officials estimate the total loss at about $20,000.

PUTTING IT STRONG

But Doesn't It Look Reasonable?

This may read as though we were putting it a little strong, because it is generally thought by the majority of people that Dyspepsia in its chronic form is incurable or practically so. But we have long since shown that Dyspepsia is curable, nor is it such a difficult matter as at first appears.

The trouble with Dyspeptics is that they are continually dieting, starving themselves or going to the opposite extreme or else deluging the already over burdened stomach with "bitters" "after dinner pills," etc., which invariably increase the difficulty even if in some cases they do give a slight temporary relief. Such treatment of the stomach simply makes matters worse. What the stomach wants is a rest. Now how can the stomach become rested, recuperated and at the same time the body nourished and sustained?

This is a great secret and this is also the secret of the uniform success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. This is a comparatively new remedy but its success and popularity leave no doubt as to its merit.

The Tablets will digest the food anyway, regardless of condition of stomach. The sufferer from Dyspepsia, according to directions, is to eat an abundance of good, wholesome food and use the tablets before and after each meal and the result will be that the food will be digested no matter how bad your Dyspepsia may be, because, as before stated, the tablets will digest the food even if the stomach is wholly inactive. To illustrate our meaning plainly, if you take 1,800 grains of meat, eggs or ordinary food and place it in a temperature of 98 degrees, and put with it one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets it will digest the meat or eggs almost as perfectly as if the meat was enclosed within the stomach.

The stomach may be ever so weak yet these tablets will perform the work of digestion and the body and brain will be properly nourished and at the same time a radical, lasting cure of Dyspepsia will be made because the much abused stomach will be given, to some extent, a much needed rest. Your druggist will tell you that of all the many remedies advertised to cure Dyspepsia none of them have given so complete and general satisfaction as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and not least in importance in these hard times is the fact that they are also the cheapest and give the most good for the least money.

BLOOD POISON

On account of its terrible effects, blood disease is called the king of all diseases. It may be either hereditary or contracted; so while it may not be a crime to have the disease, it is a crime to permit it to remain in the system. It may manifest itself in the form of Scrofula, Eczema, rheumatic pains, stiff or swollen joints, itchiness of the skin, eruptions or blotches, ulcers in the mouth or on the tongue, sore throat, falling out of hair, disordered stomach, and a general depression of the system. If you have any of these symptoms don't neglect yourself. You have no time to lose. Beware of "old fogy" treatment—beware of mineral poisons—beware of Quacks and Fakirs. OUR NEW METHOD TREATMENT is guaranteed to cure this disease, never to return. Bank Bonds will protect you. Our treatment is not injurious in any way, but reaches the very root of the disease and eliminates all poison from the system. The symptoms of disease gradually disappear. The blood becomes pure and enriched, the whole system is cleansed and purified, and the patient feels prepared anew for the duties and the pleasures of life. CURES GUARANTEED OR NO PAY. 25 Years in Detroit. 250,000 Cured.

Another year has gone. It's pleasant to tell of sales far beyond all previous year's, for they indicate general prosperity as well as the progress of this store. But to you such growth means more still; it tells unmistakably of the increasing attractiveness of our Fur Goods and also the drawing power of our Fur Prices. The bigger the manufacturing business the lower the cost of production, consequently "If you don't buy here we both lose money." Just now we call attention to our extra fine showing of—

HOCKEY GOSSIP.

What the Puck Chasers Are Doing or Are Going to Do.

Grafton & Co's High Grades hereby accept the challenge of R. Fair & Co's Golden Lions to a friendly game of hockey, challengers to arrange for the ice.

Mr. R. M. Glover will handle the bell in tonight"s game between T.A.S. and Keene. This is a guarantee of good, clean, hockey.

The admission fee for tonight's game is 25 cents for gentlemen and 15 cents for ladies, not 25 and 35 cents as advertised in the large posters.

The Spinning Room of the Cordage factory defeated a team picked from the rest of the works, on Saturday evening at the Brock street rink, by a score of 7—1. The half time score was 5—1. It is said to have been a wonderful exhibition of Canada's national winter game.

The Young Nationals and Rough Riders will come together tonight at the Brock street rink between 6 and 7 o'clock. The Rough Riders have been strengthened since the bad beating they sustained last week at the hands of the Nationals.

The West Ends and Beavers will cross sticks tonlight at the Brock street rink after the T.A.S. Keene game.

There should be a big crowd at the rink tonight to see the old rivals, Keene and T.A.S. once more engaged in a Trent Valley League game. The local team are worthy of better support from the people of Peterborough than they have hitherto received. They are starting out this season with practically a new team, which is composed mostly of young players, who will make things interesting for the other organizations in this district of the T.V.L. To-night"s games, like others in which these two teams were the opponents, should be a fast and exciting exhibition. Several of Keene's old players have returned and will be on the line-up.

The T.A.S. team will be—

Goal—Clancy.
Point—Meagher.
Cover-point—Quigley.
Rover—Deforge.
Centre—T. McGrath.
Right wing—Bose.

The T.A.S. Trent Valley team, at the conclusion of Saturday night's practice, elected Mr. Wm. Meagher captain of the team. They could not not have selected a better man. "Bill" is a veteran at the game, knows all the fine points, is popular with his team mates and is in every way qualified for the position.

The Peterborough junior O.H.A. team left this morning for Cobourg where they will play a league game. They are in good shape and expect a victory. The team will be as follows—

Goal—Fitzpatrick.
Point—Moore.
Coverpoint—Long.
Rover—McWilliams.
Centre—McFarlane.

The prices of admission to the Keene-T.A.S. hockey match tonigh have been changed to 25 cents for gentlemen and 15 cents for ladies.

Saturday night's Lindsay Post has the following to say about the match here on Friday night:—

Over a hundred supporters accompanied the Lindsay seniors to Peterboorough last night by special train and received the same old usage. The game against Peterborough commenced late, and owing to so many stops it was not ended till nearly 11 o'clock. Peterborough has a peach of a rink, and the ice was the best we have seen yet, being in fine condition for fast hockey. Of course the Peterborough papers will give about four columns to the game, and tell how gentlemanly their "pets" played, etc, but as our space is limited we can give only a brief account.

In commencing we will say it was not a fair game, and even Peterborough cannot deny this fact. From the start to finish Lindsay had no defence—one of he strongest points of our team—and what can a team do without a defence? Pringle, for Lindsay, scored the first goal neatly about five minutes after the start, but Peterborough soon evened up. One of Peerborough's smart tricks was to put on Chris Graham. The latter had been on the sick list for the last two or three weeks and couldn't play, but Peterborough worked the scheme in mind all right. Graham did not last more than ten minutes, went down to the hotel, and dressed again. Of course, "Goosie" Taylor, Lindsay's star centre, had to go off to even up. One good man gone—that worked all o.k. Shortly after, big Bill Crowley, who is a good player, but is getting his name up for rough work, rushed the puck down the ice, and when Reilly, our crack point, went to check him, Crowley gave him a hard check and and then gave him a fierce jab in the back with his stick, putting Reilly out of the game for the rest of the night. It was a nasty play, but Crowley only got two minutes, and went to the fence smiling, although he was hissed by both Peterborough and Lindsay supporters. "Goosie" came on in Reilly's place, and both teams played hard to the finish of the first half, which ended 6—2 for Peterborough. We must say that Lindsay missed some good shots, but they shot many hard ones, which were cleverly stopped by Wasson. He put up a magnificent game in the nets.

In the second half the game commenced well and smoothly. Lindsay got down to work and got things going right, and there was some fast combination on both sides, each adding three goals to their tally, making the score read 9—5 for the home team. Peterborough has got a good bunch and showed fine form last night, having good combination and good staying powers. Duffus received a black eye from the end of a stick. "Goosie" was hurt and had to retire, leaving five men a side. The next player to retire was Parkins, leaving four men a side. Peterborough now had it all their own way and made some fine rushes, and as there was nobody playing defence—Irving playing rover, Duffus centre, Pringle forward and McGrath in goal—they got past everybody and travelled down to bombard McGrath. As a result of Lindsay's weakness Peterborough now added seven more goals.

Of course everybody expected that the Post would be abusive and unfair in its account of Friday's game, but this is about the limit. It is a mass of misrepresentation all the way through. "The next player retired was Parkins, leaving four men against five." One would think from reading that that Parkins had been hurt and had to retire, and that's just the impression the Post wished to convey. As a matter of fact Parkins, who is one of the worst quitters playing hockey to-day, stole off the ice without notifying the referee or his captain. He had had enough of it. The Post doesn't say anything about Lindsay quitting before time was up because there was such a big score against them.

MR. JAMES O'BRIEN HONORED

Presented With Gold Headed Cane by Brotherhood of Railway Trackmen.

At a meeting of Division No. 211, Brotherhood of Railway Trackmen, held on Saturday evening, the members took advantage of the occasion to show their appreciation of the services of Mr. Jas. O'Brien, Aylmer-st., who for the past three years has been secretary of the Brotherhood. Mr. O'Brien was presented with a very handsome gold-headed cane, with the inscription engraved on the head:—"Presented to Jas. O'Brien by Division No. 211, B.R.T. of A., Jan. 14, 1905." The presentation was made by Mr. Thos. Cummings, and the following address was read by Mr. Geo. A. Turner, of Myrtle:—

Peterborough, Jan. 14, 1905.
James O'Brien, Esq.,
Secretary
Div. No. 211, B.R.T.

Dear Bro.—It is with feelings of the deepest regret that we have heard of your decision to sever your connection with our division, of which you have been so worthy a member.

We also wish to convey to you our sincere thanks for your valued services in advancing the interests of the Brotherhood, and especially for the able and painstaking manner in which you have discharged the duties of our division.

As we feel that we cannot allow this occasion to pass without some recognition of your services to the Brotherhood, and also as a slight token of our personal regard and esteem, we beg you to accept this cane which we hope will serve as a pleasant remembrance of your former comrades and fellow workmen.

In conclusion we beg you to accept our sincerest wishes for your future health and prosperity, and that you may enjoy your well-earned rest for many years to come.

Signed on behalf of the members of Division No. 211, B.R.T.

GEORGE SPICER.
THOMAS CUMMINGS.

Mr. O'Brien, who was taken completely by surprise, thanked his friends fo their kind words and gift, and said that the latter was not necessary, as they had already given many proofs of their kindly feeling towards him.

Nervous Dyspepsia

Mr. George Bolen, Spry, Bruce Co., writes:—"I was troubled with nervous dyspepsia for some years, and after using nine boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I felt better than I had for years. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is certainly the best medicine I ever used, and I say so because I want to give full credit where it is due."

Good Nigh Jolly.

The Junior Intermediates of the Y.M.C.A. will hold a "Good Night Jolly" in their rooms on Tuesday evening at 7.30. A big time is expected. All juniors should attend.

Remember Whitney meeting, Market Hall, Thursday night, Jan. 19th.

WIFE INDUCED TO LEAVE

Gustavus Dundas of North Monaghan Has a Sore Grievance.

Mr. Gustavus Dundas, who as a resident of the Township of North Monaghan for many years, has become a familiar picture in Peterborough, is one of those for whom the world has apparently not much joy at the present time. Mr. Dundas has a grievance which well might be considered as justifying the dropping of a frequent tear and the condition of affairs is intensified by the fact that though he has been endeavoring to have matters straightened out, those whom he has every reason to believe should be, but are not his friends, have rendered his efforts vain.

It was some time before Christmas that Mrs Dundas, yielding to the persuasion of her son, left her husband, as he states, the reason being, it is claimed, that she had not been receiving the comforts which were necessary to one of her age. It is further stated that inducements were also offered Mr. Dundas to leave his home in North Monaghan and come to town to reside. These, he says he refused, and the next move on the part of those who did not see things his way was to deprive him of his wife, and also, he states, certain things belonging to the house.

He has since endeavored to locate his wife, but being unsuccessful has come to the conclusion that she is being kept out of the way. The old man considers his plight pitiable since he is subject to frequent illness and is living by himself in North Monaghan. He is a frequent visitor to town these days his intention being to institute legal proceedings against those whom, he claims, have done him wrong. He also states that it is his intention to sell out and go West.

MR. HARDING SURPRISED

Presented With Fountain Pen by Strangers' Fellowship Club.

There was a largely attended and deeply interesting monthly business meeting of the Strangers' Fellowship at the Y.M.C.A. on Saturday —the members, as usual, enjoying tea together at 6 o'clock.

At the conclusion of the business, Mr. Jas. Gerrard, 1st Vice.-Pres., took the chair and in a unique, inimitable way, introduced the subject for which the members had been anxiously awaiting, namely, showing the great appreciation of the members of the faithful work of Mr. Harding, whose efforts have made the club the great success it has been. Mr. G. L. Galley followed in a well-worded speech, and Mr. Rupert McClennan also spoke and in concluding, presented Mr. Harding with a handsome fountain pen on behalf of the club.

Mr. Harding was so taken by surprise that it was with difficulty that he found words to express his gratitude to the members, and also the great pleasure it was to be associated with them in the Strangers' fellowship club.

The meeting closed with the Y.M.C.A. hymn, "Blest be the Tie that Binds."

CEMETERY DIRECTORS MET

Financial Record For Year Good One, Some Improvements Made.

The annual meeting of the directors and shareholders of the Little Lake Cemetery Company was held this afternoon at three o'clock, with the President, Mr. W. H. Moore, in the chair. Reports were presented and dealt with progress made during the year in beautifying the cemetery, the erection of a green house at a cost of $500 being a large item. Mr. Frank Wise, the caretaker, reported that the receipts for the year abounted to $3,915.25, of which $2,802.50 was for sale of lots and graves and digging graves, and $658.10 for watering flowers and extra care of lots. The balance of income over labor expenditure was $1,749.27. The financial statement covering all operations for the year, showed receipts amounting to $6,857.45 and balance in bank amounting to $374.40.

The reports will be published in full tomorrow.

COUNCIL AT PUBLIC WORSHIP
REV. DR. CROTHERS' SERMON

telligence, and conscientious judgment concerning municipal matters there would be no place for political demagogues or ward heelers. Men have died for their country, Spence, from this place, Evans from Port Hope. It is a grand thing to die for one's country, but I tell you that our towns and cities are calling today for men who will be willing to live for their country.

THE IDEAL CITY.

The most dangerous man is the indifferent man. One has said, "What a world this would be if the perseverance of the saints were made of the same persevering stuff as the sinner." The strength of a city consisted of its enforced law, in its public opinion educated by the press, for one thing, and by the pulpit for another. When the Master was here He commissioned His disciples to preach to the entire world that the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand, and he has commissioned you and everyone to do his part in bringing about that ideal world which He has pictured. This requires courage. We should look at things from the view point of citizens and councillors, working together and taking an interest in all matters of civic importance. We are, above all to seek that city whose builder and maker is God.

In conclusion Rev. Dr. Crothers wished the Mayor and his colleagues every success in their own affairs, and the affairs of the town, and assured them that whatever be done or whatever be forgotten, they would have the prayers of the Ministerial Association of Peterborough.

—Reserve your seats for Victoria Glee and Mandolin Club's concert at Ormond & Walsh's to-morrow morning.

"Lonely" Sale Price $10.00.

It is a custom in some stores to offer special commissions to clerks to dispose of broken lines, that is, they will give the salesmen a commission on the sale of these—to clear them out.

Our policy is to give the public the advantage.

We therefore hold what we call a "Lonely" sale about once a year—at which time we dispose of all the broken lines.

When our lines were complete we sold these at $20.00, $18.00, $15.00, and $12.00, but now the labels are out, and they all sell at one price, $10.00. The sooner you call the better choice.

KING'S MARINE PAINTER.

An Especial Favorite With His Majesty Is This Italian Artist and Brilliant Raconteur.

The Commendatore de Martino, King Edward's marine painter, is an Italian by birth, and prides himself not a little on the fact that no one, not even his wife, is acquainted with his age. If you question him on the delicate point he replies in charmingly broken English, "Here I am before you. Why should you want to know how old I am? I paint, I walk, I eat, I digest my food. Is not that enough?" Commendatore de Martino may be said to be the friend of kings, for he is intimate with almost every European sovereign. With King Edward he is an especial favorite, His Majesty rarely proceeding on a sea voyage without taking his marine painter with him. Possessing a keen sense of humor, the Commendatore has few equals as a raconteur, while as a painter of the sea he is unsurpassed. His love of the ocean is such that he declares that when he is on land he is so out of his element that he suffers from sea-sickness.

Commendatore de Martino has so many friends that he is obliged sometimes, owing to the exigencies of his profession, to devise schemes to keep them in check. If everyone who calls at his studio in St. John's Wood were to be allowed to enter, the painter would do absolutely no work at all. But the King's painter is a man of resource. One day he was visited by an eminent diplomatist when he was engaged on an important canvas. "You paint as if I weren't here," said the diplomatist, who, however, was so restless and talkative that Martino determined at length to get rid of him. Said the artist, without a ghost of a smile, "Look here, my dear fellow, I am busy; but that doesn't mean to say that you mustn't come again. When you next call ring the bell three times, and then I shall know who you are." With these words he dismissed his visitor, who, calling frequently afterwards, was much puzzled why he could never gain admittance. The fact was that he followed Martino's instructions; but whenever Martino heard three tugs at the bell he knew better than to open the door.

Thirty-five years ago Commendatore de Martino went to Rio de Janeiro to execute a number of commissions for the then Emperor of Brazil. He had as a studio an immense saloon in the dockyard. This saloon was dilapidated, and the bottom of the door was four inches from the floor. Now the naval officers, finding time hanging heavily on their hands, used to drop into the studio at all hours of the day, and so hindered the Commendatore in his work that he resolved to take measures with a view to putting an end to the interruptions. He made a careful study of the boots and shoes of each habitual caller, the result being that when anyone came to the door, he had only to look underneath at the footgear to ascertain the identity of the wearer. If it was a man he did not want, he kept perfectly still until the visitor had departed. The plan succeeded admirably, and ever afterwards the painter remained in peace.

NEW ACT CAUSES MANY CHANGES

How the Assessment Will Have To Be Made.

CAPABLE OFFICER NEEDED

All Real Property is to be Assessed at its Actual Value in the Municipality—The Business Assessment Varies From 25 to 150 Per Cent of Land Value.

The Municipal Council will as soon as possible make an appointment which is very important because of the inauguration of the new new assessment act. A change has been frequently spoken of whereby an assessment commissioner, a permanent officer, will take the place of the men who have made the assessment in the past. It cannot be denied that a great deal will depend on the work of this department, and the advisability of having the most capable man or men will be readily seen. The values of land and buildings have now to be entered in the roll separately, and it will be therefore incumbent upon the assessor to consider each parcel of land, thus tending to correct inequalities which may have crept into the rolls. Every precaution should be taken to have a competent and careful assessment.

REAL PROPERTY.

The Municipal World for January has an extended reference to the Act. With the exception of mineral lands, it states, all real property is to be assessed at its actual value in the municipality in which it lies, and in the case of cities and towns in the ward in which it lies. In assessing land having any buildings thereon, the value of the land and buildings is to be ascertained separately and so entered in the assessment roll; the value of the buildings is to be the amount by which the value of the land is thereby increased. In making an assessment of land and buildings the assessor should first value the land and afterwards determine the value of the whole property, the difference being the value of the buildings for assessment purposes. This has no reference to the cost of the buildings and can be easily understood when the prices paid for farms with and without buildings are considered. Special provision is made for the valuation of farm lands or blocks of more than five acres in towns, villages and cities. In townships, land is to be assessed against the owners and occupiers. Non-resident owners who have given the necessary notice are to be assessed as resident. In cities, towns and villages, resident and non-resident owners are to be assessed in the same way. The sections relating to this are new, as are also those referring to married women, whose husbands are to be entered on the roll, and trustees, executors and guardians, who are in the same position as owners. A tenant now includes occupants and persons in possession other than the owner.

BUSINESS ASSESSMENT.

The assessment of personal property has been abolished, and every person occupying or using land, for the purpose of any business is hereafter to be assessed for a sum called Business Assessment, to be computed by reference to the assessed value of the land so occupied or used for the purpose of his business. This is a personal assessment, the tax on which is to be paid by the person engaged in the business. The rate of business assessment is a fixed one, varying from 25 to 150 per cent of the land value. This is the most important feature of the new law.

NEW CLUB ROOMS

Quarters of the Young Conservatives Will be Open To-morrow Night.

The new Conservative club rooms which are located over R. A. Dutton's store, George street, and are elaborately fitted up will be open to-morrow night.

A meeting of the Young Conservative Club will be held in the rooms on Friday night when all the members and their friends are cordially invited to be present. A formal opening will take place later on when several noted speakers from a distance as well as prominent local residents will be invited to deliver addresses.

CARD OF THANKS.

The Sisters of St. Joseph's Hospital return their most heartfelt gratitude to the many kind benefactors who contributed so generously toward making Christmas a truly happy one for the old people and orphans under their care.

Gifts of oranges, candy, tobacco, pipes, confectionery, beef, turkeys, chickens, flour and cash were many and did much to cheer our many afflicted inmates. May the Giver of all Good reward our kind benefactors abundantly and may the blessings of our poor and orphans invoked for them be fully realized this year.

Remember Whitney meeting, Market Hall, Thursday night, Jan. 19th.

NOMINATIONS TO-MORROW.

The nominations of candidates for West Peterborough, in connection with the Provincial elections will be held in the County buildings to-morrow between 12 noon and 1 o'clock. It is understood that there will be no speaking either on the part of the candidates nor their representative. Mr. Sheriff Hall will preside.

Mr. R. M. Dennistoun will speak in the interests of Mr. Moore at Norwood nominations to-morrow.

ENJOYABLE PROGRAMME

Was Given by St. Andrew's Choir At Springville Church.

The annual entertainment of the Springville Sunday School was held last evening and was a success in every way. The attendance was very large, many people from Peterborough being present. The programme was a high class one and met with much appreciation. A sumptuous supper was served by the ladies between five and eight.

The programme reflects great credit upon the choir of St. Andrew's church, town, who were instrumental in arranging it. Rev. Mr. Yule, the pastor was in the chair.

The choir under the direction of Mr. M. Wilson was heard in three well executed numbers. The first, "Hark, hark my soul," was exceedingly well given. The second number "Drops of Rain" was thoroughly enjoyed by the audience. The final selection of the choir was "The men of Harlech."

A vocal duet "Larboard Watch" by Messrs. Wilson and Gerrard, of Peterborough was an enjoyable number. Miss L. McCutcheon, of Toronto, contributed two well given vocal solos. She has a soprano voice of remarkable sweetness and power. She was also heard in two enjoyable duets with Mr. M. Wilson.

Miss Macdonald, of Toronto an elocutionist of no mean ability was heard in several exceedingly well rendered readings. Mr. Gilbert Scott added considerably to the joviality of the occasion with several comic songs given in his usual excellent style. A vocal trio "Dame Durden" by Messrs. Wilson, Laing and Tilley was a number that was much appreciated.

Enjoyable addresses of a congratulatory nature were given by Rev. J. G. Potter, Peterborough; Rev. Mr. Robson, Fraserville and Rev. Mr. Beattie, Cobourg.

Build up Ontario Morally and Materially.

"The ballot is the medium through which the will of the Sovereign people is expressed: and he who lays unholy hands upon that sacred trust is as much a traitor as the man who aids the enemy of his King and his country."

CAMPAIGN ECHOES.

It may be the January winds or it may be our imagination, but it really feels like the "sound of the going in the mulberry bushes."

Monday's Whig thinks that Mr. Gamey will be defeated. The editor of the Whig would give a good deal to know that his seat was as safe as Gamey's.

The Whig has found one solitary Conservative in Ontario who is out for the Government. He is at the Sault. Most likely we will find that he is interested in that two millions.

Rev. D. C. Hossack has published other letter in the Toronto papers. A good deal of it is devoted to the sanctimonious hypocrite who is editor of the Globe.

We wonder whether the "wonderful enthusiasm" and the "great successes" that have been reported in the Examiner in connection with the Liberal meetings throughout the county are on a par with Thursday night's meeting, which was like a funeral in its quietness.

They talk of the wonderful strength of the Ross administration. Take Mr. Davis, the Minister of Crown Lands—could you not get as—good a head for that department from the members on either side of the speaker? Take the first man you meet in the house and you get his equal.

After 20 years of non-enforcement of the license laws, the Government decided about eight months ago to have them more thoroughly enforced. Rev. Mr. Chown says that for a few months back they have been rigidly enforced; but what about the 20 years of non-enforcement. Deathbed repentance does not always prove a winner.

The Examiner wants to know if Rev. Mr. Hossack is afraid of Sam Clark, because the former has not gone to meet Sam on the hustings at Cobourg. We presume that Mr. Hossack has some respect for himself, and we know that Sam has none. Sam has no respect for the cloth, for the truth, for himself, or for his Maker.

Mr. Ross at Brampton said, that "we condemn corruption, root and branch, bribery and fraud in every form, but we blame our people for having gone wrong." That is what the Conservatives ask the country to do, to put the blame where it belongs and to punish those who committed the wrong. It will be time enough to punish the other side when they have been proved to be as corrupt as the Liberals.

Eighty-six men in one sub-division in West Elgin swore that they voted for the Conservative candidate, but when the returns were made there were only forty-two counted. The rest were "switched," yet Mr. Ross challenges the world to show one place where ballots were switched! He took good care that his hirelings had burned the ballots before he issued his challenge, so that it would be impossible to directly prove the charge.

Mr. Ross acknowledges that his party has committed some great wrongs against the electorate, but he promises to do better in the future. He promised to bring down a temperance measure, but when the time arrived he backed out with the excuse that his party wouldn't follow him. The same old excuse will be handed out when future courts reveal the same old tricks by the same old machine. He will say that he was willing to run a pure election, but that there will be men from different parts of the province explaining that they had to go on with the crooked work or there seats would have been lost. Our readers will remember that delegates or members from Brockville, Prescott, Kingston, North Grey, Waterloo and other places stood up in the late Grit convention and said that those seats could not be carried if the Liberal party redeemed its promise to grant prohibition.

Mr. Ross said that the law was enforced by the Liberal Government in election cases. Yes, when some Conservatives were reported for bribery in South Ontario the law was enforced; but there have been precious few convictions against Liberals, not because they were not reported, but because the law was allowed to become a dead letter. Who was punished in the hundreds of cases in West Elgin? What did the Liberal party do to punish the dozen men who engineered the cruise of the Minnie M with the load of Yankee pluggers who got in their nefarious work at two different polling places? Thomas, Lewis, Vance, Smith, Wildong, Cummings, Robinson, Gilligan, Pritchett, Government Crown Lands agent at Mattawa, Murphy, McWheekin, Cap Sullivan and eight others in South Ontario and ten more in the "Soo" election have all been reported by the judges for corruption, but none have been prosecuted; although the election law directs the Attorney-General's department to prosecute all those reported by the election judges through the latter.

The electors of East Toronto had a convention on Friday night. Among those nominated for the slaughter were Mr. Ewan and Mr. W. Banks. Their fitness and capacity for public life may be judged by their utterances. Mr. Ewan said, "there has been electoral crookedness done in behalf of Liberal candidates, but not one of the corrupt acts can be traced within one hundred miles of Queen's Park." Then who paid the expenses of the machine, which did all the corrupt acts and which must have cost thousands of dollars?

Mr. Banks got off a stump speech. Said he, in part: "I know that on this occasion the Conservatives will use the largest fund that a political party ever commanded." From our own personal knowledge this is nothing but a bold, brazen falsehood, the off-spring of a diseased imagination. And then the gentlemanly Mr. Banks, Mr. William Banks, got off this tid-bit:—"It is no longer ten nights in a bar-room. It is ten drinks in a bed-room." This slur is one that might be spewed from the mouth of a bar-room loafer, but it is a sample of the blackguardism of East Toronto Liberals.

Mr. McWilliams, as well as all other Liberal politicians says that in the matter of corruption one party is as bad as the other in Ontario politics. We emphatically deny this. If Mr. McWilliams will go back over the record of the last few years he will find that the Conservative party have been comparatively a party of purity, and he cannot produce any proof to the contrary. It is true, cases of bribery by agents will crop out sporadically here and there on both sides. Leaving those out what can the Liberals show on the part of the Conservatives in the Ontario house to offset the crimes committed in West Elgin, North Waterloo, North Grey and at the "Soo" by an organized gang, led by Smith, Vance, Lewis, Sullivan and others, all in the pay of the Liberal party? No one denies that there is bribery at elections, but the Conservative party want the electors of Ontario to be protected in their right to have the ballots which they place in the boxes counted for the party for whom they intend them. We don't want the "machine" to switch our ballots, and notwithstanding the mock heroics of Hon. G. W. Ross in his challenge for one single case of ballot switching, we know that the records of the courts and the signed confession of Mr. McNish prove that such work has been done, and unless the electors punish the Liberal party, which pays the men who do this work, ballot switching will continue.

ELECTORAL PURITY.

The other day in a powerful address to the Canadian Club, of Toronto, Principal Gordon, of Queen's University, gave expression to a wish that in both political parties there should be found a greater spirit of individual independence of thought and action.

Amongst other things the learned Doctor said:—

"If asked for a definite expression of Canada's prevailing evil today, he would say that it was electoral impurity from which the country suffered most keenly, and ot was always a man's duty to face the evil that was most urgent. He knew he was speaking on a delicate subject, and one difficult to treat in a non-partisan spirit. He said he need not point to evidences regarding the existence of electoral impurity, for he presumed there was no man present, or any other reasonable man, who would deny that it largely obtained in Canada."

The remedy, the speaker believed, lay in an earnest endeavor to tone up public sentiment. Continuing, he said:—

"Not only must we endeavor to have the public conscience toned, but it seems to me that we would greatly aid the cause of delivering our country from electoral impurity if we had a large number of independent electors on each side."

He did not for one moment advocate the abolition of party government, and instanced the case of British Columbia as a strong argument in favor of such government. Neither did he advocate the formation of quite an independent party in Parliament, but he did advocate that they should have an increased number of independent electors on each side, men who would be willing to say to their party managers that they could not support them unless the men who directed party affairs were clean and the measures they submitted were honest and wise.

At the present moment there are many Liberals honestly asking themselves; What is the remedy nearest at hand to put down the prevailing corruption? The answer seems unmistakably clear:—Turn out of power those responsible for the corruption, those who have winked at and failed to put a stop to these iniquities! But some will reply, "Yes, but is the Conservative party any better?" Our answer is:—Try them! Vote to put Mr. Whitney in power!

In the ranks of the Opposition there are plenty of men of the highest ability and integrity ready to take up the reins of government.

If after a term of office Mr. Whitney and his cabinet do not fulfil all expectations, such independent Liberals can then return to their own party affiliations with a firm conscience that at all events they sincerely did what in their judgment seemed best for their country in a crisis, the result of electoral impurity.

WHY?

Why are the independent electors against the Ross Government?

Why are the independent journals against the Ross Government?

Why do the College journals contain articles against the Ross Government?

Why is the Stouffville Pilot, a Liberal journal, against the Ross Government?

Why do most of the religious weeklies contain articles condemning the Ross Government?

Why have so many Liberal clergymen come out strongly against the Ross Government?

Why have so many Liberals from every part of Ontario publicly declared themselves against the Ross Government?

Why did the Globe, in its famous "barnacle" editorial, condemn the Ross Government?

Why did the Ottawa Free Press, Liberal organ in Ottawa, in its article on "Crew of Crooks" condemn the Ross Government?

Why did McCoig, the Liberal candidate in Kent County, before he was nominated, condemn the Ross Government?

Why do all the miners in New Ontario condemn the Ross Government?

Why do such Liberal stalwarts as Rev. D. C. Hossack, Rev. J. E. Ross, Rev. J. Kettlewell, Rev. A. Smith and others too numerous to mention, condemn the Ross Government?

Why do Liberals like Walter Mills, son of Senator Mills, Dr. Welford, of Ingersoll, A. L. McIntyre of Listowel, Geo. B. Wilson, St. Catharines, ex-treas. of the Reform Association, and others, condemn the Ross Government?

Why, gentle reader, can you refrain from following the example of those old time Liberals and condemn the Ross Government?

Boarding School Burns Down.

St. Paul Demametis, N.W.T., Jan. 17.—The Roman Catholic boarding school burned down Sunday night. There were nine sisters and eighty-five children in the building, and they had a miraculous escape. The building was only finished last year, and was one of the finest of the kind in the west. There was no insurance on either the building or contents.

HOW MANY BALLOTS WILL BE POLLED?

Mail and Empire Offers Eighty-seven Cash Prizes Worth $500.

It pays just now to be a close student of public events, with some knowledge of the theory of probabilities. This fact has become widely apparent of late, as is shown by the hundreds of persons in every part of Canada who have sent their predictions of the total vote to be polled at the Ontario elections on January 25th to the Mail and Empire Office, Toronto, with the hope of obtaining the first prize of $100 in cash for the closest guess, or one of the 76 other cash prizes. These predictions vary widely, and the perplexing features of the present contest make almost all of them equally probable. As a matter of fact the scientific politician stands in very little advantage over the casual estimator.

The details of this competition will be found on another page. Predictions will be received up to midnight of Jan 24th.

THE VICTORIOUS JAPS

Formal Entry Into Port Arthur—Procession 5 Miles Long.

Scenes Following the Announcement of Surrender By Stoessel Were Disgraceful, the Soldiers Drinking Vodka Until in a Helpless Condition—Surrender Was Not Necessary, and It is Evident the Garrison Could Have Held Out Longer.

Headquarters of the Third Japanese Army at Port Arthur, Jan. 14, via Tientsin, Jan. 17.—The victorious Japanese army yesterday formally entered Port Arthur. Gen. Nogi with his staff entered first through the old town and took his staff in the public square of the town.

The army was represented by one regiment from each brigade. The procession, which was five miles long, was three hours passing the saluting base, after which the troops passed out of the city through the new town. The correspondents then visited the captured city for the first time. The old town buildings were badly smashed by shells, but in the new town the damage was slight. All the shipping in the harbor was badly damaged.

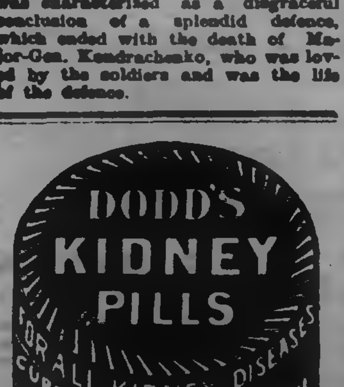
Disgraceful Scenes On Surrender.

Proposals for the surrender of Port Arthur were first made Dec. 29, at a council of war. Gen. Stoessel was in favor of surrendering, but some of his general officers were bitterly opposed to it. The regimental officers and the troops were not consulted.

The first news they had of the surrender was Jan. 1, after General Stoessel had communicated with the Japanese. The scenes following the surrender were disgraceful. Drunken soldiers filled the streets and refused to obey their officers. Many of them destroyed the guns upon the positions they had defended, and came into the city without permission. The infantry loudly protested that the fortress had been given away, threw their rifles and ammunition into the harbor and proceeded to break into warehouses and loot and drink until in a helpless condition.

Surrender Not Necessary.

It was evident that the surrender was not necessary, as there were 31,000 effective men in the fortress. The supply of ammunition was short, but it was not exhausted. Food was scarce, but private stores were not requisitioned by the military. There is no difficulty in getting good meals in the city even now, from the stores in private possession. A portion of the fortress was capable of defence for months longer. It was the opinion of non-combatants at Port Arthur that the surrender was unnecessary, as the troops were willing and able to fight to the bitter end. Gen. Stoessel was much blamed for what was characterized as a disgraceful conclusion of a splendid defence, which ended with the death of Major-Gen. Kondrachenko, who was loved by the soldiers and was the life of the defence.



Services For the Dead.

Memorial services were held yesterday in honor of the spirits of the Japanese dead, upon the plain north of the villages of Shushi, a short distance from Port Arthur. Regiments representing the entire Japanese army were present. A shrine was erected on the crest of a small hill and the troops formed a circle around it. Gen. Nogi and his staff were present. Lunch was served afterwards in the open to all the officers present. It was a splendid spectacle.

Kuropatkin Reports.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 17.—General Kuropatkin has sent this report to the Emperor: "During the evening of Jan. 10, one and a half companies of Japanese infantry and half a squadron of Japanese dragoons were defeated with great loss.

"On Jan. 11, a Japanese company and two squadrons, which were occupying Newchwang, were driven out by our Cossacks, who occupied the place and afterwards pursued the company, defeating it and inflicting heavy loss. The same night our patrols damaged the railroad line, telegraph line, a train and two locomotives. During these two days our cavalry defeated several small detachments and captured one officer, 14 soldiers and 500 carts with stores. Our casualties were three officers killed and 10 wounded, and 15 soldiers killed and 49 wounded.

"On Jan. 12, our patrols damaged the railroad six miles from Yinkow. At 4 p.m., Jan. 12, a Russian detachment reached Yinkow. Our artillery cannonaded the station, set fire to the stores and stormed the station. The Japanese opened fire with rifle and machine guns, and our men sought shelter in ditches and again attacked, until they reached the railroad line, when a strong force of Japanese cavalry appeared, advancing from Tashikiow. Our forces, being inferior, retired, carrying away nearly all the killed and wounded. The stores at Yinkow were ablaze the whole night."

China Asked to Keep Neutral.

Washington, D.C., Jan. 17.—China's attention has again been indirectly invited by the American Government to the necessity for a faithful maintenance of her neutrality not only in her personal interest, but in the interest of the world's peace. United States Secretary of State Hay on the receipt of full text of Count Lamsdorff's note expressing Russia's belief that China's neutrality had been repeatedly violated, yesterday prepared instructions for the American charge at Pekin, directing him to make inquiry of the Chinese Government regarding the situation.

Russ Losses Were 300.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 17.—A telegram from Siakhotan states that Gen. Mistchenko's raiding force, learning that five Japanese battalions had appeared near Tashikiowa, retreated northwards, and succeeded in regaining the Russian lines. Their losses were about 300 killed or wounded, all the latter being brought away.

TO EXCHANGE PRISONERS.

Japan Has Consented to a Proposition From Russia.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 17.—Japan's consent to an exchange of prisoners according to classes and rank has just been received here. Consequently in the near future three Russian officers captured on the Russian volunteer fleet cruiser Ekaterinoslav by the Japanese will be exchanged for three Japanese officers captured on the Japanese transport Kinshin, sunk by the Russians in the Sea of Japan, and Sado, driven ashore by the Russians in the Sea of Japan. The question of an exchange of prisoners on this basis was raised by Russia last summer.

Woman Found Disguised As Russian.

Tokio, Jan. 17.—It is reported that a Japanese gendarme discovered a woman about 20 years old, disguised, among the Russian prisoners brought to Nishim. She was much embarrassed at the exposure and is now located in special quarters.

Aim to End the War.

Barcelona, Spain, Jan. 17.—A curious method for terminating the Russo-Japanese war was initiated at a meeting here yesterday. Delegates representing 100 labor and other societies telegraphed to the international anti-militarist committee of Holland, demanding that a general strike be proclaimed in all countries with the object of ending hostilities in the Far East.

BRITAIN IS GALE SWEPT.

Numerous Wrecks Reported Along the Coast—French Craft Stranded.

London, Jan. 17.—A fierce gale Sunday night caused much havoc along the coasts of the United Kingdom. There were a number of wrecks of small crafts, resulting in loss of life. A French ketch was driven ashore on the Isle of Wight, and her crew of five men were drowned. All arrivals report terrific weather. The harbors are filled with vessels seeking shelter. No less than fifty steamers have sought shelter at Holy Head. Yesterday morning the bitter cold was accompanied by a gale, and the first skating of the winter commenced in Lancashire.

FACTORY GIRL'S DEATH.

Was Taking a Short Cut to Her Work Along C.P.R. Tracks.

Toronto, Jan. 17.—While taking a short cut to her work at the gutta percha factory, by walking along the C.P.R. track from Brock avenue to O'Hara avenue, early yesterday morning, Miss Rachel Crottier was struck by a train and killed. Her side was crushed in and blood was oozing from her ear when she was found. The unfortunate victim of the accident was 19 years old and lived with her widowed mother. She had been employed at the factory for over four years. An inquest will be held to-night.

Dr. E. D. Dawson Arrested.

Hamilton, Jan. 17.—Yesterday afternoon Detectives Coulter and Bleakley placed Dr. Edward B. Dawson under arrest. He is wanted in Baltimore on a serious charge laid by a little girl of 15 years, who is an inmate of an orphanage asylum. The penalty for the crime is death. The alleged offence was committed about two weeks ago. The prisoner, who is 30 years of age, is a dentist, and will fight extradition.

The police also arrested Eddie Roth, who is wanted at Port Huron for embezzlement. He is only 20 years of age, but was married two years ago.

Manitoba's Boundaries.

Winnipeg, Jan. 17.—The motion to send a memorial to the Dominion Government passed in the Local House last evening without a dissenting voice. The Attorney-General moved the resolution and, after a few remarks from the leader of the Opposition, Hon. C. J. Mickel, the House passed it unanimously. The idea is to go northward to Hudson Bay to include a seaport where the province can build its own railway and to take in a large portion of the districts of Assiniboia and Saskatchewan.

Mr. Fielding Heard From.

London, Jan. 17.—The Hon. W. S. Fielding, in the course of an interview to The Standard correspondent at Vienna, stated that, with the exception of a comparatively few protectionists, all Canadians favor British preferential tariff, at all events, for the present. Mr. Fielding is expected in London at the end of this week.

Three Miners Die.

Decatur, Ill., Jan. 17.—Three miners are known to be dead and a score of others are entombed in a 600-foot shaft of the Decatur Coal Company, cut off from rescue by dense smoke, produced by a fire that started yesterday in a mule stable.

When Leeches Were Fined.

In ancient Ireland a leech who through carelessness, neglect or want of skill failed to cure a wound had to pay the same fine to a patient as if he had inflicted the wound with his own hands.

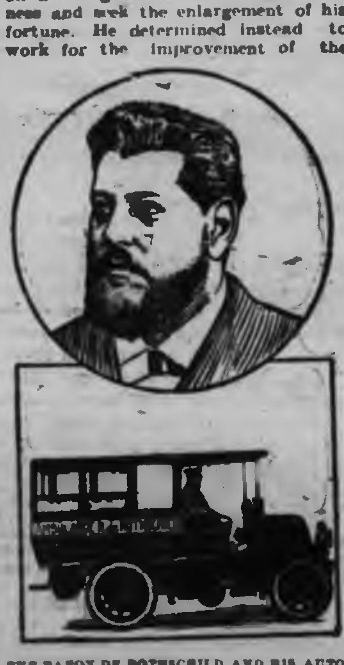
A Venomous Bird.

New Guinea has the credit of producing the only venomous bird known to ornithologists—the roir n'doob, or "bird of death." There is no antidote to the bite of this bird, which causes excruciating pains in every part of the body, loss of sight, convulsions, lockjaw and certain death within two hours.

RELIEVES PAIN OF POOR.

Baron Henri de Rothschild's Noble Work for Unfortunates of Paris.

Baron Henry de Rothschild of Paris, is known for his interest in automobiling and his interest in the poor. He divides his time between work in behalf of his fellow men and his favorite sport. The Baron was born with a golden spoon in his mouth, but unlike most other members of his famous family he did not on arriving at manhood enter business and seek the enlargement of his fortune. He determined instead to work for the improvement of the conditions under which the poor and unfortunate live in the great city of Paris. He found that the best way to carry out his ideas was to become a physician and give his services to the poor as a member of the medical profession.



THE BARON DE ROTHSCHILD AND HIS AUTOMOBILE AMBULANCE.

The more effectually to carry out his ideas the rich young doctor decided to establish a hospital of his own for the free treatment of the poor. This hospital, known as the Polyclinique H. de Rothschild, has been doing a great work and now has between 6,000 and 7,000 persons dependent upon it for regular medical attendance.

Being so much devoted to the automobile as a means of diversion and sport it is natural that the Baron should bring that form of vehicle into use for ambulance purposes. The Rothschild automobile ambulance is now a familiar sight in the streets of Paris.

Belgian Carrots.

The large white Belgian carrot is considered one of the most profitable varieties for feeding stock.

Healthy and Vigorous

Mr. John Shelton, the well known bridge builder of 101 Sherwood St., Ottawa, states: "I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for kidney and liver derangements brought on by exposure, and find them better than any pill or medicine I ever used. They cleansed my system and made me feel healthy and vigorous, and better in every way." 8

T.A.S. WON FROM FAST KEENE TEAM

Abstainers won a Close and Exciting T.V.L. Game.

THE SCORE WAS SIX TO FIVE

Local Team Made a Garrison Finish—Only a Small Attendance — T. A. S. Scored Twice in Last Four Minutes.

Only a small crowd saw the opening Trent Valley League game between T.A.S. and Keene at the Brock street rink last evening, but those who were there were rewarded by being given an excellent exhibition of Canada's National winter pastime. The T.A.S. won by 6—5 after a desperately fought contest, with a heart breaking finish, the winning goal being scored with only 30 seconds left to play. It was a well played game, not extraordinarily fast, but characterised by close checking and hard playing from start to finish. It was anybody's game until the last minute. (With only 4 1-2 minutes to play Keene led by 5—4 but the Abstainers made a garrison finish and scored twice, winning out by 6—5.

Neither team displayed much combination work, the goals being nearly all due to individual rushes. Both forward lines were a little off color in their shooting and many opportunities to score were lost because of the bad marksmanship.

The T.A.S. team put up a great game. The bunch that wore the red and black last night were nearly all juniors, but they delivered the goods in great shape. The team is well balanced, the defence being almost impregnable and the forwards fast and reliable. Deforge at rover was the star of the firing line. He had speed to burn and his stick handling was a la Harold Armstrong. He scored the majority of the Abstainers' goals. McGrath at centre worked hard all the way through and was always on the puck. Kelly and Rose, the wings, played fine games and their shots were generally on the nets. Quigley proved to be a star at cover point. It was a new position for the ex-Lakefield man but he certainly made good. He checked well and his lifts were always dangerous. His occasional rushes were very hard to stop. Capt. Meagher at point was a veritable stone wall and very few men got past him. His dashes down the ice always relieved the pressure. Clancy turned aside some badlooking ones.

For Keene Vince McCarthy at right wing was easily the star. He was perhaps the fastest man on the ice and when he got going it was very hard to stop him. His shooting from the wing was deadly and most of the visitors' goals were due to his great marksmanship. McIntyre also put up a good game and was generally in his place when needed. M. Weir at point was the star of the defence, breaking up many rushes and relieving well. He probably stopped more shots than the goal keeper. Burnham figured in goal for the first time and demonstrated that he was a worthy successor of the veteran McIntyre who has so often guarded Keene's nets.

The Keene team wished to play Donegan of the Warkworth team, but as he hadn't a permit the T.A.S. couldn't see it that way and Lundy was substituted.

Mr. Harry Morgan refereed to the satisfaction of both teams.

Referee, Harry Morgan, Peterborough. Time keepers, J. McIntyre, Keene, Fred Drocher, Peterborough. Penalty time keeper, W. Crowley, Peterborough. Goal umpires, W. Wiggins, Keene, Fred McGrath, Peterborough.

Play was even at first and several end to end rushes failed to produce a score. The players were a little inclined to be rough, but referee Morgan soon let them know he wouldn't stand for it. J. McCarthy went to the board for two minutes for slashing. Deforge rushed but Burnham was in the way. Lundy went off for bodying. J. McCarthy was hurt and retired for a while, the T.A.S. dropping Kelly. Rose went off for slashing. Finally after 15 minutes hard playing V. McCarthy uncorked a nice rush and scored the first goal. Score 1—0.

It only took the T.A.S. one minute to even up. Meagher broke up a rush, dashed down the ice, and passed to Deforge, the speedy little rover beating Burnham with a nice shot. Score 1—1.

McCarthy and Kelly came on again. The T.A.S. were pressing but could not score for some time. At last McGrath got an opening at quarter way and scored with an easy shot in 3 minutes. Score 2—1.

Quigley was hurt and the game delayed for a minute. Play was very close. Keene forwards got right through the defence, but McIntyre's shot was wild. Meagher rushed but his shot was blocked. Deforge, however was Tommy-on-the-spot and slammed it in after 9 minutes. Score 3—1.

It looked easy for T.A.S. Kelly went off for one minute for slashing. Vince McCarthy made a nice shot which Clancy stopped, but the Keene right wing batted it through on the rebound in two minutes. Score 3—2. Half time.

Keene looked like winners at the beginning of the second half, several dangerous rushes being repelled by the T.A.S. defence. At last McCarthy and McIntyre broke away from near centre and fooled the Abstainers' defence, McCarthy scoring on a nice shot in 4 minutes. Score 3—3.

J. McCarthy made another visit to the time keepers for bodying. T.A.S. rushed, but Burnham made a nice stop. Deforge however brought the puck around from behind and scored in 3 1-2 minutes. Score 4—3.

Kelly again went off for slashing. Quigley lifted to Weir and the Keene point returned the compliment. V McCarthy followed up fast and scored in 2 minutes. Score 4—4.

It took ten minutes of the hardest kind of playing to break the tie. Rose and J. Weir went off for scrapping. Lundy and V. McCarthy combined for a beautiful rush, the latter scoring. Score. 5—4.

There was only 4 1-2 minutes to play and things looked bad for the T.A.S. The Abstainers however were not all in and played desperately. Meagher made a nice rush and passed to Deforge who found the nets in 2 1-2 minutes. Score 5—5.

With only 2 minutes left Keene worked hard to stave off defeat but it was not to be. Deforge got the rubber near centre and dodging the visitors defense scored the winning goal in 1 1-2 minutes with only 1-2 finish. Final score T.A.S. 6, Keene 5.

OLD OFFICERS WERE RE-ELECTED

Annual Meeting of the Little Lake Cemetery Co.

USUAL REPORTS PRESENTED

Operations of Past Year Were Extensive—New Greenhouse Built—Reports of President and Superintendent.

The annual meeting of the directors and shareholders of the Little Lake Cemetery Company was held yesterday afternoon in the Council Chamber, with the President, Mr. W. H. Moore, in the chair. There was not a very large attendance, but considerable business was transacted.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and confirmed.

The President then read his report, which was as follows:—

DIRECTORS' REPORT

To the Shareholders of the Little Lake Cemetery:

Your Directors are gratified to report continued progress made during the past year in beautifying the Cemetery, and in making various improvements to the grounds, some of which are referred to in the Superintendent's report. The most important was the erection of a green house in the rear of the new office. The previous green-house had never been more than a temporary contrivance. Last spring, when your Directors examined it, the furnace was found to be burned out and the building in a state of collapse. The new house is a substantial one, well suited for nuturing and maturing plants and flowers and has all modern improvements for heating and ventilation, with capacity six times greater than the old house. Your Directors are confident that this will add a very attractive feature to the Cemetery, as well as prove a good investment for the Company, and a great convenience to all who take an interest in the grounds.

The first burying ground in Peterborough only contained about four acres of land, and when the Little Lake Cemetery was established, and for many years after, it was thought that we had grounds so large that they would be ample for a very long period of years. But after the expiring of fifty-five years, a different view is being expressed and regret felt that the Company had not secured a larger area. Having regard to this circumstance, your Board would suggest that in future, in opening new blocks for burial purposes economy be exercised in laying them out, and that most, if not all, walks usual in the older grounds, be not placed between parcels, but that the boundaries by marked by stone or concrete monuments. For some time grass walks have been adopted instead of open earth ones. The change has been found to be an improvement, and has enhanced the beauty of the grounds and given them a more park like appearance. Your Board believes this proposal should receive your careful and favorable consideration.

A detailed statement of receipts and expenditure, for the past year, is shown in the Superintendent's and Auditors' reports, which will be submitted to you.

W. H. MOORE,
President.

January 16th, 1905.

The report as read was adopted on motion.

The Secretary's report was then given by Mr. E. A. Peck. It was as follows:—

We further certify that we have examined the books of the Superintendent for the year 1904, and find them carefully and correctly kept. All moneys received by him appear to have been promptly paid over to your treasurer.

JAS. A. HALL,
T. Q. QUARTERMAINE,
Auditors.

Peterborough, 12th day of January, 1905.

The report was adopted.

The report of the Superintendent, Mr. Frank Wise, was then read. It was as follows:—

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

To the President, Directors and Shareholders of the Little Lake Cemetery Company:

Gentlemen,—I beg to submit the following report of improvements made in your Cemetery during the year 1904.

A large circular bed, thirty feet in diameter has been cut on Windmill Point and planted with spruce and small shrubs and the appearance of this part of the Cemetery has been much improved thereby.

Block number four of the single graves section has been graded and seeded down and is now in a condition to bury upon.

The work of cleaning and renovating the block known as free ground has been completed, and is now in as good condition as any other part of the Cemetery.

The grading of Section R. has been commenced and put in condition for sale.

About 300 feet of extension to water system was made in section D.

At the Superintendent's house, a concrete walk, leading from the street to the kitchen entrance, was lain, 85 feet long and 4 feet 6 in. wide, making a total of 212 ft. 6 in. at a cost of $16.00, the grading of the lawn has also been completed, and a concrete floor laid throughout the whole of the cellar.

A greenhouse has been erected 43 x 20 feet and heated with a Daisy Hot Water Boiler, at a total cost of about $500. This building will fill a long felt want, as previously our plants were largely grown in hot beds causing a great amount of labor and also requiring the best of weather in which to perform it. Now we can take stormy and rough days in which to do the same kind of work.

I append my financial statement.

Respectfully submitted.

F. WISE,
Superintendent.

Following is the financial statement for the year ending December 31st, 1904:—

To sale of lots	$1939 50

workmen's wages	1500 38
" team and horse hire	65 40
	$2,165 98

Balance of income over labor expenditure	$1749 27

Respectfully submitted,
F. WISE,
Superintendent.

Mr. James A. Hall and Mr. T. Q. Quartermaine were unanimously appointed auditors.

On motion of Mr. Adam Dawson, seconded by Mr. W. G. Ferguson, the old Board of Directors were reelected. The members are Messrs. J. J. Lundy, Jas. Stevenson, B. Shortly, T.A.S. Hay, Chas. Stapleton, Dr. Burnham, E. H. D. Hall, R. M. Dennistoun and W. H. Moore. This concluded the meeting of the shareholders.

A meeting of the directors was then held, at which the following officers were elected:—

President—W. H. Moore.

Secretary-Treasurer—E. A. Peck.

Managing Committee — Messrs. Stapleton, Shortly, Hay, Hall, Dr. Burnham and the President.

DEATH OF ROBERT GLASS

Was Resident of Peterborough For Eighteen Years.

death of robt glass

The death of Robert Glass, who has been a resident of Peterborough for eighteen years, occurred on Sunday morning at the home of his daughter Mrs. C. S. Curran, corner of Smith and Walter-sts. He was 88 years old and his death is attributed to the infirmities of advanced age. The late Robert Glass was born in Tyrone, Ireland, and came to this country with his parents, when only thirteen years old. They settled in Quebec, and when he was 25 years of age, Mr. Glass came west with his wife and two children and settled in Hope Township. About eighteen years ago he retired and came to Peterborough where he has resided ever since. His wife, formerly a Miss Curry, whom he married in Quebec, died about 24 years ago and there are surviving four sons and two daughters, William, of Port Hope; George, of Toronto; Thomas, of Manitoba; and David of Toronto; Mrs. C. S. Curran and Mrs. Wm. McKinley, of Peterborough.

The funeral will take place to-morrow morning from the home of his daughter to Little Lake cemetery at 10 30 o'clock.

Hall Trustees—J. J. Hartley, D. H. Kerneghan and W. A. Bell.

Financial Com.—W. G. Menzies and J. Yelland.

Auditors—W. C. Norris and Wm. Ismon.

PERSONAL.

Mr. J. J. Lynch is in Toronto on business.

Mr. W. H. Meldrum was in Fenelon Falls yesterday.

Miss Burnadette Hackett is home after visiting with her aunt, Mrs. R. Gough, Toronto.

Mr. J. Edgar, who has been seriously ill is able to be around again but is still quite weak.

Mrs. F. Filston, of New York, is visiting for a few days with her sister, Mrs. H. LeBrun.

Mr. A. H. Rands who has been with Mr. Thos. Barrie for the past four months has left for Toronto.

Rev. E. A. Langfeldt was in Toronto yesterday attending the Executive meeting of the Wycliffe College Alumni.

Miss Eva Preston, of Peterborough, is making a pleasant visit with her mother, Mrs. M. Thurston, North Ward.—Lindsay Post.

Dr Coughlin leaves today for Fergus, where he will speak at the nomination tomorrow in East Wellington, in the interest of Mayor J. J. Craig, against Hon. J. M. Gibson, the doctor will address a series of meetings throughout the riding.

Ald. T. J. Begley, of Peterborough, is spending a couple of days in town, the guest of his uncle, Mr. John Begley. The former was elected a member of Peterborough Council by a spanking majority at the recent municipal elections.—Lindsay Post.

Rev. J. C. Davidson, Rev. E. A. Langfeldt and Rev. Wm. Major are in Millbrook to-day attending meetings of the Deaneries of Northumberland, Durham and Victoria. Rev. E. A. Langfeldt will be the special preacher at the meeting in St. Thomas' church this evening.

Mr. David Woodhead, an old Peterborough boy, is in town looking up old friends. He is now living in Winnipeg, engaged in the electric light business. He left here sixteen years ago, and made his home in the West, where he has prospered, and built up a good trade.

Mr. Stewart Mannell, who has been visiting friends in town for the past few days, left this morning for St. Thomas where he will visit his brother. In March, Mr. Mannell will return to the Yukon, where he is largely interested in mining. He has been in that territory for about six years now and it is understood, has already realized quite a pile as the fruits of his labors. Mr. Mannell was born in Peterborough and he is a young man who by perseverance has hewed his way to success.

CAMPAIGNING IN NORTH COUNTRY

Mr. Bradburn Held Two Rousing Meetings Yesterday.

ACCORDED WARM WELCOME.

At Lakehurst and Buckhorn—Large and Enthusiastic Audiences—Ross System of Corruption Reviewed—Conservatives in Back Townships Are Thoroughly United.

Mr. T. E. Bradburn is conducting a vigorous campaign in the north end of the riding and will not return until Thursday evening. He held two highly successful and well attended gatherings yesterday, one at the Harvey town hall, Lakehurst, and the other in the True Blue Hall, Buckhorn. This afternoon, in company with Mr. Arthur Stevenson and Mr. E. A. Peck he speaks at Nogey's Creek, near Bobcaygeon. Travelling is very difficult, and in some parts of Harvey and North Smith not more than four or five miles progress can be made an hour. The drifting snow fills up the highways rapidly.

Mr. Bradburn has made practically a house-to-house canvass in Harvey and Galway and met with encouraging success. This is his second trip through the back townships, and everywhere he is being cordially greeted.

At Lakehurst yesterday afternoon, in spite of the blockaded roads and drifting snow, over thirty electors assembled to hear the addresses of the popular Conservative candidate and others. Mr. David Weir made an efficient chairman, and the first speaker was Mr. Bradburn, who was given a most cordial reception. He spoke briefly, but to the point. He said there were several reasons why there should be a change of government. One was that the numbered ballot should be done away with and the secret ballot substituted. Mr. Bradburn said that Mr. Whitney stood for a secret ballot, and he believed if the electors had it much of the corruption and bribery now existing, particularly in the Liberal ranks, would be overcome, and the province would enjoy cleaner election contests. Mr. Bradburn also spoke of the needs of reform in the educational policy and the cheapening of school books by ridding the province of the school book monopoly. The present publishers were making an enormous profit and the books were altogether too dear. He bought a third reader the other day, for which he paid thirty cents. He also purchased another book equally as well bound and printed on a far better quality of paper for fifteen cents—half the price. The publishers were living in mansions made out of the people. Mr. Bradburn said that all signs pointed to a sweeping change and Mr. Whitney would be the next Premier of the Province. He had a broad, progressive, patriotic policy, and would give the people clean, honest and efficient government.

Mr. Arthur Stevenson followed in an hour's address, in which he reviewed the record of the Ross Government and its electoral crimes. He referred particularly to the famous Minnie M. expedition, of the pluggers at the Sault, the South Oxford case, and Jackson's famous complicity and reward in connection therewith, the disfranchisement of North Renfrew, the North Grey case in which a member of the Ministry, Hon. A. G. MacKay, was concerned, the West Elgin frauds, and the burning of the ballots, as well as several other cases of flagrant crookedness which had brought disgrace and dishonor to the Province. He said that Ross had been unable to govern with his majority of 4 obtained in 1902, and was now in a minority by reason of the courts declaring several ridings vacant, the honest voice of the people having been set aside by the work of 'Cap' Sullivan, James Vance and others of the Ontario machine. Every resort had been tried to stave off an election and every dodge practised, but the props or piles under the Premier's house had been knocked out one by one and now the structure had toppled over. He was now asking the people to build him a new house, but they would refuse, and on the 25th of this month would place the Ross outfit in Opposition. Mr. Stevenson said the Liberals were trying to cover up their black career in matters Provincial, by making counter charges of corruption against the Conservatives, but the record of the two parties for the past three years was well known and the cry would not have any effect. The Ross administration had profited by the stolen goods and would now have to pay the penalty. Mr. Whitney stood for the uplifting of Ontario morally and materially, and in the last election had given him 7,000 majority of the popular vote of the Province. The Conservatives stood for a pure ballot and an honest count, the end of machine rule and the termination of the Ross system and its frauds. On a policy of development, progress, reform and popular freedom he asked all to support Mr. Bradburn on the 25th inst.

The closing address was given by Mr. G. B. VanBlaricom, after which the meeting broke up with ringing cheers for the King, Mr. Whitney and the Conservative candidate.

AT BUCKHORN.

In the evening a rousing meeting was held in the Loyal True Blue hall at Buckhorn. Over fifty electors from North Smith and South Harvey assembled to hear the issues of the day discussed. Mr. John Jones ably occupied the chair. The meeting was an enthusiastic one and speeches were delivered by Mr. Bradburn, Mr. Arthur Stevenson, Mr. Geo. W. Fitzgerald and Mr. G. B. VanBlaricom. Mr. Fitzgerald pointed out that Mr. McWilliams, a few weeks ago, sent out addresses asking the support of the electors as an independent candidate, and now he was asking their votes as a Liberal, but the people would not be deceived by such a course. He had been over the riding and he felt sure that Mr. Bradburn would win on election day in the interest of good clean, honest government. The meeting closed at 10.30 o'clock with three rousing cheers for the King, Mr. Whitney, and Mr. Bradburn.

BRIEF NEWS NOTES.

What is Taking Place in Peterborough and Its Vicinity.

—Ask your grocer for a box of Paterson's Baby Sodas.

—A report of the T.A.S. vs. Keene hockey match will be found on page three.

—Remember the Whitney meeting in the market hall on Thursday night.

—Have you tried Paterson's Baby Sodas? If not, try a box.

—Alfred McDonald, lumberman, is on a visit to his camp and limits near Lake Katchecum.

—"The finest musical treat in town's history" says Brighton Ensign in referring to Victoria College Glee and Mandolin Club's concert—Opera House next Thursday.

—Messrs. J. J. Turner & Sons' are decorating the market hall for the big Conservative meeting on Thursday night, when Mr. J. P. Whitney will speak.

—The Rev. Dr. Withrow's Programme of Travel for 1905 has come to hand. It is a handsomely illustrated pamphlet. It will be sent free on application. See advertisement.

—Quite a large number of horsemen are in town to-day to attend the meet under the auspices of the Peterborough Turf Club. The races are being held this afternoon and to-morrow afternoon.

—Mr. T. C. Elliot, of the Beehive and Port Hope Knitting Works has purchased the premises occupied by Mr. H. H. Edmison, druggist, from the Toronto Loan & Savings Co. The figure is said to be about $12,000. Mr. Edmison will continue to occupy his present store.

—The Faithful Workers' Mission of St. Paul's church have secured Rev. J. W. Pedley, of Toronto, to give his popular lecture on "Mrs. Wiggs, of the Cabbage Patch," in the school room of the church on Friday evening, January 20th, at eight o'clock. Admission 15 cents. 3d

—It is rumored that the Sovereign Bank of Canada will shortly establish a branch in Peterborough. Negotiations for the lease of suitable premises are said to be under way. With the advent of the Sovereign the town will have five branches of chartered banks.

—The country roads are very heavy and the pathways on most of the leading thoroughfares drift full of snow faster than they can be broken. In many places it is dangerous to turn out for fear of upsets. Several cords of wood may be noticed dumped along the road between Peterborough and Chemong, and also on the Lakefield line. It is difficult for the driver to steer a heavily loaded sleigh through some of the high snow banks, and not have an upset.

Here's Something to Read.

Hon. Mr. Justice J. J. MacLaren says "I hear nothing but highest praise and warmest appreciation from those qualified to judge" in referring to Victoria College Glee and Mandolin Clubs. The treat of the season on Thursday. Plan now open at Ormond & Walsh's.

Is There a Santa Claus?

Until children reach the mature age of six they are very much troubled to know whether there is or is not a Santa Claus. Willie Jones, wise with the burden of ten years, declared, "There ain't no such thing!" while mamma says there is, because she saw him when she was a little girl.

It seems strange to wise grownups that even young children should take stock in silly stories of Santa Claus flying through the air with reindeers and coming down the chimney, but let us e'er we swell up with pride over our superiority remember that it is but a few generations back that the entire race believed much sillier things in regard to ghosts and fairies.

Perhaps if the average man would examine closely his own private superstitions he would find they would no more bear the light of reason than will merry old Santa Claus.

NEGLECT THE COLD AND CONSUMPTION FINDS AN EASY STARTING POINT—YOU CAN CURE THE COLD BY USING

DR. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED AND TURPENTINE.

If you check the cold you prevent consumption.

By the use of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine you can cure the cold and avoid the risk to serious developments.

It loosens the coughs, aids expectoration, clears the choked up air passages, heals the raw and inflamed membranes and thoroughly cures the cold.

There are many newer medicines than Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, but few that have been so long before the public, and and none with such a grand record of success—of success in curing disease and consequent enormous sales.

Especially in the treatment of croup, bronchitis and severe chest colds this great prescription of Dr. Chase has easily taken the lead. It is far more than an ordinary cough mixture, and can be depended on even in the most serious cases.

Don't be satisfied with new and untried remedies, when you can obtain Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine from any dealer at 25 cents a bottle.

Mr. John Clark, coachman, Port Hope, Ont., states:—"Being exposed to all sorts of weather I frequently catch cold. Last winter I was so bad with a cold that I could not speak above a whisper and had great pains in the chest. At last I feared it would develop into consumption if I did not succeed in getting proper treatment.

"A friend advised me to try Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine and I began to improve before I had taken half a bottle. One bottle cured my cold, which I believe would have proven very serious if I had not used this medicine."

To protect you against imitations, the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box.

SELECTIONS

WE ALL EAT TOO MUCH.

A College Professor's Decision After a Series of Experiments.

As the result of his exhaustive experiments with a squad of United States soldiers doing heavy gymnasium work under restricted diet Professor Chittenden of Yale concludes that most people eat too much.

The men were worked hard in gymnasium and gained steadily and greatly in strength while they were being fed far less than the average diet.

They were called the "starvation squad," but their photographs taken at the close of the experiment do not look like those of starving men, rather like those of competent gymnasts. Says Professor Chittenden in his recently published "Physiological Economy in Nutrition:" "Our results justify the conviction that the minimal proteid requirements of the healthy man under ordinary conditions of life are far below the generally accepted dietary standards and far below the amounts called for by the acquired tastes of the generality of mankind. The amount of proteid or albuminous food needed daily for the actual physiological wants of the body is not more than one-half of the proteid food ordinarily consumed by the average man. Body weight (when once adjusted to the new level), health, strength, mental and physical vigor and endurance can be maintained with at least one-half of the proteid food ordinarily consumed."

Proteids are the chemical elements that most people get by a meat diet, though beans, peas and some other vegetables are also strong in proteids. Eat less meat is the practical equivalent of Professor Chittenden's advice.

It has often been noticed by amateur mountaineers that Adirondack guides and Swiss mountain men eat less solid food than the average Wall street broker, who does little physical labor.—New York World.

Profit Sharing Up to Date.

Up Boston way a well known retail furnishing goods store has introduced a decidedly novel system of refunding money to purchasers. A few days ago this New England enterprise announced that in honor of its s'teenth anniversary a departure from conventional methods would be made. The annual date was duly observed by offering something for nothing in every department. In other words, "extra special" bargains were available at every counter.

On the morrow this proclamation was published:

"Lucky day was yesterday. All persons having made purchases in our store on November — upon presentation of their sale slips will receive back in cash every cent spent here on that day. Present them at the cashier's desk. The treat is on us. This is our birthday gift to you."

Can "down east" be eclipsed?—New York Press.

The Use and Supply of Radium.

It is a far cry at present to discuss the use of radium or radium salts for illuminating or heating purposes. I do not suppose there is one-tenth of an ounce of radium in the whole world. If you can imagine getting that amount of radium together it would supply more energy than 250 tons of dynamite. Few persons who talk about radium and its components realize the great scarcity of the raw material for yielding radium of the exceeding minute particles used in the experiments that have astounded the world. It is impossible to say where the future supply of raw material is to come from. I believe that in America carnotite looks promising as a basis for it. Cleavite, a mineral found in Norway, is also looked upon as a favorite source of supply.—Sir William Ramsay in Scientific American.

Gaudy Shoes.

Probably the most remarkable shoes ever produced within recent times were those worn at a function in London the other day by a woman well known in society. In keeping with a gorgeous gown, which is said to have cost a fabulous sum, she wore a pair of shoes that were literally covered with flashing jewels—diamonds, rubies and pearls. The style of decoration was of a remarkably striking character. Five hundred dollars was the price of each shoe.

Such decoration of shoes is a return to the fashion of the middle ages, when extravagance and gaudy display were the chief characteristic pertaining to footwear in common with other things.

The Last of the Twelve.

Thirty-four years ago France was ruled by the government of the national defense, which consisted of twelve of the best known members of the opposition under the empire. Among them were such famous names as Leon Gambetta, Jules Simon, Jules Favre and General Trochu. Eleven of the twelve are dead now, and most of them are forgotten. The last survivor is Henri Rochefort, who in his time has been journalist, convict, member of the government and Boulangist.

Breakfast In London.

Breakfast is perhaps the only unpleasant item of a London winter. You come down every morning to the same yellow eggs on the table and the same yellow fog outside, while the male thing opposite makes the same gloomy comments upon what is in the papers until the average woman is reduced to the lowest depths of depression.—Ladies' Field.

GIVEN THE HIGHEST AWARD AND GOLD MEDAL AT ST. LOUIS EXPOSITION, 1904

MELODY DIVINE

By BELLE MANIATES

Copyright, 1904, by Belle Maniates

Edith Wilmot looked into the open fire, whose soft glow intensified her clear cut features and softened the meditative restraint in her beautiful eyes. It was the night of her return home after an enforced absence abroad of six years, which time had been devoted to the care of an invalid father. Since his death had occurred, two years before, she had aimlessly traveled and visited, until now she had decided to open her old home, so long closed.

On Arnold Graves, organist of St. Paul's and teacher of piano, her young girlish fancy had centered its dreams. The two hours spent weekly under his tutelage before she had gone abroad had been very happy ones to her. She had met her teacher of music socially, and their friendship had been fast merging into a closer relation when fate had intervened in the shape of the family physician, who had ordered Mr. Wilmot to Switzerland, where their sojourn had been prolonged beyond their original plans.

Edith had carried on a spasmodic correspondence with Arnold Graves; but, owing to his sensitiveness, her natural restraint and the lack of propinquity, their relations had not changed.

Constantly on her journey home had come the question to her mind whether he would find in the woman of twenty-six what had seemed to please him in the girl of twenty. She had written to him en route and asked him to call that evening. He had done so, and now, after his departure, she sat before the fire musing on their meeting.

She had in these years sometimes feared lest her girlish inexperience had read him wrong and invested him with qualities that lived only in her own fancy. She thought she would almost prefer not to meet him again than to suffer the loss of her illusions. But now her broadened nature and wider experience found him to be all she had thought him—and more. She knew, too, that her youthful feeling for him had quickly and suddenly become something else—something that was stronger for its long duration. She never had felt quite sure of the place she occupied in his thoughts and feelings, but tonight she had seen a strange light in his eyes when he looked at her. Perchance the expression had been there in the days long ago and she had been too ignorant to translate it.

She had pursued her musical studies while abroad, and Arnold had asked her to come to his studio the next morning and play to him. She went at the appointed hour, and after playing a few selections there suddenly entered a most beautiful young girl.

"Miss Wilmot," introduced Graves, "let me present my ward and pupil, Miss Beth Forbes. I want you to hear her sing," he explained to Edith.

Then, turning to the girl, he asked her to go into the adjoining room and look for a certain aria.

He had written casually of a distant cousin who had been left to his guardianship, but she had supposed his ward to be a mere child. Beth returned with the music. So charmingly did she render the aria that Edith felt her heart going out to her, though with conflicting sensations. Riding home she sank listlessly back in the carriage with a dull throb of pain in her heart. She passed a most wretched day, full of sharpened doubts. It seemed to her that Beth lacked no charm and that no man could withstand such loveliness. Arnold's ruling passion was music, and he must love the girl for her voice alone.

She wondered if Beth cared for him. She had seen nothing in the girl's manner to indicate that she had anything more than an ordinary affection of a pupil for her teacher, but then she was young, and her innocent heart had probably not yet awakened. Edith found herself consumed with an intense curiosity to know more of Arnold's young protegee. Yielding to a sudden impulse, she sent Beth a note asking her to spend the following day with her.

Beth accepted eagerly, and, flattered by having aroused the interest of an older, more accomplished woman, she was responsive in the highest degree to Edith's advances.

In discussing a popular novel Beth naively asserted that the woman did not love the man.

"What do you know about love, Beth?" demanded Edith.

"Nothing; only from looking on. Arnold says that when I sing love songs I tear passion to tatters and that I never can express the song of the heart until I have been in love."

"They say a pupil never learns to sing until she falls in love with her teacher. Mr. Graves has taught you to sing, hasn't he?"

"Yes; he understands voice training. But I'll never learn to sing love songs if I have to fall in love with him first!"

"Do you think him so impossible then?"

"For me, yes! Arnold doesn't think of me as a person with an individuality. To him I am a voice. If I couldn't sing I'd be devoid of interest in his eyes. He regards me as a scientist does his specimens."

She paused for a reply. Receiving none, she continued:

"Did you ever hear any of his musical compositions?"

"Yes. They are exquisite."

"They have all been dainty, simple little numbers, but his last work is far different. It is classical."

"Has it been published?"

"Not yet. He has just finished it. I'll tell you what we'll do. He is coming for me tonight, you know. When we are driving this afternoon we'll stop at the house and get the score. I know where it is."

In the evening when Arnold came Beth told him that she had the manuscript of his music.

"I am not in the mood to play it tonight," he said, hesitating.

"You are not to play it," interposed Beth. "I have heard it in all its different stages of composition, and I have it at my fingers' ends."

She seated herself at the piano and commenced playing. She was not an artist in the rendering of instrumental music, but she had great power of expression and a wonderful faculty of interpreting the composer's thoughts.

There was a power and strength in the opening bars which melted into a brilliant vivacity of execution and then finally glided into soft, reflective minor strains. From this was evoked a phantasmagoria of all the human passions. Dark, fierce, turbid dreams, an impassioned recitative, a thrilling tragedy, a graceful, insinuating subtlety of thought, a song of peace, joy, sorrow—all were expressed in the tenderness of melody refined and subdued. The theme was noble, the composition strong, the emotion genuine and the intensity dramatic.

The grandeur of the work was softened and made human by an exquisitely beautiful strain that from a background of sustained harmony ever occurred.

When the last note died away there was a momentary silence like that which follows a benediction. Edith's face was ablaze with passion.

"The music divine," she said in a low tone.

Arnold rose and crossed the room, his face pale with excitement and agitation.

"Tell me," he said to Edith, and there was something in his voice that made her heart beat quickly, "what you think of it."

"It is hard to dissect such music as that," she replied softly. "There was a color tone in every note. I felt as if I were in a vast garden of flowers, overcome by a thousand scents."

Arnold looked at her curiously.

"I did not know," he said, "that you were poetic or imaginative, nor did I dream," turning to Beth, "that your fingers could be so expressive."

"I have sat in the dark many a time listening to you as you played it," she said. "I could have played it from memory without the notes. It is Arnold himself," she murmured in an aside to Edith, "Arnold as he lets no one see him. He composed it in broken fragments, one day a snatch of gay melody, then a weird little cadenza or a dainty gavot, according to his mood, but always he played a most beautiful little melody that seemed to be ever with him. The 'song of the heart, nicht wahr?' Then he blended all these compositions so skillfully that a beautiful and complete harmony resulted."

What is Japanese Catarrh Cure and how does it Permanently Cure Catarrh?

Japanese Catarrh Cure is an antiseptic, germicidal pomade. Powerful in its action on catarrh and hay fever germs, yet soothing and healing to the inflammed tissues of nose and throat. It is placed in the nostrils and the mere act of breathing carries the curative medication to every part of the diseased tissues. No atomizers, syringes or other appliances are required.

"I have been a constant sufferer from catarrh of a severe and disagreeable type for eight years, which became worse each winter, in spite of hundreds of dollars I spent with catarrh specialists and many remedies which only afforded temporary relief. I tried Japanese Catarrh Cure, and since completing this treatment, have not felt the least symptom of my' own trouble."

"Beth," laughed Arnold, "you are a very precocious child!"

The precocious child gave further evidence of her claim to the appellation by asserting that the music had its charms when heard at a distance in the dark.

"If you and Edith will retire to the little reading room I will play it again and convince you I am right," she said.

They acted upon her suggestion, and Beth again rendered the passionate music, smiling softly to herself.

"I fancy this time," she mused, "that Miss Wilmot will imagine herself in a garden of love instead of a garden of flowers."

When she had finished the composition her hands wandered idly over the keys in fragments of melody.

When they entered the music room Beth looked up quickly, and then, with a mischievous laugh, burst into a grand, triumphant wedding march.

There was a half whimsical, wholly loving expression in Edith's eyes as she kissed the young girl.

"You are a dear girl!" she murmured.

"And a good guesser?" she queried.

"Such a good guesser, Beth, that you shall sing at our wedding!"

The Tramp That Had to Take Water

A locomotive when taking water from a track tank looks as if it was going through a river. The water is dashed into spray and flies out on either side like the waves before a fast boat. Trainmen tell the story of a tramp who stole a ride on the front or "dead" end platform of the baggage car of a fast train. This car was coupled to the rear end of the engine tender. It was quite a long run, without stops, and the engine took water from a track tank on the way. When the train stopped the tramp was discovered prone on the platform of the baggage car, half drowned from the water thrown back when the engine took its drink on the run.

"Here, get off!" growled the brakeman. "What are you doing there?"

"All right, boss," sputtered the tramp. "Say," he asked after a moment, "what was that river we went through awhile ago?"—From "Stories of Inventors," by Russell Doubleday.

MOST FORMIDABLE AFFAIR.

Coal Miners Strike in Germany Interests All Classes.

Berlin, Jan. 17.—The strike of coal miners which began yesterday is the most formidable affair of the kind that Germany has ever had. There had been no serious trouble in the coal industries since the strike of 1889, but this strike far eclipses the one alluded to, all labor organizations taking part, whereas in 1889 only the Socialist unions were concerned. The present movement has been largely engineered by the so-called Christian unions, which otherwise oppose the Socialist element.

Commercial and financial classes are greatly concerned lest the strike is speedily settled. The Government is also deeply concerned and the Ministry is keeping the wires busy in communicating with the military and police authorities in the mining country. Chancellor Von Buelow had a long consultation on Monday in the Diet with a Government Commissioner who had just returned from Dortmund.

DEPENDS ON THE UNION.

John Mitchell Says Any Advance Depend On Miners Solidarity.

Indianapolis, Jan. 17.—In his address, Mine President Mitchell referred to the approaching termination of the joint agreements, saying: "It may not be amiss at this time to call your attention to the fact that one year from next April our joint agreements expire in practically every coal-producing district—both bituminous and anthracite—in the United States. Reference to the reports of commercial agencies and trade journals seems to indicate an approaching revival of business and a period of industrial activity. If these predictions are realized, we should be able to regain the loss in wages sustained one year ago, and to improve conditions of employment in those districts in which no reductions were forced upon us. It is, of course, necessary to say that our ability to make further advancement, or even to retain our present standard of living and wages, will depend in no small degree upon the strength and solidarity of our union."

BOTH SCHOOLS NOW CLOSED.

Bishop O'Connor Rebuked Those Who Opposed Separate Schools.

Lindsay, Jan. 17.—Both the Separate and Public Schools at Downeyville were closed yesterday. This is a result of the resignation of both teachers on account of a sermon preached in the village church Sunday by Bishop O'Connor, in which the bishop severely rebuked the Catholics who opposed the Separate School movement. A further result of the sermon is the desertion of the Public School cause by almost every Catholic who up till then endorsed it.

Indians and the G.T.P.

Fort William, Jan. 17.—S. Bray, surveyor-general of Indian Department, to-day will meet the natives of Mission Island for the purpose of negotiating a transfer of 1,600 acres of their land for railway purposes.

EAST, WEST AND SOUTH

United in One Respect.

There may be many differences of opinion regarding some subjects in sections of the country remote from each other, but there is none respecting the best remedy for piles, as witness the letters below:—

"I have been feeling so good I could hardly believe it, after suffering with piles for a year, to find that I am once more feeling like myself. I wish you could have seen me before I started using Pyramid Pile Cure, and look at me now, and you would say I am not the same man. I have gained 20 pounds, and all on account of Pyramid Pile Cure." Walter Sharkley, 56 Park-st., Springfield, Mass.

"I bought a fifty cent box of Pyramid Pile Cure and used as directed with the most unexpected results, a complete cure. I have been troubled with piles for thirty years and was in much distress and passed much blood, but at present am free from any kind of piles." F. McKay, Weaverville, Cal.

"Pyramid Pile Cure has been worth thousands of dollars to me; it cured me after using numbers of other remedies, and taking medicines from doctors. It also cured my son, although he could hardly walk, eat or sleep; he is now all right." B. Springfellow, Postmaster, Elko, S.C.

One thousand dollars is offered by the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., to any one who will show the above testimonials to be not genuine.

Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists for fifty cents a package, and every sufferer should buy a package and try it to-night, being careful to accept no substitutes, and bearing in mind the fact that there is nothing else "just as good."

THE ADDRESS IN REPLY

The House of Commons Passes It In An Afternoon.

One of the Shortest Debates in the Speech On Record—Only E. M. McDonald, George Parent, Hon. G. E. Foster, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and W. F. Maclean Take Part—Important Announcements and Deluge of Blue Books.

Ottawa, Jan. 17.—One of the shortest debates on the speech from the throne on record terminated at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The participants in the discussion were E. M. McDonald and George Parent, the mover and the seconder of the address, Hon. G. E. Foster, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and W. F. Maclean. The debate covered a somewhat wide range considering the material of the speech. Mr. Foster attacked the Government in various features of its policy. In his reply Sir Wilfrid displayed all his old-time cunning in debate and in a speech of 25 minutes managed to put a very respectable face on his Government's record. W. F. Maclean laid down some new lines of policy.

Deluge of Blue Books.

The wind-up of the proceedings of the House yesterday was made the occasion of several more or less important announcements and a deluge of blue books and returns. Sir Wilfrid Laurier stated that he would to-day give the House the information asked for by the member for South York in regard to the vacancy on the Railway Commission.

The appointment, it is learned, will go to Justice Killam of the Supreme Court. Judge Killam will remain on the Supreme Court till the middle of next month.

Sir Wilfrid moved that Charles Marcil, member for Bonaventure, be appointed chairman of the committee of the whole, and this was carried.

Mr. Foster wanted to know when the Auditor-General's report would be ready. He was reminded by the Premier that the Auditor-General was allowed 14 days after the opening of Parliament in which to present his report.

First Reading Moved.

W. F. Maclean moved the first reading of his bill to amend the Railway Act. The bill relates to reduced passenger fares, the admission of independent telephone companies to railway stations on equitable terms, bringing express companies under the jurisdiction of the Railway Commission, and affirming majority rule in all cases before the Railway Commission.

More Pay For Police.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier gives notice of the following increases in pay of the Northwest Mounted Police: Commissioner of Police $3,000 per annum, assistant commissioners $2,000, superintendent $1,800, inspectors $1,400, surgeons and assistant surgeons $1,800, veterinary surgeons $1,400, four staff sergeants $2 per day each, other staff sergeants $1.75, other non-coms. $1.25, constables $1, special constables and scouts $4.50, burglers, under 18 years, 50c, working pay to artisans 75c, with extra pay and allowances to the police in the Yukon and unorganized territories.

WHITNEY AT RENFREW.

Lauds Party Government When Its Ideals Are High, But Ross Government Has Fallen.

Renfrew, Jan. 17.—J. P. Whitney addressed a crowded meeting here last night in the interests of T. W. McGarry, who is for the second time contesting the riding with Hon. Frank Latchford, this time with splendid prospects of success. Mr. Whitney was accorded an enthusiastic reception. For over an hour and a half the Opposition leader, who was in fine fettle, addressed the gathering, which crowded to overflowing the largest hall in town. At the start Mr. Whitney spoke on the benefits and advantages of party Government. Ontario, he said, owed much to both parties, but the Liberal party it had reason to be grateful to was the one of by-gone years, which politically and morally alike was far above the Government of Premier Ross. It behooved every voter who has the fair name of the Province at heart to vote with the Conservative party to oust the present machine-made aggregation. Dealing with the policy of the Conservative party, Mr. Whitney took up agriculture and education. Assistance in horse breeding and the establishment of half a dozen agricultural schools would, amongst other matters, occupy the early attention of the Opposition leader and his party if placed in power.

PREMIER ROSS AT GUELPH.

Hugh Guthrie, M.P., Hissed For His Reference to Mr. Downey.

Guelph, Jan. 17.—Hon. Geo. W. Ross addressed a mass meeting at the Royal Opera House last night in the interests of A. W. Tyson, the Liberal candidate. It was a very stormy meeting, the speakers being frequently interrupted by adverse criticisms from the audience, which numbered nearly 1,500 people. The speakers were Mr. Ross, Hugh Guthrie, M.P., and the candidate. Mr. Tyson spoke briefly, dealing principally with his connection with the Winter Fair and the farming interests. Mr. Guthrie's speech was marked by prolonged hisses and voices of dissent, and several times he was called upon to sit down. These actions on the part of members of the audience arose out of Mr. Guthrie's attacks upon Mr. Downey. Mr. Ross defended his Government against the attacks of Mr. Whitney and the Conservative party. His speech was largely along the lines of his previous campaign efforts. Mr. Ross did not touch upon the Soo scandal, the Gamey case or the West Hastings ballot box frauds. Suggestions from the audience that these cases be explained went unheeded.

LIBEL AND SLANDER.

Ottawa Barrister Sues The Globe and Hon. Frank Latchford For $25,000.

Ottawa, Jan. 17.—A writ for $25,000 damages for slander was issued yesterday against Hon. Frank Latchford by J. U. Vincent, an Ottawa French-Canadian barrister. The action arises out of the utterances attributed to the Hon. Mr. Latchford last week at his Dublin meeting in South Renfrew. It will be remembered that Mr. Latchford was credited by The Toronto Globe with having said that A. E. Thompson, Ottawa, organizer for McGarry, the Conservative candidate in South Renfrew, had driven through the riding with an Ottawa barrister and had offered a Liberal $100 to change his allegiance. Thompson's answer was a $25,000 writ for slander against Hon. Mr. Latchford and an action for a similar amount against The Globe for libel. Then The Globe amended its report to read that Thompson had driven with an Ottawa barrister, who had made the offer.

On Saturday Mr. Vincent learned that he was the only Ottawa lawyer who had driven in the riding with Thompson. He immediately got the necessary legal machinery in motion and yesterday a writ was issued against Hon. Mr. Latchford. The formal notice claiming $25,000 damages for libel was sent The Globe last night.

Mr. Vincent gives the statement by Hon. Mr. Latchford an emphatic and unqualified denial.

As Liberal Labor Man Nominated.

Toronto, Jan. 17.—The Liberals of South Toronto last night decided to place in nomination for the Local House John J. Hunter, a prominent labor man, and member of Typographical Union, No. 91. The convention was held in Broadway Hall and was chiefly remarkable in that the assemblage was almost entirely composed of the rank and file of the party, those who have been usually considered leaders being conspicuous by their absence.

Liberal Worker Prosecuted.

London, Jan. 17.—The trial of Martin Quinn, charged with perjury and impersonation in the recent Dominion election in this city, began yesterday. The trial was not concluded.

PUGILIST WANTED TO DIE.

Cut His Throat With a Razor and Resisted Constable.

Winnipeg, Jan. 17.—With a gaping wound in his throat, inflicted with a razor, which he still held in his hand, Sam Cannon, ex-prize fighter and former sparring partner of Frank Slavin on the Pacific Coast, lay on his bed in his lodging house on Main street, at noon yesterday and fought with those who attempted to take the weapon from him. He seemed fiendishly determined to add to the horror of his attempt to terminate his life. The constable called to the scene had a protracted struggle with the muscular pugilist before he could wrest the razor from him. He was suffering from a derangement of the mind, caused by injuries which he had received when very young, and which have been aggravated by blows which he sustained in a fight with a Mounted Policeman at Regina a year ago.

ARCH ENEMY OE MANKIND.

Who it is and How to Escape His Clutches.

Save Yourself To-day.

The arch enemy of human life is not Satan, but Pneumonia.

Consumption may number its thousands, but Pneumonia its tens of thousands; and, besides, it's much quicker in doing its deadly work. A person may catch cold, get Pneumonia and die in two or three days.

The only safeguard is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

They will, if taken in time, prevent Pneumonia from developing.

But, of course, if you wait too late, from a really bad attack nothing can save you.

That's why we lay so much stress on the fact that a common cold is such a dangerous thing to neglect.

You never know what may come of it.

And, nowadays, when we have at hand, in Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, such a safe, certain and perfect cure for a cold, there is no excuse whatever for letting it run along.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets act directly upon the mucous membranes of the body, the inflammation of which is generally called "Catarrh," which inflammation is nearly always caused in the first place, by a cold.

As soon as you begin to sneeze, and your eyes and nose begin to run, fly for relief to Stuart's Catarrh Tablets. They will not fail you.

Cases of chronic, long-standing catarrhal trouble, accompanied by discharge from nose and throat, coughing, hawking, spitting, offensive breath, indigestion, irritation of the stomach or bowels, are also easily cured by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

In cases of long standing, however, a cure cannot be expected in a day, as it will take some time to build up the weakened, inflamed and flabby membranes to their original tonic state of health.

It will take time, but perseverance will win the day—if assisted by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

It is important, however, to remember to ask Stuart's.

No others are genuine.

No other tablets, or any other medicine, will give you the real, positive, permanently curative results that Stuart's will.

Try them.

All druggists sell them at 50 cents a box.

Not Very Crazy.

A nobleman against whom insanity was imputed by his relatives was asked during examination by Lord Loughborough, "How many legs has a sheep?"

"Does your lordship mean a live or a dead sheep?" asked the nobleman.

"Is it not the same thing?" said the chancellor.

"No, my lord, there is much difference. A live sheep has four legs, a dead sheep but two. The others are shoulders."

Seven to One

That is about the ratio. About seven times as many persons are injured as die from all causes yearly.

Accidents are a more prolific cause of death than any disease except lung diseases.

Twice as many people are accidently killed as die of old age. Does it not seem reasonable to you as a business man that it would be to your interest to carry an accident policy?

YOU are subject to over two hundred diseases, and liable to accidents without number.

Official figures prove that One Man in Five carrying an Accident and Sickness Policy makes a claim for indemnity each year.

YOU have no guarantee that you will not be the One Man who will be disabled this year.

BLOOD POISON

On account of its terrible effects, blood disease is called the king of all diseases. It may be either hereditary or contracted; so while it may not be a crime to have the disease, it is a crime to permit it to remain in the system. It may manifest itself in the form of Scrofula, Eczema, rheumatic pains, stiff or swollen joints, itchiness of the skin, eruptions or blotches, ulcers in the mouth or on the tongue, sore throat, falling out of hair, disordered stomach, and a general depression of the system. If you have any of these symptoms don't neglect yourself. You have no time to lose. Beware of "old fogy" treatment—beware of mineral poisons—beware of Quacks and Fakirs. OUR NEW METHOD TREATMENT is guaranteed to cure this disease, never to return. Bank Bonds will protect you. Our treatment is not injurious in any way, but reaches the very root of the disease and eliminates all poison from the system. The symptoms of disease gradually disappear. The blood becomes pure and enriched, the whole system is cleansed and purified, and the patient feels prepared anew for the duties and the pleasures of life. If You Don't Buy Here We Both Lose Money

Another year has gone. It's pleasant to tell of sales far beyond all previous year's, for they indicate general prosperity as well as the progress of this store. But to you such growth means more still; it tells unmistakably of the increasing attractiveness of our Fur Goods and also the drawing power of our Fur Prices. The bigger the manufacturing business the lower the cost of production, consequently "If you don't buy here we both lose money." Just now we call attention to our extra fine showing of—

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGED AGAINST FOUR SCIENTISTS

Jury Believes Wallace Goodfellow Would Have Lived With Proper Treatment.

WHAT POSTMORTEM EXAMINATION SHOWED

Recommendation That if the Law Does Not Reach This Class of Christian Scientists it Should be Amended to Cover Such —Police Court Proceedings Will Follow.

Toronto, Jan. 17.—We find that Wallace Goodfellow came to his death, Jan. 4, 1905, at 61½ Vanauley street, from typhoid fever, and upon the evidence it shows culpable negligence on the part of Mrs. Sarah Goodfellow, Mrs. Grant, Edward Brundrette, and Mrs. Lee.

And we believe them to be guilty of gross manslaughter; and we further believe that deceased would have recovered if he had had proper nursing and medical treatment, as shown by the percentage of deaths from this disease.

We further recommend that if the law does not reach this class of Christian Scientists it should be amended to cover such.

We also think that medical men should be more careful in the issuing of death certificates, as many cases are not investigated.

Dr. Carveth Criticised.

The above verdict was returned by Coroner Cotton's jury after midnight after hearing the evidence of Dr. Carveth, who was severely criticized by the coroner for his ready issuing of a death certificate; Drs. Caven and Johnston, who conducted the postmortem examination, and Mrs. Goodfellow, mother of the deceased.

Crown Attorney Drayton stated that no warrants would be issued, but that summonses would be served on the persons named in the finding, and police court proceedings will follow. The determined wording of the verdict leaves little doubt that the case will result in a bitter fight, as all who believe in Christian Science will be inclined to consider that they are all more or less on trial.

Dr. Carveth's Testimony.

Dr. Carveth stated that Goodfellow was seriously ill when he was called to see him, and was partly unconscious. The people in his room told the doctor that he had been at work three weeks before, and had been attended by Dr. Riordon up to eight days previously. Mrs. Taylor had told him that the death was in the hands of the coroner, and when he met Wallace Goodfellow's brother, who asked him for a certificate of death, he told him that there might be trouble, for if the case was in the coroner's hands, the certificate could not be used.

What Postmortem Showed.

Dr. Caven read his post-mortem examination, which showed that death was due to typhoid. The system showed an attempt to heal itself. Considering that he was up and walking around, the effect would be to destroy his chances of life. The exertion was making demands on his life that the system was not able to stand.

Dr. Johnston said that he understood the young man did not receive any treatment. The post-mortem showed that he had died from typhoid and was through the worst of it. Had he had treatment to keep his heart going he would most probably have lived. Broths and things of that kind, given as treatment, would increase the danger of the case, and lemonade was the next thing to death.

Mr. Robinette, counsel for the accused, asked what caused death.

"Exhaustion," replied Dr. Johnston.

"What caused exhaustion?" queried the lawyer.

"Want of nourishment," said the doctor.

"He was given nourishment," suggested the lawyer.

"That kind of nourishment would kill him," was the reply. "Had he had reasonable treatment he would no doubt have lived."

Liquor and Other Stimulants.

";Are there not some doctors who don't give liquor?" asked Mr. Robinette.

"I thought that question had been threshed out long ago and that liquor is recognized as a good stimulant," said Dr. Johnston, "but there are men who do not give liquor. They give strychnine, of course."

"Is not beef tea a stimulant?" suggested Mr. Robinette.

"Beef tea is not a stimulant in typhoid."

Mrs. Goodfellow was put through a two hours' examination, in which she gave very little evidence that is new. She said that it was her son's desire that a doctor should not be called in, and that he could have gone to the hospital had he wanted to. Mrs. Lee, a Christian Scientist, was called in and was paid $1 a day for treatment. Brundrette got $1 a day until Mrs. Lee came. Mrs. Grant got nothing.

Mrs. Stewart could not be found, and the subpoena left at her home several days ago is still awaiting her. The officers were informed that she had left the city on a visit and would not be back for a few days.

The Daily Review

TUESDAY, JAN. 17, 1905.

HOCKEY GOSSIP.

What the Puck Chasers Are Doing, or Are Going to Do.

An agreement was reached yesterday between Lindsay and Port Perry in regard to the protested game. Port Perry wired Manager O'Neil, of Lindsay, yesterday asking Lindsay to play the game over again in Port Perry giving Lindsay all expenses and guaranteeing to have the rink well lighted. Lindsay accepted the terms.

The Young Nationals easily defeated the Rough Riders last night by 12—1, the half time score being 6—0.

Cobourg, 1—Peterborough, 0.

The Peterborough juniors lost their third successive game away from home last night, and, as usual, made a fine showing, although defeated. The score last evening was 1—0 in favor of Cobourg. At half time neither team had scored. It was very close all the way through and the teams were about as evenly matched a pair as could be seen in a day's journey. The game was characterized by hard, desperate playing, but was not very rough, Referee Brown, of Toronto, having the players under control all the way through. The only goal of the game was scored about the middle of the second half. The Peterborough team worked like Trojans to tie the score, but it was not to be. The Cobourg defence was proof against all attacks and no change was made in the score.

The Peterborough team was as follows:—

Goal—Fitzpatrick.
Point—Moore.
Cover Point—Long.
Rover—McWilliams.
Centre—McFarlane.

Lindsay has protested the game played at Port Perry because of the bad lighting of the rink. They state in their protest that there were only ten lights in the rink, and they played only not to disappoint the spectators.

Referee McCord, who acted at Belleville Friday night, reports that both teams are very fast, and will take a lot of beating. It was a great game and Belleville just pulled out, scoring two goals in the last minute of play, and winning by 6 to 5. The Port Hope cover point was ruled off just before the last two goals were scored.

The Karnot hockey team will play a practice game with the Colonials to-night at the Brock-st. rink from 10 to 11. The following players are asked to be on hand at 9.45 sharp—Dormer, Quinn, Gilman, Campbell, Mulhern, Grose and Kingscote.

The Y.M.C.A. seniors will now accept the challenges of the following teams—

McWilliams' Clear Grits, West Ends Fifth Ward Juniors, Junior Edisons or the Up Town Hustlers. The challengers to get the ice as soon as possible.

The team will line up for the season as follows—

Goal—Garside.
Point—Cressman.
Cover Point—Loomis.
Rover—Wilson.
Centre—Bell.
Right Wing—Dobson.

Did you ever hear such a mass of misrepresentation and falsehoods as the following letter, which appeared in last evening's Lindsay Post—

"I am disappointed that the report of the game did not give the people of Lindsay a more accurate idea of the rotten usage given our team by the Peterborough players, the well-laid plans for the knocking out of our best players being only worthy of the prize ring. The fact that Peterborough has only six players is well known and that the Association rules will permit them to place Chris. Graham or some other figurehead on the ice until the game gets started, and then remove him with a broken skate, or something else in order to displace a man from the other side and force opponents to play with a crippled team, is to be deplored. Of course any club with decency or love of sport would not stoop to such unsportsmanlike conduct but Peterborough was never noted for either. For Wasson, Meagher and Glover we have nothing but complimentary things to say, but that fellows like Crowley, Morgan and Cavanah should be allowed to deliberately assault the players of an opposing team in a manner which, if occurring off the ice would land them in gaol for six months, is what I can't understand. The fact that Crowley got one minute for landing Reilly in dreamland with one blow of his stick, and a cruel cross check while the man was falling, goes to show in what lax manner the rules are dealt with by such a referee as Chaucer Elliott.

"With no defence except a cover-point, with two crippled forwards, one with both eyes closed, Lindsay ended one of the worst exhibitions of "rough house" game ever witnessed, and impossible anywhere outside of Peterborough.—Yours, etc.

"PLAYER."

Lindsay, Jan. 16th, '05.

Why in the world can't a Lindsay team take a beating like sports? When they lost in baseball it was always because of the hoodlum tactics of the crowd or because the umpire was rotten. It seems to be the same in hockey. The story of how Crowley put Reilly out of business is getting worse every day. By the end of the week the Post will probably be telling its readers that Reilly was stabbed with a knife. The real facts of the case were that Reilly was given a heavy body check by Crowley. It was a hard one, perhaps, but nothing more than occurs a dozen times in every hotly contested game.

Following are the practice hours at All Saints' rink—

Monday—7 to 8 St. John's, 8 to 9 Charlotte-st., 9 to 10 All Saints'.
Tuesday—7 to 8 Earl Greys.
Wednesday—7.15 to 8.15 Guild League Match.
Thursday—7.15 to 8.15 Guild League match.
Friday—7 to 8 Charlotte-st.
Saturday—5 to 6 Earl Greys, 7 to 8 All Saints'.

In all probability there will be no City League games on Thursday night the matches being postponed for a while. The Lindsay Collegiate Institute will likely play the Karnots here on that date.

ANGLICAN YOUNG PEOPLE

The First Meeting of New Year Very Enjoyable.

The regular meeting of St. John's Y.P.A. was held last evening in the school house. Being the first meeting of the new year, the meeting took the form of a passing party, everyone bring some article they most desired to see the last of, and these articles were to be bartered and exchanged. It proved to be a model form of entertainment, keeping the crowd in excellent humor all the time. There were also New Year's resolutions, every one to start their resolve with the initial of their own name and a prize awarded for the best set of resolutions, one for the ladies and one for the gentlemen. The prizes were awarded to Miss L. Pratt and Mr. B. Broad. The judges were Miss Layfield, Miss Hetherington and Miss I Wesley, who performed their work in a most efficient man. Other enjoyable features of the evening were solos by Miss R. Dawson and Mr. B. Broad. Both were heartily encored. Refreshments were then served by the young people and the evening brought to a close. All enjoyed themselves immensely. The next meeting will be held on Monday evening, January 30th, when Mr. R. M. Dennistoun will delivered a lecture, entitled "Jean Valjean." Everyone made welcome.

A. A. COX'S ESTATE.

Letters of probate have been granted to the National Trust Company, and Hon. Geo. A. Cox, executors of the estate of the late Aaron A. Cox, of Peterborough. The estate is valued at $35,100, as follows—

Household goods and furniture, $2,000; book debts and promissory notes, $1,500; bank shares and other stocks, $1,100; real estate, $30,500.

The income of the estate is to be paid to the widow during her life. Upon her death an equal division is to be made among the twelve children of the deceased.

DIED.

GLASS.—In Peterborough, on Sunday, January 15th, Robert Glass, aged 86 years.

The funeral will take place to-morrow, Wednesday morning, at 10.30, from the residence of Mrs. C. S. Curran, corner Smith and Water-sts., and proceed to the Little Lake cemetery.

Remember Whitney meeting, Market Hall, Thursday night, Jan. 19th.

OFFICERS INSTALLED

Supreme Vice-President of Sons of England Was Present.

The Supreme Vice-President of the Sons of England, Mr. Jas. Boxall, Lindsay, installed the officers of Lansdowne Lodge last evening, assisted by District Deputy Davis, of Lindsay. The officers are:—

Past President—Bro. H. L. Beal.
President—Bro. F. Kitney.
Vice-Pres.—Bro. G. G. Pratley.
Fin.-Sec.—Bro. S. A. Oke.
Rec.-Sec.—Bro. A. Kingscote.
Chaplain—Bro. G. Tovey.
First Committeeman—Bro. W. Taylor.
Second Committeeman—Bro. J. A. Brown.
Third Committeeman—Bro. R. A. Shepherd.
Fourth Committeeman—Bro. J. Downing.
Fifth Committeeman—Bro. W. W. Gray.
Sixth Committeeman—Bro. James Collins.
Inside Guard—Bro. F. Thomas.
Outside Guard—Bro. S. Coveney.
Physician—Dr. Young.

All of the officers made short speeches, and an address was delivered by the Supreme Vice-President and District Deputy. These gentlemen were afterwards entertained to an oyster supper at the Palm Gardens.

LOCAL LINERS

—Paterson's Baby Sodas are as short as pie crust

—Committee of the Whole and Fire, Water and Light Committee will meet tonight.

—Mr. C. W. Spencer, Master of Transportation, C. P. R., is in town today, conferring with representatives of the Council and other parties interested, with regard to the Meldrum siding on Simcoe street, and other work.

—At St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, Rev. Father McColl united in marriage Patrick O'Brien, of Galway, and Miss Mary Jane Reid, daughter of the late John Reid, of town. The bride was assisted by her sister, Miss Annie Reid, and Mr. Geo. O'Brien, brother of the groom, was best man. Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien left today for North Dakota, where they will reside.

THREE BOGUS FIVES.

During the past few days more bogus money has come to light. John Malone of Ward Five and John Kerr, of the same place, both merchants, received a bogus five yesterday and it seems have little knowledge of where they came from. The bills are of the usual Bank of Montreal type, have the same date and series mark, but are numbered differently. A George-st. boot and shoe merchant also took in one of the bogus bills on Saturday, but when he discovered it among some small bills yesterday he remembered where it came from. The person, who had apparently unknowingly passed it, was not inclined to make good, claiming that had not had it in his possession. He was finally convinced, however, on the one being brought before the magistrate, and the merchant received the genuine article in exchange.

PLEASING CONCERT

Mission Band Entertained Its Friends in Park St. Methodist Church.

The programme of the Mission Band concert was given for the second time last night in the Park-st. church with marked success.

Rev. A. H. Brace presided. The ten year old elocutionist, Edna Boyes was repeatedly encored. The church and school room were crowded and standing room was at a premium.

Rev. W. J. Jolliffe, B.C.L., gave the address of the evening, basing his remarks on S.S. 5.3. "I have put off my coat how shall I put it on." His speech was logical, interesting and practical and was much enjoyed.

The success of the evening is largely due to Miss M. Mann, the president, the Misses Edith and Mabel Gillespie, Gertie Buntin and Nelly Hudson.

A letter was read from the Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, M.A., expressing his regret at being unavoidably absent through mistake in day and promising his lecture at an early date.

—Have you tried Paterson's Baby Sodas? If not, try a box.

ALL READY FOR TOMORROW NIGHT

Great Mass Meeting To Be Addressed By Mr. Whitney.

SEATS FOR 2000 PEOPLE

Provided Market Hall—Public are Cordially Invited to Attend Particularly, the Ladies—Good Music will be Furnished—Attractive Decorations—Big Conservative Demonstration.

The capacious market hall is being handsomely decorated with flags, bunting and mottoes, with an attractive canopy over the large stage, which is on the west side, in preparation for tomorrow night's big rally in the interests of Mr. Bradburn.

Col. J. P. Whitney, the Conservative leader, and Ontario's next premier, will be accorded a demonstration that willl rank as one of the greatest and most enthusiastic ever held in Peterborough.

Every preparation has been made for the reception to Mr. Whitney, and for seating the hundreds of people anxious to hear him. The building will be well heated. Chairs have been placed in position to accommodate nearly 2,000 persons.

Special provision has been made for the conveniences of the ladies and their escorts.

An orchestra, under the leadership of Mr. R. Gliddon, the efficient leader of the 57th Regiment Band, will provide music, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

The speakers will be Mr. Whitney, Mr. R. M. Dennistoun and Mr. Bradburn, the popular Conservative candidate.

In the absence of Mr. J. J. Lynch, President of the West Peterborough Libberal-Conservative Association, in Toronto, where he is detained on business, the chair will be occupied by Mr. James Kendry, ex-M.P.

Come one and all to the big demonstration and rousing mass meeting in the market hall tomorrow night and hear the great issues of the present campaign discussed in a calm, dignified and forceful manner, by the able and talented leader of the Conservative party in the banner province of Ontario, a man who is worthy of every confidence and support in his strong fight to give Ontario clean, honest and decent government—a man who also stands for a pure ballot, an honest count, and the upbuilding of this Province, morally and materially.

WORK FOR THEM NOW
VOTE FOR THEM JAN. 25

Build up Ontario Morally and Materially.

"The ballot is the medium through which the will of the Sovereign people is expressed; and he who lays unholy hands upon that sacred trust is as much a traitor as the man who aids the enemy of his king and his country."

CAMPAIGN ECHOES.

Well! they are off.

Bradburn and Moore are winners.

Vote for a secret ballot and an honest count.

The starting line was crossed at noon to-day, Mr. Bradburn in the lead.

This campaign is one of the honest voters against the proved fraud and corruption of the Liberals.

One more week, of hard, earnest work on the part of the Conservatives and West Peterborough will be redeemed.

Attend the big mass meeting in the market hall to-morrow night and join in the welcome to "Ontario's rightful premier."

Liberal newspapers are talking of Whitney's bad votes, but conveniently forget to state anything about Ross' bad record.

Mr. Whitney's characterization of Mr. Ross' deliberate and deceptive distortion of facts as "reckless Rossism" is particularly happy. It is an expression both happy and new.

The Grit organs persist in saying that no corruption of any kind has been traced to the cabinet. Where was the Gamey affair traced to, if not to the very centre of the Cabinet?

Mr. McWilliams three months ago posed as a stern, unrelenting independent when he could not capture the nomination of the Grits. Now he proclaims himself a life-long, consistent Liberal. Why?

In spite of his covert sneers in the Examiner about the "activity" and "persistency" of Mr. Bradburn's campaign, R. F. McWilliams is finding its quite strenuous enough to keep J. B. on the move from daylight until midnight.

Mr. R. C. Clute, K.C., who has drawn thousands of dollars in fees from the Ross Government for acting in Crown prosecutions in the courts, is announced to speak in Peterborough next Monday in the interests of Mr. McWilliams. Mr. Clute should be grateful to the Ross Government, for it has been exceedingly kind to him.

Mr. Graham, in his speech in the Opera House took great credit to the Government for the loan of $2,000,000 to the Sault companies. He didn't say anything about the large salaries that were paid out of the two millions. Thousands of dollars were paid to high salaried officers under color of relief to distressed workmen.

An honest man like P. D. Ross, of the Ottawa Journal will soon get sick of politics—if he allows the ebullitions of Grit editors to have any effect on him. Ebullition is defined as an effervescence which causes the liberation of gas. The Kingston Whig, Stratford Beacon and the Toronto Globe cannot answer Mr. Ross' arguments so they blackguard the man. It's an old trick, but the people see through those things now a days.

Mr. Whitney is described by his Liberal opponents as "a non-progressive and reactionary public man." But what about Mr. Ross, the minority premier who has broken his solemn pledges time and again, winked at corruption, stood sponsor for all kinds of electoral crookedness and profited by fraud and rascality and boldly defends his iniquitous career by twisting the truth and quoting scripture in a fashion that is little short of blasphemous.

It is very doubtful if personalities do the candidate any good who indulges in them. It was stated by Mr. McWilliams at his meeting in Selwyn that Mr. Bradburn had liquor in his cellar. Although there is no more temperate and strictly sober man in Peterborough than the Conservative candidate or any man whose reputation is higher for personal respectability, still the fact of his having some liquor in the cellar was evidently in Mr. McWilliams mind a first class campaign argument. We so far respect individual liberty ourselves, that we do not know and do not care whether Mr. McWilliams is as temperate off the platform as on it, but the Review can assure him that the attempt to cast a slur upon a man of Mr. Bradburn's reputation in such a distinctly childish way, will not do him any good with temperance people. The temperance cause is a matter of public opinion and like all great questions it should be treated seriously and not doomed to failure by vulgar personalities and stupid arguments.

The Government records of February 1888 give the lie to statements made by Mr Ross and certain others, that Mr. Whitney was opposed to a Separate Department of Agriculture. Mr. Meredith speaking on the bill expressed himself as opposed only to the last clause of the measure "which provides that the limitation of the Government to six members as fixed by statute be done away with." With regard to this he introduced the following amendment. That all words after "that" be omitted and the following substituted. ""While this house concurs in the proposition to give greater attention by the Executive Government to the Agricultural interests of the Province than has hitherto been done, it is of opinion that that end can be attained without incurring the expense of adding another member to the Executive Council, and the inevitable additional expense which will be consequent on such addition, and that therefore, the said bill be not read the third time, but be forthwith referred back to the Committee of the Whole House, with instructions to amend the same by striking out the third section thereof."

The amendment was lost, and the Bill was carried without further opposition, because the Opposition favored a change which had a saving in view, does it stand to reason that they were opposed to the creation of the Agricultural Department. The records do not seem to say so. Mr. Whitney has also given Mr. Ross' allegation an unqualified denial.

PROSECUTIONS FOR CORRUPT PRACTICES.

Two of the most flagrant instances of corrupt practices which have been judicially inquired into and reported upon are those of Capt. John Sullivan in the West Huron case and of Tom Lewis in the North Waterloo case.

In the former judgment was delivered by the Court on the 21st. December, 1899 and Capt. John Sullivan was reported by the judges as having been guilty of a large number of corrupt practices in the conduct of that election.

In the North Waterloo case, the judgment was delivered on the 18th day of October, 1899 and Tom Lewis was similarly reported by the judges as guilty of corrupt practices.

Tom Lewis was then, and is now, a prominent hotel keeper in the city of London.

Regarding Lewis the court said "extensive corrupt practices were committed by the witness Lewis and he was the agent of the respondent."

In both of these cases the court found as a fact that the salaried agents of the Ontario Liberal Association were responsible for having brought these men into the ridings where the corrupt practices were committed. Neither man has at any time been prosecuted for corrupt practices although the law in regard to such cases is plainly laid down in the following words:—

"Where an election court reports that any persons named in the report have been guilty of corrupt or illegal practices it shall be the duty of the County Attorney to prosecute such persons for the offences mentioned unless the court shall otherwise direct."

In neither of these cases did the court "otherwise direct." Why was the arm of justice paralyzed? The Liberal Government having now been in power over 33 years all Crown Attorneys now in office in the Province are Liberals and owe their appointment to that Government. These Crown Attorneys take their instructions from the Attorney General; the Attorney General is a member of the Cabinet for whose conduct and defaults the Premier is responsible, therefore the Hon. G. W. Ross as Premier of the Province of Ontario is directly, personally responsible for the failure to prosecute these brazen offenders. All law is set at naught.

If the Hon. G. W. Ross, or any person else, can say anything in defence of this extraordinary course of conduct, now is the time to make a full and complete statement to the public, otherwise the Premier and his Government may well be said "to have been weighed in the balance and found wanting."

Vote for honest elections. The purity of the ballot, and the prosecution of election criminals.

REASON No 6
WHY YOU SHOULD USE

Red Rose Tea

Because of the care in Selection and Blending.

My agents in the east are expert tea tasters, and every lot of tea that is sent down from the Gardens has to pass their inspection. They take samples from the chests and carefully taste them, then if the tea is fully up to the Red Rose standard, it is accepted and shipped; if not it is rejected.

The most important test of all, however, is when the tea arrives here, as during the passage through the Red Sea, the very great heat often affects the Tea very seriously. Immediately on arrival, samples are taken from each lot and subjected to the most rigid tests, and only those teas which have retained all their original flavor and strength are used for Red Rose (the balance is jobbed off in bulk).

When blended and ready to be put into sealed packages, it is tested again just to make sure no mistake has been made in the blending; nothing is left to chance.

Will you test us by ordering a package?

CONSERVATIVE PLATFORM.

The charge is made frequently by bitter partisans that Mr. Whitney has no platform, and that he outlines no progressive, constructive and patriotic policy. The allegation is, of course, thoroughly groundless, but is an easy one to make in the absence of ability to reply to the serious crimes, lax administration and malfeasance of office, which has been brought home to the moribund and debased Ross aggregation.

Mr. Whitney, as every reading and thinking man knows, has a policy—broad, energetic and eminently practical, which should appeal to all who place honor and integrity above chicanery and duplicity; progress and reform above stagnation and mere opportunism, and are in favor of elevating the moral tone, the standard of public life and the material welfare of the Province. All independent, liberty-loving and conscientious men will say the Conservative leader should—as he doubtless will—be placed at the head of affairs in Ontario.

The reforms aimed at are many and important. They are in brief:—

The protection of the ballot of the people from thieves who steal it.

The punishment of the criminals who attack the people's franchise.

The development of New Ontario, and the stoppage of the boodling there.

Grants to needed railways, but on conditions that shall be advantageous to the people who have to use these roads.

The assertion of the rights of Ontario in the matter of the distribution of the public money for railway purposes. Ontario no longer to pay for all her own railway development, and for half the cost of like development in other provinces.

Mining development to be promoted by giving aid to the business of refining by having a mining office in each mining district, and by allowing the prospector to get the lease of the property he finds.

The timber limits to be honestly sold and not distributed by private sale among partisans.

The pulp resources to be utilized to put revenue into the pockets of the treasury, instead of into the pockets of speculators.

Colonization to be promoted, settlers to have free grants, timber and minerals on such grants to belong to the bona fide settler.

Grants for agricultural purposes to be increased.

Work of Agricultural College to be made more effective by the distribution of the information therein gathered.

The Agricultural College to be supplemented by agricultural education in agricultural schools, thus helping the farmer in the training of his sons.

Efforts to be made to reduce the transportation charges.

The paying of attention to the breed of cattle, with a view to our participation in the dead meat trade with Great Britain now monopolized by the United States.

Education reform, with a view to making the public schools more useful to those pupils whose education stops there.

The establishment of an educational council of experts representing all branches of education, with a view to the adaptation of our educational system to the needs of the people.

The school book monoply, which gives so much money to private individuals, to be dealt with.

Legislation facilitating the public ownership of public utilities to be passed.

The finances to be put in proper shape, with a view to checking the growth of the debt.

The accounts of the province to be audited.

The complicated municipal system to be disentangled and brought up to date.

The drainage of waste lands to be aided by a loan, and the rate charged to be no more than the cost to the province.

Law reform to be introduced, under which the people shall not be swamped by tremendous costs.

Labor to be protected by efficient factory inspection.

Prison made goods to be labelled as such.

Efficient legislation to be enacted for the settlement of labor disputes.

The license law to be strictly and impartially enforced, with a view to the removal of the evils of intemperance.

WHERE THE TAIL WAGS THE DOG.

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir—I was pleased to see "Looker On's" letter in Saturday's issue. It shows that the public pulse is not completely dead to all sense of shame. But did it ever occur to "Looker On" what it is costing the public (for all parties, you and I, all contribute our share) to canvass this Riding for Mr. R. F. McWilliams, the Liberal candidate? Mr. McWilliams, the Inspector, alias the Canvasser, gets $2,500 per year and all expenses, over $6.00 per day for every working day (holidays out.) Remember he has no lost time, hot or cold, wet or dry, the $6 per day and expenses come in just the same. Yet he furnishes no expert knowledge. Why, this man gets more for a day than many of us get for a week; still he manifests the greatest interest in us (the laboring classes) and advises us to vote for his son, so that he may may be enabled to hang onto his job and perhaps work in a little increase with the extra pull, at the public expense. However, that is Mr. McWilliams' business. But why should we have to pay such a price to canvass for our opponents? Could we not get a cheaper man to do the canvassing and let the Inspector attend to his duties? But has he any other duties? Has he done an official hour's work for the Department that employs him since long before the party nomination? It is an open secret that Mr. McWilliams is one of the bosses of the administration, and it is becoming a pretty fixed conviction that the Government dare not interfere with him, hence he does just what he pleases. It is a case of the tail wagging the dog. What do you think of this condition of affairs? You run all over the country talking about the Minnie M and bogus ballot boxes and many other things, about which there is room for doubt, because of the controversy in the public press, yet here in our midst is something worse than any of them, for, mark you, the Government has repented of all those mistakes and cast them into their sea of forgetfulness, and sealed them with seven seals, &c. Besides it is possible that the Government was really ignorant of these things, but here, right in our midst, known to every person who takes the pains to look, is the same old work going on, only in a different way, and no person thinks for a moment that it is not being done with the knowledge and consent of the Government of the country. Evidently it has only repented to break out again, worse than ever.

Electors are you going to condone and assist in perpetuating this condition of affairs? It's up to you.

SHORTHORN BREEDERS.

Results of the Annual Meeting—The Officers For 1905.

Toronto, Jan. 18.—Over three hundred prominent shorthorn breeders were present yesterday at St. George's Hall, on the occasion of the nineteenth annual meeting of the Dominion Association. Subjects relating to this branch of the cattle business were discussed pro and con with all the enthusiasm of a band of patriots, the meeting, according to those present, being the largest and best ever held. All parts of the Dominion were represented among the delegates.

The annual report showed the registration of 4,873 bulls and 5,478 cows during the year, the total being now 109,579 pedigrees in the herd books. During 1904 the membership of the association was 2,005, as compared with 1,986 in 1903. The financial statement showed a balance of $3,834.78 on hand. The directors recommended that the head offices be removed to Ottawa.

A resolution was passed appealing to the Dominion Government to make it necessary, in order to import cattle for breeding purposes free of duty, that such animals be first registered in Canadian records.

Officers Elected.

The following list of officers for the coming year were elected: President, W. G. Pettit, Freeman; first vice-president, A. W. Smith, Maple Leaf; second vice-president, W. D. Flatt, Hamilton; ex-presidents, life members, Hon. John Dryden, Brooklin; A. Johnston, Greenwood; Robert Miller, Stouffville; Richard Gibson, Delaware; Jas. Russell, Richmond Hill; vice-presidents, from provinces, Capt. T. E. Robson, Ingersoll; F. G. Bovyer, Georgetown, P.E.I.; W. H. Ladner, Ladner's Landing, B. C.; Wm. H. Gibson, Pointe Claire, Que.; Bliss Fawcett, Sackville, N.B.; Hon. W. Beresford, Cottonwood, Alta.; C. A. Archibald, Truro, N.S.; George Kinnon, Cottonwood, Alta., Ass.; W. S. Sister, Middle Church, Man.

Board of directors: A list—R. Talbot, Lacombe, Alta.; J. G. Barron, Carberry, Man.; F. W. Brown, Portage la Prairie, Man.; James M. Gardhouse, Weston; E. C. Attrell, Goderich; Thos. Russell, Exeter.

C list—W. D. Cargill, Cargill; S. Dyment, Barrie; John Isaac, Markham; George Raikes, Barrie; C. M. Simmons, Ivan.

Dairymen At Stratford.

Stratford, Jan. 18.—The winter convention of the Western Ontario Dairymen's Association opened in the city hall here yesterday afternoon. There is a good attendance of delegates and a successful meeting is assured.

State-Owned Cable.

Ottawa, Jan. 18.—At a meeting of the Ottawa Board of Trade last night the president and the secretary were authorized to urge on the various Governments of the Empire the necessity of having the campaign for a State-owned cable system belting the Empire take tangible form.

FIRST DAY'S RACES WELL CONTESTED

Peterborough Turf Club's Winter Races Commenced Yesterday.

SOME GOOD HORSES HERE

Jim X. Won 2.35 Class and Looking Glass the 2.19—Fairly Large Crowd in Attendance—Races End To day.

The first day's racing in connection with the Peterborough Turf Club's winter races attracted a fairly large crowd to the driving park yesterday afternoon. The events were well contested and afforded lots of amusement. It was an ideal day for such an attraction and the track was in good condition. The races, although won in straight heats, afforded some excellent finishes, and the contests for second and third places were very keen.

Jim X., owned by C. Fife, of Keene, captured the 2.35 class from a field of eight in somewhat easy fashion, with Lady Gothard, owned by Martin Connors, Peterborough, second, and Donna Belle, owned by Dr. Johnston, Peterborough, third.

The grand old horse Looking Glass had little trouble in winning the 2.19 class in straight heats from a field of four. Billy A. pressed him hard in the second heat.

Wisner looked like a winner for the first lap of the first heat in the 2.35 class as he lead all the way around, with Jim X. second, Lady Gothard third, Donna Belle fourth, and the field nowhere. On the second lap the grey broke and dropped to last place. Jim X took the lead and won easily, with Lady Gothard second and Donna Belle third. Wisner fell at the corner and was withdrawn.

In the second heat Jim X went to the front and stayed there, although Lady Gothard pressed him hard on the stretch, finishing second, with Pearl Wilks third. Donna Belle couldn't get any closer than fifth in this heat, while Winford T came up from seventh to fourth place. Billie Tarantum broke at the start and was distanced.

The third and last heat found Jim X. leading all the way round and finishing well in hand. Donna Belle made a great spurt and secured second place, with Pearl Wilks third and Lady Gothard fourth.

Four horses entered the 2.19 pace or trot, Looking Glass, owned by L. G. Bennett, Port Hope; Black Mack, owned by W. and H. Elmhirst, Keene; Billy A., owned by R. S. Paul Meaford, and Miss Paisley, owned by H. A. Cook, Peterborough.

Looking Glass won in straight heats, with Billy A. second, and Black Mack third.

Black Mack lead for the first lap of the first heat, but was soon overhauled by Billy A., who was in turn overtaken and passed by Looking Glass, who won by over a length, with Billy A. second and Black Mack an easy third. Miss Paisley was nearly half a lap behind.

Looking Glass went to the front in the second heat and was never headed. This heat was a procession, the horses not changing their places all the way round. Looking Glass won easily with Billy A. second, Black Mack third and Miss Paisley fourth.

The last heat found Looking Glass in the lead, which he held without trouble. The feature of the heat was the race between Billy A. and Black Mack for second place, the latter winning in a driving finish after a great spurt by a quarter of a length.

Healthy and Vigorous

Mr. John Shelton, the well known bridge builder of 101 Sherwood St., Ottawa, states: "I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for kidney and liver derangements brought on by exposure, and find them better than any pill or medicine I ever used. They cleansed my system and made me feel healthy and vigorous, and better in every way." 8

OLD RESIDENT DIED

The death occurred last night at 12 o'clock of Mr. Mary O'Neil, widow of the late John O'Neil. The deceased was one of the oldest and most respected residents of the town, being liked by all with whom she came in contact.

The late Mrs. O'Neil was born in Limerick, Ireland, eighty-one years ago, and has lived in Peterborough since 1854. Her husband died five years ago. Two children survive, Mr. Thomas O'Neil of New York, and Mrs. Joseph Begley, Peterborough.

The funeral will take place on Friday morning at 9 o'clock from the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Joseph Begley, 23 Chambers-st., and proceed to St. Peter's Cathedral, thence to the Roman Catholic cemetery for interment.

One-third the Deaths Due to Pneumonia

La Grippe and Kindred Diseases of the Respiratory Organs—Alarming Report of the New York Board of Health—Dreadful Results of Neglected Colds.

The report of the New York Board of Health for the first six months of 1904 places the number of deaths from pneumonia and other respiratory diseases, such as la grippe and severe chest colds, at 14,091, or one-third the total number of deaths during that time.

Scientists and physicians are appalled at the enormous increase in deaths from this source, and the people are becoming aroused to the danger of allowing the system to become run down and neglecting to cure colds.

By the timely use of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine coughs and colds are readily cured and danger from more serious developments entirely avoided.

Most people know about the exceptional merits of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine as a cure for croup, bronchitis, whooping cough and asthma, but there is a tendency to neglect a cold or cough until it is beyond control.

Another danger is found in allowing the vitality to run low, for pneumonia is almost invariably caused by taking cold when the system is in a run-down condition.

As a means of building up the system to prevent disease, and as a convalescent food to restore strength to the body after such wasting diseases as pneumonia and la grippe, there is no treatment comparable to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

With Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to enrich the blood and increase the vitality of the system, and Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine to loosen the cough, allay the inflammation and heal and soothe the ulcerated linings of the throat and bronchial tubes, you have the strongest combined treatment known to the medical profession.

In the great majority of homes Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is kept constantly at hand as a cure for coughs and colds and preventive of such serious diseases as pneumonia and consumption.

CLAUSES IN NEW ASSESSMENT ACT

Classifications Which Will Be of Interest.

INCOME TAX SIMPLIFIED

Exemption Referring to Personal Earnings is New and of Greatest Interest—The Business Assessment.

The classifications which, under the new Assessment Act, will affect Peterborough and other places similarly situated, are as follows—

Every person carrying on the business of a distiller, for a sum equal to 150 per cent of the land value.

Every person carrying on the business of a brewer for a sum equal to 75 per cent of the said assessed value of the land occupied or used by him for a malting house and for a sum equal to 60 per cent of the assessed value as to such last mentioned portion.

(d) Every person carrying on the business of a manufacturer for a sum equal to 60 per cent. of the said assessed value; and a manufacturer shall not be liable to business assessment as a wholesale merchant by reason of his carrying on the business of selling by wholesale the goods of his own manufacture on such premises.

(e) Every person practising or carrying on the business of what is known as a departmental store, or of a retail merchant dealing in more than five branches of retail trade or business in the same premises under one roof, or in connected premises, where the assessed value of the premises exceeds $20,000, or of a coal or wood or lumber dealer, lithographer, printer, or publisher, or of a club, in which meals or spirituous or fermented liquors are sold or furnished, or the business of selling, bartering or trafficking in fermented, spirituous or other liquors in any premises in respect of which a shop license has been granted, for a sum equal to 50 per cent. of the said assessed value; but in cities having over 100,000 population, coal dealers shall be assessed for a sum equal to 30 per cent. of the said assessed value.

(f) Every person practising or carrying on business as a barrister, solicitor, notary public, conveyancer, physician, surgeon, oculist, aurist, medical electrician, dentist, veterinarian, civil or mining or consulting or mechanical engineer, surveyor, architect and subject to sub-section 5 of this section, every person carrying on a financial or commercial business as agent only, for a sum equal to 50 per cent. of the said assessed value. Provided that where a person belonging to any class mentioned in this clause occupies or uses land partly for the purpose of his business and partly as a residence, 50 per cent. of the assessed value of the land occupied or used by him shall, for the purpose of the business assessment, be taken as and construed to be the full assessed value of the land so occupied or used.

The changes in the law relating to income have removed many objections to the old system. Income is defined as the annual profit or gain, or gratuity (whether ascertained and capable of computation as being wages, salary or other fixed amount, or unascertained as being fees, emoluments, or as being profits from a trade or commercial or financial or other business or calling) directly or indirectly received by a person from any office or employment, or from any professional calling, or from any trade, manufacture, or business, as the case may be; and shall include the interest, dividends or profits directly or indirectly received from money at interest upon security or without security, or from stocks, or from any other investment, and also profit or gain from any other source whatever."

The exceptions are:—The income from surplus funds of friendly societies; the official income of Governors; the full or half pay of His Majesty's military or naval officers: the income of a farmer derived from his farm; the income from stock in incorporated companies, the income of which is liable to assessment; the dividends from stock in toll roads; rent and other income derived from real estate, except interest on mortgages.

The annual income derived from personal earnings or from any pension, gratuity, or retiring allowance in respect of personal services by any person assessable directly in respect of income under this Act to the extent of $1,000, where such person is resident in a city or town having a population of 10,000 or over, or to the amount of $700, where such person is resident in any other municipality, provided that such person is a householder in the city, town, or other municipality and is assessed as a householder therein, and the annual income, derived from personal earnings or from any pension, gratuity, or retiring allowance in respect of personal services of every person, not being a householder and assessed as such aforesaid, to the amount of $400.

The exemption referring to personal earnings is new and of the greatest general interest.

When a man is assessed as a householder, his income from personal earning, etc., is absolutely exempt to the amount of $1,000 if he is the resident of a city of 10,000 inhabitants or over, and in other municipalities to the amount of $700. If, however, he is not a householder and assessed as such, his income derived from personal earnings is exempt to the extent only of $400.

The Act also makes provision for the assessment of Railway, Telephone Companies, Street Railway and other Companies using the highway.

LAKEHURST NEWS.

Owing to the snowfall of last week Thursday's mail did not reach here until Friday night, the stage having to break the road most of the way.

We extend congratulations to Mr. W and Mrs. Melville Cundal on the birth of a daughter on Jan. 15th.

It is with feelings of deep sorrow that we chronicle the death of Master John Wilson, which took place at the Nicholls Hospital on Jan. 7th, at the early age of eighteen years. The bereaved friends have the sympathy of the whole community.

Miss Edna Shearer has returned from a two weeks' visit at Keene.

Mrs. Jas. Freeman, of Belmont, who has been visiting her old home here, returned on Saturday.

Will Smith, who left here for Allandale to work on the railroad, is home again. He evidently believes, like Burns, that "the first, best country ever is at home."

—It is rumored that the Sovereign Bank of Canada will shortly establish a branch in Peterborough. Negotiations for the lease of suitable premises are said to be under way. With the advent of the Sovereign the town will have five branches of chartered banks.

ANOTHER YEAR PASSED GOOD WORK OF Y.W.C.A.

Will Borrow $10,000 on the Simcoe Street Property—Board of Directors Appointed for 1905—All Departments Ably Conducted, and in Spite of Lack of Accommodation Did Great Good—Encouraging Reports Handed In.

The annual meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association was held last evening in the Y.M.C.A. Mrs. (Dr.) Scott was in the chair. In her address she referred to the work of the past year, its encouragements and disappointments, and stating, "We feel tonight that the people of Peterborough recognise the necessity of a Y.W.C.A., and we have been gratified at the kind and generous response to our appeal for a new building."

Reports of the different departments were presented, and all pointed to a progressive and successful work. The following very important resolution was carried during the evening:

Moved by Mrs. J. F. Dennistoun, seconded by Mrs. Jas. Wood, That the Peterborough Y.W.C.A. do borrow from the Central Canada Loan and Savings Co. on mortgage of the Association property, the south 140 feet of lot No. 7, north Simcoe street, west of George street, Peterborough, the sum of $10,000, for such period or periods as may be arranged, with interest at five per cent, to be further secured by the assignment of the fire policy of the buildings thereon, and that the President and the Secretary of this Association be and are hereby authorized to execute such mortgage on behalf of the Association and to fix the Association seal thereto.

THE BOARD'S REPORT.

Mrs. R. Max Dennistoun, the Recording Secretary, read the following report—

The Board of the Y.M.C.A. during the year 1904 held 9 regular and 5 special meetings. Satisfactory reports from the different departments have been duly presented at each meeting. The work of the committees has been somewhat hampered during the last six months owing to the small accommodation afforded for the carrying ou of the work, consequent upon the giving up of the house on Brock street and the rooms on George street, thereby curtailing expense and devoting all our energy and support to the erection of the new building.

In February, at a special meeting, Mrs. James Dixon sent in her resignation as matron of the boarding house, which was received with great regret. Mrs. Dixon having had charge of this department for nearly a year and a half, had managed it with a degree of success far exceeding the highest expectation of the Board.

At the meeting held February 15th, 1904, it was moved by Miss Roberts, seconded by Mrs. Walsh and unanimously carried, "That a Y.W.C.A. building be erected". To further this resolution the town was divided into districts and collectors appointed for each and finally a building committee appointed, with Mrs. Jas. Wood as convenor.

Mrs. Kennedy resigned her position as Recording Secretary, which she had held for five years. Few have served so faithfully and so long, and it was with regret that the Board were obliged to accept it. Miss Roberts was appointed to the place, assisted by Mrs. Jory.

In February, Miss McDonald, the Dominion Secretary paid us a visit. She addressed several meetings and exhorted the members to co-operate in the work about to be undertaken.

Mrs. Davis kindly gave her house for a social evening, which proved a great pleasure and help to the members.

Cooking classes were formed under the management of Miss Hills, which proved very successful even in a financial way.

In April the Building Committee selected the lot for the building and purchased same on the corner of Simcoe and Aylmer streets from Mr. Jas. Stevenson for the sum of $3,500. In May Hon. Geo. A. Cox most kindly provided the Association with a large and comfortable room in the Bank of Commerce Building, to be used by the members until the new building is opened. Mr. Cox has at all times been a staunch friend of the Association and indeed, it is due to a very large extent to his liberality that the Association is able to undertake the present work.

On Sept. 7th the corner stone was well and truly laid by Mrs. Cox and already a fund towards the furnishing is started by Dr. Davies which has since been supplemented by a donation from the Y.M.C.A. members. Mrs. W. M. Roger has volunteered to take charge of the boarding house for six months.

Miss Roberts, in September, resigned the work of Recording Secretary, having decided to spend the winter in Toronto, taking up missionary work there, and as Mrs. Jory also left Peterborough about the same time, Mrs. R. M. Dennistoun undertook the work of Recording Secretary until the end of the year.

Never before in the hist of the Association has there been such a large membership, evincing the deep interest and appreciation of the young women. The Board especially wishes to thank those who have devoted much time and energy to conducting the evening classes, they feel greatly indebted and realize the unselfishness such work entails.

We have to report, during the year, the resignation of Miss Lough, our efficient General Secretary, who has devotedly attended to her duties, giving great help to the Board of Management and we believe in every way in her power furthering the work of the Society, and we pray that God may bless her abundantly in her new sphere of life. Miss Fisher, who has at all times been ready to lend a helping hand, has again consented to take charge of the Secretary's work until further arrangements are made. The thanks of the Board are due to the press, to those who have contributed papers and magazines to our reading room, and to all who have in any way helped on our work.

In looking over the past year we cannot fail to see the wonderful providence which has blessed us, and we pray that God may guide is in all our doings and further us with His continual help, that in all our work, begun, continued and ended in Him, we may glorify His name.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

MILDRED DENNISTOUN,
Acting Rec.-Secty.

GENERAL SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The following are the reports of the General Secretary, the Educational department and of the Building Committee, all of which were received and adopted:—

GENERAL SECRETARY'S REPORT

In a Young Women's Christian Association the following departments of work are to be found—Religious, Business, Educational and Social. The reports of these various departments have given, so far as statistics can give, some idea of the work carried on during the year.

The past year has been a rather unique one in the history of this association. The necessity of changing headquarters twice, and the lack of proper accommodation has greatly hampered our work, but through the clouds the vision of larger opportunities and future possibilities appeared and for these we would give thanks to our Heavenly Father, who is an ever-present guide.

Through the kindness of Senator Cox, and others of our friends, the project of erecting a new building, adequate for the needs of the work, was set on foot. This building is now practically an accomplished fact. Early in March Miss Macdonald, travelling secretary for the Dominion Council, visited the Association and began a thorough canvass of the business section of the town. The encouragement received was such that a systematic canvass of the town was made and the lot, shortly purchased.

The thanks of the Association are due to the Advisory Board who have been most generous in their help; to the press through which much information was given; to the Building Committee who have been untiring in their efforts to fulfill their duty and to the citizens of Peterborough, who have responded so liberally on their behalf.

During Miss Macdonald's visit, two public meetings were held—one in Charlotte-st. church with a view to arousing greater interest in missions among the Association members, and the second in St. Paul's church which bore particularly on the aims of Association work. This latter meeting was addressed by Miss Macdonald and Mr. Colville, formerly Y.M.C.A. secretary of this place.

A large "At Home" was also given at the residence of Mrs. A. L. Davis, where a plan for the raising of money, among the young women members, was proposed by Miss Macdonald. The enthusiasm with which the young women undertook this work has plainly shown that a long-felt need has been met. About $300 has been handed in through the selling of 25 cent shares by the young women while more has been promised. This year an effort has been made to extend our interests, consequently $10.00 has been contributed to the Dominion Council, in addition to the affiliation fee and $18.00 which has been collected towards the supports of Miss Macdonald, who is now our Secretary in Japan.

During the year 100 young women have applied for employment, while 123 applications for help have been received. However, the problem of satisfactorily conducting an employment bureau has not yet been solved in this, or indeed, in any other association.

Thanks are also due to those who have kindly contributed reading matter to the Association. Following is a list of papers to be found on the reading table—Record of Christian Work, Service, (formerly Baptist People's Union) The Presbyterian, Home Words, (St. Luke's Parish paper) Dominion Tie, Montreal Weekly Witness, Ladies' Home Journal, McClure's, Delineator, Examiner, Morning Times, also a number of miscellaneous magazines.

Although we have been able to offer few advantages in our work this fall, and are still able to offer few advantages, it is grateful to find that the young women are remaining loyal to the Association, and we feel that the interest shown by them is a vital one, which will mean much in the building up of our work in the future.

There are great opportunities in Association work wherever one goes. But the outlook and opportunities in Peterborough are particularly bright, a fact which, however, greatly increases our responsibilities. It is the duty of those of the Association to live up to these opportunities, working not in man's power, but in the power of Him who is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY C. LOUGH,
General Secretary until December, 1904.

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

During the months of January to June, 1904, the following classes were held in connection with the Education department of the Y. W. C. A. Subjects—French, teacher, Madame Allo, enrollment 11; English Literature, Sheriff Hall, enrollment 11; book-keeping and reading (night school) Miss Finley and Miss Jolliffe, enrollment 6; cooking class Miss Hills plain, 27; household 19; fancy 17; total 63. Junior gymnasium, Miss Fisher, 13.

The cooking classes were of course more largely patronized than any other class. Miss Hills certainly spared no pain in her work and it was much appreciated by her pupils. The following financial statement of the class may be of interest to the public, as it is often almost impossible to make a cooking class a financial success in Association work.

We were unavoidably without physical work during these months with the exception of the work for the juniors. However a basket ball club was organized which held weekly practices at an hour granted by the Y.M.C.A. for that purpose. In addition to this class mentioned, an informal choral class was held and a tennis club was organized during the summer months, with a membership of 15. The botanical expedition was also made in May. On account of the very limited accommodation, few classes could be organized in October. However, Miss Weir of the Collegiate

ENDED LIFE BY TAKING ARSENIC

Blacksmith of Bridgenorth Had Troubles of His Own.

WAS SOUTH AFRICAN VETERAN

Took Fatal Dose on Retiring and Died at Eleven O'clock This Morning - Sisters and Brother in Manitoba.

Edwin Walter Coolingridge, a blacksmith, who has been a resident of Bridgenorth since the 3rd of October last, took a dose of arsenic with suicidal intent last evening, and died this morning about 11 o'clock.

Dr. Scott was called to attend Coolingridge at six o'clock this morning. The man was in a state of collapse, but rallied a little as the result of medical treatment. To the doctor he at first said that he had taken the poison by mistake, but later admitter that he had made up his mind to take his own life, and he gave the impression that troubles, which he refused to explain, had been weighing upon him greatly of late. He had been in the employ of Mr. R. C. Heard, blacksmith, since his arrival in the village, and was considered in every respect a steady, reliable and intelligent man. He was unmarried, but there are two sisters and one brother living in Manitoba.

To the doctor Coolingridge also stated that he had taken 1-3 of an ounce of arsenic upon retiring about nine o'clock last evening. He knew something about veterinary surgery, and it is said that he practised in odd cases while in South Africa with the Canadian contingent. Mr. Heard stated that the arsenic which he took was brought from South Africa and that he took a glass of hot water with him on retiring last night. The deceased had traveled very extensively throughout the world. He told nobody that he had taken the poison, until the arrival of the doctor this morning, and explanation of his act apparently dies with him.

Dr. Gray was notified, but on hearing the circumstances, considered an inquest unnecessary.

ENJOYABLE SUPPER

Held Last Evening Under Auspices of Mark Street Ladies' Aid.

The Ladies' Aid of the Mark-st. Methodist Church held a very successful oyster supper at the residence of Mr. Henry Cox, Fifth Ward, last evening.

A number of sleighs called at the parsonage and also at the Post Office to convey the guests and the house was filled to overflowing. Needless to say those present enjoyed themselves thoroughly and could not speak highly enough of the kindness and hospitality of the host and hostess and their family.

Tables were set in the dining room and oysters served until all were satisfied, and were pronounced delicious being served by Mr. C. Cheverill in his usual well known style.

The ladies also feel very grateful to Mr. McWilliams, Mr. Bert Byers, Mr. Ward Gamble and Mr. Henry Cox, who so kindly furnished teams and sleighs for the conveyance of the guests and also to Mr. Gaddy, who brought his phonograph and furnished music during the evening.

Master Seymour delighted all listeners with his sweet voice, singing several songs.

Instrumental music was furnished by several guests, and all left feeling they had spent a most enjoyable evening.

Quite a nice sum was realised to add to the piano fund of the society, under whose auspices the supper was held.

FIFTY-NINE PERSONS PERISH.

Avalanche of Rock Causes Tidal Wave Which Sweeps Shore.

Christinia, Norway, Jan. 18.—Fifty-nine persons perished as the result of an avalanche of rocks at Nesdal, north of Bergen, Sunday. A mass of rock was suddenly precipitated into Loalivend Lake from the neighboring hills, causing an immense wave 30 feet high, which swept the neighboring shores. Houses, people and cattle were swept away by the rush of water. Thus far only four bodies have been recovered. A great storm yesterday stopped the relief work, as the surrounding district is unable to send help.

Hundreds Buried in Ruins.

London, Jan. 18.—A despatch from St. Petersburg to a news agency reports that an earthquake at Shemakha (76 miles north northwest of Baku), buried hundreds of persons in the ruins of buildings in the lower part of the town, which was densely populated, despite the decision after the earthquake of three years ago that no more houses should be built there.

Andrew Carnegie Will Pay.

Oberlin, O., Jan. 18.—President King of Oberlin College, announced at chapel yesterday that all moneys lost by students through the failure of the Citizens' National Bank, which closed its doors at the time of the alleged Chadwick forgeries, would be paid on presentation of the passbook. President King announced further that Andrew Carnegie was the man who was doing this. Besides the depositors, Mr. Carnegie reimburses the Y.M.C.A. to the extent of about $3,000, which was lost in the same failure.

Bail Fixed At $20,000.

Cleveland, Jan 18.—At the request of J. P. Dawley, counsel for Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, Judge Wing yesterday fixed bail of $20,000 on the five federal indictments against her.

Twenty Years of Piles

"I suffered from itching piles for twenty years and cannot imagine any greater distress. Dr. Chase's Ointment gave me relief from the first application, and has now entirely freed me of this horrible disease."—Mr. S. J. McLaren, Farmer and Contractor, Tiverton, Ont. 7

French Cabinet Resigns.

Paris, Jan. 18.—At a meeting of the Council Ministers yesterday, held under the presidency of Premier Combes, pending the absence of President Loubet, who was attending the funeral of his mother, at Marsanne, M. STUDENTS HELD LIVELY DEBATE

Collegiate Philomathean Society Resumes Meeting.

GOOD PROGRAMME GIVEN

Boy Entering Commercial or Industrial Life Should Have Good Education – Affirmative Side Won – The Critic's Report.

The third regular meeting of the Philomathean Debating Society of the Collegiate Institute was held on Monday of this week, shortly after four o'clock, in the Y.M.C.A. hall The meeting was well attended, and was the largest yet recorded, owing to the presence of the pupils of the second form, who were received into the Society.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. The business matters of the society were discussed and handled by the pupils with their usual smartness and expediency. The third number on the programme, an instrumental selection by Miss Mailie Hall, was well received. Miss G. Yenney was heard in a reading which she delivered with a clear expression and faultless enunciation. A well rendered violin solo, with piano accompaniment, by the Misses Burnette concluded the musical portion of the programme.

The principal event of the evening was a debate, resolved,—"That a boy intending to enter any commercial or industrial pursuit should have a High School Education." The affirmative was taken by Mr. Frank Austin (leader), Miss Nesbitt, and Mr. John Davidson, while on the negative side there were Mr. Harold Hall (leader), Miss Waddell and Mr. Garnet Greer. The majority of the speakers made their first appearance on a debating platform, and should not be discouraged by their first endeavors. The society is accomplishing good work among the pupils, and only their heart co-operation is required to make it a permant part of the school.

On the affirmative side Mr. Austin, who spoke without the assistance of notes, said that accuracy, neatness and clear reasoning powers, all of which were needful for a successful business career, were acquired by a High School education. He said that facts are crowded into the mind by business, but at school, each thing was thoroughly taught before a new subject was undertaken. Miss Nesbitt, for the same side, mentioned that in the High School the pupils become possessed of a deep love for nature and for the beauties of the English language, which is not gained outside the school. She also pointed out that the friendships that are formed among the scholars are beneficial to them, as many meet those whose minds are brighter than their own.

Mr. John Davidson spoke on the relation between High School pupils and business. He said that all business men prefer them to others. The punctuality, attention and thoroughness which they acquire during their school life make good business men of them.

THE NEGATIVE SIDE.

On behalf of the negative side Mr. Hall said that a Public School education was sufficient for those who intended entering a bank. He named many prominent men of the United States, who have become wealthy without being well educated. He also stated that the pupils of the Collegiate Institute become lazy, and their neatness should be learned in the Public School. Miss Waddell commenced by saying that the practical knowledge gained by experience during the apprenticeship is of more benefit than the theoretical knowledge acquired at school during that time. She said that if boys became farmers, for example, after they had passed the entrance examinations, they would become good, steady men, and in a short time would be very rich. Mr. Greer made the statement that time and money were lost by boys going to a High School. The boy who entered a machine shop needs to know only how to read, write, spell and be able to work questions in elementary arithmetic. He can perfect himself by studying in his spare hours. He should take a course of study which bears upon his life work and which does not contain subjects which he will not read.

Mr. Kenner, who was both judge and critic, first pointed out that the negative side had confused education and information, and thus had made a bad mistake. After making the difference clear, he said that notes counted against the speaker. In giving the decision to the affirmative side, he said that Mr. Ausin's speech carried weight, because he spoke from memory. In the course of his discourse he gave two good expositions, one of music, the other on critics and criticism.

In conclusion he stated that the absence of the Glee Club of the Society was very lamentable, but he hoped they would be heard at the next meeting. The assembly, on being adjourned, sang the National Anthem, Mr. R. Shook presiding at the piano.

RE BLAIR RESIGNATION

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Reticent in Explanation to House.

Premier Denies Negligence On the Part of the Government For Leaving Chairmanship of Railway Commission Vacant So Long—Request For More Explanation of the Blair Resignation Finds the Premier Silent.

Ottawa, Jan. 18.—The preliminary skirmish over Mr. Blair's resignation of the chairmanship of the Railway Commission occurred in the House yesterday. The clash was short and crisp, but it was indicative of the more strenuous conflicts that are to come. Sir Wilfrid made a brief statement concerning the filling of the vacancy on the Commission. He differed with W. F. Maclean in the latter's assertion that the Government was negligent in leaving the vacancy unfilled. The Government, he said, was not in any way to blame.

"I am aware," said he, "that some serious inconvenience has resulted in the fact that the commission is now composed of only two members. A great deal of the business of the commission has been discharged by the present members, Messrs. Bernier and Mills. But unfortunately in Toronto, especially on some very important questions, the commissioners do not agree, and some delays have been occasioned to certain citizens of Toronto, owing to the fact that no decision on the question over which the commissioners differ can be reached."

Waited for Killam.

Sir Wilfrid then explained that as soon as possible after the resignation of Mr. Blair the government looked for a suitable successor and finally selected an eminent member of the supreme court. The gentleman in question however, was unable to leave the supreme court at the time, as great inconvenience would result to litigants whose cases he had heard. He had asked the government to wait till the first week in February, when he would be free and to the request the government assented.

W. F. Maclean was not satisfied with the premier's statement. Some explanation should have been given, he declared, regarding Mr. Blair's resignation; it was a very sudden resignation and took place in the midst of a political fight and required an explanation to the country. "The organs of the honorable gentleman opposite, from The Globe to The Montreal Witness, are on record as demanding explanation of that circumstance," declared Mr. Maclean. "I trusted that the explanation would be forthcoming to-day. Probably later on in the session, and in connection with the appointment of a successor of the late chairman of the railway commission, we will have that explanation. It is certainly due to the country; it is certainly due to the right hon. gentleman and his friends to make that statement at the present moment. But I will wait for what is to come.

Robs Peter to Pay Paul.

"As to the remarks of the Rt. Hon. Gentleman in seeking elsewhere, and in another count for a man competent to fill the position, he is not going to work in the right way. He is robbing Peter to pay Paul; he is unmanning the Supreme Court to man the Railway Commission, which is not good policy."

Sir Wilfrid replied that in appointing a member of the supreme court to the chairmanship of the railway commission the government was not robbing Peter to pay Paul. Nothing could be more in accordance with the good administration of justice, and a proper administration of the commission than to select a gentleman such as had been selected, one experienced not only in legal matters but also experienced to a large extent in railway matters. When the time arrived to make the appointment, as it would come within a short period, he thought the selection would meet the approval of even his hypercritical friend on the other side of the house.

"I am sorry also," said Sir Wilfrid, "that I cannot gratify the—what shall I say?—the rather fastidious curiosity of my hon. friend with regard to the manner of Mr. Blair's resignation. He expected me to give him information upon that. I may say to my hon. friend, and perhaps it is notorious to him, that I was not consulted with regard to that resignation, and I am at a loss to give him any explanation of it. But since we are in the way of making confessions I rather expected that my hon. friend would be in a position to give us some information himself, because I have read a good deal of what I supposed to be information in a certain paper with which my hon. friend is connected. But if the hon. gentleman was only speaking of hearsay that is another thing. If he has any information he can give it to us, For my part I have none."

Ask the Globe.

"The hon. gentleman's friends are in possession of a great deal of evidence," replied Mr. Maclean. "The Toronto Globe, The Montreal Herald, Senator Dandurand—if I may mention the name of a member of the other house—offered explanations of that resignation and it is up to him to make a statement, not to me."

"I have only to say," returned Sir Wilfrid, "that I have never heard any charges made against any member or against any minister."

"This is the time and place to make them," spoke up a Liberal member.

"Yes, come on, now," chimed in Chas. A Fitzpatrick.

"Nobody has come forward," pursued Sir Wilfrid.

"Come right on," said Fitzpatrick defiantly and thus the skirmish closed.

Mr. Foster wanted to know if cases heard by the three commissioners before the resignation of Mr. Blair would have to be re-heard. The premier replied that such was the position of affairs. Cases not disposed of when Mr. Blair resigned would have to be heard again.

Inspection of Seeds.

Hon. Sydney Fisher gave notice of a resolution respecting the inspection and sale of seeds and advanced it through its initial stages. The bill is only slightly different from the measure which was before Parliament last session and the session before. The Minister of Agriculture explained that the bill had been amended to meet the chief criticisms urged against it. The resolution was reported

Liberal Whips Elected.

Ottawa, Jan. 18.—(Globe Special.)—The first Liberal caucus for the session was held yesterday morning, Senator Gibson of Beamsville, presiding. It was a most enthusiastic gathering, and the Prime Minister was given a very cordial reception. Sir Wilfrid delivered an address on the lines of his speech Monday. He urged the co-operation of all to secure a short session W. S. Calvert was elected Chief Whip, and H. J. Logan as assistant chief, the latter being a new office. George D. Grant was appointed to succeed Lieut.-Col. Thompson as Ontario Whip. Alexander Johnston will succeed H. J. Logan as Whip for the Maritime Provinces, and J. G. Turriff to succeed T. O. Davis as Whip for Manitoba and the Territories. British Columbia was given a Whip in the person of R. G. Macpherson. D. Gallery and Louis Lavergne were re-elected Whips for Quebec.

Edward Kidd to Resign.

Ottawa, Jan. 18.—Edward Kidd, M.P. for Carleton County will tender his resignation to-day at a mass meeting of electors, to be held at Stittsville. Every effort will be made after the resignation is accepted by the electors to have the writ issued, and in about three weeks the leader of the Opposition will be in his seat in the House.

CANADA TO NEW ZEALAND.

Both Countries Prepared to Pay $60,000 For Steamer Service.

Ottawa, Jan. 18.—(Globe Special.)—It is quite possible that an arrangement may be made whereby the Union Steamship Company, which at present operates a service between Vancouver and Australia, may introduce an improved service and also call at a New Zealand port. The present contract, which is for two years, expires on May 1. Some three years ago complaint was made of the Union Company's service, and it was improved and brought up to date. Since preferential arrangements between Canada and New Zealand were adopted a desire has been manifested by the two Governments to have a steamship service to New Zealand. The Canadian Government is prepared to vote $60,000 for this purpose, and New Zealand is probably willing to give a like sum. Instead of having two separate services to Australia and New Zealand, it would be better to have one, and the Union Steamship Company may get the contract, Canada, Australia and New Zealand contributing jointly towards the subsidy.

Rev. Mr. Hossack Vindicated.

Toronto, Jan. 18.—At a meeting of the session and board of management of Deer Park Presbyterian Church on Monday night Henry Swan submitted the following letter:

"Having heard Rev. Mr. Hossack's statement to this meeting that he had never stated that he had a grievance against Hon. Mr. Ross or any member of his Government in respect to an office or position for any one, I accept the same; and, as to the statement made by me in an interview published in The Telegram that Mr. Hossack had made this church a Conservative committee room, I had reference only to certain sermons preached by Mr. Hossack which seemed to me to have a political bearing, and not to any meetings held in the church; and as to the statement regarding Mr. Hossack hobnobbing with Mr. Whitney or Mr. Foy, or consulting with them as to the letter which Mr. Hossack wrote to the public press, I made the same believing it to be true, but without having any proof thereof, and I accept Mr. Hossack's statement that the same is incorrect."

The joint meeting also passed the following resolution:

"That this meeting desires to express its confidence in the doctrine and character of the minister of this congregation, Rev. D. C. Hossack, and without committing itself to all his views, vindicates his right as a citizen to express his opinion on matters pertaining to the moral welfare of the country."

WHY DOES A BABY CRY?

Because it is either hungry or in pain. Properly nourished it will usually grow up right and be comfortable—that's the principal thing for a baby. If its food lacks strength and nourishment add Scott's Emulsion at feeding time. A few drops will show surprising results. If a baby is plump it is reasonably safe. Scott's Emulsion makes babies plump.

Spoke At Whitby.

Whitby, Jan 18.—Hon. John Dryden, Mayor Fowke of Oshawa, and Rev J. A. Macdonald of Toronto, spoke here last night. The meeting was held in the town hall and was well attended.

Alfred Wood Runs.

Ottawa, Jan. 18.—M. J. Campbell Smith, Liberal candidate in Carleton County, withdrew from the contest yesterday, and Mr. Alfred Wood, proprietor of The Free Press, will be placed in nomination at Richmond to-day. The county is overwhelmingly Conservative, but it is proposed to prevent an acclamation by Mr. Wood's running.

Martin Quinn Acquitted.

London, Jan. 18.—The trial of Martin Quinn, on a charge of impersonation and perjury, was concluded here yesterday with a verdict of acquittal.

The verdict created the greatest surprise in the court-room, where the evidence for the prosecution was regarded as conclusive.

Died After Day's Work.

Niagara Falls, Jan. 18.—Patrick McCarthy dropped dead in Queen Victoria Park Monday night from heart disease. He had finished his day's work as a bricklayer on the Canadian Power Company's works and was waiting for a car when he collapsed. He leaves a wife and family.

WILY GAME OF RUSSIA

Japan Sees An Attempt to Involve Other Powers in War.

France, China, and Other Powers to Be Drawn Into the Fight That the Czar May Take Defeat With Greater Grace—Count Cassini Says Russia Has Absolute Proof of Violation of Chinese Neutrality.

Tokio, Jan. 18.—The note of the Russian Government to the powers, calling attention to the alleged violation by China of her declared neutrality, which Russia charges has been at the instance of Japan, has created the impression in official quarters here that the Russians are trying to involve France, China and other powers in the war, so that Russia may take her defeat with greater grace.

Russian Side.

Washington, Jan. 18.—Count Cassini said last night that Russia's note to the powers was prompted by the fact that she had absolute proof that Chinese neutrality was being frequently violated, and that unless China mended her ways and maintained, with the assistance of the other neutrals, as well as Russia, an attitude of strict neutrality, the Imperial Government would be forced to look first to Russia's interests. "It is a reflection on a sane man's intelligence," the Ambassador said, "to go into explanations as to why Russia wishes China's neutrality maintained. It is self-evident, and her energetic communication to the powers is but another evidence of the faithful effort she is making in this direction."

Russia in Turkestan.

London, Jan. 18.—The Morning Post's Shanghai correspondent says that the Chinese Government complains that Russians have occupied Kashgar, the Governor of which has appealed to the Chinese Foreign Board to open negotiations for the withdrawal of the Russians.

Kashgar is the most western city in Eastern Turkestan, and has a population of 50,000.

Russia's Threat.

Paris, Jan. 18.—The Tientsin correspondent of the Paris edition of The New York Herald, says that Russia has threatened to invade north China and Chinese Turkestan if China continues to discriminate against Russia contraband in favor of Japan.

Japs in Disgrace.

London, Jan. 18.—(La Press Special.)—The Daily Mail's Port Arthur special correspondent relates in a letter how two Japanese regiment, when ordered to make assaults, were first driven back with terrible losses. On a reserve regiment being ordered to assault, it refused to obey and thus go to inevitable destruction. The major of the regiment then went forward alone and was shot dead. After a while, moved apparently by remorse, the regiment went to the assault, but utterly failed. Afterward they were sent back to Marshal Oyama. Such conduct, without parallel in the Japanese army, recalls an incident at Cold Harbor when General Grant ordered the second attack.

Where the Ships Are.

Perim, Jan. 18.—The Russian squadron passed Perim (Straits of Bab-El-Mandeb). at 6 o'clock this morning going towards Jibutil, in the Gulf of Aden. This is the division of Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron commanded by Vice-Admiral Botrovsky which was last reported passing Suez, on Jan. 2.

Gone to the Russians.

Pekin, Jan. 18.—It is reported that the Dalai Lama (who fled from Thibet when the Younghusband expedition entered the sacred city), who is now at Urga, intends going to Kiakhta for the purpose of negotiating with the Russian Government. It is also reported that the Taotaitangshaoki of Tientsin is going to Thibet by way of Szechun.

Coughs, colds hoarseness and other throat ailments are quickly relieved by Cresolene tablets, ten cents per box. All druggists.

KEEP THE COOLIES OUT

British Government's Action to Help Its Candidates.

Lord Teynham Says It Is Intended to Stop Further Importations of Coolies Into South Africa—Rumored in London Also That Parliament Will Dissolve Early in the Coming Session—Ministerialists Retiring.

London, Jan. 18.—(C.A.P.)—Coincident with rumors that the Government intends to dissolve Parliament early in the coming session comes another report that it is intended to stop further importation of coolies into South Africa. Lord Teynham, presiding at a meeting of a big Rand Company, publicly announced his fear that such was the case, and the rumor caused depression in Kaffirs on the Stock Exchange.

Being interviewed afterwards, Lord Teynham said he had good reasons to believe the rumor was well founded. He supposes that if it is so it is in anticipation of a general election, the coolie question having greatly embarrassed the Government candidates at recent bye-elections.

78 Ministerial M.P.'s Retire.

In connection with the dissolution rumors, it is a curious fact that as many as seventy-eight Ministerial members of Parliament already have announced their intention to retire at the next general election.

Their names, published yesterday, include many prominent men, like Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, the Right Hon. C. T. Ritchie, Sir W. H. Walrond and Sir John C. R. Colomb. Most of these will quit Parliament.

Others, like Winston Churchill, are leaving the Unionist for the Liberal ranks on the fiscal controversy.

To Steal Canada Away.

London, Jan. 18.—(C.A.P.)—Lord Minto, addressing a political gathering at Minto, said he was entirely in favor of the colonial conference. Whatever might be thought of Mr. Chamberlain's plans he had at least brought home to the British people the necessity of thinking Imperially. Canada could not wait for ever. If she received nothing but a bucket of cold water she would be justified in taking advantage of the opportunities before her. The United States were seeking reciprocity in the hope of stealing her away from the British Empire.

May Rely On Broken Reed.

London, Jan. 18.—(C.A.P.)—Referring to the emphasis Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman laid on the fact that he was speaking only for himself and not as representing the Liberal party, when he told the recent deputation that the Canadian cattle embargo ought to be removed, The Glasgow Herald thinks that those who are looking to the next Liberal administration to remove the cattle embargo rely on a broken reed.

Walker Talks For Canada.

London, Jan. 18.—(C.A.P.)—J. Bruce Walker, Canadian Government representative, delivered a comprehensive lecture on Canada and its resources in the city hall of Glasgow yesterday, and specially emphasized the suitability for British emigrants rather than for foreigners. British emigrants should be urged to go to Canada instead of allowing them to go, as many do at present, to the United States, which is a foreign country.

His Only Objection.

London, Jan 18.—(C.A.P.)—Speaking to his constituents at Stirling, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, M. P., Liberal leader, said he only objected to the colonial conference if it sought to fasten on the Mother Country either injury by accepting or the odium of refusing proposals which our people, if left to themselves, would not accept. He described the conference as a mere plank for bridging over the gap between the nerveless and illusory policy of retaliation and the solid, intelligible but wholly inadmissable idea of food taxation.

With Canada Now.

London, Jan. 18.—(C.A.P.)—The Australian Government has rejected the Orient Steamship Company's offer to accept £140,000 a year for the conveyance of the mails to Great Britain. It is now probable that Australia will enter into negotiations with the Dominion Government for their conveyance via Vancouver.

Summonses to Issue.

Toronto, Jan. 18.—To-day summonses will be issued for the appearance in the police court of Mrs. Sarah Goodfellow, Mrs. Grant, Edward Brundrette and Mrs. Lee, the Christian Scientists, who attended the late Wallace Goodfellow during his illness. Crown Attorney Curry will lay a charge of manslaughter against all of them.

Fire At Brockville.

Brockville, Jan. 18.—Brockville had another nasty fire yesterday afternoon, which looked at one time strong enough to destroy a brick row of four houses, three occupied by tenants and one by the owner, Mrs. Boyd. The upper stories were gutted and the contents were greatly damaged by water.

English Socialist Can't Land.

New York, Jan. 18.—William Bishop, a young English mechanic, has been ordered deported by the immigration authorities at this port, because of his Socialistic views. Bishop is possessed of the required amount of money to land, and he purposes appealing against the decision.

Swept Over Falls.

Niagara Falls, Jan. 18.—An Italian laborer, whose name is unknown, fell off the cribwork at the Toronto electric development yesterday morning, and was swept over the falls a few minutes afterwards.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Canadian Girl Who Had Just Completed Her Nurse's Course.

Brampton, Jan. 18.—George Williams received information yesterday about the accidental burning to death of his sister, Miss Hattie J. Williams, in St. Louis, Mo. It appears from the meagre information received that Miss Williams' clothing took fire from an open grate. She was burned so severely that she died several hours later from the shock. She was unconscious to the last. Miss Williams went to St. Louis three years ago to qualify as a nurse and had just recently completed her course and was professionally engaged when the sad fatality occurred. She had been expected to visit her brother here for some weeks.

McGRIMMON SAYS HE'LL RETURN.

Writes From El Paso, Through a Friend, Denying Fraud.

Orillia, Jan. 18.—In a letter to J. B. Tudhope, of the Dalton Cattle Co., dated from El Paso, Texas, A. McGrimmon, the defaulting manager, states that he is innocent of any attempt to defraud the company, and promises to return to rectify matters. He says he is not in El Paso, but that a friend would post the letter from that place.

Provincial Detective Greer is in town investigating the case.

Scratch Caused Death.

Norwood, Ont., Jan. 18.—William Baskin, son of John Baskin, railway contractor, died suddenly yesterday morning of heart failure, following blood poisoning, which developed from a slight scratch received whilst assisting at a fire.

Gives $1,000 to Hospitals.

Montreal, Jan. 18.—The Windsor Hotel has set the example by contributing $1,000 to the Alexandra Contagious Disease Hospital.

PUTTING IT STRONG

But Doesn't It Look Reasonable?

This may read as though we were putting it a little strong, because it is generally thought by the majority of people that Dyspepsia in its chronic form is incurable or practically so. But we have long since shown that Dyspepsia is curable, nor is it such a difficult matter as at first appears.

The trouble with Dyspeptics is that they are continually dieting, starving themselves or going to the opposite extreme or else deluging the already over burdened stomach with "bitters" "after dinner pills," etc., which invariably increase the difficulty even if in some cases they do give a slight temporary relief. Such treatment of the stomach simply makes matters worse. What the stomach wants is a rest. Now how can the stomach become rested, recuperated and at the same time the body nourished and sustained?

This is a great secret and this is also the secret of the uniform success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. This is a comparatively new remedy but its success and popularity leave no doubt as to its merit.

The Tablets will digest the food anyway, regardless of condition of stomach. The sufferer from Dyspepsia, according to directions, is to eat an abundance of good, wholesome food and use the tablets before and after each meal and the result will be that the food will be digested no matter how bad your Dyspepsia may be, because, as before stated, the tablets will digest the food even if the stomach is wholly inactive. To illustrate our meaning plainly, if you take 1,800 grains of meat, eggs or ordinary food and place it in a temperature of 98 degrees, and put with it one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets it will digest the meat or eggs almost as perfectly as if the meat was enclosed within the stomach.

The stomach may be ever so weak yet these tablets will perform the work of digestion and the body and brain will be properly nourished and at the same time a radical, lasting cure of Dyspepsia will be made because the much abused stomach will be given, to some extent, a much needed rest. Your druggist will tell you that of all the many remedies advertised to cure Dyspepsia none of them have given so complete and general satisfaction as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and not least in importance in these hard times is the fact that they are also the cheapest and give the most good for the least money.

MANITOBA'S PROGRESS

Provincial Treasurer Agnew Shows a Surplus of $250,000.

Winnipeg, Jan. 18.—In introducing the provincial budget last evening, Hon. J. H. Agnew, Provincial Treasurer, dwelt on the prosperous state of Manitoba finances as evidenced by surplus for the year of nearly a quarter of a million. After reviewing the work of last year, Mr. Agnew presented the estimates for the coming year in a lucid and masterly address. Following is the statement of last year's finances:

Total consolidated revenue expenditure, $1,271,732.82, less the following exceptional expenditures:

Railway aid bonuses, $856.69.

Survey fees, $19,612.69.

Drainage district No. 5, $1,299.69.

Drainage district No. 8, $387.44.

Drainage district No. 14, $1,198.60. Total, $34,424.14.

Total ordinary expenditure, $1,237,308.14.

Total ordinary revenue, $1,486,667.12.

Surplus, $249,358.44.

Five years surplus—1900, $11,056.31; 1901, $49,494.73; 1902, $289,686.44; 1903, $148,777.88; 1904, $249,368.44; gross surplus amounting to $748,323.75.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

Receipts of live stock at the city market were 80 carloads, composed of 1120 cattle, 977 hogs, 1050 sheep, 64 calves and 1 horse.

Only a few shipping cattle were offered. Prices ranged all the way from $4 to $4.60 per cwt. for steers weighing from 1200 to 1300 lbs. each. Bulls, $3.25 to $4.12½ per cwt.

Choice picked lots sold at $4 to $4.25, with two or three extra cattle, good enough in quality to export, that brought a little more money; fair to good at $3.70 to $4; medium at $3.40 to $3.70; common at $2.80 to $3.12½; canners at $1.40 to $2 per cwt.

There was a fair demand for feeders of good quality, several Western Ontario farmers being on the market to purchase. Feeders, 1050 to 1500 lbs. sold at $3.80 to $3.80; feeders, 800 to 900 lbs. each, sold at $3.25 to $3.40 per cwt.; stockers, 800 to 700 lbs. each, sold at $2.50 to $3 for medium to good quality.

About 40 milch cows and springers, principally of common to medium quality, sold from $30 to $45 each, but better quality cows would bring more money.

Good to choice quality veal calves were in excellent demand at firm prices. Common calves sold at $2.50 to $4.50 per cwt., while good to choice veals sold from $5 to $6 per cwt.

The demand for sheep and lambs continues to be good, all offerings being readily bought at firmer quotations. Export ewes sold at $4.30 to $4.75; bucks at $3.50 to $3.75; lambs at $5.50 to $6.25 per cwt.

Deliveries of hogs were 1000, all of which were bought by Mr. Harris at $5 for selects and $4.75 for lights and fats.

INQUEST TO BE HELD.

Story of a Quarrel Between Man and Wife is Revived.

Hamilton, Jan. 18.—Coroner McNichol has decided to hold an inquest on the death of Mrs. Roach, wife of David Roach, proprietor of the Palace Hotel, who died very suddenly Monday evening. One of the doctors who was called stated that he believed death was caused by poison. The jury met yesterday afternoon and ordered a post-mortem examination of the body. Some time ago, it is said, Roach and his wife quarreled over one of their sons, and she entered a suit against her husband. The trouble was patched up, apparently, and Mrs. Roach returned to the hotel. It is alleged that her husband had not spoken to her for a month previous to her death, and there is a suspicion that she ended her life. The jury will meet again Friday night.

The coachman early learned the advantages and many uses to which he could put

Seven to One

That is about the ratio. About seven times as many persons are injured as die from all causes yearly.

Accidents are a more prolific cause of death than any disease except lung diseases.

Twice as many people are accidently killed as die of old age. Does it not seem reasonable to you as a business man that it would be to your interest to carry an accident policy?

YOU are subject to over two hundred diseases, and liable to accidents without number.

Official figures prove that One Man in Five carrying an Accident and Sickness Policy makes a claim for indemnity each year.

YOU have no guarantee that you will not be the One Man who will be disabled this year.

If You Don't Buy Here We Both Lose Money

Another year has gone. It's pleasant to tell of sales far beyond all previous year's, for they indicate general prosperity as well as the progress of this store. But to you such growth means more still; it tells unmistakably of the increasing attractiveness of our Fur Goods and also the drawing power of our Fur Prices. The bigger the manufacturing business the lower the cost of production, consequently "If you don't buy here we both lose money." Just now we call attention to our extra fine showing of—

The Daily Review

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 18, 1905.

HOCKEY GOSSIP.

What the Puck Chasers Are Doing, or Are Going to Do.

Lindsay are now awaiting the Peterborough game on Monday night. Peterborough will be used decent.—Post. If this statement proves to be true a lot of Peterborough people will be considerably surprised.

The Peterborough papers—Review and Examiner—are certainly trying to spread the Post's name abroad as a "knocker." They tell their people that the Post always roasts Peterborough, while their own columns fairly reek with unfair reports of the recent game.—Post.

Fenelon Falls defeated the Orillia O.H.A. team in an exhibition game last night at Fenelon Falls by 7—3.

The Cobourg juniors will play the local seconds on Thursday evening next.

It is expected that a large crowd will accompany the boys to Lindsay on Monday evening next, and a special train has been arranged for.

The City League games scheduled for to-morrow night, have been postponed indefinitely and so the Colonials and T.A.S. will have to wait until a later date to settle their differences.

The Karnots have been negotiating with the Lindsay Collegiate Institute and the Fenelon Falls team, for a game here to-morrow night, but have been unsuccessful in their efforts.

The Colonials and Karnots played a practice game at the Brock-st. rink last night, the latter winning by 7—3. The score at half time was 4—1. The Karnots were lighter, but had the best of the play. Mr. A. McWilliams was a satisfactory referee.

Two games will be played in the Guild League this evening at All Saints' rink. Charlotte-st. and All Saints' will meet at 7.15, and George-st. and St. John's clash at the conclusion of the first game.

Charlotte-st. Guild team will line up as follows for its game with All Saints' to-night—

Goal—H. Webb.
Point—F. Roddy.
Cover Point—Alfords.
Rover—Jolliffe.
Centre—Ryan.
Right Wing—A. McWilliams.
Left Wing—Moore.

Port Hope won a hotly contested game from Belleville last night at Port Hope by 3—2.

In the Trent Valley League last night Brighton defeated Picton at Brighton by 4 to 3, and Cobourg won at home from Colborne by 7—3.

The standing in this district of the Junior O.H.A. is as follows—

	Won	Lost	To Play
Port Hope	3	1	2
Belleville	3	2	1
Cobourg	2	2	2
Peterborough	0	3	3

The locals have three home games to play. It looks as if the four teams will be tied for first, as all will probably win the three games at home and lose away from home.

THE RING AND MAT.

The wrestling and boxing entertainment at the Opera House last night was decidedly a farce. Only a couple of the men advertised put in an appearance and some of the bouts were declared off and in others a local boy substituted. Greene was not on hand for his fight with Pete Barry, although the latter was here. Barry went on with D. Christie, of Toronto, in a four round bout, which he could have ended with a knockout in a few seconds if he had wanted to. Long and the Peterborough unknown, Ferris, were not on hand, and Andy Lewis, who was to have gone on with Christie, also failed to put in an appearance. J. King, of town, a boy about half his size, went on for a four round bout with him. Christie got the decision. T. Crowe and D. Disautel contributed songs during the evening.

ANOTHER YEAR PASSED

GOOD WORK OF Y.W.C.A.

Institute, very kindly consented to hold a Literary Club, which is very popular, having a membership of 24. Miss Williamson has also taken a raffia class, the work being in great favor among the young women, and which has an enrollment of 22. Sheriff Hall's class was not organized until after the Christmas season, but this work began then. The total class enrollment for the year, then, is 146; some members have taken advantage of 2 or more classes.

The thanks of the Educational Department are due the teachers who have so unselfishly given their time to the work, and whose faithfulness is shown by their deep interest in the welfare of the Association.

Respectfully submitted,

L. GARVIN

THE BUILDING FUND

Following is the statement of the Treasurer of the Building Fund, Mrs. Fred Dixon.

Total amount subscribed for	$20447 45
Amount of subscriptions paid	17061 10
Interest on deposit	95 63

Balance on hand	1442 13
	$17156 73

THE MEMBERSHIP.

Miss M. Dickson presented the report of the Finance, House and Membership Departments. The first two are dealt with in the Treasurer's and Recording Secretary's reports. Miss Dickson reported that the membership is in the neighborhood of 160, which is, so far as known, the largest paid up membership they have had. This includes the young women admitted to full membership privileges upon the payment of $1.00 towards the Building Fund, but does not include the juniors who were members only during the first half of the year, the junior work having been dropped this fall. It has been found more difficult to keep the membership in up-to-date condition this fall because there is a very natural tendency to postpone renewing until the building is completed. However, we have reason to feel encouraged with the measure of success with which we have met in this respect.

SOCIAL DEPARTMENT.

In the report of the Social Committee Mrs. Nugent stated that since September the accommodation has been limited, and circumstances have been such that it has not seemed advisable to the Social Committee to undertake any definite work.

The King's Daughters have very kindly consented to give musical evenings from time to time during the winter, which will no doubt be very much appreciated.

The Social Committee have in mind the opening of the new building, and are planning to do their utmost to make that occasion a great success, as well as the work which they regularly undertake for the year.

RELIGIOUS WORK.

Mrs. H. P. Kennedy presented the report of the Religious Department, in which she pointed out that there were 36 Sunday meetings, with a total attendance of 978. The need for a stronger and deeper interest in this department was felt.

THE NEW BOARD.

Following are the members of the Board for 1905:—Mrs. James Wood, Mrs. J. F. Dennistoun, Mrs. A. L. Davis, Mrs. (Dr.) Boucher, Mrs. H. Waddell, Mrs. R. M. Dennistoun, Mrs Walsh, Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. (Dr.) Scott, Mrs. (Dr.) Burnham, Mrs. H. P. Kennedy, Mrs. John Nugent, Mrs. M. A. Morrison, Mrs. Jas. Best, Mrs. D. J. Lundy, Mrs. A. W. Cressman, Mrs. Walter Roger, Mrs. McPherson, Mrs. J. W. Garvin, Mrs. Kilgour, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Thos. Gillespie, Mrs. W. Thompson, Mrs. Fred Dixon, Mrs. (Rev. Dr.) W. J. Crothers, Mrs. R. R. Hall, Mrs. Morrow, Miss Dickson, Miss Morrow, Miss Nicholls. The new Board will meet on Monday next.

An enjoyable solo was given by Miss Effie Best during the meeting, and after the business was transacted an address was given by Miss Mrs. W. M. Roger on Association work in Calcutta, India. She also referred with pleasure to the new building being erected here.

A vote of thanks was tendered the Y.M.C.A. for the use of their hall.

For the table, for cooking, for butter-making. It is pure and will not cake.

The Ex- CONSUL GENERAL TO AUSTRALIA

ALSO

Ex-Lieutenant United States Navy and Ex-Lieutenant Confederate Navy Uses and Recommends Pe-ru-na.

Pe-ru-na Is a Safeguard Against the Ills Incident to Inclement Weather.

HON. JAMES M. MORGAN, 1735 Twentieth Street, Washington, D. C., Ex-Lieutenant U. S. Navy, Ex-Lieutenant Confederate Navy, and Ex-Consul General to Australia, writes:

Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio:

Gentlemen:—"The use of your Peruna as a remedy or cure for catarrh by many of my friends who have been benefited by the same, as well as my own experience as to its efficacy and good tonic properties causes me to recommend it to all persons, and you are at liberty to use this endorsement and my photograph if it will give any force to same."—James M. Morgan.

Catarrh of the Head Which Affected Hearing Cured by Pe-ru-na.

Mr. J. Emile Tanguay, No. 332 John St., Quebec, is Secretary of the Jacques Curling Club of Quebec, one of the leading sporting clubs in the city. Its members are composed of young men of the best families. He writes:

"Last winter I caught a severe cold which developed into a severe case of catarrh of the head, affecting my hearing especially. My eyes ran, my system seemed to be generally clogged up. I was advised by a club friend to try Peruna, and did so at once. To my delight I found a change set in for the better within three days, and in eight days I was entirely well."J. Emile Tanguay.

Mr. Adolph Koehler, President of the North Side Turnerschaft, writes from Clark and Leland Ave., Chicago, Ill.:

"It is with pleasure that I endorse Peruna as a first-class medicine especially for catarrhal affections of the throat and lungs. I have used it with much benefit and several of my friends have been cured of catarrh entirely where Peruna was used."—Adolph Koehler.

"Nothing Better Than Pe-ru-na for Catarrhal Troubles," Says Congressman C. P. Dorr.

C. P. Dorr, Hotel Johnson, Washington, D. C., Ex-Congressman from West Virginia, writes:

"I can cheerfully recommend Peruna to anyone who wants a safe and permanent cure for catarrh. For throat, lung and catarrhal trouble there is nothing better than Peruna."—C. P. Dorr.

Colds Lead to Chronic Catarrh.

A common cold is acute catarrh, which quickly becomes chronic catarrh if allowed to remain.

Every cold snap leaves in its trail thousands of cases of catarrh, many of whom for want of an effective remedy, will suffer from this disease the rest of their lives.

Is there anything that can be done to prevent all this?

In the first place, Peruna used at the proper time will prevent taking cold. In the second place, Peruna will cure a cold in from two to five days.

Again, Peruna will cure catarrh quickly in the first stages, and finally Peruna will also cure chronic catarrh, if used properly and persistently.

Peruna kept in the house and properly used will therefore not only act as a safeguard against the ailments which result from sudden cold waves, but will also prove a sure remedy for this class of ailments.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Peruna can be purchased at any first-class drug store for $1.00 per bottle.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

The Capitol Dome.

The capitol building at Washington has the only really large dome of iron in the world. It is a vast hollow sphere weighing 8,000,200 pounds.

One Thing at a Time.

Banish the habit of attending to two things at one time, for you know that "he who follows two hares is sure to catch neither." Know what you are going to do and remember to do it well.

Left Handed People.

No purely left handed race has yet been discovered, although it is said that fully 70 per cent of the inhabitants of the Punjab use the left hand in preference to the right. The next greatest per cent of left handedness is among the Hottentots of Africa and the bushmen of Australia, about 55 per cent.

Mexican Houses.

The outside walls of many of the houses in Mexico are from three to six feet thick to withstand earthquake shocks.

Rice Wine.

Next to grape wine it is believed that Japanese sake or rice wine is the oldest alcoholic beverage known to man, its use in Japan dating back over 2,000 years.

THE ILLS OF THE AGED

Mrs. Stacy, of Hamilton, tells how it may be Lessened

Mrs. Elizabeth Stacey, of 172 Hunter Street West, Hamilton, says:

"I was very much troubled with Headache, Dizziness and Constipation, I am in my eighty-first year, and I grew worse and worse till I was so weak and faint that I could hardly keep from falling.

Since using Dr. Leonhardt's Anti-Pill I am very much better; in fact, I may say I am very well compared to what I was before using Anti-Pill.

"I am so thankful for the improvement at my advanced age that I think I should write and tell you about it. I will always recommend Dr. Leonhardt's Anti-Pill to any one suffering as I was."

Anti-Pill is positively the best medicine for aged men and women.

DEANERY MEETS

Millbrook Entertained the Clergy—Business Done.

The Deaneries of Northumberland and Victoria and Durham held a joint meeting at Millbrook on Tuesday and Wednesday. Venerable Archdeacon Allen presided. There were present 18 clergy, including Rev. Rural Deans J. C. Davidson, of Peterborough, and W. J. Creighton, of Bobcaygeon.

Rev. Geo. Warne, of Lakefield, was the vice-chairman. A discussion of the redistribution of the deaneries took place, but was left to a committee to arrange and report at the next meeting.

Rev. Mr. Davidson read a paper on "The Attitude of the Church of England towards other Religious Bodies." This was followed by a general discussion.

At the evening service in St. Thomas' church, Rev. E. A. Langfeldt of Peterborough, preached an eloquent sermon.

On Wednesday morning Holy Communion was celebrated, Rev. W. C. Allen and Rev. John Creighton, of Cartwright, officiating. Rev. W. A. Gustin, of St. Mark's church, Port Hope, preached the sermon.

The clergymen were entertained to dinner and tea by Rev. W. C. and Mrs. Allen at Shenley House, and the good people of Millbrook kindly threw open their homes to the visitors.

In the course of the ceremony several shots were fired from across the Neva and bullets entered windows of the Palace. No one was hurt.

BRITISH STEAMER CAPTURED.

Special to the Review.

Tokio, Jan. 19.—The Japanese captured the British steamer Oakley in Tsuhima Straits on Wednesday afternoon. The vessel left Cardiff on Nov. 17th, carrying coal for Vladivostock.

ARRESTS WERE MADE.

Toronto, Jan. 19.—Warrants issued yesterday in connection with the death of Wallace Goodfellow were executed during the evening by Detective Newton, of No. 3 Division, and as a result the four persons named in the indictment of the corner's jury as being guilty of manslaughter, spent last night in police cells, and will appear in court this morning.

William Brundrett, who is in the freight office of the G.T.R., was taken to No. 3 station. The three women accused, Mrs. Sarah Goodfellow, mother of the dead youth; Mrs. Isabella Grant, and Mrs. Elizabeth See, of 169 Huron-st., were taken to police headquarters.

OBITUARY.

The death occurred yesterday of Anna Jane Swan, relict of the late Nicholas Swan, of Zion, Otonabee. The funeral will take place on Friday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock to St. Martin's Cemetery, Otonabee.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gamey, George street, will sympathize with them in the death of their infant son, aged two months, which event occurred yesterday. The funeral took place this afternoon to Little Lake Cemetery.

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wood Have Been 50 Years Married.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Wood, Reid street, celebrated the 50th anniversary of their wedding last night. It was a very pleasing affair, and congratulations were extended by the company of guests who assembled to do honor to the happy couple. Mr. and Mrs. Wood were married in Ameliasburg on Jan. 18th, 1855, by Rev. Dr. Sirus Ellison. Mrs. Wood was formerly Miss M. Wannamaker. At the anniversary celebration there were present six sons with their wives and families, and one daughter. The names are, Messrs. John W. Wood, Peterborough; E. W. Wood, Otonabee; J. A. Wood, Manvers; D. F. Wood, St. Catharines; D. H. Wood, Smith; W. E. Wood, Otonabee and Miss O. E. Wood, at home. There were also eleven grandchildren present. An appropriate address was given by Rev. W. J. Jolliffe and Mr. W. Galbraith and Mr. J. Giles also expressed congratulatory sentiments. Two elegant chairs were presented by the family. Mr. Wood expressed appreciation of the kindness shown.

LARGE SUPPLY OF POISON

Mr. R. C. Heard, of Bridgenorth was in town to-day. The late Edwin Walter Collingridge, who committed suicide by taking arsenic had lived with Mr. Heard for some time, having been employed by him as a blacksmith. As to where Collingridge got the arsenic, Mr. Heard states that he was at a loss to know where the poison came from, until yesterday morning, when the deceased told Dr. Scott that he had brought it from South Africa with him. An examination of his trunk shows that it contains enough of the poison to put the whole village of Bridgenorth out of business. Collingridge was something of a veterinary surgeon and used his knowledge to advantage when with the Mounted Rifles in South Africa. The arsenic was then used by him, presumably, for medicinal purposes.

WORK FOR THEM NOW
VOTE FOR THEM JAN. 25

Build up Ontario Morally and Materially.

"The ballot is the medium through which the will of the Sovereign people is expressed and he who lays unholy hands upon that sacred trust is as much a traitor as the man who aids the enemy of his king and his country."

CAMPAIGN ECHOES.

Hear Mr. Whitney tonight.

Work for Bradburn and Moore.

Keep up the good fight five more days.

Turn out and cheer this evening for Whitney, Bradburn, a secret ballot and honest government.

The race has begun and the Conservative party is leading, happy, harmonious and confident.

The ballot box must be protected and the will of the people obeyed—Vote for Bradburn and Moore.

Probably the reverend editor of the Globe will trot out his famous Barnacle article on Monday night.

The local Grit candidate should be grateful to the Ross Government, for the Ross Government has been very kind—even generous—to the McWilliams family.

In the name of common decency, common honor, and British fair play, Rossism, Cap Sullivanism, Minnie M'iam and all the other degrading isms must be completely and utterly stamped out.

Mr. R. C. Clute, K.C., who speaks here on Monday night, says, "Mr. Ross is recognised as the foremost man, not only in this Province, but in this Dominion." Well! well!! that is pretty hard on Sir Wilfrid.

Ross cannot win—and his party know it. If you don't think so, ask some of the old time Liberals what they think of his chances, and watch them gravely shake their heads.

It is safe to say that Mr. McWilliams is not circulating any copies of that famous independent address of his to the electors. It does not make good reading just now for his party and there is a sort of feeling in the heart of the Grit candidate, "Wish I had not done it."

A few days ago Conservative journals were announcing that Mr. Whitney's statement as to a coalition government and that he had been invited by a member of the Ross Government to enter one, was false. Now a Ross Cabinet Minister, Hon. J. M. Gibson admits that the Opposition leader was approached three times.

Even Ross' own supporters in the Legislature just dissolved are calling for a change. J. W. Holmes, ex-M.P.P. for Haldimand, is one of these, and speaks out plainly in his demand for reform. He says: "In my opinion the only honorable course open to Reformers in the local Legislature is to go resolutely into Opposition and elect new leaders."

Our right to vote is a trust handed down to us by our forefathers, and to be handed by us to our sons and grandsons. To cast a ballot lightly or to sell it is the worst treason of which a man can be guilty, for he betrays not only his fellows of today, but those who have gone before and those who come after, and may some day demand an accounting of their heritage. To steal the ballot—or spoil or switch it—is a crime against the entire people.

Attorney General Longley, a leading Liberal of Nova Scotia, says:

"It is impossible for any body of men to be in power for a continuous period without getting lax in their ideas of public duty. This is the innate tendency of mankind.

"Besides long terms of office induce the members of Governments to get the notion that they not only have a divine right to rule, but that instead of being the trustees and servants, they are actually the masters, and all favors are to come from them."

In the political campaign, Mr. Ross or his political supporters on the platform and the press have referred to the Ontario Conservatives, individually or collectively, as

Lobsters,
Mules,
Jackals,
Leopards,
Dirty Dogs,
Imbeciles.

This sort of thing shows a loss of temper on the part of those who resort to it. It is as little complimentary to the Ontario voters whom it is intended to influence, as it is to the Conservatives whom it is directed against. It does only one thing effectively. It establishes that there are some prominent Liberals who are not gentlemen. — Montreal Gazette.

TO-NIGHT'S MEETING.

A treat is in store for the people of Peterborough and vicinity at the big meeting which will be addressed in the market hall this evening by Col. J. P. Whitney, the talented and progressive leader of the Opposition. He will speak in the interests of Mr. Bradburn, the next representative of West Peterborough in the Ontario Legislature, and in the cause of clean, honest and decent government, which is the paramount issue before the people.

Mr. Whitney has been charged by bitter enemies with being incompetent, but let those, who may have placed any credence in these Grit libels, come out and hear "Ontario's Rightful Premier" to-night. He is a clear, forceful and convincing speaker and has a comprehensive and practical platform, which was published in this column yesterday — a good platform, most people will admit.

Mr. Whitney has been for years an earnest, hard working and conscientious leader, always watchful of every item of legislation and expenditure, and at dissolution had a majority of two in the House and a popular majority at his back throughout the country.

He is appealing to the province and calling upon all men, not hidebound partisans, but who are still free to think and act for themselves, who have no personal ends to serve or axe to grind, to join the independent and liberty-loving masses and in this fight rid Ontario from machine rule and corrupt practices. The people of the province are with Mr. Whitney. They want no more of Rossism—a record that has been so black that the Premier in his own speech in Ottawa a few weeks ago, asked his followers to forget it and "to seal the past with seven seals."

The most effective and impressive manner is for the electors to seal the fate of Rossism for the next four years and this they will do by placing at the head of affairs Col. Whitney, who will be seen and heard in Peterborough to-night.

Permanent Cure For Bronchitis

"My second daughter was troubled with bronchitis from the age of three weeks. Often times I thought she would choke to death. Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine brought relief and further treatment made a thorough cure. This trouble used to come back from time to time the cure is now permanent." — Mrs. Richmond Withrow, Shubenacadie, Hants Co., N. S.

Y.M.C.A. MEN'S NEW YEAR'S REUNION

Members of Senior Gym. Had an Enjoyable Time.

GOOD PROGRAMME OF WORK

Addresses by Lieut. Col. Edwards, Mr Kenner and Others— A Delightful Occasion.

The senior gymnasium men's New Year's reunion Tuesday evening was very much a success.

The object of it was to gather as many of the men together as possible upon the floor for regular class work, so that new enthusiasm might be created, and that afterwards they might meet together in the parlor, listen to addresses in relation to the work of the physical department, and to partake of light refreshments.

It was a source of gratification and pleasure to the physical director and the men themselves to have a class of 31 men on the floor at once.

The work started at eight o'clock with a maize run around the floor. This is a run with many variations, and one which all of the men enjoy. After the run they lined up in respective places for free calisthenics and drum-bell drill. Both the maize run and the drill were made very enjoyable and pretty to look at by piano accompaniments rendered by Miss Dobbin.

After the dumb-bells were put away the men were divided into squads for work upon the gymnastic apparatus, each squad in charge of a special leader. The apparatus work is greatly enjoyed by all of the men. As one becomes proficient in the use of each piece he finds it very fascinating, and at the same time there is nothing that will give one better muscular control and all-round development than this.

The class was through with at nine o'clock, after which the men quickly dressed and repaired to the parlor, which was made cheery by a bright fire in the grate. Then the men were served with coffee, cake and sandwiches by he Physical Commmittee, which is composed of J. H. Connal (chairman), E. M. Best, E. E. Lord, R. S. Merrill, J. J. Howden, A. O. Sawyers, J. G. M. Robertson, and W. D. Campbell.

Lunch being over, Col. Edwards, President of the Association, was called upon for an address. He spoke very feelingly upon the splendid gift of Mrs. Nicholls in the nature of our splendid building; also of the great opportunities of which such an institution affords to the young men of Peterborough, and he urged them to make the greatest use of such privileges. He laid strong emphasis upon the value of the physical work and the importance of a strong and vigorous body in the battle for success.

Mr. Jas. Brown was called upon to render a vocal selection, which he did in his usual delightful way. Mr. Brown responded to a very hearty encore. Mr. George Schneider very kindly acted as accompanist. He also rendered some enjoyable piano selections during lunch time.

Secretary Williamson, on behalf of the Association, extended to Mr. Brown and Mr. Schneider a hearty vote of thanks for their kindness in responding to the many requests to please others with their musical talent.

Mr. Kenner, of the Collegiate Institute, was next called upon for an address. He expressed his pleasure in being able to address the young men. He spoke of the undoubted benefits to be derived from systematic physical training and the necessity of the equal sided development. He said:—"If a man develops only the physical side he becomes a brute; if he develops only the spiritual he will be a fanatic, and if only the intellectual side is cultivated he turns into a book-worm."

Mr. Kenner gave a beautiful and true portrayal of the true, the whole man. He concluded by very kindly offering to give the men a talk at some future time.

General Secretary G. H. Williamson was called upon. He responded with an urgent appeal for the men to make the most of the opportunities afforded by the Association.

Physical Director P. K. Holmes also made a few remarks.

Mr. J. H. Connal, chairman of the Physical Committee, spoke on behalf of that committee. He said that he thought the committee might have done more in stimulating the work of the department in the past, but that now it was determined to do more and greater work than ever before.

The affair passed off very delightfully, there being 50 men present in the parlor. The gathering was concluded by singing "Blest be the Tie that Binds."

WHY LIBERALS BREAK TIES WON'T STAND FOR ROSSISM

Exposures of Machine Infamy Revolt Men of the Type of S. H. Blake.

Liberals of the type of Hon. S. H. Blake, Rev. D. C. Hossack, and Rev. Nathaniel Smith hasten to dissociate themselves from the party of Hon. G. W. Ross. Still they claim to be Liberals and that they have not departed from the principles they have professed all their lives.

Rossism is not Liberalism. Hundreds of Liberals are breaking party ties and on the 25th of the present month will vote for the Conservative candidates. And the independent electors of Ontario will join the old-time Liberals in the house-cleaning exercises.

The ills of the Liberal party date from the accession of Hon. G. W. Ross to the leadership of the Liberal party in Ontario. This event occurred in 1899. Since and including 1899 we have had a record of electoral debauchery that has made the name of Ontario a reproach to honest people. Hon. G. W. Ross signalized his acceptance of the duties of Premier by reorganizing the Cabinet. He found himself with a very small majority in the House and the machine was organized to strengthen his position. The West Elgin frauds followed. Crooks were imported into the riding to switch the votes of honest Conservatives. These crimes were exposed by the Conservatives and the Liberal candidate made a confession that "the declared number of votes for Mr. Macnish largely exceeded the number of bona fide votes cast for him." By such frauds Mr. Ross was enabled to continue in office. The general election of 1902 left him in a still worse plight. Though in a minority of the popular vote he had so arranged the constituencies as to give him a majority of two in the Legislature; but two was not a very large surplus and efforts were made to increase it. The purchase of members elected to oppose the Government was one of the means by which Mr. Ross determined to hold on, and in the bye-elections he counted on adding a few more members to his voting strength. The "Three Norths" followed. All were carried by Mr. Ross by methods afterwards exposed in the election courts.

With the revelations of Mr. Gamey the fortunes of Ross declined and subsequent bye-elections failed to give the Premier the assistance he required. The most revolting electoral methods were resorted to at Sault Ste. Marie and by wholesale plugging by a band of American toughs the Government succeeded in temporarily forestalling defeat.

The Soo revelations were the climax of a long series of corrupt acts performed by unscrupulous politicians on behalf of Premier Ross. Hardly less revolting were the methods employed by agents of the machine to unseat Donald Sutherland in South Oxford. For his efforts in behalf of Premier Ross the chief conspirator, Jackson, —was rewarded with a lucrative office in England.

Is there any wonder that many honest Liberals are revolting, and that others who will not go the length of declaring their opposition have no heart for the present contest which means the life or death of Rossism and all that the term implies?

WHITNEY IS ON RECORD FOR ADVANCED PROGRAM

Mr Whitney will go into power with a well defined and progressive policy and while he makes it unmistakeably clear that the main issue in the present contest is honest and decent Government he promises legislation along advanced lines. The extremity of the Government since the advent of Mr. Ross to the premiership has prevented the adoption of legislation of this character. Mr. Ross has been too much occupied with the business of attempting to strengthen his precarious hold on office to devise legislation or to carry into execution his much-heralded program of "building up Ontario."

Mr. Whitney offers a comprehensive program. His attitude on Provincial issues has been in the interests of the whole people. He proposes to broaden the scope of the agricultural college, to establish experimental stations and to give increased agricultural instruction in the public schools. An experimental fruit station in the Niagara District has been suggested.

The encouragement of a sanitary system of sewerage in towns and villages is one of the proposals of the Opposition. The Government has offered inducement to municipalities to construct permanent roadways and wherever a comprehensive system of roadways has been constructed part of the cost has come from the Provincial Revenues. The same method could well be adopted with regard to sewerage, and the Opposition has placed itself on record in this regard.

The Opposition has spoken in favor of public ownership. In the Legislature Dr. Pyne's resolution favoring the operation of the Temiskaming Railway for ten years as an experiment was voted down by Mr. Ross and his followers.

Fair taxation of railways is a plank in the Conservative platform.

Reforms are needed in the educational system of the Province and Mr. Whitney has pledged himself to apply himself to this task. His attitude on this question is clear. The Public School system should not be regarded as a mere stepping stone to the Collegiate Institute or the University. It should fit a boy or girl for the battle of life.

The nationalization of the water powers of the Province, free school books, the disposal of pulp and timber concessions at public auction, reform of the mining laws, a strict enforcement of the license laws of the Province, the branding of prison made goods—these are some of the reforms consistently advocated by Mr. Whitney and his Colleagues in and out of the Legislature.

CONSERVATIVES ARE UNITED.

Mr. Dennistoun Reviews the Unsavory Record of Ross Government, and Shows up its Weakness, Dishonesty and Corruption —Other Speeches.

The nomination of candidates to contest the riding of East Peterborough in the Provincial elections on Wednesday, January 25th, took place at Norwood yesterday before Mr. B. Morrow, returning officer. The town hall was well filled, but the gathering is said to be the smallest ever seen at a nomination in the village.

The result of the nominations was as follows:—

Henry Alexander Moore, nominated by F. Birdsall, seconded by Wm. J. Elliott.

William Anderson, nominated by Chas. O'Reilly, seconded by T. G. Hazlitt.

At the close of the nominations Mr. H. G. Buck, of Norwood, was moved to the chair, and the Liberal candidate was called upon to first address the meeting.

THE SPEECHES.

Mr. Anderson was given a good reception, and thanked his nominators for the honor they had conferred upon him. He came before them as a supporter of Hon. G. W. Ross and his platform. In his opinion the Liberal leader had done all that was possible for a man to do to advance the interests of the province.

There was no charge of misappropriation of the monies entrusted to and expended by the Government, and the general policy of Ross was one which he thought commended itself to all. Mr. Anderson briefly referred to Hon. John Dryden's work in the Department of Agriculture, and lauded the Government for the assistance given to the industries at the Soo. On the question of temperance, Mr. Anderson contended the record of the Government was a creditable one. He argued that the sale of liquor in the province had greatly diminished since the Liberals had assumed power and in this county alone about half of the townships were without hotels. During his term as representative he had secured the expenditure of about $8000 on the roads, and thus saved the ratepayers a large personal outlay. His opponent in the contest, Mr. Moore, was a high-minded, honest and respectable man, having been associated with him in the county council. They were both determined to conduct an honest canvass.

CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATE

Mr. H. A. Moore, the Conservative candidate was given an enthusiastic reception. He thanked his proposers for the honor conferred on him in making him the standard bearer for the Conservative party in East Peterborough. He was a supporter of Mr. Whitney whom he characterized as a clean man, and one who will legislate properly when he assumes the reins of Government. Mr. Ross' time had come. As a result of the vote in the last election he was not premier, and if the election trials had been proceeded with, he would have been in the minority. Mr. Moore in closing a short, but effective speech, stated that he had seventeen years experience in county council and expected to represent them at Toronto after January 25th. (Loud cheers.)

AN ABLE SPEECH.

Mr. R. M. Dennistoun was the next speaker and was given a warm reception. He congratulated the candidates on their remarks, and congratulated the parties on their choice of candidates. Both in his opinion were ideal citizens, and it would require the toss of a coin to pick the most capable of the two. But on the eve of a great political contest, where great issues were at stake, it was incumbent upon us as citizens to look beyond the individual. Mr. Dennistoun next took up the statement made at every political gathering in the province, that the Conservatives had no platform, but the cry of corruption, and proceeded forthwith to read to his hearers the planks of the platform of the Liberal-Conservative party. It was composed, he continued, of good solid planks, and he was surprised at any Liberal speaker making such a preposterous statement as the above. Mr. Dennistoun referred to the late Sir Oliver Mowat in complimentary terms, and stated he was the last premier who had made any attempt to govern the province. The succeeding Liberal Governments had been actuated by one motive only, to retain office. The speaker continuing referred to the provincial contest of two years ago, in which the Conservative party although in a minority of three in the House, secured a majority of 7,000 votes throughout the province. The reason Mr. Ross is appealing to the country now, is that he finds himself without sufficient followers to control the House. What has the Government done, Mr. Dennistoun asked, since the spring of 1902 when they appealed to the country? The Legislature opened with the Gamey charges, and the Government was weakened in its position by the investigation which followed.

ELECTION PETITIONS

Next followed the election petitions and the Legislature was called together at the very time set for the trial of the protests. Then came the prorogation of the House for the same reason. Mr. Dennistoun took up the case of the Minnie M. as well as the many specified corruption charges against the Ross Government, and aroused the enthusiasm of the gathering by his clever arraignment of the guilty ones.

Mr. Dennistoun then quoted from a remarkable article in the Queen's Quarterly, published by the Queen's University authorities, in which the unsavory record of the Government is referred to in scathing terms and its inactivity in punishing the political criminals emphatically condemned.

Mr. Stratton's Douro speech was also referred to in which that gentleman stated that "he and the Government had been honest—that they had not stolen the money of the people, that they had collected one hundred and twenty-three millions of dollars and not misappropriated any of it." Any town or county councillor, Mr. Dennistoun argued, who sought election on the statement that he did not steal the taxes he collected, would be immediately dismissed.

Provincial Secretary Graham's opera house speech was next lacerated by Mr. Dennistoun and his defence of Attorney-General Gibson's action in the Minnie M. incident was shown to be ridiculous and shallow.

Turning to the temperance question the speaker recalled the Horticultural Gardens gathering when Sir Oliver Mowat made the statement that if he had power he would pass a prohibitory law and if not he would go to the extreme limit in temperance legislation. Hon. Geo. W. Ross said at that time it was the only Government he would be a member of. Mr. Dennistoun asked his hearers if Premier Ross had passed the temperance legislation he had promised. Did he not deceive the people in this regard? A leader, he argued, who took office on a promise which he failed to carry out should resign. The two new ministers, Messrs. McKay and Graham, had throttled the legislation proposed at Massey Hall. The Premier's favorite quotation is "Righteousness exalteth a nation," but he did not use the Biblical quotation in its entirety and had shrewdly left out "Sin is a reproach to any people."

In regard to the numbered ballot Mr. Dennistoun effectively dealt with the many arguments advanced in its favor, and stated this would be the last election in which the iniquitous ballot would be used. It was the source of innumerable political crimes. Public conscience had not been sufficiently aroused as to its evil effects. In an eloquent appeal he urged those present to rise in their might on election day, put Mr. Whitney in power and send Mr. Moore to Toronto as a supporter of a clean Government.

MR. JFFFREY'S REMARKS

Mr. M. Jeffrey, of Guelph, a well known legal light followed Mr. Dennistoun in Mr. Anderson's interests. He delivered a sugar-coated address in which he shrewdly evaded the issues of the day, and pronounced the Conservative party the political god father of all the corruption in politics, and called its followers maligners and slanderers.

He was proud, he said, to speak in a constituency which had been so ably represented by Hon. J. R. Stratton (cries of "not much," "put him out," etc.) The chairman at this juncture was obliged to restore order and Mr. Jeffrey proceeded to defend Attorney-General Gibson on his stand in connection with the Minnie M. case, by declaring that the Attorney-General did not believe such a state of affairs were possible and also that he had no jurisdiction in American territory. At any rate Mr. DuVernet, the counsel for the Conservative party, took the case out of Mr. Gibson's hands and the culprits escaped. He made a feeble defence of the numbered ballot, which he said was the same as used in Great Britain and was just as secret as the Dominion ballot. He prophesied the return of Premier Ross to power and very glibly evaded the issues before the people in an hour's address.

Dr. Moncham, of Warsaw, followed Mr. Jeffrey, and very effectively disposed of the ridiculous contentions of the Liberal speaker in a brief, but convincing address and the meeting closed with cheers for the King and the candidates.

Twenty Years of Piles

WOMAN'S STRENUOUSNESS.

Too Busy With the Crowded Hour to Fear to Live or Die.—Emerson.

In Carlyle's "Past and Present" we have mention of "the strenuous life," a phrase which has been brought into current use by our president, and lately, through the same source, we have the phrase "the crowded hour." But long before these phrases came into common use there were women who lived lives so strenuous that some of them were not sorry when the time came to lie down and rest forever.

To many, many women, living only with the hope that some day things will be different, it seems as if life were all one "crowded hour," to be got through with somehow from day to day. Even when night comes and the tired body lies down to rest the busy brain is still at work, planning the duties of the next day or the next week or month, as the case may be, until sleep mercifully puts an end to its reaching out into the future to days that may never come.

For most women the first year after marriage is generally the most strenuous in all their existence. All that went to make life delightful during girlhood is being crowded out—must be put aside in this crowded hour—and the little bride wonders sadly why she is not as happy as she expected to be. There seems to be no time for piano practice, for the golf or tennis that she once enjoyed so much; the late books are literally closed books to her, and all the old favorites are left lying upon the shelf save when they need dusting. After a few years have passed she begins to realize that she has fallen far behind the rest of the world and is only competent to take her place with the rest of the matrons and discuss the three D's—dress, domestics and disease. She determines to "catch up" again and in this endeavor joins a club or two herself, and then life, strenuous as it may have been before, becomes far more so. She has not removed the first cause, but has added to it.

Then there is the woman who is always getting ready to be happy. It may be she is working hard to educate her children, pay for the home or furnish it in a "grand" manner, expecting some day to enjoy it all. That time will probably never come, for when she has accomplished her purpose other things to work for will open before her or she will have forgotten how to rest.

The only salvation for such lives is to pause right in the midst of "the crowded hour" and then decide what is most worth while. The true bohemian is one who knows how to wring pleasure from every passing moment. Whatever may be the enjoyment of the present moment—whether it is the pleasure he or she planned or wished for or some other bit of enjoyment—it is grasped and enjoyed to the utmost, and it would be a bit of wisdom on the part of all womankind if this same spirit of the true bohemian were cultivated for its worth.—Mary Taylor Ross in New Idea Magazine.

AN OFFICIAL PARTISAN

A correspondent in Wednesday's issue of the Review calls attention to a fact that seems to have been on the public mind for some time, and which may fairly be a matter of criticism. It is pointed out that Mr. J. B. McWilliams is in receipt of a bountiful Government and of governments many years before. That Mr. McWilliams i sin receipt of a bountiful salary—taken at $1,500—for which he is understood to perform certain duties, and that while ostensibly filling the duties of his office he is really managing the campaign for the Ross Government candidate in this riding.

It is noticable that Mr. McWilliams enjoys a distinctly agreeable position and one that affords substantial emoluments while allowing him to direct his time and some considerable attention to other pursuits. In fact his berth might well be termed an avocation. The duties of his office are not the making of a strenuous life, or else why this evasion of the daily grind. A large number of people are enquiring, and a sprinkling are envious—and well they may be,—for here is a government official doing as he pleases in defiance of the statute in such case made end proprovided.

The real reason is not hard to find. He is doing the work of his masters and as they would have him do it. That is what office under the Ross Government was made for, to provide a pleasant place for the political worker against the hour of need of his services. And the same state of affairs is duplicated in every riding in the province. And further, the attention of the electors is called to the pertinent fac. that the only way to put down McWilliamism is to put down the system that allows such flagrant breaches of what is decent and right. Does any one for a moment suppose that if Mr. McWilliams, sr., were exerting himself in the interests of the Opposition candidate and occupying his position in the employ of he Ross Government, that he, Mr. McWilliams, would not be brought up with a round turn? It is the last struggle of the Ross Government to have its Crown Land agent do what he can, knowing that if the electors, with such a spectacle before their eyes, are content to send the Government back to power that he is safe, and, if defeated, the consequences could not be any worse than the condition of affairs deserve.

The attention of the electors is again directed to this matter, and they are asked to decide. Will they vote, on Wednesday next, to continue such a condition of affairs or to show that there is a way to reprove and make that reproof decisive and effective.

Pleasant Surprise Party Held at Residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Elliot.

Quite a large gathering of friends held a surprise party on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Elliott, 112 Macdonnel-st. in commemoration of the eleventh anniversary of their wedding day and also of the birth-day of Mrs. Elliott.

After a very pleasant evening spent in games and music, the light fantastic was indulged in until the wee sma' hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott highly appreciated the graceful compliment.

AN ACTIVE OFFICIAL.

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir—The active interest in and support of the candidature of his son by Mr. J. B. McWilliams in defiance of the law prohibiting such activity on the part of civil servants, should be well remembered by Conservatives after January 25th. If a civil servant shows such partiality for a party in power, he can hardly expect to be kept in office when the opposing party obtains the government of this province. It is hoped that Mr. Whitney, the next Premier, will have his attention called to the work of Mr. J. B. McWilliams so as to give him what he is entitled to. Yours, etc.

CONSERVATIVE

PAST YEAR WAS SUCCESSFUL ONE

Very Encouraging Reports at St. Paul's Annual Meeting.

756 MEMBERS ON NEW ROLL

Old Managers Were Elected—The Pastor's Plan for Wiping Out the Debt—Good Year at the Mission School—All Departments Healthy.

The annual congregational business meeting of St. Paul's Presbyterian church, which was held last evening in the school room, was very well attended in spite of inclement weather. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Torrance, was in the chair, and the meeting opened with prayer by Rev. H. B. A. Ketchen. The chief business of the evening was the consideration of reports presented, all of which were decidedly encouraging.

The pastor presented the report of the Session. "It is not without some encouragement," he said, "that we review the work of the past year. A considerable number of additions were made at each communion season. Most of these were by profession of faith, and among them were 22 young people from the Sabbath School and Bible class. The attendance at the communion service in October was one of the largest in the history of the congregation. The income for ordinary revenue and missions was quite up to the standard of any previous year. There is an increase of 50 in the number of families under pastoral care, due partly to the fact that about 20 new families were brought into more or less close connection with the Mission. In September, Messrs. J. C. Shook, W. J. Stacey, T. L. Anderson, Alexander Stewart, James Ferguson were inducted into the membership of the church. These brethren have proved to be quite an acquisition to the session. A rearrangement has been made in some of the class districts. Monaghan, for a long time without an elder, has been assigned to Mr. Ferguson. Mr. Stewart will fill the vacancy created by the death of the late George Stewart, Otonabee, and to each of the districts under, Messrs. Fife, Harrison and Collins, which were too large, one of the three new elders has been assigned.

The report referred to the resignation and removal of Rev. J. A. Wilson, who had carried on the work with great earnestness, having been successful in working up a large Bible class in St. Paul's and a prayer meeting in the Mission. Definite arrangements had not yet been made as to a successor, but his place had been acceptably filled for some weeks by Rev. Mr. Ketchen.

For three weeks in December Rev. J. Lewis and the pastor held a series of evangelistic meetings in the Stewart Settlement, Otonabee, with the result that several young people professed their faith in Christ.

The losses by death during the year had not been large, but particular reference was made to the late George Stewart and Mrs. J. A. Hall, who had long been closely identified with the work of the church.

The additions to the membership of the church were 64—37 by profession of faith and 27 by certificate. There were seven removals by death and ten by certificate. As a result of a thorough purging of the roll, a number of doubtful members were taken off and a thoroughly new roll made, showing a membership of 756.

Rev. Dr. Torrance pointed to a number of departments which did not seem to be in as prosperous condition as formerly, such as the intermediate branch of the Sunday school, the Y.P.S.C.E., and prayer meeting, and he urged greater efforts and earnest prayer on the part of elders, managers and members.

THE MISSION.

He reported that there are 48 families who have more or less class connection with the Mission, and of these 20 were families of St. Paul's, 10 belonged to other churches, ten attended no church and the rest are new families in town. There are among these families 20 communicants, whose names are still on the roll of St. Paul's. There was a small increase in attendance at the Sabbath school during the year. Two communion services were held, about 40 being present at each. As the result of a canvass of families attending the Mission, $400 was guaranteed toward the support of ordinances, $120 of which has previously gone into the revenue of St. Paul's.

The above report was received and adopted.

BOARD OF MANAGERS

Mr. H. S. Macdonald presented the report of the Board of Managers. It congratulated the congregation on the progress during the past year, and the managers still look forward to an advance in revenue during the coming year. 1904 had been ended with a small credit balance. The re-arranging of the insurance policies and the paying of a number of accounts that properly belong to last year with $51.00 for Mission Shed (the balance having been contributed by individuals attending the Mission) has made the balance much below what it otherwise would have been.

The special collection for renovating the church amounted to $671.50. Of this amount $575.46 went to Mr. Hall, the lowest tenderer, for putting iron roof on main building, with $125 for new motor and there is a balance of $173.04 left, which amount the Board hope to increase during the summer months, when the congregation will be asked for a contribution to repaint and refit the interior of the Church. Contributions by envelopes are the largest in the history of the church, being $436.50 over the previous year, the number of contributors being $412. There is about $100 arrearage, all of which will be paid this month. The open collections show a decrease of $51.47. The office bearers decided, in response to petition, to allow the worshippers at the Mission to have separate envelopes. This will remove a number of contributors from St. Paul's whose names have been on the books for many years, the amount being deposited with St. Paul's treasurer as usual. The terms of Messrs. Hall and Madill on the Hospital Board have expired. The managers who retire are Messrs. Brown, Macdonald, Bennet and Wood. The report concludes:

"For some time your Board have felt that it would be desirable to wipe out the church debt, which amounts to $4,000. At a meeting of officers on the 10th inst., Dr. Torrance suggested a plan which was adopted, and it is expected that the matter will be accomplished without difficulty. It was proposed to ask each family in the contribution to contribute a certain sum for three years towards the debt. Already a considerable sum has been promised.

Messrs. Brown, Macdonald, Bennet and Wood were re-elected managers; Messrs. Crane and McWilliams auditors and Messrs. Hall and Madill representatives on the Nicholls Hospital Board.

ANOTHER GOOD REPORT

The Young Men's Guild, A. P. McLean, president; C. R. Cameron, corresponding secretary, presented their third annual report, stating that the membership had increased, there being 60 on the roll at present. The members still looked after the ushering and taking up the collection. John Crane, Jas. A. Fife and R. F. McWilliams were thanked for interesting talks and regret expressed at the removal of Rev. J. A. Wilson. Dr. and Mrs. Torrance were thanked for a social evening.

WOMEN'S MISSIONS.

The report of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, Miss A. M. Hall, Secretary, was the 28th one in the history of the Society. The past year has been one of progress. The membership is 103, of the auxiliary 53 are members of the general Society and 18 are life members. Two have been added during 1904. Out of a list in the General Society of over 700, St. Pauls was first in contributions, second in total membership and third in average attendance. Thanksgiving offering amounted to $271.40. Reference was also made to the work undertaken during the year, particularly the clothing of a boy and girl in the Indian Boarding School at Regina. Miss J. J. Kingan, treasurer, showed that the total receipts were $480.95, with a balance in bank of $452.21. The Fraser Mission Band contributed $100; Faithful Workers' Mission Band, $15.

YOUNG PEOPLE.

The Young People's Society, Miss Williamson, President; M. Deans, Secretary, reported that they had again undertaken the support of an Indian famine child for a year. They contributed $16.90 to Home Missions and $16.90 to Foreign Missions. The receipts of the year were $78.52, and there was a balance of $2.97 according to statement of J. Fife, Treasurer.

MEMBERSHIP INCREASED.

Faithful Workers' Mission Band, Miss M. B. Robertson, Secretary, reported an increase in membership, which now stands at 47, with an average attendance of 14. The contribution of the Northwest consisted of 2 quilts and a pair of blankets. The amount raised by the Band was $15, collected entirely at monthly meetings.

CLOTHING FOR INDIA.

The Fraser Mission Band, Miss Jean Cameron, Secretary, reported that the contribution this year will amount to the same as last year, $100. There are 30 members on the roll with an average attendance of 22. The clothing for an Indian girl and 3 quilts were sent to the Northwest. Thank offering amounted to $24.80.

FINANCES.

The report of the Treasurer, Mr. John Crane, showing total receipts to be $6,074.57, and expenditure $6,035.65, was read. The details have already been published in the Review.

LADIES GREAT HELPERS.

The Ladies' Aid Society, Mrs. R. R. Hall, Secretary, reported that the work had been most successfully carried on during the year. A congregational social was held in February, as well as several other like entertainments during the year. The high tea and sale of work in November netted the sum of $274.31. The annual collection for the Charity Fund amounted to $66.50. The Society sustained a great loss in the death of Mrs. Sheriff Hall, who was president for a number of years. The financial statement showed the receipts to be $644.60, with a balance on hand of $313.86.

SABBATH SCHOOL.

The report of the Sunday School, Mr. Wm. Madill, Superintendent, showed that the attendance averaged 285 during 1904, as compared with 269 in 1903. Twenty scholars from the school had became identified with the church and five were present every Sunday. Regret was expressed at the loss of the services of Miss A. Dennistoun, J. W. Garvin, A. J. Johnston and Rev. J. A. Wilson. The contribution to missions was $369, all the collections going to missions. The Home Department had 160 members.

MISSION SCHOOL.

Mr. Sheriff Hall presented the report of the Mission School. It started in 1903 with a membership of 26.

Outlook for Good Season's Work is Very Bright.

The Y.M.C.A. Literary Society and Debating Club completed its organization last night.

The outlook for a good season's work is very bright. A goodly number of men have enrolled and have shown an interest in the work of the society. The executive committee, as elected, consists of—

President—P. K. Holmes.
1st vice-pres.—H. V. Shook.
2nd vice pres.—R. P. Dormer.
Sec.-Treas.—Maurice Rosenburgh.

A critic has not yet been selected. The programme committee consists of the executive committee.

The programme for next meeting night will appear in the paper within a few days.

Meetings will be held every alternate Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Any senior member of the Y.M.C.A. is eligible for enrolment.

To-night — Victoria Glee and Mandolin Clubs. Opera House. Tickets 50 and 35c.

THE DISTRIBUTION OF BULBS

Officers Elected—The Financial Statement—Water for Boulevards Should Not be Charged. Repair of Walk in Central Park—Other Business.

The annual meeting of the Peterborough Horticultural Society was held last evening in the Council Chamber. There was a fair attendance of members. The President, Mr. D. W. Dumble, occupied the chair.

The Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. H. L. Beal, read his report for the season, which was as follows—

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

President D. W. Dumble then gave the following report, which was adopted:

The year just closed has been one of the most successful in the history of the Society. It is realized that the growing love for flowers and their more extensive cultivation year by year and the greater care bestowed upon both private and public grounds, are in large measure the direct result of the Society's efforts.

In the year just expired the Victoria and Central Parks have shown better results than ever before, the beds were better planted and showed better and more artistic effects, the the season was wet and there was an abundant supply of water, and the colors were massed so that Victoria Park especially was a credit to the town and a surprise to all visitors.

The spring display of tulips in this park will be fine.

The Horticultural Show was good and was better patronized than for many years.

The Society realizes that for much of its success it is indebted to the zeal, energy and faithful services of Mr. Cooney and to the hearty co-operation of the directors.

The Directors have resolved to conduct the future operations of the Society on a new basis. It is proposed to buy bulbs in Holland and to give every member a gift of splendid bulbs, the retail price of which here is greater than the membership fee; they will also give the members a subscription to a useful publication, containing directions for growing flowers, as this will widen the membership, extend the love of flowers, and add much to the beauty of the gardens.

It is hoped that there will be much desire to share in the distribution of bulbs, that people will solicit the privilege of membership, which will not in the future cost more than the dollar heretofore charged.

It is hoped that the town authorities will assist in making the town attractive by depositing every available load of good earth on the Central Park, and in making up boulevards, instead of taking away good soil from the front of citizens' property to dump it into holes that could as well be filled with material unfit to grow grass.

In progressive towns and cities the authorities build the boulevards. Here a very different course has been followed, and sometimes we are told the ungrateful fact that our streets are rough.

We should constantly aim to make our city a beautiful place of residence.

Before closing we would suggest a continuation of the action pursued last year in trimming and thinning out the street trees.

Respectfully submitted.

D. W. DUMBLE,
President.

PLANTS AND BULBS.

The report of the committee appointed to look into the matter of plant and bulb distribution among the members, was then read by Mr. Frank Wise. It was as follows—

We have examined the correspondence, from Col. Bog, Secretary of Picton Horticultural Society, obtained by your President, Mr. Dumble, and desire to state that we see no reason why we should not make a very handsome distribution of bulbs to the members of this Society in the spring, and also another in the fall. We would also suggest that a periodical relating to the growing and care of plants and bulbs be subscribed for, and distributed to the members.

We would recommend that a committee be appointed to look into our finances and find out what we can really afford to give each member, and also that they be empowered to act in the purchasing of such bulbs and plants decided upon.

We would also suggest that a general meeting be called in the spring for the distribution of the same and a general talk upon the management of such bulbs or plants it is seen fit to provide.

We are also of the opinion that owing to the general distribution scheme this Society should become very popular as each and every member will receive much greater value than they are asked to contribute.

Respectfully contributed.

FRANK WISE,
PERCY HAMILTON.

PARK REPORT.

Mr. Cooney, caretaker of Victoria and Central Parks, then read the following report.

Work in Victoria Park—Harrowed the Park, 24 loads of manure put on for dressing, planted three thousand bulbs, got fourteen loads of manure from John Cunningham, four loads from Dr. Eastwood two loads from Mr. A. Hall. Mr. Hall also supplied some bulbs. Got four loads of sod, and a quantity of street scrapings.

Work in Central Park—All trees dug around and manured, planted four shrubs and elm trees, top dressed the Park.

B. COONEY,
Caretaker.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The election of officers then took place and resulted as follows:

President—D. W. Dumble.
1st Vice-Pres.—W. H. Hill.
2nd Vice-Pres.—T. A. S. Hay.
Sec. Treas.—H. L. Beal.
Auditors—T. A. S. Hay and A. Stevenson.

Directors—Hon. J. R. Stratton, Jas. English, H. Nesbitt, A. Saunders, F. Wise, P. Campbell, A. Hall, T. A. S. Hay, Dr. Geo. Burnham, Jos. Giles, J. Stevenson, W. J. Francis.

Prize List Committee—A. Saunders, F. Wise, J. Giles, T. A. S. Hay, H. Nesbitt.

RESOLUTIONS.

It was moved by Mr. Jordan, seconded by Mr. Hamilton, that, in the opinion of this meeting, people who take the trouble to cut and water the boulevards on public streets, should not be charged for the water used in doing the same, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Water Commissioners.—Carried.

It was moved by Mr. Cooney, seconded by Mr. Wise, that a number of incandescent lights be placed around the parks.—Carried.

The President, Mr. T. A. S. Hay and Mr. H. Beal were appointed a committee to wait on the County Council and ask that something be done to repair the walk in front of the Court House.—Carried.

The meeting then adjourned.

Hear Mr. J. P. Whitney, Market Hall, To-night, To-night! All are cordially invited.

WHY NOT?

Why not have something worth while to do during these long evenings. Passepartout some pictures either for yourself or your friends. It is an easy work and one that is profitable and pleasant. These pictures make nice birthday or wedding presents, and are always acceptable. Everything needed may be bought at the Review office. New embossed boards in white and cream, and all shades of mountings in all weights, pretty pictures in sepia and colors, passepartout in all shades — these are all on sale at the Review Stationery Department.

Fruit is Nature's Laxative.

Fruit contains certain principles which act like a charm on the liver—and keep the whole system well and strong. But these principles in the fruit juices are too weak to have any marked effect on the internal organs. The value of

Fruit-a-tives
or Fruit Liver Tablets

lies in the secret process by which they are made. The fruit juices are so combined that they have an entirely different effect from fresh fruit. Their action is the action of fruit greatly intensified. They have a marked effect on the liver—toning it up—making it active. "Fruit-a-tives" are, without doubt, the only complete cure for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney Troubles.

Minute Screws.

"The fourth jewel screw of a watch is so small that to the naked eye it will not look like anything more than a bit of dust," says a watchmaker, "and is probably the smallest screw made. It must necessarily be perfect in every respect, and the character of the workmanship required on it is illustrated by looking at it under a powerful microscope, when it is seen that the threads average 260 to the inch. It is exactly four-thousandths of an inch in diameter, and over 50,000 could be packed into a lady's thimble with ease. Counting these screws is never attempted, of course, but 100 are weighed on a delicate steelyard, and the total number of an output is arrived at by comparing the gross weight with the weight of these. Such tiny screws can only be made in large numbers by machinery and the operation attending their manufacture is one of the most delicate things in watchmaking."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Roast Goose in England.

Queen Elizabeth was very fond of roast goose. She was dining on this when the good news was brought to her on Michaelmas day that the Spanish fleet had been driven back. And ever since that fowl has been to the English feast of St. Michael what the turkey is to our Thanksgiving day.

Ripe Bananas.

In their native countries bananas are seldom eaten before the skin is discolored and the pulp is of so soft a consistence that it can be scooped out with a spoon.

Battleships.

Naval experts put down the active life of a modern battleship at about fifteen years. A hundred years ago battleships lasted almost six times as long and were on active service nearly the whole time of their commission.

Fijian Fossil Coral.

The Fijian fossil coral is the best building stone in the world. Soft as cheese when first cut, it hardens in the air to the consistency of granite.

You Must Look To the Liver

If You Would Have Good Digestion and Good Health, It is Kept Alive by

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

Bile in the blood is poison.

Bile in the intestines is necessary to digestion and the healthful action of the bowels.

Bile in the blood causes biliousness, headache, jaundice, muddy complexion and is the source of innumerable pains and aches.

The lack of bile in the intestines brings on indigestion, constipation, kidney derangements and a clogging of the whole digestive and excretory systems.

The liver separates bile from the blood, where it is poison, and pours it into the intestines, where it is of inestimable worth.

For this reason the health of the body is dependent on the health and activity of the liver.

By making the liver active when it becomes torpid and sluggish, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills insure a healthful flow of bile into the intestines and the cure of all ailments arising from "bile poison," indigestion and constipation.

Set the kidneys right by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and you will remove the cause of many pains and aches, of many annoying symptoms, of irritable temper and depressed spirits.

There is no liver regulator so certain of action, so quick to relieve, so lastingly beneficial.

"I was a sufferer for years with stomach trouble and terrible headaches, and spent a good many dollars in medicine without receiving any benefit. Hearing Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills highly recommended I determined to give them a trial and did so with most satisfactory results as I was very greatly benefited and do not hesitate to recommend this treatment as the best obtainable for such ailments."—Mrs. Thomas Covert, Highland Grove, Peterboro Co., Ont.

REMEMBER ROSS HE IS PULLING DOWN ONTARIO

Province Is Aroused and Puts Up a Fight in Every Riding.

Nomination Day Indications Are That the Head of the Ross Government Will Drop Into the Bucket On Jan. 25—Two Ministers Fail to Attend the Nomination Meetings and Shirk Giving Account of Their Stewardship—Enthusiasm For Conservative Cause and Coldness For Ross All Along the Line.

Toronto, Jan. 19.—Not a single acclamation throughout the province is the record of yesterday—nomination day. One protest against the Liberal candidate in Thunder Bay and Rainy River is entered. Mr. Cameron is protested on the ground that he is not a resident of the province. This will be pushed to the finish. Several old Liberals have got into the fray. Dr. Stark in Stormont is out against the Ross Government and the straight Liberal candidate. In Prescott Labrosse still stands his ground against Evanturel, and no Conservative is in the field; and there are others. Enthusiasm for the Conservative candidates and coldness for the Ross regime were the outstanding points all along the line yesterday.

Surprise is expressed that Hon. John Dryden did not attend the nomination meeting at Whitby to discuss the issues of the campaign with the electors. The true explanation is that Mr. Dryden is having the fight of his life and fears the judgment of the people. Hon. Mr. Gibson is still in the hands of his physician and did not attend the gathering at Fergus, where it had got noised abroad much opposition would have appeared to his candidacy. He is lying low. Premier Ross appeared at Mount Brydges and posed as a puritan in his usual manner. Charges of corruption and mismanagement were hurled at him. He declared he had no guilty knowledge.

Hon. Mr. Graham, at Brockville, met a storm of dissent when he declared that Rev. Mr. Hossack was a disappointed seeker for a Senatorship. The statement has been denied and it is declared Mr. Graham repeated it under great nervous stress.

J. P. Whitney received an enthusiastic reception at Winchester in Dundas County, that augurs well for his success in his own riding. At London Adam Beck, the Conservative candidate, was called a liar by ex-Ald. Parnell, but promptly exacted an apology. This was the single unseemly scene of the day.

The Ross Government is doomed to drop its head in the bucket on Jan. 25.

ASTHMA

Permanently Cured after Physicians had Pronounced the Case Hopeless.

Asthmatics know what a waste of time and money it is to go to specialists. Their treatment is all alike—the stereotyped sprays and gargles—which may afford temporary relief, but never cure.

Clarke's Kola Compound not only affords instant relief, but completely eradicates the disease from the system.

Mrs. J. Wise, of Vancouver, writes: "I have been a sufferer from Asthma for eight years. My doctor told me I could never be better. Then I heard of a gentleman who had been cured by Clarke's Kola Compound, so I tried it. Before I finished the fourth bottle, the attacks ceased, and during the six months of damp, foggy, rainy weather, I have not had a single attack."

Such confidence have we in Clarke's Kola Compound that we will send a sample bottle free to any address. Write to-day, and get relief.

GROOM OF SINGLE HOUR

Wm. Lash Drops Dead at Guelph After Wedding Breakfast.

Preparing to Take the Train For His Honeymoon When the Inevitable Summons Came—Sorrow Is Profound At Galt the Home of His Bride For the Past Ten Years—Heart Failure the Cause of Death.

Guelph, Jan. 19.—Sudden and under profoundly pathetic circumstances was the death of William Lash of Montreal, which occurred in this city yesterday afternoon. By it a groom of but an hour was hastened into eternity and a season of happiness and jubilation was turned into one of deep sorrow.

Mr. Lash was married at high noon to Miss Jean Anderson, the ceremony being performed by Rev. R. E. Knowles of Galt. The wedding breakfast had been served and the happy couple were preparing to take the train on their honeymoon when the groom suddenly fell to the floor and expired in a short time. Heart failure was the cause of his death.

The late Mr. Lash was a cousin of Z. Lash of Blake, Lash & Cassels, Toronto, and was secretary-treasurer of the Canada Tag and Label Printing Company of Montreal.

Sorrow At Galt.

Galt Jan. 19.—News was received here yesterday afternoon from Guelph of the death at that city of Will H. Lash of Montreal, well known in this town, from which he had chosen his wife. Mr. Lash originally came from Newfoundland, but has lately resided in Montreal. His death on his wedding day is one of the saddest incidents ever recorded locally and has produced a feeling of profound grief throughout the community in which the bereaved bride, nee Jean Anderson, has lived for ten years. R. M. Jaffray of Montreal, with whom the deceased was associated in a printing establishment, was a guest at the wedding, and with Mr. Lash when he expired. He will accompany the remains to Montreal.

Melting Metals.

Cast iron melts at 3,479 degrees F., copper at 2,548 degrees, gold at 2,500 degrees, silver at 2,233 degrees, lead at 617 degrees and cast tin at 442 degrees.

War on Cats.

Eleven persons sickened at Abe, Westphalia, after being bitten by a mad cat. The villagers then organized a battue and killed every cat in the town.

Scientists Under Arrest.

Toronto, Jan. 19.—Warrants issued yesterday in connection with the death of Wallace Goodfellow were executed during the evening by Detective Newton of No. 3 Division, and as a result the four persons named in the indictment of the coroner's jury as being guilty of manslaughter spent last night in police cells, and will appear in court this morning.

EAST, WEST AND SOUTH

United in One Respect.

There may be many differences of opinion regarding home subjects in sections of the country remote from each other, but there is none respecting the best remedy for piles, as witness the letters below:—

"I have been feeling so good I could hardly believe it, after suffering with piles for a year, to find that I am once more feeling like myself. I wish you could have seen me before I started using Pyramid Pile Cure, and look at me now, and you would say I am not the same man. I have gained 20 pounds, and all on account of Pyramid Pile Cure." Walter Sharkley, 56 Park-st., Springfield, Mass.

"I bought a fifty cent box of Pyramid Pile Cure and used as directed with the most unexpected results, a complete cure. I have been troubled with piles for thirty years and was in much distress and passed much blood, but at present am free from any kind of piles." F. McKay, Weaverville, Cal.

"Pyramid Pile Cure has been worth thousands of dollars to me; it cured me after using numbers of other remedies and taking medicines from doctors. It also cured my son, although he could hardly walk, eat or sleep; he is now all right." B. Stringfellow, Postmaster, Elko, S.C.

One thousand dollars is offered by the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., to any one who will show the above testimonials to be not genuine.

Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists for fifty cents a package, and every sufferer should buy a package and try it to-night, being careful to accept no substitutes, and bearing in mind the fact that there is nothing else "just as good."

STRIKE HITS RUSS WAR

Construction of War Vessels Delayed By Labor Movement.

About 60,000 Men Out in St. Petersburg and the Movement Is Spreading—Socialists Endeavoring to Convert the Strike Into a Vast Political Demonstration—At Present Crisis This May Have Serious Results.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 19.—Early yesterday morning the employes of the Neva shipbuilding works decided to support the strikers of the Putiloff and Franco-Russian (formerly the Baird) works. Subsequently 12,000 of the men of the Neva works informed their managers that they had gone out on a general strike.

Suspension of Shipbuilding.

The strike at the Neva works involves the suspension of the construction of submarine boats of the projector type, which was being carried out under the supervision of an American engineer, and also the work on two ocean-going vessels, similar to those of the volunteer fleet, and several gunboats and torpedo boats, besides the preparation of war material urgently required for naval and military purposes. The completion of the gunboats and torpedo boats had been ordered within two months.

Large forces of military and police have been sent to the works.

Serious in Present Crisis.

The strike situation is grave. Last night there were 58,000 men out and the movement is spreading to the big cotton mills, which employ over 50,000 operatives. Meetings have been called for to-day, at which the Socialistic Democratic leaders will endeavor to convert the strike into a vast political demonstration, which at the present crisis, might have serious developments.

An Armed Camp.

The authorities are adopting every precaution to avoid an outbreak, but the Socialistic Democrats are spurring on the strikers, and there is danger of a collision with the troops, which would be almost sure to be followed by red flag demonstrations accompanied by bloodshed. The city is full of sensational rumors, and rioting generally is expected. The great industrial quarters of St. Petersburg presents the appearane of an armed camp.

The idle factories are surrounded by cordons of police and patrols of infantry march about the snow covered plains.

Bearing On the War.

The strike has an important bearing on the war in the Far East, as every day's delay in completing Government contracts at the iron works means the loss of precious time in the starting of the third Pacific squadron.

Not Confirmed.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 19.—The statement made by The Morning Post of London that Kashgar, Eastern Turkestan, has been occupied by the Russians, is not confirmed.

Japs Capture British Steamer.

Tokio, Jan. 19.—The Japanese captured the British steamer Bawtrey in Tsus Straits at 11 Tuesday morning. The vessel which is of 1,542 tons, was carrying provisions, shipbuilding materials, etc., from Kiao Chou (the German port on the Shantung Peninsula) to Vladivostock. She was taken to Sasebo. The capture of another steamer is reported, but no details have yet been received.

BORDEN FOR CARLETON.

There Will Be No Opposition to Conservative Leader—Will Be in House in Three Weeks.

Ottawa, Jan. 19.—R. L. Borden, leader of the Opposition in the Federal House, will be given the seat now held by Edward Kidd in Carleton County. This was unanimously declared at an enthusiastic meeting of the Conservative Association at Richmond, yesterday afternoon. The meeting was held immediately after the nomination yesterday for the Provincial House.

Mr. Kidd spoke briefly of the necessity of finding a seat for the leader of the party and expressed his willingness to retire in his favor. R. H. McElroy, president of the association, also expressed the opinion that it would be a nice tribute from Carleton County to give the seat to Mr. Borden. By a standing vote it was unanimously decided to allow Mr. Kidd to withdraw in Mr. Borden's favor.

There will be no opposition. Prominent Liberals at the convention expressed themselves quite satisfied to allow the change with as little trouble as possible. Mr. Kidd will now send his resignation to Speaker Sutherland and write for a new election will be issued without delay. In about three weeks it is expected that Mr. Borden will have his seat in the House, as he already has expressed his willingness to accept one.

It Pleases Them.

Montreal, Jan. 19.—The decision of R. L. Borden to resume the leadership of the Conservative party has, it is said, pleased the French Conservatives of Quebec Province. There will be a meeting of French Conservatives in this city this evening, when resolutions will be adopted expressing accord with the action of the Opposition representatives in Parliament.

Felt Industry Hurt.

Berlin, Jan. 19.—The Minister of Customs will be asked by the felt manufacturers of Canada for relief to present conditions in the way of an increased tariff against the English made felts. This step was decided on at a meeting of the felt manufacturers held here yesterday.

Signs Treaty With Mexico.

Washington, Jan. 19.—A treaty of arbitration with Mexico was signed yesterday.

TO SPEND EIGHTY MILLIONS.

Laurier's Mighty Effort in the Way of Expenditure of Canada's Funds—Million For Welland Canal.

Ottawa, Jan. 19.—No business was done in the House yesterday, in a sitting which lasted barely ten minutes.

Routine was disposed of and the House adjourned.

Mr. Kemp was informed that the I.C.R. carried hay free for certain municipalities under certain conditions for a limited time. To-day the estimates will be taken up.

The Estimates.

Estimates amounting to $68,664,397 were submitted the the House yesterday afternoon. This is an increase of $5,729,059 over the main estimates of last year. If the supplementaries run as high as they did last year the expenditure for 1905-6 will reach the enormous figure of $80,000,000.

Of the appropriations required for 1905-6, there is one of $767,200 for immigration. This is an increase of $94,923. For pay and allowances to militia $670,000 is granted, an increase of $104,750. The respectable sum of $1,328,500 is to be voted to the G. T. P. Railway for surveys, construction and other expenses. Over a million dollars is to be spent on the Welland Canal. The improvement include work at the Port Colborne entrance, electric lighting power plant and an elevator at Port Colborne. The other canals are liberally provided for. Trent Canal gets $300,000. Appropriations for public works include $45,000; Dominion archives building, $200,000; Royal Mint at Victoria, Memorial Museum and other buildings, $250,000; additional to western departmental block, $85,000. For harbor and river improvements at Port Arthur and Fort William, $195,000 is granted. The sum of $157,000 is to be voted for surveys in connection with the Georgian Bay Canal.

A steamship service between Canada and New Zealand is subsidized to the extent of $50,000. For the establishment of Marconi stations $100,000 is granted an increase of $55,000. Submarine signal appropriations, $70,000. Salaries in connection with Toronto postoffice will amount to $245,590, an increase of $23,264.

ARCH ENEMY OF MANKIND.

Who It is and How to Escape His Clutches.

Save Yourself To-day.

The arch enemy of human life is not Satan, but Pneumonia.

Consumption may number its thousands, but Pneumonia its tens of thousands; and, besides, it's much quicker in doing its deadly work. A person may catch cold, get Pneumonia and die in two or three days.

The only safeguard is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

They will, if taken in time, prevent Pneumonia from developing.

But, of course, if you wait too late, from a really bad attack nothing can save you.

That's why we lay so much stress on the fact that a common cold is such a dangerous thing to neglect.

You never know what may come of it.

And, nowadays, when we have at hand, in Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, such a safe, certain and perfect cure for a cold, there is no excuse whatever for letting it run along.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets act directly upon the mucous membranes of the body, the inflammation of which is generally called "Catarrh," which inflammation is nearly always caused in the first place, by a cold.

As soon as you begin to sneeze, and your eyes and nose begin to run, fly for relief to Stuart's Catarrh Tablets. They will not fail you.

Cases of chronic, long-standing catarrhal trouble, accompanied by discharge from nose and throat, coughing, hawking, spitting, offensive breath, indigestion, irritation of the stomach or bowels, are also easily cured by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

In cases of long standing, however, a cure cannot be expected in a day, as it will take some time to build up the weakened, inflamed and flabby membranes to their original tonic state of health.

It will take time, but perseverance will win the day—if assisted by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

It is important, however, to remember to use Stuart's.

No others are genuine.

No other tablets, or any other medicine, will give you the real, positive, permanently curative results that Stuart's will.

Try them.

All druggists sell them at 50 cents a box.

Bolivian Stoves.

In Bolivia a chef indulges in front door gossip. His stove is portable, being made of a great stone hollowed out, with two openings, one at the side for fuel, the other at the top for the earthen saucepan, and he sets it up in the street outside the door.

Wheat Consumption.

The consumption of wheat per capita in the principal countries ranges from 308 pounds in Italy to 484 pounds in Australia. In America it is 408 pounds.

Governor Who Does Things.

Boston, Jan. 18.—The strike of the cotton mill operatives at Fall River, which affected about 25,000 persons and which has been in progress for six months, to the great hardship and suffering of Fall River people, was settled yesterday through the mediation of Governor Wm. L. Douglas. Under the terms of an agreement accepted by both manufacturers and operatives, at a conference held at the State House yesterday, the strikers will return to work at once under the 12½ per cent. reduction, against which they struck last July, and with no discrimination because of strike. No rate of wages was established.

Thousands of operatives have found employment in other mill towns during the past five months, while many others, chiefly French-Canadians, returned to their former homes in Quebec Province. It is expected that many Canadians will return.

Judging from the amount of work, driving and visiting, being done, J. B. McWilliams is the real Liberal candidate in this riding. R. F. McWilliams' humble part appears to be the "spouting."

Healthy and Vigorous

Mr. John Shelton, the well known bridge builder of 161 Sherwood St., Ottawa, states: "I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for kidney and liver derangements brought on by exposure, and find them better than any pill or medicine I ever used. They cleansed my system and made me feel healthy and vigorous, and better in every way."

The Sunlight Maids are always through their wash at twelve o'clock.

SUNLIGHT SOAP

With ordinary soap a woman has to work so hard and so long on wash day she has no time for preparing any of the family meals. Wash day is a trial, and the good wife faces each with a sigh of despair.

Sunlight Soap makes all the difference in the world. No toiling—no rubbing—no boiling—less than half the labor with much better results. Most women are all through their wash by twelve o'clock when they wash with Sunlight Soap the Sunlight way. It makes child's play of work.

ASK FOR THE OCTAGON BAR.

Sunlight Soap washes the clothes white and won't injure the hands.

Seven to One

That is about the ratio. About seven times as many persons are injured as die from all causes yearly.

Accidents are a more prolific cause of death than any disease except lung diseases.

Twice as many people are accidently killed as die of old age. Does it not seem reasonable to you as a business man that it would be to your interest to carry an accident policy?

YOU are subject to over two hundred diseases, and liable to accidents without number.

Official figures prove that One Man in Five carrying an Accident and Sickness Policy makes a claim for indemnity each year.

YOU have no guarantee that you will not be the One Man who will be disabled this year.

If You Don't Buy Here We Both Lose Money

Another year has gone. It's pleasant to tell of sales far beyond all previous year's, for they indicate general prosperity as well as the progress of this store. But to you such growth means more still; it tells unmistakably of the increasing attractiveness of our Fur Goods and also the drawing power of our Fur Prices. The bigger the manufacturing business the lower the cost of production, consequently "If you don't buy here we both lose money." Just now we call attention to our extra fine showing of—

STILL ANOTHER INDUSTRY.

Manufacturer's Committee will Consider Important Proposition.

A meeting of the Manufacturers' Committee of the Town Council has been called for tomorrow morning at eleven o'clock to consider a proposal which, it is understood, will be made by Mr. W. H. Meldrum, Wesley Collier and others, with regard to the establishment here of a new industry which will adopt a comparatively new method in the preparation of fruits and vegetables for the table. They are put through a shredding and drying process, and tests which have been made of the finished article are most satisfactory. It is said that $100,000 will be put into the industry. The promoters are asking for a site near the new Meldrum mill on Simcoe street.

SECOND DAY'S MEET

2.23 Class Not Completed—Some Close Finishes—Looking Glass Won in 2.13.

The second day's races in connection with the Peterborough Turf Club were run off yesterday afternoon before a large crowd. The track was in fairly good condition, although the time made was very slow, considering the horses entered. Many exciting finishes were seen. The main interest centred in the 2.23 class, which was not finished yesterday on account of darkness. The horses, with the exception of John R. Gentry, were pretty evenly matched, and it was very hard to pick the winner.

Looking Glass, owned by L. G. Bennett, of Port Hope, who won the 2.19 class on Tuesday, had no trouble in winning the 2.13 yesterday. He was never pressed at any stage of the game and won in straight heats.

In the 2.23 class Jim X., owned by C. Fife, Otonabee, looked like a winner. Billy A. won the first heat and Jim X the next two. Conduct, owned by Wm. Mason, Port Rowan, won the fourth one, after which the races were postponed until this morning.

The 2.23 was the first race called. Billy A went to the front and stayed there, although Birdie Hay made a great finish and nearly won out. Jim X broke at the first corner, but was steadily gaining on the leaders, finishing third.

Billy A lead for the first lap of the next heat, but was soon overhauled and passed by Jim X, who won easily. Conduct, who had been sixth all the way around, made a great spurt at the last corner, passing Blucher, Hal Galvin and Birdie Hay, and finishing third. Birdie Hay dropped from second to fifth in this heat.

The next heat was also a great race. Jim X took the lead at the start, but was closely pressed by Birdie Hay, who finished second. Conduct looked good for second place, but broke at the stretch and dropped back to fifth. Hal Galvin was running strong in this heat and finished third.

The last heat was by far the most exciting of the two days' races. The field were bunched for the first lap with Jim X in the lead and Birdy Hay second. On the second lap Conduct, who was in fifth place, began to overhaul those in front of him and passed them one by one. All eyes were on the game little horse, and almost unnoticed Hal Galvin also began to leave the field. Jim X was a length ahead 50 yards from the pole, but Conduct and Hal Galvin closed in on him and the three horses finished almst in a line, Conduct heading Hal Galvin by a nose, and the latter the same distance ahead of Jim X. It was a great finish. It was too dark to proceed.

Summary—2.23 Pace or Trot—(Unfinished) purse $150.

Jim X, C Fife, Otonabee	3	1	1	3
Billie A, R S Paul, Meaford	1	2	4	6
Conduct, Wm. Mason, Port Rowan	6	3	5	1
Birdie Hay, H. Laidley, Port Perry	2	5	2	4
Hal Galvin, S. A. Taylor, Niagara	5	6	3	2
Blucher, M. Connors, Peterborough	4	4	6	5
John R. Gentry, J. M. Brooks, Peterborough	7	7	7	dr

Time, 2.23, 2.24 3-4, 2.29 1-2, 2.33.

The 2.13 race was easy money for Looking Glass. In the first heat the Port Hope horse took the lead at the start and won in a walk. Velma was second nearly all the way round, but Black Mack spurted on the stretch and won by a length.

Billie Tarentum repeated his exploit of the previous day, balking at the first corner and being withdrawn.

In the second heat Looking Glass, as usual, lead the entire distance. As in the other heat, the main interest was in the duel between Black Mack and Velma, the latter winning after a stiff race. The judges were not satisfied with Driver Cook's handling of Velma, and set up Driver Kennedy instead.

Looking Glass once more lead the procession around, winning easily. Black Mack lead Velma for the first lap, but broke on the second, Velma winning by two lengths.

The horses were started in pretty fast time by P. Clunan, of town. The drivers of Conduct and Blucher were each fined $5.00 for delaying the start.

Summary—2.13 Pace or Trot, purse $150.

1 Looking Glass, L. G. Bennet, Port Hope	1	1	1
2 Velma, H. A. Cook, Peterborough	3	2	2
3. Black Mack, W. Elmhurst, Otonabee	2	3	3
4 Billie Tarentum, J. Barnes	dis.

Time, 2.30 1-2, 2.30 1-2, 2.27.

The officials were:—Starter, P. Clunan, Peterborough; judges, J. Clancy, H. Neill, Peterborough; W. Leahy, Lakefield; timers, Alex. Elliott, J. Callaghan, Peterborough; clerk of course, J. O'Shea, Peterborough.

THIS MORNING'S EVENT.

The 2.23 class, which was not finished at yesterday afternoon's races, was finished this morning. As was expected, after the night's rest, Jim X took the heat and race. Hal Galvin and Conduct both pressed him hard but the latter broke and dropped back to fifth place, Hal Galvin finishing second, Billy A third, Birdy Hay fourth, Conduct fifth and Blucher sixth. The time was 2.21.

The money was divided as follows:—

Jim X, C. Fife, Otonabee	1
Billie A, R S Paul, Meaford	2
Conduct, Wm. Mason, Port Rowan	3
Hal Galvin, S. A. Taylor, Niagara	4

HOCKEY GOSSIP.

What the Puck Chasers Are Doing, or Are Going to Do.

On Tuesday night at the Brock st. rink, St. Andrew's Young Men's Guild defeated St. Andrew's Guards in a game of hockey, by 5—1. Both teams played good hockey. The Guards changed their positions in the second half and played a better game than in the first, each team scoring one goal. The teams lined up as follows—

Guards		Guild
	Goal.
Richardson		McDonald
	Point.
Rosborough		Richardson
	Coverpoint
McKnight		Patterson
	Rover
Tully		Dormer
	Centre
Reid		Pence
	Right Wing
VanEvery		McDonald
	Left Wing
Curry		Anderson

Harry Kingscote refereed the game to the satisfaction of both teams.

The Guards do hereby challenge the Guild to a game of hockey, City League players to be barred.

The Young Nationals gathered in another game last night, when they defeated a Y.M.C.A. team by 7—2 on the Y.M.C.A. rink.

The Mascots of the T.A.S. band challenge any one of the following teams to a game on the Brock-st. rink as soon as the ice can be procured: Hickey's Terriers, Barrie's Bedelias, Cressman's Counter Hoppers, Grafton's Union Labels or Best's Happy Thoughts.

The T.A.S. Trent Valley team left this afternoon for Keene to play the return game with the team of that village. The Abstainers are in good shape

Contrary to the statement made yesterday in the Review, the City League games will be played tonight. A slight change has been made in the schedule, the Colonials playing the Furriers in the first game, instead of the T.A.S., who were unable to play, owing to the absence of most of their players in Keene. This should be a good contest. The Verniers and Earl Greys will meet in the second game, and it would take a good judge to pick the winner.

Only one game was played in the Guild League last night, George st. defeating St. John's rather easily by 7—1. The half time score was 3—1.

The Karnots and George street Guild will play a practice match after the Peterborough—Port Perry game tomorrow evening.

CURLING.

The Lindsay Post of Wednesday says—

Play in the Ontario Tankard Primaries in group 5 opened at Lindsay rink this morning, the visiting clubs, Bobcaygeon, Peterborough and Port Hope, sending each two rinks. Cobourg club, also in the group, did not put in an appearance and Bobcaygeon club, drawn to play against them, also drew a bye in to-day's games, thus enabling them to play the role of spectators until to-night or to-morrow.

With the exception of the lead Mr. Flavelle's rink is the rink he intends taking to Winnipeg next month. The scores were—

LITTLE LOCAL LINERS

—There is a probability that the time of the C.P.R. local train in the morning will be made one hour later. It is considered by some to be too close to the 5.10 train and if the change were made it is thought greater accommodation by a two-hour run to Toronto would be given.

—The handsome rooms of the Young Conservative Club, over R. A. Dutton's store were open last evening for the first time, and a large number of young men were present, and expressed themselves as well pleased with the appointments and conveniences. A meeting of the club will be held tomorrow night, when all members and their friends are invited to attend.

PLAYED TIE GAME WITH PT. PERRY

The Score Last Night Was 5-5 at Full Time.

GAME WAS WELL CONTESTED

Locals Should Have Won—The Score Was 5-2 in Their Favor With Only Six Minutes to Play—Villagers Made a Garrison Finish.

The Peterborough seniors journeyed to Port Perry yesterday and played a tie game with the team of that place, the score at full time being 5 all. At half time the two teams were also tied, the score standing 1—1. A fairly large crowd was in attendance and they saw a good and well contested game.

The first half was especially close, and although the Peterborough team had the best of the playing they could not score. Port Perry got the first goal, and Peterborough gathered in the next, leaving the score at half time one all. The villagers got the next one, and led for a while by 2—1. The Peterborough bunch began to strike the gait, and slammed in four goals, putting them in the lead by 5—2. It looked easy as there was only six minutes to play, and Capt. Cavanah's bunch got careless, with the result that Port Perry scored three goals in succession, and tied the score. The visitors had to catch the midnight C.P.R. train and therefore the tie was not played off. If the game is needed to determine the standing, the locals will go back to Port Perry to play the match over again.

The rink was very small, and the lighting was not of the best, which bothered the Peterboroughs considerably. They however put up a good good game, and should have won, as they had the best of the playing all the way through.

The teams were as follows—

Peterborough		Port Perry

Wasson		Stewart
	Point.
Glover		J. Dennison
	Coverpoint.
Crowley		Carnegie
	Rover
Cavanah		C. Dennison

THE BELL THAT FAILED

Another Instance of Peterborough's Excellent Fire Alarm.

The town's up-to-date (?) fire alarm bell was not feeling quite itself yesterday, and is responsible for a good joke on Chief Rossel. When Mr. Green, the tax collector, learned that there was a fire in the Douglas Shoe Store, he rushed out of his office below the town clock and gave the rope a yank, but there was no response. He then threw all his weight onto the strain until the pinnacle which surmounts the market building shook. It looked like a case of "Fritsey at the dyke," until a couple of men who were passing ran over, and joined their strength with that of the tax collector's, but still the alarm refused to sound. The men stood back for breath and wondered if another pull would bring the roof over on them.

The tax collector was beginning to figure out how much the annual tax would be reduced if a business block should be wiped out, when Chief Rossel appeared on the scene. He was in a hurry and when he saw the men standing near the rope which connects with the alarm, he propounded the following interrogation, "Why, in Sam Hill, didn't some of you fellows pull that rope?" This appeared, on the face of it, to indicate a reasonable curiosity on the chief's part, but the men made no reply. They stood back when the chief made a run at the rope, took a firm grasp of the same and threw a portion of his Herculean strength into the strain. The bell balked and the chief fell back limp and crest-fallen. He had endeavored to perform his duty, but the machinery was defective. Again and again the rope was tugged but the loud-mouthed clang failed to develop.

The chief surmised that something was wrong; the other men had come to this conclusion before. It was another instance of the very excellent fire alarm, which reflects so creditably on progressive Peterborough.

DEATH OF MRS. WILSON.

The news of the death of Mrs. (Rev) J. P. Wilson, which occurred in Belleville shortly after six o'clock last night, will be received here with profound regret. Mrs. Wilson's illness lasted almost from the time of her departure from Peterborough and she was twice in a hospital in Toronto. Recently her condition became most serious and she gradually sank. In her removal death has claimed an estimable Christian lady, who during her residence here became endeared to a very large number of people, not only connected with George-st. congregation, of which Rev. J. P. Wilson was pastor, but wherever she was known. Her influence for good was great and her death will be deeply deplored by all with whom she came in contact.

In the bereavement which has visited them, Rev J. P. Wilson, Miss Janet, Miss Mary and Mr. Cameron Wilson will have the sincere sympathy of their friends here.

The funeral will take place on Friday morning, proceeding by the 11.20 train for Napanee where interment will take place.

—Mr. A. Claude Macdonnell, M.P., South Toronto, is in town, and, in company with his brother-in-law, Mr. L. M. Hayes, Mr. C. B. McAllister and Mr. James Lynch will address a meeting this evening in the Ennismore town hall in the interest of Mr. Bradburn.

PAST YEAR WAS SUCCESSFUL ONE

At the end of 1904 this had grown to 87, the increase being almost altogether in the junior classes. The primary increased from 3 to 24, the intermediate from 14 to 49. There had been no perceptible increase in the adult class, an increase of 4 occurring during the first two or three weeks. The attendance of scholars was fairly regular, there being no perceptible falling off in summer as is the case with most classes. The collections for the year 1904 were $69.85, of which $4.45 was specially for the free sanitarium at Gravenhurst. There had never been any difficulty in obtaining teachers, of whom there were at present 10, a secretary and 2 libarians. The average attendance was 56, the largest being 73, or 87, counting teachers and officers.

MISSIONARY REPORT.

Mr. T.A.S. Hay reported that the amount contributed to missions during 1904 was $1,031,70, a slight increase over 1903. The number of contributions was 198, and the amount $1,015.15. There were also 15 envelopes without name or number, containing $16.55, which with interest of $4.75, makes a total of $1,036.45. Of this amount $10 was specially donated for Cordova Mines.

On motion of Mr. Innis, seconded by Mr. Hay, the above amount was allocated as follows:—Home Missions, $480; Foreign Missions, $430; French Evangelization, $126.45.

ANOTHER MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Mr. J. W. Bennet read the report of St. Paul's Mission Home Mission Society, which is composed of members both of St. Paul's and the Mission, and not made exclusive to women only. This was formed one year ago with 18 members, and this had increased to 52, the average attendance being 29. Reference was made to the sending of a bail valued at $52 to Toulan Hospital in the Yukon, of which Miss Bell, daughter of the Rev. Alex. Bell, formerly of Peterborough, is head nurse.

Votes of thanks were tendered the choir and the ushers. On being called upon for a few remarks, Mr. Ketchen congratulated the congregation on the excellent year's record. He stated that he was enjoying the work here.

Those members of the congregation who desire to take the Record will be asked to signify to that effect by writing the name of the paper on their Sunday envelopes.

During the evening the choir sang "Scots Wha Hae," and another selection very effectively.

The meeting closed with the doxology and benediction.

THE WHITNEY MEETING.

The meeting last night in the market hall was a fitting climax to a campaign of hard, earnest work on the part of the Liberal Conservative party in this riding. The hall was packed to the last square foot with a crowd of earnest, thinking electors who were there to hear what the future Premier of Ontario had to say for himself and for his party.

There is not the slightest doubt that they were satisfied with the qualifications for leadership displayed by Mr. Whitney and those who went to hear that "abusive tongue," which the articles in Liberal newspapers had taught them to expect, were sadly disappointed.

The Whitney arraignment of the Ontario Administration was studiously moderate, and could easily have been made much more bitter without transcending the limits of courtesy, or without doing even justice to the awful electoral crookedness, a glimpse of which he gave to his audience.

His masterly and eloquent portrayal of the early struggles for constitutional and electoral freedom by our forefathers was followed by an appeal to independent Liberals to put their country and their country's honor before their party.

He showed how frauds in elections, such as had been committed in West Elgin, Huron, Brockville, and at Sault Ste. Marie, would, if not punished severely by the electors, soon lead to moral degeneration. The country had been going from evil to evil, ever since Mr. Ross took charge of the Government, and the worst of it all was the fact that not one of those who committed the sins against the honest electors had ever been punished. The meeting was enthusiastic, and it was a happy augury of the result of the polling on Wednesday next. Mr. Whitney expressed confidence—and he spoke with definite knowledge of all parts of the province—that the great moral sense of the people would assert itself on the 25th and hurl from office the pledge-breaking, dishonest and debased government. It will, as he predicted, not be a party triumph, but a victory of all the free, independent and unprejudiced electors, who cannot sit by and see the fair name of Ontario any longer dragged through the mire. It will be the inauguration of clean, progressive and decent administration and the end of that reign which has had as its chief principle and controlling motive, selfishness, power and personal aggrandisement rather than the advancement of the moral and material welfare of a liberty-loving people.

Victory is in the air. It is conceded on all sides that a change is at hand. Mr. Whitney will be a Premier of which all may feel proud. His policy will meet the growing needs, the continued development and the elevation of public life in this Province.

With the same energy and activity which have characterized the work so far in West Peterborough on the part, not only of Liberal-Conservatives, but those who place honor and honesty above mere party interests, and prejudice, this riding will be redeemed on Wednesday next, and send an able supporter to Parliament, in the person of Mr. T. E. Bradburn, to uphold the hand and strengthen the cause of Col. J. P. Whitney, "Ontario's Rightful Premier."

THE NEW INDUSTRY

A meeting of the Committee of the Whole Council will be held this evening to consider the proposition made by Mr. W. Collier and others with regard to the establishment of a $250,000 industry here. It is understood that the company will ask for a considerable portion of the waterfront between Simcoe and Sherbrooke-sts., and therefore it will be incumbent upon the Council to give the matter very serious consideration.

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY

At a meeting of the directors of the Central Milling Company, Limited, held on Tuesday, Jan. 17th, a resolution was passed, asking the Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. M. W. Matchett to send letters of sympathy, on behalf of the Company to Mr. J. W. Hall and Mr. Peter Dawson, Directors, both of whom have had very sad bereavements since the Board previously met. It will be remembered that Mr. Hall's son was drowned while skating on Rice Lake, and Mrs. Dawson's death occurred a few days ago. The members of the Board join with the community in general, in sincere sympathy with the bereaved families.

MR. BRADBURN IN ENNISMORE

Addressed Large Gathering in New Town Hall.

CLAUDE M'DONNELL SPEAKS.

Candidate Given Fine Reception — Many Signs of Victory — Meetings Throughout Harvey and Galway.

A grand rally in the interests of Mr. Bradburn, was held in the new township hall, Ennismore, last night. Over one hundred electors were present and the meeting was very enthusiastic. The chairman was Mr. J. K. Galvin. Mr. Bradburn opened the meeting in a spirited address, in which he, in a concise manner, reviewed the questions of the day. He was received with great applause, and his request for a majority of the votes in Ennismore was apparently acceded to. Mr. Bradburn explained that, owing to the presence of Mr. Whitney in Peterborough, he was obliged to curtail his remarks, but announced that another meeting would be held in the same hall on Tuesday, 23rd inst.

Mr. L. M. Hayes addressed the meeting, and in a short, but vigorous speech, pointed out in detail the shortcomings of the Ross Government, reviewed the various scandals the Government had been proven guilty of, both in the courts and by the admissions of their own supporters. Mr. Hayes also pointed out to the audience that the candidate for the Liberal party who now asked for their support was quite a different man from the late member, Hon. Mr. Stratton, and was in fact "a horse of another color," that the complexion of affairs was entirely changed since the last provincial election in West Peterborough, and closed by earnestly requesting the votes of Ennismore for Mr. Bradburn.

HERO FROM OTTAWA.

Mr. Claude Macdonell, member of the House of Commons for South Toronto, was then introduced by the chairman and was warmly received and welcomed to the township of Ennismore. Mr. Macdonell, who had come up from Ottawa for the purpose of assisting Mr. Bradburn, is the hero of South Toronto, which he carried by a majority of 425 against the Reform candidate, Mr. Hartley Dewart. Mr. Macdonell is a clear and able speaker and at once captured the ear of his audience. In a fluent address of over an hour, he explained concisely the various reasons why the Ross Government should be dethroned from power. Reviewing the course of the Government and their supporters since 1898 up to the present time, he proved, to a demonstration all the charges of malfeasance in office, bribery, corruption, ballot-stuffing, ballot switching, and the use of the machine ballot charged against the Government. Mr. Macdonell was listened to with rapt attention, and at the conclusion of his address received a perfect storm of applause.

On motion, a vote of thanks was tendered to the chairman, and a most successful meeting was closed with cheers for the King, Mr. Bradburn and Mr. Whitney.

Mr. C. B. McAllister accompanied the speakers on their trip to Ennismore.

HARVEY AND GALWAY.

A most successful meeting was held at Nogey's Creek school house, near Bobcaygeon, on Tuesday afternoon. There was a large attendance, considering the heavy roads. Mr. Louis Parker presided, and the Conservative candidate was given a cordial reception. Stirring addresses were delivered by Mr. Bradburn, Mr. Arthur Stevenson and Mr. E. A. Peck.

At Swamp Lake school house in Galway on Wednesday afternoon, another rousing meeting was held, with a good attendance. In the evening another gathering was held at Union Creek school house, Galway, Mr. Wm. Dutman occupying the chair. Speeches were delivered by Messrs. Bradburn, Peck and Stevenson.

The entire tour throughout Harvey and Galway was of a most encouraging character.

T.A.S.—9, KEENE—6

The T.A.S. journeyed to Keene yesterday and administered a second defeat to the Trent Valley team of that place by a score of 9—6. The score at half time was 4—2 in favor of the Abstainers. Keene had strengthened their team since the last game and were confident of winning. The T.A.S. put up a great game, however and played the villagers off their feet. The Abstainers scored four goals right off the reel in the first five minutes. After that the play became slower and Keene scored two goals before half time, leaving the half time score 4—2.

The T.A.S. got the next one and Keene the next two after which it was all off, the Abstainers getting four goals to Keene's two, leaving the final score 9—6 in favor of the T.A.S.

The game was a good one and not very rough. Kennealley and Defarge did most of the scoring for T.A.S. while Vince McCarthy was the star of the Keene team, although too closely checked by McGrath to do much.

Ernie Wasson, of town, refereed and gave perfect satisfaction to both teams.

The line-up was as follows—

T.A.S. 9		Keene 6
	Goal.
Clancy		Quinn
	Point.
Meagher		Dickson
	Coverpoint
Quigley		J McCarthy
	Rover
Defarge		Leahy
	Centre
Kennealley		McIntyre
	Right Wing
Rate		V McCarthy
	Left Wing
F McGrath		M Weir

The T.A.S. will play Campbellford here on Tuesday night and will make a big effort to win. The Abstainers are playing these days as can be seen by their defeat of Keene last night. Campbellford will run a special excursion for the game.

CITY LEAGUE GAMES.
Farriers 7; Colonials 0.

The Farriers gathered in their fourth successive victory last night by decisively defeating the Colonials by the lop-sided score of 7—0. This defeat puts the Colonials out of the running for the championship. There was a fairly large attendance. Although one-sided the game was well played and the winners displayed great combination, nearly all the goals being scored as the result of combined rushes. The Colonials checked hard, but could do nothing with the Farriers' strong defence. All the winners played well, Belleghem, the new cover point, especially distinguishing himself. For the losers McCoy and Foley were the stars and played nice hockey. The game was not rough, and Referee Wallie Parnell had an easy time of it.

The teams were as follows:—

Farriers, 7.		Colonials 0.
	Goal
Thornton		Crowe
	Point.
Squires		McWilliams
	Coverpoint.
Belleghem		Overend
	Rover

Earl Greys 4; Verniers 1.

The Earl Greys have at last won a game after dropping three by defeating the Verniers last night in a City League game by 4—1. The half time score was 2—1. Nothing startling was done in the way of hockey and there was plenty of slashing and bodying, as the result of which Referee McWilliams kept the fence decorated with players of both sides. Neither team played very much hockey, but the Earl Greys were not as bad as the Verniers, and consequently won. Cameron for the Greys and Miller for the Verniers were easily the stars and outclassed the rest of the bunch.

The teams were:—

Earl Greys.		Verniers.
	Goal
Laing		Miller
	Point
Brand		Henderson
	Coverpoint.
McKee		Ellis
	Rover
Gilbert		Miller
	Centre
Cameron		Delaney
	Right Wing
Doughty		Mulligan
	Left Wing
Latimer		McDonald

Referee—A. McWilliams.

The ice is in great shape for tonight's big game with Port Perry and something great in the line of hockey will be seen. The villagers are strong, as evidenced by their good showing on Wednesday night and they will make a big effort to win and locals are not going to take any chances and will play the game of their lives to-night. The team will be as follows:—

Goal—Wasson.
Point—Crowley.
Cover Point—Cavanah.
Rover—McWilliams.
Centre—Morgan.

There will likely be a large number of rooters accompany the locals to Lindsay on Monday night. The Peterborough club are running a special train to Lindsay, leaving at 7 o'clock and returning at 11.30. The fare will be $1.05 for adults and 55 cents for children.

The Karnets will play a practise game with the George-st. Guild tonight after the Port Perry game. The following players are requested to be on hand: Dormer, Quinn, Grose, Campbell, Mulhern, Gilman, O'Dette and Kingscote.

CUP COMPETITION.

The contests in Group No. 2, District Cup competition, began here yesterday afternoon, the teams reporting being from Lindsay, Colborne, Keene, Lakefield, Port Hope and Peterborough. The ball opened with two Lindsay rinks pitted against Peterborough, Lindsay winning by 15 shots. Dr. Sutton and Thos. Brightman were even at the seventeenth end, Lindsay broke the tie on the eighteenth end with three scores. The scores were:—

Peterborough	Lindsay
J E A Fitzgerald	B Butler
K E Walmot	G H M Baker

POLICE COURT.

An assault case at the Police Court this morning was the occasion of much merriment and resulted in a way totally unexpected by the complainant.

The cause was the result of a row between two men on Saturday night, which began in the C.P.R. Hotel and ended in the lane between Simcoe and Hunter streets. It appears to have been a general mix-up. One witness aroused considerable laughter by stating that there was another scrap going on at the same time. The Magistrate dismissed the charge of assault, but fined both men $5 on a charge of disorderly conduct.

DID G. W. ROSS HAVE A LONER?

Premier Did Not Deny Challenge As to Taking a Drink.

THOUGHT TO BE ABSTAINER.

His Silence on Nomination Platform Has Created Very Painful Impression Throughout Middlesex.

London, Ont., Jan. 19—A dramatic incident which occurred at the nomination meeting in West Middlesex, the Premier's riding, is the talk of the whole countryside, where it has produced a deep impression. The belief had prevailed among Mr. Ross' temperance supporters in his own riding, as well as throughout the country, that he is a total abstainer. But this belief has been rudely shattered, and has gone by the board, along with Mr. Ross' temperance pledges.

Mr. George A. Stewart, the Conservative candidate, was speaking, when someone in the hall called out, "What about the lone drink?"

"It's too insignificant for a Scotchman to talk about," replied Mr. Stewart. "I've taken a drink and don't deny it; and I don't think that Mr. Ross will deny doing so, too."

Mr. Stewart turned to the Premier, who seemed about to reply, but did not, though the silence became painful. Seeing that Mr. Ross had nothing to say, Mr. Stewart resumed his address.

The effect of the incident upon the meeting was as nothing to the effect it is having throughout the riding. The shock to the temperance friends of the Premier, who were sticking by him, despite the severe strains to which they have been put, is said to threaten Mr. Ross' chance of election very seriously.

FORMER LIBERAL MEMBER ON "IT'S TIME FOR CHANGE"

Mr. Holmes, of Haldimand, Says Only Honorable Course is to go in Opposition and Elect New Leaders.

Tells How Party Management Has Fallen Under Machine Control—Denounces the Wickedness That is Rampant in the Ross Government—Sidelights on Grit Corruption Methods.

To the Electors of Ontario.

Gentlemen,—After having served my township of Walpole and county of Haldimand many years as reeve and councillor, the Reformers in convention unanimously asked me to be the Liberal standard bearer for Haldimand in the local election of 1898. I did so, winning by 103 majority. A branch of the machine that we have lately heard so much of was soon after formed in Haldimand, having for its object the capture of the nominations, the control of the patronage, and the winning of elections by hook or by crook. This branch was in intimate and close touch with the head machine in Toronto, and the individual members of the Government.

In my next contest, 1902, a determined effort was made to pack the convention in the interests of another. This failed and I won the election by 148 majority. Col. A. T. Thompson defeated Jacob Kohler in convention and triumphed over Dr. Montague in the Dominion contest prior to the last. The local convention just held was entirely controlled by the machine, clandestinely aided by certain members of the Cabinet, with the result that no one was nominated, a private ballot taken, kept secret and destroyed, and an announcement made that Jacob Kohler was the choice of the convention. The reason of this disgraceful conduct was obvious—a certain Dominion appointment had been treacherously blocked, while other obnoxious Provincial ones had been urged upon me—the final adjustment being reluctantly consented to. The electorate condemned the machine, and furnished the Liberal nominee in the Dominion contest. By the wrongdoing of others I was not placed in an enviable light, and as in a successful campaign, my explanations would have exposed the actions of certain members of the Cabinet, word was sent out to get rid of me. This has been successfully done.

I have in my contests conducted clean campaigns, without outside assistance. My loyalty to Reform principles cannot be questioned. I desire now to raise a warning cry to the electors of Ontario against the deadly, insidious work of the machine and its local branches. While I feel the injustice of being cast aside, I have no personal grievance against the present candidate, Mr. Jacob Kohler. He is in his private life all he should be. May he in his political career have the courage to resist temptation. Thirty-two years is too long to keep one-half of the population from the magisterial and other offices.

Moderately frequent changes of Government would prevent the startling gathering of riches out of the traffic in the assets of the Province. In fact, it is the only thing that will prevent the wicked element creating and using a machine for base purposes. Before Sir Wilfrid Laurier became Premier in Ottawa, the Conservative party in Haldimand was completely under the thumb of corruption. The Liberal party in Haldimand, under its old lion, now his Hon. Judge Colter, of St. Thomas, fought a wonderful fight for purity of elections, only to go down politically strangled, Judge Colter being stabbed in the back, as I have been.

Prof. Goldwin Smith in those days was the only outsider to forward financial assistance. Mr. S. H. Blake, K.C., was also with us in counsel in those trying times. These gentlemen now with many others recognize that the same evil and wickedness are again rampant, but this time it is the Liberal party that is being rapidly ridden to the same destruction.

In my opinion the only honorable course open to the Reformers in the Local House is to go resolutely into opposition and elect new leaders.

Yours truly,
J. W. HOLMES,
Liberal M.P.P., 1898 to 1905.
Haldimand Co., Jan. 16, 1905.

—A public meeting in the interest of Mr. H. A. Moore, Conservative candidate in the east riding will be held in the town hall, Keene, on Monday evening, January 23rd. Mr. R. M. Dennistoun and Mr. Moore will address the electors. Discussion invited.

LEADERSHIP OF MR. ROSS NO LONGER POTENT FOR GOOD

Prof. Cappon, of Queen's College, Discusses the Responsibility of Political Parties and the Electoral Frauds.

How the Perpetrators, Even When Reported by Judges, Have Escaped—If We Are Ever to Have Decent Government, Party in Power Must be Held Responsible.

Prof. James Cappon, one of the clearest thinkers and ablest professors on the faculty of Queen's University, Kingston, contributes an exceptionally well written and timely article in the January number of Queen's Quarterly under "Current Events." He discusses in no unmistakable terms the responsibility of political parties in Canada, and condemns the frauds and electoral corruption in the Liberal ranks, and reviews these electioneering frauds at some length. What makes the article all the more readable and interesting is the fact that the writer and the publication have heretofore always been strongly Liberal in tone.

The article in part is :—

We have long been familiar with certain forms of political corruption in Canada, such as the bribery of a low class of voters on election days, the rake-off on contracts obtained by Government supporters, the grants to favored constituencies, and other examples of the "spoils system." Perhaps we can hardly expect to suppress such evils entirely under the party system of government. Even under a very honest government indirect and more or less decent forms of the spoils system are likely to be found. But in Canada we have allowed this system to establish itself in its worst features and so strongly that it has all but become an openly acknowledged method of government. For this undoubtedly the Conservative party in the old days of its power was mainly responsible, and in a special way, perhaps, its old leader, Sir John Macdonald, was responsible. For the leader of a party is the one man who can effectually suppress evils of this kind without incurring enmities powerful enough to ruin his personal prospects with the party. It is becoming more and more apparent than modern democracy means a one-man rule of a very stringent kind. Modern parties make public worship of their chief a matter of business, and if he happens to be an able man, he soon undergoes a kind of apotheosis in the eyes of the country which makes him all powerful with his party. The organization that made him soon comes to stand in awe of him. He is the one man whom the country may fairly hold responsible to the fullest extent for the tone and character of the party. But it is only fair to remember that Sir John was leader of the Dominion at a most trying period when its different races and provinces had to be coaxed and conciliated into a national federation. As he said himself, "Canada was a difficulty country to govern." To some extent that difficulty may still exist for a Premier of the Dominion.

It cannot be said that since the Liberal party has come into power in the Dominion that it has done anything to disturb the evil traditions of the system. On the contrary, there is too much reason to think that in some ways it has, if not strengthened them, at least confirmed them by continued usage and perhaps by an opener profession of them than one would have ever expected from certain leaders of the old party of Reform. The inevitable result has arrived. The system has bred a race of politicians who have now begun to put into operation methods which are still worse than the old ones and have a still deeper taint of the conscious criminal and law-breaker about them. Bad as the bribery of individuals and constituencies is, it does not directly attack the very principle of representative government, that the people shall determine by its vote who is to govern it. But of late years political corruption in Ontario, a province in which there are no racial or social conditions to give the smallest excuse for it, seems to be taking the form of an organised system for depriving the people of an effective use of the franchise by means of manipulated ballots. This is a particularly dangerous thing, as anyone may see, in a country where the rural constituencies are scantily populated and the majorities for either party often small.

The list of electioneering frauds in Ontario is a rather long one when we consider that we hear only of those which happen to become public in spite of the saw-off system which is a most perfect device for concealing the extent and depth of political corruption in this country from the public eye."

(Then follows a review of the frauds in West Elgin, West Huron, North Waterloo and the Soo.)

Prof. Cappon continues:— "Then there was the Sault Ste. Marie election. Here the incredible effrontery of the affair showed it was conducted by men who were accustomed to defy the law with impunity. A well known agent of the machine engaged a tug-boat, the famous Minnie M., to carry a number of American 'pluggers' from the American side of the Sault to personate voters on behalf of the Liberal candidate at two remote stations in the constituency. Attorney General Gibson who was at the Sault the night before the election, was informed of the project by a letter read on the public platform, and was requested to take steps to prevent its being carried out. It is almost incredible that a Cabinet minister should have failed to perceive what was the only decent or even sensible course for him to take. But his reply shows the depths to which politics in Canada have fallen. Instead of asking for proofs and declaring that he would stop such an expedition at any cost, he said he was not a policeman. He was only a Cabinet minister whose word was all powerful with every Liberal functionary and every official in the district; he was only Attorney-General with the whole legal machinery of the Province at his command. The Minnie M. sailed with her pluggers on board and helped to win a much needed victory for the Government. It reads like a page from the history of a rotten South American Republic.

"In this case also there has been the usual unhappy delay in bringing the criminals to justice. At every step some technicality turns up to postpone investigation, and the fate of the Government will have been decided at the polls before the details of the affair are laid bare in court. It is the same principle on which the election trials of North Perth, North Norfolk and North Grey were postponed by a hasty summons for the assembling of the House. This is playing the 'game' indeed.

"Then there was the attempt to unseat Mr. Sutherland in South Oxford by bribing witnesses to give evidence.

"It is quite evident that these cases are not accidental and sporadic phenomena. They represent the general and inevitable results of a system under which political crimes are lightly regarded and generally escape investigation. It may be possible no doubt to make a plausible apology for the Government in one or two of these cases, but the general impression is irresistable that the arm of the law is deliberately negligent."

The writer concludes, "But one thing at least is clear. If we are to have any decent government in Canada, we must hold the party in power responsible for the fact that political crimes of the kind we have noticed remain practically uninvestigated and unpunished. Our only hope of escaping from the clutch of the machine lies in the growth of a strong and independent public spirit. But we shall never develop that, if we are to allow all other considerations to be lost in the spirit of the partisan, that partisan which spoke so loudly in the declaration made by the editor of the Globe at the recent Convention, that he was 'prepared to look the ugliest page of the Liberal record in the face and to do all he could to return Mr. Ross with a larger majority than money could buy.' That may be all very well for Mr. McDonald. The editor of the chief party organ may easily persuade himself that it is the right thing to do under the circumstances. But the principle it implies of condoning the crimes committed by the party in office on the mere hypothesis that the other party would be as bad or worse if it came into power, is hardly a safe or a proper one for the country to adopt. It practically absolves the Government from all responsibility to the people. It is almost plenary indulgence. I do not think our party organs are worse than the party organs of other countries. They are a necessary part of our political system. But certainly one of our greatest needs is a strong and independent journalism that will cultivate a sound and temperate spirit of criticism and not be suspected of undue partiality when it praises and of undue malevolence when it blames. Of course it is very difficult, with our small population, to get support for that kind of journalism. As far as I can see, Mr. Flavelle's establishment of a strong independent newspaper, like the Toronto News, is about one of the best gifts Canada has received in these times."

STUDENTS ENTERTAIN

Victoria College Glee and Mandolin Club Greeted by Appreciative Audience.

A very large audience greeted the Victoria College Glee and Mandolin Club, on their appearance at the Opera House here last evening, under the auspices of Charlotte street Methodist church choir. The rather lengthy programme arranged was supplemented by many encores, which were demanded by the audience.

The programme opened with the singing of the National Anthem, followed by a chorus number, "Toronto" by the Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. W. J. McNally. The other choruses given during the evening were "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star," "Davy Jones," " and 'The Midship Mite," all of which were sung with much fervor and good effect, doing great credit to their conductor. Mr. C. W. Bishop, B.A., who possesses a good baritone voice, was heard with much pleasure in two numbers which were heartily received.

Mr. M. C. Lane was the soloist of the octette, and his solo, the favorite old air "Nellie Gray," sung with the vocal accompaniment was very good. The octette was also heard in the "Heidelburg Song" from the "Prince of Pilsen," which is a great favorite of the Rev. Mr. Jolliffe, at whose request it was sung by the students. The other numbers given by the eight were much enjoyed and the selection in which reference was made to Professor Jolliffe, Percy Campbell, and the Charlotte street choir was quite a bit.

The Mandolin Club quartette appeared several times, their numbers receiving hearty applause. Their best number was the encore to the last selection, being "The Darkies' Awakening." The leader of the quartette, Mr. R. W. Chase, B.A., was heard in two solos on the banjo, which showed his ability to play that popular instrument. He was heartily applauded and encores demanded each time. The closing chorus by the Glee and Mandolin Clubs was perhaps the most enjoyable of those given during the evening and was sung with that warmth and expression that characterizes the songs of the student. The programme was concluded with the singing of the college song "Victoria."

Taking the programme as a whole, it was one of the most enjoyable ones given before a Peterborough audience and the choir are to be congratulated on the success of the concert.

ANOTHER YEAR OF PROSPERITY

Murray Street Baptist Church Annual Meeting.

VERY ENCOURAGING REPORTS

Increase in Membership and Cash Balance on the Right Side of the Ledger—The Amounts Given to Missions—Other Business.

The annual meeting of the Murray-st. Baptist church was held last evening in the Sunday school room. There was a fairly large attendance of members. The pastor, Rev. F. J. Scott, occupied the chair.

After devotional exercises the first business proceeded with was the reading of reports. The treasurer's report, read by Mr. George Cochrane, showed a balance of receipts over expenditure of $71.97. The report was adopted.

Rev. F. J. Scott then read the report of the Church Clerk, Mr. Albert Martin. It was as follows:—

MEMBERSHIP.

Increase.		Decrease.
By baptism...	32
By letter... ...	11
On experience.	5
	48	27

Net gain during the year, 21.

Total present membership, 314.

The report as read was adopted.

Mr. E. B. Edwards, superintendent of the Sunday School, then presented a report of that department of the church work, which showed a very flourishing condition of affairs.

The report was published in detail in the account of the recent meeting of the Murray-st. Sunday school. The report was adopted.

The report of the Baptist Young People's Union was read by the Secretary. It indicated the good work being done in this department. It also has been recently published.

The report was, on motion, adopted.

Miss M. Nicholls, Vice-President of the Mission Circle, presented the report of that department. It showed the total membership of the Circle to be 76, the number of contributors to Home Missions 52, and to Foreign Missions 42. During the year two of the officers of the Circle had left town, Mrs. (Rev.) Bastow, Vice-President, and Miss Roberts, President. Mrs. Hunter had been elected to the vacant position of President, and Miss Nicholls had been appointed Vice-President. The statement of moneys raised throughout the year for mission work was as follows:—

Amount raised for Foreign Missions	155 90
Amount raised for Home Missions	71 68
Amount raised for Northwest Indians	11 20
Monthly collections	9 18
Total	$247 96

The report was adopted.

The report of the Mission Band was read by Mr. Max Yelland, and it gave an interesting summary of the work done during the past year, and showed that the Band had been very successful in its undertakings. The total number on roll was 125. Meetings had been held every month except August, with an average attendance of 67. The largest attendance was at the annual meeting when 97 members were present. On this occasion Miss Nicholls, a missionary, who had just returned from India, was present and gave a very interesting address. The following amounts were devoted to mission work during the year:—

To Indian Bungalow Fund	$ 9 35
Support Bible woman in India	25 00
Home Missions	43 32
Foreign Missions	13 92
School for Northwest Indians	6 70
Total	$ 98 29

A report of a Special Mission Committee, read by Mr. E. B. Edwards, was withdrawn, there being some objections to it from several members, who were of the opinion that it was better not to give too much for missions until the entire debt of the church had been wiped out.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

Following is the financial statement statement for the year ending Dec. 31st, 1904:—

EKO CAMP MEETS

Annual Meeting Last Evening—Some Presentations Made.

The annual meeting of Eko Camp was held last evening in the Club rooms, George street. There was a large attendance of members.

The President, Mr. M. Comstock, occupied the chair.

The President's and Secretary's reports were read and adopted. They indicated that the Club has had a most prosperous and flourishing season.

A pleasing part of the evening's proceedings was the presentation of a very handsome set of gold cuff links, accompanied by an eulogistic address, to the energetic secretary, Mr. Herb. Gillespie. The address was made by Mr. M. Comstock, and the presentation made by Mr. R. H. Elliott. Mr. Gillespie made an appropriate reply, thanking his fellow members for their kindness.

Mr. J. M. Gemmell, one of the founders and most zealous workers in the club, was also remembered by the club, being presented with a silver mounted umbrella and an appreciative address, read by Mr. W. R. G. Higgins. The presentation was made by Mr. R. M. Glover. Mr. Gemmell made a suitable reply.

The election of officers then took place, and resulted as follows—

Hon. President—A. H. Stratton.
President—R. H. Elliott.
Vice-President—J. M. Gemmell.
Sec.-Treas—T. H. Gillespie.
Executive Committee—Messrs. W. H. Wareham, R. P. Watt, Ed. Clarke, L. B. Ramsden and B. E. Cammiff.
Auditors—F. A. Clarke and R. M. Glover.

The Culb is in a very flourishing condition, and there is every reason to believe that 1905 will be the banner year in its history.

TWO RUNAWAYS

Two lively runaways created great excitement on Water street this morning, and the time is said to have surpassed that made at the recent Turf Club races.

A team attached to a sleigh belonging to the Peterborough Fuel and Cartage Co., laden with seats from the market hall, was struck by the Calcutt B. and M. Co.'s sleigh, with the result that the first team started off across the market square at a lively clip, upset the load, and after hesitating for a time as to whether it would take the sidewalk or the road, decided in favor of the later, and tore up Water street at full speed. The driver tried to stop them, but failed. At the drinking fountain in front of the police station was a grey horse, attached to a market gardener's sleigh. This animal, seeing the runaway approaching thought it was time to clear the way, and it also started off at a 2.20 clip in advance of the team. The grey led to Hunter street, where he rounded the corner and was soon afterwards stopped. The team continued its career up Water street and was stopped at Murray street. It was an exciting dash while it lasted. No damage was done.

LATE MRS. COWIE

The Kingston Whig has the following reference to the death of Mrs. Hannah Cowie, mother of Mr. Wm. Cowie, of town—

Mrs. Hannah Cowie, relict of the late Thomas Cowie, passed away on Monday, at the residence of her son-in-law, John Saunders, 780 Princess street, aged eighty-five years. Deceased was born in the township of Thurlow, and came to Kingston when a young girl. Her husband died twelve years ago. Surviving are three sons, William in Peterborough; John in Toronto; Robert in Kingston, and two daughters, Mrs. Turcotte, Watertown, N.Y., and Mrs. Saunders, Kingston. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon, service being conducted by Rev. Mr. Tucker.

LAID TO REST.

The funeral of the late Agnes Crowley, daughter of Mr. David F. Crowley, took place this morning from the family residence lot 19, concession 12, Otonabee, to St. Peter's Cathedral and thence to the Roman Catholic cemetery. Requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Galvin and prayers at the grave were said by Rev. Father John O'Brien. The obsequies were largely attended, evidencing the high esteem in which the deceased lady was held. The pall bearers were Messrs J. H Slattery, M. J. McMartin, J. Kylie, J. J. Lynch, J. Barrie and R. Allen.

Permanent Cure For Bronchitis

"My second daughter was troubled with bronchitis from the age of three weeks. Often times I thought she would choke to death. Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine brought relief and further treatment made a thorough cure. This trouble used to come back from time to time the cure is now permanent." — Mrs. Richmond Withrow, Shubenacadie, Hants Co., N. S.

PETERBORO' CORDIALLY WELCOMES LEADER OF CONSERVATIVE PARTY

Magnificent Demonstration in Honor of Col. J. P. Whitney, who Stands for Clean Government, Pure Ballot and Honest Count.

Addresses Audience of 2,000 People in Market Hall and Urges all Free and Independent Electors to Throw off Allegiance to the Corrupt Liberal Administration.

Predicts Certain Triumph of Right and Justice at Polls on Wednesday Next---Hundreds Turned Away Unable to Gain Entrance to the Densely Crowded Building---Mr. R. M. Dennistoun's Ringing Words Create Splendid Impression---Mr. Bradburn Detained by Bad Roads Arrived too Late to Address Vast Gathering.

Col. J. P. Whitney addressed an enthusiastic audience of 2,000 Persons in the market hall last night, hundreds being unable to gain admission. In no uncertain tones he declared that the electors would unite in overthrowing the Ross administration on Wednesday next. The Conservative chieftain said he was absolutely sure of the triumph--which would not be a party victory--but a triumph of the people, who could not sit quietly by and see the reputation and honor of this fair province trailed any longer in the dust.

Mr. R. M. Dennistoun also delivered a powerful address in arraignment of the Ross government. Mr. Bradburn, the popular Liberal-Conservative standard-bearer, arrived just three minutes too late to address the great gathering, being delayed by the almost impassable condition of the roads between here and Ennismore, where he held a most successful meeting—the last one of a splendid series conducted by him throughout the northern part of the riding. Mr. James Kendry, ex-M.P., ably filled the chair.

One of the grandest receptions and most enthusiastic demonstrations ever tendered any public man in Canada's foremost town was that accorded Col. J. Pliny Whitney, the talented and aggressive leader of the Conservative party of Ontario, in the market hall last night.

The building was crowded to the doors, fully 2000 persons being in attendance, while hundreds were turned away unable to gain an entrance.

Every nook and corner of the great edifice was filled with humanity, many ladies gracing the vast assembly, while scores of the fair sex, owing to the dense crush, vainly tried to secure admission.

The crowd was most enthusiastic and harmonious, not a discordant note being heard during the whole evening. The applause was frequent and prolonged and evinced the deep interest taken by the electors in the struggle in which the province is now engaged, for clean, honest and progressive government, the termination of the iniquitous Ross regime and the uplifting of Ontario morally and materially.

The proceedings throughout gave unmistakeable evidence that West Peterborough, in the contest on Wednesday next will be redeemed and send a supporter, in the person of Mr. T. E. Bradburn, to uphold "Ontario's Rightful Premier" in the splendid cause which he is championing so ably and so well.

Not only in West Peterborough but from all over the province come signs of the most gratifying and encouraging character, that machine rule is at an end and that a better and brighter day is at hand in the administration of public affairs in Ontario.

The only regrettable incident in connection with last night's rousing rally in behalf of Mr. Bradburn, is that the candidate arrived three minutes too late to address his hundreds of admiring supporters and well-wishers. Mr. Bradburn spoke to an enthusiastic gathering in the Ennismore town hall—a meeting that was arranged several days ago—and could not be cancelled. He left at 9 o'clock and would have reached the market hall in ample time, had not the roads been in an almost impassable condition by reason of the thaw. The result unfortunately was the unavoidable detention of the popular Liberal-Conservative standard bearer on the way into town. However, Mr. Bradburn returned from his successful tour of four days in the northern part of the riding in time to shake hands with scores who had not yet left the building.

Mr. R. M. Dennistoun's speech in arraignment of the Ross ministry was a particularly able and effective one and created a splendid impression. Mr. Dennistoun was never heard to better advantage and no address ever delivered by a local man carried greater weight with the multitude. His reception was indeed a flattering one.

The chair was acceptably filled by Mr. Jas. Kendry, ex-M.P., in the absence of Mr. J. J. Lynch, President of the West Peterborough Liberal-Conservative Association, who was unavoidably detained in Toronto on important business.

MR. WHITNEY ARRIVES

It was 8.40 o'clock when Mr. Whitney entered the hall, during Mr. Dennistoun's address. The leader's presence was the signal for a mighty cheer, and as he slowly made his way to the front, the applause was renewed. He was met at the G.T.R. station by a deputation of prominent Conservatives and escorted to the meeting. Mr. Whitney came from Morrisburg—his home—where he attended the nomination proceedings on Wednesday, and reached Peterborough via Belleville. As he stepped on the platform, Miss Pauline Hayes, the pretty little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hayes, presented him with a handsome bouquet of roses and was rewarded with a kiss. Then the great audience cheered again.

Mr. Whitney spoke for an hour, his address being followed with the keenest interest while appreciation of it was manifested time and time again.

His effort was a manly, stirring and eloquent one delivered with a force directness and effectiveness that carried conviction with it and left no doubt in the minds of his hundreds of auditors that he is a statesman thoroughly qualified in every way to guide the political destinies of the banner province of the Dominion for the next four years.

Mr. Whitney referred to the many political offences that have disgraced Ontario, told how electoral crimes and frauds have flourished and the perpetrators and criminals escaped unpunished. The record of weakness, dishonesty and chicanery of the Ross Government was shown up in its true colors—the personation, the ballot switching, stuffing and plugging, the violation of the constitution, depriving the province of the safeguards of British people, thwarting the honest voice of the populace and trampling under foot the dearly purchased privileges and birth-rights of the present day.

COALITION PROPOSALS

Further light was shed upon the coalition proposals made by two members of the Ross Cabinet, which overtures were cast aside, Mr. Whitney knowing full well that he had the confidence of the people as expressed by a popular majority of 7,000 at the last provincial election; and he did not propose to infuse new blood in a body where rigor mortis had already set in.

Mr. Whitney said that he was perfectly certain of the triumph of his cause on Wednesday next. It would not be a party victory—be it said to the credit of the people—but a triumph of the electors who could not longer sit quietly by while their country's reputation and honor was being trailed in the dust and the fair name of the province besmirched. He spoke, from definite knowledge of the people in all parts of Ontario. This announcement created loud applause. The public conscience, he said, was asserting itself and those who have covered the name of the people with infamy would be judged by their deeds and hurled from power. The outrageous statements made by the Premier on the platform in his public speeches, and his miserable, misleading utterances were scathingly denounced as well as his attempts to white-wash the wrong doings in his party and excuse the awful past by asking the electors to forget it all and "seal it with seven seals."

Mr. Whitney demonstrated that he stands for a sound, progressive and practical policy—one of reform, development and popular freedom, that will put to rout the time-serving and pledge-breaking Government and rescue the province from the debauchery, immorality and ignominy to which it has been brought by what one Liberal organ has called "the barnacles on the ship" and another "the crew of crooks."

THE DECORATIONS.

The hall was neatly decorated by J. J. Turner & Sons, the canopied platform being at the west side of the building. The canopy was ornamented and flanked by flags and bore the expressive mottoes, "Welcome," and "Whitney and Honest Government."

Other mottoes on the walls were—

33 YEARS IN THE SADDLE; IS THE NAG WORTH NEW HARNESS?

ROSS HAS BEEN TRIED AND WILL BE SENTENCED ON THE 25TH.

IT'S TIME FOR A CHANGE.

WE WILL SMASH THE MACHINE.

DON'T LET ROSS DELIVER THE GOODS.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

Excellent music was provided by Bandmaster Glidden's orchestra, and there was not a moment's hitch or interruption in the proceedings from the starting hour until the final ringing cheers were given at 10.30 o'clock.

CHAIRMAN'S ADDRESS.

Mr. James Kendry, the chairman, in opening the meeting, said, "I am very glad to see such a large audience here tonight. I am sorry that the president of our Association, Mr. J. J. Lynch, is detained in Toronto. I have been asked to preside at this meeting and I may say it gives me great pleasure to do so. Our candidate, Mr. Bradburn, is conducting a meeting in Ennismore, but he will be here later on, and Mr. Whitney, our leader, will arrive shortly. We are now in the midst of an election, and I hope to see our good friend, Mr. Bradburn returned. (Applause.) He is one of the very best men we have in this country, and he should be placed at the head of the polls on the 25th inst. I know of no one more entitled to it. We need men in Parliament who are honest men, and I want to say that Mr. Bradburn is one of the most honest men in this part of the country. (Applause.) I do not intend to discuss the political questions of the day. We have Mr. Dennistoun here and he will present them in a few moments. I am sure we all hope to see Mr. Whitney returned as Premier of this Province. Mr. Ross has been in power for thirty-two or thirty-three years, and I think it is time we should turn him out. I am surprised that Mr. Ross—a man of his ability—should attempt to govern this country with a minority. He has done it and will do it again for the next four years if we will allow him. I believe, after the 25th of this month that we will have Mr. Whitney elected by a large majority. But I will not take up your time further, and will now call upon Mr. Dennistoun whom you will be glad to hear." (Applause.)

MR. DENNISTOUN SPEAKS

Unsavory Record of Ross Regime Reviewed in Convincing Address.

The reception accorded to Mr. R. M. Dennistoun, as he rose to address the vast gathering was of a splendid character—a veritable ovation, and one of which any man might well feel proud. The audience expected to hear an able, broad-minded and impressive address and was not disappointed. Mr. Dennistoun was in fine form and was given the closest attention, his eloquent remarks being frequently applauded. He has a splendid presence, a clear, pleasing voice and an excellent delivery. He was in a particularly happy mood, and Peterborough may well feel proud of him as a speaker. Mr. Dennistoun expressed his gratification at the large and representative audience, which showed the deep interest which was being taken in the present contest. He referred in complimentary terms to the late Sir Oliver Mowat, whom he said was the last Liberal Premier who made any attempt to govern the Province. Since his resignation of the office the succeeding Liberal Governments had been actuated by one motive only, namely a desire to retain office. Of late the struggle had become desperate.

At the last Provincial election which took place a little more than two years ago, the Conservative party, although in a minority of three in the House, secured a majority of seven thousand votes throughout this Province. The old Liberal slogan of representation by population had been laid upon the shelf with the other rusty weapons of the great Liberal leaders, and the Liberal party of today are content to hold the reins of office whether they command the confidence of the country or not.

The ordinary voter, he remarked, may well enquire why is it we are engaged in a Provincial election when but half the parliamentary term has expired. Why is it that Mr. Ross has appealed to the country at this time? The answer is a very simple one. Since the dissolution of the House and the holding of the Dominion elections, Mr. Ross finds himself, through the cruelty of the judges, without sufficient followers to control the House, and he is now making his last desperate throw in the political game.

In the spring of 1902 the Ross Government appealed to the country, and were returned with a bare majority of three. What has that Government done since then to increase public confidence?

The new Legislature opened with the Gamey charges and the investigation which followed. Certainly no one will claim that the Government was strengthened in its position by that episode.

Next we had the election petitions, and the world saw the spectacle of a Legislature called together at the very time set for the trial of the protests for the purpose of preventing the exposure which would have followed. Then came the prorogation of the House for the same reason. Can you imagine a more undignified performance than the desperate efforts made by the counsel for the Reform party, to delay the opening of the North Grey case until the arrival of the telegram announcing the dissolution. Politicians expected that this would occur and were not disappointed.

Since Mr. Ross last appealed to the country, we have had in addition, the cruise of the Minnie M., the ballot box scandal and the retirement of Messrs. Stratton, Gibson and Davis from the Cabinet. Surely in view of this record, it cannot be said that the Ross Government has gained any strength since the last Provincial election.

REIGN OF CORRUPTION.

Mr. Dennistoun proceeded to take up the charges of corruption which have been made against the Ross Government. He stated that it was the policy of the Liberals to make counter charges against the Conservative party, with the hope that the ordinary voter might be distracted by the din of opposing factions each denouncing the other for the same sins, and might therefore be led to the conclusion that one party is equally responsible with the other, and in that way stampede the voters along the usual party paths.

"It becomes necessary," said Mr. Dennistoun, "for us to prove our case as we do in a Court of Law." by producing authorities of recognized fairness and independence. He then referred to the January number of the Queen's Quarterly, a magazine published by the authorities of the Queen's University, Kingston. The speaker stated that as an old Queen's man, he knew that all the predilections of that University were towards the Liberal side; it was the Scotch Presbyterian College, which contained the sons of the best element of the Liberal party throughout Canada, and had never failed until now to express its preference for the leaders of the Liberal party. The Ross Government, however, has proved more than even Queen's University can tolerate.

Professor Cappon, in a scathing article, has placed the responsibility for the present corruption where it belongs. He reviews the West Elgin case, where the operations of the machine first became evident, and the Deputy Returning Officers, Duncan Bole and Martin Cahill officiated under assumed names at the booths where ballots were stolen and voters personated.

Then came a commission of County Judges appointed by the Government to investigate. The lawyers charged with the prosecution were prominent Liberals, and when the production of the ballots was ordered it was found that they had been burned in the Parliamentary Buildings. Bole and Cahill left the country, and no one was punished in connection with the case. Then came the West Huron election which was managed by the agents of the Provincial machine. In this election 125 more ballots were returned than had been sent out. At Goderich 22 of the ballots counted for the Liberal candidate were bogus. No one was punished in connection with the affair. At the Brockville by-election there was a performance under the same conditions. The accused officers were arrested, were allowed to give bail, as usual, and as usual left the country.

Then there was the case of North Waterloo, which was reviewed by Professor Cappon, in which, after the certainty of fraud and spoiled ballots had been proven, the Crown Attorney who prosecuted, said he would not ask for a conviction.

THE MINNIE M. EXPEDITION.

Then there was the incomparable effrontery of the Sault Ste. Marie election, when the tug, "Minnie M." was chartered to carry American renegades to impersonate Canadian voters on behalf of the Liberal candidate. Attorney General Gibson was informed of the project by a letter read on the public platform, and was requested to take steps to prevent this being carried out. His reply was that he was not a policeman! He was only a Cabinet Minister whose word was all powerful with every Liberal functionary and every official in the district; he was only the Attorney General with the whole legal machinery of the Province at his command! The Minnie M. sailed with her pluggers on board, and helped win a much needed victory for the Government. It reads like a page from the history of a rotten South American Republic.

Then, says the Queen's Quarterly, there was the attempt to unseat Mr. Sutherland in South Oxford by bribing the witnesses to give evidence, and we have the spectacle of the briber Jackson the agent for the Liberal party, being appointed Commissioner for the Dominion at Leeds, England, and Sir Richard Cartwright's defence of the appointment in the House, upon the ground that "Election business was not conducted on the principles of a boarding school for ladies."

Still more recently, points out this able review, we have had the scandals of West Hastings and Frontenac, with its extraordinary developments in relation to the trick ballot boxes, specially manufactured for the manipulation of ballot papers. Here, too, it has been impossible to get hold of the criminals. One fled at the first rumor of exposure; the other was allowed to give bail, and disappeared in the usual way. The Queen's Quarterly sums up the result by stating—

"Of all the men reported by the Judges in connection with these electioneering frauds, only a few guilty of bribery have been fined. The more serious offenders have managed to elude justice, and, says Prof. Cappon, "one thing at least is clear. If we are to have any decent Government in Canada, we must hold the party in power responsible for the fact that political crimes of the kind we have noticed, remain practically uninvestigated and unpunished."

THAT DOURO SPEECH.

Mr. Dennistoun then briefly referred to Mr. Stratton's Douro speech, which had been published in the Examiner and circulated as campaign literature. He exposed the weakness of the argument and stated that it was a poor defence for a Cabinet Minister to be driven to make on a public platform, that "he and his Government had been honest, that they had not stolen the money of the people, that they had collected one hundred and twenty-three millions of dollars, and had not misappropriated any of it."

"Did you ever," asked the speaker, "hear of a Town or County Councillor asking election upon the ground that he did not steal the taxes which had been collected? Surely any person who appealed for support on that ground would be immediately dismissed from office at the next election. It is expected that the men who represent the Province are above that kind of thing, and it is degrading to the intelligence of the community that they should think it necessary to defend themselves from a charge which had never been made.

Mr. Stratton claimed the credit for the Ross Government of having increased the farmers' capital by $181,000,000, and even went so far as to claim the credit for the prizes won at the World's Fair by Mr. Beith's horses and Ontario poultry. "We thought," the speaker humorously remarked, "that the credit for these achievements was due to our own Town Council, and it was for this reason that Mr. Henry Best had been elected Mayor by acclamation."

MR. GRAHAM'S CONTENTIONS

Mr. Dennistoun then referred to the speech made by the Hon. G. P. Graham in the Opera House at Peterborough, in which he made a remarkable defence of the conduct of Attorney General Gibson in declining to interfere with the sailing of the "Minnie M." Mr. Gibson had no more authority to stop the "Minnie M.," said Mr. Graham, "than he had to come to Peterborough and stop the water wheels on the River Otonabee." "What a ridiculous position is this," said Mr. Dennistoun, "that the Attorney General is powerless when crimes are being committed almost before his eyes, after due notice has been given him that they will be attempted!" Does anyone believe that the Hon. Mr. Gibson could not have stopped the "Minnie M." by the simple expedient of sending a telegram to those who were engaged in the nefarious work, prohibiting and forbidding the doing of such deeds in the name of the Liberal party, and warning the lawbreakers that they would not receive countenance from the Ross Government if they persisted? But no such telegram was sent by Mr. Gibson.

How ridiculous it was for the Hon. Mr. Graham to state that the reason why these lawbreakers had never been punished, was that Mr. Duvernet had taken the case out of his hands as private prosecutor, and had thrust the Attorney General of the Province to one side. The Attorney General of the Province takes precedence at the bar over every other lawyer, be he a silk gown or a stuff gown; the Attorney General has the right to intervene in any case, civil or criminal, as every lawyer knows, and for the Attorney General to solemnly state that he was thrust aside and not permitted to do his duty, by a private member of the Bar, is too ridiculous a statement to be heard with seriousness.

Mr. Dennistoun here told the story of the American traveller, who, driving through Ireland in a jaunting car, was told by the driver that there were forty thousand men in Ireland, armed to the teeth with guns and pistols, and ready at any moment to rise and free Ireland. "Why don't they do it?" said the American. "Begorra, the police won't let them," was the reply. Surely this is the position of the Attorney-General, who is ready for all kinds of malefactors, armed with all the terrors of the law, but is frightened into masterly inactivity, by the appearance of Mr. Duvernet, acting for the private prosecutor.

SOME UNLUCKY PARALLELS.

Mr. Graham, with dramatic effect, had asked if it were fair to hold the Government and Mr. Ross responsible for the evil deeds done by a few members of the Liberal party, which they all acknowledged and deplored, and he said, was it fair for a Forester to call upon the High Chief Ranger to resign his office because some member of the Court had been found guilty of a crime? The answer, said Mr. Dennistoun, was this: If the crime consisted in stuffing the ballot boxes for the election of the High Chief Ranger, most assuredly the High Chief Ranger should resign as soon as he finds out the fact.

Further, said Mr. Graham, would it be fair if a member of a congregation came to the Minister and said, "Some of the people in this congregation who support you are bad people, and you should resign, and the Board of Management should resign too." Would that be fair? said Mr. Graham. The answer, said Mr. Dennistoun, is this: If the Minister and the Board of Management had sent out people of the type of Cap. Sullivan as missionaries on behalf of that Church, most assuredly, the Minister should be asked for his resignation, and a new Board of Managers should be elected at the next quarterly meeting. Lastly, said Mr. Graham, would it be fair to hold the head of the family responsible for a wrong-doing committed by some other member of that family? And the answer to that, said the speaker, is this: If the head of the family lived at home upon the proceeds of the stolen goods brought from time to time to his house by the other members of the family, he most certainly is responsible for the thefts which they commit, and should be condemned as the chief offender. In all these particulars the Ross Government is responsible for the wrong which has been done on its behalf, and for the benefits which it has reaped from the conduct of the wrongdoers. The attempt made by Mr. Graham to whitewash the Reform party and to blacken the Conservative party, fell far short of the mark, as everyone who heard his speech or read an account of it well know. The preposterous claim made by Mr. Graham that Ontario Conservatives were responsible for frauds which he imagined to have been committed in Quebec and Winnipeg, was referred to, and utter inability of the Reform speakers to show any trace or sign of organized wrong doing in the Conservative party was strongly commented on.

ROSS' PATHETIC PLEAS

It is interesting to note the pathetic claims put forward by the Hon. G. W. Ross for a renewal of his lease of power. He does not think that there is anything in the Conservative argument that it is time for a change, that a government in power 32 years has outlived its usefulness. He has asked in a plaintive way what we would think of a man who says to his wife, "My dear, we have lived together for 32 years and it is now time for a change." "What," thunders Mr. Ross, "would we think of a man who made use of such an argument as that for getting rid of a faithful spouse." There is however, one fallacy in the little allegory told by Mr. Ross. He imagines that he is married to the Province of Ontario, that the Province of Ontario took him for better or worse. As a matter of fact the Province of Ontario only undertook to keep Mr. Ross as long as he behaved himself. His position may be more justly compared to that of the hired man. Anyone knows that a hired man at the end of 32 years is apt to imagine that he owns the farm and all the chattels thereon and is very apt to hear the intimation made that "it is time for a charge." Mr. Ross, imagining that he is married to the Province of Ontario, has considered it the duty of the Province to support him, to do his washing, mending, scrubbing, blacking and all the menial offences which can be heaped upon the most indulgent and patient of wives. He has, moreover, thought that it was the duty of the Province of Ontario when he went off on, what might be called, a political jamboree to forgive him and the boys for the little excesses of which they were guilty and to take him back once more as a penitent husband who promises to do better for the future. The Liberal supporters are loud in their denunciation of all who attach the slightest shade of blame to the Premier. Still it cannot be denied that it is he, and he alone, who called the Legislature together at the very time set for the trial of the election petitions, and that it was the Hon. G. W. Ross, and he alone, who prorogued the Legislature for the same reason. And it was he, the Hon. G. W. Ross, who disfranchised the riding of North Renfrew for 18 months because he dared not trust the life of his government to a bye-election at that time?

And what has been his record as a temperance man? We all remember the meeting in the Horticultural Gardens in Toronto when Sir Oliver Mowat made his famous declaration to the temperance people of Ontario that if he had power to pass a prohibitory law, a prohibitory law would be passed, and that, if he had not power to pass a prohibitory law, he would pass the most stringent law that his government had power to introduce. And the Hon. G. W. Ross, speaking after him, said that that was the only kind of government that he would ever belong to. When it was decided that the Province of Ontario had power to abolish the bar did Mr. Ross keep the promise which he made to the temperance people? Not so. Instead of introducing the legislation which he had promised he informed the temperance people that he felt that his followers would not follow and that he as a leader could not lead to the passage of any such measure as that suggested. And as if it were not a sufficient ground for resigning when he was unable to perform the promises solemnly made and upon which he obtained office, he deliberately placed in his Cabinet Messrs. McKay and Graham, who are responsible for the defeat of the temperance resolutions in the recent Liberal convention. Could hollow hypocrisy go to greater lengths than this? And yet, he lifts up his hands in holy horror and proclaims from every platform that "Righteousness exalteth the nation." If the Hon. G. W. Ross gave this quotation out of the Bible and not out of the fourth reader, where most of his poetry comes from, he would have noticed that it was a dangerous quotation for him to use, because the verse goes on to say "but sin is a reproach to any people." If he had quoted the whole verse it might have been regarded as applying rather too pointedly to his own government.

NEED OF SECRET BALLOT

It has been said on every Liberal platform that Mr. Whitney has no policy, but as Mr. Whitney is himself to speak this evening it will be for him to answer this charge. It is sufficient to point out that one plank of the Conservative platform, which has been there for many years, is alone sufficient upon which to found a claim to victory. The Ross ballot upon the back of which is placed a number which identifies the voter and enables his vote to be traced after the ballot has been deposited in the box is contrary to the spirit of our constitution. The Conservative party believe that a man should deposit his ballot so as to satisfy his own conscience and that alone, and that when the ballot has once been deposited in the box, it should be impossible for any politician to ascertain how any person has voted, for the giving of such information is one of the foundation stones, perhaps corner stones, upon which the whole system of corrupt methods has grown up in Ontario politics. There is no doubt that it has taken a long time to arouse the people of Ontario with regard to this question of the ballot. While they look almost with unconcern upon acts of bribery which concern two persons only, the briber and his co-partner public conscience has been callous so long as an offence was confined to the bargain and sale of a vote, but when the people realise that the ballots of virtuous men, who scorned a bribe, have been diverted from the candidate for whom they were cast, have been switched by deputy returning officers, have been plugged by scoundrels from the United States and have been burned by officials in the parliament buildings, then public conscience is aroused and the people say we must hold some person responsible for this. There is no person who can be held responsible for this, it is a matter which concerns the Government alone. For 32 years the Liberal Government has been the sole custodian of the ballot box. No Conservative has been in charge of a Provincial ballot box for 32 years, and when we say that the crimes mentioned are done with impunity, or at most a fine of a few dollars is imposed in the hope of silencing popular clamour, we are able to appeal to the general public with all the vehemence of which we are capable that the time for permitting such iniquities is past and gone and that the Ross Government should give place to the Whitney Government on the 25th of January.

CLAIMS OF CANDIDATES

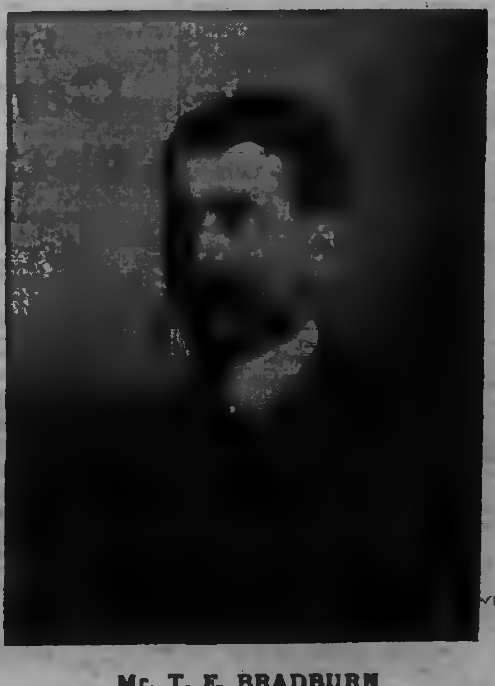
With regard to the claims of the different candidates Mr. Dennistoun pointed out that Mr. Bradburn is a man who has served the town for many years as alderman. He has served his township as both councillor and reeve. He is a successful business man, a man of matured years and good judgment, and in every way fitted to represent the constituency in this Legislature. As for Mr. McWilliams, he is a youth full of ambition and perhaps a little too ready to serve his country in a high office, and it does not seem to make much difference to him what office it is. He is a young man of ability and no doubt he will improve with age. Certainly it does not seem to be a good thing that a member of the Legislature should be under the control of one of the chief officials of the Province, as Mr. McWilliams certainly would be. As long as Mr. McWilliams, Senior, occupies his present position, Mr. McWilliams, Junior, should be content with private life. It is an improper thing that a member of the Legislature should be indebted to government officials for his seat, or that government officials should have anything but public interest to serve in carrying out the administrative details of their offices. How can a public official properly perform his duty to the state when his chief aim and object in performing this public duty is to make his son solid in a political office?

Mr. Dennistoun closed by asking the electors to rally around Mr. Bradburn and elect him to Parliament on Wednesday next as a supporter of Mr. J. P. Whitney, the honored, able and talented leader of the Conservatives, who stood for the moral uplifting of public life and a pure, honest administration of the affairs of this great province; a man whom they were all glad and proud to welcome here this evening. (Applause.)

MR. WHITNEY'S RECEPTION

Severe Arraignment of the Government—Confident of Victory on 25th.

There was nothing half-hearted in the cheering and applause which greeted Mr. Whitney when he rose to speak. The evidence of his popularity was decidedly pronounced, and it may well be regarded as a tribute to "Ontario's rightful Premier." As he had listened to Mr. Dennistoun's clever speech, he said several things had occurred to him, but first of all, and the most important of all, it seemed to him, was suggested. It had often came to his mind at meetings of that description, attended by him during the past seven years, and he thought the people would be pleased to understand what he meant when he referred to it. He was pleased to notice the interest taken by the ladies in the discussion and consideration of great public questions. All would be assured that this was for no trifling reason, for as the years went on and the people of this country and other countries found that the ladies were taking an interest in that which concerns the public welfare, they would see that as, in the past, so in the future, the influence exercised as a result would be a good influence, and one redounding to the happiness and welfare of the human race. (Applause.)



Mr. T. E. BRADBURN

The Popular Liberal-Conservative Candidate in West Peterborough.

GREAT SCANDALS.

Mr. Whitney said he was very glad to receive the invitation to come to Peterborough, although it had puzzled him to see how he would be able to do so. But he was glad it had been possible, because he believed that this constituency and this part of the province would in keeping with the general determination throughout its extent declare that the great scandals which have borne down upon the shoulders of this fair province shall be removed. It will be one of the brightest days in the history of the province when both Conservatives and Reformers joined together in an effort, which will be successful, to raise the standard of public morality which has been lowered during the past three years by men not worthy of the public trust in this Province. (Applause). He urged the good people to make no mistake: the triumph which was shortly to come, and he knew it to be absolutely certain—he spoke from knowledge—will not be a party triumph, and he expressed the opinion that it would be better for the interests of the people if it were not a party triumph, but the declaration of men determined not to forfeit their self-respect, not to continue to stand indolently by while the good name of this fair country is dragged in the dust, and a record is made which in future the children will be ashamed to point to.

POLICY ENDORSED.

Mr. Whitney said a great many things had occurred to him that he might speak about. When a political party comes before the people, he said, it is the duty of that party to tell the people, why they should follow its suggestions. A policy should be propounded by that political party, and reasons should be given for its adoption. I am happy to-night to be able to tell you that it is not incumbent upon me to take up your time elucidating and discussing the proposed policy of the Liberal Conservative party, because this policy was before the people of this province 2 1-2 years ago, and was endorsed and accepted by the people, as shown by a majority of 7,000 of the electorate of this Province. All the proposition of the Conservative party with regard to education, the liquor traffic, the sale of pulp wood, and timber limits, education, the removal of obstacles that affect improperly the relations between capital and labor, and all other propositions of that policy were discussed before the people and considered by them, and the people have given their endorsement of this policy, and therefore we are not obliged to take up your time in discussing it. But even were it not so, were the policy unpleasant to the people, I am bound to say to you, as one of yourselves, as one interested in the prosperity of this country, I would devote my attention to matters which in my opinion overshadow all questions of the material welfare of the people of this province. We are now at the parting of the ways. We have now to decide, Reformers and Conservatives, whether we shall go on in the future as in the past. Receiving the blessing of the Almighty, and under the beneficient result of British constitutional government, with a moral standard excelled by no community or state in the world, we have now to consider whether we are willing and desirous that these conditions shall be neglected and no attention paid to them in the future, whether we are to be forgetful of the fact that as it is with the individual so with communities and nations, that a reckless position with regard to public morality, results in the moral deterioration of that people, and leads downward, even as the road which the Reform party has been leading during the two or three years under the distinguished gentleman who has lead it from where it was then all the way down to where it is now.

CAP. SULLIVAN.

Mr. Dennistoun referred to Mr. Ross' denial that he ever knew or saw Cap. Sullivan. I do not intend to enter into any discussion as to whether he did or did not, but I know this, that when our distinguished naval authority, Cap. Sullivan, read in the paper that Ross made that statement, he dropped the paper in surprise and ejaculated, "Well, isn't the old man a corker." (Laughter). I don't know what he meant by the word corker, but he evidently thought his auditors understood it, and it gave him great satisfaction to express himself. As Mr. Dennistoun has said, the assurance—which I think is the proper word—of the Premier of this Province in attempting to suggest a parallel between himself and the husbandman, is exceedingly Ross-like, and I speak from knowledge in that respect. It reminded Mr. Whitney of the story of a boy who had upset his load of hay. A neighbor happened along and offered assistance, but first suggested that the boy go in and have some dinner with him. The boy was not inclined to accept, fearing that his father would object. After dinner the neighbor suggested that they have a smoke before they begin work. Again the boy advanced the plea that his father would certainly object to the delay. "Well, where is your father, anyway?" finally asked the farmer. "He is under the load," replied the boy. I can assure you, said the speaker, it is only some such boy as that whose nerve can equal that of the Premier of this Province. (Laughter).

WAR INTO AFRICA.

Now, Mr. Ross has told you a great many things. He has told the people from the platform, and that distinguished theologian whose name has been mentioned, has aided Mr. Ross in attempting to show the people of this province just what Ross' position is, should be or ought to be. Mr. Ross, in order to distract attention from his own misdoings, said he would carry the war into Africa and was going to show up the record of his opponents, that it was worse than that of his own God help his opponents, if it is, that's all I have to say. (Laughter.) But, as it happens, strictly speaking, his opponents have no record at all, because his opponents have not been in power for 30 years, and county attorneys, police magistrates, bailiffs, constables and every other officer in the administration of justice have not only been the creatures, but the ready instruments of the Government. The Administration of Justice has been in the hands of the Government, and if, as Mr. Ross has said, the Conservatives have done many things that were wrong, what in the name of common sense was the Administration of Justice about, when it did not prosecute the wicked Conservatives. (Laughter and applause). But it is not true, and when he prates about the punishment of evil-doers let us see what it is. In 1898 a number of men were prosecuted, not by the Government, but by the duly constituted authorities, for the crime of bribery at the elections.

BRIBERY AT ELECTIONS.

What is bribery to-day?—a trifling, and most venial of venial offences. There was a time in the old days, when, the people of to-day think, the people of this country were very slow in moving forward, and had no breadth of view as to improvement. In those days the people looked askance at the individual who dare to use money to corrupt voters, and statutes have been made and provided for the punishment of them. But this is an old story. To-day people do not place any importance in the purchase of votes; we have got far beyond that. In this Christian land in this British country, there is neither law nor justice for a man who dares to commit any crime in the calendar which will insure to the advantage of the party in power. Every word of my statement is justified; there is no successful contradiction of it. No crime will be punished that is committed with a political view, and to-day we stand just in the position I indicated a minute or two ago. About 20 years ago two men were prosecuted in Lenox for bribery. From that time there never was any action taken against an individual until 1887. My first election took place Christmas week, 1886. I was defeated, but 11 months later I unseated my opponent, and in January, 1888, was elected. In the interval I prosecuted three men for the offence of bribery. They were fined $200 each, and one-half of that sum was sent up to Toronto, to the Provincial Treasury, and went to swell that mythical quantity which the last generation has been used to hear about the Ontario surplus. But you never heard a word of credit to those gentlemen and myself, who initiated that procedure. In 1896, when Mr. Hardy was premier, few men were prosecuted for bribery, and, as Mr. Dennistoun has remarked, care was taken that no man guilty of crime of the worst character was punished or prosecuted, and the West Elgin horror, the North Waterloo iniquity, the Jackson story, the Minnie M. performance have all gone by and no human being has been punished and no person prosecuted. I would ask any Reformer if he believes there is a civilised country on the face of the earth where the same state of affairs would be brought about and submitted to. There is no such country on earth.

ASSURANCE OF ROSS.

Now, then, as to the assurance of Mr. Ross. I doubt, if you travel from one end of the Province to the other, that you will find an individual to do what he is doing, when he goes upon the platform and says there was no wrong done in West Elgin. He says that his supporter, Mr. McNish, who signed the confession admitting these occurrences, was deceived and that the evidence showed that nothing was done. I ask you, what are you going to say about a man like that? (A Voice—Put him out.) You have heard sometimes that Whitney is in the habit of using strong language. Why? Because the circumstances call for it, and not only justify it, but I say there is no other language spoken in any country that will furnish proper expressions in order to characterize the monumental assurance of the gentleman in making that statement. Eighty-five good yeomen of the Province of Ontario took solemn declaration that they had marked their ballots for the Conservative candidate and deposited them in one ballot box in one polling sub-division and only forty-two were found there, and still Mr. Ross says nothing wrong was done. He challenges the naming of the deputy returning officer who did anything wrong. One is simply appalled when one has to take up and discuss statements like this. No intelligent audience requires contradiction of statements of this description. There were 28 boxes with all of the papers from different constituencies on one side of the vault in the Parliament buildings, Toronto, while on the other side there were seven or eight boxes which had been used in the bye-elections subsequently. On the expiration of the twelve months when election papers had to be destroyed, the 28 were removed for that purpose. Those on the other side had to be preserved for six or eight months longer, but, strange to say, one of them was included in the 28 and more remarkable still, it was found to have been the West Elgin box, which contained within it the damnation of the Ross Government.

WEST ELGIN CASE.

Now, a commission of judges was appointed to deal with the West Elgin matter. They had no authority to deal with the question of the disappeared ballot box, because nobody at this time knew that it had disappeared. They did so, however, and the man who had charge of the ballot boxes swore that he had instructions to burn the old lot, but not to go near the others and swore that he did not. Still the box was gone and it has never been discovered yet. Mr. Whitney also dealt with the case of Pritchett, the man who gave instructions in the switching of ballots, and afterwards went to Detroit on a pension of $100 a month. (He afterwards made affidavits regarding the case, two or three of which were read in the Legislature, and Pritchett had defied prosecution. The Government never have and never will prosecute him.

Mr. Ross, in taking up the record of his opponents, points to their delight in dragging the Reform party into this terrible disgrace, making it criminally responsible for the conduct referred to, and pointed to the existence of a high standard of morality and honor as actually necessary to the welfare of the Province under the system of British responsible Government. They speak of the record of the Reform party, but do not say any thing about the cases of Langevin, McGreevey and Rykert—one of whom was sent to prison and the other two forced to retire from public life. The records of the two parties are exactly opposite to what they claim, said Mr. Ross, and he tells you, remarked Mr. Whitney, to remember Ross. I would ask you not to forget to remember Ross. If we forget him it will be a sure sign that we will place material interests above the great moral question which confronts the country at the present time. Ross admits that they have sinned, but says we propose to forget it and leave it behind sealed with seven seals. Short but vigorous reference was made by the speaker to the perjury case in South Oxford, in which ex-convicts were employed to swear a member of the Legislature out of his seat, and also to the Minnie M. case.

COALITION.

Referring to coalition, Mr. Whitney stated that thrice in two years had the Government endeavored to get the Opposition to join with them, and he recalled 1854, when the Liberal-Conservative party was formed by a coalition between the moderate Reformers and moderate Tories, under Robert Baldwin. From that day to this that party had taken its share in the government of the Province, and the Reform party had kept pace with it from year to year. The Liberal-Conservative party had seen the necessities of a new and growing country—the necessity for the C.P.R. and a protective tariff. The great system of British constitutional Government had gone on from year to year. Because we are Conservatives or Reformers, it does not always follow that we are right. Parties are simply the means by which our liberties are brought home to us, and most necessary is it that the political parties be kept on a level with each other. A year before Mr. Ross took the leadership of the Government, the Opposition had a membership of 23. Six weeks ago it had a majority in the house (Applause) and a majority of 7,000 in the electorate. For two and a half years Mr. Ross has never had a majority behind him. I think I will tell you a little something about coalition, said Mr. Whitney. I have been telling them about this coalition and haven't yet told it all. The funny part of it is this, that Mr. Ross comes out in a newspaper interview denying two things nobody had ever said. Mr. Gibson has admitted there were negotiations for coalition. A short time after the election of 1892 an editorial appeared in the Globe, which I said Mr. Ross knew something about, suggestion coalition. Next day I went out for a walk and met a minister of the Crown, who asked me if I was busy and requested me to call at his office. When I got back to the hotel, a message awaited me from another Cabinet minister, with the same request that I meet him. I did so, and we discussed coalition. It ended in my declining the proposition.

ANOTHER REQUEST.

Next year in the heat and height of the Gamey investigation a gentleman asked me if I would not discuss this question again with this same Cabinet Minister, and I said, no. However, we did come together. I have no complaint to make of this gentleman. His proposition was that I and three of my colleagues should enter the Cabinet, that is, myself and two of my colleagues, and next season a new Cabinet Minister was to be created; then four Conservatives would be in the Government. We discussed this for some time, and we were pledged to secrecy—a confidential conversation—and I went away. Two weeks after that Mr. Foy, my colleague, said, "So and so has come to me, asking what you fellows mean by talking coalition," and I found these gentlemen who had pledged me to secrecy were going around telling this story to see if they could not raise trouble. I at once got hold of this member and had him give up his reasons. Mr. Ross says he never said anything to me himself and never sent anyone to me with authority to bind him. I would like to see the man that could bind him. (Laughter.) When Hugh Clarke was elected in Centre Bruce, a Grit constituency, and when some gentlemen were making agreement that protests should not be filed against certain constituencies on each side, an agreement was produced signed by Mr. Harcourt that Centre Bruce should not be proceeded against. A week after this Mr. Ross came home from England and this agreement was disregarded. These men, presumably honorable, broke that agreement, and I declare that the agreement was broken by the instructions of Mr. Ross, the Premier. You talk about men binding him. (Laughter.)

THE CONVENTION

A week before their great Convention in Toronto, I heard your population was considerably depleted during the absence of the office holders and contractors who went up to the Convention. (Laughter.) I know, I gave the Convention a wide berth, because when I heard of revolvers and policemen's billys protruding from the pockets of those attending, I thought it was good time for quiet men to stay away. During that week, a communication came to Mr. Whitney, from a distinguished Liberal Senator, who holds a very high place in financial circles, by whom it was passed to a distinguished financial gentleman, not in public life, but with Liberal leanings, by whom it was passed to another, who is a Conservative and in turn to Mr. Whitney. The communication stated that if he concurred with the suggestion made therein, he would, in all probability be leader of the Government within a year. I do not like to say anything about myself, said Mr. Whitney, but I withstood temptation, and I said you will not commit to allow you too get a transfusion of healthy blood in your veins and then avoid the end which will be yours very shortly at the hands of the people. They had now arrived at the parting of the ways, and the time had come when the people of the Province would be able to reckon with their consciences and during the next few days ask themselves whether they are not desirous of the public welfare, and the rehabilitation of the Reform party in the good name it has made in the records of Ontario and in the old Province of Upper Canada; whether it will not be their duty to drop their party feeling except so far as the rehabilitation of that party, and do what their consciences will tell them is right and proper, and they do not have to become Conservatives by doing it. (Applause.) I would be sorry if they did have to become Conservatives. Just as long as the pendulum swings back and forth, with regularity, just as one party assumes power for a time and then gives place to another, just as from day to day, and year to year, will the interests of this Province be preserved, and the moral atmosphere remain pure and sweet, and such a thing as political and moral stagnation will be impossible in this fair land of ours. That is the reason. I ask the people to come away from their party. I ask them to do the same as they would in a municipal campaign, when party lines are cast aside. Mr. Whitney pointed to the example presented by the old land, where well defined issues divided the great parties and it often happened that a government going into power with 150 of a majority, would ultimately find itself without one whatever, and this as the result of the independent stand taken by its own supporters, who fight against their political friends and bring about the political or party balance. So it goes on from year to year, decade to decade, and the political atmosphere is ever pure and undefiled. Mr. Whitney held that the time had come when the people irrespective of party, but not necessarily severing there connection therewith, would take a stand which he believed would make for the best interests of the country, and would also remove the stain which had blotted the record of the Reform party. (Applause.)

RIGHT TO CONFIDENCE

Mr. Whitney said his opponents were asking what right he and his supporters had to claim the confidence of the people. He held that they had already received the confidence of the people to the extent of 7,000 of a majority, and their policy and programme stands approved. The second reply to this question was that when he, representing the members on the left of the speaker, had three times been asked to infuse new life in the dying body which was awaiting dissolution, he had no right to explain and refused to present credentials to these gentlemen who object. When the time comes, and the responsibility will be on us, we will ask you to judge us, approve us or condemn us by exactly the same standard which we ask you to do with regard to our opponents, and if we shall be successful in our measures, we will be content and pleased to further receive the confidence of the people. No man has a right to ask more. (Applause.)

MORAL SENSE LEFT.

Mr. Whitney stated that not long ago, a gentleman with Liberal leaning, said to him in Toronto: "I wish I could feel that you are going to win. I am afraid there is no moral sense left in the people of Ontario."

I said I had no doubt whatever on this matter. We cannot believe that a people situated as we have been situated, a people who have received signal evidences of the favor of Providence, a people whose lines have been cast under the beneficent and powerful sway of the British system of constitutional Government—we cannot believe that there is here no strong foundation of public, as well as private morality, and that the moral sense which is said to be the desideratum, will not be seen to exist by the decision to be given next week. Therefore I said to this gentleman: We live in a Christian country: a British country; heretofore we have been worthy of our glorious heritage and therefore I dare not doubt what the result will be. (Applause.)

JOIN THE PROCESSION.

In conclusion, Mr. Whitney thanked the audience for the hearing he had received and for the opportunity to be there. There was something in the air which told him that Mr. Bradburn would go up to Toronto to join the grand procession after the 25th of January.

Long continued applause marked the close of Mr. Whitney's speech.

The chairman with regret referred to the fact that as Mr. Bradburn had not yet arrived from a meeting in the country, the meeting would have to be brought to a close. Hearty cheers were given for the King, Mr. Whitney and Mr. Bradburn.

ON THE PLATFORM.

Among those on the platform were Mr. James Kendry (chairman), Col. J. W. Miller, Rev. Dr. Crothers, Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, John Carnegie, H. C. Winch, James Stevenson, Wm. Croft, R. C. School Dispute Settled.

Toronto, Jan. 20.—The Downeyville School case came before Chief Justice Meredith at Osgoode Hall yesterday and the motion to continue the injunction granted by the county judge was struck off. Mr. DuVernet stated that he had received a telegram to the effect that the matter was being arranged, the separate school board returning the deed to the public school board. County Crown Attorney Drayton, who had the separate school board side of the case, did not appear. He had received a telegram to say that the matter had been settled.

Show Building's Second Collapse.

Ottawa, Jan. 20.—The new fat stock building in Lansdowne Park collapsed yesterday morning for the second time within a year. The first smash occurred last winter, before the building was really completed. The second happened about 3 o'clock yesterday morning. The entire edifice, on which the city has expended $26,000, is a total wreck. There was little or no snow on the roof, and no wind was blowing, so the mishap cannot be attributed to either of these causes.

EARL GREY CRITICIZED

Acted of Himself in Granting Giacconi Respite of Sentence.

Technically Within His Rights, Quebec Members of the Cabinet Protest That He Should Act Only As the Mouthpiece of the Government in Such Cases—Commons Make a New Record in Scanning Estimates.

Ottawa, Jan. 20.—Already differences have arisen between the Dominion Government and the new Governor-General. They have their origin in the respite granted in the case of Antonio Giacconi, the Montreal Italian, whose execution was to have taken place to-day. Earl Grey acted wholly on his own responsibility in granting the respite.

While His Excellency was technically within his right in so acting, some members of the Cabinet, especially those from Quebec, are making an energetic protest. The Governor's interference, they declare, is an unwarranted assumption of authority. It is for the vice-regal authority, they say, to act as the mouthpiece of the Government in such cases, and not to take the initiative, as did Earl Grey in granting a respite to Giacconi.

Measures designed to save the life of Giacconi have been excited in high quarters. The Italian colony in Montreal went the length of cabling the King of Italy, praying for His Majesty's intervention. His Majesty handed the petition over to the State Department, from which it is understood representations were made to the Imperial authorities in London, and thence to Ottawa.

The respite of a week undoubtedly means that Giacconi will not go to the gallows.

IN THE COMMONS.

Reach Committee of Supply in Four Days After Opening.

Ottawa, Jan. 20.—The House had its first fling at the estimates yesterday afternoon. In thus reaching the stage of committee of supply, just four working days after the formal opening of Parliament, the House established a record. Usually the estimates are late in coming down, and when they do come the Opposition is not willing to take them up until the arrival of its old friend, the Auditor-General's report. This year the time honored rules and practices were dispensed with, and the House proceeded to the consideration of the estimates with nothing more to guide it than its good common sense, but if the House was tolerant in being rushed in Committee of Supply on short notice, it soon demonstrated the truth that it has abandoned none of its heaven-born rights to examine into details and trivialities.

Each Item Scanned.

Statutory increases in the salaries of civil servants, ranging from $25 to $50 per annum, loomed up as large as cart-wheels to some able critics. The chairman was not allowed to indulge in the generally accepted practice of voting supplies by departmental totals. He was obliged to read each individual item. Hon. Wm. Paterson, Minister of Customs, acting Minister of Finance, had charge of the estimates. He was pressed for information which he was able to extract from his deputy, and for other information which the dark vaults of the department have yet to divulge. The House was in good humor, a condition which invariably facilitates the voting of His Majesty's supplies. Fair progress was made, the few contentious items encountered being held over for the House to wrestle with some day when it has more fight in its heart.

Canada and Mexico.

Before the House went into Committee of Supply, Mr. Foster made enquiries regarding the steamship service between Canada and Mexico. Sir William Mulock replied that tenders from steamship companies were not within the appropriations voted by Canada and Mexico, $50,000 apiece. The service contemplated was to include two lines, one on the Atlantic and one on the Pacific. New efforts are being made to organize the service, and Mexico is ready to vote another $50,000 if Canada will do the same to start a monthly service on the Atlantic. The question of a Pacific service will be allowed to stand for a time the Government of Mexico believing that more reasonable terms can be secured.

Canada and G.T.R.

Mr. Foster also wanted to know the scope of arbitration between the Dominion Government and the Grand Trunk Railway. Between Mr. Emmerson and Mr. Fitzpatrick the House was informed that arbitration is being held by mutual agreement to settle certain claims arising out of the lease of Grand Trunk lines for the purpose of extending the I.C.R. to Montreal. The terms of reference will be communicated to the House.

John Haggart asked if the Government had any part in the purchase of the Canada Atlantic Railway by the Grand Trunk. He wanted to know also if there was any arrangement whereby the Intercolonial Railway would have running rights over the Canada Atlantic. Sir Wilfrid Laurier replied that transaction was between the Grand Trunk and the Canada Atlantic and the Government had no part in it.

The Senate.

Ottawa, Jan. 20.—Senator Wood yesterday moved for a return of reports of surveyors employed on the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway between Quebec and Moncton. Senator Wood said that Toronto newspapers had printed reports of surveys, giving particulars as to grades.

Senator Scott replied that the Government had no information whatever, and any reports were purely exploratory. The Government's assertion ought to be taken in place of that given by Opposition newspapers. The Senate adjourned to reconvene on Feb. 13.

Acclamation in First Bye-Election.

Quebec, Jan. 20.—Mr. Arthur Lachance, advocate, was nominated at noon in the Government interest for the House of Commons to fill the vacancy in Quebec Centre caused by the recent appointment of the old member, Mr. Albert Malouin, to the judiciary. Mr. Lachance's nomination papers were signed by over twelve hundred electors, and as no Opposition was offered he was declared elected by acclamation.

A Bye-Election in Labelle.

Ottawa, Jan. 20.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, having decided to sit for Quebec East in the House of Commons has resigned the seat for Labelle, to which he was also elected. A writ has been issued for a new election in Labelle, and nomination has been set for January 27, with voting on February 3.

DOES SILENCE MEAN CONSENT?

Premier Ross Did Not Answer a Query At Mt. Brydges Nomination.

London, Jan. 20.—The apparent refusal of Hon. G. W. Ross to deny on the hustings at Mount Brydges on Wednesday that he was accustomed to taking a glass of "Old Scotch" has spread like wildfire among the people of his riding, who are largely Scotch testotalers. The incident produced a marked effect upon the meeting, but its full effect generally is only beginning to be seen.

George Stewart, the Conservative candidate, was replying to Mr. Ross, and, touching upon the charge that Mr. Whitney had taken a glass of liquor in his room, turned to Mr. Ross and asked if he would deny that he also took his glass.

Mr. Ross appeared unable to make reply of any sort. Mr. Stewart waited, but still no reply. Then he proceeded with his remarks.

WANT SOO TRIAL PUT OFF.

Just Until After the Elections, Is the Plea of the Liberals.

Toronto, Jan. 20.—A motion by the Liberals of Sault Ste. Marie was made at Osgoode Hall yesterday to have the election of the fifteen persons reported in the Soo election for corrupt practices postponed until after the elections.

Several weeks ago, at a time when the date of the Provincial elections was not known, the trial was set for Monday next. The Conservatives are anxious that the trial shall proceed, and through E. A. DuVernet opposed the application to Chancellor Boyd, by George H. Watson, K. C., for a postponement.

Chancellor Boyd, who, with Justice Teetzel, heard the election trial and unseated C. N. Smith, declined to make the order in the absence of Justice Teetzel. The trial will likely go on unless legal counsel of both sides agree to a postponement for a few days. The matter will be finally argued at Osgoode Hall to-morrow morning.

YUKON OFFICIALS DISMISSED.

Acting Governor Wood Making a Wholesale Reduction.

Seattle, Jan. 20.—A despatch from Dawson says that a wholesale reduction in the Government force is being made in the Yukon territory through acting Governor Major Wood. The preventive officer's department, mining inspector's department and territorial secretary's office have been abolished and have been consolidated under other offices. The police will do all recording and inspecting in outlying districts and will receive applications and forward them to Dawson. Thirty employes are being dismissed, among them all the mining inspectors and recorders.

WHY LIBERALS BREAK TIES WON'T STAND FOR ROSSISM

Exposures of Machine Infamy Revolt Men of the Type of S. H. Blake.

Liberals of the type of Hon. S. H. Blake, Rev. D. C. Hossack, and Rev. Nathaniel Smith hasten to dissociate themselves from the party of Hon. G. W. Ross. Still they claim to be Liberals and that they have not departed from the principles they have professed all their lives.

Rossism is not Liberalism. Hundreds of Liberals are breaking party ties and on the 25th of the present month will vote for the Conservative candidates. And the independent electors of Ontario will join the old-time Liberals in the house-cleaning exercises.

The ills of the Liberal party date from the accession of Hon. G. W. Ross to the leadership of the Liberal party in Ontario. This event occurred in 1899. Since and including 1899 we have had a record of electoral debauchery that has made the name of Ontario a reproach to honest people. Hon. G. W. Ross signalized his acceptance of the duties of Premier by reorganizing the Cabinet. He found himself with a very small majority in the House and the machine was organized to strengthen his position. The West Elgin frauds followed. Crooks were imported into the riding to switch the votes of honest Conservatives. These crimes were exposed by the Conservatives and the Liberal candidate made a confession that "the declared number of votes for Mr. Macnish largely exceeded the number of bona fide votes cast for him." By such frauds Mr. Ross was enabled to continue in office. The general election of 1902 left him in a still worse plight. Though in a minority of the popular vote he had so arranged the constituencies as to give him a majority of two in the Legislature; but two was not a very large surplus and efforts were made to increase it. The purchase of members elected to oppose the Government was one of the means by which Mr. Ross determined to hold on, and in the bye-elections he counted on adding a few more members to his voting strength. The "Three Norths" followed. All were carried by Mr. Ross by methods afterwards exposed in the election courts.

With the revelations of Mr. Gamey the fortunes of Ross declined and subsequent bye-elections failed to give the Premier the assistance he required. The most revolting electoral methods were resorted to at Sault Ste. Marie and by wholesale plugging by a band of American toughs the Government succeeded in temporarily forestalling defeat.

The Soo revelations were the climax of a long series of corrupt acts performed by unscrupulous politicians on behalf of Premier Ross. Hardly less revolting were the methods employed by agents of the machine to unseat Donald Sutherland in South Oxford. For his efforts in behalf of Premier Ross the chief conspirator, Jackson, was rewarded with a lucrative office in England.

Is there any wonder that many honest Liberals are revolting, and that others who will not go the length of declaring their opposition have no heart for the present contest which means the life or death of Rossism and all that the term implies?

WHITNEY IS ON RECORD FOR ADVANCED PROGRAM

Mr. Whitney will go into power with a well defined and progressive policy and while he makes it unmistakably clear that the main issue in the present contest is honest and decent Government he promises legislation along advanced lines. The extremity of the Government since the advent of Mr. Ross to the premiership has prevented the adoption of legislation of this character. Mr. Ross has been too much occupied with the business of attempting to strengthen his precarious hold on office to devise legislation or to carry into execution his much-heralded program of "building up Ontario."

Mr. Whitney offers a comprehensive program. His attitude on Provincial issues has been in the interests of the whole people. He proposes to broaden the scope of the agricultural college, to establish experimental stations and to give increased agricultural instruction in the public schools. An experimental fruit station in the Niagara District has been suggested.

The encouragement of a sanitary system of sewerage in towns and villages is one of the proposals of the Opposition. The Government has offered inducement to municipalities to construct permanent roadways and wherever a comprehensive system of roadways has been constructed part of the cost has come from the Provincial Revenues. The same method could well be adopted with regard to sewerage, and the Opposition has placed itself on record in this regard.

The Opposition has spoken in favor of public ownership. In the Legislature Dr. Pyne's resolution favoring the operation of the Temiskaming Railway for ten years as an experiment was voted down by Mr. Ross and his followers.

Fair taxation of railways is a plank in the Conservative platform.

Reforms are needed in the educational system of the Province and Mr. Whitney has pledged himself to apply himself to this task. His attitude on this question is clear. The Public School system should not be regarded as a mere stepping stone to the Collegiate Institute or the University. It should fit a boy or girl for the battle of life.

The nationalization of the water powers of the Province, free school books, the disposal of pulp and timber concessions at public auction, reform of the mining laws, a strict enforcement of the license laws of the Province, the branding of prison made goods—these are some of the reforms consistently advocated by Mr. Whitney and his Colleagues in and out of the Legislature.

BY ACCIDENT OR DESIGN

Charge of Grape Shot Might Have Wiped Out Romanoffs.

Some of the Bullets Struck the Facade of the Winter Palace Where the Czar Was Officiating in the Festival of the Epiphany—Emperor Nicholas Displayed Splendid Nerve—Official Account—An Inquiry Instituted.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 20.—The festival of the Epiphany, the blessing of the waters, had just concluded at one o'clock yesterday afternoon when simultaneously with the salute fired from the St. Peter and St. Paul fortress either a rain of bullets or a grape shell swept over the little chapel built out over the frozen Neva in front of the Winter Palace, where Emperor Nicholas and every member of the Romanoff family were participating in the service. The missiles went high, entering windows of the splendid row of salons along the waterfront from which the Empress, the ladies of the court and the members of the diplomatic corps and all the high dignitaries of the State, army and navy were witnessing the glittering spectacle below. Fortunately the bullets passed over the heads of all present, striking the opposite wall and clattering down on the parquetted floor of the white salon.

Czar's Splendid Nerve.

Although the actual ceremony was ended the Emperor remained and accompanied the Metropolitan and clergy as they circled the pavilion around the chapel to bless the gorgeous standards of the famous guard regiments assembled there. Then the procession moved back to the palace, and the original program was carried out. The Emperor displayed splendid nerve. He did not show a trace of excitement. His Majesty received the diplomats in his usual cordial, gentle manner, reviewed the guard regiments on the square behind the palace and subsequently had luncheon served in the State dining-room.

Czar Had An Escape.

Additional particulars show that the Emperor had a miraculous escape. There is no longer any doubt that the missiles came from a gun of the Bourse Battery, which was loaded with grape. Some of the bullets actually struck the little open chapel in which His Majesty was standing, cut the staff of one of the standards and fairly riddled the basement windows of the palace, killing a policeman outright, and wounding an officer and three marines. Had the gun been aimed a little lower, the charge of grape might have wiped out the whole Romanoff dynasty.

The Associated Press obtained the following statement from the police at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon:

Came From Battery.

"With the second or third shot from the Bourse Battery on Basil Island a very large number of grape shot struck the chapel of the palace. Two entered the interior where the Emperor was standing. The bullets had a very low velocity. The two which entered the chapel fell harmlessly to the floor. Several policemen about the chapel were struck. With the exception of one man named Romanoff, who was severely wounded, they all escaped with contusions. An inquiry is being conducted by the Grand Duke, Sergius Michaelovitch, inspector general of artillery. It has not yet been established whether it was an accident or was due to premeditation."

The Official Account.

The official account is: "During the ceremony of the blessing of the waters of the Neva yesterday, in the [illegible] presence of the Emperor, as the usual salute was being fired, an accident happened. A charge of grape, instead of a saluting charge, was fired from a gun belonging to one of the batteries stationed near the Bourse. Some bullets struck the facade of the Winter Palace near the quay gardens, breaking four windows. A policeman belonging to the St. Petersburg force was wounded. According to the information to hand at present, no other accident occurred. Inquiry continues."

It is now stated in official circles that the grape was fired from one of the guns of the 17th Battery of the 1st Horse Artillery of the Guard, the most aristocratic corps in the Russian army. It seems that at gun practice on Tuesday a loaded shell was inadvertently left in the gun.

Officers and Men Confined.

The officers and men of the battery have not been arrested, but are confined to barracks, and by the military regulations are so closely under restraint that it is impossible for the culprit or culprits to escape until the responsibility is determined.

Two investigations are proceeding independently, and both are guarded with the utmost secrecy.

On Verge of Revolution.

London, Jan. 20.—The London papers to-day, and their St. Petersburg correspondents take the gravest view of the internal conditions in Russia.

The majority express the belief that yesterday's incident was a premeditated attempt on the life of the Emperor Nicholas and maintains that the strike is much more a political than an industrial movement.

In short, they consider that every sign makes it apparent that the Empire is on the verge of a revolution.

It is alleged that the St. Petersburg manufacturers have decided to reject the strikers demands, and that the Orthodox priest, Father Gopon, the picturesque figure who has constituted himself the leader of the strike movement, and possesses the men's complete sympathy, threatens to march on Sunday at the head of 100,000 strikers to the Winter Palace, with a petition for political rights, and that he will refuse to depart until the document is presented to the Emperor.

May Become General Strike.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 20.—The strike situation is causing much uneasiness. There are indications of its spreading toward a general sympathetic strike.

Determined efforts are being made to call out all the factory workers in St. Petersburg, numbering several hundreds of thousands, including the employes of the Russian Westinghouse Company.

HE MEANS SCOTT'S
Your doctor says you must take cod liver oil. Probably he means Scott's Emulsion because you cannot take the clear oil; no one can take the clear oil who needs cod liver oil. The doctor understands that and doubtless means Scott's Emulsion of cod liver oil which everybody can take because it is emulsified and prepared so that it can be very easily digested by the most sensitive stomach. Most everybody likes it.

Fifteen Children Drown.

Vienna, Jan. 20.—Fifteen children were drowned at Zlafbinga, in Northern Hungary, yesterday, while watching their fathers cut up and cart away ice from the river. They were standing in a group upon a large piece of ice which had been cut round, when it broke, and they all disappeared. The men made the most frantic efforts at rescue, but without success.

Auxiliary Bishop For Montreal.

London, Jan. 20.—(C. A. P.)—The Pope, acknowledging the growing importance of the Archdiocese of Montreal, has granted the request of Archbishop Bruchesi for an auxiliary bishop. The appointment has been given to the Vicar-General of Montreal, V. Rev. Z. Racicot.

Girl Dies From Wounds.

Winnipeg, Jan. 20.—Lydia Mair died at Regina yesterday afternoon from injuries caused by burning Wednesday evening. The child was playing with a celluloid comb and in some way the comb caught fire from a lamp and the flames quickly caught on her hair.

Seven Buried Alive.

Antoine, Ark., Jan. 20.—Seven men were buried alive under a great mass of dirt and rock, as the result of a cave-in yesterday, in a deep cut on the Gurdon and Fort Smith Railroad.

Rome, Jan. 20.—The Italian Government has issued a decree providing for the abolition of slavery in Italy's East African colonies.

Gen Viljoen Horsewhipped.

Chicago, Jan. 20.—An actual clash between Boer and Briton happened last evening, when a young Englishwoman, Miss May Belfort, publicly horsewhipped Gen. Ben. J. Viljoen at the entrance of the Coliseum on Wabash avenue. Gen. Viljoen was her former lover, and she claims he jilted her in the most brutal fashion.

WITHOUT PROVOCATION

Was Rojestvensky's Attack Upon the North Sea Fishers

Britain's Statement Before International Commission So Maintains — Baron Taube's Reply For Russia Avers That Russians Did See Things, But British Declare the Things Russians Say They Saw Were Not There.

Paris, Jan. 20.—The international commission to investigate the North Sea incident held its first meeting yesterday.

Hugh O'Bierne of the British Embassy, agent of Great Britain, read the charges, which consist of seventeen specifications minutely setting forth the attack on the Hull fishing fleet. He declared that no Japanese torpedo boats and no Japanese whatever were among the fishing fleet, and that no Japanese warships were anywhere in the North Sea.

Baron Taube read the Russian reply, which declared that two strange boats approached the Russian squadron, which the searchlights disclosed to be torpedo boats. Thereupon fire was opened, the torpedo boats moving off and later disappearing. The Russian statement further asserted that Admiral Rojestvensky was absolutely obliged to act as he did in order to destroy the torpedo boats which had attacked his squadron.

The principal charges of the British statement follow:

"On the night in question there were not any warships whatever in the neighborhood of the fishing fleet, except those of the Russian navy.

"No warships had been seen by the fishing boats since a long time previous.

"None of the boats making up the fishing fleet carried any kind of material of war.

"No Japanese warship of any kind whatever was at that moment in the North Sea.

"There were not any Japanese upon the fishing boats.

"The Russian fire continued after their searchlights clearly showed the the vessels were peaceful fishing boats.

"None of the Russian ships gave any assistance.

"The fire killed two men, wounded six, sank one boat and damaged five others."

The statement concludes that the attack was without any provocation upon the Pacific fishing boats pursuing their usual and rightful avocation.

KEEP HANDS OFF CHINA.

United States Addresses Note to the Powers to This Effect.

Paris, Jan. 20.—The powers have received a communication from the American Government, which, if approved, will exert a far reaching effect on preventing the territorial break-up of China when peace is eventually made between Russia and Japan. This note treats of Chinese territory after the war is concluded.

This step is based upon information reaching the United States Government that some of the powers are apprehensive that the eventual consideration of peace between Russia and Japan will lead to claims on portions of Chinese territory.

The French, British and Italian Governments have approved the American communication.

JAPAN TO GIVE PROOF,

That Russian Cossacks Are in Chinese Territory and Receiving Aid.

Tokio, Jan. 20.—The Japanese Government will submit proof to England, Germany and the United States that the Russian Cossack detail under command of General Mistchenko has since last Thursday not only used Chinese territory, but has had the assistance of Chinese soldiers in the vicinity of Sanchia west of Newchwang. On Tuesday night Japanese cavalry, which had been pursuing the Russian forces, found them west of Laohosho, and several who were captured not only were Chinese coats and caps, but were entirely clothed in Chinese costumes, including pig tails. Four Chinese in uniforms were among the prisoners made.

Russ Raiders Number 2,400.

Major Uchida, telegraphing through General Fushimi, announces that the Russian raiders, numbering at least 2,400, have gone into Chinese territory west of the old town of Newchwang, and that Chinese regular troops received the refugees. He further telegraphed that Chinese regulars accompanied the Russian raiders in their recent expedition, planned to cut the line of Japanese communication. General Fushimi announces that the Cossacks cannot return to their base. More than 300 dead and 200 wounded prisoners have been accounted for. The Japanese losses are inconsiderable.

Housing Prisoners of War.

The Government is now prepared to house 35,000 Port Arthur and other Russian prisoners of war; 5,000 at Tankakhaya, 20,000 at Hama Tora, near Osaka, and the remainder scattered in groups of from 350 to 4,000 at different places.

British Steamer Condemned.

Tokio, Jan. 20.—The British steamer Rosely, which was captured by the Japanese cruiser Tokiwa in the Sea of Japan, on Jan. 11, when bound for Vladivostock with a cargo of coal, has been condemned by the prize court at Sasebo.

Captured British Steamer.

The naval scouts captured the British steamer Bawtry in Tsu Straits at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning. The vessel, which is of 1,542 tons, was carrying provisions and shipbuilding materials from Kiaochou to Vladivostock. She was taken to Sasebo. The capture of another steamer is reported but no details have yet been received.

Stoessel in China.

Shanghai, Jan. 20.—The French steamer Australien arrived here yesterday from Nagasaki with General and Mme. Stoessel. Generals Gorbatowsky and Reiss, Admirals Gregorievitch and Lochinsky and 560 other Russians from Port Arthur. About half of the Russians will continue the voyage on the Australien, while the other half will wait here for another steamer.

THREE TRAINS COLLIDE.

During a Fog Third Train Crashes Into Wreck of First Two.

London, Jan. 20.—An alarming collision in which three trains were involved, including two Scotch expresses, occurred on the Midland Railway, near Barnsley, early yesterday morning. Four passengers and two railwaymen were killed and a score more injured, of which seven were seriously hurt. The accident occurred in a fog, the third train crashing into the wreckage resulting from the first collision. The cars of one of the Scotch expresses burst into flames and were soon ablaze from end to end. There were not many passengers on the trains or the casualties must have been far heavier, as the impact was so great that the cars were telescoped and splintered into matchwood. Among the injured is Robert Brough, the artist.

BAIL IS REFUSED.

Four Accused Christian Scientists to Remain in Custody.

Toronto, Jan. 20.—The four Christian Scientists charged with manslaughter must remain in custody until Monday, when the case will be heard. Yesterday morning they appeared in the police court and were remanded, bail being refused by the magistrate. In the afternoon Judge Anglin refused an application on the ground that he had no power to grant bail as the prisoners were not actually committed for trial. Deputy Attorney-General Cartwright expressed his willingness to agree to a release at any time. The magistrate, according to the judge, has the power to grant bail.

PUTTING IT STRONG

But Doesn't It Look Reasonable?

This may read as though we were putting it a little strong, because it is generally thought by the majority of people that Dyspepsia in its chronic form is incurable or practically so. But we have long since shown that Dyspepsia is curable, nor is it such a difficult matter as at first appears.

The trouble with Dyspeptics is that they are continually dieting starving themselves or going to the opposite extreme or else deluging the already over burdened stomach with "bitters" "after dinner pills," etc., which invariably increase the difficulty even if in some cases they do give a slight temporary relief. Such treatment of the stomach simply makes matters worse. What the stomach wants is a rest. Now how can the stomach become rested, recuperated and at the same time the body nourished and sustained?

This is a great secret and this is also the secret of the uniform success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. This is a comparatively new remedy but its success and popularity leave no doubt as to its merit.

The Tablets will digest the food anyway, regardless of condition of stomach. The sufferer from Dyspepsia, according to directions, is to eat an abundance of good, wholesome food and use the tablets before and after each meal and the result will be that the food will be digested no matter how bad your Dyspepsia may be, because, as before stated, the tablets will digest the food even if the stomach is wholly inactive. To illustrate our meaning plainly, if you take 1,800 grains of meat, eggs or ordinary food and place it in a temperature of 98 degrees, and put with it one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets it will digest the meat or eggs almost as perfectly as if the meat was enclosed within the stomach.

The stomach may be ever so weak yet these tablets will perform the work of digestion and the body and brain will be properly nourished and at the same time a radical, lasting cure of Dyspepsia will be made because the much abused stomach will be given, to some extent, a much needed rest. Your druggist will tell you that of all the many remedies advertised to cure Dyspepsia none of them have given so complete and general satisfaction as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and not least in importance in these hard times is the fact that they are also the cheapest and give the most good for the least money.

A NEW FEATURE

A new feature will be introduced at the popular men's meeting at the Y.M.C.A. on Sunday.

The songs preceding the address will be thrown on a canvas by means of electric light, illustrated by scenes in the life of Christ.

Mr. Holmes will speak on the "20th Century Man."

—The Primary and Junior Teachers' Union will not meet to-night.

CATTLE MARKETS.

Cables Unchanged—American Markets About Steady.

London, Jan. 19.—Live cattle are quoted at 11c to 12½c per lb.; refrigerator beef at 8½c to 9c per lb.; sheep at 12½c to 13½c per lb.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

Receipts of live stock at the city market were large, 111 carloads, composed of 1340 cattle, 1150 sheep and lambs, 2500 hogs and 30 calves.

There were few shipping cattle offered and few wanted, as shipping space is reported as being scarce for several days to come. There was not a single straight load of exporters offered, and not a single sale reported by any of the commission firms, with the exception of export bulls, which sold at $3 to $3.75 per cwt.

Choice picked lots of butchers' cattle, 1050 to 1200 lbs. each, equal to the best exporters in quality, sold at $4.25 to $4.50 per cwt, but there were few of this kind, not more than eight or nine, on the market. Loads of good heifers and steers, 900 to 1100 lbs. each, sold at $4 to $4.12½ per cwt., and there were few loads sold at these prices. The bulk of the butchers' cattle sold from $3.25 to $3.75 per cwt., and these could be classed as fair to good. Medium butchers' sold at $3 to $3.25, and common at $1.90 to $2 per cwt.

There was a fair demand for feeders of good quality, several farmers being on the market to purchase. Feeders, 1050 to 1000 lbs. sold at $3.50 to $3.80; feeders, 900 to 980 lbs. each, sold at $3.25 to $3.60 per cwt.; stockers, 500 to 700 lbs. each, sold at $2.50 to $3 for medium to good quality.

About 30 milch cows and springers, principally of common to medium quality, sold from $30 to $55 each, but better quality cows would bring more money.

Good to choice quality veal calves were in excellent demand at firm prices. Common calves sold at $2.50 to $4.50 per cwt., while good to choice veals sold from $5 to $6 per cwt.

The demand for sheep and lambs continues to be good, all offerings being readily bought at former quotations. Export ewes sold at $4.50 to $4.75; bucks at $3.50 to $3.75; lambs at $5.50 to $6.25 per cwt.

The run of hogs was large, with prices firm at $5.10 for selects and $4.85 for lights and fats. These prices were paid on Tuesday last in many instances.

EAST BUFFALO CATTLE MARKET.

East Buffalo, Jan. 19.—Cattle—Receipts, 300 head; fairly active and steady; prime steers, $5.75 to $6; shipping, $4.75 to $5.25; butchers', $4.25 to $5.10; heifers, $3.50 to $4.75; cows, $2.80 to $4.15; bulls, $2.50 to $4.25; stockers and feeders, $2.25 to $4.25.

Veals—Receipts, 150 head; active; $4.50 to $9.

Hogs—Receipts, 7000 head; fairly active; 5c to 10c lower; heavy and mixed, $4.75 to $4.80; yorkers, $4.50 to $4.75; pigs, $4.45 to $4.50; roughs, $3.90 to $4.10; stags, $2.75 to $3.25.

Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 6000 head; sheep, active and steady; lambs, slow; 10c to 15c lower; lambs, $6.50 to $7.60; yearlings, $6.50 to $7; wethers, $5.75 to $6; ewes, $5 to $5.50; sheep, mixed, $2.50 to $5.75.

NEW YORK LIVE STOCK.

New York, Jan. 19.—Beeves, Receipts, 222; nothing doing; feeling weak, except for strictly good beeves; exports to-day, 350 cattle; none to-morrow.

Calves—Receipts, 30; feeling steady; veals, $5 to $9.50; little calves, $4; barnyard calves, nominal.

Sheep and lambs—Receipts, 1940; sheep, quiet and steady; lambs, slow and easier, quality considered; sheep, $4 to $5.50; few choice $6; lambs, $7.25 to $8.

Hogs—Receipts, 7630; no sales; nominally steady.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

Chicago, Jan. 19.—Cattle—Receipts, 18,000; steady to 10c lower; good to prime steers, $5.70 to $6.25; poor to medium, $3.75 to $5.50; stockers and feeders, $2.25 to $4.25; cows and heifers, $1.25 to $5.10; canners, $1.25 to $4.45; bulls, $2.10 to $4.10; calves, $3 to $8.50.

Hogs—Receipts, 30,000; steady to 5c lower; mixed and butchers', $4.40 to $4.65; good to choice heavy, $4.60 to $4.70; rough heavy, $4.40 to $4.50; light, $4.35 to $4.55; bulk of sales, $4.45 to $4.57½.

Sheep—Receipts, 17,000; sheep, steady; lambs, 10c lower; good to choice wethers, $5 to $5.80; fair to choice mixed, $4 to $4.90; native lambs, $5.75 to $7.65.

Seven to One

That is about the ratio. About seven times as many persons are injured as die from all causes yearly.

Accidents are a more prolific cause of death than any disease except lung diseases.

Twice as many people are accidently killed as die of old age.
Does it not seem reasonable to you as a business man that it would be to your interest to carry an accident policy?

YOU are subject to over two hundred diseases, and liable to accidents without number.

Official figures prove that One Man in Five carrying an Accident and Sickness Policy makes a claim for indemnity each year.

YOU have no guarantee that you will not be the One Man who will be disabled this year.

PROPRIETOR

Killed By a Freight Train.

Ingersoll, Jan. 20.—Albert Roy Boxall, son of John Boxall, a farmer, residing between Putnam and Patton's siding, was found dead on the G.T.R., just east of the siding by the night operator, Mr. McGuire, Thursday night. It is supposed that the young man was struck by an eastbound freight train some time between 8 and 8.30 in the evening. He was a member of the section gang.

May Lose a Leg.

London, Jan. 20.—While assisting in unloading a large balance wheel at the old Grand Trunk round house yesterday morning, Wm. Johnson, who comes from Toronto, a Grand Trunk employe, met with an accident by which he will probably lose his right leg. Johnson was unloading the wheel, which became unbalanced and fell across his leg, badly breaking it.

Paying the Price.

Toronto, Jan. 20.—Albert Corbett, aged 16, to the Industrial School for three years; James Tracy, aged 19, to the Central Prison for 18 months, and John Riley, aged 18, to the Central for two years, were the sentences awarded yesterday by Judge Morgan. The trio are housebreakers.

Healthy and Vigorous

Mr. John Shelton, the well known bridge builder of 161 Sherwood St., Ottawa, states: "I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for kidney and liver derangements brought on by exposure, and find them better than any pill or medicine I ever used. They cleansed my system and made me feel healthy and vigorous, and better in every way."

Another Able and Forcible Letter From Prominent Liberal to Strike Death Blow at the Corruption, Deception and Maladministration of the Ross Government—Trenchant Reply to the Toronto Globe's Abuse and Invective—There Must be Liberty of Speech and Better Public Morality—Liberalism Under Ross No Longer Stands for Freedom of Thought and Action, But is "Second Family Compact."

Gentlemen,—An open letter to the Hon. G. W. Ross, in which I endeavored to present fairly the political condition of the Province, has not had any adequate reply.

If a Government is under the fire of criticism one of the tests of its fitness to be returned to office is its defence. If it has any defence the Government organs ought to be able to present it in a reasonable way. Of course, if there is no defence there will be a temptation to meet criticism with abuse.

While I am aware that the private affairs of an elector, who has had no active part in politics, are of little interest to the public, I think that the reply of the Government organs to my letter is of some importance. The more so, when the same method of reply is adopted with everyone who differs with the Government.

Reasons for not publishing the letter were given by The Globe after days of profound silence in a column editorial of great wrath. One reason assigned was "it had already been published in the evening newspapers." This was not true, as the letter was given to The Globe at 9 a.m., Dec. 19, in time for the evening edition, which the Editor boasts is as large as that of any other evening paper in Toronto.

Personal Attack.

The Globe editorial is a tirade of abuse. One would have thought that the Editor, if he had any defence for the Government, might have used his editorial space to better advantage. The Globe said: "What matter though, with E. King Dodds, he did campaign against temperance legislation in the interest of the liquor traffic?" In 1884, when I was a student, I delivered in my native county four addresses against the Scott Act. I believed the Act would delay better legislation, that it could not be enforced, and, if carried, would soon be repealed. I thought that it was a device to keep from the temperance people the legislation which they desired. The loaded referendum of a later day was a similar device. I stated my position clearly and everyone understood it. I was not retained by the liquor party, and did not campaign in their interests. A charge similar to The Globe's was made, some years ago, by a Conservative paper. The charge was withdrawn and an apology published. The Globe editor, annoyed that he had no defence, searched the past of twenty years ago to find something to injure my reputation.

The Globe also said that I was guilty of coquetting with both political parties before the last Provincial election, and that about the same time I expected a favor from Mr. Whitney. This statement is false. I asked nothing from Mr. Whitney, expected nothing, and would have accepted nothing. I was and have always been as free to criticise Mr. Whitney as Mr. Ross. I have been offered nominations by both parties, and I have always declined. Before the last Provincial election I did not seek a nomination, I did not desire one, and I would not have accepted one. I have never desired a nomination since.

The Globe insinuated that I was a disgruntled office seeker. This is untrue. I never had a personal grievance against the Ontario or Ottawa Governments, or any member of either Government. I never received a personal favor from either Government and was never refused one. The last communication I received from the Ottawa Government was a cordial letter requesting me to be a candidate in their interests.

The Globe also said, "His past is chequered." I graduated at Knox College sixteen years ago, when I was a young man, and I have been a minister, in good standing, of the Presbyterian Church ever since. No one has ever laid a charge against my character. The editor was aware of this when he wrote his editorial.

New Family Compact.

The failure of the Government to reply to charges made against it, and the campaign of abuse, in which many Government organs are engaged, because the Government has no defence, indicate the necessity for a change. But there is another matter for consideration. Not only by the Government has the Liberal party been disgraced, but by that combination of which the Government is the centre. There exists an organized tyranny, which has been developed by long office-holding. If any one opposes the new Family Compact, he is hurried to jail, if he can be charged with an offence, and, if not, his private life is assailed. Many men, fearing personal abuse, hesitate to oppose this evil. But the combination must be destroyed that there may be liberty of speech and a better public morality. The electors can do more than change the Government for, by doing that, they can destroy the tyrannical machine.

When Mr. S. H. Blake, one of the foremost citizens this country ever had, criticized the Government, what a whirlwind of abuse was about him! The name of Blake recalls the old days. Let Liberals compare the giants of the days of Baldwin and Lafontaine with the fellows who are masquerading as Liberals in our day. William Hume Blake, in days gone by, was the lion of the Reform party. He served the country in the days of the first Family Compact; we live in the days of the second. His son, Edward Blake, was Premier of Ontario. He would have become Premier of the Dominion had he not felt it his duty to enter upon another political struggle, in the land of his fathers. The Reform party has had no greater family than the Blakes. No family has given more ability, time and money to the service of the Liberal party and the country. The evils against which William Hume Blake fought long ago, like the lion that he was, were no greater than the abuses which his son, Mr. S. H. Blake, opposes now. Mr. S. H. Blake, eminent citizen and philanthropist of note, because he opposed corruption, is denounced by the friends of the Government, masquerading as Liberals, while the once great Liberal party, fallen upon evil days, is duped and disgraced.

Liberalism and Liberty.

If Liberalism stands for anything surely it is freedom of speech. "Liberty of speech," said James Otis, "is inalienable." Can it be that this is true of the United States, and that in Canada a Liberal dare not express his opinions? The Dominion Alliance complained because the Government broke its pledges. They were at once attacked. When a Liberal enters a protest against corruption, the servants of the machine, unable to make any adequate reply to charges established by the courts, heaps abuse upon him. They do not hesitate to attack men like Mr. Blake, Walter Mills and others who are prepared to suffer, if thereby they may serve their country.

The Globe on Corruption.

The strongest evidence against a man is his own admission. Is not the Government condemned out of its own mouth or by the chief organ which represents it? It is a whim of human nature that a man will severely criticize a friend and be very angry if another employ like criticism. When I reviewed the course of the Government, the Billingsgate vocabulary of The Globe was let loose upon me. All this time there was in the file of The Globe a condemnation of the "present distress" as severe as any published by me. How do we account for this phenomenon? There have been two occasions, and to the best of my knowledge only two, when, by some happy combination of circumstances, not only has the editor been free from the controlling hands of his directors, but there have recurred to him the conscientious scruples of former days. Even to The Globe there are vouchsafed a few rare moments of impartiality. I need not say that on these occasions The Globe is at its best. It is during these moments of independence and "vision" that it is reliable. On one of these rare occasions The Globe contained the editorial which follows. When I remember that it was during the present Administration that such a condition, as the editor describes, developed, and read The Globe's pitiless condemnation, I wonder why the organ is so angry with me:

"The canker of corruption has eaten too deeply into the heart of Canadian politics to have the malady cured by any judicial pronouncement, be it never so just, or by any enactments of Parliament, be they never so wisely framed. A boodler here or there might be discovered and punished, a grafter here and there might be cut off, one Government might be destroyed and another set up; but all that would touch only the surface corruptions of the disease, it would heal but slightly the hurt of the body politic. The poison is in the blood, the heart beats falsely, and no remedy will avail that does not strike down to the springs of our political thought and activity with a power that recreates and makes clean.

"The curse of politics in every Legislature from Halifax to Victoria, and in the Senate and House of Commons at Ottawa, is the notion that political conduct has no relation to the Ten Commandments, that party expediency is the first law of politics, that being found out is the only political crime. That notion is the political creed of those who aver that they are not in politics for their health, of those who affect to sneer at Sunday school politics, and of those who defend vilest political crimes with the devil's argument that elections are not won by prayer. That doctrine is the 'facilis descensus Averni' of Canadian politics. It has damaged beyond repair more than one Government, and is the almost incurable malady of both political parties. The present distress in the Ontario Legislature, the uncertainty of the Government's life and the derelict helplessness of the Opposition, is not the result of accident or of blind, reasonless fate; it is the Nemesis of political crime, the inevitable outcome of the defying and outraging of moral law for the sake of party gain. From the days of Simcoe's first Parliament until now there have been among us, in both political parties, forces making steadily for political unrighteousness and something of their issue in humiliation and loss has come upon this generation. And to the heritage of the past we have added our own quota of easy political virtue and lust for political power. We may not be in a worse plight than our fathers, but the burden is well nigh intolerable, and unless lifted will crush as a millstone the life of our nation."

Telling Censures.

This is the language of The Globe when at its best. "The poison is in the blood, the heart beats falsely, and no remedy will avail that does not strike down to the springs of our political thought and activity with a power that recreates and makes clean." A deplorable condition! If I had used such language, "a chequered past" would have been complimentary to the language The Globe would have used. If the description of the "present distress is correct, what is the remedy? The only remedy is the defeat of the Government under which the "present distress" has developed.

The Globe is emphatic. It declares that the Liberal party has an almost incurable malady. It states that the "present distress" is not the result of accident or of blind, reasonless fate. Quite true! Corrupt methods had something to do with it; the failure to punish culprits named by the judges, Captain Sullivan's timber limits and many other incidents which do no honor to the Government are closely related to the "present distress." What does The Globe mean by its reference to "lust for political power?" Is not the lust for political power of the Ross Government, which desperately clings to office, largely the cause of the "present distress?"

So seldom is The Globe in this rare mood it will be well to examine again the closing sentence. "We may not be in a worse plight than our fathers, but the burden is well nigh intolerable and unless lifted will crush as a millstone the life of our nation." The diagnosis of The Globe is good, but no remedy is offered. It is unnecessary to suggest one. There is, for such a disease only one remedy known to the student of politics and that is change of Government.

More Condemnation.

On Monday, November 19th, 1903, The Globe published an editorial. Another rare moment of "vision" had arrived. Whether the Sabbath exercises had exerted a beneficent influence upon the editor and his directors has never been disclosed. However that may be, I ask the electors to read some of the statements made in The Globe editorial. I cannot quote all the paragraphs because the pressure of matter requires that "preference be given to those that make their points without any unnecessary waste of space."

"The condition of the Conservative party is not the first concern of Ontario Liberals, nor is their first duty the reform of the Opposition in the Legislature. There is a mote in our own eye which must be taken out if they would judge justly the quality of their opponents, or see clearly the way in which they themselves should walk, and the public service they are in duty bound to render." . . . . .

"The present distress has not come by accident or chance, or as the result of a change of Government policy, and not at all because of any growth of power or prestige in the Opposition. It has come through the cooling enthusiasm and the slackening effort of not a few Liberals. And the secret of it all is in the discredited election methods sometimes resorted to, and the activity of political parasites who make party service a means of private gain. Because of electoral corruption here and the prominence of party healers there, Ontario Liberalism has lost something of its old-time self-respect, and its note of confident and public spirited enthusiasm has lost something of strength and resonance."

"What, then is the first duty of Ontario Liberals? To let things drift? That is the policy of weakness and folly. . . . . A negative attitude and an uncertain control would but give opportunity to corporate and capitalistic plunderers to feed fat on the public domain. And from the party point of view to drift would be the part of fools, for the reckoning day would come, a day of swift and certain judgment."

Surely never came to any one a clearer prophetic vision. The editor is enraged because it is now claimed that his prophecy has been fulfilled. The Government has "drifted." There has been a policy of "weakness and folly." Surely their attitude has been "negative." Can any doubt that they have had "uncertain control?" "To drift would be the part of fools." Many have thought so, but hesitated to use the rather indelicate language of the editor. "The reckoning day, a day of swift and certain judgment!" Can any doubt that, in the spirit of that Sabbath vision of November 18, 1903, the prophetic editor saw January 25, 1905, as the "day of swift and certain judgment."

The editorial so true, so suggestive of the necessity for a change of Government, so clear in its portrayal of the "swift and certain judgment" continues: "There is but one thing open to the Liberals of Ontario, and that thing is their first and most pressing duty. The barnacles on the ship must be treated with an iron hand. The interests of the Liberal party are superior to those of any individual, and the interests of the Province are superior over all."

Since the writing of the Barnacle Editorial, I have not heard that any of those rare and inspiring moments of vision have come to The Globe, but let us hope for the best. The "present distress" began and continued under the present administration. The logical conclusion is, that we cannot have a change of Government too soon.

The Coalition.

Many independent Liberals, while unable to support the Ross Government, are asking if Mr. Whitney could form a sufficiently strong Government. Of late The Globe has been charging with incapacity, not only the Opposition, but everyone who opposes the Ross Government. If the Government and The Globe believe the Ross Government incapable why was coalition proposed? The offer of coalition is a guarantee to the people by the Government and Globe that Mr. Whitney and a number of his associates are qualified for Cabinet positions. It is now too late for The Globe to declare they are incapables. Mr. Whitney declared repeatedly that coalition was proposed to him. The offer was made, he said, on three occasions. It was made by a Cabinet Minister. After a long silence Mr. Ross discussed the subject in a characteristic way. As usual he dodged the issue. He did not deny that the offer was made, but he said it was not made in a certain way.

Whatever the members of the Government may say about coalition, there can be no doubt as to the attitude of the Government organ. The Globe discussed coalition on September 11, 1902; also on September 17, 1902. The Globe said: "If the country gives a decisive majority to Liberals or to Conservatives, there will be party Government. If it refuses to do that, some other plan must be devised. There is no use in saying 'England does not love coalitions,' if the people, by their votes, render any other kind of Government impossible. When the Legislature meets, this question ought to be frankly discussed."

In its second editorial, The Globe said: "Without, therefore, conceding that party Government in Ontario is at an end, we certainly think that there are strong arguments for suspending it until some definite issue arises, or until the people are prepared to give confidence without reserve to one party or the other. We have no belief whatever in coalitions entered into for the sake of dividing offices or on the principle that half the loaf is better than none. The sole question to be considered is that of honest, steady and efficient Government for the Province of Ontario. . . It is, we say, upon Provincial issues that Ontario parties should be formed, and no doubt, in order to reach that condition, a fusion of the existing parties, with an equal representation of each in the Government would be necessary. . . Such an arrangement would involve no humiliation to Mr. Ross or Mr. Whitney, would give each party an equal voice in determining Provincial policy for the present, would put the strongest men of each party at the head of affairs, and would insure the existence of a Government strong enough to give the Province aggressive administration."

After such a guarantee of character and ability to Mr. Whitney and the leaders of the Opposition by the Government organ, it is too late in the day for the Government and The Globe to declare that the Opposition is not capable of governing this Province.

Corrupt Governments are retained in power by the unwavering partisan. The present Government would not have been so brazen and fallen into such evil ways had it not known that it could rely on the partisan who boasts that he always votes for his party. No party is always right or always wrong. An elector can be of service to his party and influence it for good by letting it be known that he has sufficient independence to oppose it. What influence for good has the elector who, while he sometimes complains and deplores, always votes for his party? The useful citizen is the man who can vote against his party. For the independent elector to assert his power in this crisis may mean success to Mr. Whitney, but far more, victory for independence. It will prove that no longer can a Government offend against public morality and rely upon the army of partisans to line up and rescue it in the hour of danger. As an object lesson in public morality it will be worth countless sermons or editorials.

The Independents.

There have been few occasions which appealed so strongly to the independent elector as the present. The Government has been a transgressor. There is a great moral issue before the people. Now, if ever, must individual responsibility be recognized. Everyone must be true to himself. For one to say that, as he has always voted Liberal, he must not change now, is that folly upon which corrupt Governments rely. The present Government is Liberal in name alone; it has trampled upon the most cherished principles of Liberalism. Every Liberal may truthfully say that he was never so consistent as when he opposed the Ross Administration.

What hope can exist that the Ross Government will remove the "present distress?" It was by that Government that it came. There is no hope that Mr. Ross will have sufficient support to give us stable Government. He is appealing to the people on account of necessity; he could not control the Legislature. That is the real reason for dissolution. The electors declined in 1898, 1902 and in the bye-elections to give him a working majority. On account of recent revelations he is less likely than ever before to gain a working majority. If he should again by any chance have a narrow majority, can we hope for anything better than the desperate struggle for political power which has well nigh paralyzed political virtue? Would such a state of affairs be good for either the Liberal party or the Province? Ontario has suffered, in the eyes of the world, enough humiliation in the effort to retain in power the Ross Government. The attempt at coalition has done no more than furnish, at the hands of The Globe and the Government, a guarantee of ability to Mr. Whitney and his friends. The Liberals have been in power for thirty-three years; surely that is long enough.

Would not a term in Opposition be good for the Liberal party as well as the Province? Let us appeal to history. Baldwin and Lafontaine lacked the "lust for power" of the present Government. When they might have remained in power they resigned rather than sacrifice the principle of reasonable Government. Neither they nor their party lost by their action, for after a short interval they went back to power to form the Great Ministry.

In 1896, thousands of Conservatives rose above partyism and helped to defeat the Government which had been in power so long. Are Liberals less independent and patriotic? Can they do better than follow this example, vote for a change of Government, hold the new Government to a strict account and defeat it, at the end of four years, should it be unworthy the confidence of the people.

Yours sincerely,

DONALD C. HOSSACK.

A Church to Go.

The progress of the Strand Improvement Scheme will shortly sweep away the old Sardinian Chapel which for over 200 years has been a landmark in the neighborhood. It was attacked by Lord George Gordon, and demolished during the famous Riots, but was subsequently renovated. A new Roman Catholic church will be built in the neighborhood.

DEATH IN NORWOOD

Wm. Baskon Succumbs to Blood Poisoning —Other Items of Interest.

On Tuesday morning the citizens of the village were much shocked and grieved to hear of the death of one of our young men.

It appears that at the fire at Mr. Kirkpatrick's house last Tuesday morning, Mr. Wm. Baskin, jr., received a scratch on the hand, which latter developed into blood poisoning and resulted in his death, through heart failure, on Tuesday morning, of this week.

Deceased, who was 24 years of age, was a son of Mr. John Baskin, and leaves a young widow to mourn his loss.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the stricken wife and relatives in their bereavement.

The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon, service being held at the Church of England, from whence the remains were conveyed to the Norwood Cemetery for interment. Mr. Baskin was a member of the local lodge of Foresters.

Mrs. M. B. Callander's chorus class will hold a grand concert on Friday evening, Jan. 27th, in the town hall. The management have procured the services of Mrs. W. J. Morrow, of Peterborough and other singers of note, and are promising a rare treat.

To the Electors

GENTLEMAN:

I am before you as a Candidate. I am Liberal Conservative. I stand for the principles of Clean Government, Honest Administration, Decent Methods and Fair Dealing between man and man.

I appeal to you to do what is fair and right. If you think that my fifty years of life among you as boy, youth and man has placed me where I deserve your respect as a fellow citizen, then vote for me.

If you think that my past life has been an honorable one, then take your belief that my future, as your representative, will do you credit in your selection.

You know the record to the Ross Government. It is so written on the walls all over the province. It is a questionable record. If you want that sort of thing continued, your vote against me will help to fasten it on the country. If you want a change, give me your personal assistance by your vote and influence.

I may not see you all, personally, before polling day. I earnestly entreat you to do what you can. It is the first time I have asked your assistance. Are you going to deny it?

Yours faithfully,

PROPOSITION OF NEW INDUSTRY

Build and Equip Factory Worth $100,000

TO MAKE BREAKFAST FOODS

Will Buy Site at Nominal Figure and Want Fixed Assessment—Property on Water Front Available—Will Employ 30 Hands at First—Number to be Increased.

The Town Council, it seems, will very shortly be called upon to consider an important proposition with regard to the location of a new industry here. In fact, the matter has already been before the Committee of the Whole, and, it is understood, that another meeting is to be held on Tuesday next.

Mr. W. H. Meldrum, who is familiar with the proposition, stated to-day that the new Company has in view the manufacture of all kinds of cereal and breakfast foods, shredded fruits and vegetables. Mr. Wesley H. Collier is the gentleman who is looking after the project here, and has made the necessary application before the Manufacturers' Committee, and also the Committee of the Whole. He asks for a fixed assessment on the property of the company, who will purchase at a nominal figure the land lying immediately east of the Otonabee Power Company's property on Simcoe-st., consisting of what is little more than a mud hole at present—about half an acre of land covered with water. The Company would utilise the buildings recently erected by Mr. Meldrum, the machinery being adapted to certain branches of cereal manufacture. It is understood that Mr. Meldrum has given an option on the property. Mr. Collier states that during the next two years they will put up buildings and install machinery to the value of $100,00, and that they will start with 30 hands. This staff, it is claimed, would in three or four years be increased to over one hundred.

The gentlemen who are interested in the establishment of the new industry here have been identified with the flourishing concern in Kingston, the manufacturers of that well known breakfast food, Orange Meat. A few years ago they started with 20 hands, and to-day they number over one hundred. The new concern were inclined to consider Peterborough more favorably because of the fact that the Meldrum buildings and machinery will be almost immediately available, there having been about $12,000 recently expended here.

Mr. Collier left for Kingston to-day. He has an arrangement with Mr. Bordean, the inventor of the machinery for the manufacture of cereals, whereby that gentleman's experience would be acquired for the industry here. The shredding of vegetables and fruit is a new process, which, however, in experiments that have been conducted, gave eminent satisfaction.

It is understood that the Company recently received an offer of free site and free taxes from another town.

MUCH TROUBLE IN THE 'BURG

Capital of Russia Looks Like a Beleaguered City.

150,000 WORKMEN ON STRIKE

Movement is Spreading—Government Will be Compelled to Yield to the Demand of the Strikers—Military Everywhere.

Special to The Review.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 21—St. Petersburg this morning presented the appearance of a beleaguered city. The military are in complete possession.

The streets are lined with troops, galloping squadrons are seen everywhere, gendarmes are concentrated in all the court yards, and the closed factories and mills are surrounded by cordons of police and Cossacks.

On every bulletin board is posted the Government's proclamation, warning the people against assembling.

There is no material change in the strike situation. The movement continues to spread in all directions, and it is estimated that fully 150,000 workmen have now quit work in the various towns.

The opinion is rapidly growing that the Government will be compelled to concede to the demands of the strikers.

OPEN MEETING CHOSEN FRIENDS

An Address by Organizer Shibley, of Napanee.

NEW OFFICERS INSTALLED.

Order Has Been in Existence for Seventeen Years and Has Gone Forward—Grand Officers Are Coming.

For those who attended the open meeting held last night under the auspices of the Peterborough Council, No. 423, Canadian Order of Chosen Friends, there was not a little disappointment. It had been expected that J. H. Bell, M.D., Grand Councillor, Kingston, would be present, but word was received that on account of illness he could not attend. W. F. McCammon, Past Grand Councillor, Belleville, was also to have been present, but a previous engagement prevented him. An attempt to secure other Grand Council officers, on short notice, for last night's meeting, did not prove successful. There was, however, a fair attendance, an enjoyable programme was run off, and an address by Mr. George W. Shibley, Organizer, Napanee, was appreciated. Mr. R. B. McGill, Past Councillor, was in the chair. A cornet solo by Mr. J. C. Miller, with piano accompaniment by Miss Winnie Anderson, was received with hearty applause.

In his speech Mr. Shibley took for his text, the Chosen Friends, who they are and where they come from. Some years ago, he said, the city of Hamilton was the birth-place of a conviction that the rates for life insurance there were too high. It was a manufacturing city, and the laboring classes could not pay them. Eleven prominent men eventually started a Chosen Friends Lodge, on an idea engendered by experience in the United States. This lodge was supposed to stay in Hamilton, but it oozed out to Dundas, and there the first Grand Council met. The Chosen Friends have existed for seventeen years, and at the last Grand Council held in Toronto there were 600 delegates present. The insurance in the Order came within the reach of all, and the speaker elucidated the table of rates for insurance and sick benefits. A young man was made independent, he said, by the investment of 60 or 75 cents a month in the Friends. The business man never questioned this fact, but knew where value was obtained for money paid. Mr. Shibley said he did not claim that this was better than any other Society, but he held that it was superior to a straight line Society. It was possible to go back 550 years in the Old Country and point to the beginning of such Societies as the Chosen Friends who had millions of dollars behind them to-day. With regard to the running expenses, he said every member contributed $1.00 a year to the Grand Council for that purpose; there had been saved out of that to date $11,000. He asked for still greater effort on behalf of the progress of Peterborough Council.

Mr. Shibley has travelled extensively in the Holy Land, and he promised that before leaving Peterborough he would tell them of his almost two years' experience there.

Mr. McGill, in a short speech, pointed out that there were 150 members in the Council here, and that an evidence of the strength of the Order was the fact that there are 17 locals in the City of Toronto alone.

The programme of music was now continued, and those who contributed were little Irene Shibley, in a pleasing vocal solo; Mr. J. C. Miller, in a song, which was very well received, and Mr. Will Dundas, in a well executed banjo solo, in which he received an encore.

Mr. Shibley installed the officers, who were elected some weeks ago. The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

It is expected that the Grand Lodge officers will be present at a meeting on the evening of Friday, February 3rd.

Following are the officers for 1905:—

P. Councillor—W. Brown.
Chief Councillor—M. A. Anderson.
Vice-Councillor—E. G. Clarke.

After Ten Years.

Mr. G. L. Stephenson, of Peterborough, says: "For over ten years I suffered constantly with Piles, first Itching, then Bleeding; pain almost unbearable; life a burden. Tried everything in vain till I used Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid.

"I had taken but a few doses when I began to notice an improvement. I decided to keep on, and now after using three boxes I am glad to say I am completely cured. My general health has also greatly improved. It gives me great pleasure to recommend Hem-Roid to all sufferers with Piles, and I feel convinced that what it has done for me it will surely do for them."

A $1,000 guarantee goes with every box of Hem-Roid. Price, $1.00, all Druggists, or The Wilson-Fyle Co., Limited, Niagara Falls, Ont. 9

BRIEF NEWS NOTES.

What is Taking Place in Peterborough and its Vicinity.

—Paterson's Baby Sodas are as short as pie crust.

—Social song service in the Y.M.C.A. parlor on Sunday evening at 8.30.

—The town fire engine is back at the station again, after a repairing at Wm. Hamilton's foundry.

—Mr. Stanley Fife gave a very interesting talk on "Traps" at the boys' meeting, Y.M.C.A. yesterday.

—An offertory for missions will be taken up in St. Andrew's church tomorrow.

—Special features at popular Men's meeting on Sunday. "The 20th Century Man," by Mr. F. K. Holmes.

—Mr. Bradburn and Mr. Dennistoun will address another meeting in the town hall, Ennismore, on Tuesday evening.

—There was a very large market this morning. The prices were about the same. There was an abundance of beef and pork, as well as poultry.

—Mr. J. H. Burnham will address a meeting at Havelock on Monday night in the interest of Mr. Moore, Conservative candidate. Mr. R. M. Dennistoun will speak at Keene.

—Turn out to-night and go to Mr. Bradburn's committee rooms. All the workers will be there and reports are expected from the different committees.

—Court Peterborough C. O. F., are arranging a date for their annual carnival in the Brock-st. rink. It would be well for those who intend to take part to prepare their costumes and be in readiness for this great event.

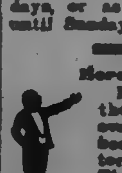
—While returning to work at the Weston Shoe Factory, Campbellford, on Wednesday of last week, a young man named Thomas Campbell fell on the sidewalk in front of W. J. Armstrong's store, striking his temple against a post, rendering him unconscious for some time. A number of the boys got a little gamesome and Campbell was running when he fell.

—The choir of St. Andrew's church have completed arrangements to celebrate the anniversary of Burns' Birth on Friday evening next by a concert in the school room. Miss Elspeth MacDonald, the noted Scotch reader, from Toronto, will assist, while the friends of Miss Florence Miller will have the pleasure of hearing her before her departure for New York City.

—Roy Sanders, of South Monaghan, was taken to Toronto by Chief Ross, of Cobourg, and handed over to Superintendent Kelso of the Children's Aid Society. It appears that Roy's home training was not of the best, and he forgot or didn't know it was wrong to steal. He was brought before a magistrate for his offence, who thought the best thing was to hand him over to the Children's Aid Society of Cobourg, by whom he was sent to Toronto, and who will look after him in the future.

—A large number of the merchants of Belleville have decided to close their places of business at nine o'clock, sharp, on Saturday nights during the months of January, February and March. There is no reason why a similar course should not be adopted by the merchants of this and other places. It is an unreasonable thing to keep places of business open until midnight on Saturdays, or as is sometimes the case, until Sunday morning.

Here's Your Chance.



Money is wanted. That's the reason I am offering everything in the line of boots and shoes for winter wear at a big discount. JOHN KYLIE, 1[illegible] Hunter street.

REASON No 7
WHY YOU SHOULD USE
Red Rose Tea

Because it is put up in sealed packages.

These packages protect the flavor of the tea and protect you in weight and guarantee of quality.

No article of food is so easily tainted as tea—it absorbs the flavor of everything it comes in contact with. Place an orange beside some tea for an hour, and then taste or smell the tea—orange too.

Very few tea bins are tight enough to prevent tea from absorbing the odors of fruit, vegetables, cheese, etc., etc., usually mixed together in a grocery—and the ordinary tea chest is very little protection.

The Red Rose Tea sealed lead package preserves all the original flavor and freshness of the tea—open a package and smell its fresh fragrant aroma.

Packages of Red Rose Tea are always full weight and uniform in quality.

The Daily Review

SATURDAY, JAN. 21, 1905.

CAMPAIGN ECHOES.

Bradburn and Moore.

Work! Work!! ork!!!!

Don't "vote for my son."

Three days more only of Rossism.

Whitney will win; mark that down.

No time to talk now. Get after the votes.

We must choke bribery, or be choked."—Principal Grant.

Bradburn is the man
On the 25th of Jan.

Who is the real candidate in this campaign—B. F. or J. B.?

That "Hot Scotch" charge is turning out to be something of a boomerang.

That Whitney meeting was a bummer. So will be his victory on Wednesday next.

Mr. McWilliams is now soliloquising like Mr. G. W. Ross. "Give me office or I die."

McWilliamsism won't flourish so bloomingly under the Whitney Government.

"Remember Ross" on Wednesday, his broken promises and record of corruption.

Yes, Roland; you will find next week that the Town Council was quite large enough for you.

Whitney will be Premier of Ontario after the 25th. Peterborough wants two members to support him. Vote for Bradburn and Moore.

McWilliamsism, like Rossism, is not Liberalism—in fact McWilliamsism in the late Federal election was any kind of an ism looking for support.

When Mr. McWilliams could not get the party nomination last spring he left the Liberal structure soon after, and did his best, out of pure gratitude, of course, to kick down the shanty.

The Province will be free on Wednesday and the man who stands for a clean ballot and an honest count will for the next term guide the affairs of this Province.

"Mr." J. A. Macdonald, editor of the Globe will speak here on Monday night. Why has he dropped the "reverend?" Surely the Grit machine did not steal it from him.

Thirty-two years in office and expended $123,000,000 with the alleged virtue of not stealing a dollar, and yet could not run an honest by-election during the last three years to save its life. Down with Rossism.

Mr. McWilliams was willing to knife his own party—to cut loose from them altogether—in the Federal election, just for the sake of securing honor, and now he expects the true and tried Liberals to support him.

When Hon. J. M. Gibson proposed coalition to Mr. Whitney and promised that the latter should be Premier in a year, the then Attorney-General evidently foresaw the finish of Premier Ross, when he next appealed to the country.

If Mr. McWilliams, as an official of the Ross Government, had to do one-tenth the amount of work in his official capacity that he is now doing politically to boom his son, he would would be demanding a salary greater than that of the Lieutenant-Governor.

Fred Dey, of Ottawa, a Liberal of 21 years standing, is out against the Ross Government. "The position Premier Ross stands in," said Mr. Dey, "is that to Liberals he is a statesman, but to honest men he is dishonest. As a Liberal I am ashamed of Premier Ross. I can't swallow the pill."

Mr. R. C. Clute, K.C., who speaks here Monday night is heralded as being specially well informed on labor legislation and will say what the Government has done for the working man. Will he kindly state how many thousands he has received from the Government and at what price per day he labored for his masters?

And so Mr. George W. Ross does not deny having taken a drink. Well! he and his party would perhaps never heard anything about it if they had not made such a hub-bub out of the Whitney Hot Scotch incident at Napanee. And worst of all, the Premier has heretofore always been regarded as a total abstainer. "Chickens generally come home to roost."

Liberal journals were very eager to accept the forecast of the Toronto News last fall, relative to a victory for Laurier—a prediction which proved to be not far astray. Now the News as a result of accurate information received from every constituency, places the Conservative majority in the province at 18. Rossism is at an end on Wednesday next.

Hon G. W. Ross, when in Belleville, alleged that he, personally, had done a whole lot to punish people guilty of political corruption. But the Hon. G. W. did not tell his audience that in October, 1883, he, Geo. W. Ross, now leader of the Ontario Government, had been himself unseated for bribery and corruption. Did he take any steps to punish the people who were instrumental in bringing about, by unfair means, his election at that time? We doubt it.—Belleville Intelligencer.

A by-law fathered by Coun. McGuire, to regulate the sale of milk, has been passed by the Cornwall town council. It provides that every vendor of milk must take out a license; furnish certain prescribed information as to the manner in which his business is conducted; must notify the clerk if any contagious disease exists among his cattle, or in his family, or any premises from which he secures milk; no milk shall be sold as first-class testing under 3.3 per cent. of butter fat; adulterated or unwholesome milk shall not be sold; but skim milk may be sold if kept in a can specially labelled; all premises where cows are kept must be open for inspection by the chief of police; milk shall not be kept where liable to be contaminated by foul odors. Milk found unwholesome or not fit for human food is to be destroyed. The annual license fee is $1.00; and any person selling milk from two or more cows to be considered a milk vendor.

A WORD TO HONEST MEN

This journal, in common with many others, is read by many men who may have voted Liberal in politics all their lives. It is to these men that we appeal on the eve of an election that means so much to the fair name of our Province.

The Liberal party leaders, by their participation in the carnival of political corruption that has disgraced Ontario for several years past, have forfeited all claim upon the confidence and support of honest Liberals. The honest Liberal, therefore, owes his party no loyalty under such circumstances.

No Liberal need necessarily become a Conservative by voting against the Ross Government on Wednesday next. He can still remain a Liberal, and the best kind of a Liberal—an honest and conscientious one, who owns his own political soul and vote, and who refuses to be dragged down in the mire by corrupt and unscrupulous leaders of his own party.

The honest Liberal, with the ballot before him on Wednesday next, will place his country above and beyond party, and will record his vote against a Government that for years past has retained office only by bribery and ballot-box frauds that have brought the blush of shame to the cheeks of all self-respecting Canadians.

A WORKING MAJORITY FOR WHITNEY.

It cannot be reasonably argued that any government can administer the affairs of Ontario satisfactorily with two or three of a majority in the Legislature. For five or six years the Liberal Government, in the expressive phrase of the Rev. D. C. Hossack, has lived by its wits. The trickery, personation, ballot-stuffing, subornation of perjury, and bold violation of the letter and spirit of the constitution which have so besmirched the good name of the Province in recent years may all be traced to the Government's desperate struggle to maintain office in defiance of the manifest will of the people. It has been established by the Courts that the Government held power during the last session with a majority which was obtained by corruption. The session was called for the very day on which one of the election cases should have come to trial, and after a persistent and determined appeal to Conservative counsel to saw-off the Sault protest, and thus avert enquiry into the methods by which that constituency was carried. Two of the Government's majority of three were finally interested in the Sault legislation, and the third represented the constituency in which the Sault works were situated, and in his election received powerful assistance from high officials of the company.

As the country cannot stand that sort of a Government it becomes most important that Mr. Whitney's victory should be a decisive one, so that he can form a Cabinet out of the best material at his command, and that the Province may again enjoy stable and responsible government.

THE VITAL QUESTION.

Premier Ross complains that his opponents persist in talking about elections, instead of what his government has done for the butter and cheese industry, pulpwood, beet sugar, technical education, the establishment of Empire Day, and grants of land to veterans. We do not belittle these things, nor education, nor the institution for the care of the afflicted, in the management of which the government takes pride. But under this government in recent years there has been persistent tampering with the basis of all these things, the very foundation of free institutions. While these foundations are in danger, we decline to be diverted into gazing into the superstructure, however pleasing and imposing. The freedom and purity of elections must be insured; the ballot box must be protected; the will of the people must be obeyed; justice must be administered without party bias, and all made equal before the law; and the pledged word of public men must be kept in good faith. If these, the very foundations of social order, are undermined, whatever is built upon them is in danger of falling.

When these are made safe by turning out of power the Government under whose wing all trouble has arisen it will be time enough to take up the other less important, but nevertheless important, matters.

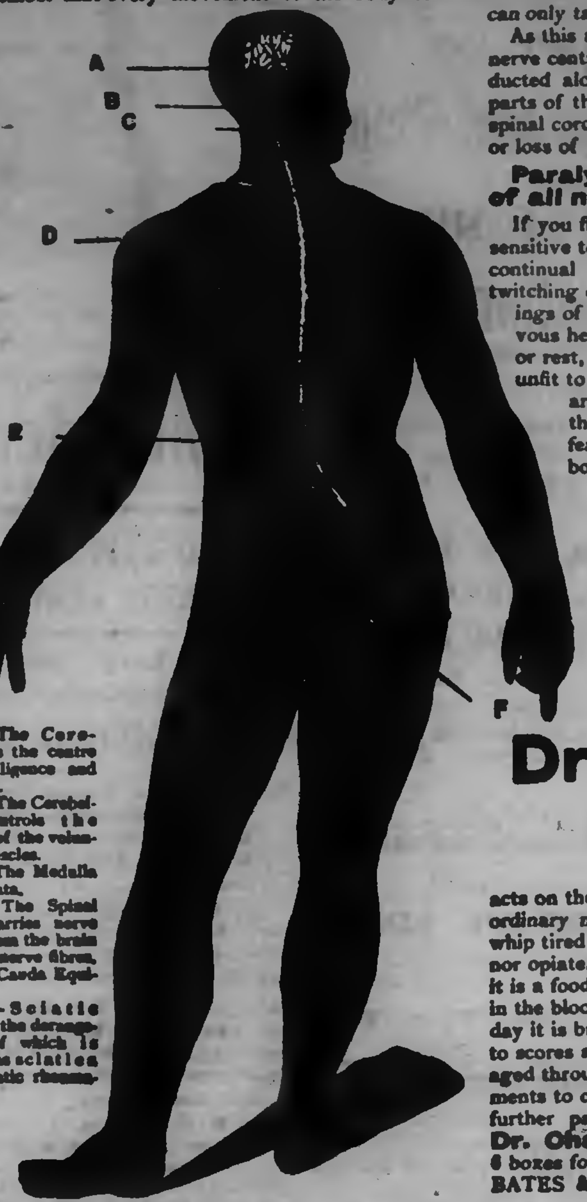
"JUST AS BAD."

Goldwin Smith in The Weekly Sun: Charged by their enemies with corruption, the Liberals of the Province retort that the Conservatives in power were just as bad. More than a generation has passed since the Conservatives were in power in this Province, and nearly all of them have gone to their long rest, while the Liberals are alive and up for judgment. But the Bystander cannot help saying a word for the memory of old Sandfield Macdonald. Sandfield was no pretender to austere purity; he rather affected the reverse, and was, as they say, a hypocrite on the devil's side. At bottom, however, he was a thoroughly honest servant of the public and a faithful defender of the public chest. When he fell, he was followed by a line of financiers who year after year produced a gratifying surplus by carrying to the account of income what rather belonged to the account of capital, until at last they encountered stern reality, and to meet the deficit were driven to resort to confiscation.

Paralysis and Locomotor Ataxia

The most dreaded results of neglected nervous diseases—Study this chart and the symptoms stated here to learn if you are in danger—DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD will cure you.

To understand paralysis and locomotor ataxia, which is paralysis of the limbs, and their causes, it is well to remember that every movement of the body or its members is due to the contraction of muscle, which can only take place under the influence of nerve force.



A.—The Cerebrum is the centre of intelligence and thought.
B.—The Cerebellum controls the action of the voluntary muscles.
C.—The Medulla Oblongata.
D.—The Spinal Cord carries nerve force from the brain to the nerve fibres.
E.—Cauda Equina.
F.—Sciatic Nerve, the derangement of which is known as sciatica and sciatic rheumatism.

As this all-important nerve force is created in the nerve centres of the brain and spinal cord, and conducted along wirelike nerve fibres to the various parts of the body, any derangement of the brain, spinal cord, or nerve fibres may result in paralysis or loss of the power of movement.

Paralysis, then, is the natural result of all neglected nervous diseases.

If you find yourself nervous and irritable, oversensitive to light, sound and motion, addicted to continual movement or tapping of the fingers, twitching of the muscles, sudden startings and jerkings of the limbs during sleep; if you have nervous headaches or dyspepsia, are unable to sleep or rest, feel down-hearted and discouraged, and unfit to fight the battles of life; if your nerves are weak and exhausted, and your blood thin and watery, you have every reason to fear paralysis of at least some part of the body, and consequent suffering and helplessness.

Paralysis can always be prevented and partial paralysis actually cured by the timely use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. The time to begin treatment is when any of the above-mentioned symptons become apparent. These are indications of a degeneration of the nerve cells, and when nerve force becomes exhausted paralysis is bound to follow.

acts on the system in an entirely different way to ordinary medicines. It is neither a stimulant to whip tired nerves to renewed activity, nor a narcotic, nor opiate, to deaden the nerves. On the contrary, it is a food cure, which forms new, red corpuscles in the blood, and creates new nerve cells. Every day it is bringing back health, strength and vitality to scores and hundreds who have become discouraged through the failure of doctors and other treatments to cure them. Write for symptom blank and further particulars regarding this great food cure, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50. At all dealers, or EDMANSON, BATES & CO., Toronto.

PUNISHING THE WRONG-DOERS

The principle argument of the Globe and the Hon. G. W. Ross and those who with him are pleading for the re-election of his supporters on the 25th January is that Mr. Whitney and his supporters are inexperienced men in whose hands it would not be safe to entrust the affairs of the Province.

The Hon. S. H. Blake, in his letter to the South Perth Conservative Association, smashes this special pleading in a sentance when he says:—

> "At the present juncture it is not a question of how much better may be the men that we wish introduced into the public arena for the governing of our land, but it is a question of punishing those who have been tested and tried and found deliberately at work debauching and degrading our land."

The truth is, the Hon. G. W. Ross and his associates have been weighed in the balance and found wanting. The only way in which the country can vindicate its reputation and assert an undying hatred of such electoral villainies as have disgraced the Province for the past few years is to vote for Whitney and Whitney's candidates, Messrs. Bradburn and Moore.

PREMIER'S UNTRUTHS.

At Guelph, Mr. Ross said that Mr. Carscallen, of Lennox, was unseated for bribery. Mr. Carscallen was not unseated for anything. At Brampton Mr. Ross said that no Deputy Returning Officer under the Government had ever switched ballots. The Court of Appeal of Ontario gave judgment in the Waterloo case and said that Deputy Returning Officer Cummings had "switched" ballots. At Napanee, Mr. Ross said that no Liberal Deputy Returning Officer had ever tampered with ballots. The judges of the Ontario Court of Appeal in the Waterloo case reported that John H. Wildfong had fraudulently defaced and injured sixteen ballots at polling subdivision No. 1, Berlin.

At Napanee Mr. Ross intimated that not a single ballot box had ever been stuffed by a Deputy Returning Officer. In the West Elgin case it was proved that Mr. Duncan Bole had taken out of the box 42 Conservative ballots and substituted therefor Liberal ballots.

At Napanee, Mr. Ross, talking of the Minnie M., said that the Conservatives had a similar expanditure on the Rooth. Mr. Ross knew he was quibbling when he said that.

Twenty Years of Piles

"I suffered from itching piles for twenty years and cannot imagine any greater distress. Dr. Chase's Ointment gave me relief from the first application, and has now entirely freed me of this horrible disease."—Mr. S. J. McLaren, Farmer and Contractor, Tiverton, Ont. 7

DEATH'S SEVERE BLOW.

The Belleville Intelligencer contains the following reference to the death of Mrs. Wilson:—

Mrs. (Rev.) J. P. Wilson, wife of the pastor of Bridge-st. Methodist church, and President of the Bay of Quinte Conference, passed peacefully away last evening at the parsonage on Bridge-st. Deceased, who was the third daughter of the late Mr. A. L. Roberts, was born in the township of Tyendinaga. In August, 1880, she was married to the Rev. Mr. Wilson, when he was stationed at Picton. She had since that time always taken a deep interest in church work. In April last she was taken ill, and has since been a sufferer, but bore her affliction with true Christian fortitude. Her demise is not only a severe blow to the bereaved husband and members of the family, but to the church with which she was identified. In addition to the husband, one son, Dr. Cameron Wilson, and two daughters, Misses Janet and Mary, survive.

Mr. A. A. Roberts, of this city, is a brother of the deceased, and two other brothers, A. W., of Shelbourne, and W. L., of Orange Hall, and three sisters, Mrs. John Palmer, of Shelbourne, Mrs. D. W. Houston, of Troy, N.Y., and Mrs. J. H. Roberts, of Aetonlite, survive. To the sorrowing ones will be extended the sympathy of all classes.

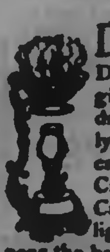
OFFICERS INSTALLED

Interesting Ceremony at Pontypool on Friday Evening.

The annual installation of the officers of Pontypool Lodge, No. 236, I.O.O.F., took place last evening in the Foresters' Hall, Pontypool. There was a very large number of the brethren present. The following officers were installed by D.D.G.M. Bro. Fred Fry, Norwood, assisted by Bro. W. J. Webster, P.G., Norwood; R. F. Morrow, P.G.; L. Wallis, P.G.; W. G. Barrie, P.G.; A. A. Fowler, P.G. Peterborough Lodge, and Bro. Robt. Matchett, Otonabee Lodge:—

J.P.G.—Ernest Danson.
N.G.—Robt. Grey.
V.G.—Robt. Halloran.
R.S.—L. Cain.
P. Sec.—G. H. Williamson, P.G.
Treas.—T. Hill, P.G.
Ward—T. Douglas, P.G.
Con.—J. J. Clarke, P.G.
R.S.S.—A. Porter.
L.S.S.—S. Nicholson.
I.G.—Wm. Corbett, P.G.
O.G.—Wm. Finney.
Chaplain—S. L. McCabe.
R.S.N.G.—J. McRoberts, P.G.
L.S.N.G.—J. Halloran.
R.S.V.G.—L. Williamson.
L.S.V.G.—J. Nicholson.
Physician—Dr. Lapp.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the brethren adjourned to the dining hall, where a delightful oyster supper had been prepared by the ladies, who were present in large numbers and hospitably received the visitors. Short addresses were made by all the visiting brethren and by Bros. Robert Grey and S. Nicholson, of Pontypool Lodge. A short but enjoyable musical programme also was run off, after which the singing of the National Anthem brought a most delightful evening to a close.



Don't wake baby

Did you know you could give medicine to your children while they were soundly sleeping? You certainly can. It is called Vapo-Cresolene. You put some Cresolene in the vaporizer, light the lamp, and place near the bed. The children quietly breathe-in the vapor. There is nothing equal to it for whooping-cough, croup, colds, cough, sore throat, and all other troubles of the throat and chest. It is economical, pleasant, safe.

PORT PERRY EASY FOR LOCAL TEAM

Visitors Defeated by Score of Eleven to Four.

CLOSE PLAY ALL THROUGH.

Peterborough Team in Great Shape, and Forwards Did Brilliant Work—Interesting Account of the Game.

The Peterborough Intermediate O. H.A. team added another victory to their string last evening when they defeated the Port Perry team by 11—4 at the Brock-st. rink. The half time score was 5—2. There was a very good attendance, but the fact that the outcome seemed to be a foregone conclusion kept many at home. The game was by no means the best that has been seen here, but at times the players woke up and played nice hockey. It was by no means a rough contest, although the checking was close. Port Perry played almost entirely an individual game, while the locals displayed some effective combination at times which was instrumental in scoring most of the goals. Both forward lines checked back well and as a consequence it was very hard to get the combination started. A pleasing and very unusual feature of the game was that it started sharp on time and was all over by 10 o'clock. This was greatly appreciated by the crowd present and efforts should be made to repeat the feat.

The locals played great hockey at some stages of the game, but at others were decidedly off color, especially in their shooting, many opportunities to score being lost. They outplayed the villagers all the way through and should have scored more often than they did. They played nice combination and out-skated their opponents. The team was shaken up a bit since the last game. Glover was unable to play and Cavanah moved back to point where his speed and shooting ability showed to great advantage. McWilliams of the juniors played rover.

THE FORWARDS

Parnell put up his usual good game at right wing, scoring most of the goals from shots from the side. He also checked back well. Morgan at centre was as effective and reliable as ever and his stick handling was excellent. He and Parnell worked in some nice two man combination rushes which were instrumental in scoring several goals. McWilliams as rover displayed great speed and with a little more confidence in himself should easily make good. He checked well. Graham played his first whole league game of the season and displayed some of his old time form. He kept his check and the goal keeper busy all the way through and figured in several scores. Crowley checked well and the visitors had troubles of their own in passing him. He also tore off a number of nice rushes. Cavanah shone in his new position at point. He delivered the goods after the pattern of Eddie Howell, rushing well and checking strenuously. Wasson turned aside some hard ones and cleared well.

OUTPLAYED ALL THROUGH

The visitors were outplayed all the way through. They seemed to have no idea of combination work and as a consequence could not penetrate the Peterborough defence very often. Stewart in goal kept the score from being larger than it was by stopping some bad looking shots. The other members of the defence were not extraordinarily fast though they checked well. D. Stewart at centre was undoubtedly the star of the rush line and to his brilliant playing is due most of Port Perry's goals. Dennison at rover also played a nice game.

Mr. W. A. McCord, of Toronto, refereed to the perfect satisfaction of both teams. He had an eagle eye for off sides.

The teams were as follows—

Peterborough		Port Perry
	Goal
Wasson		T Stewart
	Point
Cavanagh		Powers
	Coverpoint.
Crowley		Carnegie
	Rover
McWilliams		Dennison
	Centre
Morgan		D. Stewart
	Right Wing
Parnell		VanSinclair
	Left Wing
Graham		Jamieson

Goal umpires—C. Clarke, Port Perry; Clarke Earls, Peterborough.

Time-keepers—E. Hosey, Port Perry; J. T. McCabe, Peterborough.

Penalty Time-keeper—A. H. Stratton.

THE GAME

The locals started off at a lively clip and it looked like a runaway game. Within one minute of the start McWilliams had rammed one in in from a scrimmage after a nice rush by Cavanah. Score 1—0.

Another followed in twenty seconds but was not counted, the referee declaring it off side. A few minutes after, Parnell made a pretty dash along the boards and beat Stewart with a pretty shot. Score 2—0.

It didn't take long to notch up the next one Parnell doing the trick after a nice rush by Cavanah. Score 3—0.

From the face-off Morgan slammed the puck over to Parnell who rushed along the boards and passed neatly back to Morgan, the latter scoring in twenty seconds. Score 4—0.

It looked to be all off with Port Perry, but the villagers wakened up and pressed matters for the remainder of the half. On a nice combination rush D. Stewart gathered in their first goal. Score 4—1.

Another soon followed, Stewart again scoring on a long shot from the side. Score 4—2.

GRAHAM'S RUSH

The puck stayed in Peterborough ice for some time, but no score was made. Finally Graham broke away and rushing down the side, passed to Parnell who scored. Score 5—2.

Stewart went off for two minutes for tripping Morgan and Graham followed for slashing. Half time was soon afterwards called.

The locals started off with a vim that played the visitors off their feet for a while. Parnell made a nice rush and scored. Score 6—2.

Powers broke his skate and had to go off, the locals dropping McWilliams. Parnell and Morgan worked in a pretty piece of combination the latter finding the nets. Score 7—2.

The next wasn't long in coming. Cavanah made a long rush, but the goal keeper was in the way. Parnell however scored on the rebound. Score 8—2.

Play was all at Port Perry's end and many shots were turned aside. Finally Graham scored from the side. Score 9—2.

Port Perry thought it was time to take a hand in the scoring and did so, Jamieson finding the nets after a nice rush. Score 9—3.

McWilliams and Powers came on again, Port Perry was pressing and VanSinclair scored from the side. Score 9—4.

MORGAN SCORES AGAIN

There was no scoring done for some time although the puck was in Port Perry territory most of the time. Jamieson went off for two minutes for slashing. Graham handed the rubber over to Morgan who notched up another. Score 10—4.

Carnegie got in front of one of Cavanagh's wrist shots and had to go off, McWilliams being dropped to even up. Graham and the goal keeper got into a mix-up and both were ruled off. No scoring was done while the guardian of the nets adorned the fence. Graham got the last goal of the game after a rush by Cavanah. Final score, Peterboro 11—Port Perry 4.

Permanent Cure For Bronchitis

"My second daughter was troubled with bronchitis from the age of three weeks. Often times I thought she would choke to death. Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine brought relief and further treatment made a thorough cure. This trouble used to come back from time to time the cure is now permanent." — Mrs. Richmond Withrow, Shubenacadie, Hants Co., N. S.

LECTURES ON DANTE.

Great Literary Treat in Store for Peterborough People by Prof. Clarke.

The present seems an opportune time to announce the coming to Peterborough of Prof. Clarke, of Trinity College, Toronto, to lecture upon "Dante." The other evening Rev. Dr. Torrance read a paper on the great mediaeval poet before a large audience of interested people. It was on the occasion of one of those soirees literaires which Mr. Hughes-Charles instituted last winter and has carried forward so successfully. The theme of the lecturer was the "Life and Divine Comedy of Dante," and it is needless to say that the subject was well treated. The comment of those who remarked upon the lecture indicated the power of the poet in arousing the profound interest of those who study him. There can be no doubt that in the minds of many competent to judge Dante was not only the greatest intellectual force of the fourteenth century, but of all centuries. His influence upon Italy was supreme. His religious fervor and his raising of a woman to the position of being in all things noble and worthy of being his guide to Paradise, gave him an extraordinary impulse to the worship of God and to the general regard for a true and noble woman. Prof. Clarke will lecture for one week, giving a course of six lectures, three in the evening and three in the afternoon. It will be the most notable literary event ever taking place in Peterborough. Although he comes under the auspices of St. Luke's church he will receive 75 per cent. of the proceeds as an acknowledgment of his kindness to Peterborough in years gone by. The balance will go for expenses, and if there be still a balance it will go to St. Luke's Sunday School Fund. As Professor Clarke does not come till the week following Easter, it is proposed to sell in advance course tickets at one dollar each. The Sons of England Hall will make a suitable auditorium. Those wishing to have their names put down upon the subscription list will confer a kindness by writing to Rev. E. A. Langfeldt.

—Mr. Johnston Paudash, of Hiawatha, has returned from Ottawa, where he an interview with Sir Wilfrid Laurier in relation to certain claims upon the Government of the Hiawatha, Chemong and Scugog Indian bands.

WHY LIBERALS BREAK TIES WON'T STAND FOR ROSSISM

Exposures of Machine Infamy Revolt Men of the Type of S. H. Blake.

Liberals of the type of Hon. S. H Blake, Rev. D. C. Hossack, and Rev. Nathaniel Smith hasten to dissociate themselves from the party of Hon. G. W. Ross. Still they claim to be Liberals and that they have not departed from the principles they have professed all their lives.

Rossism is not Liberalism. Hundreds of Liberals are breaking party ties and on the 25th of the present month will vote for the Conservative candidates. And the independent electors of Ontario will join the old-time Liberals in the house-cleaning exercises.

The ills of the Liberal party date from the accession of Hon. G. W. Ross to the leadership of the Liberal party in Ontario. This event occurred in 1899. Since and including 1899 we have had a record of electoral debauchery that has made the name of Ontario a reproach to honest people. Hon. G. W. Ross signalized his acceptance of the duties of Premier by reorganizing the Cabinet. He found himself with a very small majority in the House and the machine was organized to strengthen his position. The West Elgin frauds followed. Crooks were imported into the riding to switch the votes of honest Conservatives. These crimes were exposed by the Conservatives and the Liberal candidate made a confession that "the declared number of votes for Mr. Macnish largely exceeded the number of bona fide votes cast for him." By such frauds Mr. Ross was enabled to continue in office. The general election of 1902 left him in a still worse plight. Though in a minority of the popular vote he had so arranged the constituencies as to give him a majority of two in the Legislature; but two was not a very large surplus and efforts were made to increase it. The purchase of members elected to oppose the Government was one of the means by which Mr. Ross determined to hold on, and in the bye-elections he counted on adding a few more members to his voting strength. The "Three Norths" followed. All were carried by Mr. Ross by methods afterwards exposed in the election courts.

With the revelations of Mr. Gamey the fortunes of Ross declined and subsequent bye-elections failed to give the Premier the assistance he required. The most revolting electoral methods were resorted to at Sault Ste. Marie and by wholesale plugging by a band of American toughs the Government succeeded in temporarily forestalling defeat.

The Soo revelations were the climax of a long series of corrupt acts performed by unscrupulous politicians on behalf of Premier Ross. Hardly less revolting were the methods employed by agents of the machine to unseat Donald Sutherland in South Oxford. For his efforts in behalf of Premier Ross the chief conspirator, Jackson, was rewarded with a lucrative office in England.

Is there any wonder that many honest Liberals are revolting, and that others who will not go the length of declaring their opposition have no heart for the present contest which means the life or death of Rossism and all that the term implies?

WHITNEY IS ON RECORD FOR ADVANCED PROGRAM

Mr. Whitney will go into power with a well defined and progressive policy and while he makes it unmistakably clear that the main issue in the present contest is honest and decent Government he promises legislation along advanced lines. The extremity of the Government since the advent of Mr. Ross to the premiership has prevented the adoption of legislation of this character. Mr. Ross has been too much occupied with the business of attempting to strengthen his precarious hold on office to devise legislation or to carry into execution his much-heralded program of "building up Ontario."

Mr. Whitney offers a comprehensive program. His attitude on Provincial issues has been in the interests of the whole people. He proposes to broaden the scope of the agricultural college, to establish experimental stations and to give increased agricultural instruction in the public schools. An experimental fruit station in the Niagara District has been suggested.

The encouragement of a sanitary system of sewerage in towns and villages is one of the proposals of the Opposition. The Government has offered inducement to municipalities to construct permanent roadways and wherever a comprehensive system of roadways has been constructed part of the cost has come from the Provincial Revenues. The same method could well be adopted with regard to sewerage, and the Opposition has placed itself on record in this regard.

The Opposition has spoken in favor of public ownership. In the Legislature Dr. Pyne's resolution favoring the operation of the Temiskaming Railway for ten years as an experiment was voted down by Mr. Ross and his followers.

Fair taxation of railways is a plank in the Conservative platform.

Reforms are needed in the educational system of the Province and Mr. Whitney has pledged himself to apply himself to this task. His attitude on this question is clear. The Public School system should not be regarded as a mere stepping stone to the Collegiate Institute or the University. It should fit a boy or girl for the battle of life.

The nationalization of the water powers of the Province, free school books, the disposal of pulp and timber concessions at public auction, reform of the mining laws, a strict enforcement of the license laws of the Province, the branding of prison made goods—these are some of the reforms consistently advocated by Mr. Whitney and his Colleagues in and out of the Legislature.

MR. R. J. TODD ON DIVINE HEALING

He Tells of What Christian Science Teaches.

FOUNDATION FOR THE BELIEF

Local Practitioner's Exposition—Says it Does Not Forbid Services of Doctor or Use of Medicine if Patient Desires it—Interesting Interview.

The circumstances attending the death of the late Wallis Goodfellow, of Toronto, said to be a Christian Scientist, and the fact that numerous relatives of the deceased reside in and around Peterborough, has invested the case with considerable local interest. Another fact which adds to the increased attention given to the case here, is the special interest taken in it by the members of the First Church of Christ Scientists, of Peterborough, whose places of worship is situated on Aylmer street, between Hunter and Simcoe streets. The distressing details in connection with deceased's death, as given before the Magistrate in Toronto, have doubtless been the subject of much discussion by the general public. The principals in the case — the alleged Christian Science healers who attended Goodfellow during his illness—and against whom the deceased's wife and mother have instituted legal proceedings, are well known in Peterborough, having been residents here for many years before taking up their home in Toronto.

In view of these circumstances, a reporter of the Review, sought an interview with Mr. R. J. Todd, Christian Science practicioner. The gentleman was found at his home on Aylmer street, and gave a courteous reception to the newspaper representative.

Reporter—I called, Mr. Todd, to have an interview with you regarding the investigation now being held in Toronto, into the death of Wallis Goodfellow, who is said to have been a Christian Scientist?

Mr. Todd—Well, I am quite willing to answer any proper questions you may have to ask.

Were you healed by Christian Science? asked the scribe.

Mr. Todd — Yes, sir, I thank God that both Mrs. Todd and myself are living witnesses of the healing power of Divine Truth, after medical doctors had failed.

How long have you been engaged as a Christian Science practitioner? was the next question.

Mr. Todd—Fourteen years.

Do you think this method a safe way of treating the sick?

Mr. Todd—I believe the principle and rule, as taught by Mary Baker G. Eddy, author of "Science and Health," a most perfect healer, when properly applied.

Have you seen many cases healed?

Mr. Todd—Yes, scores of cases, when given up by materia medica have been restored to perfect health. I have seen many cases of chronic diseases healed or helped, as well as the sinner reformed and the sorrowing comforted.

What is the mode of treatment?

Mr. Todd—This is a question which I prefer not to particularize about, seeing that the nature of your enquiry is prompted more by human curiosity than a personal desire for good. I may say, however, that absent or present treatments are equally potent.

Do you mean that sick people can be cured who are absent from you—who live out of town?

Mr. Todd—Yes, that is precisely what I mean. There is no limit to Mind, God. Disease is an experience of mortal life, and who shall dare to doubt the power and willingness of divine Mind to heal the sick today, just as He did in Christ's day?

Does Christian science or metaphysical healing include drugs, or is there any mesmerism, hypnotism, or spiritualism about it?

Mr. Todd—No, emphatically no. All these oppose the supremacy of the divine Mind.

Does Christian Science forbid you having a doctor, or medicine?

Mr. Todd—In no way does it forbid; it only shows a higher and more perfect way of living and leaves the individual free to live to his highest sense of what is right.

In your opinion who is to be blamed for the trouble in Wallis Goodfellow's case?

Mr. Todd—That is not for me to say, but as to who could be instrumental in causing trouble, my opinion is this:—From what I have read from the newspapers, if Mr. Goodfellow wished medical treatment, and his people refused him that treatment, or used any undue influence over him, they would be to blame. As I have already said this is contrary to the teaching of Christian Science, wherein all are free to choose for themselves. On the other hand if he desired Christian Science treatment and the mother-in-law or wife objected, or in any way obstructed that treatment, which he wished to trust himself to, then they would be to blame, and should be held responsible for hindering the efforts of anyone doing another good. Even Jesus was hindered in his work by unbelief and opposition. When He visited the synagogue ruler's daughter, He found it necessary to put those out who were not in harmony with Him, well knowing that love, peace and harmony are helpful to the healer of the sick.

But were those engaged in ministering to Wallis Goodfellow in his last sickness, competent?

Mr. Todd—There is a great deal of gross ignorance of the methods of the Christ-cure. "The All-wise does not bestow His highest trusts upon the unworthy. When he commissions a messenger it is one who is spiritually near to Himself. Teaching or practicing in the name of Truth, but contrary to its spirit or rules, is most dangerous quackery." so says Mrs. Eddy, the author of "Science and Health." Since Christian Science has its thousands of living witnesses as to its healing power, is it not time that the people of this country should awaken to the golden rule, of allowing others the same privileges that they ask for themselves. If my son or my daughter with Christian Science treatment, I don't think they should have to have the consent of some one who may not see the same meaning in the Bible that they do.

Thank you, Mr. Todd, for your very friendly statement. There is no doubt that healing is an integral part of Christiance Science belief?

Mr. Todd—Just as it was with Christ's work—it was the distinguishing characteristic of His work. Many good Christian people in the churches and out of them may not yet have awakened to all that Christianity includes — for health is a concomitant of spirituality. I may also say that you will find a copy of "Science and Health" in your Public Library, which I recommend for your earnest perusal. And you and all strangers will be made welcome any Sunday morning or evening at our services, as well as on Wednesday evening at our testimony meetings.

Constipation

Fruit is nature's laxative. Plenty of fruit will prevent Constipation, but won't cure it. Why? Because the laxative principles of fruit are held in peculiar combination and are very mild.

After years of labor, an Ottawa physician accidently discovered the secret process by which

Fruit-a-tives

SCRAPE OFF THIS BARNACLE.

Never did newspaper print words of truer import than when the Globe urged its friends, and the Liberal party as a whole to "clean off the barnacles." It was an admission that the long tenure of office had enabled parasites to fasten on the Ross Government and sap its vitality and deaden its energies. The smaller the majority on the Government side of the House the more insatiable became the barnacles, destroying the life of the party and clogging the administration.

Here, in Peterborough, we have a masterly example of the barnacle, flourishing in all its pristine beauty. Here we have an office, the duties of which are said to be barely more than a sinecure. We have a munificent salary paid out of the public coffers and little of value given in return. We have the office made the vehicle for personal aggrandizment and opportunity. And to crown all we have the spectacle of an office holder under the Ross Government leaving such of his duties as the office afford, and deliberately spending the weeks in pushing the campaign of the Reform candidate in this riding. And no word of reproof is uttered. Is the man so entrenched behind the ruling party hacks and the office-holding and the office-seeking section that he cannot be disturbed? The whole thing is an example of brazen indifference, if not defiance.

There have been pronouncements against this sort of thing. All have been unheeded. The only thing that will prove effective is the summary turning out to grass of the man who, while enjoying a salary approaching $2,500 per year, or $8.00 per day, can afford to devote six weeks of the country's time to private objects. The way to put an end to this sort of thing is to scrape off the barnacle by defeating the candidate, who must, if elected, remain the family standard bearer. The day of bossism is gone. The people want no more of it.

From the records of the proceedings in the House during the Hardy Administration the following is taken :—

"On motion of Mr. Garrow, seconded by Mr. Field, resolved,—That this House is of opinion that officers or clerks of the Civil or Public Service, or permanent employees, who solely or for the most part obtain their livelihood in the public service, should not actively participate in Provincial or Dominion election campaigns, and that officers or clerks of the Civil Service should not become candidates for Municipal Councillors."

If this means anything it means that Mr. J. B. McWilliams should keep out of active politics. It means that the Reform candidate in this riding deliberately connives at the flagrant disregard shown to the mandate of the Reform majority in the Provincial House. In effect he says: "I know this this is wrong; I know my father should be attending to his duties for which he is paid. As an office holder he has no business to be doing as he is, but I want you to overlook the matter and elect me in the interest of pure government, clean methods and political righteousness." Such a plea is rank hypocrisy.

If the electors, who have had their eye on what is going on, wish to break up this family compact, this fraternal combination, they know what to do, and unless the signs are entirely misleading, will do it.

Come with the Hockey Club to Lindsay Monday night. Special at 7 o'clock returning at 11.30. Fare $1 05, children 55c.

MR. BURNHAM REPLIES TO "JUST AS BAD AS WE ARE" CRY

Official Records Since 1898 Show That Liberals are Infinitely More Corrupt Than Conservatives—How Wrong Doing Has Flourished Under Ross Regime, and the Guilty Machine Perpetrators Escaped--Grit Interrupter Failed to Show Single Instance Where One of His Own Faith Mentioned in Official Records Had Been Punished by Ross.

A splendid meeting in the interest of Mr. H. A. Moore, the Conservative candidate in the East riding, took place in the Foresters' Hall, Zion Otonabee township, last night. There were about forty present and the gathering was enlivened by the presence of a son of the Grit candidate, Mr. Wm. Anderson, who sought to contradict one or two statements made by Mr. J. H. Burnham, who was the principal speaker, but when asked to establish the veracity of his statement, this Liberal enthusiast failed to do so. Mr. Burnham received a cordial reception and in a masterly address laid bare the corruption, crookedness and fraud of the Ross administration.

Mr. John Graham Weir was the chairman and said this was not a contest between parties so much as it was a struggle for clean and honest government. He said both Mr. Moore and Mr. Anderson were upright, honorable men, but the latter was carrying a heavy load in the shape of defence of the time-serving and pledge-breaking Ross Government. It was a bad cause to espouse and one that would not succeed.

Dr. Shaw, of Keene, delivered a splendid address in favor of Mr. Moore and took occasion to resent the statement made by Hon. J. R. Stratton in the hall a few nights ago that he (Shaw) had charge of the boodle in the east riding and had been closeted with Mr. Robert Birmingham. The doctor said he had met the latter gentleman for two or three minutes in Peterborough and he denounced the slander of Mr. Stratton and the reflections cast by the late provincial secretary who was evidently looking for the federal nomination in the East riding as soon as Mr. Finlay, M.P., could be transplanted to a first class job. The doctor further said that he believed Mr. Stratton would never secure the nomination and he thought the people would place no credence in the libels cast against him (Shaw) but simply consider the author of them and his record.

Mr. G. B. VanBlaricom gave the next address and was followed by Mr. J. H. Burnham who was in splendid form and was accorded a most enthusiastic hearing. He said that the Ross Government although it claimed to expend millions honestly, could not conduct a pure election to save its life. Moral and religious toleration were splendid things but criminal toleration was abominable and the record of the Ross regime was one that had disgraced Liberalism, besmirched the fair name of the province and brought dishonor and shame to every right thinking and upright man. This was not a party contest, but one of principle, of morality and of freedom.

RECORDS COMPARED

Touching on the record of the two provincial parties regarding corruption and the cry raised by the Grits that the Conservatives are as bad as Liberals, Mr. Burnham said official records show that in the five years from 1898 to 1903, 43 Liberals were reported for bribery and 22 for corrupt practices. In the same period of time the number of Conservatives reported for bribery was 22 and for corrupt practices 7. The total number of Liberals reported is 65, and Conservatives 29. Of the 29 Conservatives reported by the election judges 17 were proceeded against by the government and punished, while not one of the Liberals reported had been proceeded against or punished in any form.

These figures bear out the charge so often made that the Ross government secured protection for its "machine" operators from the courts. The initiation of action against persons reported by the courts lies in the hands of the attorney-general, who is supposed to direct the local crown attorneys to take proceedings. In 17 out of the 22 cases of Conservatives reported during these five years, prosecutions and punishment followed. In the cases of 65 Ross "machine" operators reported not a single individual was brought to trial. It will be recalled that since the Soo trials several of those reported by the judges and now being prosecuted by the Conservative Association of Ontario have declared that they were promised "protection" in case they were caught at their corrupt work.

Mr. Burnham said discussion had been invited at the meeting and he was sorry no one had seen fit to appear to represent the Liberals. Although Mr. Anderson's party had been notified in ample time its members had backed down.

Continuing Mr. Burnham said that since 1904 the Liberals had three members unseated in North York, North Norfolk and the Soo, not to mention how the trial in North Grey where Hon. A. G. MacKay, a cabinet minister was concerned, had been stopped by the dissolution of the house, evidently brought on at that particular juncture to ward off exposure. The only instance against Conservatives was North Renfrew where Mr. Dunlop had resigned but Mr. Hale the Grit candidate had told of a system of corruption and enormous expenditure—far greater than that of the Conservative. In Centre Bruce the judges complimented Mr. Clarke, Conservative, on the clean election he had conducted.

Mr. Burnham again said not a single Ross machine "operator" had been punished.

Here Mr. Anderson interrupted and said that was not so. Mr. Burnham asked him to name one and the son of the Grit candidate could not do so. Finding himself in the lurch he relapsed into silence and the crowd cheered.

Mr. Burnham scathingly exposed further corruption on the Liberal side and said that men like Mr. Anderson might well stand aghast at the appalling state of affairs under Ross. They were—many of them—not aware of the awful spectacle and condition of things and the depths to which their party had descended He closed with a strong appeal to all to unite in support of Mr. Moore and the cause of clean government, the uplifting of the province and the ushering in of a better and brighter day in its history.

The meeting closed with cheers for the King and the popular Conservative candidate.

WILL APPOINT TWO ASSESSORS

Thos. McKee and John Kincaid Are the Men.

EACH WILL RECEIVE $500

No Commissioner to be Selected This Year—Council Discussed the Matter Thoroughly Last Night.

The Town Council met in Committee of the Whole last night and discussed the plank in the Trades and Labor platform, regarding the appointment of an assessment commissioner.

Instead of having four assessors this year, it is understood that it was decided to appoint two men, Messrs. Thomas McKee and John Kincaid—who will each receive $500.

Last year there were four assessors, the two mentioned and Messrs. T. B. McGrath and William Aldridge. The four were given $960 for their work.

In connection with the new assessment act, which goes into effect this year, and is somewhat complicated, it was thought that two men could do better work than four, and get over the ground just as well.

The appointment of two men is a sort of half way measure and, while not constituting an assessment commissionership, is a step in that direction. The aldermen will watch results closely this year by reason of the change.

On account of extra work occasioned by the increased assessment, it was decided to raise the total salary outlay from $960 to $1,000.

All the aldermen were present except Messrs. Adams, Begley and Leary, who, owing to the very short notice given of the meeting had contracted previous engagements which they could not break.

FIRE DAMAGED CARRIAGE SHOP.

$1,500 Blaze Played Havoc at Ben. Yelland's.

LIKELY INCENDIARY ORIGIN

Stock of Spokes, Rims and Wheels Destroyed Number of Carriages Damaged—Good Work of Brigade.

One of Peterborough's progressive industries, the carriage shop of Mr. Ben Yelland, suffered considerable damage from fire yesterday morning about two o'clock. Just how the blaze originated is unknown, but it would seem to be the work of an incendiary. About $1,500 damage was done. The fire is supposed to have started at the door of the stock room, at the rear of the building, which is situated on Murray-st. The alarm was sent in, and had the brigade not answered as promptly as they did, the flames would soon have gained complete control. As the result of well applied efforts, however, they were confined to the stock room, and the large supply of spokes, rims and wheels was destroyed. In the room above there were several fine carriages stored, and while some were scorched, none escaped by the smoke and will have to be repainted and otherwise renewed. In other departments of the second story the smoke did more or less damage also. It is fortunate that the fire was discovered when it had not reached an advanced stage. The loss is covered by insurance.

PROF. McCURDY'S FINE ADDRESS

Our Debt to the East Revealed in Able Manner.

LESSON LEARNED FROM JAPAN

She Has Given the World a New Idea of Possibilities of the Human Race—China as Example of Paternalism.

One of the most enjoyable lectures heard in Peterborough in a long time was that delivered last night in the George street Methodist church school room, by Prof. McCurdy, of Toronto University, on "Our Debt to the East," and although it was not largely attended, the subject was handled in a most interesting manner by the lecturer, who has attained to considerable prominence in Canadian literature, and who is an authority on Eastern questions, which for a number of years he has made a special study of.

The lecture was delivered under the auspices of the Literary Department of the Epworth League, who are to be congratulated upon providing such a literary treat. This is the first of a series of three lectures arranged for by this department, and if those succeeding are as interesting and as profitable as that delivered last night the organisation deserves great credit and should receive the hearty support of all the citizens who appreciate lectures of this nature.

Probably greater interest attached itself to the lecture on account of the prominence which Eastern affairs are being given in the thought of the world today, chiefly because of the war in which a representative Eastern nation, Japan, is engaged, and Prof. McCurdy referred especially to that nation in his lecture.

The chairman of the evening was Rev. Dr. Crothers, pastor of the church and Hon. President of the League, and preceding the lecture, a vocal solo was rendered by Mr. Jas. Browne, which was very much appreciated, while after the lecturer had concluded, Miss Clara Bellegham, in excellent voice rendered Ora Pro Nobis," the accompanists for the soloists being Mr. Schneider and Prof. Milner.

THE LECTURE.

Prof. McCurdy, in introducing his lecture, said that while it seemed absurd it was a fact that we had to go to the East to thoroughly understand the West, and the first requisite in understanding other people is to understand oneself. It is very difficult to understand the motives and dispositions of nations or people in other parts of the world.

We naturally think that we are the people, and while in a certain way be supposed we were, but it must not be forgotten that there were other nations which were not inferior to us, though they may be different. There is the old East and the new East, and Japan is an exemplification of the latter. We owe a debt to the old as well as to the new East, as he hoped to show.

The speaker first referred to what he termed material acquisitions, and said that the greatest of these were territory and money, by which the Western nations, and particularly Great Britain had been largely benefitted. He was not sure that these material possessions had been altogether beneficial to them, though, and instanced the cases of the famine in India, and the destitution in London, to which the people of Canada were contributing.

PRINTING DISCOVERED.

Then in addition to the material acquisitions the West had received from the East what he considered of much greater importance, and the contemplation of which he enjoyed more than that of the material acquisitions. These he designated as semi-material acquisitions, and of these perhaps one of the most valuable was the alphabet. The Bible had also come from an Eastern nation, the Hebrews. The Arabic numerals, without the use of which the present mathematical achievements would have been impossible, have been handed down to us from the East. Printing had been first discovered by the ancient Babylons, but the use of movable blocks for printing had first been made by that despised people, the Chinese. Paper was also the product of a Chinese merchant. The mariners' compass and gunpowder had been discovered by the Chinese, who were an exceedingly clever race in the early days. For these, and other things which the West has received from the East, the former's debt is enormous.

Going more into detail, the speaker referred to the Japanese nation, which, he said, was a puzzle to the West, but while Japan was not understood by the people of the West, the Japanese are thoroughly acquainted with the West, of which they have made a study during the last few years, and they know it well enough for all practical purposes, which is all they want.

SUNRISE KINGDOM.

Japan, said the speaker, has given the world a new idea of the possibilities of the human race by the wonderful advancement the people of that nation have made in the last thirty odd years. It was only thirty-seven years ago since Japan had begun to learn from the West, and before that time Japan had opposed strenuously all efforts of the other nations to obtain a foothold for trade in the country, but when once the doors had been opened, the Japanese had welcomed warmly the Western people and had shown themselves most anxious to learn from them. In view of this fact it was nothing short of wonderful the progress that Japan had made in the thirty-seven years, because it must be remembered that it took them several years to start to learn. They have now come to the forefront of the world, and are an example of organisation, as well as of enterprise. Japan is a marvel to the world in legislation, education and business.

The general impression gained during the present war in which Japan is engaged is that she is a martial nation, but this is not the case; it is simply an exemplification of the predominant motive of the Japanese people.

Japan can teach the West a lesson in patriotism. They make everything tend to what they consider as being in the best interests of their country, and individuality is lost sight of. They are anxious to learn from any and every source, and they are not afraid to admit that they do not know when such is the case, and the speaker believed that this was the reason why the Japanese had made such phenomenal progress in recent years.

LONGEST HISTORY.

China was also referred to by the speaker, who said that it had at one time been a much greater country than it was at present. It had the longest history of any country in the world, and the speaker believed that the age of the country was principally due to the nation's observance of the principle involved in the Fifth Commandment, which promised that honor shown to one's father and mother would ensure long life, and China was an example of paternalism gone mad.

Chinese were equally as clever as the Japanese, but the latter were superior in organisation and enterprise. Now that Japan is getting her rights he had no doubt that China would benefit largely. Only a short time ago the Powers had agreed to respect China's rights with regard to territory, which he considered a hopeful sign.

Prof. McCurdy referred briefly to India and Palestine as examples of Eastern typical countries, and spoke on the literature of India, which was remarkable for its moral teaching, many of the same truths, and in some cases, the same phrases, appearing in the literature of that country as in the Bible, and it was not possible for it to have been copied by either

The Hebrew people were perhaps the most gifted people in the world, and it was impossible to enumerate the benefits which had accrued to the West from the Hebrew nation. The crowning gift to the world from the Hebrews is the Bible.

The lecture was thoroughly enjoyed by those who heard it, and deserved a much more general attendance. At its conclusion a vote of thanks was moved to the lecturer by Mr. A. O. Kidd, the President of the League, and enthusiastically endorsed by the audience.

REV. MR. PEDLEY'S LECTURE

Large Audience Laughed at "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch."

It was a well pleased audience that filled the lecture room of St. Paul's church last evening when Rev. Mr. Pedley, of Toronto, gave a lecture on the familiar story of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" and very evident was the enjoyment as evinced by wholesome laughs that were heard as different incidents in the story were told.

After opening with singing the Doxology and prayer by the Rev. Mr. Ketchen, Mr. John Crane, who was chairman, in a few words introduced the lecturer. Rev. Mr. Pedley congratulated the Mission Band on the large attendance and said it gave him much pleasure to be in Peterborough as he had many personal friends in town. In introducing his subject Rev. Mr. Pedley said that he had heard Mrs. Wiggs spoken of as the "high priestess of cheerfulness and good nature" and that many lessons might be derived from the homely sayings and doings of Mrs. Wiggs and her interesting family.

The great need of the people of this world is cheerfulness and sunshine to face the difficulties and trials of every day life. The tendency is to complain against Providence and not to look on the bright side of things and Mrs Wiggs' remark that the reason she looked so eternally cheerful was that she had a "happy feeling most all the time" is one of her many good points it would be well to follow.

Rev. Mr. Pedley gave many different incidents of the story that brought the picture of Mrs. Wiggs and her family very vividly before the eyes of his hearers, and the visit of the family to the "operay" and the feast that followed was not the least amusing one. Unlike many of our church members whom we know, Mrs. Wiggs though she had ample excuse for not taking part in church work for she was poor and her family was large enough to require much attention, felt her duty to her church and was superintendent, teacher, and choir leader of a Sunday school which met in her kitchen and which was a power for good in the community.

The faculty of taking things as they were and making the best of them was one of Mrs. Wiggs' strong points and favorite maxims of hers that are good ones to follow are "it aint no use pulling up your umbrella until it rains" and her remark that "it looks as if everything in this world comes right if we just wait long enough."

The audience thoroughly enjoyed the evening and were sorry when Rev. Mr. Pedley brought his remarks to a close.

Rev. Mr. Ketchen in a few remarks expressed the pleasure of the audience in listening to Rev. Mr. Pedley and moved a vote of thanks to him which was seconded by Mr. William Madill, and received with hearty applause.

The evening was closed with singing the National anthem with Mr. Crane presiding at the piano.

THE SUNDAY MEETINGS

Those Held at the Y. W. C. A. Have Been Very Popular.

The Sunday afternoon gospel meetings held so far this year have been very popular. Mrs. H. P. Kennedy took charge of the first meeting and gave a most practical and helpful talk on the subject, "Consider the Lilies." The appropriate solo rendered by Mrs. G. B. Miller was heartily appreciated by the young women present. The attendance at the second meeting, which was presided over by the president, Mrs. (Dr.) Scott, was unusually large. An able address on "Strong Hearts" was delivered by Rev. Freeman J. Scott, and the beautiful solo, "Face to Face," rendered by Mr. Norman Jolliffe, added much to the interest and helpfulness of the meeting.

To-morrow afternoon Mrs. (Rev.) Campbell will speak to the young women on a subject of vital importance to all. Special music will be rendered.

Attention is called to Miss Weir's Literary Club, which meets on Tuesday evenings at eight o'clock for the study of Shakespeare's "Coriolanus," also to the Bible class, which meets on Friday evenings at eight o'clock. The character sketch of David, which is being taken up at present under the efficient leadership of Mrs. J. M. Roberts, is proving highly entertaining and instructive. All members of the Association are invited to attend these classes, both of which are membership privileges.

On Monday, at 3.30 p.m. the first meeting of the new Board of Managers of the Y.W.C.A. will be held for the purpose of electing officers.

Come with the Hockey Club to Lindsay Monday night. Special at 7 o'clock, returning at 11.30. Fare $1.05, children 55c.

KILLED IN EXPLOSION

Four Dead and Another Dying in Norfolk County.

Another Is Seriously Hurt—Boiler of Sawmill Exploded, and the Employes Suffered By Pieces of the Demolished Machine Striking the Men—All the Victims Were Married Men—Cause Will Be Investigated.

Woodstock, Jan. 21.—One of the worst boiler explosions in this district in years occurred at John Whitehead's saw-mill in the southern part of Norfolk County, early yesterday morning. As a result four are dead, one more fatally injured and another seriously hurt.

The dead are: George Asphen, George McCallum, Freeman Moffatt, Charles Panard.

Michael Asphen will not live and John Whitehead was severely bruised. All were employes at the mill, and all the victims are married men. The deaths and the injuries were caused by pieces of the demolished engine striking the men. Parts of the iron were hurled 100 yards.

No cause is assigned for the explosion. It occurred while the engine was in operation, and the theory is that the water got too low in the boiler. The mill was completely wrecked, and the injured men were terribly mangled.

This is the second catastrophe of this nature in the section within a short time. An investigation into the cause is likely to be held.

"SUNRISE" EXPRESS WRECK.

Four Persons Seriously Hurt, But They Will Recover.

Durham, N. H., Jan. 21.—The "Sunrise" express, from Halifax and St. John for Boston, was wrecked yesterday morning a short distance west of the Durham station. Four cars were derailed and a number of persons were injured, four seriously. No one was killed. The accident was caused by a broken rail.

Those severely injured were: Miss Belle Donald, Hampton, N.B., severe injuries to head and shoulder dislocated; colored porter of Pullman car, head and shoulders lacerated, and bruised by being thrown through car window; Albert Hall, Portland, Me., head and hip injured. It is thought all of these will recover.

Seven other passengers sustained injuries necessitating medical attendance, and a dozen or more sustained cuts and bruises of a minor nature.

The train was an hour late when it passed Durham, and was running at a speed of 70 miles an hour. The forward part of the train passed over the broken rail safely, but four passenger coaches behind the Pullman sleeper were ditched, but were not seriously damaged.

The students of the New Hampshire State College of Agriculture turned out in a body to rescue the passengers from the overturned cars, and seven female members of the college acted as nurses in the caring for the injured.

Escape in Night Clothes.

Brockville, Jan. 21.—The family of William Loucks of Mountain township, escaped in their night clothes from their home, which was discovered on fire early Thursday morning. Mr. Loucks was awakened by the crackling of burning timbers, and immediately aroused the household. Miss Loucks was almost overcome by smoke, and had to be taken out of an upstairs window. The house with the contents was entirely consumed. There was no insurance.

Death By Carbolic Acid

Brandon, Man., Jan. 21.—A Winnipeg woman committed suicide here some time during the night by taking carbolic acid. The woman, whose name was Mattie Borland, came from Winnipeg on Wednesday night's train and proceeded to an east end resort, where her dead body was found yesterday morning. Her husband is an engineer in Winnipeg.

A ROSY COMPLEXION denotes a healthy heart. Too many people use cosmetics to brighten their complexion, temporarily, when by making their hearts strong they could have health, strength and a rosy complexion permanently.

Dr. Agnew's Heart Cure removes the cause. It builds up the tissues and walls of the heart. A weak heart cannot distribute the blood properly and in consequence we see pale, sickly faces everywhere. Make your heart strong with this great cure and you will bless the day you saw this advertisement.

Miss Mary Hugill, Irvington, Cal., writes—"What is the price for one-half dozen Dr. Agnew's Heart Cure? I used this remedy while in Canada and I think it the best medicine for the Heart and Stomach ever made. —65

DR. AGNEW'S LIVER PILLS (40 doses, 10 cts.) are a pure vegetable preparation. Their action on the liver and bowels is marvelous.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL

Few People Know How Useful it is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poisons of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form, or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefitted by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in the ordinary charcoal tablets."

PAY OF MOUNTED POLICE

Ottawa, Jan. 21.—In committee, the House considered a resolution providing for a general increase in the pay of the Mounted Police. Sir Wilfrid Laurier explained that the increases were made in response to a long-standing public demand. Beginning with the commissioner of police, whose pay is increased from $2,600 to $3,000 per annum, proportionate increases are made in superintendent, inspectors, surgeons, veterinaries, staff-sergeant, non-commissioned constables, special constables, scouts, buglers and working artisans. The increases will be made gradually till the maximums stated in the resolution is reached. The total increase will amount to $50,000. The cost of maintaining the Mounted Police is about $1,000,000 a year.

To Aid Mr. King.

When the postoffice estimates were under discussion, Sir William Mulock announced that a new office was to be created in the Department of Labor. It is that of assistant to Mr. King, Deputy Minister of Labor, and is intended to so relieve Mr. King that he can go about the country on his official duties with greater freedom. The new official will be paid $1,000 a year. No selection has yet been made by the Department.

Two Seats to Be Filled.

Ottawa, Jan. 21.—Two resignations were announced by the Speaker yesterday. Sir Wilfrid Laurier in Wright and Edward Kidd in Carleton. Sir Wilfrid ran for both Wright and Quebec East, and has selected to sit for the latter. Mr. Kidd is resigning to provide a seat for R. L. Borden. The Speaker stated that he had issued his writ for both elections.

CHRONIC WRONGDOING

Balkan Committee Wants U.S. Aid For Turkish Reforms.

Indicates That Britain May Take Measures to Make Them Effective, and Committee Asks President Roosevelt For American Support in Reference to Armenia and Macedonia—Conditions Call For Interference of Civilized Nations.

London, Jan. 21.—The Balkan committee, of which Jas. Bryce is president, is memorializing President Roosevelt, by letter, urging American support of any action Great Britain may take tending to bring about more effective reforms in the Christian Provinces of Turkey.

The memorial refers to the President's remarks in his recent message to Congress regarding Turkey and Armenia, says that conditions in the Macedonian Provinces call for no less active interference on the part of civilized nations, and concludes:

"If you in behalf of American people would make known your approval of such proposals and your intention to co-operate with and support the British Government, with or without the active support of other powers, you would thereby strengthen the hands of the British Government and the determination of the British people and thus secure that real reform which to our American kinsfolk in itself is desirable for the simple and sufficient reason contained in your message to Congress, namely, the cessation of chronic wrongdoing."

ARCH ENEMY OF MANKIND.

Who It is and How to Escape His Clutches.

Save Yourself To-day.

The arch enemy of human life is not Satan, but Pneumonia.

Consumption may number its thousands, but Pneumonia its tens of thousands; and, besides, it's much quicker in doing its deadly work. A person may catch cold, get Pneumonia and die in two or three days.

The only safeguard is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

They will, if taken in time, prevent Pneumonia from developing.

But, of course, if you wait too late, from a really bad attack nothing can save you.

That's why we lay so much stress on the fact that a common cold is such a dangerous thing to neglect.

You never know what may come of it.

And, nowadays, when we have at hand, in Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, such a safe, certain and perfect cure for a cold, there is no excuse whatever for letting it run along.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets act directly upon the mucous membranes of the body, the inflammation of which is generally called "Catarrh," which inflammation is nearly always caused in the first place, by a cold.

As soon as you begin to sneeze, and your eyes and nose begin to run, fly for relief to Stuart's Catarrh Tablets. They will not fail you.

Cases of chronic, long-standing catarrhal trouble, accompanied by discharge from nose and throat, coughing, hawking, spitting, offensive breath, indigestion, irritation of the stomach or bowels, are also easily cured by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

In cases of long standing, however, a cure cannot be expected in a day, as it will take some time to build up the weakened, inflamed and flabby membranes to their original tonic state of health.

It will take time, but perseverance will win the day—if assisted by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

It is important, however, to remember to use Stuart's.

No others are genuine.

No other tablets, or any other medicine, will give you the real, positive, permanently curative results that Stuart's will.

Try them.

All druggists sell them at 50 cents a box.

Mrs. Roach's Death.

Hamilton, Jan. 21.—The coroner's jury brought in this verdict last evening after hearing evidence in connection with the death last Monday evening of Mrs. D. J. Roach: "That Mrs. Catharine Roach did not come to her death through natural causes, but from causes unknown, taken with suicidal intent, we believe." The husband admitted that words had passed between him and his wife the evening before her death. She did not eat any supper, and went to her room about 8 o'clock. Her son and husband found her dead about 9.30. The doctors who conducted the autopsy did not give positive evidence, but stated that they believed that death did not result from natural causes.

Contract For Big Smelter.

Toronto, Jan. 21.—Mackenzie & Mann have made a contract for the erection of a pig iron smelter at Port Arthur with a capacity of from 150 to 200 tons daily, and to be ready by Oct. 1. The smelter is to aid in the development of their iron properties along the C.N.R., between Fort Frances and Port Arthur. About 1,000 men will be employed in the enterprise.

TO OVERAWE STRIKERS

Russia Takes Drastic Means to Keep Down Workmen.

Filial Petition From Suffering Workingmen Begging the Czar's Mercy—Prefer to Die If Not Relieved From Present Disabilities—Over 100,000 Men Now Out—Half the City in Darkness, and Newspapers Closed Down.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 21.—With the Russian capital seemingly on the verge of an incipient revolution, thousands of workmen parading the streets, agitators and fanatics sowing the seeds of disorder, half the city in darkness and without fire protection owing to walk-outs, the situation was hourly growing more intense when the authorities decided last night to adopt energetic measures to preserve order, prevent rioting and over-awe the violent-minded, at the same time seeking to placate the striking workmen by offering satisfaction to their demands in so far as they were just and reasonable, thus acting with combined firmness and moderation.

Increase City Garrison.

The Government last night augmented the garrison of the city with 2,500 cavalry and 1,000 infantry from Tsarkoe-Selo and filled the streets, especially in the disaffected quarters, with heavy patrols of soldiers. The refusal to permit a delegation of workmen to present a petition to the Emperor at Tsarkoe-Selo made it known that the great demonstration planned for Sunday, with its unlimited possibilities for an outbreak will not be permitted to take place.

Will Offer Concessions.

At the same time, acting in conjunction with a conference of employers, it has been determined to offer concessions in the terms of employment which the employers declared the great majority of the workmen would be inclined to accept if they were guaranteed protection from the more violent faction. Late last night it was reported that Father Gopon, the leader of the workmen, had been quietly spirited away from his bodyguard and taken into custody in furtherance of the plan to disorganize the elements that are threatening the peace of the city.

Even Expect Peace.

The authorities believe that by these steps they have the situation well in hand, and announce that they expect a peaceful solution of the problem. The situation had entered an acute stage yesterday and the strike had assumed an open political phase. The day was one of intense excitement. Mill after mill and factory and factory closed. Throngs of workmen paraded the streets, and when their colleagues refused to join them broke down gates and forced out the men. The whole industrial centre is idle. All the textile mills and every printing office in St. Petersburg are closed.

Over 100,000 Men Out.

One electric light plant and one water plant have shut down and over 100,000 men are out. Throughout the day workmen's meetings were held, at which incendiary speeches were made, the wildest threats being uttered as to what would come if the authorities and employers failed to meet their demands. The general dread was increased by reports that the workmen of Moscow, Kieff, Kharkoff, Kishineff and other large cities in the interior might join in the movement. While the Government and employers temporized the telegraphers and railroad employes threatened to join the strike, paralyzing the communications of the country. Many foreigners are preparing to send their families abroad. Every newspaper in St. Petersburg has been forced to suspend publication owing to the strike.

Proclamation Issued.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 21.—A proclamation has been issued this morning forbidding all assemblages, parades or other demonstrations in the city, and warning well disposed workmen and other private individuals to avoid gatherings, as the authorities are determined to break up and disperse meetings imperilling public safety. The proclamation is printed in The Police Messenger, which is the only publication appearing this morning, the police having forced the printers to remain at work until the paper appeared.

WANT CHANCE TO LIVE.

Russian Workers Petition to the Czar in Present Crisis.

The following is the text of the strikers' petition to the Emperor:

"Sire,—We, workmen, inhabitants of St. Petersburg of all classes, our wives and children and indigent parents, come to you our sovereign, asking for protection. We are poor, persecuted, burdened by labor beyond our strength. We are insulted, treated not as men, but as slaves, who ought to bear their cruel fate in silence. We have suffered, but we are being plunged deeper in the mire and deprived of our rights. Uninstructed, stifled by destitution and injustice, we are perishing. We have no strength left.

"Sire, we have arrived at the extreme limits of endurance, we have reached the terrible moment when death is to be preferred to continuation of our intolerable sufferings. We have left our work and informed our employers that we will not resume until our demands are conceded. We have not asked much; we have asked but for means of livelihood, without which life is a burden, and labor continual torture. Our first request is that our masters should investigate our case. They have refused. We have been denied the right to put forward our claim, it being held that such right is not recognized by law."

After referring to the eight hours day and other points of their case, the petitioners continue: "Any one of us who dared raise his voice in the interests of people of the working classes, has been thrown into prison or transport. Kindness and good feeling have been treated as a crime. The bureaucracy has brought the country to the verge of ruin in a shameful way. It is luring it to its downfall. We have no voice in the heavy burdens imposed; we do not know for whom or why this money is wrung from an impoverished people, and we do not know how it is expended. This state of things is contrary to divine laws, renders life impossible. It were better that we should all perish, we workers and all Russia. Then good luck to capitalists and exploiters and poor, corrupt officials, robbers of the Russian people.

"Assembled before the palace, we plead our salvation. Refuse not thine aid and raise thy people from their tomb. Give them means of working out their own destiny. Rescue them from intolerable official domination. Throw down the wall that separates; free thy people; order that they may rule the country with thee. Create for the people the happiness wrenched from us, leaving us nothing but sorrow and humiliation.

"We pray your Majesty graciously to receive our demands, which are inspired by a desire for your Majesty's and our welfare, and the consciousness of necessity of escape from an intolerable situation. Russia is too great and her needs are too varied and numerous for officials only to rule. National representation is indispensible, as only the people themselves know the country's real needs."

Cannot Reach the Czar.

The above petition was to have been presented personally to Emperor Nicholas. A deputation of workmen endeavored to see His Majesty at Tsarkoe-Selo and appeal to him to come to the winter palace Sunday, to be present at an immense demonstration of the industrial classes. It was planned to have all the workmen in St. Petersburg, headed by their leader, the priest Gopon, in full gorgeous garb, march to the palace and assemble in the great parade ground in front of the palace and there present the petition to His Majesty. The deputation, however, will be refused admission to the Tsarkoe-Selo. The Government believes this will render a meeting on Sunday impossible.

Princesses Plead For Justice.

Princesses Droutsky, Sakolinsky, Diubanski, Kiraakoff and Shamansky, representing the nobility of the Government of Minsk, have petitioned Minister of the Interior Sviatopolk-Mirsky on behalf of whole of the northwestern districts of Russia for equal rights for all nationalities and classes in the Empire. The Minister has replied that the question has already been decided.

TO INVESTIGATE.

Origin of the Firing Mystery Referred to a Special Commission.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 21.—A special commission, under the presidency of Gen. Kitro, commander of the Artillery Corps of the Guards, has been appointed to investigate the origin of the firing of Thursday. The report published in America by a news agency of the suicide of Capt. Davidoff, commander of the battery from which the shot is supposed to have been fired, is unfounded.

In the midst of the fever of excitement yesterday over the strike situation, the incident at the Winter Palace on Thursday is attracting secondary consideration. Sensational reports of a widespread conspiracy and wholesale disaffection in the army seem to be absolutely without foundation.

Missiles That Missed Aim.

Grand Duke Sergius Michaelovitch, in his preliminary report, shows that the caisson of the battery contained charges of grape in readiness for a possible emergency, such as to rake the streets in case of rioting, one of which was introduced in the gun, in front of the saluting guard. The guards are under arrest and their antecedents are being examined, and it is impossible to learn whether anything important has yet been discovered.

The military authorities are inclined to believe that the incident was the work of two men, one of whom inserted the missiles while the other trained the gun.

British Steamer Now Condemned.

Nagasaki, Jan. 21.—The British steamer Lethington has been condemned by the naval prize court at Sasebo. The Lethington was captured on Jan. 12 on the Tsushima Straits with a cargo of coal said to be for Vladivostock.

To Dam Port Arthur Harbor.

Tokio, Jan. 21.—It has been proposed to dam Port Arthur harbor at the entrance and pump out the water preparatory to saving the Russian war vessels.

Stoessel On Way to Marseilles.

Shanghai, Jan. 21.—General Stoessel and the large number of paroled officers and others who arrived here Thursday on board the French steamer Australian left Shanghai yesterday for Marseilles.

Nearly 20,000 Are Sick.

Tokio, Jan. 21.—It is stated that there are 18,558 sick and wounded Russian prisoners at Port Arthur. Of these 3,657 are connected with the navy.

Don't Neglect Catarrh

When a Cure is so Easy.

It is dangerous to trifle with catarrh. The inflammation in the nostrils extends to the ears, causing deafness. The discharge is carried to the stomach, kidneys and liver, setting up catarrh of these vital organs. Why not cure yourself now, and be rid of this loathsome, dangerous disease? Japanese Catarrh Cure cures Catarrh at once. It relieves the head pains, stops the discharge and droppings in the throat. It is pleasant to use, no atomizers or syringes are required. And Japanese Catarrh Cure does cure catarrh permanently. Here's what an English clergyman says about it:

"I regret that I cannot get Japanese Catarrh Cure here, and enclose post-office order for six boxes. Japanese Catarrh Cure is the only medicine of the many I have tried that has done me any real good."

WHY NOT?

Why not have something worth while to do during these long evenings. Passepartout some pictures either for yourself or your friends. It is an easy work and one that is profitable and pleasant. These pictures make nice birthday or wedding presents, and are always acceptable. Everything needed may be bought at the Review office. New embossed boards in white and cream, also all shades of mountings in all weights, pretty pictures in sepia and colors, passepartout in all shades—these are all on sale at the Review Stationery Department.

—A public meeting in the interest of Mr. H. A. Moore, Conservative candidate in the east riding will be held in the town hall, Keene, on Monday evening, January 23rd.

Canada May Now Compete.

Montreal, Que., Jan. 21.—Its a queer wind that does not blow good to some one. F. L. Wanklyn, vice-president of the Dominion Coal Co. stated yesterday that should the present strike of the German coal miners continue, it will probably have the effect of increasing prices of coal in Canada. The strike has already raised the price of British coal considerably, and if the strike continues the result will be that British ships which carry cargoes of coal as ballast to Canadian ports at a low rate, which, on account of the preference, can be landed here with profit, competing successfully with the Canadian article, will be unable to obtain their coal at a cheap enough rate to render it profitable to export hither.

—The Seymour and Campbellford Sunday School Convention will be held in the Burnbrae Presbyterian church. Dr. Harrison, of Keene, is expected to be present.

SMASH THE MACHINE!

Electors of Ontario! the crisis is at hand. On Wednesday next you will be called upon to pass sentence on the Machine; the Machine which for many years has been at the back of a veritable carnival of corruption; the Machine which figured so prominently in the elections in West Huron, North Waterloo, West Elgin, North Perth, North Norfolk, North Grey and at the "Soo," as well as in many other constituencies; the Machine which sends out as its emissaries Capt. Sullivan, Tom Lewis, Duncan Bole, J. P. Jackson and others of that ilk; the Machine which has been found guilty of grossest corruption, ballot-switching, ballot-burning, ballot-plugging and ballot-stealing.

The Ross Administration stands to-day condemned by many of the best Liberals.

The Hon. S. H. Blake says that Mr. Ross cannot shield himself behind the assertion that he did not personally know of the corruption. Mr. Blake, whilst intimating in plain language that he does not believe the Premier's assertion, at the same time points out that if Mr. Ross' assertion be true then the Premier must be an idiot and certainly not fit to be trusted with the reins of Government. Ross is either a "knave or a fool." In either case he should be put out of power.

The Rev. D. C. Hossack, Rev. M. Kettlewell, Mr. P. D. Ross, Mr. W. E. Raney, Mr. J. W. Holmes, ex-M.P.P., and many other old-time Liberals take the same view, and have decided that punishment must be meted out to those responsible for the iniquities.

Whilst electoral impurity is undoubtedly the great issue now before the people, there are at the same time grave abuses to be remedied by Mr. Whitney when he comes into power.

The finances of the Province are not properly audited, as was shown by the sworn testimony of the Auditor. What about the numerous defalcations in the Succession Duties Office? Where was the audit?

Then, there is the present paralysis of the law in not pressing prosecutions against political offenders of the Liberal stripe. Those accused of crime must be equally prosecuted and punished, be they Conservatives or Liberals.

The Liberals have been in power for 32 years; altogether too long a time for the country. The "barnacles" have gathered in clusters. All the Crown Attorneys, Magistrates, Clerks of Courts, Bailiffs, License Commissioners, Rangers, Colonization Road Masters, and, in fact, an immense horde of other officials and employees are Liberals, the appointees of the Liberal Government. They constitute a very strong and important part of the Machine. They are all working "tooth and nail" for their employer.

Electors! Mr. Whitney promises clean and able administration. Rise in your might, and smash the Machine!

WHAT THE PREMIER MEANS BY CORRUPTION.

In order that the Premier's statement that corruption has not been brought home to the Government may be fully understood, it is interesting to know what crimes he understands to be indications of corruption.

The Hon. G. W. Ross at Lindsay on the 1st May, 1902, said:

> "In the case of the offenders in West Elgin, no prosecutions were possible, either because the offenders had left the Country, or the Offence committed was not technically within the Election Act."

We all know that Pritchett acted as Deputy Returning Officer under the name of Marshall B. Johnson, and signed that name to the return in the Poll Book.

There was an actual Marshall B. Johnson who was present and gave his evidence before the Commissioners who were appointed to investigate the matter. Yet while the offence that Pritchett committed amounted to what, in any other man, would seem to be forgery of another's name, he is let off, because the offence is not, according to the Hon. G. W. Ross, within the Election Act. Consequently, it is open to the Premier to say that corruption, or improper dealing, was not brought home to Prichett because through a technicality he did not come within the Election Act. But whoever tried to bring him within either that or the Criminal Code? The Government take no step to treat the point, and the putting forward of such an excuse by the Premier is an evidence that, in his view, unless without any trial he considers a man guilty of an election offence, corruption has not been brought home to him.

WAS THE GOVERNMENT "NEXT" TO THIS?

The Premier asserts that the Government has not been personally implicated in any of the corruption that has gone on in this Province. He uses the word "personally" of course as meaning individual members of the Government; if he is right then either the Official Liberal Organization or the rank and file of the Party must be responsible. This is rather hard on the latter and the Country would be slow to believe that if the Official Organization has been implicated the members of the Government did not know of it. If they knew of it in 1899 then it has been brought home to them that in 1904 Mr. James Vance was still organizing for the Party and Capt. Sullivan was still receiving favors at the Parliament Buildings from the same Government.

Here is what the Election Judges in the West Huron case said on December 21st, 1899, as published in the "Canada Law Journal":

> "The local organizations of the party in this riding, as in others, at many of the recent elections, were largely controlled, managed or assisted by the officers of the provincial party organization, by whom several 'outsiders,' as they were called, were brought into the riding, who acted under the instructions of the secretary of the association, a Mr. Alex. Smith, and his assistant, a Mr. Vance, and in some cases directly under the instructions of the local managers. It does not, I think, admit of doubt that Smith and Vance were both agents of the respondent, and that he and other prominent agents of his . . . knew that they were so."

Further, in West Elgin in reference to the Election held on the 12th January, 1899, the following was Mr. W. T. R. Preston's evidence:

> "I brought Mr. Vance, who was one of Mr. Smith's assistants, in the organizing work in the Province; I brought Capt. Sullivan, with whom I have had considerable experience in bye-elections for a number of years." "They were men who would frown down any possibility of wrong."

Compare this with the signed confession of Mr. McNish, June 26th, 1899:

> "A large number of persons were especially sent into the constituency by men working on behalf of the Liberal Party for the express purpose of taking part on Mr. McNish's behalf in the election held on January 12th, 1899, and we believe that fraudulent and corrupt means were used by some of such persons to secure his election."

BUILDING UP NEW ONTARIO.

Mr. Whitney has announced that he will appoint a Minister of Mines and Forests and will bring him from New Ontario. This is good policy, and is a step in advance of anything contemplated by the Liberal Government until Mr. Whitney announced his intention. But there is another thing that Mr. Whitney owes to Old Ontario; that is to appoint a new Crown Attorney at Sault Ste. Marie. At present four men are walking around, reported by the Judges for corruption, against whom the Attorney-General's Department has made no move. It is left for the Conservatives to take proceedings and no sooner do they do so than there appears before the Election Judge at the Sault an eminent lawyer, who declined to appear for the accused and who could not deny that he was retained by the Liberal Government.

What was he there for? Was it to assist? Not at all, but to object to the prosecution going on.

Why is the Government so busy to stop prosecutions and so lax when its helpers are reported for crimes?

The Premier says that Corruption has not been brought home to the Government. It takes good care never to let the accused be tried for fear they should put it too close to the fountain head.

LAURIER AND ROSS.

Dominion and Ontario Premiers Speak From the Same Platform—Former Says He Believes in the Latter.

Ottawa, Jan. 21.—The fact that the Premiers of Canada and Ontario appeared last night on the same platform, drew one of the largest political gatherings ever held here. The Russell Theatre was crowded with about 2,500, including many ladies, and then the doors were closed. Several hundred were turned away. The candidates, Messrs. May and McDougal, spoke briefly, after which Sir Wilfrid was called on.

Spoke As An Elector.

Sir Wilfrid was cheered to the echo. In fact he got an even greater ovation than Premier Ross, although the latter evoked considerable enthusiasm at different times in his speech. Sir Wilfrid said that as a citizen of Ottawa he was an elector of Ontario. As such he had certain duties to perform, and in the performance of them he was there to say a good word for G. W. Ross, who he said "had not been carried away from his moorings by the campaign of mud-slinging." Since Confederation, Sir Wilfrid said, the Conservatives have always the same kind of campaign, villification and abuse of Liberal leaders while in the active arena and eulogization after death. Mr. Ross, he said, was getting the same treatment now, but he hoped the people of Ontario would pay no more attention to the cry this time than they had in the past.

Believes Him Honest.

He believed Mr. Ross was an honest man, and that it was not his fault that there had been ballot irregularities, but now that such have been brought to light it was his duty to reform them. In conclusion, Sir Wilfrid said he had read the press on both sides of politics, and had seen nothing to cause Liberals to transfer their allegiance. He would, he said, stand by his old friend, Hon. G. W. Ross, and would give him his vote on Jan. 25.

Hon. George W. Ross was also given a great reception when he rose to speak. He dealt lightly with the charges of corruption, did not even mention Gamey, and made the plea that while the Liberals admitted there had been improper practices the other side was as bad or worse. He defied the Conservatives to point to any act of mal-administration or any corruption directly traceable to the Government, and repeated the charge that the Conservatives are devoid of a policy.

Coalition Not Authorized.

Referring to the overtures for coalition made to J. P. Whitney by Hon. J. M. Gibson, the Premier said that while a crisis may arise when men should put aside their political leanings and unite to save the State, the overtures to Mr. Whitney were wholly unauthorized. Mr. Gibson, he said, had been one of a number of Liberals who considered coalition advisable and discussed the matter with Mr. Whitney without any authority from the Premier or any obligation on his part to abide by anything that might have been proposed. "Forgive us our iniquity," he said in conclusion, "but don't forget in the hurdy-gurdy cry of corruption that no man's castle has been attacked, no religion assailed, but that everywhere there was but one object, one motto, to build up Ontario."

Huber Claims the Seat.

Berlin, Jan. 21.—There was considerable excitement yesterday, caused by the report that the nomination proceedings on Wednesday were irregular, and that according to the Election Act the independent candidate was elected by acclamation. It is claimed by the independent candidate, Allen Huber, that according to the act the returning officer should have allowed only one hour for receiving nominations, whereas he allowed three hours, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., that there were no nominations handed in to the returning officer within the first hour after his nomination, thus electing him by acclamation, and that his nomination was in at 11.02. The facts of the matter are these: The returning officer allowed three hours for nominations, between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. According to the time taken by Reuben Weber, the returning officer's clerk, he received Mr. Huber's nomination paper at 11.20, Mr. Moore's at 11.55 and Dr. Lackner's at 12.15, all of which were within the hour after the preceding one. No stock is being taken in Mr. Huber's contentions.

Hacker Gets Reward.

Toronto, Jan. 21.—Albert E. Hacker has been appointed by the Ontario Government, license inspector for the City of Toronto, in the place of Fred G. Inwood, who resigned to accept the secretaryship of the Ontario Liberal Association. Mr. Hacker's appointment dates from Jan 13 and he will start on his duties at once. The salary is $1,400 a year. Mr. Hacker has been twenty years with Hunter, Rose & Co., and is a member of Typographical Union.

Married One Too Many.

Toronto, Jan. 21.—John Harry Haines is accused of bigamy. Annie Mary Haight married him at Richmond Hill, July 28, 1896, and in 1904 he married Emily Howlett of Newmarket, but deserted her. Her action for non-support attracted the attention of his first wife. Haines is a brakeman. He was remanded for a week.

Rosseau Committed.

Philadelphia, Jan. 21.—Gessler Rosseau, in whose possession an infernal machine was found, was given a hearing yesterday and committed to prison to await requisition papers from New York.

Expelled From the Union.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 21.—Delegate Randall of Wyoming, who charged President Mitchell with having sold out to Colorado miners, was yesterday expelled from the United Mine Workers of America.

C.P.R. SCALE OF INCREASES.

Despatchers and Telegraphers Get Advances of From $2 to $10.

Toronto, Jan. 21.—C. P. R. despatchers and operators appear to be well satisfied with the result of the protracted negotiations on the score of wage increases. The advances run all the way from $2 to $10 per month.

On the main lines east of Chalk River, first year despatchers will now get $100 per month, with an increase of $5 for the second and $10 for the third years.

On the branch lines, first year despatchers are to receive $90, with increases as above.

West of Chalk River, the scale is $105, $110 and $120 for the three years, while for White River and west it is $110, $115 and $125.

For telegraphers other than train despatchers and linemen, $45 will be the minimum for agents and operators on the main line east of Chalk River, with $43 on branch lines, with dwelling, light and fuel included. Without these latter, the minimum will be $50 and $48 respectively.

Telegraph operators will not get less than $45 on the main line and $43 on the branches, while the minimum for linemen on both main and branch lines is $55.

West of Chalk River, $47 is the least for an agent and operator, and west of Cartier, $56, with, in each case, the added items above referred to. Without them the minimum is $52 and $58 respectively, and for telegraph operators $47 and $53. Linemen in either of the two districts will receive $60 as the lowest.

Train despatchers will be allowed three weeks vacation yearly, and other telegraphers of four or more years' service two weeks.

The revised salary scale for relieving telegraphers shows a substantial advance.

What Sulphur Does.

For the Human Body in Health and Disease.

The mention of sulphur will recall to many of us the early days when our mothers and grandmothers gave us our daily dose of sulphur and molasses every spring and fall.

It was the universal spring and fall "blood purifier," a tonic and cure-all, and mind you, this old-fashioned remedy was not without merit.

The idea was good, but the remedy was crude and unpalatable, and a large quantity had to be taken to get any effect.

Nowadays we get all the beneficial effects of sulphur in a palatable, concentrated form, so that a single grain is far more effective than a tablespoonful of the crude sulphur.

In recent years research and experiment have proved that the best sulphur for medicinal use is that obtained from Calcium (Calcium Sulphide) and sold in drug stores under the name of Stuart's Calcium Wafers. They are small chocolate coated pellets and contain the active medicinal principle of sulphur in a highly concentrated, effective form.

Few people are aware of the value of this form of sulphur in restoring and maintaining bodily vigor and health; sulphur acts directly on the liver, and excretory organs and purifies and enriches the blood by the prompt elimination of waste material.

Our grandmothers knew this when they dosed us with sulphur and molasses every spring and fall, but the crudity and impurity of ordinary flowers of sulphur were often worse than the disease, and cannot compare with the modern concentrated preparations of sulphur, of which Stuart's Calcium Wafers is undoubtedly the best and most widely used.

They are the natural antidote for liver and kidney troubles and cure constipation and purify the blood in a way that often surprises patient and physician alike.

Dr. R. M. Wilkins, while experimenting with sulphur remedies soon found that the sulphur from Calcium was superior to any form. He says—"For liver, kidney and blood troubles, especially when resulting from constipation or malaria, I have been surprised at the results obtained from Stuart's Calcium Wafers. In patients suffering from boils and pimples and even deep-seated carbuncles, I have repeatedly seen them dry up and disappear in four or five days, leaving the skin clear and smooth. Although Stuart's Calcium Wafers is a proprietary article, and sold by druggists, and for that reason tabooed by many physicians, yet I know of nothing so safe and reliable for constipation, liver and kidney troubles and especially in all forms of skin disease, as this remedy."

At any rate people who are tired of pills, cathartics, and so-called blood "purifiers," will find Stuart's Calcium Wafers, a far safer, more palatable and effective preparation.

Strathcona to the Rescue.

London, Jan. 21.—(C.A.P.)—At the meeting of the British Empire League, presided over by Lord Derby, a resolution was moved by Lord Strathcona, on the status in Great Britain of the offspring of marriages made in other parts of the Empire. The Council unanimously expressed the hope that the Prime Minister would give favorable consideration to the deputation which would submit their views on the question. This resolution is probably aimed to secure the recognition of marriages with deceased wives' sisters, non-recognition of which in Great Britain recently caused a strong protest from Australia.

Healthy and Vigorous

Mr. John Shelton, the well known bridge builder of 101 Sherwood St., Ottawa, states: "I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for kidney and liver derangements brought on by exposure, and find them better than any pill or medicine I ever used. They cleansed my system and made me feel healthy and vigorous, and better in every way." 8

SATURDAY, JAN. 21, 1905.

HOCKEY GOSSIP.

What the Puck Chasers Are Doing, or Are Going to Do.

Everybody is talking of Monday night's game with Lindsay, and everyone who can get away is going up to Lindsay to see it. It will be the game of the season, and if reports from Sougogville are to be believed the visitors from here will have to carry clubs or some other means of defence. However no one is worrying very much about that, and a very large crowd will go up. The special leaves at 7 o'clock and returning leaves Lindsay at 11.30. Go and see the boys trim Lindsay on their own little two by twice rink. The fare is $1.05 for adults and 55 cents for children.

The junior game with Cobourg which was to have been played on Tuesday night of next week, has been postponed, because it conflicted with the T.A.S.—Campbellford Trent Valley game. Belleville juniors will likely play here on Thursday night, which will cause the City League games to be postponed.

Campbellford will be here on Tuesday night to meet the T.A.S. in a Trent Valley League game. Both teams are after the championship of District No. 2, and can be depended on to play hockey from the drop of the hat. It will be one of the best games of the season. Campbellford will have a big bunch of rooters with them.

The standing of the City League to date is as follows—

	Won	Lost
Furriers	4	0
Karnets	4	0
T.A.S.	1	2
Colonials	1	2
Earl Greys	1	3
Verniers	0	3

The standing of this group in the junior O.H.A. series is as follows—

	Won	Lost	To Play
Cobourg	3	1	2
Belleville	3	2	1
Port Hope	2	2	2
Peterborough	0	3	3

It looks as if all four would be tied, each winning at home and losing away from home.

The standing of No. 2 intermediate O.H.A. group is as follows

	Won	Lost
Peterborough	3	1
Lindsay	2	1
Port Perry	0	3

The standing of No. 2 Trent Valley group is—

	Won	Lost
Campbellford	2	0
T.A.S.	2	1
Keene	0	3

What will undoubtedly prove one of the eye-opening games of the season is scheduled for to-night. The contesting teams will be the offices of the American Cereal Co. and the B.A.C. Neither teams have lost a game this season and something must give to-night. The game is called for ten o'clock and will last for one hour. This has been arranged in deference to many requests from those who could not find it possible to be present earlier. The members of the B.A.C. desire, it is understood, that as many of the A.F.F. members as possible be present to cheer them on to victory proud. The teams:—

Quakers.		B.A.C.
	Goal.
Sullivan		Hutchinson
	Point.
Cochrane		Moore
	Coverpoint
Simpson		Wood
	Rover
Williamson		Jolliffe
	Centre
Carr		Best
	Right Wing
Moore		Dobbin
	Left Wing
Heaslip		Boomer

F. Clancy, the clever little goal keeper of the T.A.S. Trent Valley team, was struck under the left eye with the puck, on Thursday night, while practising before the T.A.S. Keene game, and received a bad injury, being unconscious for nearly half an hour. Although warned by Dr. J. M. Shaw, of Keene, that it would be dangerous to play the game, he pluckily went on the ice and put up the game of his life. Yesterday afternoon he collapsed again at the T.A.S. rooms. Dr. Carmichael was summoned and had him taken home. He will be all right again after a few days' rest.

Cobourg defeated Port Hope juniors at Cobourg last night in an O.H.A. game by 7—6. The score was 6—6 at half time.

Midland defeated Victoria Harbor last night by 7—4, at Midland. It was a hard fought game.

The George street Guild team and the Karnets played an exhibition game at the Brock street rink last evening, the latter winning by 10—6 after a hotly contested game. The Methodists led at half time, but could not stand the pace.

CURLING.

The district cup competition in group No. 2 is over, and Lindsay carried off the honors. In the final game yesterday afternoon they were pitted against Port Hope, and after an exciting game won by 16 shots. Rosevear of Port Hope went against Dr. Sutton and lost by 11 to 14, while Stephens had F. Crandell for an opponent and was defeated by 21 to 10. Port Hope curlers are playing a great game this year. In the morning they defeated Lakefield by 10 shots. The rinks were—

YOUNG'S POINT FOR BRADBURN

Excellent Meeting Was Held in His Interest.

WAS GIVEN GREAT RECEPTION

Speeches by Candidate and Mr. Peck, Mr. Medd and Mr. Fitzgerald—Barnacle Official Was Criticised.

The meeting held at Young's Point last night, in the interests of Mr. Bradburn, was one of the best that has marked the campaign outside of Peterborough. There was a good attendance of electors, and the spirit shown was one of appreciation of the able presentation of the case for Mr. Whitney, his candidate, and good, honest, progressive government.

The chair was occupied by Mr. Heard who, after a brief speech, called upon Mr. Bradburn, who gave an excellent address upon the issues of the campaign and impressed the fact that the time had come when Ontario would undoubtedly strike the blow for higher ideals than those emblazoned upon the standard of the Ross Government. Mr. Bradburn was given a splendid reception.

The next speaker was Mr. S. T. Medd, who paid particular attention to the election frauds of which the Ross Government had been found guilty, and which they had made no attempt to prevent. It was a vigorous arraignment and was well received by the meeting.

Mr. E. A. Peck, in an able speech, pointed out that there was no doubt that the Ross Government would be snowed under at the election, and it important that Peterborough should send a representative who would be in touch with the Government, in order that the needs of the County should be well presented. With its large amount of territory, remote from railways, the County was entitled to Government assistance for the purpose of improving its highways—the only means of travel which the people in these sections had. In keeping the present bridge system in operation, it was pointed out that the Government had assisted materially, and Chemong Lake Bridge and Gannon's Narrows Bridge were instances.

Mr. Peck said it was unfair to compare the finances of Ontario with those of Quebec. Of the many millions received from timber sales, only three millions were now left. The speaker dwelt on the fact that out of ninety-five millions which the Reformers had received since they had taken office, they expended in the county about one million dollars, and he pointed out that it was only one dollar in every hundred. The extent and population of the County were such that it was entitled to a much larger sum than that which had been expended here.

The legislation which the Liberals claimed had been passed was only such as might fairly be expected from the Legislature, and in fact was to be found on the statute books in all the States of the Union, or in England. They did not point to any legislation of a general character in advance of any other country. They made no promise of any useful legislation in the interests of the people of the Province in the future. Their cry was "Build up New Ontario," but they were unable to say what they would do for Old Ontario if they were returned to power.

Mr. Geo. Fitzgerald also made a rousing speech, in which he severely criticised the operations of an official of the Government in the present campaign, who was canvassing and working in other ways for the Liberal candidate.

The meeting closed with cheers for the King, Mr. Whitney and Mr. Bradburn. Things look exceedingly bright at Young's Point.

HOCKEY.

The Junior Maple Leafs defeated the Rattle Snakes by the score of 7 to 8 in a recent game. The teams were—

Auburns—Goal H. O'Hern, point C. Welsh, coverpoint F. Carlton, forwards J. Carter, G. Brisbon, F. Hayes, R. Allison.

A THEORY PROVED

A New Idea Which Means a Great Deal in the Treatment and Cure of Disease

Dr. Leonhardt, of Lincoln, Neb., the foremost physician of the Western States, has put forward a new theory as to the cause of disease. He says:

"There can be no doubt, from the evidence at hand, that the Stomach is and has always been the first cause of ninety per cent. of all the illness of mankind. The failure of the Stomach to digest the food properly results in fermentation and decomposition, and the poisons arising from the foul and rotting mass get into the blood and tissue and nerves and breed disease of every kind.

Dr. Leonhardt has found a remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Constipation. He has tried it in thousands of cases without a single failure.

He calls it Anti-Pill. It is sold at 25c. by all druggists or the Wilson-Fyle Co., Limited, Niagara Falls, Ont. Sole agents for Canada. 100

Sold in Peterborough by Jas. J. Lynch, 165 Hunter street.

American Consul-General McQuade, who has just landed at Victoria from Canton, China, says that Chinese officialdom is rotten, and that Japan will soon establish suzerainty over China.

"This flour is just as good as" begins the grocer. "Send me "Royal Household" never-the-less" interrupts the woman who knows. "I have tried 'just-as-good' flour before."

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

NEAREST GROCER:—We are always glad to send to our correspondents the name of the nearest grocer who handles Royal Household Flour.

HOW MANY RECIPES:—We sent the ten recipes that one of our correspondents asked for last week for her neighbors. We are always glad to send as many recipes as are needed.

THE BEST PAYS BEST:—The reason grocers find it pays to push Royal Household Flour is not because the profit is larger per barrel—for it isn't so large—but because it pays to please the customer.

HARD WHEAT VERSUS SOFT WHEAT:—Royal Household Flour is made of the best grade of hard wheat. Hard wheat is the best spring wheat grown in Manitoba. Soft wheat is winter wheat—inferior for flour making. Some millers advertise that they "blend" soft and hard wheat to get better flour. We do not blend wheat for Royal Household Flour.

THE BEST TEST IS YOUR OWN TEST, IN YOUR OWN HOME.

Your test, Mrs. Home Baker, is final, if you find "Royal Household" best in your baking, there is no argument.

Every day many Canadian women write us how pleased they are with Royal Household Flour —that it is all we say it is.

—that it's just as good for pastry as it is for bread.

—that it's quicker, easier, simpler to bake good bread and good pastry with Royal Household Flour, by the "Royal Household" Recipes.

That's one reason they like it so much.

TESTIMONIALS:—Last week we received nearly five hundred testimonials.

"THE FLOUR FOR ME."

"Royal Household" is the flour for me. I have used the popular brands, but none can compare with Royal Household."—Mrs. J. H. Shearer, 302 Richard Street, Vancouver, B.C. Nov. 12, 1904.

"THERE IS TOO MUCH BAD FLOUR."

"Royal Household" is what the people want—a better flour. There is too much bad flour put on the people of this country at the present time."—J. W. Elliott, Shortreed, B.C. Nov. 27, 1904.

"A GREAT IMPROVEMENT."

"I had an idea Hungarian was as good flour as it was possible to make, but I find "Royal Household" a great improvement, particularily in requiring much less kneading and makes a whiter and lighter bread."—Mrs. G. A. McLauren, Savane, Ont. Oct. 17, 1904.

CITY RESEMBLES AN ARMED CAMP

Strikers will Continue to the Very Last.

WARSAW STATION IS ON FIRE.

And Part of the Track is Torn Up—Police Have Difficulty in Keeping Crowds Back—All the Schools Closed—Admiralty Works Ablaze.

Special to the Review.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23—This afternoon the city again resembled an armed camp.

Strikers continue to drift towards the Palace square and the Cossacks and police are having more and more difficulty in keeping the crowds moving.

A municipal building in the second district was today demolished by rioters. At a meeting of strikers at the Putiloff Iron Works this morning, a resolution was passed, expressing it as the intention of the strikers to continue the struggle to the last drop of blood.

Reports received this evening say several outbreaks have occurred in the Basil Island District.

It is rumored that the Warsaw railroad station is on fire. Yesterday's report that a portion of the track of the Warsaw and Baltic Railroad had been torn up is confirmed.

The northern express has not left the station.

DESPARATE SITUATION

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23—11 a. m.—Up to this hour there has been no renewal of disturbances in the centre of the city but ferment continues in the outlying industrial quarters.

During the night the police made house to house visits warning householders that the rioters were threatening to divide into groups and sack the town.

The official messenger announces that up to 8 o'clock last night the total killed was 76, wounded 233. The strikers apparently finding it impossible to reach the centre of the city in organized masses are entering it single or in small groups.

Many of the principal shops are closed, a strong force of military is patrolling the streets and public anxiety is acute. Interior Minister Sviato-Olk-Mirsky this morning telegraphed orders to close the headquarters of the Workmen's Union. This was done by the workmen themselves without police interfering. All the schools of the city have been closed and in many places the water supply has been cut. The admiralty works at Sevastopol are ablaze and burning furiously. It is learned the greatest uneasiness is felt by the authorities owing to the troops having given signs of insubordination. Disaffection it is said is spreading among the crews of the third Baltic squadron.

BAIL GRANTED THE SCIENTISTS

Bonds Were Fixed at $2,000 Each.

CROWN TAKING PROCEEDINGS

Statement Made That Its Action Will be Against the System Rather Than the Individuals—Hearing of Case Adjourned to Thursday.

(Toronto Star.)

The Magisterial powers beat a graceful retreat Saturday, and the four Christian Scientists who have been held in custody since Wednesday night on a charge of manslaughter, were given their liberty, after being in cofninement for three nights and two days. Bail was granted in bonds of $2,000 for each of them.

Whether it was the comments of the press, or the talk of the man on the street or the opinion of the judges there was a decided change in the attitude of Magistrate Denison. On Thursday, when Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Goodfellow, and Wm. Brundrett were first arraigned on a charge that they did slay and kill Wallace Goodfellow, Mr. Robinette applied for bail. The Magistrate firmly refused it, saying that he had not the power to grant it, and asserting, with emphasis, that even if he could, he would not. He did not regard it as a case for bail. When Mr. Robbinette applied to Justice Anglin, at Osgoode Hall, for bail, his Lordship said that the Police Magistrate had power, under the statutes, to grant it.

This morning the Magistrate was in his office at 9.30, quite early in comparison with other days, and for some time he and the Crown Attorney were in consultation.

When the Court opened, Mr. Hamilton Cassels, K.C., asked that his Worship reconsider his decision not to grant bail.

"Why?" asked the Magistrate. "What new light has been thrown on the case since Thursday?"

"If I understand it aright, the Crown is proceeding against the system and not so much against the individuals in this case," began Mr. Cassels. "I do not intend to defend the system before your Worship, but I ask that these people be granted bail in consideration of this fact."

"That is quite correct," said Mr. Curry. "The Crown has no vengeful spirit against the prisoners. We want to stop this method of procedure, and that is practically the reason for the prosecution. We thought we had it checked when the Lewis case resulted in a conviction."

"Shouldn't that have been a lesson to these people?"

"No doubt it should," answered the Crown Attorney.

"Well, what are you going to do about it?" asked the Magistrate.

"The Attorney-General has expressed himself as being willing that tem and not so much against the inequ."

"And do you apply on behalf of the Attorney-General?" enquired his Worship.

"Well—I consent to its being granted," was the answer of the Crown Attorney.

"That takes the responsibility off me," said the Magistrate.

Then the amount was fixed at $2,000 for each of the accused, and the Magistrate directed that they be immediately sent for. He would wait. This also was a concession of the part of his Worship. He seldom waits to grant bail to prisoners.

The hearing of the case was adjourned until Thursday.

BRIEF NEWS NOTES.

What is Taking Place in Peterborough and its Vicinity.

—Paterson's Baby Sodas are as short as pie crust.

—The County Council will meet on Jan. 31st at 2 o'clock.

—A meeting of the Committee of the Whole Council will be held this evening.

—The annual meeting of St. Andrew's church congregation will be held on Thursday night.

—The office bearers of St. Paul's church will meet in the Ontario Bank chambers to-morrow evening.

—An oyster supper will be held in All Saints' church to-morrow night under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary.

—The first of a series of popular band concerts by the 57th Regiment band will be held in the opera house on Friday night.

—The annual meeting of the Home Mission Auxiliary of St. Paul's Mission will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock.

—Mr. G. H. Williamson, Gen.-Secretary, Y.M.C.A., will deliver an address at the Y.P.S.C.E. meeting in St. Paul's church this evening.

—Look out for roorbacks. Several nonsensical and utterly untrue political stories are already in circulation and doubtless more will follow.

—St. Paul's church will add 600 volumes to its Sunday School library. The cost will be about $250, and a special contribution is being asked of the congregation.

—The closing meeting of the campaign will be held in the Ennismore town hall to-morrow night by Mr. T. E. Bradburn, the popular Conservative standard bearer.

—The Girls' Guild of George-st. Methodist church will meet on Tuesday evening at a quarter to eight sharp. A full attendance of all members is requested.

—Two meetings in the interest of Mr. Moore will be held in the East Riding to-night—one at Havelock, and the other at Keene, to be addressed by Mr. Dennistoun.

—The Rev. editor of the Globe is going around addressing political meetings, instead of attending to his business, which explains matters. We thought all the time that a lot of those Globe editorials were written by the office boy.—Belleville Intelligencer.

—Mr. Geo. W. Powell, who some time ago sold out his meat business, has gone into the line again in the premises lately occupied by Jackson Bros., George-st., near London-st. Mr. Powell has had many years' experience in his trade and will meet all wants in good style.

—The cradle roll, kindergarten and junior departments of St. Paul's church Sunday school will be entertained to tea from 5 to 7 o'clock on Monday afternoon next, January 30th, and afterwards a programme will be rendered. On Tuesday the intermediate and senior classes will be entertained.

—At the regular meeting of the Epworth League of George-st. Methodist church this evening Mr. T. Herbert Hutchinson, assistant secretary of the Y.M.C.A., will take up the subject of early persecution of the Christian Church. A good programme has been provided, and an enjoyable evening is promised.

—The Young Men's Guild of George-st. church will hold an especially interesting meeting on Thursday evening next, and a cordial invitation is extended to all young men, whether identified with George-st. Methodist church or not. These meetings are very enjoyable and are being well attended.

The Daily Review
MONDAY, JAN. 23, 1905.

UNDULY AGITATED.

Our contemporary, the Examiner, is very much agitated at Mr. Whitney not speaking of his policy. Does the Examiner forget that the Conservative policy was tried before the electorate in 1902 and endorsed by a popular majority of 7,000! The Conservatives did not bring on the present campaign; they did not need one because they were in an actual majority. The Liberals, or rather the "Rossists" adopted this disgraceful scheme to make another effort to keep the tottering ship above water.

The Conservatives are called upon to keep the real issue before the electorate, which is not one of policy, but of corruption and political debauchery, as being the causes of the present condition of the Liberal party. That is the issue, and on it the electorate will pass judgment by turning the political juggler and his parasites out of power on January 25th.

The reverend and righteous editor of the Globe will make his bow to a Peterborough audience this evening. Judging by the utterances that he made in the editorial columns of the Globe last fall, utterances which were doubtless inspired by his attending divine service the Sunday previous, these "Monday visions" may be expected to be referred to by the reverend editor at the forthcoming meeting.

In case that some of our readers should have forgotten these sermonettes, we publish for reference's sake one of them. Thus said the reverend J. A. Macdonald, on Nov. 7, 1903:

"The present distress has not come by accident or chance, or as the result of a change of Government policy, and not at all because of any growth of power or prestige in the Opposition. It has come through the cooling enthusiasm and the slackening efforts of not a few Liberals. And the secret of it is in the discredited election methods sometimes resorted to, and the activity of political parasites who make party service a means of private gain. Because of electoral corruption here and the prominence of party heelers there, Ontario Liberalism has lost something of its old-time self-respect and its note of confident and public-spirited enthusiasm has lost some of its strength and resonance.

"There is but one thing open to the Liberals of Ontario, and that thing is their first and most pressing duty. The barnacles on the ship must be treated with an iron hand. The interests of the Liberal party are superior to those of any individual and the interests of the province are supreme over all. Half measures will not avail."

The electorate knows too well how sincere the Globe-editor has been in this article. The "barnacles on the ship," are still there, and the party is growing from bad to worse. This "reverend" said afterwards that he "would look the blackest page of Liberalism in the face and yet support Ross."

Reference to the party convention in Toronto is absurd. That convention was packed with heelers, grafters and machine operators and a host of office holders in the employ of the Government. It is natural that they should support and extol Ross. But the rank and file of true Liberals will rally around Conservatives and Independents on January 25th to smash the machine. We would advise the reverend Globe editor to refer to his preaching on "barnacles," "party heelers" "loss of self-respect of Ontario Liberalism."

MORTGAGED SURPLUS.

The Provincial Auditor admits that the receipts of the various Government departments are only audited "in a general way as to results."

Sandfield Macdonald left a cash surplus of $3,815,000.00 and timber limits of vast extent and uncut stretching down to Lake Simcoe.

To-day the surplus is mortgaged and the timber limits are bare to the south of Lake Nipissing.

An examination of the public accounts for 1903 shows the surplus assets to consist of the following:—

Cash in Banks...	$1,227,731 25
In interest bearing securities...	190,962 23
	$1,418,693 48

This is exactly $2,396,307.00 less than Sandfield Macdonald's cash surplus.

But even this reduced surplus is mortgaged.

The provincial auditor certifies that the present value (1903) of the railway debt for which obligations have been issued is... ... ... $2,290,122 25 and of the annuities issued is... ... ... 1,782,631 29

Total...	$4,072,753 54

There are many other liabilities of the Province such as $6,000,000 Temiscaming bonds and $2,000,000 Soo guarantee and $5,300,000 guarantee James Bay R.R. but let us assume, as is asserted, that the assets represented by these debts are equal to them.

Everyone knows however, that while the liabilities must be paid the assets are never realized upon.

That leaves us to face the fact that we have an absolute debt of over $4,000,000 with only about $1,000,000 cash to meet it and an unqualified debt claimed by the Dominion of $1,000,000 under Indian Treaty No. 3.

When, as is rumored, it is announced that the Soo guarantee has been, by prodigious financial ability, assumed for the time by American capitalists who find a treasure in the easily frightened Government, let the people remember that this Province is not able to retire its unsecured and immediate and home-made liabilities of $4,000,000.

APPLY THE REMEDY.

Under the heading "not party, but purity," the Christian Guardian, the official organ of the Methodist Church in Canada, is the latest denominational publication to speak out in the interest of clean government, honest elections and the termination of fraudulent and unscrupulous methods to preserve a political party in power. It points out that the ethics which happily govern the conduct of Canadians in business and social life must come to govern them universally. Political life must be purified, the standard of citizenship raised, the country's character and reputation reestablished, and the Guardian appeals to all its readers in the high name of Christian citizenship to do their best to remove the stain.

It says in part:—

"The question, the essential question, before this country, and particularly before this province, at this moment, is not, we say again, a question of party politics. It is the question of reinstating ourselves in our own self-respect and in the respect of the world, by cleansing ourselves, at whatever cost of party tie or personal feeling, from the political immorality which is sapping our vitals. The very fact that there is so much apathy on the question, the very fact that there are at this very hour thousands of persons who believe it to be more essential to the common weal that this or that political party should triumph than that every man sent up as the people's representative should be himself a strong, pure man, and should be elected by honorable and straightforward methods—the very fact, we say, shows how deep-seated is the insidious and fatal disease in our system, and how far its poison has spread. The healthiest sign that we could show would be an adequate recognition of the unhealthiness of our condition. That we are not sensitive to it makes it all too apparent that mortification has set in. When that is the case, the remedy must necessarily be radical and heroic. To be effective, it must also be prompt."

CAMPAIGN ECHOES.

Look out for roorbacks.

Wednesday! Wednesday!!

Give J. P. Whitney a chance.

Mr. Bradburn stands for a secret ballot.

Two days more of work and then victory.

Mr. Whitney will give the province a proper audit.

Work till the clock strikes five on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr Whitney's success will be a victory of not party, but purity.

Even with Sir Wilfrid Laurier's assistance the Ross Government cannot be saved.

Bradburn and Moore—they are the men to hustle for, to vote for and to cheer for.

Mr. McWilliams name is No. 2 on the ballot paper. It will also be No. 2 on Wednesday night.

The Brantford Courier says that the Conservatives will carry West Peterborough by 400.

The tu quoque argument is a mighty slim defence of justification and equivalent to the small boy's "you're another."

A number of the government employees in Toronto are ready to resign, realising as they do that a change is at hand.

The Peterborough electors will show Mr. R. F. McWilliams on Jan. 25th, that the Council was big enough for the ambitious youth.

Join in the people's victory on Wednesday by voting for Bradburn and Moore, the men who will redeem West and East Peterborough.

The Conservative candidate in the East riding has covered much more ground than his opponent and will also poll Moore votes on election day.

At the brokers' offices in Toronto even the most ardent supporters of the government will not bet on Ross being returned by the people unless they get odds of almost two to one.

Cap Sullivan remarked when Mr. Ross said he did not know him "Isn't the old man a corker." Well! even the Premier's most intimate friends realise he is a Goner.

Hon. George P. Graham is having the fight of his life in Brockville and Hon. John Dryden's defeat in South Ontario will create no surprise. Ross is too big a load for them to carry.

Probably Mr. J. B. McWilliams will want to repent after election day for his political partisanship, but it will then be too late. A warning does some men no good. They go it blind until they run against a stone wall.

"Oh yes! the Conservatives are just as bad as we are" exclaim the Grits and to prove it they go back three hundred years before the flood instead of confining themselves to the records of the respective parties in Ontario in provincial contests since Ross assumed power. Oh! but that's a different picture.

Mr. J. B. McWilliams, at a salary of about $6.00 per day, is running the election for his son. This salary is paid out of the Government treasury, supported by the taxes of the Liberals and Conservatives as well. If the gentleman has not a right conception of his duties as a civil servant, common sense and decency ought to tell him to mind his own business.

Rev. Dr. Chown, temperance secretary, has issued a special appeal to the Methodists of the province to "everywhere by vote and influence manifest their displeasure and indignation at the disgraceful political corruption that seems to have laid hold of many agencies in public life and in many constituencies in our fair province."

A provincial general election costs the people, through the government, no less than $200,000, and in direct contributions and expenses by the people $500,000 more. The people of Ontario did that two years ago, and now must do it again, for the convenience of Ross. Put an end to these frequent elections by handing the government over to Mr. Whitney.

NO EARNEST ATTEMPT TO STOP OR PUNISH CORRUPTION

There has been persistent tampering with all the safeguards of representative government, from the West Elgin case to the orgy of fraud in Sault Ste. Marie. No resolute effort has been made to prevent these crimes or to punish the offenders. The Government puts forward various excuses, including the most pitiful plea that it was prevented from proceeding by the unwise interference of the Opposition. The excuses are swept away by the swift and resolute action taken by the Government whenever its own existence is threatened, as in the case of the Bribery Pit. No means were neglected to thwart that conspiracy or to punish the conspirators. By equal vigilance it could have made the trade of the plugger and the briber so unsafe that West Elgin and Sault Ste. Marie would have been impossible. The whole machinery of elections, the whole machinery of justice, is in their hands. They failed because they were not in earnest and because their tenure of power was so precarious as to offer temptation for these very crimes.

THE GREAT CHANGE SINCE 1902.

In 1902 Mr. Ross was making his first appeal to the Province, and among Liberals there was a general feeling that he should not be held responsible for West Elgin and North Waterloo, and West Huron and other election irregularities. He came before the Province with a new government, with a constructive policy, and with an eloquent repudiation of the corrupt methods which had been exposed in these various constituencies. The force of Mr. Ross' personality and the fervor of his eloquence had their first revelation in the field of leadership. The prohibitionists were comforted with a referendum and encouraged to hope that the Government's threefold pledge to give prohibition would yet be redeemed under the leadership of the life-long prohibitionist, who had become head of the Ministry. Ross, Repentance, Reform, Reconstruction, and Reinvigoration were the battle cries of the party. There was enthusiasm for a new leader, for a new policy, for new methods and hope for prohibition still unextinguished.

Two and a half years have passed and what has happened. We still have Mr. Ross and his eloquence, and the promise to "build up New Ontario." All the rest has gone. There is no Repentance, no Reform, and no Prohibition.

To West Elgin and North Waterloo have been added the wretched negotiations with Gamey, the pitiful breach of faith with Hugh Clark, of Centre Bruce, the disfranchisement of North Renfrew, the eager summoning of the Legislature in order to delay the trial of election protests, the abject confession of judgment in North Perth and North Norfolk, and the amazing revelations of electoral villainy in Sault Ste. Marie. The whole movement has been downward and the load of electoral guilt which the Government carries to-day is threefold heavier than when Mr. Ross made his first appeal to the Province. Hence, Mr. Ross must inevitably be defeated on the 25th. Vote for the winning side!

HOW THE VOTER GETS LEFT.

When you come to think of it, what a little say the ordinary voter has in politics. It is only when he gets roused that he makes his voice heard. Generally the candidate is selected by a little bunch of men who consult the Government and who talk up the particular man they want to put in the field. The convention is packed by men who want to stand in with the organization, and through them, with the Government. Then comes a great gathering, with speeches and nominations, and retirements, and the electors find at last that there is just one man left. The voter has to vote for him or stay at home, and so he goes into the contest, conscious that things have been managed and that he really has not had much to say in the matter. And no matter what his views are about the policy of the party, or about the condidate, or even about the honesty of the Government, he is expected to vote for the man whom he has not even had a voice in selecting.

This is why there comes a time in every party when the ordinary everyday elector feels tired of the eternal machine and determines to cut out a path for himself and to vote for honesty and decency.

Then comes a landslide—which is just another name for the effort of a free and enlightened Province to set itself and its party right.

VOTES MORE IMPORTANT THAN JUSTICE.

Votes More Important Than Justice.

A motion by the Liberals of Sault Ste. Marie was made at Osgoode Hall yesterday to have the trial of the 15 persons reported in the Soo election for corrupt practices postponed until after the elections.

Several weeks ago, at the time when the date of the provincial elections was not known, the trial was set for Monday next. The Conservatives are anxious that the trial should proceed, and through E. A. DuVernet opposed the application to Chancellor Boyd, who, with Justice Teetzel, heard the election trial and unseated C. N. Smith, declined to make the order in the absence of Justice Teetzel.

The two important points in the above are: first, that the Liberals are again trying to prevent their workers being punished; and second, that the lawyer who appears for the accused persons is a recognised counsel for the Liberal party and represents them at election trials.

OTONABEE COUNCIL.

The council-elect of the township of Otonabee met on the 9th January, and the following business was transacted and officers appointed:—Wm. B. Stewart and C. Howson were appointed members of the local Board of Health; John Dinsdale and Wm. McCallister, sanitary inspectors; Dr. McWilliams, M.H.O.; Wm. Drummond, collector, at a salary of $75.00; Walter Dickson, assessor, salary, $75: The clerk was authorised to get a copy of the Municipal World and an assessor's guide fo the assessor. A communication was received soliciting a grant to the Children's Sick Hospital, Toronto. On motion a sum of $5 was granted. The Medical Health Officer and secretary of the Board of Health presented reports as to the number of cases of contagious diseases and deaths resulting therefrom during the past year, and answering a number of questions asked by the Provincial Board of Health. The Medical Health Officer was authorised to procure a new generator for disinfecting after contagious diseases. On motion the following indigents are to be allowed the following sums for their maintenance; Mrs. McDermott, $5 per month; John Doris $5 per month and free house; Jas. Douglas, $3 per month and free house; the Home, at Cobourg, $3.00 per month for Sarah Metcalf; the Protestant Home, Peterborough, $6.00 per month for Mrs. Armstrong. Mr. A. A. Goodfellow was present re his claim for engine broken going through culvert.—Laid over for further consideration. Alex. McFarlane asked for a grant of $25 towards paying for a cut excavated through the old Cobourg Railway embankment on the plea that it was a benefit to the road. No action taken. The following accounts were passed:—A. T. Wedlock, repairing account, $13.85; grate for Keene streets, $1.00; R. M. Dennistoun, legal advice drawing deeds re Armstrong property, $22.05; R. Brown, laying 525 feet cement sidewalk, $65.62; R. H. Campbell, road shovel, 50 cents; W. Drummond and A. Shearer, work on Keene streets, $21.00; Jas. Henderson, $3.00; John Harrison, gravel, 98 cents; Indian department, gravel, $3.10 Anderson F. Skinner, goods for J. Douglas, $15.36; express on election papers, 40 cents; W. Harris, D.R.O., mileage and poll room, $5.00; Wm. Girvin, $6.30; John Anderson, D.R.O., $5.10; Thos. Spence, $2.50; George Robertson, $3.50; hall at Mathers' Corners, poll room, $2.00 hall at Stewart's, $2.00; trustees S.S. No. 3, $2.00; J. M. Drummond, returning officer, D.R.O., and taking ballot boxes to deputy's, $10.00.

Council adjourned to 20th February.

LOOK HERE ROSS.

(With apologies to Shakespeare.)

Lt.-Governor—The law hath now a strong hold on you—
It is enacted in laws of Ontario,
If it be proved against a party
That by direct or indirect attempts
It steals the vote of any citizen,
The party against the which it doth contrive,
Shall seize the reins of office and take
Possession of the privy coffers of the State;
And the offender's official life stands
At the mercy of the sovereign people,
In which predicament I say thou stand'st.
For it appears by manifest proceeding,
That indirectly, and directly too,
Thou has contrived against the very life
Of the people; and thou hast incurred
The danger formally by me rehearsed—
Down therefore, and beg mercy of the people
Rev. D. C. Hossack—(Beg therefore that thou mayst live an honest life
And yet thy office being forfeit to the State
And thou hast not left a shred of reputation,
How henceforth shall thou thy head uphold?
Whitney—Thou shalt see the difference of our spirit,
I pardon thee thy sins before thou ask it,
But the office is forfeit to the people.
Ross—Nay, take my life and all, pardon not that.
You take my house when you do take the prop that doth sustain my house. You take my life
When you do take the glory for which I live.
The People—What mercy can you render him, Whitney?
Whitney—So please the Governor and the people
To take his office and one-half his votes,
I am content; so he will let me have
That half of his to add unto my own.
Two things provided more—that for this favor
He presently become an honest man;
The other that he do record a vow
Here in the Court, to nevermore attempt
To switch a ballot or burn a box.
The. Lt.-Governor—He shall do this,
or else I do recant
The pardon that I late pronounced here.
People—Art thou content, Ross? What dost thou say?
Ross—I am content.
People—The quality of mercy is not strained;
'Tis a lesson for future generations.

THE DOWNEYVILLE CASE

The Emily School Difficulty Has Been Amicably Settled.

The Downeyville school case is ended, and the Separate School faction seems to have won out. At all events nearly all the Catholics who were in favor of the Public School have forsaken that cause, and ordered their solicitor to withdraw the suit to recover the property. On the other hand, the Separate School authorities have signified their willingness to surrender the deed and pay all law costs to date. Thus it seems that an amicable settlement has been reached.

This is a result of a sermon preached at Downeyville on Sunday last by Bishop O'Connor, Peterborough, in which his Lordship rebuked his hearers for their school quarrel and told them to stop it. They could, he said, hold a picnic in the summer to pay the costs incurred so far. Moreover, as a result of the sermon, both the teachers of both the Public and Separate Schools, who are Catholics, resigned, and there was no school on Monday.

On that day, Mr. I. E. Weldon, solicitor for the Public School supporters, got instructions from his clients to withdraw the suit, and Mr. H. O'Leary, K.C., solicitor for the Separate School people guaranteed his costs.

But for the settlement, the case would have come up in Toronto Saturday. At the examination of witnesses held here last week Father Bretherton described his parishioners who then adhered to the Public School as "hickory Catholics," who had no minds of their own. While the exact terms of settlement are not known, it is assumed that the section will become a Separate School section, with the school building occupied as before. In that case Father Bretherton has won a complete victory — Lindsay Watchman-Warder.

Helpless With Salt Rheum

Our Flag.

A neat and concise little volume, bearing the title "Our Flag, What it Means," has just been issued from the press. The merits of the book are so many that it deserves more than a passing notice. It is well printed, well arranged, copiously illustrated, and is a model of conciseness.

The author has, within the limits of fifty-five pages, compressed all the information and in an interesting form, that can be found in large and expensive volumes. Much pains has been taken with the matter treated, so that it may be considered an authority on the subject.

The author, Major, W. J. Wright, of Brockville, is to be congratulated upon the production of such a really excellent little book. Its price, 25c, places it within the reach of all.

A Clever Valentine Party.

Elizabeth W. Morrison, a talented newspaper woman, tells in "Madame" for February, how to give a Valentine party, including various decorations. Beautiful illustrations are given and the story is one which will be read with great interest.

"Madame" is the magazine "For Women Who Think," and is published by The Ford Publishing Company, Indianapolis.

HOW TO MARK YOUR BALLOT

On Wednesday, Jan. 25th, in Support of Clean Government.

The form of ballot to be used in the Provincial elections next Wednesday is given below. For the benefit of those who cannot read, it is probably well to explain that Mr. Bradburn's name is printed in blue and Mr. McWilliams' in red, the former also being number one, and Mr. McWilliams number two:

1	BRADBURN Thomas Evans Bradburn, of the Township of North Monaghan, Insurance Agent.	X
2	McWILLIAMS Roland Fairbairn McWilliams, of the Town of Peterborough, Barrister-at-law.

WHY LIBERALS BREAK TIES WON'T STAND FOR ROSSISM

Exposures of Machine Infamy Revolt Men of the Type of S. H. Blake.

Liberals of the type of Hon. S. H. Blake, Rev. D. C. Hossack, and Rev. Nathaniel Smith hasten to dissociate themselves from the party of Hon. G. W. Ross. Still they claim to be Liberals and that they have not departed from the principles they have professed all their lives.

Rossism is not Liberalism. Hundreds of Liberals are breaking party ties and on the 25th of the present month will vote for the Conservative candidates. And the independent electors of Ontario will join the old-time Liberals in the house-cleaning exercises.

The ills of the Liberal party date from the accession of Hon. G. W. Ross to the leadership of the Liberal party in Ontario. This event occurred in 1899. Since and including 1899 we have had a record of electoral debauchery that has made the name of Ontario a reproach to honest people. Hon. G. W. Ross signalized his acceptance of the duties of Premier by reorganizing the Cabinet. He found himself with a very small majority in the House and the machine was organized to strengthen his position. The West Elgin frauds followed. Crooks were imported into the riding to switch the votes of honest Conservatives. These crimes were exposed by the Conservatives and the Liberal candidate made a confession that "the declared number of votes for Mr. Macnish largely exceeded the number of bona fide votes cast for him." By such frauds Mr. Ross was enabled to continue in office. The general election of 1902 left him in a still worse plight. Though in a minority of the popular vote he had so arranged the constituencies as to give him a majority of two in the Legislature; but two was not a very large surplus and efforts were made to increase it. The purchase of members elected to oppose the Government was one of the means by which Mr. Ross determined to hold on, and in the bye-elections he counted on adding a few more members to his voting strength. The "Three Norths" followed. All were carried by Mr. Ross by methods afterwards exposed in the election courts.

With the revelations of Mr. Gamey the fortunes of Ross declined and subsequent bye-elections failed to give the Premier the assistance he required. The most revolting electoral methods were resorted to at Sault Ste. Marie and by wholesale plugging by a band of American toughs the Government succeeded in temporarily forestalling defeat.

The Soo revelations were the climax of a long series of corrupt acts performed by unscrupulous politicians on behalf of Premier Ross. Hardly less revolting were the methods employed by agents of the machine to unseat Donald Sutherland in South Oxford. For his efforts in behalf of Premier Ross the chief conspirator, Jackson, was rewarded with a lucrative office in England.

Is there any wonder that many honest Liberals are revolting, and that others who will not go the length of declaring their opposition have no heart for the present contest which means the life or death of Rossism and all that the term implies?

WHITNEY IS ON RECORD FOR ADVANCED PROGRAM

Mr. Whitney will go into power with a well defined and progressive policy and while he makes it unmistakably clear that the main issue in the present contest is honest and decent Government he promises legislation along advanced lines. The extremity of the Government since the advent of Mr. Ross to the premiership has prevented the adoption of legislation of this character. Mr. Ross has been too much occupied with the business of attempting to strengthen his precarious hold on office to devise legislation or to carry into execution his much-heralded program of "building up Ontario."

Mr. Whitney offers a comprehensive program. His attitude on Provincial issues has been in the interests of the whole people. He proposes to broaden the scope of the agricultural college, to establish experimental stations and to give increased agricultural instruction in the public schools. An experimental fruit station in the Niagara District has been suggested.

The encouragement of a sanitary system of sewerage in towns and villages is one of the proposals of the Opposition. The Government has offered inducement to municipalities to construct permanent roadways and wherever a comprehensive system of roadways has been constructed part of the cost has come from the Provincial Revenues. The same method could well be adopted with regard to sewerage, and the Opposition has placed itself on record in this regard.

The Opposition has spoken in favor of public ownership. In the Legislature Dr. Pyne's resolution favoring the operation of the Temiskaming Railway for ten years as an experiment was voted down by Mr. Ross and his followers.

Fair taxation of railways is a plank in the Conservative platform.

Reforms are needed in the educational system of the Province and Mr. Whitney has pledged himself to apply himself to this task. His attitude on this question is clear. The Public School system should not be regarded as a mere stepping stone to the Collegiate Institute or the University. It should fit a boy or girl for the battle of life.

The nationalization of the water powers of the Province, free school books, the disposal of pulp and timber concessions at public auction, reform of the mining laws, a strict enforcement of the license laws of the Province, the branding of prison made goods—these are some of the reforms consistently advocated by Mr. Whitney and his Colleagues in and out of the Legislature.

AN IMPENITENT'S SOLILOQUY.

Forget! oh, forget! to the faithful I'll say,
All the sins of my public career;
With seven seals quickly now seal them I pray.
For lo! the elections are near.

Dark deeds that oft haunt me by day and by night,
Now boldly I'll try to disown;
For I fear seven seals cannot hide them from sight,
So many, so monstrous they've grown.

That many there are whom I cannot deceive,
Already I've found to my cost;
But the bulk of the party will stay, I believe,
Till all, even honor, be lost.

With these and such hirelings as money can buy—
And money we have now galore—
And with Purity's flag waving wildly on high,
Perhaps I may win out once more.

By arts and by wiles, I've no match that I know,
In dodging the hardest blows dealt;
With these I'll meet Whitney—so upright a foe
Never stoops to strike under the belt.

In days not lang syne I have ridden with grace
Two horses at once without fail;
But how, at next "Derby" can I win the race
With my coursers all mixed head and tail?

Coalition we offered to stay the sad end
Of my self-extoll'd rule o'er this land;
But since it was spurned I have fought and will fend
With the most deadly weapons at hand.
With tongue and with pen I will blacken the name,
With the aid of my partisan press
I will tear into tatters the honor, the fame
Of all who disfavor confess.

Yet, withal, I'm afraid—and the fear gives me pain—
For I love pelf and prestige, and power—
That soon now shall end my inglorious reign,
And sad is the thought of that hour.

But like Great Mokanna, Korassan's Veiled Chief—
As in Lalla Rookh tales we are told—
No foeman, nor slave shall enjoy the relief
'Till the last, my despair to behold.
—FERAMORZ.

WILL BUILD NEW SCHOOL

Separate School Board Purchase Lot On Reid St. Addition to Lake St. Proposed

The erection of a new school is a work which the Separate School Board have in view at some time in the not far distant future. In fact, it is understood that operations will be proceeded with immediately upon the conclusion of all negotiations in connection with the purchase of the Murray street property for Armory and Collegiate Institute purposes. In the meantime the lot lying immediately north of the Bishop's palace, west of Reid and south of Brock streets has been purchased for Separate school purposes, the price being, it is understood, $5,000. The proposal is to erect a building that will be thoroughly up to date, well equipped and which will, as far as possible, realize the requirements oft he future. The new school will contain six or seven class rooms.

It is altogether likely that an addition will be made to the Lake street school, and that other improvements will be made. That part of the town is growing very rapidly and the need of greater school accommodation has become apparent.

THE VALUE OF MAN

Rev. H. B. A. Ketchen Speaks Upon His Worth and Possibilities.

Speaking in St. Paul's Church last night, Rev. Mr. Ketchen, from the text where Christ exclaimed "How much then is a man better than a sheep" (St. Matthew 12—12), first referred to the material comparison, then the commercial and lastly the divine conception of manhood. He spoke of the dignity of man, the great purpose for which he was created and how we should all live—not for what we could get out of life, but for what we could give to life. We should be true to ourselves, to our better natures and realize the true purpose, possibilities and high ideals which God had implanted in us. The greatest thing in the world was the will of man. Referring to the commercial value of man he said too many employers looked upon him for just what they could make out of him—how much he was worth a year—forgetting that he was a divine being created in the image of God and possessing an immortal soul. He should not be regarded as a simple unit—but as a divine act, a human birthright.

In political life aspirants seldom ask the question "How much is a man better than a sheep", if a man can be drawn out to sell his vote from $2 to $5—simply the price of a spring lamb. What we needed to-day was a declaration of independence and an assertion of true manhood. Never until we realize the true principle and purpose of manhood and regard it as a free, independent personality, can we have pure politics or anything approaching representative government.

—The Y.M.C.A. Debating Club executive met on Saturday evening and arranged a very interesting programme for February 1st.

SMASH THE MACHINE!

Electors of Ontario! the crisis is at hand. On Wednesday next you will be called upon to pass sentence on the Machine; the Machine which for many years has been at the back of a veritable carnival of corruption; the Machine which figured so prominently in the elections in West Huron, North Waterloo, West Elgin, North Perth, North Norfolk, North Grey and at the "Soo," as well as in many other constituencies; the Machine which sends out as its emissaries Capt. Sullivan, Tom Lewis, Duncan Bole, J. P. Jackson and others of that ilk; the Machine which has been found guilty of grossest corruption, ballot-switching, ballot-burning, ballot-plugging and ballot-stealing.

The Ross Administration stands to-day condemned by many of the best Liberals.

The Hon. S. H. Blake says that Mr. Ross cannot shield himself behind the assertion that he did not personally know of the corruption. Mr. Blake, whilst intimating in plain language that he does not believe the Premier's assertion, at the same time points out that if Mr. Ross' assertion be true then the Premier must be an idiot and certainly not fit to be trusted with the reins of Government. Ross is either a "knave or a fool." In either case he should be put out of power.

The Rev. D. C. Hossack, Rev. M. Kettlewell, Mr. P. D. Ross, Mr. W. E. Raney, Mr. J. W. Holmes, ex-M.P.P., and many other old-time Liberals take the same view, and have decided that punishment must be meted out to those responsible for the iniquities.

Whilst electoral impurity is undoubtedly the great issue now before the people, there are at the same time grave abuses to be remedied by Mr. Whitney when he comes into power.

The finances of the Province are not properly audited, as was shown by the sworn testimony of the Auditor. What about the numerous defalcations in the Succession Duties Office? Where was the audit?

Then, there is the present paralysis of the law in not pressing prosecutions against political offenders of the Liberal stripe. Those accused of crime must be equally prosecuted and punished, be they Conservatives or Liberals.

The Liberals have been in power for 32 years: altogether too long a time for the country. The "barnacles" have gathered in clusters. All the Crown Attorneys, Magistrates, Clerks of Courts, Bailiffs, License Commissioners, Rangers, Colonization Road Masters, and, in fact, an immense horde of other officials and employees are Liberals, the appointees of the Liberal Government. They constitute a very strong and important part of the Machine. They are all working "tooth and nail" for their employer.

Electors! Mr. Whitney promises clean and able administration. Rise in your might, and smash the Machine!

WHAT THE PREMIER MEANS BY CORRUPTION.

In order that the Premier's statement that corruption has not been brought home to the Government may be fully understood, it is interesting to know what crimes he understands to be indications of corruption.

The Hon. G. W. Ross at Lindsay on the 1st May, 1902, said:

> "In the case of the offenders in West Elgin, no prosecutions were possible, either because the offenders had left the Country, or the Offence committed was not technically within the Election Act."

We all know that Pritchett acted as Deputy Returning Officer under the name of Marshall B. Johnson, and signed that name to the return in the Poll Book.

There was an actual Marshall B. Johnson who was present and gave his evidence before the Commissioners who were appointed to investigate the matter. Yet while the offence that Pritchett committed amounted to what, in any other man, would seem to be forgery of another's name, he is let off, because the offence is not, according to the Hon. G. W. Ross, within the Election Act. Consequently, it is open to the Premier to say that corruption, or improper dealing, was not brought home to Prichett because through a technicality he did not come within the Election Act. But whoever tried to bring him within either that or the Criminal Code? The Government take no step to treat the point, and the putting forward of such an excuse by the Premier is an evidence that, in his view, unless without any trial he considers a man guilty of an election offence, corruption has not been brought home to him.

WAS THE GOVERNMENT "NEXT" TO THIS?

The Premier asserts that the Government has not been personally implicated in any of the corruption that has gone on in this Province. He uses the word "personally" of course as meaning individual members of the Government; if he is right then either the Official Liberal Organization or the rank and file of the Party must be responsible. This is rather hard on the latter and the Country would be slow to believe that if the Official Organization has been implicated the members of the Government did not know of it. If they knew of it in 1899 then it has been brought home to them that in 1904 Mr. James Vance was still organizing for the Party and Capt. Sullivan was still receiving favors at the Parliament Buildings from this same Government.

Here is what the Election Judges in the West Huron case said on December 21st, 1899, as published in the "Canada Law Journal":

> "The local organizations of the party in this riding, as in others, at many of the recent elections, were largely controlled, managed or assisted by the officers of the provincial party organization, by whom several 'outsiders,' as they were called, were brought into the riding, who acted under the instructions of the secretary of the association, a Mr. Alex. Smith, and his assistant, a Mr. Vance, and in some cases directly under the instructions of the local managers. It does not, I think, admit of doubt that Smith and Vance were both agents of the respondent, and that he and other prominent agents of his . . . knew that they were so."

Further, in West Elgin in reference to the Election held on the 12th January, 1899, the following was Mr. W. T. R. Preston's evidence:

> "I brought Mr. Vance, who was one of Mr. Smith's assistants, in the organizing work in the Province; I brought Capt. Sullivan, with whom I have had considerable experience in bye-elections for a number of years." "They were men who would frown down any possibility of wrong."

Compare this with the signed confession of Mr. McNish, June 26th, 1899:

> "A large number of persons were especially sent into the constituency by men working on behalf of the Liberal Party for the express purpose of taking part on Mr. McNish's behalf in the election held on January 12th, 1899, and we believe that fraudulent and corrupt means were used by some of such persons to secure his election."

BUILDING UP NEW ONTARIO.

Mr. Whitney has announced that he will appoint a Minister of Mines and Forests and will bring him from New Ontario. This is good policy, and is a step in advance of anything contemplated by the Liberal Government until Mr. Whitney announced his intention. But there is another thing that Mr. Whitney owes to Old Ontario; that is to appoint a new Crown Attorney at Sault Ste. Marie. At present four men are walking around, reported by the Judges for corruption, against whom the Attorney-General's Department has made no move. It is left for the Conservatives to take proceedings and no sooner do they do so than there appears before the Election Judge at the Sault an eminent lawyer, who declined to appear for the accused and who could not deny that he was retained by the Liberal Government.

What was he there for? Was it to assist? Not at all, but to object to the prosecution going on.

Why is the Government so busy to stop prosecutions and so lax when its helpers are reported for crimes?

The Premier says that Corruption has not been brought home to the Government. It takes good care never to let the accused be tried for fear they should put it too close to the fountain head.

A TANGIBLE TEXT

A visitor to our town this evening will be the Rev. J. A. Macdonald, now editor of the Globe newspaper, and who comes here to address a meeting in the interests of the McWilliams. Rev. Mr. Macdonald when he held the pastorate of a popular and influential church, in St. Thomas, was looked upon as a moral and theological headlight, and those who sat under the droppings of the sanctuary had the right to expect, and did expect that he should be fearless in denouncing wrong and urgent in extolling that which was right. Nor were his hearers disappointed. Hence it is reasonable to assume that when he entered the newspaper field—than which profession there is none more honorable—he did not part with a proper conception and sense of right and fitness of things nor did he set aside the moral value of questions and solace himself with saying and acting in the interests of expediency.

Looking to Rev. Mr. Macdonald, who comes to us as the voice of one crying in the wilderness, and recognising him as a clergyman first and a man of the world afterwards, we shall expect a statement of facts that will tally with public impressions. They must tally, else Rev. Mr. Macdonald's errand is fruitless. When Rev. Mr. Macdonald stands up to speak his audience will see him as the man who said "we must clean off the barnacles," and remembering this, his attention is directed to a state of affairs going on in our midst and one which is on the tongue of reproach from nearly every elector, Conservative or Reform. A Government official entrenched behind years of party service is doing the work of his masters, in steering, manipulating and propelling a campaign for himself and another for the Reform candidate in the riding. Does Rev. Mr. Macdonald feel that this is the sort of thing he can defend and will he defend it. Is not this a case for the use of the "iron hand."

Rev. Mr. Macdonald may as well be told here, as he will be told by many, later that this community does not view with approval the allotment of $2,500 per year as salary to one who gives little in return but party service, and such a party service as can be had for half the money were the job put up at open tender. That this community looks for at least some return for value received; that if a position be little but a sinecure, that it be bestowed on some able brother who has borne the burden and heat of the day in the open field. Will Rev. Mr. Macdonald please give voice to his views on this proposition.

And further, the electors here and hereabouts have a right to be told, and if defence be permissible, given that defence. The able editor has affirmed that we must "scrape off the barnacles," a righteous thought wisely uttered. Will he discover this barnacle, will he call for its separation from the craft to which it has so long clung.

Rev. Mr. Macdonald may dodge these inquiries. He may be industriously, blind, deaf and dumb, but when he rises to speak the question that almost every man among his audience will ask to himself will be. "What will he say about McWilliams, Sr., and his case or will he dodge the issue."

Beyond question the campaign in this riding as far as one side is concerned is a campaign for office and pelf on the part of the principal exploiter. All other considerations are dwarfed beside this. Had the Ross Government been strong enough he would have been ousted long ago, but ability of a kind against a day of necessity counts.

Now it is here pointed out that Mr. McWilliams, Sr could have done the decent thing and so doing have gained some renown at the close of a profitable if not illustrious career. He could—say three months ago—have resigned that $800 per day of[illegible] then, seen a successor appointed thrown himself into the campaign and had some credit to his credit. He would, certainly, have lost his office, but such a loss—is merely to anticipate.

LAMENTED DEATH OF MRS. GEO. A. COX

Passed Away After Illness of Short Duration.

LIFE OF GREAT BENEVOLENCE

Was a Prominent Worker in Many Charitable Institutions--Tribute by Mr Dumble--Funeral in Toronto Tuesday.

The community has been saddened by the news which yesterday came from Toronto that Mrs. George A. Cox, a lady who occupied a large place in the public heart, was dead. Mrs. Cox passed away at the family residence, 439 Sherbourne street, Toronto, after an illness of less than a fortnight. She was seized with pneumonia about two weeks ago, and her constitution, weakened by an old trouble, was unable to stand the attack.

Referring this morning to her death, Mr. D. W. Dumble paid the following tribute: "Mrs. George A. Cox who died on Sunday morning, was the daughter of the late Daniel Hopkins, for many years a welll-known and prominent citizen of Peterborough. She was born in 1844 and married in 1862. Mrs. Cox, in every position of life, was a woman who not only had the unbounded respect and love of her family, but she was respected and admired by the entire community in which she lived. She was a devoted Christian, broad in her views, and energetic in aiding all good works, especially in connection with her own church. For many years she worshipped with her family at Charlotte street church, and was there, in all the ladies' societies of the church, a wise counsellor, an inspiration to effort and of great assistance in all schemes of the church. She was known to those who knew her thoroughly, as a woman of large sympathies and of great benevolence. She was unostentatious and the world knew but little of her benefactions. In Toronto the quiet dignity of the woman, her kindly nature, and good sense, gave her a strong position in all societies where woman lead so effectively and in charitable organizations. She was very zealous and liberal in her efforts to aid in the erection of the Women's Home for students in connection with Victoria University, and in several institutions of charity she was the leading spirit and benefactor.

"Mrs. Cox was a domestic woman and loved her home and her family. Wealth came to her, but she used it with great generosity rather than for display. Her sterling worth and beauty of character endeared her to all and in her death not only Toronto, but the country, has lost the help of a great woman.

"To the Hon. Geo. A. Cox, especially she was a counsellor and friend, and her loss will be irreparable. The community will lament her decease and profoundly sympathize with those who are bereaved. She loved Peterborough, and nothing would have given her greater happiness than to have continued her life here, but her husband and children living in Toronto, it was her wish that her resting place should be near them. Though Mr Cox has recently bought a large burial plot here, interment will be at Toronto on Tuesday.

"Mrs. Cox was very much interested in the Y.W.C.A. here and contributed largely towards its support, and also for the new building. Her last public service here was when she officiated at the laying of the foundation stone of that building."

The Toronto Globe today states—

The many charitable and philanthropic organizations to which her energies and means were ever unstintingly given, and the hundreds who have been the beneficiaries of her widespread but secret benevolence, will long feel the loss of Mrs. Geo. A. Cox, whose death occurred yesterday.

Mrs. Cox, whose maiden name was Margaret Hopkins, was born in Peterborough sixty-two years ago. She was married to Hon. Geo. A. Cox, forty-four years ago, and leaves a family of five children, Messrs. Edward W., Frederick G., and Herbert C., of Toronto, and Mrs. A. E. Ames, of Toronto, and Mrs. A. L. Davis, of Peterborough.

Deceased was a member of the Governing Boards of a number of public charities, and her own acts of philanthropy, though rarely revealed, except to those concerned, were most numerous. Her works in connection with the erection of Annesley Hall, the residence for women students at Victoria College, and her great aid in the operations of the Victorian Order of Nurses were conspicuous recent examples of her public services. She was a leader in the work of the Sherbourne street Methodist church, and at the service last night, Rev. Dr. Henderson, the Associate Missionary Secretary made a reference to her devoted and self-sacrificing life work. At the Sunday school the Superintendent, Mr. J. W. Flavelle, feelingly referred to the departed friend of the school and her many deeds of kindness, by which the children would remember her.

The funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon. The family have requested that it be private, and that there be no flowers.

ESTEEMED CITIZEN DEAD

John S. Boswell, Dennistoun Ave. Expired Yesterday.

The death occurred yesterday afternoon of John S. Boswell, for the last fourteen years a resident of Peterborough. He had been ill for some time with Bright's disease. The deceased was sixty-five years of age, and was born in Cobourg. He resided for the greater part of his life an Cannington, Ont., and came here in 1891.

During his residence here his good qualities made him liked and respected by all with whom he came in contact. He for many years followed the business of insurance agent and was the local representative of the Gore Fire Insurance Company, Galt.

His wife and two sons survive. The sons are E. J. Boswell, Winnipeg and M. C. Boswell, Boston. Two brothers and a sister are also left to mourn his loss. They are Col. C. M. Boswell, of Winnipeg; B. M. Boswell, of Elora, and Mrs. Giffords, of Cobourg.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 from the family residence, 5 Dennistoun ave., to Little Lake Cemetery.

FUNERAL OF MRS. WILSON

Solemn Service Held At Belleville - The Floral Tributes.

(Belleville Intelligencer.)

The funeral of the late Mrs. (Rev.) J. P. Wilson took place Saturday morning, and many were present to pay their last tribute of respect to one who in life was beloved by all who knew her. At 9.15 the remains were taken to Bridge-st. church, where service was held. The body of the church was filled with sympathising friends. As the casket was being taken to the altar the "Dead March in Saul" was played by Prof. V. I. Hunt. The services opening by the singing of the hymn "Rock of Ages." Rev. G. Brown, pastor of the Tabernacle, conducted the services, and other ministers taking part were the Rev. C. Parker, of Norwood; Rev. W. J. Jolliffe, B.C.L., of Peterborough; Rev. N. A. McDiarmid, D.D., of Madoc, and Rev. R. H. Leitch, of this city. At the conclusion of the service the cortege was reformed and proceeded to the G.T.R. station, when the remains were taken to Napanee for interment. The cortege from the parsonage to the church, and also from the church to the station, was formed in the following order:—

Pall Bearers.
Bearers.

Ceremony to Take Place in St. Peter's Cathedral.

CHURCH DIGNITARIES COMING

Rev. Father Scollard to be Consecrated Bishop of Sault Ste. Marie by His Grace Archbishop Gauthier, of Kingston, on Feb. 24th.

The consecration of Rev. Father D. J. Scollard, as Bishop of the new Diocese of Sault Ste. Marie, will take place in St. Peter's Cathedral on Friday, February 24th. The ceremony will be attended by a large number of leading dignataries of the Church as well as members of the priesthood from all parts of Canada. His Grace Archbishop Gauthier, of Kingston, will consecrate the new Bishop. The sermon on that occasion will be delivered by Bishop McEvoy, of London. Other Church dignataries who are expected to be present are, His Grace Archbishop Duhamel, Ottawa; His Grace Archbishop O'Connor, of Toronto; His Lorship Bishop Dowling, of Hamilton; His Lordship Bishop McDonnell, of Alexandria, and His Lordship Bishop Lorraine, of Pembroke, besides several bishops from the Province of Quebec. It is said that excursions will be run from different points in the new diocese.

Cured Kidney Disease

Mrs. Fred Hills, Walton St., Port Hope, Ont., states: "I was troubled for some time with kidney disease, and though I tried a great many different medicines never succeeded in obtaining relief until I began the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. By the regular use of this preparation for a time I was completely cured of kidney disease."

FRANK SULLIVAN TALKS.

Threatens to Speak Out—Resents Abuse Heaped Upon Him and His Father.

Toronto, Jan. 23.—Frank Sullivan, son of "Cap." Sullivan, of election fame, has given to the press the following self-explanatory letter, which he sent some time ago to Premier Ross, Hon. J. M. Gibson, Hon. Richard Harcourt, and the editor of the Globe:—

Dear Sir,—There is a limit to the abuse that human nature can endure. The limit is perhaps sooner reached when the abuse comes to one in the form of base ingratitude.

Our family name has been persistently kept before the public by the Conservative press—not at all to our liking, but our loyalty to the Liberal party would not permit us to complain of this or protest against it.

However, on Sept. 17th, 1904, last, the Toronto Globe printed an editorial in which it spoke of "unsavory Sullivan species," and made most unpleasant reflections on us.

Now, we might cite numerous other instances where we have been made a target for everything but "savory" missiles of our friends. The slurs, insults and buffoonery of the Tories we have accepted without a murmur, but when those who have been sheltering in the shade of our protection begin to pelt us, we find it necessary to take up the cudgels and fight back.

In short, unless this base work is stopped, and a satisfactory apology made, the "Sullivans" will endeavor to have "the unsavory methods" re-labelled.

Unless an apology by the Globe is given in a conspicuous place in its daily issue before Monday, January 16, 1905, we shall consider ourselves at liberty to take such steps as we regard most efficacious to place ourselves and our erstwhile "friends" in the true light.

FRANK SULLIVAN.

WORKERS WERE THERE

Large Attendance At Mr Bradburn's Committee Rooms — Splendid Prospects.

There was a very large and enthusiastic attendance of workers at Mr. Bradburn's committee rooms in the Opera House on Saturday and much was done towards perfecting the organization.

There was no speaking as it was felt that more could be done by good hard work in marking the lists and planning the best method of getting the vote out. Great enthusiasm was displayed and it was the general opinion that Mr. Bradburn's election was assured. However the workers are not going to let up because they think that, but are going to continue right up until five o'clock on Wednesday.

The majority of the workers after finishing at the Opera House assembled for a social hour in the Young Conservative club rooms on George-st. These rooms which are situated over Dutton's store have been most handsomely fitted up and make a very comfortable home for the young Conservatives. There is a very handsome and commodious reception room a well equipped pool and billiard room with all the current publications of the day, a card room, lavatory and cloak rooms.

The equipping of the billiard and pool room is not yet completed. One pool table has been installed and two more and a billiard table will be put in, in a few days. The rooms are now open for members and they are cordially invited to make use of them.

THE KING'S SUCCESSION.

At St. John's church yesterday morning the service for the 22nd of January, on which date, four years ago, King Edward succeeded to Britain's throne, was used. The rector made a few appropriate remarks in that connection, referring to the wisdom which governed the Sovereign's words and actions, and expressing the belief that much of what he had been endowed with might be traced to the prayers made on his behalf. During the sermon the rector pointed to the people their duties as good citizens, particularly with regard to the franchise, having in view always those conditions which made for the preservation of the country's good name.

At All Saints' the special office for the King's Accession was also used and Rev. Wm. Major made fitting reference during the course of his sermon, to the occasion.

THE 20th CENTURY MAN

Another large and interesting Popular Men's Meeting was held at the Y.M.C.A. yesterday when Mr. Percy K. Holmes, physical director, was the speaker, his subject being the 20th Century Man and his religion.

His address was thoughtful and helpful. Previous to the address Messrs Brown and Herd sang a very appropriate selection.

The songs in the dark were a new feature which added much to the meeting. The hymns for the song service were thrown on canvas, and introduced with scenes in the life of Christ. These were briefly explained by Mr. Harding and introduced by selections of Scripture.

Mr. Holmes will speak again next Sunday.

PENNY READINGS

The first of a series of "Penny Readings Entertainments" under the auspices of the [illegible] club will be held in the Y.M.C.A. Hall on Friday night, January 27 at 8 o'clock. An interesting programme is promised for that evening.

WILL THE GLOBE EDITOR PLEASE ANSWER?

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir,—I notice by poster that the Rev. J. A. Macdonald, formerly editor of the Presbyterian Review, and now editor of the Toronto Globe, is to speak in the Opera House this evening on behalf of Mr. R. F. McWilliams, the Liberal candidate.

The reverend editor, in the columns of the Globe takes high ground against immoral and improper acts in regard to the machine and against public officials, paid large salaries out of the public chest, taking part in elections.

I would like the reverend gentleman to explain how he satisfies his conscience in coming to Peterborough to speak on behalf of a candidate, where the Crown Timber Inspector for the Province of Ontario, is the chief and only active worker and organiser that the candidate has supporting him in the present contest. I notice that Mr. R. F. McWilliams in his Saturday evening speech in the committee rooms pretended to minimize this wilful violation of a unanimous resolution passed by parliament prohibiting public officials, where the salary is sufficient for a livelihood, from actively interfering in elections, by stating that it is only the father working for the son, and that he might be excused on that ground.

The public, however, are of the opinion that it is unjustifiable on any grounds to wilfully violate the law, and this resolution is the law in such a case. If the son is unable to obtain sufficient active co-operation of the party which he is supposed to represent, then he should not have countenanced his father actively interfering in the present contest; for it is no excuse to say that the father, who is a high paid official out of the public chest, may be excused for violating a solemn resolution passed by parliament, in actively interfering in the election by assisting his son.

If the father had any sense of decency or propriety he would not have attended the Dominion Liberal convention for this riding to try to foist his son on the party as the Liberal candidate, nor would he have attended the Provincial Liberal convention in this riding to force on the party the candidature of his son, knowing the delicacy of his own position.

Is there any excuse for a Provincial Government official being the chief organizer in this campaign? There is nothing to prevent Mr. R. F. McWilliams being a candidate,—any man may be that. It is his privilege. But it is absolutely indecent for Mr. J. B. McWilliams, in receipt of a salary of $1500 per annum, to be the main organizer in the present contest, when, at the same time, he is drawing this salary from the public chest.

I would like to have the Rev. Mr. Macdonald express his views on these things, and I will be glad if you will see that a copy of the Review containing this article is placed in the reverend gentleman's hands before he speaks.

Yours, etc.,

EDWIN'S DEBUT.

His First Day's Experience as a Sunday School Scholar.

Last Sunday Edwin made his debut as a Sunday school scholar. Everybody about the house was interested in the event, and for several days preceding the Sabbath various members of the family had taken pains to coach him for the ordeal. They had taught him the golden text and the story of the lesson, and finally Edwin, arrayed in his best suit of clothes and with a new 1904 penny in his pocket to be dropped into the contribution box, was directed into the path which all good little boys are supposed to tread.

When he came home his relations and friends were anxious to hear a report of his experiences.

"Well, Eddy," said his mother, "did you have a nice time?"

"Yes, ma'am."

"Did you say the text?"

"Yes, ma'am."

"And did you remember the lesson?"

"Yes, ma'am. I said it all off by heart."

"And did you put your penny into the basket?"

"Yes, ma'am."

Edwin's mother grabbed him up and hugged him ecstatically.

"Oh, you little precious!" she said. "Your teacher must have been proud of you. I know she just loved you. She said something to you, didn't she?"

"Yes, ma'am."

"I know it," said the fond parent. "Come, Eddy, darling. Tell mother what the teacher said to mother's little man."

"She said," was the startling reply, "for me to bring two pennies next Sunday."—New York Press.

AWFUL SCENES OF BLOOD WILD RIOTING IN STREETS

Strikers Killed in St. Petersburg by Thousands --Red Flag of Revolution.

Reign of Terror in Russia's Capital—Neither Age Nor Sex Spared —The Soldiers Obeyed Orders Unflinchingly and Shot Down Everybody When the Crowds Refused to Disperse—Barricades Erected and Stormed by the Troops—Many Hundreds Killed and Wounded—Workmen are Arming and it is Expected More Blood Will Flow.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—Yesterday was a day of unspeakable horror in St. Petersburg. The strikers of Saturday goaded to desperation by a day of violence, fury and bloodshed, are in a state of open insurrection against the Government. A condition almost bordering on civil war exists in the terror stricken Russian capital. The city is under martial law, with Prince Vasilchikoff as commander of over 50,000 of the Emperor's crack guards. Troops are bivouacking in the streets, and at various places on the Nevsky Prospect, the main thoroughfare of the city. On the Island of Vassili Ostrov and in the industrial sections infuriated men have thrown up barricades, which they are holding. The Dowager Empress has hastily sought safety at the Tsarskoe Selo, where Emperor Nicholas II. is living.

Met With Death Alone.

Minister of the Interior Sviatopolk-Mirsky presented to His Majesty Saturday night the invitation of the workmen to appear at the Winter Palace yesterday afternoon and receive their petition; but the Emperor's advisers already had taken a decision to show a firm and resolute front, and the Emperor's answer to 100,000 workmen trying to make their way to the palace square yesterday was a solid array of troops, who met them with rifle, bayonet and sabre. The priest Gopon, the leader and idol of the men, in his golden vestments, holding aloft the cross and marching at the head of thousands of workmen through the Narva gate, miraculously escaped a volley which laid low half a hundred persons.

From 500 to 5,000 Dead.

The figures of the total number killed or wounded here, at the Moscow gate, at various bridges and islands, and at the Winter Palace vary. The best estimate is 500, although there are exaggerated figures placing the number as high as 5,000. Many men were accompanied by their wives and children, and in the confusion which left no time for discrimination, the latter shared the fate of the men. The troops, with the exception of a single regiment, which is reported to have thrown down its arms, remained loyal and obeyed orders. But the blood which crimsoned the snow has fired the brains and passions of the strikers and turned women as well as men into wild beasts; and the cry of the infuriated populace is for vengeance. The sympathy of the middle classes is with the workmen.

Destroys Faith in Czar.

If Father Gopon, the master mind of the movement, aimed at open revolution, he managed the affair like a genius to break the faith of the people in "Little Father," who they were convinced and whom Father Gopon had taught them to believe would right their wrongs and redress their grievances.

The military authorities had a firm grip on every artery in the city. At daybreak guards regiments, cavalry and infantry held every bridge across the frozen Neva, the network of canals which interlace the city, and the gate leading to and from the industrial section, while in the palace square, as the storm centre, were massed dragoon regiments, infantry and Cossacks of the Guards. Barred from the bridges and gates, men, women and children crossed the frozen river and canals on the ice by twos and threes, hurrying to the palace square, where they were sure the Emperor would be present and hear them.

Retreat Cursing Soldiers.

But the street approaches were closed by volleys and Cossack charges, men and women, infuriated to frenzy by the loss of loved ones, cursed the soldiers while they retreated. Men harangued the crowds, telling them that the Emperor had foiled them and that the time had come to act. Men began to build barricades in the Nevsky Prospect and other points, using any material that came to hand, and even chopping down the telegraph poles. Fighting meantime continued at various places, soldiers volleying and charging the mob. The whole city was in a state of panic. Women were running through the streets seeking lost members of families. Several barricades were carried by the troops. Towards 8 o'clock in the evening the crowds, exhausted, began to disperse, leaving the military in possession. As they retreated up the Nevsky Prospect the workmen put out all the lights.

Little Chapel Destroyed.

The little chapel at the Narva Gate was wrecked. On the Kiminoostov Island all the lights were extinguished. Every officer wearing the uniform of the Emperor who was found alone was mobbed. A general was killed on the Nicholas bridge, and a dozen officers were seized, stripped of their epaulets, and deprived of their swords.

It was rumored last night that M Witte will be appointed dictator today, but the report is not confirmed. The authorities, while they seem to realize the magnitude of the crisis with which the dynasty and the autocracy are confronted with on account of yesterday's events, apparently are paralyzed for the moment. An official statement was promised at midnight, at which hour it was announced that it had been postponed till to-day. Intense indignation is bound to be aroused all over Russia. The workmen and revolutionists expect news from Moscow and other big centres, where the troops are not of the same classes as the Guards Regiment of St. Petersburg.

Father Gopon's Letter to Czar.

The following is the text of a letter addressed by Father Gopon to Emperor Nicholas:

"Sovereign,—I fear your ministers have not told you the full truth about the situation. The whole people, trusting in you, have resolved to appear at the winter palace at 2 p. m. in order to inform you of their needs. If, vacillating, you do not appear before the people to-morrow, the moral bonds between you and the people who trust in you will disappear, because innocent blood will flow between you and the people. Appear to-morrow before your people and receive our address of devotion in a courageous spirit. I, and the representatives of labor, and my brave workingmen and comrades, guarantee to you the inviolability of your position."

Soldiers Spare Gopon.

There was a very dramatic scene at the Narva Gate when Father Gopon in golden vestments and bearing aloft an ikon and flanked by two clergymen carrying religious banners approached at the head of a procession of 8,000 workmen.

Troops were drawn up across the entrance. Several times an officer called upon the procession to stop, but Father Gopon did not falter. Then an order was given to fire with blank cartridge. Two volleys rang out, but the line still did not waver.

Then, with seeming reluctance, an officer gave the command to load with ball, and the next volley was followed by shrieks and cries of the wounded. As the Cossacks followed up the volley with a charge, the workmen fled before them, leaving about 100 dead or wounded. It was evident that the soldiers deliberately spared Father Gopon.

One of the clergymen by his side was wounded but he escaped untouched and hid behind a wall until the Cossacks passed, and he was then spirited away by workmen.

More Trouble Feared.

By midnight the sound of firing had ceased, except on Vassili Ostrov Island, where the troops met a renewed demonstration with several volleys. In the meantime the strike leaders assembled and decided to continue the struggle with arms. No day was fixed for the next demonstration. The strikers are so excited, however, that trouble is expected to result to-day.

"We Have No Emperor."

At a big meeting last night the following message from M. Gorky, the novelist, was received: "Beloved associates: We have no Emperor. Innocent blood lies between him and the people. Now begins the people's struggle for freedom, and may it prosper. My blessing on you all. Would I might be with you to-night; but I have much to do."

A workingman who was introduced to speak in Father Gopon's name made a fiery speech. He appealed to Liberals to furnish arms. The meeting adopted a letter denouncing the officers and the regiments that fired on the workmen, and another letter extolling the Moscow regiment which refused to fire.

People Against Oppressors—Gorky.

Gorky, the Russian novelist, expresses the opinion that yesterday's work will break the faith of the people in the Emperor. He said last night to the Associated Press:

"To-day inaugurated revolution in Russia. The Emperor's prestige will be irrevocably shattered by the shedding of innocent blood. He has alienated himself forever from his people. Gopon taught the workmen to believe that an appeal direct to the 'Little Father' would be heeded.

"They have been undeceived. Gopon is now convinced that peaceful means have failed, and that the only remedy is force. The first blood has been shed, but more will follow. It is now the people against the oppressors, and the battle will be fought to the bitter end."

Returns from only three of the numerous hospitals give 32 dead and 123 wounded. Many of the wounded have been taken to their own homes.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

We don't put Scott's Emulsion in the class of advertised cure-alls; it doesn't belong there. We hardly like to use the word "cure" at all, but we are bound to say that it can be used for a great many troubles with great satisfaction. Its special function is to repair the waste of the body when the ordinary food does not nourish, and this means that it is useful in many cases which are indicated by wasting.

AUTOCRACY HAS GONE FOREVER.

Comments of London Papers Showing Trend of British Opinion.

London, Jan. 23.—Such phrases as these, extracted from editorial articles in the London morning papers sufficiently indicate the opinion held here of yesterday's events in St. Petersburg:

"Revolt has been quelled, but revolution begun."

"The bureaucracy has declared its policy; it is the policy of Blagovestchenk—massacre."

"The inevitable reaction has begun, and with it a new chapter in Russia's history, and probably also in the history of Europe and Asia."

"The revolutionary movement in Russia has received its baptism of blood, its crown of martyrdom."

"Is there a Mirabeau or even a Danton in Russia to-day."

"A very grave responsibility lies to-day at the door of the Czar, who has failed to grasp his unique opportunity."

"'The Little Father' has become the murderer of his people, and it remains with him to save the country from disaster. Even at the eleventh hour he may do so, but only by recognizing that autocracy has gone forever."

While many estimate the casualties at anywhere near 2,000 killed and 5,000 wounded, there is everywhere conclusive evidence of the impossibility of as yet estimating with any degree of exactitude.

THE LATEST BULLETIN.

30,000 Or 40,000 Armed Strikers Reported Marching On St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—Firing continues on the Vassili Ostrov at midnight. It is rumored that the workmen there have seized a dynamite factory, and also that 30,000 or 40,000 armed strikers from Kolpino, sixteen miles distant, are marching on St. Petersburg.

Destroyed the Barricades.

Barricades erected on the Island of Vassili Ostrov late last night were destroyed by troops almost immediately, with the loss of thirty workmen killed.

Resembled a Shambles.

At the Putiloff works the scenes resembled a shambles. There the workmen, facing the troops when the order was given to fire, threw themselves upon their faces on the ground. The troops fired on them as they lay prostrate.

Carnegie's Fund Aids 875.

Pittsburg, Jan. 23.—The third annual report of the Carnegie Relief Fund, founded by Andrew Carnegie, who appropriated $4,000,000 to be held in trust for the alleviation of employes disabled by accident, or old age, and for the dependents of an employe killed in the discharge of his duty, was made public yesterday. The total number of beneficiaries in 1904 was 875. Of this number 230 were killed and 367 were injured, while 278 have reached the age of 60 years and were retired on pensions of $241,988.32, an increase of nearly $62,000 over 1903.

Mrs. Cox Passes Away.

Toronto, Jan. 23.—Mrs. Cox, wife of Senator Cox, died yesterday morning early, at the family residence, Sherbourne street. Mrs. Cox had been ailing for some time. She was in her 62nd year. She had been married forty-two years. Her maiden name was Margaret Hopkins, and she was born at Peterboro. She leaves to mourn her besides her husband, three sons and two daughters. Mrs. Cox was largely interested in church work, and her charities were many and unostentatious.

Killed His Father's Libeller.

San Juan, Jan. 23.—Pedro Virella Uribe, son of a member of the Legislature, yesterday shot and killed Ruiz del Valle, a Spanish newspaper man, for publishing articles defaming his father.

Earthquake Destroys Village.

Athens, Jan. 23.—In a recurrence of earthquakes in Thessaly, a village was destroyed and several persons killed or injured.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

Man and Team That Wandered On the Track, Dead.

Owen Sound, Jan. 23.—George Fisher of Flesherton was instantly killed Saturday night a mile south of Markdale by the upbound C.P.R. express. Fisher had apparently been driving a team along the track, as the accident took place some distance from a crossing. The train was not running at a high speed, but before it could be brought to a standstill the unfortunate man was overtaken. He was tossed about 50 feet and was instantly killed, his head being crushed beyond recognition. Both horses were killed. Papers found in the man's pockets served to identify him. The body was placed on board the train and conveyed to Markdale.

Fatal Accident to Farmer.

Alliston, Jan. 23.—William McGirr, a young farmer, living close to the town, was engaged in cutting feed in the loft over the stable, when the chain which ran the carriers broke, hitting him on the head, inflicting a deep scalp wound about five inches long and knocking him down through a trap-hole 10 feet to the floor below. Dr. McCullough had to put 25 stitches in his head. There is not much hope for his recovery.

Auto Kills Chauffeur.

Dayton, Fla., Jan. 23.—While speeding his racing automobile on the beach Saturday Frank Croker, son of Richard Croker, of New York, met with an accident by which he was seriously injured, and his chauffeur, Rauel, killed. Newton Stanley, who was riding a motor cycle, had his leg broken. The machine turned over three times. The first turn threw mechanician Rauel out, and the machine crushed his life out instantly. Mr. Croker went out on the second turn and sustained a fracture of the right leg at the knee, fracture of all the bones of the left arm at the elbow and three broken ribs. One of his ears is also badly torn. Newton Stanley the young man on the motor cycle, received a compound fracture of the lower left leg.

Four Railway Men Die.

Shawnee, Tenn., Jan. 23.—A head-on collision between two freight trains, one a double-header, on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, here yesterday, resulted in the death of four railroad men and the injury of six others, three of whom may die.

Plan For Negro Colony in Africa.

St. John, N.B., Jan. 23.—A plan for the establishment of a colony in British Africa, "composed of "intelligent, educated and industrious negroes from the English-speaking countries, principally the United States," is being promoted here. Dr. A. B. Walker of this city, a negro, is at the head of the project, and in a message to the public, issued yesterday, he says his purpose is "ultimately to bring the whole continent of Africa within the pale of Christian civilization."

A Suicide At 90.

Cobourg, Jan. 23.—An Indian named Franklin, belonging to the Alderville reserve, committed suicide at Roseneath. He was 90 years of age and has been subject to fits of melancholy, and in a state of temporary insanity severed an artery.

General Wallace Worse.

Indianapolis, Jan. 23.—The condition of Gen. Lew Wallace has taken a decided turn for the worse and is now very serious. For several years past he has been confined to his bed in Crawfordsville and last night he was very weak.

RUSS ARMY REINFORCED

The Divisions At Mukden Now Number 300,000.

Russians Lately Have Been Heavily Strengthening Their Wings—Two and a Half Divisions Are Facing Gen. Oku, Two Corps Gen. Nodzu and Three Gen. Kuroki—Jap Outposts Within 500 Yards of Enemy's Trenches.

Tokio, Jan. 23.—In well informed quarters here it is said that the Russian army at Mukden was recently reinforced by four divisions. Its present strength is estimated at nine army corps, or 300,000 men of all arms.

Gen. Kuropatkin's headquarters are at Fong Mountain, in close touch with the Mukden Fushun line. The Russians lately have been heavily strengthening their wings. At present two and a half divisions are facing Gen. Oku, two corps are before Gen. Nodzu and the greater strength of three corps confronts Gen. Kuroki and guards the coal mines in the vicinity of the Fushun Valley.

Between the opposing armies is a network of trenches. Gen. Kuroki's outposts are within 500 yards of the Russians entrenched along the line of ridges near Kwantalien Mountain. Cannonading and rifle firing are constantly taking place, but owing to the intense cold there seems to be no immediate likelihood of a great battle.

Refugees From Port Arthur.

Che Foo, Jan. 23.—Twenty-seven men and women, comprising the first party of refugees from Port Arthur, arrived here in a junk yesterday. They stated that 22 other junks, bearing over 500 non-combatants, were also coming. Several launches immediately left, with the idea of assisting the junks in reaching Che Foo.

Strike's Effect On War.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—A member of the Emperor's household is quoted as saying yesterday that this conflict with the masses will end the war with Japan, and that Russia will have a constitution or Emperor Nicholas will lose his head.

PUTTING IT STRONG

But Doesn't It Look Reasonable?

This may read as though we were putting it a little strong, because it is generally thought by the majority of people that Dyspepsia in its chronic form is incurable or practically so. But we have long since shown that Dyspepsia is curable, nor is it such a difficult matter as at first appears.

The trouble with Dyspeptics is that they are continually dieting starving themselves or going to the opposite extreme or else deluging the already over burdened stomach with "bitters" "after dinner pills," etc., which invariably increase the difficulty even if in some cases they do give a slight temporary relief. Such treatment of the stomach simply makes matters worse. What the stomach wants is a rest. Now how can the stomach become rested, recuperated and at the same time the body nourished and sustained?

This is a great secret and this is also the secret of the uniform success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. This is a comparatively new remedy but its success and popularity leave no doubt as to its merit.

The Tablets will digest the food anyway, regardless of condition of stomach. The sufferer from Dyspepsia, according to directions, is to eat an abundance of good, wholesome food and use the tablets before and after each meal and the result will be that the food will be digested no matter how bad your Dyspepsia may be, because, as before stated, the tablets will digest the food even if the stomach is wholly inactive. To illustrate our meaning plainly, if you take 1,800 grains of meat, eggs or ordinary food and place it in a temperature of 98 degrees, and put with it one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets it will digest the meat or eggs almost as perfectly as if the meat was enclosed within the stomach.

The stomach may be ever so weak yet these tablets will perform the work of digestion and the body and brain will be properly nourished and at the same time a radical, lasting cure of Dyspepsia will be made, because the much abused stomach will be given, to some extent, a much needed rest. Your druggist will tell you that of all the many remedies advertised to cure Dyspepsia none of them have given so complete and general satisfaction as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and not least in importance in these hard times is the fact that they are also the cheapest and give the most good for the least money.

GREAT WELCOME TO MR. WHITNEY

Ottawa People Packed Big Russell Theatre.

MR. ROSS ABLY ANSWERED.

Fallacy of Premier's Contentions Exposed —Telegram Read Referring to Importation of Pluggers for Helen Mine—Other Political Notes.

Ottawa, Jan. 23.—The mass meeting in the Russell Theatre Saturday evening, addressed by J. P. Whitney, was a rousing success. The theatre, which holds about 2,500 was packed to the doors. The Liberals who were cheered by the sanguine utterances of Premier Ross the previous evening experienced a chilly sensation when they heard Mr. Whitney's reply, backed up by fact after fact. It was a great manifest attention to the popularity of the Conservative principles.

P. D. Ross, one of the candidates, made a trenchant arraignment of the Ross Government, and justified his own departure from the position of an independent critic to that of an opponent of the Ross Government. In the last twenty years, he said, both parties had made overtures to him and he could have had political favors from either. "It was not for party favors or hunger for office," said Mr. Ross, "but, thank God, it was for British blood that will not tolerate political corruption and chicanery from any set of political bosses." The Government deserved to be ousted for any one of five reasons: Rule maintained despite a minority of the popular vote; rule maintained by electoral corruption; electoral fraud encouraged by failure to prosecute the criminals; dishonor to the principles of constitutional Government, and maintenance in power of legislators with financial interests in the legislation. Extensive bribery had been carried on in a systematic manner by an organization in Toronto under the wing of the Ontario Government. There had been prosecutions, but under the Liberal Crown Attorneys, prosecution is far from punishment.

"The administration," said Candidate Ross, "hung on by the finger nails through all the discreditable circumstances merely for the sake of office and salary. And the people of Ontario will not tolerate a political tyranny maintained by party swindling." In conclusion Mr. Ross said Liberals could do no greater honor to the Liberal cause than by turning Conservatives for this campaign.

Dennis Murphy, Mr. Ross' running mate, also made a characteristic speech and dealt at some length with the tactics of the Ontario Government to keep in power.

Fattened On Crime.

A feature of Mr. Whitney's speech was the reading of the telegram referring to the importation of pluggers to the Helen Mine. It created a sensation. From all over the audience cries of "Shame, shame!" were heard. But what told most was the plain, outspoken manner in which he enunciated the Conservative platform and gave the lie direct to different statements made the previous night by Premier Ross. The Premier had challenged anyone to show where an officer of the Government had been responsible for any corruption. In reply to this, Mr. Whitney instanced North Waterloo, where there had been no convictions or punishments, though the crime had been proven.

"And ever since the West Elgin horror," said Mr. Whitney, "the distinguished casuist who was here last night has fattened on the results of crimes, has held office and eaten his daily bread from the money of a position he held by reason of crimes against the ballot boxes, for which he dare not prosecute one human being."

Mr. Whitney caused some surprise by announcing that on some platforms Premier Ross had stated that there was no wrongdoing in West Elgin, and that the confession of Macnish was secured by deception. The confession, he said, had been drawn by Aylesworth, the go-between between Gamey and Stratton, had been approved by Harcourt and had been seen by Ross before being signed.

Mr. Whitney created another deep impression when he said that three offers of coalition had been made to him, and that the men who conveyed the messages to him on two occasions were present in the theatre while he was speaking, and that they were Liberals. On the previous evening Premier Ross had said that Hon. Mr. Gibson was not authorized to make any arrangement that would bind him (Ross).

Cannot Be Found.

"The man, does not live, nor the shackles do not exist that could bind him," said Mr. Whitney. "I never said anything about binding. I merely told what happened and he doesn't deny it."

The meeting closed with wildly enthusiastic cheers for Whitney and the candidates.

Mr. Joynt Withdraws.

Prescott, Jan. 23.—R. L. Joynt has withdrawn from the contest in Grenville, not only leaving Mr. Ferguson as the Conservative candidate, but also turning in to actively support his erstwhile rival. This ensures a Conservative victory in the riding. Mr. Joynt has also issued a circular letter addressed to the Conservatives of the riding, asking them to vote for Mr. Ferguson, the nominee of the convention.

"TRICK BALLOT BOX."

How Gus Porter, M.P., Created a Sensation in Port Perry.

Port Perry, Jan. 23.—On Saturday evening E. Gus Porter spoke here in the interests of Charles Calder, Conservative candidate, in South Ontario. With a ballot box he held a poll. Ten of the audience voted for Calder, and eight for Dryden, but when the ballots were counted it was found that 14 were marked for Calder and four for Dryden. He had used a "trick" ballot box. John Mott, P.M., the biggest Liberal in Port Perry, arose and said that Mr. Porter could not switch his ballot. Porter agreed to try. Nott voted twice for Dryden and put his ballots in the box. They came out for Calder. The episode has created a sensation in Port Perry.

Soo Trial Begins Tuesday.

Toronto, Jan. 23.—The Soo trial will commence on Tuesday, but in order that the voting right of witnesses will not be interfered with only the testimony of those living within 10 miles of the Soo will be heard, and on Wednesday, election day, no session of the court will be held.

For a National Convention.

Montreal, Jan. 23.—At a gathering of French Conservatives, held yesterday at Jacques Cartier Club, a resolution was adopted endorsing R. L. Borden's leadership, and also the idea of a national convention.

Drowns Herself in Icy River.

Montreal, Jan. 23.—A dramatic suicide occurred Friday evening at Cote St. Paul, the victim of her own rashness being Philomene Massie, a 16-year-old girl. The girl lived with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. P. Massie, at Turcot Village. She wanted to go to a party to meet some friends whom her parents considered not quite the best sort for a young girl. Her parents insisted on keeping her at home, but she went and was upbraided by her mother when she returned. "You will never correct me again," exclaimed the headstrong child, "for I will die." She ran by her mother and made for the canal bank, and without hesitation threw herself through a small opening into the icy water. The body has not been found.

Cotton Merger Before Parliament.

Montreal, Jan. 23.—George E. Amyot of Quebec and Ald. Clearkin and F. B. Mathys of this city, representing $800,000 worth of Dominion Cotton stock, have been to Ottawa protesting to Sir Wilfrid Laurier against the cotton merger.

They say that the Premier made good promises and that the matter will come before Parliament. They declare they were not consulted in the deal and that their property has been handed over to an unknown corporation. An appraisal by the American Appraisal Company of the assets of the Dominion Cotton Company, and an inspection of the books of the company since 1895 will be requested from the directors.

France's New Cabinet.

Paris, Jan. 23.—The formation of a new Cabinet under the presidency of M Rouvier, is well under way. Following a lengthy conference with President Loubet, M. Rouvier entered an automobile and spent Saturday conversing with those whom he hopes to enlist in the Ministry. Those with whom he had interviews included M. Delcasse, who, it is certain, will retain the portfolio of Foreign Affairs in the new Cabinet.

As the result of the conference between M. Rouvier and his associates, it was decided to continue former Premier Combes' policy.

Yaquis Kill Americans.

Nogales, Ariz., Jan. 23.—Four Americans and one Mexican were ambushed and killed by Yaquis Indians on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 19, four miles east of Cobachi, 36 miles east of La Colorado, State of Sonora, Mexico. The dead:

Dr. R. C. Coy, Chicago; John K. Mackenzie, Chicago; M. A. McCall, Toledo, Ohio; Walter Stubinger, Kewanee, Ills.; Mexican, name unknown.

Hotels Close Their Doors.

Neepawa, Jan. 23. — Saturday morning all the hotels in the town closed their doors. Neepawa is a temperance town, and the mayor and council instructed the chief of police to search the hostelries with the result that liquor was found in three houses and the proprietors were fined $75 each. The hotelmen's action is in consequence thereof.

Folk Shakes Up St Louis.

St. Louis, Jan. 23.—A letter was received Saturday by Chief of Police Kiely from Governor Folk in relation to the strict enforcement of the law concerning wine rooms, saloons, dance halls, gambling rooms and kindred resorts, and last night proprietors and habitues of wine rooms and dance halls by the score were placed under arrest.

Anarchists At Michel's Funeral.

Paris, Jan. 23.—The funeral of Louise Michel, the revolutionary agitator at Levallers Perret, yesterday was the occasion of a large anarchist demonstration. The streets, however, were heavily guarded by military and police and there was no serious disorder.

Brass Works Sold.

Port Colborne, Jan. 23.—The Dominion Brass Works of this place, which was in the hands of liquidators, was sold here Saturday for $27,000 to a Chicago firm.

To the Electors

GENTLEMAN:

I am before you as a Candidate. I am Liberal Conservative. I stand for the principles of Clean Government, Honest Administration, Decent Methods and Fair Dealing between man and man.

I appeal to you to do what is fair and right. If you think that my fifty years of life among you as boy, youth and man has placed me where I deserve your respect as a fellow citizen, then vote for me.

If you think that my past life has been an honorable one, then take your belief that my future, as your representative, will do you credit in your selection.

You know the record to the Ross Government. It is so written on the walls all over the province. It is a questionable record. If you want that sort of thing continued, your vote against me will help to fasten it on the country. If you want a change, give me your personal assistance by your vote and influence.

I may not see you all, personally, before polling day. I earnestly entreat you to do what you can. It is the first time I have asked your assistance. Are you going to deny it?

Yours faithfully,

T. E. BRADBURN

Seven to One

That is about the ratio. About seven times as many persons are injured as die from all causes yearly.

Accidents are a more prolific cause of death than any disease except lung diseases.

Twice as many people are accidently killed as die of old age. Does it not seem reasonable to you as a business man that it would be to your interest to carry an accident policy?

YOU are subject to over two hundred diseases, and liable to accidents without number.

Official figures prove that One Man in Five carrying an Accident and Sickness Policy makes a claim for indemnity each year.

YOU have no guarantee that you will not be the One Man who will be disabled this year.

Tomorrow night's game at the Brock street rink between the T.A.S. and Campbellford ought to be a fast exhibition, as the teams seem to be about evenly matched. Both have defeated Keene in the latter place, and they have played a very close and exciting game in Campbellford. It will be one of the best games of the season.

Great is the power of the B.A.C.! Verily they are the people. Once more have they displayed their hockey playing ability to the gaze of an admiring public and once more have the laurels of victory crowned their brows. The latest victims to their prowess are the doughty pen wielders from the American Cereal Co.'s office whose fame has been great throughout the land since their defeat of the mill team a week ago. The battle took place last evening at the Brock street rink and after the smoke had cleared away and the fragments collected, the B.A.C. were found to be in the lead by six goals to five. The score at the end of the first spasm was 4—2 in favor of the B.A.C.

The Quakers were becomingly attired in red and white suits, while the B.A.C. costumes ranged from a full dress suit to a jersey. Jolliffe appeared on the ice in a Simple Simon costume as livid as a circus poster.

For the winners Hutchinson in goal, played the game of his life, picking off the shots like cherries from a tree. Moore, at point, also delivered the goods in great style. Everyone was comparing him to Eddie Howell he was so unlike. Wood at cover, wooded up most effectively and several times adorned the fence. One of his mighty lifts never stopped going until it had eluded seven men and landed in the net. Jolliffe, at rover, was all over the ice, and there was no portion of it he did not sweep clean at some time in his cycloric career. Best, as his name would imply, was about the pick of the forwards. Boomer rang in some new tricks on his opponents. His shots were also so somewhat of a boomerang nature as he was by no means certain, nor did he seem to care, at which goal he was shooting. Dobbin worked hard all the way through.

For the losers, Ken Simpson, on the forward line, was the star, and if he had wanted to exert himself his team might have won. Jack Sullivan and Bill Cochrane at goal and point respectively, were immense and their good work kept the score down. Carr and Moore worked hard on the forward line.

The game was a brilliant exhibition, although marred to some extent by unseemly efforts of the part of some of the players to play hockey, which of course, was not what they were there for. (Referee Crowley kept the fence well lined with players.

Y.M.C.A. AT LAKEFIELD

The Junior Y.M.C.A. school boys' hockey team journeyed to Lakefield on Saturday and played a game of hockey against the McKenzie school team, resulting in a victory for the Association team, the score being 8—7. The game was a good exhibition of hockey, being fast from start to finish and noticeable for the clever defence work and fine combination of the forwards. The Y.M.C.A. boys voted their opponents a jolly, fine crowd of fellows and have arranged for a return game a week from next Saturday. The boys returned in good time, arriving at the Association at 6.30 and all satisfied that they had a great time.

The Happy Thoughts will line up as follows against Hickey's Terriers to-night at 6 o'clock—

Goal, Hevey; point, Johnston; cover point, Wood; rover, Best; centre, E. Reid; Wings, Polley and H. Kingscote will referee.

"NELLY" HUTCHINSON

Who is a find as goal keeper, and starred on the B.A.C. team Saturday night. He has received an offer from the Ottawa septette, holders of the Stanley Cup, and champions of the world.

George-st. Guild hockey team will practice to-night at 8.30 on the Y.M.C.A. rink.

BASKETBALL.

The members of the Y.M.C.A. senior basketball team met at the Association Saturday evening and elected officers. They are as follows:—

President—P. K. Holmes.

Captain—Wm. Cavanah.

Manager and Coach—W. D. Campbell.

Secretary—Treas.—C. Graham.

The team got together and played an exhibition game with another picked team. The men got together in nice shape and played good combination. The material is good and they expect to develope a strong team. An interesting schedule of outside games will be planned for the rest of the winter.

PERSONAL

Miss Gwyneth Tate, Lakefield, has gone to North Carolina for a couple of months to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Zack Eyres, of Lemars, Ind., are visiting in town, the guests of Mr. Wm. Eyres, Antrim-st.

Mrs. R. H. Bradburn will receive next Wednesday and Thursday afternoons in her new home, corner of Rubidge and Charlotte streets, and afterwards on the third and fourth Wednesdays of each month.

Rev. Dr. McDiarmid, of Madoc, whilst returning from the station in Belleville, after attending Mrs. Wilson's funeral Saturday, fell and hurt his right leg to such an extent as not to be able to use it. He returned to his home in Madoc later in the day.

Facial Paralysis

Mr. W. J. Brennan, Western Hill, St. Catharines, Ont., writes: "My face was all twisted out of shape with facial paralysis, and five doctors failed to cure or even relieve. By the persistent use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I have been entirely cured, and have returned to work strong and well. I have gained in weight and feel that I have a new lease of life." 10

LITTLE LOCAL LINERS

—Local news on page three.

—The Triangle Success Club of the Intermediate department of the Y.M.C.A. will be addressed on Tuesday evening by Mr. Kirkoven, a native of Holland.

—The annual congregational meeting of Charlotte Street Methodist church will be held on Thursday night next when a social time will be spent and reports will be received.

—Mr. J. H. Burnham who was to have addressed a meeting in Havelock to-night in the interest of Mr. Moore, Conservative candidate, will be unable to do so on account of having contracted a very severe cold.

—The regular Gospel meeting held yesterday afternoon at the Y.W.C.A. was well attended and the earnest address on "The Lord's Prayer," given by Mrs. (Rev.) Campbell, made a deep impression on the young women present. The solo "Moment by moment" rendered by Miss Laura Bellegham was very greatly appreciated.

—Mr. J. H. Larmouth, manager of the Peterborough Radial Railway has returned from a trip to Baltimore and other cities where he picked up several pointers in connection with street railway operations, cars, fenders, etc. It is possible that the company may soon place an order for two or three more new cars. The free rink is proving to be a decided success, 400 persons being on the ice Fri.

—The death occurred on Saturday morning of Mr. Alexander K. Ferguson, at his late residence, Murray-st. The deceased for many years resided on the 4th line of Smith, but he has been living in Peterborough for some time past. He leaves a wife and family and was 68 years of age. The funeral took place this morning at 10 o'clock, from the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. George Day, to Third Line Cemetery, Dummer.

WARNED AGAINST DAY OF BLINDNESS

Rev. E. A. Langfeldt Makes Application of Serious Lesson.

THREE IMPORTANT TIMES

The Time of Grace, the Time of Blindness, the Time of Judgment---Conditions Existing in Canada To-day Deprecated by the Speaker.

Just four years ago Sunday occurred the death of her most gracious majesty, Queen Victoria, and the accession to the throne of Great Britain and her dominions, of King Edward VII. Yesterday the anniversary of this event was observed in the Anglican churches, and in St. Luke's it was made the occasion of a patriotic sermon by Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, who preached from St. Luke xix. 41-44, "The Lord weeping over Jerusalem." In a clear and interesting manner he pictured the scene referred to in the text, so truly prophetic of Israel's downfall, and in convincing words brought the application of the lesson home, warning Canadians against that blindness which obscures impending judgment. In this connection he deprecated the low moral tone which marked political conditions at the present time. There was a large congregation present, and the special office provided in the Prayer Book for January 22nd was appropriately used.

JERUSALEM'S FATE.

The words of the text from which the rector delivered the sermon are: "And when He was come near He beheld the city and wept over it, saying, If thou hadst known, even thou in this thy day the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes. For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and keep thee in on every side, and shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee, and they shall not leave within thee one stone upon another; because thou knowest not the time of thy visitation." The Lord Jesus Christ weeping over Jerusalem was the scene of which the text speaks. It took place in the last year of the Redeemer's life. For nearly four years he had been preaching the gospel, and now His pilgrim life was drawing to a close. Yet no one looking at the outward circumstances of that journey would think that He was on his way to die. It was of a triumphal character, because we are told, a rejoicing multitude heralded his approach. Yet in the midst of all this joy the man of sorrows paused and wept. There is something significant and characteristic in that peculiar tone of melancholy which pervaded the Redeemer's intercourse with man. We read of one occasion in which he rejoiced and then only in spirit. But he did not shrink from occasions of human joy, for we are told that he attended a marriage feast. Yet at that feast he made the solemn remark, apparently out of place, Mine hour is not yet come. When we come to look at this life of ours, said Mr. Langfeldt, whatever may be the joys and outward appearance of externalities, in the deep beneath there is a strange storm aspect. It may be that the human race on its way to God and the victory hitherto is so small that we can scarcely rejoice over it. It may be that human nature has progressed but slowly through the years and centuries towards that high and holy goal, and therefore there is little of present joy to contemplate.

THREE TIMES.

The words that rang the funeral knell of Jerusalem tell the solemn lesson that in the history of nations as also it may be, in the personal history of individuals, there are three times—the time of grace, the time of blindness, the time of judgment. When the Redeemer spoke it was for Jerusalem a time of blindness—the time of grace had already passed, and the time of judgment was at hand. The text expresses the time of grace in three different ways—"In this, thy day," "The things which belong unto thy peace," and "The time of thy visitation." At the time in which our Redeemer appeared faith was almost work out. Life there was not, faith there was not, only the garments of what had been. Israel was groaning under the dominion of Rome, rising against it and thinking it their worst evil. The day of His preaching was Jerusalem's time of grace. He pointed to the degradation of the slavery of sin and told them that a greater than Abraham was there—that their deliverer had come. They asked Him when the Kingdom of God would come, and He told them they were to begin the Kingdom of God by each man becoming individually more holy, that in each reforming his own soul the Kingdom of God would be spread abroad and established. He plainly told them that the bondage from which they were to be delivered was not an earthly, but a spiritual bondage. He drew a distinction between happiness and blessedness, two things opposite but not contrary. He told them, "Blessed are the poor in spirit, the persecuted." There were not happy, if happiness consisted merely in the gratification of earthly desire, while on the other hand blessedness was the satisfaction of those aspirations which have their aim in God. But the views He laid before them were all rejected by the nation, first by the priests and second by the people who at the last cried out, "Away with Him; His blood be upon us and upon our children."

THE BRIGHTEST PAGE.

The coming of the Redeemer contained nothing outwardly remarkable to man of that day, and all historians of that period have paid little or no attention to it. This is a thing which we, at this time, can hardly understand, because the advent of our Lord is the brightest page in the world's history. By the rulers of that day he was regarded as a fanatic and his miracles, as far as they were concerned, contained nothing remarkable on which to fasten their attention. Though some of His words reached their ears, they were hard to understand, full of mystery, or else they aroused every evil passion in their hearts so stern and uncompromising was the morality they taught. They put aside these words and now the day of grace was past. The speaker made present-day application of the lesson, impressing the fact that God manifests Himself in the soul of man, that His day of visitation is frequently short, that He seldom pleads a long time, and when He speaks and is unheard and unheeded His voice returns not again.

Israel's day of blindness followed her rejection of the day of grace. Blindness was of a two-fold character. It may be produced by removing the light or by incapacitating the eye to receive the light. If a man will not see the light he shall not, and if a man will not do what is right, then right shall become to him wrong, and wrong will seem to him right. Jerusalem owed her ruin to fanaticism and blindness, from which the Redeemer came to rescue her. Had they taken heed to his exhortation Jerusalem's day of ruin might never have come.

NATION'S BLINDNESS.

The speaker asked, "Is there any such thing as blindness among ourselves? May not this be our day of judgment? It is true we have much enlightenment, civilization and comfort, but he impressed the conviction that they would not retard the day of judgment. Jerusalem was a proof of this. In answer to the question, "Where shall these things be? the answer from the lips of the Redeemer was to the effect. "You ask me where? I tell you nowhere in particular, but rather everywhere, for where there is corruption there will be destruction, and where the gathered together. So this first carcass is, there will the eagles be coming of the Son of Man was a specimen of what shall be hereafter. The speaker said that as he meditated upon the low morals of Canadians in political matters—grossest political corruption, upright men condoning dishonesty in politics, the prevalence of the idea that prayer is foreign to the exercise of the franchise in elections—he began to think that the day of judgment was at hand; yea, is at the very doors. His prayer was that men and women of Canada may be enlightened to see this day of visitation. Without claiming to be a prophet, he expressed the feeling that this Canada of ours was to be purged by the judgment of God. It might be that this would come by the invasion of the people to the south of us. None could say what the future had in store. A nation could not be great unless she recognized the day of her judgment, and sought that strength which alone was of God. History and the stories of nations which God had robbed of their national prestige and sent them into captivity, until they had repented of their wickedness. Citizens of this land might well revolt against political corruption, against the spread of worldliness, against the lack of spirituality, against those things which will surely bring upon them the righteous anger of God. The speaker said we must go again into the old and simple way. Greater faith was the necessity of the times, and the death and life of Christ must be the law of men's lives. Reject that and we reject our salvation.

AN INDIAN'S SUICIDE.

Cobourg, Jan. 21.—An Indian named Franklin, belonging to the Alderville reserve, committed suicide at Roseneath on Friday morning last. Franklin, who was ninety years of age, has been subject to fits of melancholy, and in a state of temporary insanity severed an artery, thereby ending his existence.

Coroner Ferris and Chief of Police Bass went to the scene of the tragedy, but in view of the facts deemed an inquest unnecessary.

DEATH OF A FRIEND.

A meeting of the Y.W.C.A. Board was held yesterday for the purpose of electing officers and transacting other business. All of the officers of last year were unanimously re-elected, but there was a re-arrangement of the committees.

The death of Mrs. Geo. A. Cox, who has ever shown great interest in the Y.W.C.A., and in fact had extended that assistance which was the incentive to the erection of the new building, was made the subject of feeling reference at the meeting. A resolution was passed expressing profound regret at her death, and extending deep sympathy to those who have been greatly bereaved.

LINDSAY TOUGHS ATTACKED TRAIN

Much Damage to Special Containing Local Supporters.

SEVERAL BADLY INJURED

Mr. D. Gilmour's Nose Broken—Others Received Bad Cuts—Some of the Players Covered With Rotten Eggs—A Proceeding Lindsay Should be Ashamed of.

Several of the Peterborough supporters were badly hurt by missiles thrown by Lindsay hoodlums at Lindsay station last evening. It was a disgraceful piece of work, and it is said that the Grand Trunk officials will make it hot for the guilty parties. The damage to the cars, according to a G.T.R. official, will amount to over $50. Windows were broken in every car, the one containing the Peterborough hockey team suffering the worst usuage. Lumps of coal and ice came through in all directions, and it is a wonder more people were not injured. Some idea of the size and velocity of the ammunition hurled at the cars may be had when it is known that several shots tore their way right through the wooden shutters.

Mr. David Gilmour, of the local Bank of Montreal, was probably the worst sufferer. He was struck in the face by a piece of coal hurled through a window and his nose badly fractured. Mr. George Giroux was cut about the head by a successful shot from outside. P. Wallace, of town, had his hand badly cut. Several other supporters were less severely injured. Chris Graham and Ernie Wasson received bad treatment also, being struck by a number of rotten eggs with disastrous effect to their clothing. It was a proceeding that Lindsay should be heartily ashamed of. They complained in most vigorous language of their treatment down here, but it is safe to say that Peterborough never used a visiting team like the locals were treated last night. The Lindsay team were gentlemanly and their treatment of the locals was all that could be expected. A number of their supportersm however, seemed to be of quite a different frame of mind. They were as quiet as mice until the train began to pull out, evidently afraid to do anything while there was a chance of getting into a fight. Lindsay should try to keep such hoodlums down if they want to play O.H.A. hockey.

—The band concert, which had been arranged for Friday night has been postponed on account of the hockey match.

THE REVOLUTION IS SPREADING

Russia in Throes of a Great Industrial Strike.

CITIZENS LEAVING CAPITAL

For Places of Safety—Legal Profession Sympathizes With Strikers—Protest Against Action of Government in Provoking Bloodshed—Printing Works Closed.

Special to the Review.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 24, 12.30 p.m.—Thousands of strikers are at this hour assembling in the Nevsky Prospect. (This locality contains the homes of many of the fashionable element of the capital. Outgoing trains are carrying the wives and children of many prominent St. Petersburg citizens to places of safety.

A meeting of 250 barristers and solicitors has passed a resolution of solidarity with the strikers, protesting against the action of the Government in provoking bloodshed, declining to plead in the courts and deciding to open a subscription in aid of the propaganda.

STRIKE SPREADING.

Moscow, Jan. 24—The strike is spreading rapidly; all printing works have been stopped. Thus far there have been no collisions with the police. Employes of the tanneries who are out on strike remain quiet. The police have ordered all arms to be removed from the windows of the gunsmiths, a majority of whom have closed their shops. Employes of the Bachrushin, Michaeloff Linder and Schraeder factories have joined the strikers.

FINNS ARE RISING.

London, Jan. 24—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Westminster Gazette reports that revolution in Russia is apparently spreading to various parts of the nations. Armed Finns, he says, are rising.

Moscow, January 24—A body of strikers at noon today forced their way into the works of the firm of Hopper, and compelled five hundred men to join the strike. Simultaneously factories and other works were closed throughout the districts adjoining Danieloff.

Helpless With Salt Rheum

"For many months my wife was unable to serve herself with her hands because of salt rheum. Dr. Chase's Ointment has entirely cured her and we strongly recommend it to any who suffer from similar ailments, believing that it has no equal." —Mr. Ledger Duguay, Pigeon Hill, Missisquoi Co., Que.

A CATHEDRAL WEDDING.

At St. Peter's Cathedral this morning, Mr. Samuel Hoolihan and Miss Amelia Beauregard, daughter of the late Louis Beauregard, were the principals in a pretty wedding. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. O'Brien at nine o'clock. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss F. Beauregard, and the best man was Mr. Joseph Derocher. After the ceremony the wedding party, which included quite a number of guests, enjoyed a sumptuous collation at the home of the bride's mother, on George street. Many very handsome presents were received by the popular young couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoolihan left by the afternoon train upon a trip to points west, and on their return they will take up their residence on Donegal street.

—The report of last night's Liberal rally will be found on page three.

—Come to the Review office tomorrow night and get the news of the election returns.

—The report of the Lindsay—Peterborough hockey match is on page seven of to-day's Review.

—The final meeting of the campaign will be held in Mr. Bradburn's interest in the Ennismore town hall to-night. A big rally is expected. Mr. Bradburn, Mr Dennistoun and others will speak.

—The Royal Templars' rally will be held tonight. Arrangements have been made to accommodate the large crowd of members who are expected. All the officers for the ensuing year must be elected, so let every member turn out and swell the ranks.

—Mrs. Morrow's choral and sight reading class will meet at the T.A.S. rooms on Wednesday evening at half past seven and it is particularly requested that all members be out as the rehearsals are very important. There was a large attendance last Wednesday and it is expected that as many will be present to-morrow evening.

—In the Conservatory of Music the German Class had its first meeting last night. The study of the German language is conversational according to the Rosenthal method, which should enable a diligent student to acquire a fair knowledge of the language in about 4 months. The attendance is open to anyone, whether attending other courses at the Conservatory or not. Further application can be made this week. It is of importance that the students attend from the very first. The class meets every Tuesday at eight o'clock.

Electors! Do your duty To-morrow, and turn out the time-serving, pledge-breaking Ross government. Cast your ballots for BRADBURN and MOORE.

We advise everybody to use Sunlight Soap—it makes child's play of work.

SUNLIGHT SOAP

We have used "Sunlight Soap," and we want to tell you that it is the best soap made, that's why we are writing. We found out that the Sunlight way is the best way to wash with "Sunlight Soap." At first we used to wash with Sunlight Soap in the old way as we did with common soap, but after we washed according to directions printed on the package, we would never wash the old way again. We first soap the articles, leave them to soak and then rub out lightly on the wash board. Not much to do and it makes the clothes white as snow.

Sunlight Soap washes the clothes white and won't injure the hands.

WORK FOR THEM NOW VOTE FOR THEM TO-MORROW

Build up Ontario Morally and Materially.

"The ballot is the medium through which the will of the Sovereign people is expressed; and he who lays unholy hands upon that sacred trust is as much a traitor as the man who aids the enemy of his king and his country."

FINAL WORD TO THE ELECTORS.

The time for talking is past. All the issues of the fray have been thoroughly discussed on the platform and in the press. Work is now the watch word, and if the same united, energetic and enthusiastic efforts are continued by the friends of the Conservative candidate, Mr. Bradburn, and those who wish to see Ontario relieved of the incubus of Rossism, corruption and tyranny, for twenty-four hours longer, victory is assured. The Province will then enter upon an era of clean, responsible and free government, and the long reign of crookedness, duplicity and weakness will be at an end.

Mr. Whitney pledges his solemn word that he will give the Province a secret ballot, a pure election, and an honest count. Support him in this pledge by your vote and influence tomorrow

Electors, remember this is not a party struggle, but a combat for freedom, for honesty, for independence. It is a battle of morality and Christian citizenship against wrong-doing and criminality, against machine rule and organized debauchery, against selfishness and greed. It is a heroic move for the assertion of true liberty, unshackled manhood, and decent, responsible government.

Tomorrow is the time for action, and if you have a vote it is your duty to poll it. Let every man, irrespective of party consideration or political prejudice, unite tomorrow and by his ballot express his strongest condemnation of the practices and intrigues that have kept Ontario down, throttled public opinion as expressed at the polls, and violated every right principle and honest action.

What is essential tomorrow is that an aroused public conscience shall assert itself, not in mere denunciation, but in act; that men who have hitherto stood aloof shall vote to serve their country, and that those who have covered the name of Ontario with infamy shall receive the reward for their deeds.

Vote for Bradburn and Moore, who will support Mr. Whitney, Ontario's rightful Premier.

TIME FOR A CHANGE.

Before marking his ballot tomorrow let the Liberal voter ask himself how the average Conservative voter views the political question.

The Conservative sees that for over thirty-two years every public office has been filled by a Liberal—generally a partisan appointed as a reward for political services. There they are—Liberal Magistrates, Liberal Sheriffs, Liberal Registrars, Liberal Coroners, Liberal License Commissioners and Inspectors with their extensive powers, and the Liberal Crown Attorneys still more powerful; Clerks of the Division, County, High and Surrogate Courts, Bailiffs and Constables—the entire visible Government machinery in the hands of Liberal partisans, who regard a Conservative with aversion and disfavor. In this respect the Conservative has been called "Uitlander" and he feels that it fairly describes him. Let him attempt to put the criminal law in motion (beginning of course before a Liberal Magistrate) and he is met at the threshold of the proceedings by the Liberal Crown Attorney, to whom he must surrender his case absolutely; to be dealt with as that officer sees fit, since the Crown Attorney practically decided whether a case shall be pushed or not. The Conservative sees, or thinks he sees, that this machinery is used to shield wrong doers and to keep the Ross Government in power. He believes that after long continued power, organised Liberalism has been attacked by the inevitable rottenness which in the long run comes to every ruling party. This we believe fairly describes the feelings of the average, honest-minded opponent of the Ross Government, and he justly demands his turn in the governing of the Province. To such a man—and his view, remember, is that of the majority of the people of the Province—it will seem to be a triumph of mis-government if Mr. Ross is returned to power. We will not recall here the long list of ugly charges against the Government, but we put it to every honest-minded Liberal. The Conservative has been "under dog" for thirty-two years; it is so necessary that he be kept under for five years more that you should risk the cost, viz., turning his honest hopes for better government into a bitter and cynical feeling that corruption cannot be put down, and that all moral sense has departed from the voters of the Province.

We admit that this sets a high standard of political morality for the Conservative party to live up to. If on securing power it fails to measure up to that standard nothing will save it at the next election; and the Liberal party will come back, cleared of its present "barnacles" and assured of years of continued strength and political control.

Tomorrow vote to place Mr. Whitney in power—and thus give the Conservative party a fair trial in the governing of the Province.

WHAT OTHERS THINK

While the Liberal papers throughout the country are frantically endeavoring to show some good reason why the Ross Government should not to-morrow, January the 25th die a natural death from old age and corruption, we will review a few of the opinions of the present regime expressed by others than mere partisans.

The Toronto Globe of November 9th, 1903, expressed its candid opinion as follows—

"There is but one thing for the Liberals of Ontario and that thing is the first and most pressing duty. "The barnacles on the ship must be treated with an iron hand." Half measures will not avail. Neither the Liberal party nor the Province owes to any man any position or reward not earned by honest and efficient public service."

Since this candid and honest opinion was expressed by the Globe not a single Liberal plugger or briber has been punished, and positions and rewards are being freely distributed amongst inefficient and unworthy partisans as well as among men reported by the judges or punishment.

The Ottawa Free Press in an editorial of December 30th, 1903, declared "the North Renfrew verdict to represent the popular feeling of the Province to a considerable extent." and then went on to say that the present Ministry stood discredited and that "It is useless for the Liberal party of the Province to shut its eyes to the fact that things cannot remain as they are for any length of time." Frankly it states 'The situation is not hopeful."

Has the Ministry been strengthened since this article was written by the addition to it of Messrs. McKay, Charlton or Graham—It has not.

In endeavoring to reach a just verdict on any point it is fair to assume that if the facts are placed before a jury of competent, disinterested men, that an impartial conclusion will result.

During the past two years the Liberal administration has been on trial; the impartial jury has been composed of the independent journals, our High Court judges and our independent public men.

After careful consideration of the facts; of the sworn evidence and the condition of the Ross Government itself as set out in the two foregoing editorials, the just conclusion and verdict arrived at by the independent tribunal has been that the "Ross Government has been weighed in the balances and found wanting" and that Mr. Whitney is entitled to the confidence of the electors.

The Toronto Telegram, Ottawa Journal, Toronto News, Saturday Night, Canadian Baptist, Canadian Churchman and the Presbyterian as well as other independent journals throughout the Province formerly favorable to the Ross administration unhesitatingly condemn it and support Mr Whitney."

Rev. Dr. Carman, T. E. Shore, Rev. Mr. Kettlewell, Dr. Smith, Dr. Hossack, Prof. Cappon and S. H. Blake vigorously denounce the present Government.

Then let us see what our High Court judges think about the political situation. Their opinion being free of party bias ought to be of great weight.

Judges Teetzel, Moss, Street, Boyd, Osler, Meredith and MacLean, have also found it necessary to deplore the present state of affairs and condemn the methods used to win recent elections. These judges evidently believe that in the interests of this Province, and of both political parties, that it is time for a change. We do not believe that any honest Liberal who has carefully sifted the facts, believes that it is even in the interests of his own party that the present state of affairs should continue.

It is for you to say which you will trust to-morrow.

PERILS OF MACHINE RULE.

There were several characteristic incidents in connection with the bogus ballot box affair at Belleville. Machine rule has ruined the lives of many young men in the Liberal party who prior to coming in contact with corrupt agents of the machine had been leading good respectable lives.

The man who exposed the diabolical schemes was denounced by leading Liberals as a Judas and a traitor. One witness, F. J. Reilly, was offered $500 and $25 a week to leave the country. Another witness, John Bremner, was urged at a meeting of the conspirators in Toronto at the time of the Liberal convention to commit perjury. He was told to kiss his thumb, instead of the Bible when he was sworn and that would excuse him from telling the truth. The same argument was used to the Minnie M. pluggers, who were assured that if challenged and made to take the oath they would be sworn on dummy Bibles. But in spite of these schemes, the truth came out. The Machine was caught and again exposed. What has been planned in secret was proclaimed from the housetops. It was a fitting climax to all the years of cheating and fraud, but it is the duty of every honest elector, Liberal, Conservative and Independent to vote against the Liberal candidate tomorrow in order to purify the political atmosphere.

Cast Your Ballot for

MR. HENRY A. MOORE

The Next Representative for the East Riding in the Provincial Legislature, and the Standard-bearer of the Liberal-Conservative Party.

CAMPAIGN ECHOES.

Rossism is not Liberalism.

To-morrow, To-morrow.

Bradburn and Moore are winners.

Electors, do your duty to-morrow.

Vote for purity to-morrow, not party.

Whitney for Premier, Bradburn for Parliament.

People of Ontario—"clean off the barnacles" to-morrow.

Vote early and then get your neighbors and friends to vote.

J. B. McWilliams now signs his name Just Barnacle McWilliams.

Electors support the candidates of the man who will elevate Ontario morally and materially.

Whitney will be premier to-morrow night, and there is no one who realises it more than certain hard-shelled Liberals.

Mark your ballots to-morrow for the men who stand for clean government, a pure ballot and an honest count.

The Peterboroughs will send two supporters to-morrow to uphold Mr. Whitney who will triumph at the polls to-morrow.

"I say that there are men following him (Hon. G. W. Ross) who have brought disgrace on the Liberal party."—Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

And notwithstanding every effort to drum up a crowd, there were still several vacant seats in the opera house last night.

The probs say that to-morrow will be fair and very cold—a fair day for the Conservatives and a very cold one for the Grits.

The tu quoque style of argument occupied the major portion of the speeches of Grit orators last night when reference was made to corruption.

In the absence of argument Mr. Whitney appears to have received a good deal of abuse at the hands of several Grit speakers at Mr. McWilliams' rally on Saturday night.

Electors turn out to-night to the Conservative headquarters and make full arrangements to get out the vote. With hard, persistent work until five o'clock to-morrow night West Peterborough will be redeemed.

Editor Macdonald talks of several "exploded" issues which have been referred to by the Conservatives, but neglected to speak of the exploded ministry and exploded premier which this province will witness to-morrow night.

Mr. Whitney's manly, forcible and comprehensive treatment of the issues in the present campaign have convinced all who heard him that Ontario will have a premier whose ability will place the much over-estimated Hon. G. W. Ross completely in the shade

No answer is made by the Globe to Frank Sullivan's bold demand for an apology. The point is that the Globe is both afraid to apologise and afraid to defy the Sullivans. The incident is important only in establishing even more clearly how completely the Liberal leaders are in the power of the questionable element.

Mr. Dan O'Connell thinks the Conservatives of West Peterborough show more courage than prudence in placing a candidate in the field to oppose Mr. McWilliams. Well, perhaps, after to-morrow night Mr. O'Connell will realize the cold, hard fact that the opposition have not only exhibited courage and prudence, but more strength and victory as well.

When Mr. McWilliams, jr., accuses this journal on the public platform of indulging in personalities and abuse he states what is not a fact. All that has ever been said against him or his father is that the former was not a true Liberal, has foisted himself on his party, and that the latter as a high salaried government official should be attending to public business, for which he is paid by all the people, instead of being an election machine and organization agent for the local Grit candidate. No matter what the blood relationship is, Mr. McWilliams is not observing either the intention or spirit of the act relating to government officials taking an active part in elections, and he knows it.

The Ontario Government line-up for Wednesday's big championship game shows considerable change. Stratton, who played right forward, has strained a tendon in his reputation and is off for repairs, and Davis will also be absent from the line, while J. M. Gibson, generally looked on as the main-stay of the defence, is acting as spare man. The new men are Graham, McKay and Charlton, and though some of them may prove surprises, they look slow in practice. Graham evidently looks on life as one huge joke, and constantly sees himself in the act of making it; McKay is said to not be taking any too much care of himself, while Charlton is hardly better than intermediate class. The Libs. look as if they would have done well to remember that old saw about swapping horses while crossing a stream. The trainers, too, have been changed. Cap. Sullivan is still chief rubber, but Jim Vance evidently despaired of getting his team in shape to play winning hockey, and threw up the sponge.—Toronto Telegram.

LAST SHOT FIRED IN THE CAMPAIGN

Meeting in the Opera House for Liberal Candidate.

THE GLOBE EDITOR'S FRENZY

Dilates on So-called Exploded Issues and Upholds Ross—Address by Mr. R. C. Clute and the Candidate—Attention Distracted From the Corrupt Record of the Government, and Another Chance Urged.

The meeting held in the Opera House last night in the interests of Mr. R. F. McWilliams, the Liberal candidate was well attended, and once again as has been the case at all of the political gatherings which have marked this and recent campaigns, the ladies manifested their interest by their presence in large numbers. The speakers, however, got down to business quick, without making any pleasing references to the fair sex, which seem to be the proper thing. Mr. R. F. McWilliams, Mr. R. C. Clute, K.C., of Toronto, and Mr J. A. Macdonald, of the Globe, were well received in their energetic defence of, and argument for the Ross Government. The spirit of the meeting was hardly that of enthusiasm, until the "Rev. editor" arose, and with fine frenzy lit into the Opposition because of the convincing arraignment they had made of the Liberal party and in a grand peroration he told the people to think of high and holy things in commending them to the support of the Liberal party—that party which has earned defeat, humiliated as it is by the broken pledges of its leaders and the gross scandals which have marred its career.

The hall was gaily decorated with flags and bunting by J. J. Turner and Sons, and several mottoes adorned the walls.

The chairman was Mr. D. O'Connell, who, in his opening remarks, observed that the last gun of the campaign was being fired and expressed the hope that, if there were any wavering, they would still be found among the faithful at the finish. He thought he could confidently say that the election of Mr. McWilliams was assured.

Mr. McWilliams was the first speaker. He expressed plasure at being greeted by so large an audience, and to observe that there were some among them whom he knew "voted the other way." Referring to the campaign, he said it had been singularly free from personalities and he thought Mr. Bradburn had observed an agreement made prior to the campaign. The Review newspaper, however had not done so. He had been attacked from the press and from the platform, because of his youth, but he said that 20 years ago Peterborough had made no mistake in having sent a young man to parliament. He regretted that another matter had been brought into the campaign—that his father, a Government official—was taking an active part in it. He thought that the party spirit was getting to a pretty low depth when it would not allow a man to support and work for his own son.

Mr. McWilliams paid some attention to the claim that, had Mr. Whitney been in power, his record would have been as good as that of the Government. He claimed that the Government's record was unrivalled, and he held also that had Mr. Whitney been in power, the treasury would have been the poorer by one million dollars, because of his opposition to the succession duties. Sources of revenue had also been made as the result of a tax upon large corporations, brewers and distillers.

Mr. McWilliams took up a statement made by Mr. Burnham at Zion to the effect that some men had been prosecuted for offences against the election law, but that they were all Conservatives, no Liberals. The fact of the matter was this, that not in the twenty-five years preceding Mr. Ross' time has a man been prosecuted, but subsequent to that some fifty-three were named by the judges and twenty punished. He referred to the fact that no partiality had been shown in the North Ontario cases—the Government had prosecuted men on both sides.

LABOR QUESTIONS.

Mr. R. C. Clute was now presented, and he was well received. He said it was about five or six years ago when Mr. McWilliams was running for an office at the University, that he had said to him, When your time comes down in West Peterborough let me know and I will try and help you through. He knew Mr. McWilliams intimately and regarded him as a gentleman. There were very few young men more capable of developing into that which the country wants at the present time.

Mr. Clute, in touching upon the part he had taken in the labor movement, which had been referred to by the chairman, said it was now some fifteen years since he took an active interest in that problem. To express a view which he felt with regard to the question of labor, the only man he despised was the man who gets his living without work. In this connection, he said, the Liberal Government had done more for labor than any state in the Union, or any country in the world. He reviewed some of the laws which had been enacted for the protection of the workingman, and in making available to them full wages and reasonable hours. Mr. Clute declared himself in favor of unions and he agreed to demonstrate within one hour after the meeting, that Trades Unions had not only come to stay, but that they were an absolute necessity. Capital was combining, and he emphasized the importance of the industrial class also combining. To make Unions effective there must be placed at the head, moderate, just, honest and liberal men. In the return of Mr. Ross, a progressive policy with reference to labor would continue to exist.

GOVERNMENT'S RECORD

Mr. Clute said he had read the papers on both sides and he held that the records of the governments, so far as legislation and administration was concerned had not been attacked. Even the News admitted this. No more unfair attacks upon the Government had come from any source than from that paper. He took up the charge of corruption and said, there is no act of corruption but has resulted in the injury of the persons and party who were guilty of it. He compared the records of the two parties, and held that the Conservatives were by no means guiltless, and in this connection referred to the latest case which had been brought to light in Pickering. He protested against certain parties in the Conservative party holding up the flag of purity in one hand and having the other hand in their pockets for the "stuff." Mr. Clute made the remarkable statement that where the Conservatives pointed to one case of electoral irregularity he could point to half a score on their part. He impressed the necessity of the ballot being kept sacred. In regard to the election of 1902, he said there was every evidence of absolute fair play on the part of the officers that had control of the election, the ballots and ballot boxes. In conclusion he grew eloquent upon the policy of the Government with regard to New Ontario and to the co-operation of the Provincial with the Dominion Government in attracting the tide of immigration to Canada. It was necessary to have at the head of affairs a man who would promote the progress and development of the country.

NOT A POLITICIAN.

Mr. J. A. Macdonald was next introduced. He said he was not a politician, did not intend to be. He did not think that any man could be blamed for being one, and he held it to be a part of the religion of very true man that he should be concerned in the interests of the country in which he lived. Referring to the candidate, he said Mr. McWilliams would get over being a young man. The people were responsible for the election of representatives, and they should be men of capacity and integrity.

Mr. Macdonald said he would like to speak upon some of the issues of the campaign. They were now all exploded. The Conservatives claimed that it was a crime to assist the Soo industries. The country, he held, could not afford to have the monied interests in the United States and England see that the investment of their money here was useless, nor could it afford to allow the developments of its resources to cease in that part of the country. The assistance was given, and some 4,000 men found work. As far as the bonds were concerned, the Province was released from the guarantee. Had Speyer & Co. foreclosed the United States steel corporation would have captured the Canadian market for steel rails, whereas now the mill at the Soo was turning out a product that was available for purposes in this country.

There was one other issue which it was predicted would down the Government. This was the temperance question. Because a promise was made by Sir Oliver Mowat and was taken up by Hardy and Ross and was not done, the cry was "Punish Ross!" Mr McDonald said he was not a prohibitionist but a state-controlled man, and he saw the obstacles to ther administration of such law—the treating system and the interests of those men whose money is invested in the business. He had not seen yet any evidence on the part of Mr Whitney that he was prepared to cur the nerve either on this side or that and improve the system.

CORRUPTION

The speaker next took up the cry of corruption, stating that no question was of greater importance than how we can improve our laws, how we can have laws administered in the interest of purity in election. It was for the people to use their sense of right and responsibility in exercising their franchise. The Minnie M. Case was referred to and it was held that the men who engaged in that enterprise were fools—quite as great as the man who handed out the money in Pickering two days ago. Mr. Whitney, the speaker said, had made no attempt to denounce corruption in his own party. The action of Mr. DuVernet to prosecute in a private way men reported for implication in the Soo election, was claimed to have been taken for the purpose of making capital against the Attorney-General.

Looking man for man, record for record, capacity for capacity, there was no comparison at all, he said, between Mr. Ross and Mr. Whitney, and if the latter was more concerned about the improvement of his own party there would be more respect for him. When he finds moral energy enough to release men who are damaging his own reputation, and that of his party, it would be time for him to speak the words he was now using with regard to purity. With regard to Mr. Ross the speaker said he had known him all his life and had yet to see in him anything that would weaken confidence in him as a man of sterling integrity. There was a greater thing to be feared than barnacles on the hull; it was the buccaneer on the bridge. It was for the people to see that tried men be in charge and to stand for what they believed to be right.

The meeting closed with cheers for the King, Mr. Ross and the candidate.

HOW TO MARK YOUR BALLOT

On Wednesday, Jan. 25th, in Support of Clean Government.

The form of ballot to be used in the Provincial elections next Wednesday is given below. For the benefit of those who cannot read, it is probably well to explain that Mr. Bradburn's name is printed in blue and Mr. McWilliams' in red, the former also being number one, and Mr. McWilliams number two:

1	BRADBURN Thomas Evans Bradburn, of the Township of North Monaghan, Insurance Agent.	X
2	McWILLIAMS Roland Fairbairn McWilliams, of the Town of Peterborough, Barrister-at-law.

THE WHITNEY MEETING.

Were you at the Whitney meeting? It was a grand success.
The speakers were Conservative, they gave a grand address,
The hall was brimming full with mottoes finely drest.
The audience was grand, all of the very best.

The ladies lent a pleasing sight; this acted like a spell
Upon Dennistoun and Whitney, it made them quite excell
All speeches I have heard in West Peterborough
Pleading for good morals throughout Ontario.

We heard about the Ross machine, also the Minnie M.,
All such horrid Ross corruption which honest men condemn.
Let's free Ontario from such a dirty crew,
And all such renegades as sailed up to the Soo.

The famous Gamey episode was a hard nut to crack,
It nearly smashed the Ross machine, it gave it such a whack.
Throughout that episode Gamey came out the best,
They allow him his seat without a lawsuit test.

The number on the Ross ballot is ball, I do declare.
It tells Ross how his pluggers vote, and this is hardly fair;
Ross knows how his men vote, he is the biggest boss,
How strange such awful tricks are permitted by Ross.

It's strange, to me that honest men can uphold such a state,
The pluggers and personators are awful to relate.
Let honest men reflect; I hope we are not few.
The cry of corruption is only far too true.

We must now change our Government and keep our standard high,
If not we make a big mistake and rue it by and by.
Where shall our honor be, if trickery be our aim?
Rather die a pauper, than lose an honest name.

THE DUTY OF LIBERALS

It is generally conceded that, whatever the actual administrative record of the Ross Government may have been during the past few years, it has clung to office helped by electoral methods that have been worse than corrupt. Ballot burning, switching and stealing, wholesale impersonation of the "Minnie M" variety, and bribery within the precincts of Parliament itself, have so disgraced the Province of Ontario under the Ross Government that many men who would otherwise be proud to still call themselves Liberals, will, in justice to their own self-respect, be reluctantly compelled to vote against the Government on Wednesday next.

It is no argument to say that the Opposition is just as bad. The responsibility is with the Government which is in power, and the Government cannot shield itself behind the sins of others, who, while in Opposition under our system of Government, may have but little practical power for either good or evil. The Government alone is directly responsible to the people, and when the Government becomes, as the Ross Government has become, synonymous of all that stands for scandal and shame in matters political, there is only one choice for a decent citizen, be he Liberal or Conservative, and that is to vote against the Government candidate in the constituency in which he has the right to exercise his franchise. And he may be lucky, if, after all, the "Machine" of the present piratical political crew does not steal or switch his vote.

There may be Liberals who will hesitate to vote for a straight Conservative candidate because they are in a little sympathy with the men or methods of that party, but it is their plain duty, nevertheless, to do so, if only for the purpose of public rebuking the present evil elements within the Liberal party. The defeat of the Ross Government is as necessary now in Ontario for the political purification of the Province as the defeat of the Government at Ottawa was necessary for the same reasons in 1896.

The honest Liberals of Ontario have, therefore, a plain duty before them on January 25th, and that is, to vote against the Government, no matter who the Opposition candidate may be.

Mr. Whitney and Mr. Ross.

Mr. Whitney stands for clean Government; Mr. Ross stands for Government at any cost.

Mr. Whitney desires clean elections; Mr. Ross has accepted the fruits of stolen elections.

Mr. Whitney has broken no pledge; Mr. Ross has broken the record as a pledge breaker and, as he himself put it, "he was delighted" when the Liberal Convention helped him to crawl out of his prohibition obligations.

Mr. Whitney is personally honest; Mr. Ross has never explained how the Gamey letter reached his private desk.

Mr. Whitney is straightforward and above-board, Mr. Ross is a specious pleader and deceitful in his utterances

Mr. Whitney has a sufficient number of good men around him to form a clean and honest Cabinet; Mr. Ross has had, and has to-day, as members of his Cabinet men whose administration of office has become a scandal.

Mr Whitney stands before the public as a man who will punish crime whether it be committed by Liberals or Conservatives; Mr. Ross stands before the public as a man who has rewarded men who have committed electoral crime in this Province.

Which will you vote for?

Where Is the Timber Surplus?

Without doubt the greatest and most valuable of Ontario's assets has been her timber wealth. From year to year we hear of large timber areas being sold by public auction and millions of dollars realized from their sale. These millions of dollars are periodically paid in the Provincial Treasury, and we have so much more money and so much less timber. Every sane man knows that the available amount of Government timber limits in this Province is not unlimited. In the last thirty-two years the Ontario Government has disposed of at least 70 per cent. of its available timber. All the moneys derived from its sale has been paid over to the Provincial Treasurer. If the millions derived each year from the sale of timber form part of Ontario's capital the moneys derived from their sale should be represented either in an immense cash surplus of many millions of dollars bearing interest or in other interest bearing assets. We do not hear much of this immense surplus. If there was a surplus it ought to be not one or two millions of dollars but ten times that amount. We must assume that there is no surplus for otherwise Messrs. Ross and Harcourt would boast of it.

If there is no surplus then it is because the present Government is using all the moneys derived from the sale of timber for expenses. When the remaining timber limits are sold, as they must be at the present rate, within the next ten or fifteen years there will be no more money coming into the Provincial chest from that source. The expenses of governing this growing Province will not be lighter but heavier. The question then is how are these expenses to be met. There are no interests bearing assets belonging to the Government from which any considerable income can be derived; in fact any interest derived from such source is used at the present time to meet current expenses, altogether outside of the million or two millions of dollars received each year from timber sales. The only way to raise the money will be by direct taxation. The Province has the power to raise money in this way. The Government will then heap the taxes on the railways and the railways will raise their rates. The Government will raise the license fees and the hotel-keepers will raise the price of drinks. The Government will increase the amounts levied on the counties and the farmers will pay increased taxes. In every case the consumer and farmer will have to make up the deficit. Let the people of Ontario think for a moment. Have Mr. Ross and his colleagues been candid when they have stated year after year during the last twenty years "that Ontario had a surplus and no debt?"

IT IS TIME FOR A CHANGE. WHAT DOES THE PHRASE MEAN?

Would a change be of real value to the Province and if so why?

We answer yes and for this reason—if for no other.

There is no other practical way for the Province to get rid of its "barnacles."

For 32 years the Liberals have been making appointments to office in Ontario. These men have been appointed sometimes for fitness but more often because of political "pull" and despite unfitness.

Some of these public officers attend to their duties conscientiously and earn the salary the Province pays them. Others shirk their duties—waste the time that belongs to the Province in doing political work for political friends—and are unjust autocrats who in the administration of their public office deal unfairly against their political opponents.

Take as an example the operation of the License Commissioners all over the Province. These unjust stewards rely on the "pull" they possess, with the party in power who appoints them. Owing to this "pull" the Liberal leaders cannot discharge or discipline them. If the Conservatives are returned these men could and would be disciplined.

In the interests of the Province regardless of party the only way to clear the Administration and to wipe out these "barnacle" office holders is to change the Government.

Vote for a change

Vote to abolish the "Barnacles."

Vote to make your office holders attend to the business of the Province and give an honest day's work for an honest day's pay.

Vote for Mr. Whitney.

IS IT TIME FOR A CHANGE? WHY NOT?

No great public issue divides the two parties in Ontario; there is no prominent question before the public such as is now agitating the people of Great Britain. Mr. Ross and the Liberal Government do not stand at this moment for any particular line of policy.

Mr. Ross and his Government may be swept from power on the 25th January and no important public question can suffer thereby. His defeat would mean the defeat of Ross not the defeat of any policy. Under these circumstances surely it is time for a change. The only result of a change can be to purge the public administration from "barnacle" office holders and pronounce an emphatic denunciation of election frauds. Surely these things are worth doing, particularly when there is no risk and no danger to other interests by doing them.

BRAZEN POLITICAL ROORBACH CONSPIRACY IN SOUTH ONTARIO

Nicholas Brown Denies the Globe's Story and Carries the War Into Africa.

LIBERALS MADE HIM DRUNK FOR PURPOSE

The Bribery Charges Manfully Repudiated—Globe Affidavits Seemed to Have Disappeared—Brown Will Sue Globe—Effort Being Made to Get Crown Attorney Farewell to Aid in the Prosecution---Corroborated Affidavit by Brown—Four Charged With Perjury.

Pickering, Jan. 24.—Nicholas Brown of this township, accused of bribery by The Globe, has carried the war into Africa, and will fight it to a finish. Yesterday afternoon he went before Magistrate Bunting to make affidavits on charge of perjury and conspiracy. Squire Bunting, though able to be around and get out, did not feel physically able to deal with the matter. He is 85 years old and his attitude is condemned by no one. Brown and his solicitor drove to Dunbarton, the next most available magistrate. Brown declared he would be at the public meeting to be held at Pickering last night to assert his innocence and defy the whole gang.

The meeting held in the Town Hall last night proved a complete victory for Brown and the Conservatives. Brown manfully repudiated the bribery charges.

Charged With Perjury.

Informations for perjury were laid last evening against William Stanley,
Wilfrid Law,
Lorne Squires,
William Vanstone,
relating to charges of conspiracy in that they accused Nicholas C. Brown of the offence of bribery. These informations were sworn out against the three together, with William Vanstone.

The information were laid before George Parker, J.P. The informant was N. C. Brown himself, acting on the advice of C. C. Robinson of Toronto The summons were served at the hall after the meeting last night, and the investigation fixed for two o'clock this afternoon at Pickering.

Globe Affidavits Disappear.

Mr. Robinson is now in Whitby, intending to endeavor to get the assistance of County Crown Attorney Farewell in the prosecution and to try and find the celebrated Globe affidavits, which seem to have mysteriously disappeared.

In his affidavit Nick Brown swears he gave no money to any one on Saturday last with the object of buying a vote. He can prove that he took only $25 with him when he left home in the morning and brought $21 back with him at night. He is most methodical in his business habits, and has for years kept diaries and cash books, showing every dollar received and spent, even to the items of his treating expenses, and these he says will substantiate his statements. A week ago he sold some cattle in Toronto to the extent of about $136, and had some of this on hand.

Stanley Had Big Wad.

His story is that he left home Saturday morning and met Vanstone and Stanley at the hotel in Pickering and considerable treating was done. Stanley had a big roll of bills, as he had been out during the previous night among his friends raising money to cover a bet with George Lang, who had bluffed him the night before. Stanley rolled up the piece of brown paper, which he suggested Brown should put in his pocket and make Vanstone believe he, Brown, had a wad. This Brown did, and wrapped a ball up in it, and this is how the story arose of Brown having plenty of money. The treating was general, but Stanley is said to have spent $25.

Brown says he handed Law a dollar bill with which to treat the crowd. This was done in the bar, where a large crowd was. Brown was then got in a small treating room, and he was kept there drinking. Lang and two others, who are prepared to come forward under oath and give their evidence, saw Vanstone tampering with Brown's glass. He was then got in the west sitting room, where the alleged bribery is supposed to have been done. Vanstone was on the outside, Stanley inside with Brown and then the others followed.

An Absurd Farce.

All the men alleged to have been bribed were dyed in the wool Liberals that no one but a crazy man would ask to change. The absurdity becomes a farce when it is remembered that the hotel was thronged. Every room and hall was filled, and this alleged Conservative emissary boldly bought votes. No wonder Brown's friends say it was a plant and are indignant. Wilfrid Lang says Brown was so hopelessly drunk he knew nothing.

It is alleged Mr. Law's affidavit was got on Sunday, the same being taken by L. T. Barclay, local registrar, Whitby, who went from Whitby on purpose to do this.

George McGuire about 4 o'clock Saturday got Brown in the cutter and drove him to Rouge Hill. Brown was death sick all the way there. They returned after 6 and had tea. Brown still being very drunk, altho not taking any more liquor. After getting his tea he heard the stories that were being circulated and hunted Vanstone up at the Liberal committee room. He called Vanstone out. He asked him what sort of a job he was playing or working on him. Vanstone said he was not working any job. but "those fellows got your money and came out and hollered."

Brown Denounces Vanstone.

Nick asked him how much they said they got. He was told $70. Brown said they never got a dollar, and that he did not have $70. Vanstone said, "Yes, you did you had $300." Brown declared he was a liar. McGuire counted Brown's money on the way to the Rouge and he had $21.

The trouble had its origin in the fact that Stanley made a bluff to bet on Friday night at the hotel on Dryden. George Lang called him for $500 offering his cheque for that amount, and Stanley funked. The crowd jollied Stanley and he has been looking for blood ever since.

Brown's Affidavit.

This is the affidavit made by Brown, wholly denying the whole charge:

I, Nicholas C. Brown of the Township of Pickering, in the County of Ontario, farmer, do solemnly declare:

1. That I am the person referred to in the declaration made by William Stanley, Lorne Squires, William Vanstone and Wilfrid O. Law, and published in The Globe of the 23rd day of January, 1905.

2. That I did not, as alleged, give to William Stanley the sum of $10, or any other sum to induce him to vote for Mr. Calder, nor did I give Lorne Squires $7 or any other sum for such purpose. I did not give Wilfrid O. Law $15 or any other sum for such purpose.

3. The three men named in paragraph two hereof are all Liberals of a most pronounced type, and well known in Pickering to be such, and even if I had the desire or intention to bribe an elector, they would all be among the last men to approach, as their politics are well known, and they are active Grit workers.

4. That when in Pickering on Saturday last the three men above named and William Vanstone endeavored successfully to make me intoxicated, and while I was in that condition, it is alleged that I paid the men above mentioned in order to procure them to vote for Calder.

5. When I left home on Saturday morning last I had $25 and no more on my person. I was not paid any money by any person while I was absent from home on that day. I did not draw any money from any bank or from any other source, from anybody whatsoever. When I arrived home on Saturday night I had $21 and some silver in my pocket.

6. I never had the slightest intention of paying any money to any person in order to induce such person to vote for or use his influence for Mr. Calder, and I declare positively that I did not pay any money to any person whatsoever for any such purpose.

7. The only money I spent for any purpose whatever on the said Saturday was something between $3 and $4.

8. I had no roll of bills in my possession on the said Saturday except the $25 above mentioned, and I declare positively that I had no fifty-dollar bill, as alleged by one Vanstone, but the said $25 was all the money I had during the whole of that day.

9. I have laid information against the said Stanley, Squire and Law for perjury before George Parker, Esq., justice of the peace, and an information for conspiracy to accuse me of the offence of bribery against the said Stanley, Squires, Law and Vanstone.

10. I hereby believe that the said four persons by surreptitiously filling my glass with liquor, and by other means, deliberately conspired to make me intoxicated, and they concocted the story of bribery in order to make political capital.

And I make this solemn declaration, conscientiously believing the same to be true, and knowing that it has the same force and effect as if made under oath and by virtue of the Canada Evidence Act.

Declared before me, in the Township of Pickering, in the County of Ontario, on the 23rd day of January, 1905. C. C. Robinson, a notary public, in the Province of Ontario.

Corroborates Brown.

Richard McGuire, a well known and respected citizen of Pickering, who was with Brown on the night of the day he was alleged to have committed bribery, corroborates the accused man in the following affidavit, which he made to C. C. Robinson:

"I, Richard McGuire, of the Township of Pickering, engineer, do solemnly declare:

"1. That on the 21st day of January, 1905, I saw Nicholas C. Brown in Gordon's Hotel, in Pickering. He was very much intoxicated, and, while I was in the hotel he was in the sitting room with William Stanley. I asked him to come out, and he came. He and I drove to the Rouge, and while on the way I had to drive, as Brown was so intoxicated he was unable to do so. While on the road he became violently sick from the effects of the liquor he had drunk.

"2. Before leaving the Rouge, and after he had been in the said sitting room, I counted the money on the person of the said Brown, and all the bills that he had in his possession was 21 one-dollar bills.

"And I make this declaration, conscientiously believing the same to be true, and knowing that it has the same force and effect as if made under oath, and by virtue of the Canada Evidence Act.

"Declared before me, etc., C. C. Robinson, notary public."

Brown to Sue Globe.

Toronto, Jan. 24.—Nicholas Brown of Pickering, has served notice on The Globe that he will institute a suit for libel for the article published on Monday morning, charging him with attempting to bribe three Liberals at Pickering Village. Mr. Brown, through his solicitor, James Baird charges that he, Brown, has been subjected a malicious attack that not only damages his reputation but also tries to fasten on him a crime of which he is guiltless. Mr. Brown promises to push the matter to a speedy finish.

Kennedy Will Tell All.

Sault Ste. Marie, Jan. 24.—The trials of the persons judicially reported for corrupt practices after the election trial at which C. N. Smith, Liberal member, was unseated in September last will commence today before Chancellor Boyd and Justice Teetzel, who were the election trial judges. The men against whom proceedings are being taken are George Grant, William Kilpatrick, Napoleon Audet, Charles Griswold, William Godwin, P. J. Galvin and Lack Kennedy. It is expected Lack Kennedy will take the witness-box at the commencement of the trial. He is the man who went to Michipicoten on the famous trip of the Minnie M., carrying the pluggers for the Helen Mine and Harbor polls, and under the alias of Ferguson. It is understood that Kennedy will make a confession and tell the whole story of his connection with that affair.

LAST WORD TO ELECTORS.

Mr. Whitney, "Ontario's Rightful Premier," Pledges Honest Government—It's Triumph Assured To-morrow.

Toronto, Jan. 24th.--My last word to the independent electors of Ontario is: "I pledge honest government for this Province. It will triumph to-morrow. Make its majority as large as possible."

J. P. WHITNEY.

AN ANCESTRAL PLEA.

At the meeting last night, held in the interests of his candidature, Mr. Roland F. McWilliams was good enough to express regret that the editorial tone of the Review was permeated with a "spirit of petty meanness." So far as observed, Mr McWilliams is the only individual who has said so, and his observation stands alone, and is worth what it is worth so standing.

He took occasion to advance the plea that his father had the right to support in a political sense—for under such view the matter was taken up—his son as a political candidate and to work for his interests.

Why bless Mr. McWilliams' dear heart, no one objects to such thing, but to the circumstances under which the assistance is given. Any father would do the same, but few of us have $8.00 per day fathers, paid out of the public chest while working on the job. Comment on this feature Mr. McWilliams did not make. He could not do so. It was a corner he would not attempt to turn, and he has turned several pretty sharp corners in the last four months.

Mr. McWilliams made no plea for his father. That gentleman is very well able to take care of himself. But it is a fact freely recognized that the position of the candidate would be very much more acceptable to the electors if that father were not the man behind the gun. This the electors cannot doubt, for the fact is before them. The campaign is wholly that of McWilliams, sr., and each elector knows that when he votes the McWilliams ticket, he is voting for a double personality, for a family compact that must be broken up. Every vote for McWilliams means a vote to continue in office an $8.00 per day man, with perquisites, and the votes of men who toil and work and pinch and save to make a living will be cast accordingly. All this is in the public mind. Mr. Roland F. McWilliams, the candidate, does not hear of it, for few men like to say depressing things to a young man in his first campaign.

LAST NIGHT'S MEETING.

The Liberal rally in the Opera House was fairly well attended last night although there were several vacant seats. It was not characterized by any particular enthusiasm or spirit of confidence, and applause was lacking except when Editor MacDonald told two or three good stories. Mr. R. C. Clute delivered a long rather dry speech telling what the Ross and Laurier Governments had done for laboring interests, but neglected to say how much money he had received from the Dominion government for acting on a labor commission and from the Ross regime for performing the duties of Crown prosecutor in the courts of the province for several years past. Mr. Clute should be able to speak a word of praise for the decaying administration which has been kind, even generous, to him. He repeated the old story "You're another" in connection with the corruption cry, and pretended that the Grit party had deeply repented of its wrongs, when every honest man knows that the same agencies are still at work and the same forces as busy as ever in an endeavor to corrupt and debauch the electorate.

Mr. McWilliams spoke very well and denied the assertion made by Mr. J. H. Burnham that the Liberals had not punished a single Grit machine operator who had been guilty of corrupt practices or reported by the courts for election offences since 1896.

Mr. McWilliams said this was not correct, but he failed to give the name of one Liberal who had been punished He referred generally to South Ontario but neglected to mention that those proceeded against were Conservatives. Mr. McWilliams knows full well that the assertion of Mr. Burnham that of the 65 Ross machine operators reported since 1896 not a single one has been brought to trial. The official records proclaim the truth of this statement.

Editor Macdonald referred only once to the "barnacle" article written by him as it is not a pleasant subject. He said that he was not in favor of prohibition and he sought to make great capital out of the Napanee key hole episode instead of being thoroughly ashamed of the incident. He forgot to mention that Premier Ross, who has always posed in West Middlesex as being a total abstainer, refused to say when challenged on the platform with having taken a drink, that he was innocent and how one of the premier's own cabinet ministers had written a letter to a friend of Mr. Whitney expressing regret and contempt for the dodge and intrigue at Napanee and begging the receiver of the letter to assure Mr. Whitney that he had no sympathy with such underhand, dirty and disgraceful tactics. The "key hole" and "peeping Tom incident" along with the alleged corruption by Nicholas Brown, a Conservative in South Ontario, whom the Globe in a roorbach, said sought to buy up honest Liberals, formed the principal stock in trade of his rather weak and lame defence of Mr. Ross. But Mr. Macdonald forgot to tell the electors that the Brown incident is a Grit move to draw a herring across the scent, that the circumstances in the "barnacle organ" were greatly exaggerated and that the men who Brown is charged with having tried to bribe are such strong Liberals that the allegation of approaching them with corruption in view is an absurdity. Brown says it is a Grit plot and the majority of our readers, who will take the trouble to refer to our news columns will reach the same conclusion.

These references were, however, worthy of the reverend editor and his style of argument, the man who was prepared to look "the ugliest and blackest page in the history of the Grit government full in the face and still support Mr. Ross"—a fine stand, a high resolve and a noble ideal, indeed.

MR. BURNHAM REPLIES.

To Mis-statements Made in Examiner—Stands by His Assertions.

The following letter has been sent by Mr J. H. Burnham to the editor of the Examiner, which that journal has consented to publish. The letter explains itself:—

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Sir,—Your editorial of yesterday attacks me in a most unwarranted manner. You charge me with misstatements and other perversions of the truth. I enclose my authority. You will notice that I left no stone unturned. I got the statistics and particulars, which I made use of, from headquarters in Toronto. The last paragraph of the report upon which I relied, is, as you see, as follows:—"There is no trace of any single Liberal wrong-doer mentioned in these official records having been punished, under any section of the Election Act or Criminal Code." This statement I repeat.

At Zion, a son of Mr. Anderson, a guileless youth, sat with pencil and paper as a substitute, I suppose, for the representative of the Liberal party we had asked for several days before. The organiser, notwithstanding the shoals of speakers at his command, couldn't get one on a week's notice to attend the meeting. Now, of course, I see that you reserved your reply for your newspaper. We would have given you and offered you every opportunity, and now the day before the election, when it is altogether too late to call your feint, you charge me with stating what is not true. Our information came from Mr. C. A. Masten, the well-known and highly respected Toronto lawyer. The editor of the Review wrote for statistics concerning the "reported" cases, at my request, and I believe Mr. Masten's statement to be correct. The search was made in the official records at the Parliament buildings. I enclose his letter with the result of the search.

Yours, etc.,
J. H. BURNHAM.

TO THE LIBERAL ELECTORS OF WEST PETERBOROUGH:

An Earnest Appeal to the Electors to Vote for a Purpose in View.

Gentlemen,—Tomorrow the Liberal electors of West Peterborough have a duty to perform to themselves. I myself have never cast a Conservative vote, but I will vote for Mr. Bradburn on this occasion for the reason that I cannot support Mr. R. F. McWilliams, who has foisted himself on the party in this contest against the wishes of the Liberals of Peterborough who have been accustomed to doing the work of the Liberal party. Therefore I desire to prevent, if possible, the election of one who is foisting himself upon West Peterborough for his own selfish ends and not for the benefit of Peterborough.

It is a well known fact that Mr. J. B. McWilliams has endeavored to control, dictate and boss the Liberal party and vindictively pursue those who do not agree with him and submit to such dictation. mit to such dictation. It has been Mr. J. B. McWilliams' boast that no political appointment could be made without his approval. It is well known that the Liberals of East Peterborough became so disgusted with this policy that Mr. Lang was defeated at the convention for one cause—giving Mr. J. B. McWilliams the patronage which should have been dispensed by himself. If Mr. McWilliams, junior, were elected, it only means the continuation of the high-handedness and vindictiveness of his father who is about the only real active supporter he has in the present contest.

In voting against Mr. R. F. McWilliams in this contest I cannot make myself feel that I am voting against the Honorable G. W. Ross, for if the Ross Government can only be sustained by the vote of Mr. McWilliams, I am of the opinion that it had better be defeated.

If Mr. McWilliams could break faith with the Liberal convention in making Mr. Hall's nomination unanimous, by subsequently issuing a address to the Independent electors of West Peterborough, he most certainly could break faith with the Liberal party of the Province and support Mr. Whitney in the self-seeking aggrandisement of the family. If the McWilliams' could satisfy their consciences that they were doing right in back-biting Mr. Hall in the most unscrupulous and vindictive manner, I feel that I would be justified in using my best efforts to keep such political influence outside the ranks of the Liberal party. Had Mr. McWilliams been an ordinary citizen this might have been forgotten, but the Liberal party were entitled to better treatment from a family who had been brought up, educated and maintained on the fruits of the Liberal successes in Ontario. Bad as this all is, it might be forgiven, but his threats from time to time that he could drive his leaders into political exile have been so disgraceful as to merit the condemnation of every honest elector, irrespective of party.

If Mr. McWilliams knew of any wrong doing he should have exposed it, and if he were stating what was untrue, I ask, were his threats made to gain some personal advantage for himself or his family? Evidently they were made for the personal advantage of the McWilliams', as his own son in the present campaign states that the administration of the Liberal party has been honest, progressive and clean.

Why are so many of the prominent Liberals taking no part in the present contest? It is not that they are opposed to Mr. Ross or his Government. They are not. It is on account of the fact that they are too honest themselves to countenance giving any strength to those who use all their influence for their own selfish ends.

Where is Mr. G. M. Roger in the present contest? He has declined to speak on Mr. McWilliams' behalf. Where is Mr. E. B. Edwards' voice in this contest? Certainly not for McWilliams. Although most favorably disposed to Mr. Ross, I venture to say he will not vote for Roland F. Williams. Where is Mr. J. J. Hartley's voice in this contest? Not a sound in the committee rooms. Has Mr. Andrew McFarlane, one of our staunchest Liberals, made his appearance on McWilliams' behalf? The answer is "No." Has Mr. W. G. Ferguson uttered one note in his behalf, privately or publicly? Not that I have heard of.

I have listened to Mr. Stratton—in whom the Premier has no more faithful friend—speak in the committee room and Opera House, and it was easily to be observed that his whole heart was not in the fight in West Peterborough. Why? Could it be expected otherwise. He is human. Can he forget he wants to make the public believe that he does for the sake of the party—the bitter, false and slanderous statements uttered by Mr. J. B. McWilliams, to Liberal and Conservative alike against Mr. Stratton because he would not be dictated to by Mr. McWilliams. It is McWilliams' action in Mr. Stratton's contests I will vote against as a practical protest against the methods of the father and the boy, who has picturesquely placarded himself as a "young, progressive and honest representative."

The effrontery of the man has been exhibited throughout the whole of this contest. The same influence that he exercised to obtain the Dominion nomination was used successfully to force himself upon the Liberal party, in West Peterborough in the present contest, and what makes matters worse he knew he was forcing himself upon the Liberal party in West Peterborough, although all the gentlemen nominated at the convention retired from it in disgust.

Are The Liberals of West Peterborough prepared to approve of McWilliams' policy? Are the electors of West Peterborough prepared to entrust its honor in the hand of a family which is only known for its bitterness, vindictiveness and self-seeking; for it must be easily seen that if the boy should be elected he would just be the instrument of his father and in voting for R. F. McWilliams, the electors would simply be voting for Mr. J. B. McWilliams.

Are the Liberals of West Peterborough going to become their own masters? If they are then on Wednesday they have the opportunity of voting for Mr. Bradburn, and it will not be voting in this riding against Mr. Ross. It will be against McWilliams' ways. Honest, respectable Liberals cannot but see that the whole moral fabric of the community, politically speaking, is being shaken to its foundation in allowing the election of a man whose election only means the perpetuation of the evil element which is behind him.

May I appeal, in conclusion, sincerely, to the electors of West Peterborough, to assist in putting an end to this condition of affairs. Surely Liberals are not lost to self-respect as to tamely submit to being made the tools of hereditary ambition and self-seeking vindictiveness.

Yours, etc.,
GENUINE LIBERAL

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

Young men, vote for a man who will be true to his party.

A vote for McWilliams means approval of the crimes and immoralities of the machine.

It is remarkable that not one of the Liberal stalwarts or any men of influence, except the chairman and speakers, appeared on Mr. McWilliams' platform.

The impression that one carried away from the Liberal meeting last night was this—It was very fortunate for the pulpit to get rid of the former preacher. He acted on the stage like a contortionist, keeping the audience continuously laughing over his most extraordinary movements to and fro on the boards.

Rev. J. A. Macdonald, last night, when he referred to the "Hot Scotch incident" at Napanee (which by the way was at once repudiated by a Liberal cabinet minister) forgot to say who the contemptible sneak was that looked through the key hole. How deep has the Liberal party sunk when it has to resort to such low methods in order to hang on to power?

The reference of Mr. Clute to the Conservative Purity Fund of $30,000, is absurd, when compared with the sum of $40,000 which the machine spent in North Renfrew in its unsuccessful attempt to elect Mr. Hale. Where did the money come from that debauched South Oxford, North Grey, North Perth and a host of other constituencies. Mr. Clute, very significantly, did not mention anything of this.

The sum and substance of Mr. Clute's and the Reverend Editor's arguments was "You are another."

The meeting last night was a "corker." It was almost as entertaining as a circus.

Mr. Clute when he was pleading for G. W. Ross last night, forgot to state at what rate of pay he makes these orations for the Ross government. G. W. Ross has been very generous to him. Let the workingmen remember this.

Remember also that the "great" Liberal convention in Toronto was largely packed by office holders, heelers, civil servants, etc., all highly interested in the return of G. W. Ross.

Mr. McWilliams is misinformed when he speaks of being blamed for his youth. It is not that, but rather for the consequences of that—"his" youth, which proved himself so very unreliable in political matters. In the Dominion election he was against the Liberal platform, in order to catch the Conservative vote and thus to get even with Mr. R. R. Hall. Now he is an out-and-out Liberal to catch the Liberal vote, in order to make a living. Is it possible that either party can trust such a political chameleon?

WORDS OF TRIBUTE

Senator Cox's Bereavement in the Death of His Wife.

The death of Mrs. Geo. A. Cox will be a cause of sincere mourning far beyond the circle of her own household. It is not only that she was a good woman and that a family is stricken and a husband bereaved. The world is full of good women, in high places and in low, and death comes as surely and as sorely to the home of poverty as to that of wealth and luxury. But Mrs. Cox was the friend and stay of many charities, and the angel of beneficence in many an obscure household. All her days she was bearing burdens that were not her own and giving of her strength and cheerfulness to revive hearts that were ready to faint and to brighten homes where sorrow dwelt and suffering was. The friends of her youth she never let wander far from her side, and her rare simplicity of character and gracious demeanor were wholly unaffected by any change of fortune. With a great reserve of intellectual power, and singular equity of mind, she shrank from any active identification with public movements and only those of her own household were permitted to know how wide and catholic were her works of beneficence. She guarded her charities as she guarded the privacy of her home, and we may not say from how many families her death removes a chief source of comfort and support. It cannot be unfitting to say these few words in simple tribute to a good woman who has gone to rest, and to offer the hand of sympathy to a sorrowing man, whose great place in the world of affairs counts for nothing in comparison with the loss he has now sustained.

Children

Are Underfed

THE RESULT IS WEAKNESS, RICKETS, ST. VITUS' DANCE AND MANY ILLS OF CHILDHOOD—THE CURE IS

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

"Nine-tenths of children are underfed," writes a great English scientist who made an exhaustive study of the subject.

Children require double nourishment—to enable them to grow as well as to repair the wear and tear consequent on living.

Active exercise of mind and body, together with growth of physiological changes, consume nerve force at a tremendous rate, exhaust the supply of rich blood, and leave the body weak and liable to disease.

Pallor and weakness, weak eyes, nervousness, skin diseases, rickets, St. Vitus' dance and constant liability to catch cold and to contract the disease of childhood are the result.

As a means of restoring the vitality of weak, puny children, there is no preparation so effective as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Being mild and gentle in action and powerful as a creator of new, rich blood and nerve force, this great food cure is admirably suited to the needs of children, soon adds new, firm flesh, and tissues to the weak and emaciated body and restores the vigor of robust childhood.

There is no means by which nourishment is so directly applied to the blood and nerves as by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, because this preparation is composed entirely of the elements of nature which are required to build up and restore strength to the system.

Mrs. R. Warehom, 267 Sherbrooke street, Peterborough, Ont., states —"One of my children has suffered a great deal with nervous headaches, dizziness and sleeplessness, and in fact, was all run down, pale and languid. These troubles we attributed to over-study and confinement at school. She began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and I can say I have found this treatment exceedingly helpful. It has relieved her of headache, steadied her nerves and built up her system wonderfully. We can see a great change in her, as the color is returning to her face, and she is gaining in flesh and weight."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. The portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Husband Found Mrs. Adam Lloyd With Her Clothes Afire.

Tweed, Jan. 24.—Mrs. Adam Lloyd, of Moneymore, ten miles from here, was burned to death about 8 o'clock yesterday morning. Her husband went out to the barn to do the chores, and when he returned to the house about fifteen minutes later he found her sitting in a chair in the dining room with her clothes afire. She was dead when he arrived. No explanation can be given for the unfortunate occurrence. Deceased was 68 years old.

Hurt While Sleighriding.

London, Jan. 24.—Nettie, the 8-year-old daughter of Mrs. M. Thirlwall, of 75 Bathurst street, was seriously hurt yesterday morning on her way to school. The little girl tried to catch a ride on a heavy loaded sleigh at the corner of Bathurst and Talbot streets, and fell beneath the vehicle. The hind runner of the sleigh passed over her.

Struck By a Train.

Stratford, Jan. 24.—While driving across the Grand Trunk tracks, where they cross Mackenzie street, yesterday afternoon, Ephram Wreford was struck by the express from the west. The horse was killed and the sleigh smashed to pieces and Mr. Wreford received some ugly scalp wounds.

Died of Cow's Kick.

Walkerville, Jan. 24.—Charles Janisse, aged 85, a life-long French resident of western Ontario, is dead, after a long illness, caused by being kicked in the abdomen by a cow.

Four Fingers Amputated.

Toronto, Jan. 24.—A lad named Eddie Mince, working at the Williams Box Factory, yesterday afternoon caught his left hand in the band-saw and had it so badly lacerated that the fingers had to be removed. The thumb only was saved.

ROUVIER'S CABINET.

Composition of the Cabinet Received Coldly At the Vatican.

Paris, Jan. 24.—President Loubet yesterday received M. Rouvier, who announced his definite acceptance of the mission for the formation of a Cabinet. M. Rouvier later held a meeting with M. Eugene Etienne, Gaston Thomson, Raymond Poincare, Henry Berteau, Ferdinand Dubieff, Bienvenu Martin, Joseph Ruau and Jean Dupuy, who, with M. Delcasse and one other, still doubtful, will probably constitute the new Ministry.

Continue to Oppose the Vatican.

Rome, Jan. 24.—The announcement of the composition of the new French Cabinet was received coldly at the Vatican, where the belief prevails that, although the Ministers will be more moderate, they will continue the late Premier Combes' program.

TWO CENT RATE IN CANADA,

Ottawa and New York Railway Makes the Novel Announcement.

Ottawa, Jan. 24.—The two-cent railway fare has been introduced into Canada. The Ottawa and New York Railway recently acquired by the Vanderbilt interests, has announced that in future a two-cent rate can be obtained by the purchase of a mileage book covering 1,000 miles and costing $20. This reduction is the first innovation by the Vanderbilt interests. The two-cent rate is in vogue on all the lines of the system in the States, so that its introduction to Canada is but an extension of the privilege, which in the States has been found to work very successfully, creating as it does an increased traffic. The holders of New York Central mileage books will be entitled to the two-cent rate on the Ottawa and New York line, as well as the other lines making up the Vanderbilt system.

$10,000 Fire At Toronto.

Toronto, Jan. 24.—A quick and stubborn blaze in the premises of R. A. Sabistan, manufacturer of horse blankets, fur robes, etc., at 86 Don Esplanade, will net a loss of $10,000, principally in machinery.

At 7.20 last evening fire was discovered in the building occupied by J. B. Rankin & Co., shoe dealers. The building is occupied by five firms, J. B. Blackley & Co., woollen dealers; J. B. Rankin & Co., Keith & Kemp, printers; the Standard Cloak Co., and A. R. Bremner, manufacturers of Coke Dandruff Cure and Wizard Oil. Inside of half an hour $5,000 damage had been done to the building and stocks.

Order For Steel Rails.

Montreal, Jan. 24.—A director of the Dominion Steel Co. stated last evening that the Grand Trunk system had placed an order with the Dominion Steel Co. for 25,000 tons of steel rails. It is understood that this quantity will lay about 200 miles and will be used to relay the main line.

RUSSIAN REVOLT GROWS

Moscow Workmen Strike and Old City Is Greatly Excited.

Laborers in Other Large Cities Prepare to Suspend Work and Swell the Tide of Unrest—Czar to Issue Manifesto Giving a First Concession to the Representative Principle—No People Slain Since Sunday.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 24.—The most startling feature in the situation is the news that several factories in Moscow have closed and that the workmen in the old capital of Russia are repeating the tactics of their fellow workmen of the new capital, marching from shop to shop and mill to mill, demanding that the establishments be shut down. The whole city is reported to be in a state of great excitement over the news of the bloodshed here Sunday, which has precipitated immediately the strike that had been planned for Wednesday. Moscow has more workmen and less troops than St. Petersburg, and, besides, is just now the heart of the liberal movement, and the danger of bloodier occurrences than have been witnessed here is proportionately greater. A rising at Moscow also is more likely to have greater results industriously and politically than in St. Petersburg.

Other Cities Restless.

According to private reports the workmen in several other big cities, notably Kharkoff, where large locomotive works are located, already have completed plans for a general suspension of work. Moreover, reports are current that the workmen who otherwise would soon be forced back into the shops or starve, have received assistance and assurances of financial support from the sources which have hitherto furnished the sinews of war to the liberal and revolutionary agitation, but have not before been in touch with the labor movement. If the strike becomes general all over Russia, and especially if the railways are involved it might immediately force the nation to make peace with Japan.

The situation appears grave from every standpoint; but the authorities apparently somewhat bewildered, declare their purpose to stand firm, maintaining that it is their first duty to preserve order, scouting the idea of actual revolution. Seemingly the Ministers are mostly concerned over the effect of the present situation abroad, where, they declare, exaggerated reports create a false impression. What, if any, steps have been taken to meet the general situation, however, has not yet been disclosed.

Manifesto To-Day.

There were extremely significant reports last night that Emperor Nicholas, in making the decision at the extraordinary meeting of the Council of the Empire at Tsarkoe-Selo yesterday, to declare St. Petersburg in a state of siege, announced that he had resolved to issue a manifesto to the people with a view to calming them, promising to create a mixed commission of workmen and officials to investigate and decide the questions of the demands of the strikers, especially the one affecting the hours of labor, which Russian law fixed at 11. The representatives of the workmen, according to this report, are not to be appointed, but selected by the laboring men themselves. This would be the first concession to the representative principle.

According to reports, the Emperor will also promise to investigate Sunday's events in St. Petersburg.

No People Slain.

Yesterday there was no repetition of the deplorable occurrences of Sunday, with the exception that a single blank volley was fired to awe a crowd near the Warsaw Station. Careful investigation shows that no bullets were fired. The military everywhere had a firm grip on the situation, and the police used every precaution, such as forbidding the sale of petroleum and advising persons to remain indoors.

The tension, which was somewhat relaxed in the morning, continued to increase during the day. Conditions appeared to be ominous, when, shortly after dark, the workmen in the electric light plants walked out, refusing triple pay to remain, and plunged into darkness half the city.

ST. PETERSBURG BULLETINS.

Illuminating News of the Russian Horror in Brief Paragraphs.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 24.—The general strike in Moscow is proceeding on exactly the same lines as the St. Petersburg strike.

Gopon Excommunicated.

Antonius, Metropolitan of St. Petersburg, has formally excommunicated Father Gopon on the ground that he was causing the people to rise against the Emperor, the head of the church.

Emperor Prostrated By Grief.

Emperor Nicholas is completely prostrated by grief. He is represented to be almost in a state of collapse over the situation. In the meantime everything awaits his decision. Every window in Grand Duke Sergius' St. Petersburg palace was broken by a mob during the night.

In a State of Siege.

It is rumored that Emperor Nicholas will issue a manifesto to-day declaring St. Petersburg to be in a state of siege.

Artillery Officers Arrested.

Davidoff, the captain, and Kurzeff, the senior officer of the battery from which the loaded shell was fired on Jan. 19, striking the Imperial pavilion and other buildings have been arrested.

The Greatest Fear.

The greatest fear is that the water supply will be cut off and the city burned. The military authorities are trying to find workmen to start up the electric plant.

Certificate of Loyalty.

It is now officially denied that a single regiment refused to obey orders Sunday, and the War Office expresses not the slightest doubt of the loyalty of the troops.

Workmen's Headquarters Closed.

Interior Minister Sviatopolk-Mirsky at 11 o'clock yesterday morning telegraphed orders to close the headquarters of the workmen's union. This was done.

Official Count of Dead.

The Official Messenger announces that up to 8 o'clock, Sunday night the total killed was 76; wounded, 283. But 500 is a liberal estimate of those killed.

Not Revolutionary.

As a rule the Russian working people and leaders of labor unions, composed principally of people from Russia or with Russian sympathies, do not consider the present movement a revolutionary one. They regard it more as a strike.

MOSCOW WORKERS OUT.

1,000 Employes of Bromley Metal Works Strike in Sympathy.

Moscow, Jan. 24.—Employes of the Bromley Metal Works to the number of 1,000 met at 2.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon and declared that they were unable to continue at work because their St. Petersburg comrades had asked them to strike. They immediately left the works formed a procession, marched through the streets and begged their fellow-workmen in all industrial establishments to join in the movement. A majority of those who were thus requested to quit work complied. Afterwards the strikers visited the Sytin Printing Works, the largest establishment of the kind in Moscow and belonging to the millionaire publisher, Sytin, and induced the men employed there to strike. The works closed at 5 p.m.

Emperor Leaves Tsarskoe Selo.

Paris, Jan. 24.—The Temps published a despatch from St. Petersburg timed 8 o'clock yesterday morning saying Emperor Nicholas has left Tsarskoe Selo for Gatchina or Peterhof.

The Kaiser's Anxiety.

Berlin, Jan. 24.—Emperor William and the members of his entourage sat up late Sunday night receiving press and private telegrams from St. Petersburg.

The Pope Hopes.

Rome, Jan. 24.—The Pope was most distressed at the news contained in the latest despatches communicated to him by Papal Secretary Merry Del Val, and expressed the hope that the internal situation in Russia was not so black as depicted.

"Long Live Poland."

Paris, Jan. 24.—A despatch from St. Petersburg gives an account of a public demonstration at Lodz, a manufacturing town in Russian Poland, in which the crowd carried flags and raised crys of "Long Live Poland." Some persons were killed and some wounded.

Accounts Conflict.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 24.—A report has gained currency that the strikers intend to storm the market on Vassili Ostroff and seize the provisions. At Kolpin, twelve miles up the river, a body of workmen who had started for St. Petersburg to join the strikers were stopped and fired upon by soldiers. Accounts as to the number killed or wounded conflict.

8,000 SAILORS RISE.

Comrades Refuse to Fire On Them Or Fire in Air.

London, Jan. 24.—Special despatches from Russia to the London papers to-day again bristle with sensational statements. For instances, the correspondent at Kiel of the Press asserts that the naval depots at Sevastopol have been destroyed by a revolutionary outbreak of the sailors of the Black Sea fleet, whose lives have been rendered unbearable by over work and robbery by corrupt officials and gives circumstantial details of 8,000 of these men rising and attacking their officers and firing and destroying the buildings, while the troops that, according to the story, summoned to quell the revolt, refused to fire at all or fired in the air. Other despatches report soldiers killed by bomb throwing. None of which can be confirmed in any responsible quarter.

There is much curiosity as to the intentions of the Imperial family. There are rumors that they are going to the Crimea, Copenhagen, or some other place till the storm has blown over. According to The Daily Telegraph's correspondent Emperor Nicholas yesterday went to Gatchina.

Prepare For Change.

The Daily Telegraph's St. Petersburg correspondent reports that as the outcome of meetings of the Reform party of Gorky, Annensky, Arsenieff and others, and their adherents Saturday night, a body of men has been constituted who regard themselves as the future Provisional Government of Russia. As yet, the correspondent says, they are political ciphers; but they hope some sudden stroke of luck will enable them to overturn the existing regimes, at the same time they recognize the fact that non-success may lead them to Siberia or the tomb.

Refugees At Chefoo.

Che Foo, Jan. 24.—Thirteen junks, containing 500 men, women and children, after a passage of sixty hours from Port Arthur, arrived here yesterday. The passengers were immediately sent on board the British steamer Muenchen, chartered by the Russian Government to take them home.

Tribune Scorched.

Winnipeg, Jan. 24.—Fire slightly damaged The Tribune building last evening. The fire started in the room. The loss is about $2,000.

Whom Marconi Will Marry.

London, Jan. 24.—The Daily Express is authorized to announce that a marriage has been arranged between Signor Marconi and the Hon. Beatrice O'Brien, fifth daughter of the late Lord Inchiquin, and half-sister of the present Baron. Her mother is Ellen, Lady Inchiquin. The wedding will take place during the second week in March. The Italian inventor's future bride belongs to a family which once held royal power in Ireland as the Kings of Munster and Thomond.

You know the action of fruit.

Apples, on the kidneys—oranges, for stomach and appetite—prunes and figs for the bowels. But—fresh fruit won't CURE these organs when diseased: they can only HELP to keep them well.

Fruit-a-tives

can—and DO—cure. They are fruit juices—but changed chemically and medicinally, by our secret process. So remarkable is this conversion, that "Fruit-a-tives" cure all Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Skin Diseases, where the fresh fruit would have no effect on the trouble.

THE CATTLE EMBARGO

Croom, Limerick, Ireland, Council Demands Its Removal.

New Aspect of the Case For Ireland and Canadian Cattle Demonstrated By Michael Davitt—Croom Council, Therefore, Calls Upon Its Parliamentary Representatives to Use Their Utmost Endeavors to Remove Embargo.

London, Jan. 24.—(C.A.P.)—Somewhat contrary to the majority of the District Councils of Ireland the Croom (Limerick) Council has unanimously adopted a resolution calling upon their Parliamentary representative to use his utmost endeavors to remove the cattle embargo, as they "view with grave alarm the high prices paid by tenant farmers for holding under the Land Purchase Act which prices are ruled by the present artificial closing of the English ports to Canadian and other cattle." This aspect of the case is demonstrated by Michael Davitt in a long letter to the public press. The other side is that removal would utterly ruin the tenant farmers who agreed to purchase under the act.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

Ottawa, Jan. 24.—The House had another fifteen minute session yesterday. The proceedings were confined to routine.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier laid on the table of the House an instalment of the Auditor-General's report. This will enable the House to proceed with the estimates of some of the departments.

Mr. McLean of Queen's, P.E.I., was informed that the total expenditure in connection with the Murray Harbor branch of the P.E.I. Railway, up to Jan. 1, 1905, was $1,016,000. The Hillsboro bridge has cost so far $221,000.

Mr. Pringle was told that 25 extra men were employed on the Cornwall Canal during October, and 21 extra men during November.

EAST, WEST AND SOUTH

United in One Respect.

There may be many differences of opinion regarding some subjects in sections of the country remote from each other, but there is none respecting he best remedy for piles, as witness the letters below:—

"I have been feeling so good I could hardly believe it, after suffering with piles for a year, to find that I am once more feeling like myself. I wish you could have seen me before I started using Pyramid Pile Cure, and look at me now, and you would say, I am not the same man. I have gained 20 pounds, and all on account of Pyramid Pile Cure." Walter Sharkley, 56 Park-st., Springfield, Mass.

"I bought a fifty cent box of Pyramid Pile Cure and used as directed with the most unexpected results, a complete cure. I have been troubled with piles for thirty years and was in much distress and passed much blood, but at present am free from any kind of piles." F. McKay, Weaverville, Cal.

"Pyramid Pile Cure has been worth thousands of dollars to me; it cured me after using numbers of other remedies and taking medicines from doctors. It also cured my son, although he could hardly walk, eat or sleep; he is now all right." B. Stringfellow, Postmaster, Elko, S.C.

One thousand dollars is offered by the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., to any one who will show the above testimonials to be not genuine.

Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists for fifty cents a package, and every sufferer should buy a package and try it to-night, being careful to accept no substitutes, and bearing in mind the fact that there is nothing else "just as good."

EASY VICTORY FOR PETERORO'

Lindsay Trimmed On Their Own Ice Last Night.

LINDSAY WAS OUTCLASSED

Winners Played Great Hockey— Large Crowd Including About 400 From Town— Disgraceful Proceedings At Lindsay Station.

Peterborough 13, Lindsay 5. Such in brief is the story of last night's match at Lindsay between the Peterborough and Lindsay O.H.A. teams. The score at half time was 4—2 in favor of Peterborough. It was a clean cut victory for Captain Cavanah's bunch who played the fastest kind of hockey from start to finish. The game was a fine exhibition of the national pastime being fast and comparatively clean. The Lindsay outfit were clearly outclassed, and the speedy work of the Peterborough team played them off their feet, especially in the last half when nine goals were scored on McGrath. The game was won on its merits and the best team won as even the Lindsay Post will have to admit. Lindsay's combination was conspicuous by its absence while the visitors played a very effective, combined game, most of the goals being scored in that way.

A very large crowd saw the game, including between three and four hundred wildly enthusiastic rooters from Peterborough, who soon let people know who they were and what they were there for.

The winners showed by far the best form they have displayed this season. From start to finish they never let up and Lindsay's goal was in danger all the way through. The defence was of the stone wall character while the forwards combined beautifully and shot accurately. Wasson in goal played the game of his life and saved the nets dozens of times when a score seemed inevitable. Glover also put up a grand game. He was always in his place with the necessary and Lindsay worked hard for all that got past him. Crowley broke up many very dangerous looking rushes and made some daisies himself. He was far too fast for the Lindsay forwards and fooled them time and again. On the rush line Cavanah was probably the star, although all four played the kind of hockey that wins games. His rushes were very pretty and he never had much trouble in breaking through Lindsay's defence. He was about the fastest man on the ice and time after time broke up dangerous rushes by speedy checking back. His shooting as usual was deadly. Morgan at center put up one of the best games he has done this season, which is saying a good deal. He was in nearly every combination rush and generally was the one who put the puck where it would do the most good. Parnell at right wing was as speedy and reliable as ever and did some star work, especially in the shooting line, scoring several goals by good shots from the side. Graham on the other wing played a fine game, nicking in nicely with the other forwards and shooting accurately. He kept the goal keeper from brooding too much over the score.

Lindsay's defence was not very effective. McGrath in goal stopped some hard ones but also let a few easy ones elude him. Reilly at point did some nice rushing and lifting but the Peterborough forwards did not find it very hard to pass them. Irving lifted and checked well although he appeared a trifle slow. On the forward line, Taylor was probably the star and did some nice playing. Pringle at right wing also put up a good game, although Graham checked him to closely to be dangerous. Duffus was very speedy but his stick handling was to the bad. Parkin at left wing was outclassed by Parnell.

Referee W. A. McCord kept the game clean and had a good eye for offsides.

The teams were as follows—

Peterboro—13		Lindsay—5
Wasson	Goal.	McGrath
Glover	Point.	Reilly
Crowley	Coverpoint	Irving
Cavanah	Rover	Duffus
Morgan	Centre	Taylor
Parnell	Right Wing	Pringle
Graham	Left Wing	Parkins

The Lindsay team took the ice first and of course were warmly received. Peterborough soon followed and the visiting rooters sent up a roar that shook the rafters. Mr. J. D. Flavelle, of Lindsay, walked out on the ice, made a little speech, dropped the puck between Morgan's and Taylor's sticks and the great game was on.

Play went at once to Lindsay's end and McGrath was called upon to stop a couple of hard ones which he did nicely. Taylor went off for tripping. Crowley broke up a dangerous rush and lifted to Irving who made a beautiful lift on goal but Wasson had his eagle eye on it and turned it aside. Another lift from Irving was handled in the same manner. Finally from a mix-up near Peterborough's goal, Morgan and Parnell broke away and eluded the Lindsay defence with a nice combination rush, Morgan scoring. Score 1—0. The Peterborough contingent expressed themselves vigorously, while Lindsay preserved a religious silence.

Lindsay pressed from the face off. Glover stopped a dangerous advance and took the rubber nearly the length of the rink. He was ruled off for slashing at Reilly after he had lost the puck. A section of the railing fell onto the ice and there was a long delay. The Peterborough team were putting up a great game. Cavanah and Morgan reunited for another nice rush, the latter again finding the nets. Score 2—0. Peterborough rooters again went wild while Lindsay said nothing and waited for the victory that was not to be theirs.

Their turn to cheer soon came. Parkins and Pringle worked in a pretty combination rush, Parkins scoring. Score 2—1.

Wasson stopped a couple of nice ones and the puck travelled to the other end of the ice. Crowley went off for bodying. Finally Parnell and Graham got together and fooled the Lindsay defence, the former beating McGrath with a neat shot. Score 3—1.

Lindsay worked hard to tie the score. Parkins and Taylor together made a nice rush, the former finding the nets. Score 3—2.

McGrath stopped one from Morgan and the puck went back again. Crowley broke up a bad looking rush and dodging the Lindsay defence made the score 4—2. It was a nice dash. Half time.

HOMERS OUTCLASSED.

The second half was all Peterborough and the home team were outclassed. Irving went to the boards for bodying. Parnell and Morgan made a nice combined rush, but the former's shot was stopped. Cavanah batted it in before McGrath could clear. Score 5—2.

Peterborough still kept pressing. Cavanah made a beautiful dash and passed to Parnell and the umpire's hand went up once more. Score 6—2.

It looked easy, but Peterborough never let up. A couple of rushes on Lindsay's goal were blocked, but a nice combined rush netted another for Peterborough, Morgan doing the trick on a nice shot. Score 7—2.

The next one soon came, Morgan again scoring after a pretty rush. Score 8—2.

Graham went off for slashing. Duffus was hurt and had to go off, Peterborough dropping Glover. Parnell was sent to the fence and for a minute Peterborough played four men to six, and still Lindsay couldn't score. Parnell and Graham came on again, and Lindsay's defence broke up a bad rush. The play went to the other end and there was a desperate scrimmage in front of the Peterborough goal, during which Wasson laid down on the ice and was sent to the fence. While he was off Duffus succeeded in finding the nets. Score 8—3.

Wasson came on again and nearly scored with a lift. Peterborough kept pressing, and after McGrath had turned aside a hot one, Parnell brought the rubber out of the corner and scored on a nice shot from the side. Score 9—3.

Taylor went to the boards for tripping. Wasson stopped a nice one from Pringle. Cavanah rushed beautifully and passed to Graham, who just to have a hand in the scoring made the score 10—3.

Lindsay did their best playing of the evening for the next few minutes. In a combination rush Taylor added another. Score 10—4.

Another soon came, Parkins scoring on a nice dash. Score 10—5.

Peterborough again pressed. Cavanah took a long shot from the centre and the puck went into the nets off Reilly's stick. Score 11—5.

Play was all in Lindsay's territory. A hard shot from Cavanah was cleverly stopped by McGrath. Peterborough never let up, however, and Graham rammed in another. Score 12—5.

The last one came soon after, Morgan doing the trick after several shots had been blocked. Score 13—5.

There was only a couple of minutes to play. Crowley went off for bodying and Cavanah soon followed for loafing. Playing four against six, Peterborough still kept the home team on the defensive, and time was called with Wasson in the centre of the rink trying hard for a goal. Final score, Peterborough, 13; Lindsay, 5.

NOTES.

13—5.

What will the Post say?

Morgan was the only Peterborough man not ruled off.

Wasson worked hard for a score, but luck was not with him.

A crowd of hoodlums created quite a disturbance at Lindsay station. Ice, lumps of coal, rotten eggs and bottles were some of the missiles hurled at the special train. Many windows in the cars were broken and several Peterborough supporters were cut by flying glass. It was a disgraceful way of getting back at Peterborough.

GRIN AND BEAR IT.

People with pleasant temperaments are easily imposed upon by men as well as nature. Very frequently we see this genial sort of people tied down with severe attacks of Rheumatism or Neuralgia and they grin and bear it as though they enjoyed their predicament. They are content to let things take their course and do not realise that this disease will undermine their whole system and shorten their lives by many years. Relatives and friends should intercede and insist that these satisfied suicides take immediate treatment with the great

They will, if taken in time, prevent Pneumonia from developing.

But, of course, if you wait too late, from a really bad attack nothing can save you.

That's why we lay so much stress on the fact that a common cold is such a dangerous thing to neglect.

You never know what may come of it.

And, nowadays, when we have at hand, in Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, such a safe, certain and perfect cure for a cold, there is no excuse whatever for letting it run along.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets act directly upon the mucous membranes of the body, the inflammation of which is generally called "Catarrh," which inflammation is nearly always caused in the first place, by a cold.

As soon as you begin to sneeze, and your eyes and nose begin to run, fly for relief to Stuart's Catarrh Tablets. They will not fail you.

Cases of chronic, long-standing catarrhal trouble, accompanied by discharge from nose and throat, coughing, hawking, spitting, offensive breath, indigestion, irritation of the stomach or bowels, are also easily cured by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

In cases of long standing, however, a cure cannot be expected in a day, as it will take some time to build up the weakened, inflamed and flabby membranes to their original tonic state of health.

It will take time, but perseverance will win the day—if assisted by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

It is important, however, to remember to use Stuart's.

No others are genuine.

No other tablets, or any other medicine, will give you the real, positive, permanently curative results that Stuart's will.

Try them.

All druggists sell them at 50 cents a box.

CASE CREATES MUCH INTEREST

Talk of Martyrdom Indulged in Among Scientists.

DISTURBANCE OF THOUGHT

This Was Said by One of the Cult to Have Been the Cause of Wallace Goodfellow's Death—The Law and the Prophets.

The imprisonment of four Christian Scientists on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Wallace G. Goodfellow has stirred up much interest among the Christian Science fraternity in this city, says the Toronto News. Talk of martyrdom is indulged in by some. Others predict an ultimate victory for the accused. Some regret certain features of the case. Others again display evident signs of irritation when accosted on the subject, and are unwilling to discuss it. One thing seems certain—that severity dealt out to the prisoners will be more likely to strengthen than to weaken the cause. Such has always been the moral effect of martyrdom, whether fancied or real.

"What is your opinion of the Goodfellow case?" was asked of Mr. Charles Hudson, car distributer at the Union Station, a well known member of the cult.

"I think the death was due to a disturbance of thought," he replied. "I have seen some instances of that, cases that medicine had given up, all but proving fatal through the interference of friends who were not in sympathy with Science. It seems altogether a pity, however, that the wife was not permitted to see her husband before he died."

The question of a patient's right to take or refuse medicine is a fundamental argument with Christian Scientists. Wallace Goodfellow being a Scientist, refused medicine. That he was not of age clearly to comprehend why he refused is not considered. Neither is it conceded that a man's regard for the entreaties of his wife or his best friend, which might weigh more with him than the mystical allurements of a new faith, has the paramount right in the case.

LAW AND THE PROPHETS.

The legal aspects of the affair must be gathered from sections 209, 210, 212, 223 and 225 of the Criminal Code.

"I certainly think," said Crown Attorney Curry, when questioned on this point by the reporter, "that there should be a special act covering Christian Science and all such other fad doctrines, that are getting so dangerously fashionable nowadays."

Section 209—"Any person who has charge of any other person, who by reason of detention, age, sickness, insanity or any other cause to withdraw himself from such a charge, and unable to provide himself with the necessaries of life is, whether such charge is undertaken by him under law or by reason of his unlawful act, under a legal duty to supply that person with the necessaries of life, and is criminally responsible for omitting without lawful excuse to perform such duty, if the death of such person is caused by, or his life endangered, or his health has been or is likely to be permanently injured by such omission.

210—(2) "Everyone who is under a legal duty to provide necessaries for his wife, is criminally responsible for omitting without lawful excuse so to do, if the death of his wife is caused, or if her life is endangered or her health is or is likely to be permanently injured by such omission."

212—"Every one who undertakes (except in cases of necessity) to administer surgical or medical treatment, or do any other lawful act, the doing of which is, or may be, dangerous to life, is under a legal duty to have and use such reasonable knowledge skill and care in doing any such act, and is criminally responsible for omitting without lawful excuse to discharge that duty if death is caused by any such omission."

215—"Every one is guilty of an indictable offence, and liable to three years imprisonment, who, being bound to perform any duty specified in sections 209, 210 and 211, without lawful excuse, neglects or refuses to do so."

223—"No one is criminally responsible for the killing of another by any influence on the mind alone nor for the killing of another by any disorder or disease arising from such influence, save in either case by wilfully frightening a child or sick person."

225—"Every one who by any act or omission causes the death of another, kills that person, although death from that cause might have been prevented by resorting to proper means."

HOCKEY GOSSIP.

What the Puck Chasers Are Doing, or Are Going to Do.

To-night's Trent Valley game between Campbellford and T.A.S. should attract one of the largest crowds of the season. Both teams have their eye on the championship and both are playing nice hockey and a fast contest should ensue.

Last night's victory over Lindsay leaves the standing of the club's in this district as follows—

	Won	Lost
Peterborough	4	1
Lindsay	2	2
Port Perry	0	3

Belleville will be here on Thursday night to meet the juniors in an O. H.A. game. It is the first home league contest of the season. The locals must win to keep in the running.

The City League games scheduled for Thursday night have been postponed until Thursday, Feb. 2nd, on account of the Peterborough Belleville junior O.H.A. game called for that night.

To-night's Trent Valley game between Campbellford and T.A.S. should be a fast exhibition. The local team must win to keep in the running. Campbellford is running a special train, and will have a large crowd of supporters with them. The T.A.S. team will be as follows:—

Goal—Clancy.
Point—Meagher.
Cover point—Quigley.
Rover—Deforge.
Centre—T. McGrath.
Right Wing—Rose.

"Sandy" Barrows, of Belleville, will handle the bell. He has a good reputation as a referee.

Lindsay, of course, sent the wrong score to the Toronto papers. They made it 11—5 instead of 13—5.

The local juniors must win their three home games to have a chance for the district, and they are going to start off with a victory over Belleville on Thursday night. It will be a great game. The two teams met before on Belleville ice, the Bay City bunch winning after a hard fight by 7—5. The locals are going to wipe out the defeat on Thursday night.

If Peterborough wins out to-night they will in all probability win the district, but they are not going to win.—Last evening's Post.

The Karnots will play the Sideside club in the Brock-st. rink to-morrow, Wednesday evening from 5.45 to 6.45 ad these following players are requested to be on hand at 5.30 p.m. sharp—Dormer, Quinn, Gilman, Campbell, Mulhern, Grose and Kingscote.

The Triangular Success Club hockey team journeyed to Keene last night and were defeated by a junior team of that village by 6 goals to 2.

Best "Happy Thoughts" defeated a picked team from Hickey's Terriers and Barrie's Bedelias at the Brock-st. rink last night by 4 to 3. It is said to have been a wild exhibition.

The Marguerites challenge the Riversides to a game as soon as the rink can be procured.

Picton won from Cobourg in a Trent Valley game at Picton last night by 4—3.

OBITUARY.

MINNIE CUNCANNON.

Another bright young life has been untimely cut off in the death of Minnie Coral Cuncannon, daughter of Mr. John Cuncannon, Sherbrooke-st., which unhappy event occurred last night at 12 o'clock. The deceased was fourteen years of age. She had been ill for about two months with rheumatism and pneumonia, and her death was not unexpected. The sympathy of the community will go out to the bereaved parents.

The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, from the family residence, 404 Sherbrooke-st., to the Little Lake cemetery.

KEENE STRONG FOR MR. MOORE

Splendid Meeting Held in His Interests.

AUDIENCE CHEER HEARTILY.

Good Policy to Support Mr. Whitney and Honest Government—Mr. R. M. Dennistoun Speaks.

In spite of the side attraction of a hockey match, there was a full house at the meeting in Keene last night in the interests of Mr. H. A. Moore, the Liberal-Conservative candidate. The speakers of the evening were Mr. Joshua Smithson, who presided, Dr. J. M. Shaw and Mr. R. M. Dennistoun. The meeting was enthusiastic, frequent applause punctuating the speeches, and evidencing an appreciative spirit on the part of the audience, which augurs well for the prospect of victory on January 25th.

Mr. Smithson delivered a forcible speech in opening, in which he condemned corruption which has disgraced the name of Ontario and caused the finger of scorn to be pointed at it in the United States and Europe. He requested the members of both political parties to unite at this time in electing Mr. Moore, who was the candidate for good, clean government.

Doctor J. M. Shaw followed in a fifteen minute address in which he discussed the qualifications of the candidates, and pointed to the large number of leading Liberals throughout the country who are supporting Mr. Whitney. He quoted from the Rev. Mr. Hossack's letter and closed with a well-chosen appeal to the electors for the return of Mr. Moore.

No opposition appearing on behalf of Mr. Anderson, Mr. R. M. Dennistoun reviewed the general issues of the campaign in an hour's speech, the frequent applause of the audience marking the points as they were scored against the Government. In particular, Mr. Dennistoun pointed out that the Township of Otonabee is the one upon whose broad back the majority of County taxation falls, and that the numerous Government roads and bridges can only be maintained by Government aid, unless a very heavy burden is imposed upon the County tax payer. The election of Mr. Anderson as an opponent of the Whitney Government would be an intimation to Mr. Whitney that no assistance was required or expected in these matters by East Peterborough. The riding had been represented by a Government for nearly thirty years and the wisdom of that course was admitted. The same reason was now good policy on the part of the electors to support Mr. Moore in preference to Mr. Anderson.

Cheers for the King, Mr. Whitney and the candidate brought the meeting to a close.

For Over Sixty Years

An old and well-tried remedy.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Sold by all druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

WHY NOT?

Why not have something worth while to do during these long evenings. Passepartout some pictures either for yourself or your friends. It is an easy work and one that is profitable and pleasant. These pictures make nice birthday or wedding presents, and are always acceptable. Everything needed may be bought at the Review office. New embossed boards in white and cream, also all shades of mountings in all weights, pretty pictures in sepia and colors, passepartout in all shades — these are all on sale at the Review Stationery Department.

PERSONAL

Mr. F. A. Clark has returned from a business trip to Toronto.

The illness of Mrs. Robert Howden still continues to be very serious and little hope is entertained of her recovery.

Mrs. Harry Trotter and little son, of Peterborough, have returned home, after a brief visit with town friends.—Lindsay Post.

Miss Emily Dayell, town, has returned after enjoying a pleasant visit with Mrs. David Patterson and other friends in Lindsay.

Ald. R. H. Leary, was in Prince Edward County yesterday and purchased for his livery, two very fine matched teams, one cream and the other bay.

Mr. John Collins, Durham street, and his little daughter, Kathleen, Lindsay, paid a flying visit to Peterborough and Ennismore during the past week.

LITTLE LOCAL LINERS

—The 25th Regiment of St. Thomas on Friday night last tendered a farewell to Mr. E. Chadwick, of that city, who is leaving for Montreal. In a report of the send-off given Mr. Chadwick, the St. Thomas Times says—"Lieut. Alf. Smith, of the 57th Regiment, Peterborough, was also present, and expressed regret at the departure of Mr. Chadwick. Mr. Smith is a new citizen of St. Thomas and it is likely will be transferred from the 57th Regiment to the 25th in the near future.

—A despatch from Kincardine refers to the death of a gentleman who some years ago resided in this vicinity, and says: Mr. J. B. Ritchie, an old resident of this town, died very suddenly yesterday. He had been living with a son on the farm, a distance of three miles from town, and after walking into town was seen to fail, and on being raised life was found to be extinct. Mr. Ritchie was a native of Ireland and came to Canada when a boy, settling near Peterborough. He came to Kincardine in 1860 and has resided here since. He leaves four sons and one daughter, Walter, at home; Nelson a civil engineer, at Winnipeg; M. J. and Charles, living in the States.

What We Are Doing This Week.

The Golden Lion's Unreserved Stock Reduction Sal goes merrily on. All Winter Goods are headed one way—toward the front door. All our prices lean one way—toward you.

All week long (or as long as the goods hold out) we'll be cutting prices to make quick sales. Supposing you are economizing along without some of these Goods, We have to clear them sometimes. Why not now, when you'd soonest have them? Everything Fair's quality:—
